STUDENTS REVEL AMIDST ARCTIC LIGHTS AND ICE

Sophomore Prom Features Cold Setting and Hot Music

Carrying out its decoration motif, The "Northern Lights" very cleverly and effectively, the Sophomore class entertained a large crowd of students and alumni, and their guests, at its annual prom, which was held in the college gymnasium last Friday evening, December 2.

Silhouetted against the black background of the walls stood an array of evergreens, realistic penguins and life-like polar bears of white bluing. Paper icicles suspended from the running track, and fluffly snow flees completed a typical northern winter scene.

Two girls from John D. Pierce, dressed in skaters' costumes, distributed the favors, colorful chenille ski riders and tiny white dolls, during the grand march. A group of Pierce girls served at the punch bowls.

This year's prom was featured by the exceptionally fine music of Warner Ruh's orchestra of Calumet. Refreshments of turkey and ham sandwiches, salad, ice cream, rolls and coffee were served in the recreation rooms. The rooms were attractively decorated, the small tables having olive and gold mats, napkins of the same college colors, and their centerpieces of lighted green candles.

The guests were greeted by the Sophomore class president, George Cavender; Miss Betty Bell; the Freshman class president, Herbert Alvord; Miss Betty Stanley, vice-president; and Mrs. Webster H. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ebersole, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McClintock.

The officers of the Sophomore class are: President, George Cavender; vice-president, John Wiley; secretary, Mary Pasquale, and treasurer, Helen Holman. The following committees had charge of arrangements: Music, Donald Young; reception—Frank Paull, Naima Grieff, Lorraine Popple; refreshments—Helen Holman, Laverne Phillips, Victoria Nelson; favors—Douglas Kell, Linnea Levine, Virginia Mann; invitations—Virginia Butts, Dorothy Jean Anderson, Angeline Zenti; decorations—George Gill, Mary Williams, Jayne Peterson, Ursula Diabnow, Coila Syrjala, Margaret Bryce, Daisy Kyrler.

The first of a series of four reading institutes was held last Friday in the Central grade school in Ne-gaunee.

Miss Maude Van Antwerp of the Northern State Teachers College faculty was in charge of the institute. The program included diagnostic tests, planned procedures and ways of improving the reading of individuals and groups.

Friday's meeting, as well as the other three meetings, lasted three hours. Following the meeting, the instructor discussed individuals' problems.

Christmas Vacation Begins On Wednesday

Everything's on the up and up now that December 14 (Christmas vacation) is just around the corner. Even the thought of that last hectic week of exams doesn't seem to cause many headaches, since the general feeling is "the sooner they come, the sooner they're over". Besides, we have the prom, Christmas concert and the annual Christmas concert and the annual college gymnasium last Friday evening, December 2.

Silhouetted against the black background of the walls stood an array of evergreens, realistic penguins and life-like polar bears of white bluing. Paper icicles suspended from the running track, and fluffly snow flees completed a typical northern winter scene.

NIMRODS RETURN FROM JAUNT TO FOREST HAUNTS

Butler and Hurst Prove To Be Faculty Deadeye Dicks

Members of the faculty who experience an annual reawakening of the primitive hunting instinct may again relax, oil their rifles, and return them to their scabbards. Deer season is over. Faculty members who tried their luck during the past season were: Messrs. Clucas, Gant, Slick, Thoren, Ferns, Butler, Halverson, McClintock and Hurst. The successful ones were Mr. Butler and Mr. Hurst.

As in all deer seasons, this season brought forth many a long tale which defies even the credulity of an angler (who's always ready to go one better). But strangely enough, many are true.

It seems that two members of a college faculty, being tired, sat down, lit a fire, and proceeded to cook a meal. Suddenly out of the thicket jumped a big buck, ostensibly bent on breaking bread with these two weary hunters. As he stood there, by their fireside, these two doughty nimrods, gant and hearslike, collaborated on giving him a hearty welcome—and—

"file on them, oh file" to victor came the spoils.

We are happy that our faculty members would not stoop to such a ignominious crime. Faculty members will, from now on, devote their time to fireside "chats".

TRI MU'S DANCE HONORS PLEDGES

Susan, Carlson Provide Entertaiment During Intermission

The members of the Tri Mu fraternity staged a dance Saturday, November 19th, in the John D. Pierce gymnasium, in honor of the pledges. A crowd estimated at about fifty couples were present.

Each couple was presented with a gold and blue dance program on which was the fraternity insignia. In addition to the regular dances the group enjoyed a circular two-step and a broom dance led by Glenn Hunter, past president of the fraternity.

During intermission Stanley Susan, Northern's magician, performed a number of entertaining tricks with "Rusty" Roberts, Bessemer sophomore, playing the role of sucker. Floyd "Ole" Carlson was also there to tell in his amusing, humorous, Swedish dialect how things were down "Eben way".

Refreshments, consisting of ice cream rolls and hot chocolate, were served immediately following the entertainment. James Soil, George Treblcock, and Don Oates headed the committee.

