Ready To Record Calls

Pictured above adjusting the automatic telephone answering device at Paim Bottled Gas is Miss Joan Messier, secretary, prior to closing of office for the day, The "silent secretary," will automotically record any messages that come in via the telephone following the end of the business day and Miss. Messier will play them back to obtain information callers desired to leave when she returns to work the next morning. The device is the only one its type in Negaunce, it was especially designed for business con-cerns by Michigan Bell Telephone Company engineers.

Automatic Answering 'Phone Device Installed At Palm Gas signed by Michigan Den Tele-'phone Company engineers de-signed to answer incoming calls with a recorded announcement and arranged to permit the re-cording of a 28 second reply.

Principal purpose of the equip-ment is to accept incoming tele-phone calls that may be made by persons attempting to contact Palm Gas during hours when the concern is not ordinarily

Twenty such messages can be Twenty such messages can be secured before the capacity of the machine is reached and it automatically stops operating. However, if some of the replies are shorter than the maximum 28 seconds, additional messages

Neoprene drums are used to record the messages and can be used indefinitely by electrically "erasing" announcement and message after each playback, or after the drum has been filled

The recorded greeting in-forms each caller how long the person he is attempting to con-tact will be absent, and asks the caller to dictate whatever message he wants to leave.

Each morning the complete record of any calls received at the Palm concern following the close of the office the preceding day are played back.

The Ishpeming man asked Larson if he was all right and received an affirmative answer. Felttried to grab Larson, who was several feet from the boat, but the Negaunce township resident went down again and never came back to surface.

Mr. Larson is surveyed by brothers.

The body was taken to the Bjork & Zhulkie Fhneral Home where friends may call after noon on Friday, It will be removed at 11 a.m. Saturday to St John's Episcopal church, Nega-John's Episcophi church, Nega-unee where services will be held at 2 p.m., with Ben Helmer, lay minister, officinting, Burial will be made in the family let in the Negaunce cemetery.

Annual School Meeting Scheduled Monday; No Opponent For Richards

With no opposition for the second consecutive year, only a smull percentage of eligible Negaunce voters are expected to cast ballots in the annual school election here next Mouday.

Seeking his fifth consecutive term on the board of education is Leslie W. Richards, who during the past year has served as secretary of the group.

Plan Free Gate Again This Year At UP State Fair year there will be free gate at the Upper Peninsula State Fair, August 23-28.

No admission charge will be made to the grounds at any time during the six days of the exposition, according to N. J. Niks, chairman or the Fair board of managers, The U. P. State Fair is one of the few such events in the nation to offer a free gate.

A nominal charge for auto-mobile parking will be made. In parking lots the charge will be 25 cents per car; while the charge for truck privilege for the week on the grounds will be six dollars.

The fair grounds this year will present a new and sparkling ap-pearance, with the big grand-stand and many of the buildings receiving a fresh coat of paint.

The largest structure on the grounds, the grandstand, is 372 feet long and 66 feet wide and seats more than 4,600 persons.

Total area of the fair grounds is approximately 90 acres.
There are 15 major buildings containing exhibits, demonstrations and displays that create the show window of the Upper

Besides the grandstand there is the exhibition building, industrial building, large and small cattle barn and the 4-H cattle barn, the horse barn, 4-H dormtory, model milk house, speadbarn, stables, 4-H dining half and administration office

Mr. Richards a member of the staff at Jones and Laughlin Co. was first named to the board by the school electorate back in 1943 During the 12 years he has been At UP State Fair a member of the board he has
