The Only Paper in the World that gives a darn about Negaunee
THE CLEANEST CITY OF ITS SIZE IN AMERICA

District Governor Olive, of Trearney, presents City Manager George E. Mohelbeck, Jr., King Lion of the new Negaunee club with the local unit's charter at the Charter Night Saturday at the Wawonawoo Golf Club. Seated facing the camera are Mrs. Olive and Atty. Thomas Flannagan, who was chairman of the Charter Night committee.

"Be Active," Kugler Tells Local Lions At Charter Night

Members of the new Negaunee Lions Club were urged to be active in programs designed to help others in the community, especially children, by Morris A. Kugler, International Director, at their charter night Saturday at the Wawonawoo Golf Club.

Kugler told the Negaunee Lions they must either be Lions or joiners, as there is no room in Lionism for those that are simply joining another organization.

"There are three types of people," the International Director stated: "those that think about doing, those that do and those that talk about the accomplishments after the job is done." Lions represent those who do.

He urged the Negaunee unit to embark upon a program of community betterment and civic improvement. He pointed out that because of their international scope, Lions were in a particularly good position to do an effective job of combating communism and that within the United States they were heart and soul behind the program to combat juvenile delinquency.

"Write me talks about juvenile delinquency, I don't believe that in our country it is a case of juvenile delinquency, as much as it is adult delinquency," Kugler said.

"It is adults that write the comics and other literature these youngsters read. It is adults that prepare our motion pictures; and it is adults that are responsible for the television and radio programs from which the children receive many of their ideas."

"To give you an illustration of a survey of more than 10,000 prisoners in the state penitentiary in Illinois showed that only 100 had ever been Boy Scouts. It were conceivable that you, Negaunee delinquents, let's get closer to our youngsters, give them the companionship they need. We the leaders in sponsoring Scouts and other character building organizations."

In accepting the charter presented by Lions International, George Mohelbeck, Jr. president, pledged the Negaunee club to a program of the type outlined by Kugler.

"As president of the Negaunee Lions, I am asking the members to join with me in a pledge that our club will talk of and strive for loyalty, reciprocity and cooperation in community betterment and municipal growth," Mohelbeck said.

"We are organized so that there may be room for good fellowship, mutual help and so that our combined influence may be systematized, directed and utilized to effect the welfare and upbuilding of Negaunee."

"Conscientiously and loyally, you should set about to make a better place in which to live, and to do this we will willingly and earnestly join hands with all citizens or groups of citizens in any worthy undertaking."

"We cordially invite from, and we earnestly urge, to our organizations hearty cooperation in any and all aims for which we stand," Mohelbeck added.

"To an honest realization of these aims, the Lions Club of Negaunee dedicates itself, and the members modestly hope that someday it may be said our city is a better place in which to live, work and play, by virtue of its Lions Club," he concluded.

Born Cites Costs for 2 Programs

With the summer public schools maintenance and recreation programs drawing to a close, two projects to members of the Negaunee Board of Education at their August meeting Monday night.

According to the report of the superintendent, labor costs on the maintenance program have amounted to $2,476, where recreation expenditures have totaled $1,898. Supp. Born pointed out both of the programs have resulted in considerable aid to level students who are furthering their education at colleges and universities.

The school head informed the board that two of the four vacancies on the faculty had been filled and that the recommendations would be made on the other two positions at a special meeting of the board later in the week.

Accepted by the board was a bid of Wawonawoo Electric Co. of $165 for installation of a public address system in the school auditorium, and the business manager was authorized to purchase a new but better one from the firm submitting the lowest bid for complete job. Price quotations were received at the meeting from two concerns, one submitting a figure which included replacement of pipe, while the second did not stipulate whether its bid included the pipe.

In other business on the agenda, the board approved purchase of a steel door frame for the Lakeview School from Neely Lumber and Supp; authorized the superintendent to cooperate with the city manager in arranging for a new lot in the name of the school, which is to be used for recreation purposes; passed action upon the meeting minutes and other matters; and approved payment of July bills.