At present a basketball schedule is being prepared for the Tri Mu Ramblers. They will play as many independent basketball teams as they can contact. Francis Vretot, foremost Rambler enthusiast, is going to be manager and coach. The Tri Mu's expect to outfit the Ramblers soon with new equipment.

DRAMA SOCIETY PRESENTS PLAY

"Small Town Girl" Re- ceived Enthusiastically By Audience

One of the term's most popular and best attended assemblies was held Monday morning, December 5, at which time the Drama Club under the direction of Professor Roberts presented "Small Town Girl", a comedy in one act. The play was well cast, every member being suited to his part, and a hilarious thirty minutes of entertainment was the result.

Ralph Gunville turned in an excellent performance as a likable, middle-aged business man, harassed by every member of his family. Mary Harvey was likable as the small-town college girl who was temporarily obsessed with big town ideas due to the influence of a dashing young novelist portrayed by Alfred Anderson.

Convincing performances were also given by Jayne Peterson as a giddy high school girl, Ruth Williams as the sensible, efficient wife, and Arthur Greeno as Mary's home town boy friend.

PARKER SERVES ANNUAL DINNER

Fraternity Also Sponsors Thanksgiving Social Evening

The annual Thanksgiving turkey dinner, given by the faculty adviser, Mr. Earle M. Parker, was held on November 20 for 55 members and guests of the Theta Omicron Rho fraternity.

A musical program was announced by Curtis Gianville. The guests were grouped in the central hall while the musicians were stationed on the music balcony.

Arthur Halonen played a few fine piano solos and also accompanied Walter Davis who gave a trumpet solo and the vocal solos by Douglas Edwards. The special attraction was the fraternity ensemble composed of Douglas Edwards, Merle Clayton, Curtis Gianville, Lawrence Gay, Spence Mathison and Oliver Helman who sang several numbers. In addition to the 34 members and pledges present, guests at the dinner included: President and Mrs. Webster H. Pearce, Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Garby, Mr. and Mrs. John Lautner, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ebersole, Mrs. Rollin Thoren, Miss E. Archambault, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. West, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Derleth, and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jopling, and alumni, Edward Pearce and Paul Siegel.

The Thetas sponsored the social evening held in the college gymnasium on November 18. The farm atmosphere was produced by the large pumpkins and cornstalks placed about the gym, along with rakes and other similar implements. An amusing "Old Dobbin" rigged from gymnasium equipment was placed in one corner, and from the balcony shone a big harvest moon made by John Finn.

A feature of the evening was a parade of the livestock prizes headed by James Harris playing a mouth organ. Following him was Girard Buchko leading a big goose. Joe Parker escorted the chicken and Edward Sutter, the turkey. The active and squealing porker was led by Merritt Leaf. The prizes were awarded to: Miss Myrtle Haupt, the chicken; Miss Dorothy Sharp, the turkey; Miss Marion Peterson, the goose; and Mrs. Aida Duter, the porker, who found a home at Mr. C. B. Hedgecock's farm.

Chairmen of committees included: Robert Wilmers, Oliver Helman, prizes; tickets and music, Walter McClintock. Frank Paull with a committee of pledges was in charge of the decorations.

AUDIENCE HEARS FORESTRY TALK

Allen Emphasizes Great Importance Of Natural Resources

An appreciative audience heard a speech on "The Conservation of Natural Resources" by Shirley W. Allen, Professor of Forestry at the University of Michigan, on November 17, 1938. As the main objective of his speech, he emphasized that natural resources should be the greatest good to the greatest number for the longest time.

"In Colonial days", stated Mr. Allen, "people were self-interested and used natural resources with no discrimination. Although a step has been taken in the right direction, very little has been done in conserving our natural resources."

"Although land is no longer given away for indiscriminate use, and although some effort has been made for guiding lands to appropriate use, we are far from having solved the nation's land conservation problem. "In the case of forests, the government with private owner's help, is doing its bit. Forest fire control research in various fields of forestry, and reforestation are being dealt with in a much greater degree than ever before.

"Public subsidies, construction, and administration of water resources for power, flood control, irrigation, and domestic use are being authorized and undertaken.

"In the problem of conserving wild life, greater strides have been taken than in most other fields. "Mining is very weakly regulated by the Federal Government, and inasmuch as minerals are irreplaceable, something should be done to conserve them. "Human resources have been aided by education, social security, health services, and worthy use of leisure time. "All these conservation problems are interlocked and can be taught most effectively in the schools."

Hi-Y Club Sponsors Annual Promenade

The Hi-Y Club of J. D. Pierce will sponsor the annual Promenade on Tuesday evening, December 13, from 8 to 11:00. This year the Prom promises to be an unusually gala event and is being well-prepared for by the following competent committee.

