TERM'S VARIED LYCEUM COURSE SKED ANNOUNCED

Program Provides Students With Exceptional Entertainment

Featuring an outstanding group of artists, the college lyceum course for the first semester has been announced by the general office. As yet there are a few open dates on the program, but it is possible that these will be filled within a short time.

Lecturers, singers, a choral club, an impersonator, a symphony orchestra, and a pianist are included in the schedule. There also will be an honors assembly, which was a complete success last year when the members of the football team took complete charge of the program. The men made such a hit with the students that it is hoped that they will be given a similar chance again this year to perform.

Opening the course will be a college assembly next Tuesday, October 3, at which time President Pearce will probably speak.

On Monday, October 9, at 9:50, Virgilio Lazzari, celebrated basso of the Chicago Civic Opera Company, will give a recital. Undoubtedly Lazzari is one of the outstanding basso soloists in America. He is noted for the richness, power, and intensity of his tone. Not only is he a superb singer, but his acting ability is of the best. All his work is characterized by a finesse and excellence that few ever achieve.

John B. Ratto, noted impersonator, will appear here on Monday, October 16.

A lecture on the stars will be given on Monday, Oct. 23, by A. N. Harding.

The Copper Country Choral Club will present a program on Monday, October 30.

An outstanding number of the course will be the presentation of the symphony orchestra under the direction of Bohumir Kryl on Tuesday afternoon, November 7. The musicians will give a two hour recital from 2 to 4 o'clock. Several years ago the Kryl orchestra appeared here and gave a most delightful concert, and it is expected that a large audience will be in attendance when it appears in the college auditorium this fall.

The honors assembly will be held on Tuesday, November 21.

Russell Horton, tenor, will give a recital on Monday, November 27.

Jeannette Kling will be here on Tuesday, December 5.

This year Christmas vacation will begin on December 18, and classes will be resumed on January 3.

Ruth Culbertson, pianist, is scheduled for January 15, and Wilfred Laurier Husband will give a talk on Sweden on February 5.

The first semester will close on February 9.

Dates that have not yet been filled are Monday, November 13; Monday, December 11; January 8, January 22 and January 29.

SCHOOL BANQUET HELD OCTOBER 5

This year the annual convention of District No. 7 of the Michigan Educational Association will be held in the city of Iron Mountain beginning on Thursday, October 5.

As usual, one of the outstanding events on the program is the annual banquet which the Northern State Teachers College holds in connection with the gathering.

The banquet will be served Thurs. at 5:30 (Iron Mountain time), in St. Joseph's church, which is located directly across the street from the Iron Mountain high school. All Northern graduates and students are cordially invited to attend the dinner for which an admission price of sixty cents will be charged to help defray the expenses.

An excellent program has been arranged also, so that this banquet should provide a grand re-union for N.S.T.C. alumni.

The menu for the banquet consists of:

- Tomato Juice
- Roast Beef
- Mashed Potatoes
- Carrots
- Salad
- Pickles
- Ice Cream
- Coffee
- Brown Gravy
- Peas
- Jelly
- Cake

MEN'S FEED SET FOR NEXT WEEK

The valiant men of Northern will meet Tuesday, Oct. 3, for the annual Men's Get-together in the gym. On this date, all the men will be the guests of the faculty at a sumptuous informal feed, the start of the men's "apple-polishing" campaign.

The menu, traditional, will consist, no doubt, of those huge, super-delicious Cornish mix-ups called pasties, adequately supplemented by apples, donuts and coffee.

Naturally the food is the item of major importance but the program, too, is a highly enjoyable feature. Promptly at 5:00, the Northern Band will entertain with some stirring marches. At 5:30, President Pearce will lead the twisting line of men to the feed stall. When everybody has had a chance to fill to the brim, a program of stunts will be produced. These will be dandies and will be a fair representation of the talent Northern produces—music, wrestling, boxing, and bar work.

Sociology Department Moves To New Location

Upperclassmen returning to Northern are no doubt surprised to find that the sociology department, to be presided over by Mr. Howenstine, formerly of Ohio State University, has been moved to Longyear hall. The new classroom for sociology is the room formerly occupied by Miss Magers of the English department.

Plans are also being made to have sociology reference books in the history and geography library. The change places all the social sciences together in what will now be called the Department of History and Social Sciences.

