THE SUMMER SESSION OF THE GYPSY TRUPE

Eloise Moore and Dance Ensemble's Auditorium Program Well Received

The first assembly program of the summer session at Northern, held on Wednesday, July 3, featured the Eloise Moore Dancers. The treat was one that shall remain in most of our memories for a long time.

Dr. Paul Fleming

Eloise Moore, a graduate student of the University of Chicago, presented the highlight features of the program. Young, charming, and ambitious, she brought a touch of the real professional stage to the college.

Coming from Guadalajara, Mexico, the premier dancer, Jose Castro, worked for a time at Warner Brothers studios at California. At the Chicago World's Fair, he was featured in the "Spanish Village."

Variety characterized the dancing numbers throughout the two hours. Serious numbers were well interspersed with gay, interpretive, humorous, and satirical dances that provided an interesting contrast.

Speaker for "Gongo Rhythm" and "Dances to Poetry" was Fran Barris, an actor in his own right who has done occasional radio work.

FACULTY GREETINGS STUDENT GROUP

Peds And Profs Congregated At Gymnasium On June 28

Again the faculty of the Northern State Teachers College held a delightful reception on Friday evening, June 28, for the students of the summer session.

In the gymnasium, which was beautifully decorated with garden flowers, the guests were ushered by Earle Parker, of the faculty, to a reception by President and Mrs. Pearce.

Joe Parker's orchestra provided music, of its usual excellent quality, for dancing which was the main entertainment of the evening, although the "gab fest" enjoyed by the guests is a feature that must not be overlooked.

During the evening a pleasant surprise bit of entertainment were folk dances presented by Miss Marjorie Ayers and Victor Hurst, faculty members of the physical education department.

Below is a list of students who during the 2nd Semester, 1939-40, carried 15 semester hours or more and attained an average of B or above, or who carried less than 15 semester hours and earned 30 or more honor points.

Dr. Fleming has been recognized as the foremost magician on the concert platform. One of his most puzzling feats is the summoning of spirits "from the vast deep."

Dr. Fleming is professor of economics at the University of Pennsylvania in winter, but the summer he spends in playing the role of professor of magic, attracting large audiences, not only by his perfect mastery of the technique of his art, but also by his finished and graceful stage deportment and his fund of witicism and humor.

Gypsies Re-engaged For Northern State

Wednesday, July 17

The Continental Gypsy Ensemble will entertain the summer students of Northern State Teachers College on July 17. Less than five months ago this group thrilled a large audience of Northern students with its unique interpretation of gypsy folk music.

This rare combination of interpreters of gypsy folk music is unusual because unlike most Ensembles of this kind its members are not only authorities in the tradition of the fascinating type of folk songs, but in addition each artist has made for himself a personal reputation as an interpreter of his own instrument.

For instance, Ador Berger, the director of the group, is one of the most versatile of modern violinists. He was originally from Russia, but has been concert master and soloist in Europe and North and South America, and for many years he was first violinist of the Chicago Civic Opera Company.

Closing Semester Sees 107 Students Attain Honor Roll

Below is a list of students who during the 2nd Semester, 1939-40, carried 15 semester hours or more and attained an average of B or above, or who carried less than 15 semester hours and earned 30 or more honor points.

SENIORS CLOSE YEAR IN STYLE

Perhaps the most outstanding ceremony ever held in the auditorium at Northern State was held on June 9, when the baccalaureate exercises for the 1940 graduating class were held.

Commencement week, as usual, was filled with many eventful doings for Northern's large senior class. Baccalaureate speaker, Dr. Roy Hamilton, of Alma College, presented to the outgoing class a vital and interesting message on "The Bulwarks of Power."

June 14 saw an interested group of seniors meet in the auditorium and recreation rooms for the benefit of saying last farewells. The faculty entertained.

The final climax to the week appeared on Saturday, June 15 when the degrees and certificates were conferred upon Northern's graduates. Dr. Rollo Brown, brother to Northern's psychology professor, delivered the closing address.