Entertainment—John DeVoe, Warren Green.
Favors—Carl DeSautelle, Alfred Bogart.
Music—James Hatch, Lowell Ripelle.
Refreshments—George Anderson, Robert Schrandt.
Invitations—Byron Ebersole, Charles Carpenter.
Advertising—Howard Korp.
The officers of the Hi-Y are:
President Arthur Koski
Vice-Pres. George Anderson
Secretary James Hatch
Treasurer Byron Ebersole

Northern, Pierce Students Present Annual Christmas Programs For Townsfolk

Training School Pupils Contribute Pageant To Holiday Spirit

The Festival of the North Pine, a play, and the Christmas pageant "There was one who gave a lamb" were presented by the students of the John D. Pierce school last evening in the college auditorium.

The role of Father Christmas was taken by Donald McDonnell of the eighth grade and Warren Green, high school student, was Santa Claus. Junior High students played the principal parts with the following eighth graders: James Mense, Patricia Mance and James Smith, cast respectively as the Man with Bags of Grain, an Angel, and the Man with Bags of Gold. Charlotte Meyland and Lewis Bazinet, Seventh Graders, took the parts of the Girl with Bowl of Flowers and Joseph. John Pantalone of the fifth grade was the Boy With a Lamb.

'SHAVINGS' SEEN IN AUDITORIUM

John D. Pierce Seniors Give Class Play Last Week

The Senior Class of the John D. Pierce school presented their annual Senior play Monday, November 21, in the college auditorium. The play, "Shavings", a comedy in three acts, was very well received, as its originality of plot and its different setting especially pleased the audience.

The play was directed by Miss Lucille Payne. She was generously helped by student teachers and by those two marvelous stage hands, Miss Ward and Mr. Ferns, who really "put something over" when coming to stage decorations.

The leads were taken by Warren Green and Mary Elizabeth Hedgecock. The complete cast is as follows:

- Maude Hummel
- Arthur Koski
- Charles Carpenter
- Edward Winslow, "Shavings"
- Warren Green
- Gabriel Bearse, "Gave"
- John DeVoe
- Barbara Armstrong
- Mary Ann Kepler
- Ruth Armstrong
- Joan Paull
- Leander Babbitt
- James Pompo
- Phineas Babbitt
- Carl DeSautelle
- Major Leonard Grover
- George Apostle
- Charles Phillips
- George Anderson

Sports Movies Shown At General Assembly

At a general assembly on Monday, November 21, the students of N. S. T. C. were shown movies from beginning to end and from end to beginning. After some difficulty and the running of the film backwards the students were entertained with the film "The Sports Parade".

This film was of particular interest to the people of this part of the country because of the many winter sports which were shown.

The portion entitled "Skiing On Your Feet" was instructive as well as entertaining. The fundamentals of the winter sport which has taken the country by storm were shown. It was pointed out that it is a sport which depends on one's own skill and requires as much skill to go slow as to a breakneck speed.

College Orchestra, Chorus Appear Next Sunday Afternoon

The Northern State Teachers College Symphony orchestra and chorus, under the direction of Dr. Roy Williams, will present their annual Christmas concert in the college auditorium Sunday afternoon at 3:30, December 11.

The Symphony orchestra will open the program with the overture, "Iphigenia in Aulis," by Christoph Gluck. This overture, which was written in 1774, as the opening orchestral number to the tragic opera, portrays four outstanding motives. They are: (1) a motive of appeal offered by a heart torn with anguish, (2) a motive of power—imperious and overbearing, (3) a motive of grace and maidenly tenderness, and (4) a motive of sorrow and agonizing pity. "Christmas Music" by Edward Grieg will be the second number by the orchestra.

The college chorus of 110 voices will interpret the dramatic and beautiful cantata, "The Story of Christmas" by H. Alexander Mathews. The story is told in four parts: Part I—The Prophecy; Part II—The Vision of the Shepherds; Part III—The Quest of the Magi; Part IV—The Fulfillment of the Prophecy.

The program is as follows:

- Part I. The Prophecy
Chorus, "Behold the days come"
The announcement
Soprano solo and chorus, "The angel Gabriel was sent from God"
Francis Layne
Part II. The Vision of the Shepherds
Introduction and chorus, "There were Shepherds abiding in the fields"
Soprano solo, "And the angel said unto them"
Katherine Valaska
Chorus, "Glory to God in the Highest"
The Journey of the Shepherds
Tenor solo and chorus, "And it came to Pass"
Thomas Walton
Voices of the sky
Soprano solo, "O lovely voices of the sky"
Ruth Laux
Part III. The Quest of the Magi
Instrumental March
Baritone and tenor solos and chorus, "Behold there came three wise men"
Clarence Magoon
Then Herod
Stanley Susan
Chorus, "From the Eastern Mountain"
Tenor solo and chorus, "And when they were come unto the House"
Arthur McCombe
Chorus, "O Come all ye Faithful"
Contralto solo and chorus, "Sleep Holy Babe"
Dorothy Beckman, Dorothy Lindstrom
Part IV. The Fulfillment of the Prophecy
Chorus, "Awake O Zion"
Soprano solo, "The Lord hath comforted his people"
Lenore Moore
Chorus, "Christ, to thee, with God and the Father"
As their concluding number the chorus will sing the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah.
The chorus will be accompanied by an orchestra of 15 selected musicians.
As a grand finale the chorus and audience, accompanied by the orchestra, will sing carols of Christmas tide.
but not least the human polar bears who would rather bathe in ice water than take a warm shower.
That part of the film entitled "Big Fish" showed the thrills of deep sea fishing.
Tennis games, golf tournaments, boat races, auto races, hockey games, swimming and baseball were the other sports which furnished their share of the entertainment.

