

[November 7, 1944]

HEADQUARTERS, EIGHTH AIR FORCE SERVICE COMMAND, England -- At this headquarters, through which is handled the supply and maintenance of Eighth Air Force heavy bombers, now flying almost daily missions over occupied Europe, Sgt. Margaret D. Theriault, Marquette, Mich., is assigned to the Public Relations Office.

A graduate of Northern Michigan College of Education, Marquette, she was employed as a Language Instructor at Charlevoix School District, Charlevoix, Mich., before entering the service in February, 1943. The Air War received basic training at Fort Devens, Mass. Sergeant Theriault was assigned to Intelligence section, McPhord Army Air Field, Washington, prior to coming to England.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. DeMerse, 125 E. Arch St., Marquette, her husband, Pfc Robert J. Theriault is in the Army.

end

