

THE NORTHERN NORMAL NEWS

Published bi-weekly except August and September by the NORTHERN STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, Marquette, Michigan.

NOVEMBER 2, 1926.

Editorial
Pots Frosh!
The overwhelming appearance of 'pots' and colors drew the remark from one of our faculty members that this is the first time since he has been here that the student body looked and acted like a real college group.

Paper
Funny what a little piece of paper can do! A man is at his desk reading hundreds of letters a day, and whistling at it. Suddenly a messenger comes in with a slip of yellow paper. The whistling stops; the man turns pale, seizes his hat, and hurries out, leaving his important mail unanswered.

Flunk Slips
Yes, they give us the slip. When hanging over the railing at 11:30 on That Day, you spy your name among the hundreds of brickbats and bouquets decorating the bulletin board, just unwind yourself, dash down the stairs (keeping your eye on your name), and make a dive for your slip like some Knight of the Holy Grail or First Crusader.

Appreciation
The News is appreciated sometimes at least. Dorothea Johnson writes: 'I am a firm believer that there should be a Normal News in every home; I am enclosing one dollar for my subscription.'

Debating Societies
Rheumr. The question is very important, as the largest automobile manufacturer, Henry Ford, has just adopted the system and other industries are expected to follow suit.

Phi Kappa Nu Party
A perfectly lovely evening was spent by those who attended the Halloween party at Ruth Kemp's home Saturday.

Executive Committee
The Executive Committee belongs to the Men of Northern; it is your representative body. You know those eight men and you know whose duty it is to look after the interests of your class.

Assembly Much Enjoyed
The cause has already long gone forth, The soulful cause which called them overseas. It lives and grows in every nation's breast; So that our hero in vain; But long and sweet and peaceful makes his rest.

Northern-Northland
hard luck, although fighting hard, and the visitors retained the ball most of the time. Even at that the visitors did not at any time seriously threaten the Olive and Gold. The last quarter Normal scored another touch down and vainly attempted to duplicate their former triumphs, but they were tired, hungry and so cold they could not hang onto the ball.

CAMPUS NOTES

The Alpha Delta Dramatic Club held its first meeting Wednesday night, October 27. One group of the club is working on a one-act play, "Ovestones," which will be presented soon. Students who were members of the club last year are urged to continue their work in dramatics. Announcements will be made later about the membership of new students in the club.

ector out to look for it. Everybody returned safe and happy to their beds Sunday night, but school work will have a slump after such a hectic week-end. Needless to say a person could not study after such a wonderful past. It would be like taking quinine after eating candy. It spoils the pleasant taste.

Last week Beta Omega Tau Society was entertained at a Halloween party at the home of Miss Olive Bracher. The Betas attended the party decked out in weird and ghastly attire. The whole atmosphere was so scary that the girls have not slept since. So to pass away the long night hours they study. Confidentially, though, it was probably the mid-term examinations that instigated their sleepless nights, and not the party.

A mysterious potion (cocoa) was served from a steaming cauldron; equally mysterious packets were distributed filled with sandwiches and cookies, and mysteriously they disappeared. The fate and fortune of each girl was manifested to her through some occult power. Happily, prosperity awaits them all with just a few misfortunes on the way. The crowning feature of the evening's entertainment was the performance of the pledges, which consisted of dancing, singing and clever impersonations.

C. C. Wiggins has been elected to membership in the American Association of University Instructors in Accounting.

Phi Kappa Nu has elected the following officers for the year '26-'27: President, Mary Bennett; secretary, Ruth Kemp; treasurer, Ebba Eklund; corresponding secretary, Cecile Pelin. With such capable leaders we can expect a great deal this year from the newest sorority.

"There," said one of the boys at the house as he nailed a mounted goat's head on the wall. "No one is going to get my goat."

Sturdy is a tonsorial artist in a shop on Third street. All Normal instructors take warning.

Mr. Meyland tried to sneak into class late, but he was caught. There was one student there ahead of him.

Those sandy blatts and squeals heard in the auditorium indicate the agony the orchestra is going through before it becomes grown up. It is improving, as one of the boys can mercerize Yankee Doodle. They'll get there yet; let's encourage them.

The organization meeting of the Manual Arts Club will be held this Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 in Room L117. All students enrolled in the Manual Arts Department of the Northern State Normal are members of this organization.

The meeting Wednesday will be for the purpose of electing officers for the year, and appointing committees to arrange the programs of the coming meetings. It is absolutely necessary that every member should be present, to be sure that live people are put in office to guarantee live meetings in the future.

By the flurry of students around the posters that were on the blackboard in the hall, it seems the students are admirers of beauty. Which Freshman posed for the picture of the one with the coal hole in his face?