School Spirit

LAST Saturday night there was a basketball game here. Northern's varsity was defeated by a sparkling alumni squad. The defeat, as such, is unimportant; what is important about this contest is that it served as a barometer to indicate student interest in the team.

The southern portion of the west bleachers was literally packed with enthusiastic rooters out to cheer on the team. The south portion of the west bleachers has an estimated maximum capacity of sixty persons. Scattered throughout the gymnasium were small knots of students who helped to swell the total to some hundred odd excluding band members.

Cheering was confined to a group of Tri Mus who had the foresight to bring along their own cheerleaders. When the band blared out in the stirring strains of "Come Men of Northern" the students in attendance rose as one man and sang with all of the gusto of a rampant snail.

Where were the other students?

Where were the cheerleaders?

Where was the pep and interest that a normal bunch of college students ought to have in their team?

Tonight there is another game. Let us hope that there will be a complete reversal of form as displayed at that first contest.

N. Y. A.

A SURVEY was recently made by NYA officials in Michigan of the work and attitude of students receiving NYA aid in this state. The survey consisted of the tabulation and evaluation of replies made by faculty NYA supervisors and by 2939 students, 77 of them at Northern. The study was made to determine where improvements could be made especially in administrative procedure.

In most respects the results of the survey at Northern were very similar to results in other institutions. It was revealed that recipients of NYA aid here, as at other colleges, stood higher scholastically than average. This was due, in part at least, to the C average qualification of all who work on NYA.

One major difference of opinion between students and supervisors was on the matter of correlation between major studies and NYA work. It is the policy of NYA to give, as far as possible, work which coincides with the students' major interest. If we understand the theory of NYA aid it is the policy of this bureau to avoid having their charges take over work formerly handled by regular employees. This accounts partially for the lack of correlation mentioned. Much of the work done by men NYA workers is semi-skilled or unskilled and college courses in unskilled labor are hard to find.

What seems to be one of the major grievances was not included in the survey and this is the haphazard manner in which NYA employees decide to go to work whenever convenient. When it is impossible for them to take over regular jobs it is of course difficult to make in advance a time schedule which will keep all NYA men busy; nevertheless, with the aid of a wage scale it should be possible to obtain better results.

NYA men should be required to fill out at least one day in advance the hours which they intend to work. With this knowledge their supervisor can apportion jobs so as to keep all men working at a certain time busy. If the student has failed to signify his intention to work he should not be permitted to work at that time.

The wage scale could be utilized to provide student supervision, as it is obviously impossible for the faculty supervisors to be present on all jobs. Upperclassmen, students who have done NYA or similar work previously, and have proved their capability and dependability, could be paid slightly more for acting as foremen wherever a job requiring several workers is being done. The additional pay would provide an incentive to the workers to prove that they possess the aforementioned qualities and would therefore improve the quality of the work done. The training in administration which the foremen would thus receive would undoubtedly prove an asset to them.

SCOOPS

By Snoops

SOMETHING OLD:
Snoops brings you scoops of pre-vacation days. "Twas the night before the Tri Mu pledge party, and all through the house not a creature was studying, not even a louse . . .

Reason why:
These enthusiasts SOLI, TREBILCOCK, MAIENKNECHT, BILGEN, and MAIGETTER rejoiced in "the" team's victory.

Lovers and losers were lured to the Theta Social where Snoops found:

BOB WILMERS in "Seventh Heaven" with JOSEPHINE BRUYN. JITTERBUG LEONARDELLI swinging and swaying the brunettes. FROSH, JAMES HARRIS, rug-cutting with DOROTHY BUSICK. FRANK "PUN" PAULL tripping the light fantastic with "MARJ" MAGLEAN.

Snoops followed the crowd to the Tri Mu party where WALTER MARCHAND, unaccustomed as he was to public speaking, acted as master of ceremonies. Among those in the limelight:

ALLAN FUNKEY with the love-light in his eyes for RITA GAVILLO. RAY NELSON trucked on down with LIZETTE ANDERSON.

Snoops also found "Little Boy Blue" BERGE blowing his horn for DONALDA GRAHAM. RUTH SCHRANDT "KELLED" time with DOUGLAS.

SOMETHING NEW:
Snoops went From-Peeping to be in the swish of current two-omen BARBARA SWEENEY and EDNA SKAGEN imported Iron Mountain gigoles.