CALENDAR

The following is a list of assembly attractions for the summer session, 1940:

- July 5, Wednesday Eloise Moore and her Dance Ensemble
July 10, Wednesday James Hendrickson and Clair Bruce Co., presenting "The Merchant of Venice"
July 17, Wednesday, 9:30 Continental Gypsy Ensemble
July 22, Monday Paul Fleming, the Magician
July 31, Wednesday Gillette-Micari, Duo-Pianists

STOCK COMPANY HERE LAST WED.

On Wednesday, July 10, the college auditorium took on the character of the old Globe Theatre of London when the choicest portions of Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" were given by the James Hendrickson and Clair Bruce Company of Shakespearean Players.

The stage, arranged in the traditional Shakespearean manner, was beautiful in its simplicity. The absence of all ornaments and properties except those which were most essential eliminated all distracting factors and enabled the audience to concentrate its fullest attention upon the lines and the action. It recalled that gem of advice that Shakespeare gives us in "Hamlet": "The play's the thing."

Shylock presented an excellent example of fine dramatic work. His "monies," his "bond," and his "pound of flesh" were brought into startling relief. Orchids also to the supporting cast, Bassanio, Narissa, the wag who supplied many laughs, and the others who lent their talents to the making of this fine performance. It proved even more conclusively that Shakespeare's masterpieces are still very much alive, and that they are still, despite all these centuries, capable of providing the best of entertainment for modern theatre-goers. Let's have more of Shakespeare!

Clair Bruce

Clair Bruce is a well known actor and director. He has appeared in many plays and has directed several productions. He is currently touring with his stock company.

Pedagogs And Students Rush To Fill Northern's Halls To An Unusual High

Summer school enrollment at Northern this year is the largest it has been in years. There is a considerable increase over last year's enrollment of 425. The number of students registered here this summer is 618.

Two hundred and thirty-five of the students registered are from Marquette county. Although a majority of the students come from the Upper Peninsula, the Lower Peninsula has forty-nine representatives at Northern. There are sixteen out-of-state students.

EDITORIALS

Welcome

ONCE again the doors of Northern State Teachers College open to a record-breaking number of students for the summer session. As always, Northern extends a sincere welcome to those students who constitute the student body during the summer. Northern hopes that the six weeks spent here will be of inestimable benefit to all of you, in a mental, physical, cultural, and social way.

Northern is conscious of the fact that much of the enrollment includes the teacher who is earnestly striving to meet the new state regulations, of which all of you are familiar with. With these new requirements, and the spirit back of it, teachers and administrators should have nothing to quarrel over. As it is, many teachers have not been keeping up with modern methods in education. In such a profession as teaching, it should be a necessary thing for all teachers actively engaged to keep constantly abreast the new techniques, and the new ideas. Too, when one returns to school after a while, he makes many new social and cultural contacts which certainly is beneficial to many.

Northern promises that the various needs of the incoming student will be filled. There are the usual academic courses, the assembly programs that always prove a delight to students, and the social events.

In behalf of the college, the editorial staff of the Northern News again extends a hearty welcome to the new students, who, they feel sure, will find at the end of the six week session that the time has not been spent in vain, but has rather resulted in a general improvement that bodes well for both the experienced and beginning teacher.

Teaching Patriotism

ONE cannot pick up a morning paper these days and be confidently sure that a glaring Nazi victory will not be staring him in the face, or that an upset in the status quo of the many nations making up the Old World is evincing great horror and strife among the people making up these nations. Today when we pick up a newspaper, we are on the lookout for latest developments in this present slaughter and conflict of traditions, ideals, beliefs, and blood. Might is pitted against might, and the technique of modern warfare has reached a stage where further perfection appears impossible. But still we see war go on, war that has become a fever and a more vicious tool than ever before. We feel sure that these tools will even become more perfect, more dangerous, and more powerful.

Here in America we feel that our present political and social setup is not the hopeless situation which exists in the rest of the world. We still boast our freedom, our divine rights, free speech, freedom of the press, and many other important rights as we have always enjoyed. But despite our continued freedom of living in the only free country left in this world, we must face a problem that has arisen to cast a menacing shadow over our ideals of liberty. No longer can the growing forces of Nazism and Communism be ignored in this country. We have, in the past, been inclined to do little or no worry over what these forces may eventually mean to us, but now it has come to the point where action is required and we must do it quickly.

