June Grads Get Brilliant Send-off: Play-Kawbawgam All Ceremonies Excel

Prof. Roy Hamilton Gives Inspiring Message To Students Leaving Northern

The spring term closed in a blaze of glory for the graduates and with a lot of possibilities for the lower classmen. It has been one of the most successful years that Northern has ever known, as far as scholastic has ever known as well as transformed into a most lovely reception hall with all the formality of flower festoons and white marble. The schola colors were used as a moif in the refreshments as well as in the ornamentation. There was a short but excellent musical program by Conway Peters and the String flame semble. The sophomores, in exceptionally good vioce that night, sang their class song, written by Walter Meyland. The reception has been pronounced by authorities as one of the most soul-satisfying functions ever sponsored by the College. The Baccalaurate Exercises, held at the College Auditorium on the afternoon of June the sixteenth at three o'clock were very impressive. The address by Deant H. S. Abbewhite was an inspiring as well as practical one which was much enjoyed by the graduates and the large group of friends and relatives who were present.

Following the processional the College String Quarter played Chant sans patient of the string the str frandates and relatives who were present.

Following the processional the College String Quartet played (Chant sans paroless' by Techsikowsky. The invocation was given by Rew. Sidney Smith, after which Miss Charlotte Craig sang "A Loving Father" by Teresa del Riego; she was accompanied by Myrtle Nyquist. The program closed with another delightful selection by the Quartet, "Romance" by Mozart, after which he Rev. Smith offered benediction.

There are few commencement speakers who can boast of the feat which Professor Roy Hamilton may well be proud of having achieved. To as much as hold the attention of even a small crowd in such weather as Marquette enjoyed on the eighbenth of June, was an accomplishment remarkable, but to have delighted the crowded assembly as Mr. Hamilton did is indeed sufficient

Labor Day Parade Wins Priceless Prize.

The Faculty Reception to Students which took place in the Gymnasium on Friday, June 28, proved delightfully informal as a mixer. From the moment you entered, even before the reception line was reached, there was the constant greeting of old faces and new, everybody was popular, especially if they were born in an unpopular month. The problem of getting a complete calendar of months from the birthdays of friends was a unique and effective way of keeping people in circulation.

It is rather difficult to describe the stunts presented for each month, and do justice to them. Of course as students of Northern, we respect and would not question the decision of the judges which gave September the prize. We surely sympathize with the significant banner which it bore, "Less Work, More Pay." It is astounding what unusual abilities, almost egains one might say, may The Faculty Reception to Studen

DOROTHEA JOHNSON

There are few who might contend that they have enjoyed Northern more thoroughly than Dorothea Johnson who was graduated with her degree last month.

Dorothea has made a business being interested in everything of im-portance that has transpired at Northern and has been affiliated with practically all of the student activities. She was a member of the News Staff for three years, on the Kawbawgam staff ('28), on the hon-or roll, a member of Phi Epsilon, and was presented with the Delt Sigma Nu scholarship key in 1928 Sigma Nu scnoiarsing key in legs.

She was Senior Class president this year and president of Delta Sigma Nu in '28, and sovority treasurer the preceding year. She was treasurer of the Sophomore class ('27), a member of the student council and president of the physical education club. physical education club.

dent council and president of the physical education club.

Carrying over her high school interests, borothea was a member of the Forum Debating Society (25 and 26) and on the Intercollegiate team this past year. She was a member of the Dramatic club (25-26), played the role of Marion in "The Boonnerang" (the Sophomore play of 1927), and was a dancer in "A Nautical Knot" (1928).

In addition to such a list of activities she has led yells for all the athletic affairs at college for the past four years and was an assistant in the biology department.

Dorothea's hobbies are proportious and varied; she enjoys swimming, hiking, and dancing, and plays the piano well. Among those less obvious and more personal fondnesses is Dor's most emphatic preference for red hair.

Dorothea goes to L'Anse next year where she will teach physical education and biology.

BASEBALL HEADS SUMMER SPORTS

Baseball is the sport at school right now. It started with the challenge of the single men to the married men to play a game of indoor, provided the married men's wives "permitted them?" to do so. The wives did; and the married men did up the single men, 4-3; however, it took them two extra innings to do so.

The batteries: for the married men, Tambly and Hurst; for the single men, Lieffers and W. Meyland.

single men, Lieffers and W. Meyland.