SMILING LAWRENCE KELLY squiring frosh, MARIAN PETERSON.

HELEN RENTENBACH surprising us with JACK HUBBARD.

GEORGE CAVENDER leading the "BELL" of the ball.

MILDRED MAHAN sophisticatedly swinging with BILL VAN CLEVE.

Gentlemen prefer blondes—proof? BOB NORTHEY and JANE PETERSON.

Small Fry JOHN FELLOW doing the Lambeth walk with JEAN BELLSTROM.

SOMETHING BORROWED:
Tech's H. and T. house inmates amusing themselves with radios, cards, magazines, and a nice big electric train set up on the second floor for the poor shut-ins to play with. Reason why—scarlet fever quarantine.

"Something about ABE MATH- EWES reminds me of the attraction of a candle flame for a moth. The moth in question was ARLENE CARLSON.

SOMETHING BLUE:
The Tri-Mus, because there weren't enough shirts for them all to go to the party.

Advice to Lovelorn:

INDUSTRIAL ART STUDENTS MEET

The first meeting of the Industrial Arts Club for the current quarter was held on November 15. At this meeting the matter of dues was discussed. Talks were given by Truman Atwell on "The Evolution of Industrial Arts" and by Donald Lahti who spoke on aluminum.

The second meeting was held on Tuesday, November 29. John Samanen spoke on "Printing" and Kenneth Whipple chose as his subject "The Automobile". The former was of particular interest to the prospective teachers as courses in printing are becoming increasingly popular.

FACULTY FACTS

President and Mrs. Pearce visited with their family in Ann Arbor during the Thanksgiving vacation.

Friday, November 25, 1938, will always remain the most important date in Mr. Hurst's summary of history. It was on this date that Mr. Hurst shot his first buck deer. The rest of the hunting party, Mr. McClintock, Mr. Ferns, Mr. Meyland, and Mr. Gant returned home "empty handed".

Miss Madia Thorpe of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, has been engaged as art instructor to fill the vacancy left by Miss Grace Spalding's resignation at the end of the summer term. Miss Thorpe, a graduate of the University of Minnesota, was supervisor of art in the Wakefield public schools for five years, supervisor of art in East High School, Green Bay, Wisconsin, for a year and a half, and for the past two and a half years she has been executive secretary of the Cedar Rapids Council of Camp Fire Girls. She has spent her summers directing girls' summer camps. The students and faculty members of Northern are very happy to welcome Miss Thorpe.

Miss Verna Gilbert, who has for the past year been Women's physical education instructor at Northern, resigned her position Thursday, November 17, to accept a teaching position in a high school in the state of Washington. Mrs. Louise Rushton is filling the vacancy for the remainder of this term.

Mr. Bottum, Mr. Clucas, and Mr. Copper judged a debate between Ishpeming and Escanaba at Ishpeming, Friday, November 18.

Mr. Brown lectured to the members of the Crystal Falls Rotary Club on the topic "Alcohol and Gasoline" and to the Woman's Club on "The Delinquent in the Making", Tuesday, November 22.

What Goes On Here—"MARGE" TREBILCOCK.
That Certain Age—GRANT MAYNARD.

Two Sleepy People—Mr. and Mrs. SANFORD BURTON.

Don't wait until the night before Christmas to be good because Snoops as well as Santa Claus goes to town.

House Of David Quint
Boasts Many Wins;
Few Losses

Tomorrow night in the Northern State Teachers College gym, basketball fans in this vicinity will have an opportunity to watch one of the best professional basketball teams in the country in action when the highly-touted House of David team comes here from Benton Harbor, Michigan, to meet our own Northern.

The House of David quint is composed of former college players who last year went through a grueling schedule of eight-five games, winning seventy-one of them. (A good record in any man's league.)

Doug Piaro, diminutive forward, sparks the team with his uncanny eye for the basket. Incidentally this boy is under contract to the St. Louis Cardinals baseball team.

Ossie Swinehart, who captains the team, is a former University of Wisconsin star noted for his clown antics and long-shot ability.

Along with these two boys, who are expected to thrill the audience, the fans must keep an eye on George Anderson, a genuine House of David product, who is well-known in this vicinity because of his third-basing on the House of David baseball team.

Because such a fine opponent has been obtained for this game, it is expected that a capacity crowd will witness the game tomorrow night, so it might be a wise policy to come early and get a good seat!

HORN "TOOTERS" LEAVE PIGKINS FOR SAXOPHONES

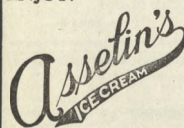

If you'd take Esquire's Carleton Smith's word for it, you modern "rah-rah" boys are in enough of a money-making frame of mind these days to trade a football for a saxophone. Writing in the current issue of Dave Smart's glorified men's fashion column, Friend Smith maintains that the modern bandleader has replaced the hip-twisting "whirling dervish" of an All-American back on the mantle of campus idolatry. Going further, he declares that you're becoming more and more interested in the baton-waving profession as a quick way of making big money as a result of the example set by many of today's top maestri who go their starts with campus bands.

