NORMAL TRIMS HOTON MINERS IN FAST GAME

Strategic Playing Is Key note Thruout M. C. M. Battle.

Northern Normal took partial revenge for the two 6-0 defeats of last year by defeating the Michigan College of Mines team 10 to 6 on their home field in Houghton. The game was hotly contested from start to finish, and Houghton people who watched the game were unanimous in saying it was the best exhibition of collegiate football ever played in Houghton.

Six minutes after play commenced Northern chafed up three points on a field goal from placement, with Sandelin booting the ball.

In the second period the College of Mines took the lead by scoring a touchdown after a completed pass had brought the ball to the one-yard line.

Northern clinched the game in the third quarter by pushing the ball over for a touchdown. A triple pass back of the line and end run brought the ball to the four-yard line. From there it was carried over the goal line in two downs. Pearl kicked goal from placement, making the score 10 to 6 in our favor.

The game was hard fought from start to finish, although it was slowed up somewhat by warm weather. The Miners had a slight advantage in defensive work, due to their heavier line, while our team excelled in offense. They made first down five times while the M. C. M. made first down twice. They completed one pass out of four tries, and the M. C. M. completed one out of seven tries.

The Michigan College of Mines will play a return game in Marquette on November 1.

Miss Carey Entertains Faculty Women

Sandelin, quarterback on the Normal team, emblazoned his name in Northern football history as one of the brainiest generals that ever called signals for the teachers, when Northern easily defeated the Canadian Soo Rough Riders, 58-0, here on the fair grounds Saturday. Pearl, Gueff, Nystrom, Hemr and Swanson played the same style of game that distinguished them in the earlier encounters.

Excellent Interference.

The Rough Riders, while not providing any great amount of competition for Hedgcock's men, gave them a chance to display some of the best open field running that has ever been seen on the local gridiron. Beginning with Nystrom's pass to Sandelin for the first touchdown, Northern uncoiled a crushing offensive. One of the big factors in the success of the line smashing and end running as played Saturday by the Northern team, was the perfect co-operation of the linemen in holding out the opposing line, thereby protecting their backfield men in punting, off-tackle smashes, and end runs. The backfield's defense of the runner was a brilliant revelation, when time after time, the opposing guests were the ladies of the faculty and the professors' wives. It was a delightful means of getting acquainted with the new faculty members. The rooms were arranged so that there were inviting little groups of chairs about, and the orange candles matched the nasturtium sandwiches and the orange ice. Since women are accused of talking too much (by the superior sex) there were no tense moments. Everyone chatted at once and had a lovely time. Light refreshments were served by members of the Student Girls' League. Miss Carey makes a charming hostess, and there was a very pleasing spirit of sociability, due, no doubt, to Miss Carey's graciousness.

LARGE AUDIENCES Vocal and Instrumental Programs Please.

The first number of the Lyceum Course, the Rhonda Welsh singers, was held in the auditorium October 14. It was a huge success. Above all, it was entirely up to everyone's expectations. It was indeed a perfectly blended chorus of male voices. They sang a fine selection of songs. They mixed in the old familiar songs with some new ones. All of them were very delightful. We were all especially glad to hear one song. It was familiar to many of us, because Dora Lyons, a student of last year, sang it so often—"I Passed By Your Window." They sang royally, and concluded with the Welsh National Anthem, a vivid, fervent song, and our National Anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner."

Paul Vernon and his Cleveland Symphonic Quintet, the second number of the Lyceum Course, appeared Thursday evening, October 16. He introduced his selections, explaining the consecutive movements. This was very wonderful for those who were musically cultured as well as those who were not. We all enjoyed the technic with which the music was rendered. They are all artists, but how many of us wouldn't have been a little more pleased if there had been some variety?

At both numbers a fine big crowd attended. It shows that the students are interested, and that it pays, indeed, to have such a Lyceum course. If we are to judge by these two past numbers I am sure we are going splendidly, and well attended, too.

HERE'S TO YOUR HEALTH AND VICTORY! Squad Has Feed and Get-together With Men of Faculty.

On Monday, October 13, President Munson gave a feed at the College Eat Shop for the men of the faculty and the football squad. The feed was an expression of the sentiment of our President toward healthy sports. He said, "This gathering is not because you won the game last Saturday; it would be given just the same, if you had lost." * * * "I wish to thank each man personally upon the fine showing made in the game, and an incident that every one will give as good an account of himself in the future encounters."

