LITTLE INTEREST EVIDENT IN RACE FOR COUNCIL SEATS

Although only one week remains in which to file nomination petitions for the annual municipal election, scheduled Monday, December 5, only four requests for petition forms have been received by City Clerk Jacob H. Anderson.

His request for petition forms has been for City Council offices, and to date there are no candidates for the single post open this year from the city of the Marquette County Board of Supervisors.

Names of persons receiving forms are not divulged by the clerk, as the request for a blank does not indicate that the resident receiving the blank will necessarily be a candidate. It is possible to circulate a petition for another person, according to the clerk, and no names of candidates are withheld until they file petitions.

Expiring this year are the terms of Councilman C. Vance Hixoy, Bertell Arnoll and Richard Cullison. No announcement has been made to date by Supervisor Arthur Becklund regarding whether or not he will be a candidate to succeed himself on the county board.

Chapter provisions require that nominating petitions must be filed 30 days in advance of the date of the municipal election with the city clerk. Petitions must be signed by not less than 60 nor more than 120 registered and qualified voters.

Voters at the election this year, in addition to casting ballots through conventional and one supervisor, will also indicate their preference on an advisory ballot as to whether the city should go ahead with the expenditure of

Recreation Association Lists Suggestions For Youth Center Program

Recommendations pertaining to operation of the Negaunee Youth Center have been received by City Manager George Maloick, Jr., and E. W. Born, superintendent of schools, from the National Recreation Association, which last summer made a survey of the municipal recreation facilities.

Although the report of the Association is in the process of being printed, so that it is impossible at this time to have suggestions of the study group pertaining to the total recreation picture, a request was made that the portions applying to the Youth Center operation be forwarded in advance to help governing bodies determine the best method of operating the leased facility on a temporary basis, following resignation of Miss Enid Mitchell as Center Director.

New Schedule Gives Business District Two Mail Deliveries

Mrs. Agnes M. Regan, postmaster, today announced the following changes in mail service have been authorized by the Post Office Department by the District Operations Manager at Green Bay, Wis.

Beginning Nov. 1st, a second mail delivery will be made in the business section. This will include the 200 block of Jackson street as well as Iroquois and the 200 block of Silver and Gold streets.

In addition, a daily delivery will be provided to residents of the Lakesview School' area and all new building units in the so-called Teal Lake Development adjacent to the end of Croix street.

Patrons who do not have house numbers or mailboxes or door slots are urged to provide the same, immediately as service cannot be effected without them. Parcel Post delivery will be included once daily in this section of service.

Post office patrons who are presently receiving their mail through other sources and who wish to take advantage of this delivery are asked to contact the postmaster at once.

Funeral Services Scheduled Today for Mrs. Westermeyer

Funeral services were scheduled at 9 a. m. today in St. Paul's church, Rev. Wm. Russell officiating, for Mrs. William Westermeyer, Mrs. 222 West Clark St., who died at 11:45 Monday morning in Francis A. Bell Memorial hospital, Espinghien.

Westermeyer, who was born April 17, 1878, in Negaunee was a life-long resident of the community.

She was a member of St. Paul church, its Altar Society and the Lady Macabees.

Survivors include her husband one son, Wm. Jr., two daughter

In its report, the Association pointed out that the building in use is old in need of both indoor and outdoor renovation. As is not suitably located, and is on leased land, there is no justification for expenditure of public tax funds for capital improvement to the property, the recreation study pointed out.

Recommending that a new site be obtained as soon as possible, the Recreation Association reported it had surveyed Youth Center members, and they voted three to one against locating the facility in a school, church or fraternal building.

Another objection to the present building, according to the study, is its structure is not used entirely for Center activities, and there are too many windows, nooks and corners to be effectively supervised, plus the fact that the cost of heating and lighting is excessive.

Following are the recommendations of the National Recreation Association and the Youth Center operation and program:

That the recreation and park commission assume responsibility for the Youth Center.

That the Center director, assistant director, and aides be paid a nominal weekly wage.

