CCC Folk At Big Bay Await Guests Sunday

Folk who plan to motor Sunday afternoon are reminded that the enrollees and officers of the Big Bay CCC camp will be awaiting them. The public is invited to attend "open house" at the camp which is located about three miles south of Big Bay on the county road 550.

Guides will be provided to escort groups about the camp on a tour of inspection of the barracks, garage, workshops, tool rooms and offices, and to answer questions about the work being done in the CCC camp.

The "open house" party is in the nature of a birthday celebration in observance of the fourth anniversary of the beginning of CCC activities in Michigan.

At 4 o'clock the guests will be served coffee and doughnuts in the mess hall of the camp.

Among the comforts of the French liner Normandie are a theater, a church, a "street" of shops, cafe, dance salon, winter garden, and a garage. The ship also has six separate wireless installations aboard.