STAFF HAS NINE NEW MEMBERS

Nine new instructors have been appointed to the college faculty for the 1930-40 school year. Dorothy Agard of Muskegon, Michigan, has been appointed assistant librarian. After receiving her A. B. and A. B. Library Science from the University of Michigan she was employed in the libraries at Jackson, Michigan, and for the past two years has been librarian in the Port Huron high school.

The sociology and economic classes, which have for many years been taught by Mr. Lautner, will be in charge of E. J. Howenstine this year. Mr. Howenstine received his B. A. degree from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio; his M. A. degree from Ohio State University and has been teaching in that institution.

Norma Johnson, who has taught for a number of years in the leading high school, will be physical education instructor for the women. Miss Johnson, who received her B. S. degree from the Northern State Teachers College, will succeed Mrs. Rushton.

Miss Mildred Magers has been granted a year's leave of absence to continue work on her doctor's degree and will be succeeded by Miss Irene J. Kauska of Ann Arbor, who has her M. A. from the state university.

Mrs. Ruby Richey has been appointed to take the place in the Economics department, of Miss Marker who has resigned. Mrs. Richey has her bachelor of education degree from Illinois State University, her M.A. degree from Teachers College, Columbia University, and has taught at Northern previously.

Maxine Sprague will take over an assistant librarian position, also. Obtaining her bachelor of arts degree from Ohio Northern University, and an A. B. in library science from the University of Michigan, Miss Sprague has been librarian in the Monroe, Michigan, high school, and has also been librarian in the Bay City high school and junior college.

Russell Thomas has been appointed head of the English department to succeed Mr. Bowman. Mr. Thomas received his A. B., M. A., and Ph. D. degrees from the University of Michigan, and has taught in Sioux Falls College, South Dakota, and for the past several years has been an instructor in the State Teachers College at Slippery Rock. TEACHERS TO MEET IN IRON MOUNTAIN

Albert E. Wiggam, author and lecturer in popular scientific fields, and G. Bromley Oxnam, resident bishop of the Boston area Methodist Church, are the headline speakers on the general session program of the Michigan Education Association conference, region seven, at Iron Mountain, on October 5-6.

Thirty-three meetings have been scheduled for the conference, so that teachers attending will have a variety from which to choose. There will be four general sessions, four division meetings, and twenty-five section meetings.

On Thursday evening, October 5, the first general session will be held. Other speakers who will participate in the conference are Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction; Supt. John S. Page of Howell, president of the M.E.A.; E. T. McSwain; Edgar G. Johnson; G. Robert Koopman, Mrs. E. C. Thompson, and George E. Carrothers.

SOCIAL PROGRAM FEATURES DANCES

Without a doubt, the social program for the first semester of the 1930-40 school year which has been arranged by the college social committee for the students attending Northern State Teachers College is a most outstanding one, and is expected to meet with the approval of the Northermities.

Opening last evening with the social for freshmen, the program, as announced by the committee, will include ten social evenings up to the time of the Christmas vacation.

- Following is the program as outlined for the first seven weeks:
- Sept. 25—Freshmen Social Evening.
 - Sept. 29—Faculty Reception.
 - Oct. 6—M. E. A. No. 7, Meeting.
 - Oct. 13—Delta Sigma Nu Social Evening.
 - Oct. 20—Beta Omega Tau Social Evening.
 - Oct. 27—Homecoming Dance.
 - Nov. 3—Phi Kappa Nu Social Evening.
 - Nov. 10—Gamma Phi Alpha Social Evening.

Faculty Gives Reception For Students On Friday

On Friday evening, September 29, the college will sponsor a faculty reception for all students between the hours of 8:30 and 11:30.

There will be dancing throughout the evening and the faculty promises that an exceptionally good swing orchestra will be engaged to play for the dancers.

Also, the ever tasty refreshments will be served during the evening.

Come on, Men and Women of Northern! This is your chance to

N. S. T. C. UNDER SEMESTER PLAN FOR FIRST TIME

Freshmen Put In Busy Day Monday; Meetings, Reception Held

For the first time in its history, the Northern State Teachers College is operating under the semester system, as authorized by the state board of education, which a few months ago decreed that all state teachers colleges should change over from the term plan.

Without a doubt, the semester arrangement will seem strange to returning Northermities, who have become quite attached to the old set-up, and who, when the question was brought up last year about whether or not the college should make the change, expressed themselves as perfectly satisfied with the term system. As for the incoming freshmen, it won't make much difference to them as they have probably never known any different plan.

