U. S. Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Tex.- Fifteen former students of Northern Michigan College of Education are now in training at the U. S. Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Answering Uncle Sam's call for flyers, these youths have joined thousands of other college students and graduates enlisting as aviation cadets in the U. S. Naval Reserve. A glance at the cadet roster here at the "University of the Air" shows men from nearly every college in America, with every talent and accomplishment represented.

These well trained minds in sound bodies help to make Navy pilots the No. 1 fighting men they are.

The Northern Michigan College of Education students now at the U. S. Naval Air Station are, Olin E. Krieg, Clarence E. Magoon, Blake L. Foard, Norman E. Kukuk, Robert F. Johnson, Thomas J. Fagan, and Albert W. Nyquist, all of Marquette, Mich.