That all revenue from admissions, snack bar, fees and other means be deposited with the City Treasurer as a trust fund of the source of the revenue.

That the City Treasurer establish a trust fund to be called the Youth Center Fund.

That the Youth Center Fund be used only for Youth Center purposes.

That the wages be paid by payroll of the recreation and park commission, as established by the budget.

That all supplies and other purchases be the Youth Center but be made in accord with city rules and regulations for purchasing and contracting.

That flood lights be placed in the front and rear of the building and lighting signs be at all exits inside the building.

That minor exterior and interior repairs be made and broken windows and lighting signs be at all exits inside the building.

That a better interpretation of the Youth Center program be

Pupils Boost Saving Stamp Sale in City

In the month, which has elapsed since opening of school for the 1965-66 year, the Negaunee post office has experienced a brisk business in sale of United States Savings Stamps. Mrs. Agnes Regan, postmaster, reported this week.

Under the nation-wide school stamp plan, each school sets aside one day per week for the sale of savings stamps to students. In most cases, stamps are bought in advance from the post office, and delivered immediately upon receipt of the money which children bring from home on stamp day.

In some schools, students themselves handle stamp sales with the assistance of school officials, the PTA, civic club, or some other group.

A convenient stamp album is supplied free to each student. When it is filled, it may be exchanged for a United States Savings Bond at a bank or other financial institution.

Mrs. Regan revealed that during the 1954-55 school year, the Negaunee post office sold $240,025 in U. S. Stamps. Most of this amount went to students in the treasury sponsored school savings program, who bought stamps for themselves and for parents or sisters and brothers below school age.

"Regular saving through the purchase of savings stamps, and bonds is a fine sort of training in thrift for our youngsters," Mrs. Regan said. "The school savings program is a remarkable job, and it is a project in which the post office can and does render an invaluable service to the community. We are proud to be a part of this effort."

Persons desiring information on the stamp and bond program may obtain details at the post office.

C.F.F. NEWS CONTAINS TRIBUTE TO JUDGE BELL, NEGAUNEE HIGH BAND

"Tribute to the late Judge Frank A. Bell and the Negaunee High School band are paid in an article appearing in the October issue of Cliffs News, which also contains pictures of several local residents, who have recently retired from Company employment. "A Tribute to a Wise Judge Bell states that 'he stood out on the horizon of distinguished citizens in the Northern Peninsula of Michigan.'"

Continuing, the article says, "Judge Bell was held in very high regard by the public and by members of the legal profession during his entire career. He was particularly noted for his policy of tempering justice with mercy. "He possessed a fine legal mind as is indicated by the fact that relatively few of his decisions and rulings were appealed to the Supreme Court. He was known as a judge who, in handling of criminal sentences, applied a sound, humane, common sense in determining what was best, not only for the offender, but for society. His is a record of outstanding public service."

The article on the Negaunee High School band, accompanied by a group picture of the unit, is entitled "The Band With the 'Oomp,'" Commenting on the band, the News writes as follows: "This band, which has been under the direction of Walter L. Dalry for a number of years, has achieved a degree of musical excellence, which is unusual for such a group of musicians. Director Dalry demands strict attention to business of all students who wish to become members of the group and also become a member of the Negaunee High School band is considered more than an ordinary honor."

Under the heading, "Retirement Days," are listed pictures of 12 residents of the community who recently retired, including Frank Cotnam, ship tender and engi-ner at the Cambria Jackson mine, 38 years of service; Matt Aho, miner at the Maas mine, 26 years of service; Jacob Korhonen, lumber repairman and miner, Maas mine, 25 years of service; Frank Lamm, Cliffs Shaft miner, 49 years of service; Oscar Maki, repairman and miner, Burker Hill mine, 18 years of service; John Kivela, lumber repairman, Cambria Jackson mine, 22 years of service, and Henry Pokkala, general work force, 49 years of service.

Included in the exhibit are action scenes and humorous comments as well as evidence in "Stars and Stripes Forever," a picture of a balloon checked, fat boy playing the tub in the high school band.

