Sammy Kaye Changes Pace

By INEZ GERHARD WHEN SAMMY KAYE entered W college he was headed for a civil engineering degree. But long before he was graduated he had formed a college hands offer to formed a college band; after he left he kept the crew together, radio called, and his famous "swing and sway" style soon became a national favorite. No other bandleader has brought so many different types of air shows to the networks. His "Sunday Serenade," music interspersed with readings music interspersed with readings of poetry, was in direct contrast to "So You Want to Lend a Band." "Sammy Kayo's Showroom," on ABC, presents his crisp versions of popular songs. Now he admits that its success has made him start planning a new one, for later this Someone with a statistical mind sat down and figured out that more women named Mary have been picked as "Queen for a Day" than picked as "Queen for a Day" than those with any other name. Rating second on Jack Bailey's hilarious program is Betty, followed by Alice, Helen, Ruth and Ann. Some that stretch the imagination have been recorded on the program— such as Maigorgate, Gummel, An-jani and Minal.

By Jarvis

Up in The Air An author got into an elevator and continued his conversation with a friend about a story he had just written.

"So I got my knife and killed her," he said. "Of course I was careful to wipe off all fingerprints with a handkerchief."

Just then the elevator stopped and the two men got off and left the wide-eyed passengers wonder-ing what to do about the situation

Frop man trying Stradler's name usually appears in Samual Gold-wyn productions—on store-floates, street signs, in a variety of other places. But it won't appear in Gold-wyn's new RKO release, "Rose-anna McCoy", because the product of the story is 1800, and, Sandter explains, that was some years before his ancestors emigrated to America. Alfred Hitchcock, a stickler for authenticity, provided genuine old Brown Bess muskets which were used at the Battle of Waterloo for use by soldiers in a military core-mony in his new picture, "Under Capricorn,"

Tom Ewell, Breadway comedy find who made his motion pic-ture debut in Paramount's Pacemaker shorts, has been east as a "Man Friday" to Bing Crosby in Paramount's "Mr. Muste", which will go before the cameras soon.

Groucho Marx, who brings his "You Bet Your Life" to CBS Octor 9, recently did a play-by-play description of a bonefit baseball game between teams of Hollywood stars which threw the fans into a dither. He spent his vacation close to his Beverty Hills home, bying soil, doing benefit shows a ball game.

"Lux Radio Theatre", launched October 14, 1934, celebrates its 15th anniversary on the air October 17. It has never stopped growing, is said to have established itself as a Monday night listening habit for 30 million Americans.

Any radio program that can attract an audience at eight o'clock in the morning must have a pretty loyal following, "Junior Miss" goes on CBS at eight Saturdays, from Hollywood, and the studio is crowded, mostly with teen-agers.
