Love Feast For Goldwater

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON -(NEA) - In spite of all the reports that a lot of important money is available to support a Barry Goldwater-for-President drive in 1964, only a few hundred guests were present at the $1,000-a-plate Washington dinner honoring the Arizona conservaive Republican last night.

The committee in charge of arrangements said the dinner wasn't really pushed to get a bigger crowd. Letters were sent to Republians whom they thought might like to attend. No come-one, come-all invitation was broad-

The committee also made clear that dinner ickets weren't being sold for $1,000 apiece.

Each invited Republican guest had been told that if he will donate $1,000 to the 1964 congressional campaign funds, he or she would get a free ticket to the dinner. The ostensible purpose was to honor Sen.

These are the commanding officers of K. I. Sawyer AFB who extend to the public an invitation to attend "Open House" at the base Saturday.

ARMED FORCES DAY 1963—The U. S. Air Force has the capability of transporting troops and material to all parts of the World. Through increased epeed and greater workload capacity, the Air Force has brought combat forces much closer to their sources of supply.

ARMED - 2ES DAY 1963—The U.S. Air Force's Strategic. Air Command is an around-the-clock operation. This is exemplified by these alert crewmen attending Sunday religious Services in flight gear ready to take off at a mosment's notice.

ARMED FORCES DAY 1963—A U. S. Air Force Titan II Intercontinental Ballistic Missile begins a successful test firing from the Atlantic Missile Range, Cape Canaveral, Florida.

Let Us Make This A Day of Dedication

We urge that all who can possibly do it, visit K. I. Sawyer some time during Open House hours – 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. – not just to be thrilled by the program but to experience a renewal of our own dedication to the principles the Armed Forces stand ready to defend.

This is a day for the family – a day when children can gain some understanding of the glory of our democracy and how we have always been prepared to defend it-a day when adults can reflect that what they see is just the space age projection of muskets of the 18th century-cannon balls of the 19th century-but what they cannot measure is the same sense of urgency-the same readiness to sacrifice-that has led men and women into the defense of their country since Colonial days.

And from this we should all have a rebirth of pride in this country we call ours – in the leadership we have created and maintained in the world's family of nations-in the men and women of the Armed Force prepared to keep that leadership a vital reality.

This Is The Spirit Of "Open House"

Ours must be a sense of appreciation too, for what the personnel of K. I. Sawyer means to us, as friends and neighbors-part of the community-in any Marquette County community-neighbors who are engaged in the tremendous task of preserving for us our freedoms.

An exhibit in the Veterans' Center this week capped the winter artistic efforts of a group of junior and senior high school girls known as "Creative Juniors." Working under the direction of Mrs. G. C. Meyland, they attended art classes twice a month all winter, and the exhibit for their mothers and friends was the climax of the course. Above, surrounded by sample paintings, are (front row, left to right) Mary Bucklin, Nancy Cleary, Vicky Anick, Susan Trezona and Kitty Sonderegger. Behind them, from left, are Roberta Kellner, Bonnie Altmann, Susan Herlich and Diane Peterson. Among the mothers who attended were Mrs. Don Trezona (standing at left) and Mrs. Richard Sonderegger (standing, right). According to Mrs. Meyland, the "Creative Juniors" were felt to have more than a normal talent in the field of art and were offered the course to develop their artistic finesse, much as talented music students pursue their studies with extra lessons.