Poor of the grand prize winners are excellent examples of composition with two of them made under adverse conditions. The three stars are: "Summer Vision" is a shade-grown shot; a photograph printing up sunlight; while the winner of class four was taken at the water's edge in a foggy, misty day and demonstrates an adroit use of silhouettes

Council Sets Rules for House Moving

With the transfer of several houses to new locations contemplated in the near future, regulations pertaining to moving homes have been established by resolution of the City Council.

Council action was the result of a communication received from Charles W. Moore, general contractor of Buhi, Minn., who avers that he was contemplating moving several homes in the city in the near future and desired to be advised regarding regulations covering house moving operations.

The following regulations covering house moving were established by the council resolution:

A performance bond of $1,000 must be posted.

Public liability and property damage insurance of ample amount must be carried by the mover.

There must be a designated person for moving homes as agreed upon between the city manager and other superintendent.

of public works, and the house mover.

The house mover must pay and be responsible for all damages, public or private, which may be due to moving the various buildings; also for cutting and raising electric wires and work related thereto.

Satisfactory evidence of insurance shall be presented to the city clerk before house moving operations can commence.

Old Man Winter Makes Debut Here

Old Man Winter, a familiar character on the Upper Peninsula stage, made his 1935-36 debut here Monday, when local residents awakened to find evidence of the initial snow fall of the season.

Throughout the day there were snow flurries at various intervals, with the snow melting as fast as it fell.

Although not anticipating any of plays in the immediate future, City Manager George E. Moholick, Jr. disclosed that the city of Negaunee was one of the "early birds" as far as winter preparations were concerned. All preparatory work on equipment has been completed, and plows can quickly be attached to trucks, if and when the snowfall justifies their use.

"Where do I go from here?" ... A good question for everyone to ponder.

Negaunee High School won its 1895 football campaign with a record of six victories, five defeats and one deadlock when the Miners were upset victims last Friday night of Calumet 26-0.

Winners of only one game prior to the Negaunee tilt, Calumet had been the underdog by a two touchdown margin in its two game ratings, but Coach Hank Linderman for the second straight week used an eleven composed of underclassmen, and once again it paid dividends.

Calumet whipped Calumet Grove's team the first night, sporting the Miners a 13-0 victory in the first quarter to score a comeback from a 10-12 deficit in the final period to score a key touchdown for its second victory over the current champion. The Copper Kings ring down the curtain with Ironwood next weekend.

Arton ran the ball to guard for the TD his six seconds period opening. Inlet's placement attempt was blocked. Score: Negaunee 13, Calumet 0.

Basketball at its "razzle-dazzle" ball handling and shooting at its best — that will be the trend in sport for cage fans in this area when the 1935-36 season gets underway Monday night at Memorial Gymnasium with one of the nation's newest and best traveling circuits, the Harlem Magnificents, encountering the New York Olympians.

Heading the team are two fugitives from the world renowned Harlem Globe Trotters, the inimitable Crane Tatum, and the amazing Mervyn Hargreaves, who broke away from the Superstein organization to form their own unit this year.

Hockey Star Who Was Red Prisoner Will Lecture Here

Oleg Zaitsev, former Czech Olympic hockey star, who lived under the Russian regime as a prisoner of the Reds, will give a lecture in Negaunee on "Treason" night, Nov. 8, sponsored by Negaunee League.

Zaitsev will make a speaking tour of Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois which will be sponsored by Eagles Aeries and the national Guard for Freedom. The Czech athlete, whose escape from the Reds and an ensuing romance made international headlines, writes and broadcasts for Radio Free Europe.

"My story has had a happy ending," says Oleg, "but to your former inmate now in prison, the millions of my countrymen whose lives are led in the vast prison of Communist tyranny, the happy ending is not in sight. I will dedicate myself, as an actor, in a more innocent way, I dedicated myself to the field of sports."

Time and place for the lecture, which will be open to the public, will be announced later.