To you who teach school—what sort of patriotism, democracy, or Americanism do you teach? It has been a universal tendency in our educational setup to slide over the teaching of patriotism in our schools. What has become of the fine spirit that existed years ago—that spirit that has made America the greatest nation on earth. Our young school children today will be the ones to carry our country through future crises that will be apt to appear. Will they be able to cope with the fast improving, fast growing Nazi and Communist beliefs? We must preserve a free, unbiased, un-effected democracy as we now have, and we will have to work hard and consistently to keep America the America we all love.

The art of thinking a thing through seems to have been lost in a great many cases. We believe that our young people should always be encouraged to do individual thinking, and to do lots of it. We must encourage sane thinking if we do not want the "isms" to overtake us. We believe in the present day belief that "Tomorrow will be a race between education and the dictator." Our hope is put entirely into the educator and what he has to convey to our growing school children.

"Let all who would learn to understand and enjoy contemporary poetry say something like this to themselves: 'Life has its limitations. I must be what I am, one person with one person's experience. But through poetry I can have a share in the lives and adventures of others. I can travel on roads that my feet have never touched, visit in houses that I have never entered, share hopes and dreams and conquests that have never been mine. Poetry can be for me the fishing trip that I was never able to take, the great city that I have not seen, the personalities that I have not fathomed, the banquets to which I have not been invited, the prizes that I did not win, the achievement that was beyond my reach. It can be even the love that I have not known. Through poetry I shall share the life of my own times, of all time; I shall know the soul of all men and my own soul.'—Marguerite Wilkinson, NEW VOICES.

WE WILL NEED BANKS AS LONG AS WE NEED MONEY

"Why do we need banks?" is a question sometimes asked. One might as well ask, in this age of electricity, why we need dynamos and powerhouses.

Money would lose perhaps three-fourths of its usefulness without banks. By creating many credit substitutes for money, banks enable the business world to function much more smoothly and rapidly than would otherwise be possible.

Without banks, dollars would be almost as useless as airplanes without landing-fields.

GRIDIRON OPEN SKED WITH OSHKOSH

Sept. 28th Marks The Opening Of The 1940 Gridiron Warfare For The Hurst Coached Men

Prospects For A Better Than Average Season Looms High

Coach Hurst's fighting Wildcats will face another tough schedule in 1940. The only alteration in last year's schedule being the dropping of Lawrence College's highly touted eleven and the addition of Superior State Teacher's College of Superior, Wisconsin.

From all indications the Wildcats should have a higher percentage of wins next fall. But, allowance must be made for those Central "Bearcats", who in the past have been a continual thorn in the sides of the Wildcats.

1940 Schedule:

Sept. 28—Oshkosh	..... here
Oct. 5—Central	..... here
Oct. 12—C. M.	..... here
Oct. 19—Northland	..... here
Oct. 26—C. M.	..... here
Nov. 2—Superior	..... here

SPORT SLANTS

Hi-Ho, Everyone! This is your new correspondent, "Jack" Spigarel, taking over for our very able friend R. Lee Goodney who has left us to join the ranks of the unemployed. We sincerely hope that when football season rolls around the bend that the names of Schenk, Poisson, and Goodney will be on the coaching list.

Speaking of football—keep your calendar clear for the Green Bay Packers-All Star game in Chicago. The Packers are all signed up, according to reports released by Coach Curley Lambeau. George Svendsen, star Gopher center, who dropped out of pro football for a year of coaching at Antigo, Wisconsin, will be back in the Packer fold this year. Another old-timer, Beattie Feathers, former Chicago Bear backfield star, has been signed by the Packers.

While home on the range this week-end we had a pleasant chat with Gene Romani, former Marquette "U" and Chicago Bear star, who is a wine salesman working around Iron Mountain, and this fall he will resign from his present job and return to Newark, N. J., as a coach. Newark is a Bear farm team. Gene was injured last year playing with Newark and this year will return and serve in the coaching way only.

Have any of you noticed anything peculiar about the New York Giant batting order? Yes, you guessed it! For the first time in 15 years Master Mel Ott has been removed from the clean-up slot in the batting order. Batted a weak 277. Ott has been replaced by Danning, National League batting leader, who is leading with a lousy 352.

