Preliminary Halloween Plans Set

Preliminary plans for Halloween activities for high school and elementary children were made at a meeting held Monday night of the committee representing the Neegaunee Business and Professional Association and public and parochial schools.

Present at the session, which was held in the office of Bruce K. Nelson, high school principal, were Rev. Fr. Howard V. Drolet, Leo J. Cory and John O. McKeown, representing the NBPBA; William Thompson and Donald Anderson, representing the Neegaunee High student council; Miss Ellen Beale, representing the Junior high; William Maki, Youth Center delegate and Nelson.

tentative plans call for a costume parade, which will start at the school and will be immediately followed by a program for high school students in the high school auditorium and reception for elementary children in the Central Grade School. Following the event scheduled for the two schools a dinner will be held at the Youth Center.

The NBPBA at its September meeting voted an appropriation to not exceed $50 to obtain prizes which will be awarded to the various sections of the costume parade and the various costumed games.

Complete details regarding the Halloween program will be announced as soon as they have been completed.

Special Events Net Polo Fund $160

Special events sponsored by the John L. Mitchell American Legion post and its Auxiliary netted a total of $160 for the emergency net fund. It was revealed this week.

A benefit card party last week brought in $250 plus a general fund of $500 from one of the extension groups making a grand total of $750. Contributions by firms at the forthcoming Neegaunee football game Saturday night amounted to $90.

Legion and Auxiliary officers wish to thank members of the Junior drum and bugle corps who aided in the football collection, and all persons who have aided and aided party or made donations at the game.

Dighera Asks Check-up Of Local Homes During Fire Prevention Week

A single afternoon or evening will be enough time to find your home of the most common fire hazards, Fire Chief Thomas Dighera said today in urging local citizens to join in the nationwide observance of Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 9 to 15.

"The first step is to clean out the cellar," the chief said. "Most families have stacks of old magazines, newspapers, old coats, and even pieces of furniture stacked away down there."

"All it takes is a spark from the stove or a cigarette, or a second or third on a lamp or a stopped cigarette to start a fire in the cellar. Once it is started, it is practically difficult to bring under control if you have had no plan of escape, and you would also have to re-survey your house."

"Let's have a danger spot," the chief said.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters estimates that one out of every 100 homes has a "danger spot," he said. "By cleaning up your home this week, you may avoid it from burning the next week."

The chief also suggested three "Seven Steps to Fire Safety":

1. Have the complete heating and ventilating system checked occasionally by an experienced repairman.
2. Have the complete heating and ventilating system checked every two years and running the oil burner safe, as this causes dangerous carbon deposits on heat exchanger coils.
3. Always call an experienced electrician for repairs. Do not change electric "home handyperson" but use repairmen for all electrical work.
4. Have a metal screen in front of the fire to guard against flying sparks.
5. Never clean with gasoline. Do not use kerosene for cleaning. Do not clean with turpentine. Do not clean with benzene.
6. In addition to these specific steps, the chief suggested that citizens handling of electrical work in the home.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. T. Collins; his sister, Mrs. Ann Harrison, and three brothers, Roy, Harold, Neegaunee, Truman, Leland and Samuel, Chicago.

Full brothers are Guy Dowd, John and Norman, D. D. Dowd, John Collins, Jackson, Collins, and Edmund Kemp.

Military rites were conducted in the graveyard by the American Legion. Burial was made in the Neegaunee cemetery.

Assembly Numbers, Parties, Concerts On School Agenda

In addition to their regular school work, Neegaunee students will have a number of special activities during several extra curricular activities in their agenda, the estimator of the chief announced recently.

Highlighting the calendar are two special school assemblies, scheduled for November 4 and November 16, and various class and school parties. The football party is slated for October 28 and will be followed three nights later by Halloween stunt night. Several parties will hold their class parties on November 4, the sophomore party is scheduled for November 11, and the eighth grade party has been set for November 18.

The JLC club will hold its annual dance on November 23 and the mill school party will be held December 6.

Three more football games will be scheduled, the Miners traveling to Houghton this weekend meeting Marquette here next week and closing the season with Chippewas here on October 21. Neegaunee will open its basketball season with a two day trip to the western part of the Upper Peninsula, passing Ironwood on November 22 and Benesse the following night.

In the field of music, two concerts are listed for the first semester, the sixth concert on December 11 and the high school choir concert on December 18.

School will close for Christmas vacation on Thursday, December 22, and the students will return to classes on Monday, Jan. 2, 1950. Semester examinations will start on January 20.

School Boom

The Michigan Mirror, non-partisan state news letter which appears this week in the Iron Herald on page 2, tells the timely story of Neegaunee public schools.

More money, more teachers, more children, better paid teachers, more school construction — that's the October picture as given in an exclusive interview with Dr. Lee M. Thompson, state superintendent of public instruction.