Included in Smith's list of college cut-ups who made good with a baton were Hal Kemp, Skinnay Ennis, Kay Kyser, John Scott Trotter and Jan Garber, U. of North Carolina; Bunry Berigan, Wisconsin; Horace Heidt, California; Bob Crosby, Gonzaga; Ted Weems, University of Pennsylvania; Fred Waring, Penn State; Sammy Kaye, Ohio U.; Frankie Masters, Indiana; Gus Haenschen, U. of St. Louis; Orrin Tucker and Herbie Kay, Northwestern; Ben Cutler and Rudy Valle, Yale; Seymour Simons and George Olson, Michigan; Johnny Long and Wes Brown, Duke; Peter Van Steeden and Nye Mayhew, N. Y. U.; Al Donahue, Boston U.; Shep Fields, St. John's; Buddy Rogers, U. of Kansas; Roger Pryor, Illinois; Ozzie Nelson, Rutgers; Eddy Duchin, Massachusetts State; and Johnny Green, Harvard.

Soli, L'Anse Senior
Selected As Captain

It was announced last week that James Soli, L'Anse senior was elected basketball captain for the 1938-39 season.

ENJOY!

"Cream of the North"

From the Bleachers

By MAIG.

Now that basketball season is here again, we deem it fitting and proper to introduce the players representing Northern on the court for the 1938-39 season:

James Soli, senior; forward; No. 23; height, six feet, one inch. Hails from L'Anse, Michigan.

Phil Kelsey, junior; guard; No. 27; height, six feet, two inches. Hails from Wilmington, Ohio.

Valno Aho, senior; center; No. 28; height, six feet, three inches. Hails from Negaunee, Michigan.

Bob Northey, senior; forward; No. 33; height, five feet, ten inches. Hails from Negaunee, Michigan.

Bill Schenk, junior; guard; No. 25; height, six feet, one inch. Hails from Lake Linden, Michigan.

"Marge" Trebilcock, senior; forward; No. 34; height, five feet, ten inches. Hails from National Mine, Michigan.

Elmer LaCasse, senior; forward; No. 31; height, five feet, five inches. Hails from Harris, Michigan.

R. Lee Goodney, junior; forward; No. 24; height, five feet, eleven inches. Hails from Ishpeming, Michigan.

Joe Poisson, junior; forward; No. 31; height, five feet, eleven and seven-eighths inches. Hails from Iron Mountain, Michigan.

"Sheep" Mickelson, sophomore; center; No. 26; height, six feet. Hails from Eben, Michigan.

Leo Rytönen, junior; guard; No. 29; height, five feet, ten inches. Hails from Marquette, Michigan.

Stanley Long, sophomore; forward; No. 36; height, five feet, nine inches. Hails from Ishpeming, Michigan.

"Ty" Filpula, junior; guard; No. 32; height, five feet, eleven inches. Hails from Marquette, Michigan.

Dayton Kellan, junior; forward; No. 35; height, six feet. Hails from Negaunee, Michigan.

Now that you have some idea of those crazy fellows running around on the floor trying to put that pill through a hoop, let's get out there and let them know that you know just what's going on and give them some real backing.

Where Students Meet to Fit Their Feet

HOUSE OF DAVID BASKETEERS

TEACHERS MEET SUPERIOR THERE ON DECEMBER 15

Thursday, December 15, Coach Hedgcock and his lads will travel to Superior, Wisconsin, to resume relations in intercollegiate basketball with the Superior Teachers. This will be the first meeting between the two schools since 1932. Not much is known about the strength of the Superior Teachers but past records show that they have always put a well trained and powerful team on the floor.

This will be the first intercollegiate game for Northern this season and by the looks of the material the team should have a very successful season. (We hope!)

We sincerely hope the two schools will continue permanent relations in basketball for years to come.

GRADS, LED BY JOHNSON, TRIM VARSITY, 34-27

The Northern Alumni, led by Arne Johnson, nosed out the 1938-39 edition of the Olive and Gold basketball team Saturday, December 3. The grads came back after trailing 12-11 at half time to give Coach Hedgcock's boys a solid thumping to the tune of 34-27.

The floor play of the college team was a bit shaky, showing poor passing, and poor shooting. The boys just couldn't connect with the hoop, and there must be a lot of improvement before tackling the Benton Harbor House of David team Dec. 8. In defeating the college basketball team the Alumni gained a revenge for the thumping they received a year ago from the 1937-38 team. They completely outplayed and outguffed the Olive and Gold.

Scoring was well distributed among the Olive and Gold. Schenk took scoring honors with 8 points, Northey got 5, and Aho and Kelsey tied with four each. Arne Johnson with 13 points took the scoring honors of the evening, while Richards rang up six. The box score is as follows.