The Yanks are in fourth place in the American League. Reason: Bill Dickey sporting a .211 average and Joe DiMaggio with a .313, way below their batting ability, while Joe Gordon is batting .245.

FROM THE BLEACHERS

By GIL

Ah for summer and a good fur coat to be used until the 4th of July. Well, that's beyond the point—but the dear old summer almost caught us if we may quote Poe's "Raven": "But the fact is I was napping, and so gently you came rapping, and so faintly you came tapping, tapping at my chamber door." HURRY UP, GIL, you've got a column due July 8th, and what is this? It's 10:30 P.M., July 8th, so get busy, chum.

It might be interesting to know in the form of a brief history lesson, that football was initiated into the portals of Northern in 1904, baseball in 1906 and basketball in 1907.

Congratulations are in store and we don't mean maybe! To the Wildcats' football captain of 1939, genial Joe Poisson, who is now the proud father of a bouncing baby boy, Joseph Edmund by name. The Blessed Event occurring at 1:35 A.M. Sunday, July 7th. It is a name to remember, Joseph Edmund, Poisson, so let it down if you want to be abreast with the football greats of 1900 and thereafter. For the baby has more on the old age than the old man, to quote genial Joe. So to you well wishers of Big Joe, congratulate him. It makes the old man [Joe Poisson, Sr. feel good].

Champs are crowned and crown change heads in the boxing world with quite a momentum. As for example the fistie rise of Lew Jenkins, former U. S. Cavalryman, who dethroned Lou Ambers of his light weight crown in 1:29 of the third round on May 10 in Madison Square Garden. But the momentum is slowed down to a standstill in the heavyweight division with the 25 year old Miltie Joe Louis maintaining a monopoly on the heavyweight crown. The top contender for the crown is former champ Maxie Baer, but just in case Joe Louis is dethroned, we pick Lou Nova to do the dethroning. It's just an item for the "Dumb" say I didn't tell you column. But it's food for thought. Nova's

At the time of this writing the tenacious Detroit Tigers are holding down first place in the American League. Their position is due quite largely to the efficient turling of Louis Norman (Buck) Newson who, at the time of this writing (necessary to repeat), has twelve straight victories to his credit.

A little inside dope on the "Buck" reveals that he was born in Hartsville, South Carolina, August 11, 1908. He throws and bats right handed, is six feet and two inches tall, and weighs one hundred and ninety-five pounds. "Buck" has spent five years in the majors, winning one hundred games and losing sixty-seven, for a win percentage of .508.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ESP. FOR SPORTSMEN

Below, Gents, Is Your Opportunity To Kill Time And Add "Know-Itch"

Q. What sports editor was a noted boxer?
A. The late Ed. Smith of the Oakland Tribune, who fought George La Blanche, the marine, in Denver. Police stopped it in the second round.

Q. What impressive ritual marked prize fights of half a century ago?
A. Forming of the Maltese cross in the center of the ring. The seconds clasped hands across the clasped hands of the rival boxers.

Q. What is the smallest baseball crowd on record?
A. The turnout for a 1906 Pacific League game at Fresno between the home team and Los Angeles. Mike Fisher, owner of the Fresno Club, says that the umpire stepped out to announce the batter, doffed his cap and began; "Ladies and gentlemen—"

Q. The largest baseball crowd?
A. At Canton, China, where 150,000 were on hand to see coast league All-Stars perform in 1908. The same Mike Fisher had the club on tour of the Orient. He claims 100,000 Chinese jumped the fence.

COACH V. HURST INSTRUCTS THREE PHY. ED. COURSES

Swimming Class Heads List Of Phy. Ed. Courses This Summer

Everything's quiet on the battle front of athletics at Northern, as far as competitive sports go. But, there are three gym classes offered under the capable guidance of coach Hurst. The three classes include badminton, tennis and swimming with seven, eight and nine students enrolled respectively.

Incidentally the swimming class is composed of nine feminine mermaids. (Boy, who doesn't envy coach Hurst!) The swimming class is primarily for recreation, however members of the class are given the opportunity to pass senior life saving tests.

BACK AGAIN

Do You Know?