When Coach Hedgcock was called upon to speak for the team, he said: "I have the utmost confidence in the ability of our team." He gave a true prophecy of the M. C. M. game when he said, "Our next clash will be with our old rivals, the Michigan College of Mines. It will be a fight from the first kickoff, but I believe we can win."

"Actions speak louder than words," and with the knowledge that their work was appreciated they journeyed to Houghton on the following Saturday and turned in another "win" for Northern.

preparation for her new work, Mrs. Kremer has had seven years of experience as Supervisor of Music in Ironwood, Mich., Ypsilanti, Mich., and Hinsdale, Ill.

GREAT SCANDAL! Mysterious Disappearance of Two Old, Honorable Societies.

Where are Ostris and Ydrasil? This is the question that is making the Editors lose a lot of sleep. We can't solve it. Perhaps you can. Here, briefly, are the facts in the case:

Twenty some years ago two societies were organized in this school. They were literary societies, and were named, one Ydrasil, the other, Ostris. Their function was to furnish entertainment to those fortunate students who were pledged to one or the other.

For twenty years they ably performed their duty, and had every possible reason for being. In this course of time an intense rivalry developed between the two societies, especially in getting new members. This finally led, a few years ago, to the authorities deciding that the members must be chosen by the magnanimous but highly dehumanizing method of selecting every other name on the roster for one society, and the remainder for the other. In this simple way it was assured that both societies would be equally well represented, at least, in numbers.

The influence of this mechanical method of selecting members was soon seen in the decrease of interest and in numbers attending the meetings. Other societies sprang up; societies whose members were selected by a method a little more thrilling than the "one for me, one for you" system.

The final result is seen this year. We have no Ostris or Ydrasil. Other, and newer, societies are flourishing. We think it is a shame, a blot on the pages of Northern's history, to let these old time-honored societies disappear unwept, without a single hand lifted to help them. Something should be done, and soon. We ought to try to bring back at least one of them. It can be done, if among the student body is a group spirited enough to try. Who is willing?

ALUMNI! GET IN ON THIS HOMECOMING!

Northern Wants You to Support This New Tradition.

All alumni are urged to attend the N. S. N.-M. C. M. game in Marquette on November 1, and make it a homecoming game. It is hoped that this can be made an annual event that will be looked forward to from year to year. An attempt will be made to have the game the week of the M. S. T. A. meeting for next year. This could not be arranged for this season.

Last year M. C. M. defeated N. S. N. in two games by a 6-0 score. The first game this year, played in Houghton on October 18, resulted in a 10 to 6 victory for Northern, and we intend to make the result more decisive on November 1.

Quite a number of alumni attended the game in Houghton, and with the contingent of students who journeyed with the team they made the goal posts tremble from their lusty cheers. Less than half the number usually present at a game here made twice as much noise and gave the team twice as much encouragement. Let's wake up and give the team the support they deserve.

Alumni, be with us on November 1 if possible, and start making your plans to attend the N. S. N.-M. C. M. game next year.

Class in Political Science

Professor Lautner is giving a special class in political science this term to the school teachers of Marquette.

This course includes a study of the candidates, platforms and issues of the present campaign. An effort toward this end was made last year, but to no success. The petition last year required at least twenty names, but they could not be secured. This year, however, they have met with better luck, and the course has, at last, been granted. This work counts as extension work for teachers who are working for various degrees.

Northern Welcomes New Music and English Teachers

Mr. G. C. Meyland is the man who is taking Miss A. Bass Clark's place in the English department. He received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Wisconsin, where he majored in Education and won his "W" in baseball. During the war he spent two years in the army, serving one year at Panama with the 2nd Trench Mortar Battalion. Mr. Meyland has taught for two years, one year in North Dakota and one year in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Jeanette Hughes Kremer, of Holland, Michigan, will teach voice culture in the Northern Normal School and music in the Training School. Mrs. Kramer has had unusual opportunities for study in the field of music, including both voice and piano. She is a graduate of the Cosmopolitan School for Voice, Chicago, and has studied with such teachers as Octavia Brocken, Chicago, and Walter Golde, New York. Her piano work has been done with Howard Wells and Mrs. Charles Orchard, Chicago. As a further Juniors, N. B.