WORK OF THE MOOSE

A meeting of the Moose of St. Michaels will be held at 7:30 Tuesday night in the Moose Hall.

ST. CHARLES

The meeting of the P. C. club will be held at 7:30 Wednesday night in the home of Mrs. Albert Jansen.

School will close for Christmas vacation on Thursday, December 22, and the students will return to classes on Monday, Jan. 2, 1950. Semester examinations will start on January 20.

Why Are Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company Miners Idle?

Let's Get The Facts Straight!

1) The Company refused to accept the Board's recommendation as a basis for settlement.

2) The Company offered no pension plan to its employees. They merely obligated themselves under their proposal to talk about pensions until April 30, 1950, the expiration of the present agreement between the Company and the Union, and

3) The only binding part of the entire proposal made by the Company is that if the Company should choose to agree to a welfare and pension program, then such program could not be put into effect without first extending the present Agreement between the parties to April 30, 1951.

The Union refused to take for their membership a pig-in-the-poke in place of what is considered fair and equitable by the Fact-Finding Board appointed by the President of the United States.

The Company's statement that its offer was acceptable to the local Unions is not true.

The Union offered to settle on the basis of the Fact-Finding Board's recommendation and offered a Supplemental Agreement containing nothing more than what the Board recommended. This the Company refused to sign, and in its place they proposed an agreement that contained nothing more than just plain double talk.

This is what they proposed in simple and understandable language. That the Union and the Company sit down and talk about pensions until the present Agreement between the parties expires on April 30, 1950. That the Union agree in advance of the expiration of the Agreement that the Company may put into effect not later than that time, if they so choose to do so, a pension plan that will automatically extend the Agreement between the parties to April 30, 1951. In other words, no pensions for the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company employees unless the Company wishes to agree to one, and then only to the extent that the Agreement be further extended until April 30, 1951. This does not give the miners the pension they want.

The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company employees want pensions and will not accept as a substitute a piece of paper that contains nothing more than paragraphs of garbled up language.

Why Are Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company Miners Idle?

Because national headquarters of the Union refused to permit the local unions to enter into an agreement negotiated between the locals and the Company.

What Were The Terms Of The Company's Offer Which Were Acceptable To The Local Unions?

On Friday morning, September 30th, the Company proposed the following:

That it be the aim of the Union and the Company to provide a mutually satisfactory program for life, accident, health, medical and hospital insurance benefits, and to provide a mutually satisfactory pension and retirement program.

That the Company contribute towards these purposes 10 cents per hour per employee, less credits for similar payments the Company is already making, subject to the working out of a mutually acceptable basis of apportioning such amount to the above purposes. Whether contributions are to be made by our employees towards such programs, and if so to what extent, shall be subject to negotiation between the Union and the Company.

The Company and the Union will start a joint study of such programs, each of which shall become effective as soon as agreed upon, and upon agreement to both sides between the Union and the Company shall be extended one year to terminate April 30, 1951.

the Company.

The Company and the Union will start a joint study of such programs, each of which shall become effective as soon as agreed upon, and upon agreement to both sides. The Union and the Company shall be extended one year to terminate April 30, 1951.

Why Was This Agreement Not Entered Into Between The Union And The Company?

Because on Friday afternoon, September 30th, the Company was advised that the local unions would not be permitted to deviate from the Union's national policy demands and a strike would be called starting 12:01 A. M. Saturday, October 1st.

Who Is Responsible For This Strike?

Newspaper reports state that identical telegrams to the local unions have been sent from national headquarters of the Union stating:

"This strike has been forced upon the Union and the American people by the Company. The responsibility for this strike rests entirely upon the Company."

The Company is ready to execute the above outlined agreement with the Union as soon as the local unions are permitted by the National Union to carry out such agreement.

If this were done the miners would no longer be idle.

Hon. Chairman and members of Mex. Co. Bd. of Supervisors, Marquette County, Mich.
 Gentlemen:

We herewith submit the report for work done in the Veterans' Referral Agency during August, 1949.

Thirty-one people called at the office, all veterans of World War II, and number of whom were new contacts. Six of this number were referred to the Veterans' Administration, three to the Department of Social Welfare, one to the Michigan Crippled Children's Clinic and twenty-one made application to the Michigan Veterans' Trust Fund for help with food, and payment of hospital and doctor bills. Because of the recent food and fire disaster in Michigan and Negaunee, the Trust Fund was called upon to work with other agencies in extending relief to veterans' families in that area.

The Agency also supplied a number of veterans with applications for special dividends on the National Life Insurance policies, and assistance given in completing them when needed.

Very truly yours,
 RUTH F. ZERBEL,
 Director, Veterans Referral Agency
