

•••

Georgia Margaret Rhoades, who was in Europe at the outbreak of the present war and shipped home from a French port to Mexico to gain entry to this country, leaves Thursday on an 18-day trip to Chile, where she will be stationed for the next two years in the U. S. Consul's office at Santiago, Chile.

Miss Rhoades, daughter of Mrs. John H. Rhoades of St. Ignace, arrived home Monday, having taken a plane from Washington, D.C., so as to have as much time as possible at home before leaving on her South American trip.

•••

During the latter part of July, Myrna Loy, noted movie star, and her husband, Arthur Hornblower, Jr., toured the Straits region and departed for Canada and no one was the wiser until weeks afterward when their registration was noted in a parking area.

•••