Yesterday, the freshmen put in a full day, their first in Northern. The halls were noisy with the giggling and shouting of the enthusiastic, nervous freshmen.

From ten o'clock in the morning until eleven at night the frosh were kept occupied. At 9 o'clock assembly in the auditorium, between 10 and 10:30 yesterday morning, the yearlings heard an address by President Pearce, who explained many important things to them. Other faculty members spoke briefly.

Between 10:30 and 12 the first year students met in special conferences which were supervised over by the college's instructors. The pupils were grouped according to their curricula.

Group meetings for the purpose of filling out student information forms were held from 1 to 2.

At 2 o'clock, the freshmen adjourned to the college athletic field, where the Northern gridlers met the Oshkosh Teachers in the opening game of the football campaign.

Immediately after the game, the frosh co-eds attended a tea in their honor in the recreation rooms. Members of the Student Girls' League Council were the sponsors of this get-together.

And then, from 8 to 11 p.m., the college was host to the freshmen at a reception which was held in the gymnasium. Dancing and games were featured, refreshments were served, and everyone had a good time meeting all his new classmates.

'Twas an active day for the freshmen but they have busy days ahead of them. Today, registration day, will keep them bustling and then there will be the scurry and bustle of the first few days together with the sorority rushing parties and fraternity smokers.

Avail Yourself

FROM all indications, students of the college will put in a busy first semester. The college social committee has arranged a complete program of social evenings which will occupy Friday evenings up until the time of the Christmas vacation. The general office has scheduled an exceptional lyceum course which will provide students with cultural entertainment.

Sororities and fraternities will be having their rushing parties, and later on their dinner dances and initiations. Clubs and societies will soon be formed and will then conduct their regular meetings.

Intra-mural activities have been put on a new basis this year and will doubtless draw a large number of the students. Athletics, football and basketball for the men and volleyball and basketball for the women will interest many.

The band, orchestra, glee clubs, and chorus will be open to all students who wish to participate.

The college has arranged all these activities and now it is up to the students to support them and show those in charge that they appreciate the opportunities offered them.

A student does not get the full benefit from his college education if he does not participate in these extra-curricular activities. We feel that the college officials almost have a right to demand that the pupils take an active part. For if the student does not interest himself in at least a few of these activities he is not adequately preparing himself for his profession. When a person graduates from college and gets out in the teaching field, he has to have more than mere knowledge that he has gained from textbooks. He has to have a personality and acquire poise before he can be a success as a teacher.

Pupils look up to their instructor, and if that person is decidedly an introvert the students are not going to appreciate him. Children like to have somebody who is alive and interesting for their teacher and if they do they will naturally get much more out of their lessons.

Inasmuch as this institution is operated for the purpose of training future teachers it is to be expected that those persons attending it will see fit to develop their personalities and improve themselves in any possible way so that when they graduate they will be a credit to the college and to themselves. Any pride in not force a student to do this, but if the student has his school in himself and in his future work it is up to him to see to it that he makes use of all the advantages afforded him.

Therefore, Northerites, let's avail ourselves of these opportunities.

Commendable Record

MANY persons will no doubt be surprised to read the announcement by the placement bureau that approximately ninety-one per cent of last year's graduating class have received teaching positions for this year.

Last June, when these students received their degrees, the outlook for getting jobs in their chosen profession was decidedly discouraging. Requests for teachers had been coming in at a snail's pace, and to many it appeared as if they would be working on W. P. A. crews this year.

When the state legislature passed the bill that cut the school's appropriation by a huge sum, conditions looked even darker. Schools were forced to cut the salaries of their personnel and even had to let some of their instructors go.

However, during July each week brought the announcement that a few more seniors had been placed. August came and still a large percentage of the class of 1939 was without a job for this school year. Gradually the last minute rush for teachers got under way and things began to look brighter for the grads, as superintendents had to fill vacancies left by resignations.

Northern has always had a reputation for placing a high percentage of its graduates and we feel that the record made this year by the placement bureau should receive special commendation.

