Dear Mrs Wilcox:

It was with a feeling of deep sorrow that I read of Tom's passing away while you two were on your vacation. To lose ones mate is tragic enough but away from home & among strangers the shock is all the more intense - I trust you have weathered the first blow.

My friendship with Tom goes back to old White Pine days, way back to 1914-5, when a few of us from Calumet made our bi-weekly trek to the old bunk house, & he always acted as our genial host, & I shall always remember him as such a fine specimen of manhood. Mrs. Benedict joins me in this expression of sympathy at your great loss.

Sincerely yours

C. H. Benedict
