

[n.d.]

PRESS SECTION
PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE
HQ, AFWESPAC
APO 707, San Francisco, Calif.

LUZON, P. I. --- Captain William N. Koski, 33, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Koski, 309 Center street, Marquette, Michigan, has arrived in the Philippines where he is serving as supply officer of the Engineer section of Major General Frederick Gilbreath's new Army Service Command. Captain Koski had a similar assignment at the New Caledonia headquarters of the South Pacific Base Command, then under General Gilbreath.

Inducted in November, 1940, Captain Koski was commissioned in September, 1942 at the Corps of Engineers officer candidate school, Fort Belvoir, Virginia. In November of that year he came overseas. He has three brothers also in the armed forces, Sergeant Paul I. Koski, with the AAF in Texas; and Lieutenants (j. g.) Emil T. Koski and Arthur E. Koski, both with the Navy in the Western Pacific.

A graduate of Marquette's Northern Michigan college where in 1935 he received a bachelor of arts degree, Captain Koski was employed in civilian life by the Columbia Radiator company, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. His wife and two-year-old daughter, Anne Archer Koski, live at 323 Crescent avenue, Jackson, Tennessee.

-RCF-