SCOOPS

No school, thus no "scoops"—that is unless Scoops lets you in on some summer romances which have by now probably ceased to function. Instead Dig contributes:
Registration day reveals campus veterans looking over this year's crop of freshmen—and with an approving eye, too.
Rushing season finds sorority sisters sailing forth to find "eligibles" and once more the bulletin board is bulging with "bids".
Today's campus carryings on remind me that:
"Life is a joke,
And all things show it.
Look at a freshman,
And then you'll know it."
Bits of language will have a regular place in this column, so to keep you in tune with my lines I introduce some loony language:
Peroxide seats—the bleachers.
H.C.H.—a high class heel.
Dope shop—the bookstore.
Bees—commuters.
Sad apple—a Northerner without "omph".
Dribble puss—new for sour puss.
Jigger—a cigarette.
Moussing—pitching-woo.
Inking—a short letter.
Frog skins—what we write home for when we're broke.

I've heard it said that freshmen have varied ideas regarding why they come to college. For instance, some come to pursue learning, while others come to learn pursuing. "Could be" it's a better idea to take the middle way.
"A college student is much like Columbus. Reasons:
(1) When Columbus started, he didn't know where he was going.
(2) When he got there, he didn't know where he was.
(3) When he finished, he still didn't know what it was all about.
(4) He did it all on someone else's money."

No doubt the dance concluding freshman day was responsible for many new romances. Time will tell—or in time Scoops will tell. Don't forget to get acquainted at the faculty reception Friday night where Merle Clayton and his campus cut-ups will supply danceable music. I'll be looking for you.
G'Bye,
Drip.

Mr. L. A. Chase vacationed at home in Marquette.

A new faculty member in the English Department, Miss I. J. Kauska, spent part of the summer at work at the U.P. of Michigan. She also visited in the Upper Peninsula (first time) getting acquainted with us "miners".

Mr. V. Hurst visited the hillbilly region of Kentucky and Tennessee.

Mr. C. Brown visited relatives in Southern Ohio. He visited the famous burning coal mine, set on fire during strike in 1884, still burning.

Dr. Thomas, new head of the English Department, visited in the Copper Country for a part of the summer. (And say, on top of everything else, Dr. Thomas is a language whiz. So watch your Concordance!)

NORTHERN MEETS LAWRENCE SAT.

WILDCATS OPEN LAWRENCE SKED ON BADGER SOIL

Gridmen Face Midwest Conference Champions Next

Next Saturday Northern's Wildcats meet their little-known foe, Lawrence college, at Appleton, Wisconsin. Lawrence is a newcomer to the gridiron warfares of Northern.

The Wildcats of Northern will be facing their second opponent within less than a week's time. Whether they stand the "gaff" will be known after the Lawrence encounter. If injuries don't play the role of giant killer in the Oshkosh game, and if Northern's reserves hold out, the Wildcats should hold their own against Lawrence.

The "Vikings" of Lawrence were champions of the midwest conference last season. This will be the season's opener for Lawrence. Of the thirty-nine players called out to Lawrence's initial practice on Sept. 11, ten are lettermen. However, five promising sophomores are expected to start in the lineup against Northern.

Lawrence holds the advantage over Northern in a slightly longer practice season. Meanwhile Northern has to spot Lawrence the trip and two games in less than a week's time.

Among the sophomores who are predicted to stand out for Lawrence this fall are Herbert Kirchoff, Chicago, an end; John Messenger, Green Bay, a tackle; Alan Florin, Chicago, and Perry Powell, Milwaukee, guards; Robert MacInosh, Milwaukee, center; Frank Necki, Milwaukee, halfback; Gardner Hayden, Green Bay, fullback, and Robert Romano, quarterback.

SHORT TALES

Pat Padden, umpire in the Canadian-American league, was hit and knocked unconscious by a foul ball twice in one game.

Nebraskas will have four married footballers this fall in Bob and Royal Kahler, Roy Petsch and Clarence Herndon.

Burgess Whitehead, the Giant's second basemen, will complete his A. B. Degree at Duke University this fall.

Phil Rizzuto, Kansas City shortstop who is only 5 feet 4 inches tall, uses a body stretcher during the off season in an effort to gain altitude. St. Norbert's Green Knights face a tough seven game schedule this fall with teams from six states.

Wonder of boxing: Al Hostak wins a world's championship without ever fighting in New York and without ever working for Mike Jacobs.

Purdue University's football squad averages 21 years, 3 months in age. Charley Root is the earliest riser on the Cub team, first in dining car or dining room on the road and first player on the field for practice.

Allan Bergner will be a busman at the United States Naval Academy next year. He will captain the football team in the fall and then captain the wrestlers. Only half a dozen navy men before him have captained two teams.

Clarence "Pants" Rowland of the Cubs scouting staff is the only man living who managed a world's championship team for Chicago. He led the White Sox to a world title in 1917.