Negaunee Cited For Excellent Pedestrian Traffic Record In '54

Negaunee has been awarded a citation by the American Automobile Club for its record of no pedestrian deaths in 1954. Police Chief Arne Pynnönen was advised of this week in a letter received from Ernest Davis, director of the auto club safety and traffic division.

This marks the fifth year in a row that the municipality has been honored for its excellent record as far as pedestrian traffic is concerned. The last pedestrian traffic fatality in the city limits occurred on February 14, 1940.

2 Vacancies Filled on School Staff

Two of the four vacancies on the Negaunee Public Schools faculty for the 1955-56 school year have been filled and it is expected contracts for the remaining positions will be issued this week. E. W. Born, superintendent of schools revealed on Tuesday.

Approval was given by the Board of Education at its August meeting Monday night to employment of Donald Ellis and Victor Tolvinen.

Mr. Ellis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ellis, will serve as an elementary instructor at the Central Grade School, succeeding Mrs. Roate Beckman who resigned in June.

He is a native of Negaunee, a graduate of Negaunee High School and Northern Michigan College of Education. Marquette Ellis taught last year at Michigan State.

Mr. Tolvinen has been selected as a replacement for Gerald Henderson, who was a member of the industrial arts department staff. Henderson resigned in July when he decided to accept a teaching profession to accept a job with industry on the West Coast.

The new instructor who will come to Negaunee from Flint, previously taught in Lower Peninsula schools. He is married and has three children.

Remaining to be filled are the positions of first grade teacher in the Central Grade, where the large enrollment necessitates hiring an additional instructor for the coming year, and a home economics teacher to replace Miss Ruby Trathen, who submitted her resignation two weeks ago after 37 years in the local schools.

City Seeks Bids On New Police Car

City Council members were requested by the manager to authorize calling for bids on a new police car and a second unit for the fire hall at their regular August meeting last night.

Also on the agenda was final approval of the CCC third bid for the City of Negaunee. Tentative approval of a fourth addition which is planned at the corner of Chantry streets, resumption of monthly financial reports and a report by city comptroller on the library workshop.

The letter received by Chief Pynnönen from Mr. Davis reads as follows:

"It is my pleasure to inform you on behalf of the board of judges that the City of Negaunee is commended for its outstanding record of no pedestrian deaths as recorded in the AAA National Pedestrian Protection Contest sponsored by the American Automobile Association. My congratulations to you and your city."

Under separate cover we are sending you an award for excellent record of no pedestrian deaths in 1954 for the City of Negaunee.

"Many of our citizens may be interested in the improvement in pedestrian experience continues to be one of the bright spots in the urban picture. Since 1937, pedestrian deaths have decreased 40 percent. The number of pedestrian fatalities have increased 18 percent. There are clear national wide indications. But improvement of pedestrian protection is one of our most accomplishing valuable results."

"My best wishes for your continued leadership in this life-saving activity."

Ticket Sale Underway for Lockman Show

Exotic feats which have baffled law enforcement officers and members of citizens community from coast to coast will be demonstrated here Saturday night, August 20, when the Great Lakes Circus appears at the Negaunee High School auditorium in a performance sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3165, for the benefit of its building fund.

For years police officials have been trying to keep Dr. Earl Lockman, but it just can't be done. Various methods of restraint have been used in cities in all sections of the country including his focus on steel, iron, and handcuffs, but Lockman has managed to free himself from any and all types.

Lockman claims to be a trapeze in his accomplishments. He is a strong, muscular, and fit man that he keeps himself in perfect physical condition, and that his strength is built up as strong as a result of manipulating as many as 20 half-dolls at the same time.

His means and methods of escape were developed while traveling through the streets, and he is unbound with Hindu Rajas not by witnessing the uncanny acrobatic feats of the circus of Turkey, China and India.

UNWRITTEN LAWS

Whether "unwritten" laws and customs are enforceable under traffic laws. The respondent who has been convicted of making a left-hand turn on a yellow light, has argued that you are going to pass in front of a car which is moving. You are left to make a judgment as to whether you should stop or proceed. This case was heard and decided without jury trial. The court ruled in favor of the respondent - safely. New Water Consumption Records Set

New water consumption records were set by several Upper Peninsula cities, including Negaunee, during the month of June according to figures received by local officials from Negaunee Johnson, district engineer for the state health department.