N. S. T. C.	FG	FM	PF	Tot.
Northey	2	1	2	5
Soli	0	0	1	0
Aho	1	2	1	4
Kelsey	2	0	2	4
Schenk	2	2	1	6

NEWMANITES GO TO SANITARIUM

On Tuesday evening, November 22, the Newman Club presented a program to the patients of Morgan Heights sanitarium. Acting as master of ceremonies, Walter Davis announced the program which was as follows:

Vocal Solo—Kathryn Valaske, accompanied by Helen Schneller.
Trumpet Solo—Walter Davis, accompanied by Helen Schneller.
Mouth organ Solo—James Harris.
Readings—Clara LaFevre.
Piانو Solo—Joe Parker.
Accordion Solo—Lawrence DeRider.

Miss Ayres spent her Thanksgiving vacation at her home in Kalamazoo.

Mr. Hurst attended the Northwestern University coaching school this summer.

FLASHES

Johnny Pingel of M. S. C. wound up his collegiate gridiron career in glory Saturday, contributing much to his team's 10-0 defeat of Temple.

Howard Weiss, Wisconsin full-back, received more first team votes than any other player, eight of the ten coaches voting for him on the All-Big Ten eleven.

Western conference football coaches named their All-Big Ten eleven Monday and three Michigan players were given places on the team. They were Tom Harmon, half-back; Forest Evashevski, quarter-back; and Ralph Heikkinen, guard. Heikkinen is a senior, the other two are sophomores.

Incidentally, Heikkinen is a U. P. boy and has been named on every RII-American this year.

Nore Dame made 145 substitutions against the Navy in 1930.

Georgia Tech won from Cumberland in 1917 by a score of 222-1. They piled up 32 touchdowns, 27 extra points and a field goal.

St. Norbert's Green Knights began basketball practice Nov. 14. Seven of last year's lettermen reported for the initial practice.

There are a lot of foolish men in the world, including the one who recently married a woman who threw a rolling pin 143 feet.

BASKETBALLERS TO DRILL DURING XMAS HOLIDAYS

Twelve to fifteen Northern net aces will drill to overcome shortcomings and improve assets at the basketball camp to be held during the last week of the Christmas vacation.

The camp will follow the three opening games of the season, and will be a prelude to the remainder of the schedule.

Head Coach C. B. Hedgcock said that the duration of the camp will depend upon the progress of the training program. Morning sessions are to be devoted to fundamentals, afternoon sessions to teamwork, and evening sessions to actual competition.

COLLEGES MAKE CONTRIBUTIONS

University of Toledo collegians voted 81 per cent against the new "up-sweep" hair-dos for women.

The majority of the Wellesley College freshmen have indicated that they prefer homemaking as a career.

A new club for commuters, called the Jacobus Club, has been formed at Stevens Institute of Technology.

One-quarter of the Princeton University freshmen are more than six feet tall.

CHRISTMAS BELLES

FROSH FORWARD FANCIFUL FAVOR

Dear Upper Classmen:

Yes, the poor little green worms have already digested your good advice and have agreed it's only fitting for us to acknowledge your kindness in tipping us off to the "do's" and "don'ts" of Northern by a reply.

We might say that more than once we've wished we were back in high school where everyone's your pal. It's hard to take when a supposedly sincere and helpful Senior Miss snubs our "Hello" or cheerful smile when she is walking with a male, and fairly gushes over us when only girls are present. Fear not, oh brown and withered invertebrates (invertebrate), we will not lure away your men!

The radiators obviously "hold up" not only freshmen; and, believe if you can, that the idea of "car siestas" was introduced to us innocents by older students. We are amazed at the lack of pep put forth at athletic contests, especially when the athletes are so fine, and—handsome. The Social evenings are really a treat for us "greenies" and we hope they continue.

The clubs and organizations have been more than kind in welcoming new members. We listen in great wonder to our teachers even though we're a bit wobbly in the knees when one calls our name.

Goodness knows, we've been trying hard to get on the inside of things at Northern, but so far the going's been plenty tough.

To those of you (and there are many) who have encouraged our efforts and who have made us feel as though we're an asset to Northern we wish to extend our thanks, and to all of you, we say that we'll do our utmost to make ourselves the way you want us.

Thanks again,
The Freshmen.

CLUBS

Phy. Ed.

On Tuesday, November 29, the Phy. Ed. Club had a delightful supper and social get-together.

The group was divided into six separate squads, and squad leaders were appointed. Six different types of contests were situated throughout the J. D. Pierce gym, such as bowling, free-shot basketball, a clothespin, and a bean bag game. Each squad passed from game to game attempting to make large scores. The winning squad was led by W. Schenk, and his co-workers were Dot Pault, O. Spigarelli and Ellis.

Supper consisted of potato salad, hot dogs, ice cream bars, and coffee. Entertainment committee: Glen Hunter, James Soll, P. Kelsey, and Mr. Hurst. Food committee: Dot Pault, Helen Mitchell, Clara Karas, and Catherine Thomas.

Commercial

This club has been taking short afternoon trips to places of commercial interest in Marquette. On November 15 the club visited the Bell Telephone Company and on November 29 they visited the Mining Journal offices.