There are some folks in our school who have most wondrous ways of never pulling "A's" or "C's", but always getting "A's". I asked of one the other day how he could make the grade. He never seemed to worry or to even feel dismayed. He smiled that rare fine smile of his, and tapped his high forehead. "I'll tell you now, my boy," says he. "I soaked up all he said." He winked his eye and took a breath, his mighty chest did swell. "There's just one way, my boy," says he, "you have to work like — well, like me or Norma, Jack or Lin. You see we work for 'A's'. In planning work, remember that a week has six work days. Take in a movie now and then (don't overdo the Craze). Take in a dance, but don't forget that moderation pays. And don't forget athletics, boy. Don't miss a Normal game. The pessimist who stays at home should die for very shame. And evenings, when the sun is set, sit down and do your work. Don't lie around and bellaché, we hate that kind of shirk. You have spare time and lots of it, to get your work all done. Just make your movements always count, you never have to run." And then he paused and smiled his smile (you know his friendly way). "Just do your stuff and do your best, you'll snag the wily 'A'."

Why Not Boost?

This is the second number of Normal News to be issued by the new staff. This year, for the first time, an all student staff is entirely responsible for the production of the paper.

You will note that we are organized on the three-department plan, two Student Editors responsible for the branch of news they can do best.

Our aim is to make the News reflect the Spirit of the School. We want it so interesting that every Northerner will be anxious to insure his getting every number by an early subscription.

We want you to like the News, for that is the final test of its success. To be vitally interesting to every one, it must be the Voice of the Student Body. To accomplish this end, we must print articles written by the student body.

There are nearly seven hundred people in school this year. Not one but knows an interesting bit of fun, fact, or fiction that can be written up for the News.

Do it TODAY.

Sign articles or not, as you wish them published.

Mr. Parker's office, our News Headquarters, is always open. There are spindles there for contributions. Bring one in today.

C. S.

Subscribers, N. B.

This is number three and we should hate to feel that you do not like our efforts. Have you sent in that dollar? Have you even told us that you do want the News and the dollar will follow later? The News will not continue indefinitely without encouragement. If you are a real Northerner, come across!

Becomes Principal of Normal High

Mr. Don H. Bottum, who came to the Training School last year, has started his second year here by competently filling the position of principal of the Normal High school. He takes the position left vacant by Mr. A. B. Willerton, who resigned.

Mr. Bottum received his teacher's certificate from Central Normal in 1916. Until 1918 he was first principal and later superintendent of the Lake City, Michigan, schools. Then followed a year in the army, after which he returned to his superintendency in Lake City. In 1921, Mr. Bottum returned to Central Normal and secured his A. B. He continued his studies with some graduate work at the University of Michigan. While at the U. he received

DON H. BOTTUM

We extend to Mr. Bottum our warmest congratulations and the sincere wish that his energy and efficiency be fully rewarded.

Junior Orchestra Scores Strong Hit

The Junior Orchestra, under the direction of William Nordling, made the musical hit of the M. S. T. A. program. The way those youngsters followed the beat of the baton, the way those hours saved in unison in the hands of small folk who could barely sit full size chairs, was a marvel to those who had not seen what Conway Peters and his boys can do. Their program Thursday evening consisted of "Our Boys and Girls in California," "The Bugle Boy," "The Lilac Waltz," "Cadets' Drill."

Student Girls League Active

Student Girls' League certainly is not going to run on a "flat tire" this year. We are already up and doing. If everything we plan to do this year comes out O. K., and it surely will, the Juniors of next year will have a live, growing organization to boost and work for.

 That's what we have done; this is what we're going to do. We are planning a Saturday hike some time in the near future. There's nothing like a hike for getting acquainted—is there?
 We're going to have a girl's gym party next week. An honest-to-goodness one, such as we had last year, including a few improvements. Member the hot pasties and coffee?
 There are plans for a brand new, spick an' span, up-to-date league room too, girls. A real girl's room. Lamps and rugs and comfy chairs—plenty of pretty rugs and a full length mirror. Won't that be grand?
 While things are beginning to come our way—you know what we mean—we plan to order pins, S. G. L. pins. Perk up now and put your order in early to avoid the rush.
 We also plan to sell nice ice cold Eskimo Pies and so forth during the games to come later on—just so you won't dry up, you know.
 The executive committee meets at a pot luck supper again next week; so after that, we will have a lot more to tell you. However, that's that for now.