Most figures from Marquette, St. Ignace and Sault Ste. Marie showed average pumpage per day to be higher than for any June since 1951 and, in the case of Negaunee, for any June since 1948. Averages reported from Bessemer, Escanaba, Gladstone, Marquette and Ontonagon appear to be higher than for the same month in periods as long as 19 years.

Of 13 cities for which previous figures were available, five showed June averages almost as high as for July of 1954, indicating that additional records will probably be revealed when July figures for this year become available.

Figures for maximum amount pumped in any one day were also the highest in several years. At L'Anse and Marquette, pumpage for a single day was the highest since 1951, at Sault Ste. Marie since 1948, at Marquette and Negaunee since 1948, and at Menominee since 1947.

Reports received by the health department showed the high days were the same in some places. At Escanaba, Gladstone, Marquette and Marquette, most water was pumped on June 17. The big day was June 27 at Marquette, Marquette and Negaunee, June 28 at Menominee and St. Ignace, and June 29 at Iron Mountain.

Water Crews Disinfecting New Mains

In accordance with Michigan Health Department regulations, disinfecting of water mains in the new Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co. third addition is being completed this week by municipal water or department employees, City Manager George B. Melnick, Jr., has announced.

Due to hydraulic pressure required to place the disinfectant in the new pipes, water in adjacent areas may appear slightly discolored, but there is no cause for local residents to be alarmed, as the water is not dirty, the manager reported.

The manager explained that ordinary requirements of householders result in water being drawn from approximately the upper third that flows through mains. There-

Strict Tests Through Every Process Assure Safety of Salk Polio Vaccine

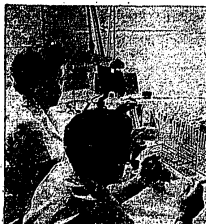

For the first time in history, a vaccine is protecting millions of human beings from paralytic polio. While the Salk vaccine will not work in every case, American children are being safeguarded against the dread disease, with no more risk than they would take in a vaccination against smallpox or a typhoid shot. The Salk vaccine must pass elaborate tests under the watchful eye of a government inspector at every stage of production. Then the final packaged vaccine is approved by the U.S. Public Health Service for distribution. Here are shown a few of the steps that assure American parents their children are being given a safe vaccine.

This technician is filtering dead cells and all other foreign matter from polio virus after it has grown on animal tissue in glass containers.

Virus in "cockle" in tank with formaldehyde (from bottles) until it is rendered harmless, after which it must pass exacting safety tests.

Animal tissue in tubes is inoculated with vaccine and let stand. If any live virus remains, it will multiply here, hence can be detected.

This expert is examining tissue after contact with vaccine to determine absence of live virus.

It's all over and it didn't hurt a bit! Salk vaccine makes this little girl safer now from paralytic polio. And her parents feel better too!

Local Youths Attend Camp For Engineers

Approximately 100 young men including two from this community, are summering in the West, gaining practical experience in civil engineering at the University of Michigan's Camp Davis.

Attending the camp from Ne-gaunee are James S. Collins, 115 East Case Street, and Robert G. Langlois, 109 Cyr Street, both highway engineering aides.

Located in the Jackson Hole-Teton Mountains area of Wyoming, the camp provides facilities for U-M civil engineering students taking the required field course and for recent high school graduates who are training to become highway engineering aides.

The program for high school graduates, now in its third year, is designed to attract young men into the highway engineering field. Forty-eight selected trainees receive a scholarship from the Michigan Road Builders' Association. The Department of Civil Engineering trains them in surveying during the eight-week course, and the Michigan State Highway Department employs them after they have completed the training course.

University students at Camp Davis divide their time between the classroom and the field, where they map and survey. They travel in small groups to study topography and rock formations in the surrounding area, and take several longer trips to national parks for further study.

eration of some of these bonds without mufflers on the likes of the county.