From the Bleachers

By GIL

Father Time has mowed off another year in the world of sport and we find ourselves again with football the sport in season and the halls of Northern opening for another school year. At this time we find it no more than fitting to welcome the men and women of 1943 who, perhaps, may become a part of the class of '44, '45, to the portals of our fair institution. Perhaps it sounds a little discouraging, but it has happened. So here's a little fatherly advice, especially to prospective Northern athletes: Start "pounding" the books from the beginning to avoid the "claws" of old man ineligibility.

Getting off the subject we might remind you that next Saturday Coach Bernie Hesilton's Lawrence boys will play a game of host to the Wildcats their season's opener at Appleton, Wisconsin. Lawrence is led by co-captains Ken Buesing and Richard Garvey of Appleton. Buesing shines in the roll of blocking back, and Garvey stands out at the pivot position. The vikings also boast of Jack Nystrom at end. Incidentally, Nystrom is a Norway, Michigan product. Our wandering ears also hear that at one of the local positions they will have Vince Jones, 275 lbs. of Viking flesh congealed by football regalia. Not trying to throw a scare into the Wildcats, but moving 275 lbs. of anything around can become an awful tiring job for an afternoon's chore.

And while still on the subject of football, we find that independent football is taking hold with legs and bounds in the Peninsula again. With an independent league proposed which would include teams from the following U. P. cities: Escanaba, Manistique, Menominee, Soo, Stambaugh, Ishpeming, Newberry, and Marquette. However, a few postponed games like the Ishpeming-Ironwood game of September 17th won't keep the flame of interest burning. Being one of the disappointed fans who expected to see a little excitement on a quiet Sunday afternoon, I speak purely from my viewpoint. I did enjoy the ride up-packed in the back of "Berwang'er" Koski's V-8 where I listened to Bill Schenk commenting on the foreign situation, so the afternoon wasn't spent in vain.

Northern has taken another right to the chin when Phil Kelsey, a member of last year's varsity football, basketball, and track squads decided to matriculate at Ohio State this fall.

Here is a little pre-season forecasting which we would like to pass on to you, in picking the nation's football leaders this fall. We pick Michigan to take Big Ten honors with Purdue pressing close behind. In the Midwest Notre Dame to come through undefeated. Fordham to take honors in the east, may not be defeated but tied once. On the coast it's Southern California with Stanford bidding for top honors. And in the good old South we put our money on Duke. Maybe we are wrong but time will tell.

And we almost forgot the World

GRIDDERS OPEN SEASON AGAINST OSHKOSH TEAM

Wildcats Face A Six-Game Schedule With Out An Open Date

This fall Northern will play a six game schedule, opening with Oshkosh. The only alteration in the schedule of last year being the displacing of Michigan Normal by Lawrence College of Appleton, Wisconsin.

Last year Northern opened its schedule by playing Oshkosh at home, with a 13-0 victory. After this they dropped four out of the next five games. The other victory being at the expense of Michigan Tech on Northern's homecoming day.

This year's schedule looks equally as tough as last year's. However, Northern should do better in the win column than last year despite the fact that they suffer heavy losses through graduation, and several members of last year's eleven not returning to school.

Northern meets a newcomer in Lawrence College, the strength of which little is known of except that they had one of the largest turnouts for spring practice in the history of the school. From all reports Lawrence will be strong in sophomore reserves.

Central State should again prove Series. About this time of the year when the air is saturated with "pigskins" our minds become centered on the football warfare. But the familiar "play ball" will be sounded as another World Series gets under way on October 4th.

Football practice took its first setback when Coach Victor Hurst had to enter St. Luke's hospital due to cellulitis caused by the removal of two molars which kept him from the first week of practice. And at the time of this writing it is doubtful whether he will be able to attend any of the practice sessions. A tough break for both Coach and the team. We send you the best of luck, Coach, and hope to see you around soon.

The main worry of the boys at football camp wasn't Oshkosh on the 25th, but was—whether or not any nice "stuff" would matriculate to Northern. Well, no further exposure, boys, but we hope your worries will be few!

Football Camp Notes

By GOODNEY

On Wednesday, Sept. 13th, the Northern football squad assembled at the Tri Mu fraternity house and began training for the current season. The first contingent included Capt. Joe Polsson, Schenk, Tippet, Ostes, Vetter, Simons, Harman, Saven, Malenkecht, Millman, Olds, St. Germaine, Kukuk, Hetherington, Mennuci, Bedore, Koski, Kitzman, Whitman, Wehmann, and Goodney. Later arrivals included Knuth, Helakoski, Korpi, Wilsey, Erickson, and Lauri.