Outdoor baseball furnishes the real interest, however. Four teams are in the "league"—the Faculty team, the Browns, the Athleties, and the Socks. The first game to be played was between the Faculty and the Browns. It was a real pitchers' battle, well worth seeing; and it's a good thing no big league socute were present or Northern would lose both pitchers of students and faculty.
Bottom struck out seven men in the four innings played, while Tamblyn struck out five. The feature of the game was Cameron's catch of Butler's bunt pop-up. Only a big time catcher could get one like that. The game ended at darkness in a 1-1 tie.

There will be only one lyceum number this summer and that will be presented in the auditorium on Wednesday morning at 9:55 o'clock. Northerm can be praised for the class of lyceum numbers that have been secured.

On Wednesday morning we will hear Paul Shirley and his viola d'amore. Paul Shirley is the descendant of an old Huguenot family and an American citizen. His has been a successful and interesting career. He was the pupil of Hermann Ritter, the creator of a new era of viola playing. When he was 21 years of age, he was appointed a member of the famous Court Chapel in Weimar. At 23, he was selected solo viola at the Court Theater in Darmstadt and a year later was called to the Wagner Festivals in Bayreuth in this capacity. While playing in chamber of the present of the Wagner's house, Villa Wahnfried, Dr. Muck heard Mr. music in Richard Wagner's house, Villa Wahnfried, Dr. Muck heard Mr. Shirley and invited him to come to Boston and invited him to come to member of the Boston Symphony ormemoer of the Boston Symphony or-cness.a.

The distinquishing characteristic of the viola d'amore is a set of fine metal strings which are stretched be-neath the seven played strings. These "sympathetic" strings are These "sympathetic" strings are tuned to the key in which the instrument is to be played but they are never touched by the bow. Their sole function is to vibrate sympathetically to the sound of the playd strings, thus producing a wealth o overtones which give the instrument The romantic name "viola d'amore" must have come from this delicate response of string to string.

Good specimens of this instrument are rare. Mr. Shirley will perform on his famous Lorenzo e Tomassi Carcassi, built in Florence, 1783.

Fun Fundamentals

Periodically, there are little guss of petty dissuisfaction that reach the tolerant ears of oldtimers who have the habit of listening to the continual sweet chant of love and praise of Northern. They are, for the most part, from the children who, not having experience in the science of independent enjoyment, cannot explain their predicament except in terms of what the College is not doing.

If 'ere before a man had drunk Tom sopecific, we have heard maldenly sighs to the effect that there are hundreds of newcomers with us who are languishing from loneliness; that the natives are not doing their part in overcoming this; that we indulge in cliques; that the men don't take care of wall-flowers; that the leave won't break; in short, that they can't get 'in."

Forgive us if we are abrupt. Our reply is that you need education! Whether you have spant five years in the world's best university or in teaching a trunt school, or even treash from the home town, you are pronounced guilty. If you haversheen endowed with the ability to live spontaneously and Joyously, and most people are not, does it logically follow that it is the duty of any your associates to create that gift for you? That, you must concede, would be quite a responsibility.

Don't misunderstand. We are not ordering you to spend your time at a social evening convincing yourself that you.are having a good time by grifting your teeth, swallowing your hardman's apple, and repeating resolutely through your furn, "I am to having a most enjoyable and enviable time. I am to!" Be temperate, so our faculty often advises.

To get down to fundamentals, it would be rather awkward if each individual were under obligation toget into lengthy communication with every other individual in a group the size of those we find at the gym on Friday nights. If you graduated in 1925, doesn't it seem just like old times to see so many of the old gang back? There is Evelyn Vernn, still full of initiative and energy; Ethel Lace who has gained more than poise according to the scales; Orion Cardew, the tall lanky basketball coach at Palmer; Walter Doyle, Florence Dahlin, Doroiliy Wilson, Eva Erickson, and Margaret Richards. Mariat bliss hasn't dimmed Mush Everett's smile, nor has Calientat Cobb's voice lost any of its charm, Veronica Larson is still haunting the library. Percy Murphy has been gaining fame as a business manager, we hear. It seemed natural to see George Watts playing in the orchestra at the faculty reception. Helen Niles has changed to the doubte file ranks since we saw her last. Then, too, there is Amy Olson who typifies our spirit, for even though she has a degree she is still working at Northern.