The Deltas held a camping party Sunday, October 31. The members met early Sunday morning at the Normal and took the 12:15 p. m. street car to camp.

We do know that it was one bang up camping party. We haven't heard whether they left the street car out at camp or brought it home. The Street Car Company has sent a col-

Brothers Give Party

The Brothers of Diogenes will sponsor a Hard Time Social Evening on the evening of October 21, Friday evening, November 5, at 8 o'clock. All students who have attended B. O. D. parties in the past know the reputation of the Brothers for "throwing good times."

Freshmen this will be absolutely the most scintillating social evening of the school year. A program has been arranged, and there will be dancing from 8 to 11 with music by the Merry Makers (Marquette's peppiest dance band). You cannot afford to miss this. Be there!

To the students who do not know the Brothers of Diog; they are the youngest fraternity at Northern, with a membership at present of fifteen members. There are another twelve "propers," who ordinarily fall under the category of "pledges." When next June rolls around the "Frat" will have over thirty active members. Besides this, the winter term will see another "Frat" house come into existence under the lantern of Diogenes. Though the youngest "Frat" on campus, it bids fair to be the liveliest.

Come out, one and all, Friday night, and let the Brothers show you a time.

Thetas Entertain

The Thetas gave another house party on the evening of October 21, this time entertaining the Brothers of Diogenes. The fun began with games of five hundred, but soon all attention was diverted toward the argument which was going on between the great LeMieux and the world-famous Clin Moray. The crowd gathered around silently to listen to the battle with words, which waxed hot and heavy for over two hours. The contestants finally decided to call it a draw—the judges had quit long ago.

Then came the cais. The "arguers," with the hunger of vengeance, tried to see who could eat the most. LeMieux won on a fowl.

Next followed some sad readings by Jack Willis. He rendered "Hats Off: The Flag is Passing By" with such soul stirring fervor that it went straight to the heart and twanged the heart strings to a tune of sadness. His encore numbers were entitled "Luteifisk" and "Who's to Blame For All This?" Bud Crowley then gave a reading entitled "Lac Saint Pierre." Bud was encored several times, each time responding with something better.

As it was nearing "the zero hour," the meeting adjourned with a word of comradeship and a happy good-night.

A cytologist is one who studies the cell. The prison is full of them.

Prof. Brown doesn't wear socks. How do we know? Why, Brown is a man isn't he, and man is an animal. (Ask Doc Love.) I never saw an animal wearing socks, did you? See, Prof. Brown doesn't wear socks, proves it.

There is an advertisement in the paper offering a baseball glove or ball and some money for 20 Blue Bird bottle tops.

We won't be running the lawn mower on bottle tops this summer.

Doc Lowe, next term, will offer a course in the curing of curiosity. One girl has been cured already. She was curious as to what was in a box and put her hand in—it was a snake.

"Am They a Hell?"

The newly appointed pastor of a Texas colored church announced that his first sermon would be, "Am They a Hell or Am They Not?" And will Prove That They Am."
The church was packed as the new parson arose to prove his assertion.
"Brethren," he said, "the Lord made the world go round like a ball."
"Amen," said the congregation. "And the Lord made the world so it could go round and round." "Amen" was the response. "And the Lord made two axles for the world to go round on, and he put one axle at the north pole and one axle at the south pole."
"Amen," agreed the congregation.
"And the Lord put a lot of oil and axle grease in the center of the world so to keep the axles well greased and oiled." "Amen," said the congregation. "And then a lot of sinners dig wells in Pennsylvania and steal the Lord's oil and grease, and they dig wells in Kentucky, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas and in Mexico and Russia and steal the Lord's grease and oil. And some day they'll dig so many wells that they will have a lot of the Lord's oil and grease, and then two axles is going to get hot. And then, that will be hell, brethren, that will be hell."

La Belle Dame

I was walking along the highway when I met her. She looked slyly at me and passed on, but the impression she left on me I shall never forget. Her eyes were of that tranquil, contented type which one sees only once in a lifetime. They reminded me of quiet pools in shaded nooks. Her nose was rather broad, indicating her strength of character. Although her nose did shine, it made me admire her all the more, for I could see that she used no cosmetics. Her only beauty was the fresh glow of health, attained by leading a simple life. Her hair was the most beautiful auburn I have ever seen. It simply enraptured me, for I could see that it had never been touched by the hands of a hairdresser. Her ankles were gorgeous. They were not delicate, but, on the contrary, were beautifully broad. She wore no shoes. Here, again, her bare feet told me of the simple life she had led. As I walked along, dreaming, a deep regret rose in me. While she was so extremely beautiful, little did it matter, for she was only a cow.