The first week of camp saw the thermometer hover around the mid-ninety mark and you may be assured that the summer accumulation of fat poured off the candidates in the form of sweat by the bucketful.

Practice sessions were held from nine to eleven in the morning and two to four in the afternoon. Most of the boys had a session of their own at the Dead River swimmin' hole after each practice.

On September 14th, the boys went to Neaue where they attended the Rules Meeting which was to be a "horn" in the side of the Wildcat eleven. Last year Central turned back the efforts of the Olive and Gold by a score of 44 to 0.

Northland College shouldn't be as strong as last year if the dopesters are correct, so the hopes of Northern should rise in this encounter.

Then there remains a home and home series with Tech. Tech should be as strong if not stronger than last year but Northern is after Tech's "hide", so pre-season strength and probabilities mean nothing in this encounter.

1939 Football Schedule

Sept. 25—Oshkosh (here)
Sept. 30—Lawrence (there)
Oct. 6—Central (there)
Oct. 14—Tech (there)
Oct. 21—Northland (here)
Oct. 28—Tech (here)

conducted by C. E. Forsythe. Here they saw some interesting National Pro. League films stressing the fundamentals of football.

Despite the fact that the boys worked hard on the field, their fastest movements came when Fran Vetter's call of "Come and get it" rang out.

Head Coach Victor Hurst was in the hospital with a painful jaw ailment during the first half of camp, and his place was taken by Athletic Director C. B. Hedgcock.

During one of C. B.'s lectures he told us he was a little afraid of the excess weight that Dean Tippett was carrying, so Dean showed his team spirit and enthusiasm by cutting his helpings from three to two at each meal.

One of the hot nights enticed a few of the boys to sleep on the porch, but "Boots" Kukuk found that the street lights were shining in his eyes, so he walked a block in his pajamas and shut off all the lights on the block. After getting comfortably settled the thought struck him that some pedestrian might prefer the lights on, so he walked the block again and turned on all the lights and suffered the consequences of having the light again shine in his eyes. Yes, Boots, C. B. is right when he says "Some people think faster than others."

An intra-squad game was played on Saturday, the 16th, and the Vectors and Poissonites battled to a 6-6 tie.

New Team May Be Organized This Fall

In all probability a new independent six-man football team will be organized on Northern's campus this fall. The team will be managed by "Doc" Maigetter and coached by "Jock" Spigarelli, and the boys will play under the name of Hoot Owls. Players will be chosen from "has beans" and "hopes to be" who desire to try out for berths on the team. Manager Maigetter stated that he hoped to carry a squad of twelve men, which would enable him to use a two-team system of play.

The team will schedule games with high schools in the vicinity sponsoring the six-man teams. They also hope that more teams will be organized on the campus, and that a regular league can be drawn up.

H'LO AGAIN

Advice To Freshmen

Dear Frosh:

Just happened to be walking down ye olde halls when we overheard an hoary and wrinkled upperclassman say to another: "Zounds, man, isn't it jolly to see all these bright and shining faces about us?" And we thought to ourself, "Egad! Now what if the lovely ladies think that a signal for powder puff action on the front. Something should be done to warn and advise these Freshmen." So here be a few unofficial, uncensored (we hope not unappreciated), bits of advice. "Some are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and few to be chewed and digested," to quote a fellow author. Alhem.

Because you have been here for such a short time and are still no doubt werra werra afflicted with nostalgia (homesickness, Frosh), it may seem downright unnecessary to remind you to write home as often as you promised, be it twice daily, or six monthly. But if you heed our warning...

Don't overspend yourselves (or your pappas). If you find it hard to keep track of your odd nickles and hundred dollar bills, try keeping budgets, or maybe you'd rather just jot down your expenditures.

For ladies only: Don't let the first few weeks, or maybe months, go to your heads. You'll be so rused 'n happy 'n things, you'll all lose pounds. But be careful or you'll fall down and go boom when it's all over. If you're really swell, and not just new, your popularity will never die.

Be yourselves. Spare us the Carbo act, or an Einstein or a La Marr.

Why don't you join some of our clubs? Do be good. (We sound like 'ya back home now, don't we?) What we mean is, don't break our college rules and traditions. (Yep, we've got 'em too.) Don't forget, "it ain't whatcha do, it's the way whatcha do it."