CAMPUS NOTES
 For the benefit of those persons who were struck with wonder Tuesday afternoon at about 4:30 to see some N. S. N. girls wearing old straw hats, arctic, green hosiery and other miscellaneous apparel, it is here explained that it was nothing more or less than mock initiation of the Beta Omega Tau sorority.
 The Beta Omega Tau sorority entertained Thursday afternoon, October 16, with a matinee tea dance held in the gymnasium. The affair was in the form of a farewell party for Miss Hamby, who was soon to leave for Chicago. A delightful program was rendered, consisting of a number by the Girls' Quartette, "Sweetheart, Sign No More," a violin solo by "Ted" Fryfogle and a vocal solo by Miss Ann Splon. Tea and wafers were served. Music for dancing was furnished by Mrs. Weedman's orchestra. There was an unusually large "turn-out" of both students and faculty at the affair.
 The Girls' Sketch Club is organized and, according to the club advisor, Miss Spalding, is doing nicely. Work is being started in charcoal studies.

The commercial enthusiasts convened in the commercial department at 3:45 P. M. on Tuesday, October 14. Directly after the election of officers, Leah Lowenstein surrendered the chair to Evelyn Verran, the new president. The other officers are Leah vice-president; Hilda Challancin, secretary; and Aowid Frando, treasurer. Extemporaneous talks were very creditably given by the new officers. Miss Verran then appointed the various committees for the ensuing term.
 At the request of the members, Mr. Wiggins enlightened us concerning the "Standards and Makings of a Commercial Club." Mr. Wiggins' vast experience rendered this information doubly valuable since we propose to accomplish much through the association of our members.
 During institute week, Delta Sigma Nu had the honor of entertaining quite a number of its alumni members at a tea given on Friday of that week. They also gave a luncheon on Saturday at the Clifton Hotel. At both occasions elaborate decorations were in vogue.
 It was an occasion not to be soon forgotten. Each member had some experience which she related.
 Needless to say, we all had a wonderful time.

Two Students Who Are Doing Things

ROBERT WILLIAM NORDLING
 We offer "Bill" Nordling as a model for students wishing to make good. Bill is now taking graduate work here, having received his Bachelor's degree last August. He first became prominent on the football field, where he played three years, the last two years finding him a regular Varsity member. Bill then turned his efforts toward music for which he had already shown talent. He is at present specializing in this subject, and this year he is successfully leading the Junior Orchestra. If you've ever heard them play, you'll admit Bill has done a good job.

NORMA GILLETT
 Norma Gillett has been elected president of her Sorority, the Delta Sigma Nu. She is a graduate of Calumet High School, Class of '23. There, as at Northern, her ability as a leader, organizer, and scholar were quickly recognized. She led the Honor Students, as the Valedictorian of her class, and is well on her way to similar honors here. During her Junior and Senior years she held the Class Presidency. She directed both the Junior and Senior Proms in High School and the Junior Prom at Northern. Few successful school affairs are passed on without Norma's assistance, directly or indirectly. With so able a leader, the Deltas are assured of a very successful year.

Diogenes and His Brothers Promise Good Time.

"Say, Ignatz!"
 "Don't call me Ignatz."
 "Well, what is your name?"
 "It's Oswald."
 "Well, Oswald then; now you've made me forget what I was going to ask you. Ah! I have it again. What is it that is making all those weird sounds and mysterious noises around here? I've heard them for the last two weeks or so."
 "Why, my dear fellow, those mysterious noises and so forth come from Diogenes' Den. All of the spooks and black cats and witches for many miles around were called in by Diogenes to help him put across his big party 'Hallowe'en.'"
 "That's news to me. I never knew Diogenes could play the role of host."
 "Oh, I know. You're not the only one that thought he was an old grinch and all that, but let me tell you, Diogenes was out for more than honest men in his day. Those witches, cats, and spooks have a meeting every day to think up some new stunt to pull at the party. It is going to be a hard time party. You can dress as you like—in costume, old clothes, best clothes, any way you wish. There will be apples—you'll have to dive for them. Be sure to be there—October 31."

Aborn Opera Company Sings "Martha" Oct. 30.