The committee recommends that the Sheriff advise persons registering such complaints that the County of Marquette is unable to maintain waterfront and personnel on every lake within the county and that the complainant person should swear out a complaint in Marquette County and the arrest will be made. Your Committee feels that the Sheriff's Department has sufficient personnel to handle the complaints.

2. Request for the hiring of an extra man for two to three weeks to complete the inspection of all lives within the county.

An investigation by this Committee reveals that there are about 1000 lives in the county. It is recommended that the Sheriff himself conduct these inspections while on other office business within the county. It is believed that these inspections can probably be made within two days.

3. Manner of handling requests from the various townships for extra police help during the Fourth of July holiday.

The Committee recommends that in the future, when specific requests are made by townships for extra police coverage during holidays that the Sheriff request the townships themselves to provide the necessary police protection through its own contribution.

"Light" Snack For Ducks

Coming back from Hillsville the other night I noticed a powerful light at Willey's Duck Farm. Seemed to be shining out over the water.

I stopped to ask Willey what was on. He took me down to his pond and pointed out a 200-watt light on a pole about three feet above the surface. The light was attracting thousands of insects for the ducks to eat.

Seemed kind of odd to me but Willey was enthusiastic. "That idea is over head of it," he said. "Keeps the feet bill down-and the bug population, too. Why do you suppose I never thought of it before?"

I told him where I sit, Willey's the place you always need to plan a worth-while new trick. Most of us are old methods. Just case of personal feeling, I guess... I like what you may prefer called with teeth while I always get a traditional glass of beer. Not that I'd claim your arrangement for the other man's opinion is my guiding light."

Police Chief Gives Warning On Solicitors

Chief Arno Pynnönen this week issued a warning to local residents to use a "qualified" list of solicitors from door-to-door solicitors, who are selling other merchandise or services.

Chief Pynnönen's advice was given to persons receiving by the police department from a list of "qualified" solicitors the type of work, price or product which they received in the past. He said that solicitors from out of town concern, who are not known to the community, are not "qualified" unless they are "hurred" before they call the "Chief Pynnönen said.

"We have an ordinance in Neagunee covering solicitors of peddlers, which requires them to post a bond with the city clerk and a police department.

"When you are engaged in a solicitation in the business district, it is easy enough to check them, but when they are engaged in a door-to-door solicitation, it is not so easy to check them, unless they voluntarily come in to present credentials, which reputable concerns do."

"We can only warn residents to use a 'qualified' list of solicitors to come to their homes, ask to see their credentials and then call the clerk's office or police station to see if they have been approved."

"And even if credentials seem in order, in the long run Neagunee residents will find it their saddest experience when they are not satisfied with the results of their purchase, where they can take their complaints if they are not satisfied," he added.

IGNORANT SUE DECEASED.
 It is Further Ordered, That public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of the order on three successive weeks previous to the day of hearing, in the NEAGUEE JOURNAL HERALD, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

Former Teacher

Invents Procedure For Chemistry Use

Donald D. Huchner, former Negaunee High School Science instructor, is the inventor of a chemical analyzer, a piece of equipment that can be used accurately in predicting over 80,000 chemical reactions.

An extensive knowledge of inorganic or physical chemistry is not required for effective operation of the scientific instrument, which accurately predicts chemical oxidation reduction reactions and gives their standard potentials.

Construction of the predictor consists of four plastic discs; two containing oxidation reactions and their potentials; the others containing respective reduction reactions and potentials. By aligning defined oxidation reaction with a complete reduction reaction, the resulting equation is positive, the reaction can occur; a negative potential will indicate that the reaction will not take place.

The predictor can be used in completing equations, as an aid in balancing equations, calculating equivalent weights, free energy of reactions, and changes in potential at different potential concentration.

Huchner, former chemistry teacher at Negaunee High School, resigned his position as a member of the local faculty to accept an offer as a civilian instructor with the Army. He is currently a member of the University of Illinois faculty, teaching chemistry at Navy Pier in Chicago.

Grid Practice Begins Here Next Monday

Faced with practically a complete rebuilding job, Roger Grove, new Negaunee High football coach, will have his first look at Maize and Blue grid aspirants Saturday morning, when conditions will report at 9:30 at the high school gymnasium for physical examinations.