Don't treat the upperclassmen as you would your aged and venerable great-grandfathers. And while we're on the subject, faculty members are people too, and some of them even like to be treated as such. No foolin'.

A point to consider: Don't fall for somebody else's girl friend or best bean. If you do become interested in some cute co-ed or tall, dark 'n handsome (and we hope y' all do. It's lotsa fun), find out if she or he is "plenty attached." If you can't get the info on the q. t., ask in the assembly. You'll find out!

Don't become discouraged too easily. We had had marks too once, and look at us now (heh, heh). But on the other hand...

We do hate to be too serious, Frosh, but listen. Don't, please don't forget what you came here for. An education—remember? This is not an ad for midnight oil, but do study. Aim for the honor roll, and you'll be surprised at how quickly the learning process will process.

We know we've neglected some mighty important items. So if you have questions you'd like answered, Frosh (and we hope you have; it's a sure sign of intelligence), just jot them down on scraps of paper and drop them in the mailbox marked NORTHERN NEWS that hangs in the northeast corner of the foyer. Address them, "Ye Olde Question Box", don't sign any names, and we'll answer them next time. Ask anything—from the best recipe for a successful date to the least fattening kind of ice cream. We know all the answers.

Good luck to y' all from Ye Olde Upperclassmen.

SPOT-N-JOT

We admit it—spotting a cute co-ed a gay party, a faculty quirk, and then jotting it for you to know about is a pleasant pastime. But although college without students (almost said lamates) is a lonely place things have been happening. We've spotted:

A new gym floor in construction. Now when he steps on her toeless slippers the old excuse of the hump in the floor is nil. . . .

Four hundred and eighty-five windows broken by the recent hail storm. In one John D. Pierce from the glass was thrown to the opposite wall. . . .

Mr. Ripley and student helper carrying a wooden horse and calling themselves "two men and a horse!" "Cap" and Emil doing their bit in the shuffling up process. . . .

The office force working busily, steadily. . . .

New teachers getting the jump on the Freshmen by looking around early. . . .

Football campers dallying their dozen, and "Ma" Forstrom feeding the thundering thirty at the Tri Mu House. . . .

One sad ill green lunch bucket deserted by a commuter which we obligingly emptied of its specimen of a molded sandwich, and deposited it in the girls' lunchroom. No extra charge. . . .

Bye
Be sure and do interesting things, cause we'll be spotting you.

Fashion News

If your memory's working well you'll remember that in the fall of 1939 the bustle was making a hasty exit out Dame Fashion's door. Like a bad penny it's back again giving every college lass who has neglected her posture the whim-whams. The smaller of us say how nice it is to be small—one won't have to get a bustle dress. Those on the fleshy side say, "We think they're awful!" Who's to carry the bustle? You say. The tall, slim girl with excellent carriage who possesses the ability to wear a sack and look like a lady dressed by Vogue seems to be the unlucky victim.

In one way, however, the bustle may prove its worth—by its influence on dancing. If the bustle comes to stay, gone will be jitterbugs and other annoying dance maniacs, and in comes the good old waltz. The bustle will undoubtedly be an efficient shock-absorber also, which only proves that something which is anything at all is never all nothing.

Leaving the region of the gluteus maximus, let us journey downward to a few inches below the knee. At this specific spot the latest thing in hosiery for women will end—or so the co-eds of colleges throughout the East say. The things can be purchased in white and in many lively shades to match your gay plaids, and sell for 65c a pair. Being of very fine quality they will stay with you for many months, which in itself is enough to make any girl shout for joy. Constructed of heavy ribbed wool, they insure one from chapped legs in the present and from the chafing in one's old age. Why, all in all, these socks are pretty swell—or are they?

As for fashion news less shocking, there are Indian moccasins in white and brown leather which are elegant with wooly socks (last year's variety!). Glens plaids are being made into plaid skirts and are topped by fitted velvet jackets. Hats are still rather strange, gloves are longer, and shoes are more sensible.

Course, it's your own individual taste that counts, but secretly, we're of the 99% at Northern who don't at all mind jumping into last year's favorites. How about you?

To the song the wind is humming
All the day long.

How I'd want to go with that gypsy
wave
When it puts out to sea—
And all that keeps me here
Is one tiny, tender thread
All knotted up in my heart.
Celia Syrjala.