The Aborn Opera Company will present the opera "Martha" in English, Friday evening, Oct. 30, as the next number of the Lyceum Course. Milton Aborn is the organizer of the company and spent a number of years in England as the producer of Grand Opera. At various times he, with his company, have toured the country, singing operatic productions in the larger cities. Realizing that the people outside the larger music centers have a keen appreciation of the masterpieces in opera, Aborn organized the present company of select operatic singers. Last year we saw Faust presented by this same company, and it was immensely enjoyable. The opera "Martha," being given this season, will be just as beautifully presented as "Faust." The story is light and breezy, and the music very tuneful. Since it was first presented in America in 1852, it has been produced innumerable times by some of the most noted singers of America. You can't miss it.

NORTHERN WINS

ends and tackles were brushed aside to clear the path for the ball-toters.
 Wilkins, Hemr, MacDonald, Limpert and Friedl followed the pace set by Sandelin, when they checked in on runs of 20 to 40 yards. Gadbois and Nystrom made repeated gains on effective line charging. Penalties on the Soo's one and two-yard line, delayed touchdowns for the Northern team. Carlson, Dean, Nelson, McGinnis, and Evenson paved the way for advances by Kohlbeck and Leonard through the line and on end runs.
 By the end of the first half, Northern had rolled up 33 points. It added 7 more in the third quarter, and 18 in the fourth.
 Between halves, the students, led by Baker and Mullaly, took possession of the field and did the snake dance. Excellent weather, and music by the Normal band, aided in making it Northern's day.

Said By Us and Others

The handsome man says: "Beauty is only skin deep; but who would want to skin them!"
 The homely man says: "Beauty is only skin deep. Some people are certainly lucky to remain unskinned!"
 Toomey: "I have a chance for the football team."
 Aslitt: "Why, are they going to raffle it?"
 She was as pure as snow—but she drifted.

Peters: You'll have to sing louder to put that song across.
 Stewed: But I am singing as loud as I can now.
 Peters: Then be more enthusiastic. Open your mouth wide and throw yourself into it.

We accused Don Hillier of using that portion of his anatomy located above his ears only for a hat rack. He indignantly denied the charge, claiming that he also used it to clean his comb with.

WE WONDER.
 If she were tardy some morning, would Violet Gallup?
 And really, is Doris Lillian Greene?
 And does Mary Long? And for what?
 Would the man be lucky who remarries this girl, or can't Ferne Lena Cook?

She's a bird now, but really did Frances Hatch?

BOARDING HOUSE BLUES.

THE YOUNG HUSBY'S LAMENT.
 Just before the battle, Mother,
 I am writing this to you,
 Sadie's coming in to see me,
 And a fracas will ensue.

I got home tonight, dear Mother,
 As the clock was striking two,
 Softly up the stairs I tiptoed,
 In each hand I bore a shoe.

But my wife she heard me enter,
 Heard me softly cross the floor,
 Now at two-fifteen she's coming,
 With one rolling pin or more.

Hark! Her footsteps sound beside me!

Alas! I'm feeling very weak.
 I'll have to close this letter, Mother,
 Ere she stams me on the back.
 A. Q. J. C. S.

Frances: "Who is that girl across the Campus?"

Norma: "Well, she looks familiar. Clara's hat, Ethel's coat, Jackie's scarf, and Valerie's umbrella; she's a Delta Sigma Nu all right!"

Pop Lewis: "How did I get my education? Well, you see, Dad used to take me across his knee now and then, and that made me smart."

More Truth Than Poetry.
 Coach to Treado: "Aren't those shoes too good for you?"
 "Far!" "Suppose they are, Old Dear, but I'll add a foot to each, as I get into them!"

Advice to the Lovelorn, By A. B. C.
 Question: I am a young man, and recently became engaged to a beautiful young lady. Now, but a short time before our proposed wedding day, I find she has a wooden leg. Should I break it off? "Perplexed."

Answer: Break it off immediately, by all means. A. B. C.

Heard before the Cegmer Seg Tea:
 First Senior: Going down to the struggle?
 Second Senior: Yes, I have a new hold to try on.

Coach: "On the Hump, men!"
 Green: Frosh: "Oh, where is the Camel?"

It was just like meeting some one from home, and I am looking forward to the remaining numbers with a great deal of pleasurable anticipation. Since arriving in Ann Arbor I've been quite busy adapting myself to the customs of a law student, and I believe at present I'd just about rate a D. However, I'm not going to give up until after further trial.

"There is another Northern alumnus in the law school. His name is Haskins (Freeman Haskins, '23), and he hails from Ironwood. I believe, I often met Eskil Carlson, formerly of Ewen, on the campus.
