Police Chief Gives Labor Day Warning

Police Chief Arno Pynnonen today urged local residents to drive with extra care over the Labor Day weekend, final holiday of the summer season.

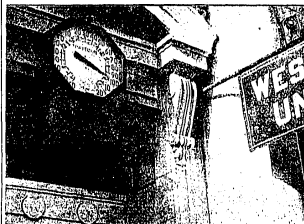

Pointing out that if weather conditions are favorable traffic over the Labor Day weekend is generally heavier of the season, Chief Pynnonen asked that drivers use common sense to avoid accidents. "Get an early start wherever you intend to drive, so that you don't have to hurry, use care in passing cars and don't let impatience cause you to take foolish chances," the police chief said.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs joined in the warning. "Many persons take advantage of this weekend for the season's final indoor trip," he said. "Others are chasing summer cottages and bringing children back home to school.

Too often drivers try to travel unpatriated, all state troopers will be on duty and his force will be augmented by some National Guard members.

To keep highways adequately Guard members.

What A Difference

Residents sweltered in the heat last Friday when the Iron Herald photographer snapped this picture as the mercury approached the 101 mark, highest of the summer, on the Pioneer Agency Building thermometer. Early yesterday morning the same thermometer registered only 78 degrees.

City Public, Parochial Pupils Resume Classes Next Tuesday Morning

Heralding the end of the annual summer vacation for more than 1,000 Negaunee children, school bells will ring next Tuesday morning, when classes convene in the Negaunee Public and St. Paul Parochial systems for the start of the 1955-56 school year.

Students in all grades, elementary through high school, are scheduled to report an opening day. Junior and senior high pupils in the public schools will report at 8:30 a.m., with elementary students convening at 9 o'clock. An abbreviated schedule of classes will be held in the high school with classes starting immediately following an 8:30 assembly program and dismissal slated for 12 noon. Trehear will discuss the important role the teacher can play in guiding youth development of people attitudes required for success in industry as well as for living in a democratic society.

Following the keynote address there will be three educational films shown by D. J. McDonald, and upon completion of the films a general faculty meeting is scheduled, Tuesday night from 7 to 8. Faculty members will meet in their respective school buildings.

Take Youngsters Over School Route, Pynnonen Tells Parents

Police Chief Arne Pynnonen, Wednesday urged parents who will have children entering school for the first time this fall, to take the youngsters over the route they will travel from home several times before next Tuesday in order to familiarize them with traffic hazards they may encounter.

Pointing out that it is a brand new experience for the children, he emphasized that they should be fully acquainted with traffic dangers.

"They have been constantly warned from the time they walked to stay away from the streets, and now it becomes necessary for them to cross the thoroughfares," he said. "Parents should instruct them how to do it properly, to look both ways for approaching vehicles and let them pass before attempting to cross. It should be emphasized to children they should never step out from behind parked vehicles; if they encounter traffic lights on the way to school they should obey the signals; and at intersections where there are officers, they should always obey their commands."

In the case of other grade school children, he urged parents to review for the youngsters the four basic commands to stop, look, wait and walk.

"It's time," Chief Pynnonen added, "to place renewed emphasis on safety from the point of view of motorists."

"During the school year with auxiliary policemen in the vicinity of schools, plus the direct my traffic signs, drivers are vigilant of the fact that children are crossing in these areas, but too often they grow careless about distractions in other sections of the community.

To avoid tragedies, drivers must always remember they should watch out for youngsters," Chief Pynnonen stressed. "This is especially true near the playground, vacant lots where children play in neighborhood areas and wherever cars are parked along the curb in residential districts. We must have the constant cooperation of parents and drivers if we are going to continue to keep children in our community from becoming victims of traffic hazards that they all too often fail to recognize."

MA66 HELP DRIVERS PASS YOU

In traffic, too, "What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander." So when some driver starts to pass you — make it easier for him. Pull to the extreme right of your lane. Slow down so then he can get by quicker.

By making it easier for him you also make it safer for you. Pulling right and slowing down gives him more room in case a puff of wind catches him. If a car is coming up ahead he can pull back to the right hand lane more quickly.

Being more courteous to drivers passing you may encourage drivers whom you pass to be more courteous. And be sure to remember the slogan, "SLOW DOWN AND LIVE."

Tatum-Haynes Combo Will Open Negaunee Cage Season

Announcement was made on Wednesday by Earl Moskaly, chairman of the Negaunee Sports Committee, that plans are being made by the group to sponsor a special attraction at Memorial Gymnasium for the fourth consecutive year to mark the opening of the 1935-36 football season.

However, for the first time since Memorial Gymnasium opened the cage curtain roller will not feature teams that are members of the National Professional Basketball Association. In previous years the Milwaukee Hawks, Baltimore Bullets, Fort Wayne Zollner Pistons, and Minneapolis Lakers have appeared here.

This year the committee decided to bring in an outstanding colored traveling team instead, and Edward Stevens, local booking agent for the organization, Tuesday completed arrangements with the Harlem Magicians for a Negaunee appearance on Monday night, October 31.

Nucleus of the Magicians, a new unit, which already has 170 games booked for the ending season, are two former Harlem Globes Trotter guards, Marquis Haynes, the outstanding dribbler in professional basketball, and the incompressible Goose Tatum.

Haynes broke away from the Trotter organization prior to the opening of the 1934-35 season and Tatum, who had been a member of the Superston unit for 7 years, decided to follow suit this year and join Haynes in formation of a new club.