And by the way you noticed the fast and furious note taking that has been going on? What sense and nonsense must be crammed into those black notebooks. Let us assume that there are about two hundred truly conscientious students. If each student were to take three pages a day and write about one hundred twenty-five words a page, six hundred pages and 75,000 words of fact, truth, nonsense, dress designs, telephone numbers, notes to the lady on the right, and caricatures of the instructor, and all such educational matter would break into notes allowing for such expressions of distraction and artistic initiative, as well as for the more leisure loving of us who trust our heads and not our notes (awful foolish), the entire student body writes 190,000 words a day in notes. In a session of about 27 days of actual class work, 513,000 words are written. No wonder psychologists conclude that people are smarter than anybody.

These are some of the gems of wisdom, minus the caricatures and dress designs. I have found as quoted exactly from the pages of enrolled students notebooks:

- 1. The average woman's vocabulary is about 500 words. (Think of the turnover)
2. A great many prominent families were started by grafting.
3. The horse has only one-tenth the stomach capacity of the cow.
4. Pineapple are about 87% water.
5. Queen Elizabeth had more than 3000 dresses in her wardrobe when she died. (Lucky dog)
6. Nouns are much like verbs. Something's got to function to be a noun. That function makes the noun almost verbal.
7. There are 16,000 mental patients in Michigan Mental Hospital. This does not include those about us.
8. An Illusion is a misinterpretation of a sense impression. This can cause insanity. (Elsie, remember the time I thought our hat stand in the corner was a man?)
9. About 8 million bacteria can cuddle on a pin head. (They must be on a diet.)
10. In other books we found a recipe for fudge, a list of groceries, a drug store list including a package of corn pads, an address of an out-of-town date, and in a notebook of a very prominent male, (I wish I could tell you his name) these words heavily underlined, "I wish I were single again!"
11. One notebook had this: When a wealthy Chinese gentleman is in his basket, an extra traveling suit is enclosed for his use on the 40 days journey to the next world. The object is to save wear and tear on his brand new burial dress, which he will need clean and fresh when he is presented to the Gods. (I wonder how they manage this now over there.)
12. One student had underscored very heavily: The real test of an education is not the facts you have in your head, but rather the ability to find the answers when you need them.

And so on into the notes.

Sorry But You're Wrong!

Your columnist has a bit of a chip on her shoulder today. I heard a little man, who by the way, walks about as though he were a processional of one, say, "You can't tell me! There is no Democracy in America. And I can prove it." And I would say, "Sorry, but you're wrong about it." There is perhaps no better example of Democracy than we have here about us—students—faculty. What is a Democracy if it does not represent man's infinite capacity for growth? If it is not man's attempt to live as fully, as creatively as possible? Hundreds of people around this institution are pursuing the business of living completely. Hundreds are trying to live in the fullest expression of self that is possible. And not only the right to try, but the right to succeed is given them. And those two rights, I would say, make up the very essence of Democracy. It can and does happen here.

Signs Of Times

- 1. New faces. Mostly worried ones.
2. New hair styles. Influx of baldness. Instructors are beginning to feel young again.
3. Standing room by the bulletin board.
4. Mail marked personal not read by student body in general.
5. Increased library circulation.
6. Refined, dignified apple polishing.
7. Some new jokes. Not many.
8. People study.
9. People recite.
10. Reminiscings about way back when—
Yes, it's Summer School Session again.

It has been said that a college education never hurt anyone willing to learn something afterwards. And from the wisdom resources of the same way there is another: "You can always spot an ex-teacher, summer school student, for when the instructor says, "Good Morning", the student puts it in the notebook.

ANYTHING WORTH HAVING - - COSTS MONEY . . . !
And an education is no exception. Handling income and outgo; making both ends meet; and having money left over for other things are problems that confront all students. Many Northern College students have found the answer in the facilities of the First National of Marquette. They use a Checking Account for handling income and outgo—they use a Savings Account for safety, setting aside funds for future use, they bank conveniently by mail to save time. May we serve you, too, in any or all of these capacities?

BETTER LIGHT SPELLS BETTER SIGHT
Help Your Eyes by Lightening Their Burdens
SAFEGUARD THEM—CONSERVE EYESIGHT
Reduce defectiveness by reducing misuse and abuse. Don't use a 25 watt lamp where you should be using a larger lamp. Consult our lighting expert.