November 30 was the date for their annual party luncheon which was held in the recreation rooms. Committees in charge were: Lunch—Catherine Hawes, Margaret Kepler, and Alice Baxter; program—Austin Lindberg and Paul Rosten.

SPOTLIGHT

We give you the dual-personality girl . . . artist and athlete; musician and sportswoman . . . Athlete? She swims, skates, skis, and wins tennis championships at Escanaba . . . Artist? At one time or another you've surely heard her "make her violin cry" . . . And just to complicate the picture there's the scholarship angle — a most-terms-honor-roll student . . . Founded the gavel at Phy. Ed. Club meetings for a long time, and now handles the finances for the Student Girls' League . . . Gives you a hearty "HY!" in the halls, and to know that its sincerely meant, just steal a look at those direct brown eyes . . . Likes people of independence and backbone; maybe Northern's athletes have such, judging from her first-row rooting at the games . . . Adds the notes of humor and hilarity to Tau Pi Nu parties . . . Dislikes letter-writing, and does like—onions! . . . Takes understandable pride in her appointment this year as the Orchestra's Concert Master . . . Did we say dual personality? We beg your pardon—it's four-sided at least. Hats off to wholesome and hearty . . . Clara Karas!

Music

The regular monthly meeting of this club was held Tuesday, November 29, in the recreation rooms. Plans for the winter term activities were discussed, which included plans for a music club banquet.

A Little Symphony has been organized within the club under the direction of Curtis Glanville.

The program following the business meeting included a vocal solo, "I have a Rendezvous with Life," sung by Leo Gendron; a piano solo, "Raindrop Prelude" by Chopin, played by Arthur Halonen; and a novelty stunt called a Musical Quiz presented by Helen Schneller and Lauren Blohm.

Home Ec.

The Home Economics Club is planning a Christmas party to be held in the recreation rooms Wednesday evening, December 7.

There will be a Christmas tree and the Yuletide spirit will be heightened by the immortal practice of exchanging gifts.

The committee in charge is: Ruth Schrandt, Helen Holman, LaVerne Phillips, and Ruth Walker.

SORORITIES

Ceg-Beta

The Theta House, Saturday evening, November 19, was the scene of another delightful party given for the Cegmer Seg and Beta sororities by their respective faculty advisers, Mile, Archambault and Miss Ruth Craig.

The party was an informal one which included dancing, bowling and ping pong. Delicious refreshments were served during the course of the evening.

Mrs. Gilbert Brown, patroness of the Betas, was also a guest.

Saturday afternoon, December 3, pledges of this sorority entertained their "sisters" at the Drury residence on East Hewitt. This party is traditionally a "kid party" and this year the same traditions were again followed in that all members and pledges came dressed as children.

Lunches were served in box-lunch style and the pledges entertained through games and songs.

It was most successful and proved to have its usual amount of fun and hilarity.

Phi Kappa

On Saturday, December 10, the Phi Kappa Nu will hold their annual Christmas turkey dinner. The sorority girls with their patronesses, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Williams, and guest, Mrs. Howe, will be visited by Santa Claus during the evening. Each girl will receive a gift accompanied by a suitable verse.

After the dinner the sorority pledges will entertain the members and their escorts at a Christmas dance in the J. D. Pierce gym. The Phi Kappa Nu sorority is making complete wardrobes for five dolls which will be given to little poor girls. Crocheted bonnets and booties, wooly flannel bunnings and frilly dimity dresses are examples of the girls' work.

Forum

At a candlelight ceremony held in the recreation rooms, Tuesday evening, November 22, Forum Debating Society initiated four new members: Lea Flink, of Houghton; Mabel Watanen, Bessemer; Margaret Kubont, McMillan; and Eugenia Smith, Baraga.

Delas

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Roberts have accepted the invitation to become patron and patroness of Delta Sigma Nu sorority.

FORCIER HEADS

NEWMAN GROUP

The regular monthly meeting of the Newman Club was held November 15. The following nominees for president were presented to the members of the club for their vote: Arthur Forcier, Thomas O'Connell, and William Berube. Arthur Forcier was elected president. Reports were given on religious topics by Olive Ann Desjardins, Arthur Forcier, and Clara LaFevre.

Lawrence DeRidder was chosen as publicity chairman of the Newman Club for the remainder of the year.

After the business meeting the following program was presented:

Trumpet Solo—Walter Davis, accompanied by Helen Schneller.
French Recitation—Clara LaFevre.
Accordion Solo—Lawrence DeRidder.

Anything Worth Having-- Costs Money . . . !

And an education is no exception. Handling income and out-go; making both ends meet; and having money left over for other things are problems that confront all students. Many Northern College students have found the answer in the facilities of the First National of Marquette. They use a Checking Account for handling income and out-go—they use a Savings Account for safety, setting aside funds for future use—they bank conveniently by mail to save time. May we serve you, too, in any or all of these capacities?