According to a syndicated article appearing recently, Tatum in an interview predicted the new combine line would have the outstanding traveling frays in the nation on the road this season.

In addition to Goose and Haynes, the starting five will consist of Bill Bertrand, ex-Noro Dame star, and Sammy White, former ace with City College of New York, with the remaining position to be filled as a result of training camp practice sessions.

Furnishing opposition for the Magicians will be another traveling club, the New York Olympians, which will be composed of former NBA and college stars. The Olympians will be an all-white unit.

Details regarding the ticket sale will be worked out at the next meeting of the committee, which will be held next week.

Runner-Up in Tournament

Placed above are the Negaunee Minnettes, who won second place in the Upper Peninsula Woman's Softball Tournament at Hurley Field, Marquette, Sunday night. The local club lost 2-4 to the Iron Days in the final. Negaunee gained the championship round by defeating the Marquette Plumettes on Saturday night.

CCI Addition Approved by City Council

City Council, meeting in special session last Thursday night, gave its final approval to the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co. third addition to the municipality, although the governing body inserted a stipulation that the area must be used only for iron houses.

Purpose of the special meeting was to hold a public hearing on the proposed plat, in accordance with provisions of the municipal planning ordinance. No opposition to council granting approval was presented at the meeting.

In discussion held on the plat, council members advocated that not only should the area be restricted to iron homes, but such stipulation should be contained in deeds issued for lots sold.

Council also discussed preliminary plan presented by CCI for a proposed fourth addition, which would be located north of the junction of Prince and Cherry streets.

According to the preliminary plans submitted by the mining company, this area would have room for 38 homes, five of which would be moved from the Power House location because of mining operations.

No mention was made by the company whether remaining lots would be utilized for use in construction or relocation of existing dwellings. Council members requested the manager to obtain information on this matter for the next meeting, Sept. 9.

MICHIGAN SHOTGUN CHAMPIONSHIP
Something new has been added to the Michigan Outdoors picture—the 1st Annual Michigan Shotgun Championship—and it has been decided in an extremely unique manner.

Hereafter proponents of both skeet and trap have considered their sport adequate. The idea of sharpening the eye for actual field results in shooting live game. In the sport of skeet the contestants move around the arc of a half circle shooting at clay targets projected from a "high" and "low" house at each end of the arc. The path of the target does not vary but inasmuch as the contestants are moving from "station" to "station"—a total of eight in all—the angle of fire is changing.

Trap shooters, on the other hand, fire at clay targets thrown from a point almost directly in front of them, near ground level. The trap shooters move over a narrow range to four positions behind the trap house, while the clay "birds" may be tossed at any of several angles.

Thus both sports have a point in arguing that their system develops the shooting eye best.

Add the "Practice Bird Field." Now comes a new and decisive factor in the test of shotgun skill.

It is known as the "Practice Bird Field," and was introduced for the first time at the Williams Gun Club Company in Division, scene of Michigan's 1st Annual Shotgun Championship. This consists of a winding lane laid out in a big apple orchard. Behind trees, bushes and corn cobs clay traps are located, triggered either by a wire, or by the pulling of the line. Near each trap is a fascinating silhouette of a pointing dog, indicating the presence of the "bird." A guide accompanies each contestant through the practice field, indicating the pointing "dogs" and starting the hunter for action. When the trigger is pulled the target ring goes to almost any angle, simulating the unpredictable qualities of hunting live birds.

Three-Way Championship
By submitting the contestants to shoot, trap and the bird field, the Williams Brothers believe that shotgun proficiency is uncovered. Twenty-five shots are fired in each field, for a possible perfect score of 75. No one has hit that stride as yet. This year's champion—Sam Williams of Detroit won the 1st Annual event with a score of 69—and the tournament was statewide interest pointing to possible future development of "bird" fields wherever suitable terrain and interest will warrant it.

Inexperienced Miners Meet Green Hilloppers in Opener

Roger Grove travels the 1955 Green Hilloppers in a series of dates Saturday night, when his charges meet the Stanbough Hilloppers at 8 o'clock in the opening football game for both schools at Nelson Field, Stanbough.

It will be the 17th meeting of the two clubs in a series dating back to 1938 and the Iron Range school holds a wide edge. Stanbough has won 12 games, Negaunee three, and the 1954 tilt ended in a 12 all deadlock.

Negaunee will be seeking its first victory over the Hilloppers since 1945 when Billy Jennings and company did the trick by a slim one point margin, 7-6.

Rarely, if ever, have the schools been represented by such inexperienced talent. Roger Grove, new Negaunee Hillop member has only one holdover from the 1954 starting eleven, Tommy Hares; while Coach Willard Anderson at the Hilltop school saw his entire first string receive their diplomas last June.

Anderson will have the edge in better winning back from a year ago with eight boys, who saw some action, returning, while Grove, in addition to Hares, has three, Roger Jennings, Bill Myers and Louis Child.

Adding to Grove's problems is the absence of three boys he had counted on for duty prior to the start of the season. Bob Herriman aggravated an old basketball knee injury. Dave Ghirelli submitted to an appendectomy, and Eddie Vanni this week suffered a broken nose. Herman and Ghirelli are both out for the entire campaign, while Vanni's status, at least for the first time is doubtful.

Following a night scrimmage Wednesday, Grove disclosed yesterday that his starting club would be composed of Jennings and Fredrickson, ends; Child and Roberts, tackles; Larson and Collins, guards; Williams at center; Hares, Gurean, Kottic and Perry in the backfield.