Grove disclosed today that equipment will be handed out immediately following completion of physicals, and plans will be made at that time for the opening practice session Monday.

In accordance with Michigan High School Athletic Association policy, the former Michigan State team has three weeks in which to prepare his charges for their opening tilt on Saturday night, Sept. 5, at Stroh Stadium. While all coaches are faced with the same limited training period, Grove's task is a little tougher than the majority this fall, as all of the line and three of the backs from the 1934 club, one of the biggest in Maize and Blue history, are missing this fall.

Lost through graduation were Owen Marjinen and James Laitinen, ends; Jim Collins, tackle; Marvin Saar and Dave Harjo, guards; Dave Voleto, center; Roger St. John at the signal calling post; Dick Werhman, blocking back; and Bill White full-back. In addition, Jim Cronson, a regular tackle last fall, is ineligible because of the state now ruling.

That leaves Grove with one holdover, Tommy Hares, a hard training halfback who also handled the Maize and Blue passing duties. Replacements, who saw much action last fall, are limited to a pair of backs, Bob Herman and Bill Jerry and line-man Leslie Chmi.

Negaunee plays an eight game schedule this fall, meeting the same clubs it did a year ago.

The schedule follows:
Saturday, Sept. 3—at Strohberg, (8:00 p.m.)
Saturday, Sept. 10—at Newberry, (2:00 p.m.)
Friday, Sept. 16—Manistiquet

Sports Powwow From the

"That advertising slogan, 'Something New Has Been Added,' probably best describes the situation that will prevail Monday when Roger Grove gets together with candidates for the 1936 Negaunee High Senior football team. Grove is the 'New' Maize and Blue grid mentor succeeding Don Hoff, he undoubtedly will formulate a system that is 'New' to the boys, and he will have a practically 'New' club, as only Tommy Hares returns from the 1934 variety.

Although the State Athletic Association sets a maximum of 18 days practice prior to a high school's opening game, it is hardly sufficient time when a coach is faced with a rebuilding task comparable to that. Grove encounters at Negaunee this fall in addition to Hares, the new Maize and Blue coach can list only Bobby Herman, who he totals his veteran material. Other boys, who are returning and make brief appearances in the Miners lineup last fall, include Billy Kivy, Louie Chmi, Roger Jennings and David Lahti, but at Negaunee, (8:00 p.m.)

Saturday, Sept. 24—Negaunee at Manistiquet, (2:15 p.m.)
Saturday, Oct. 1—Inpeming at Negaunee, (8:00 p.m.)
Friday, October 7—Negaunee at Houghton, (8:00 p.m.)
Friday, October 14—Negaunee at Negaunee, (8:00 p.m.)
Friday, October 21—Calumet at Negaunee, (8:00 p.m.)

their experience was not enough to classify them as veterans.

Local fans will probably see the Maize utilize a much more diversified system of attack than that employed the last two seasons under Coach Don Hoff. With one of the biggest lines in the Peninsula, Hoff's charges stuck pretty much to straight football, gaining their yardage up the middle or on off tackle plays with an occasional pass thrown in. Grove learned his football at Michigan State under Harry Blake and 'Sleepy Jim' Crowley, the Spartans featuring the Michigan version of the single wing and the Notre Dame shift at the time. In addition, as a result of professional experience and his tenure at Washington State, he has become familiar with the T and Split.

Grove's high school coaching record has been phenomenal and with little back in the way of experienced material it will be a miracle if he can maintain his previous average here this season. In eight years as a high school grid mentor, six at Alton, Ill., and two at Clarion, Pa., he has an overall record of 782, which means his teams have won better than 7 out of every 10 games played. At Alton his percentage was 816, and he has won four grid titles, and finished second in their conference twice.

Grid Season Opens Monday

Tommy Hares, left, and Roger Grove, new Negaunee grid mentor, check headgear and other equipment in the stock room prior to the start of the 1936 season Monday. Hares is the only member of the 1934 starting eleven returning this fall.
