Negro Leaders Plan Drive To Register Vote

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Jubilant Negro integration leaders mapped plans today for a voter registration drive on the heels of what they considered an overwhelming victory in Birmingham's six-week-long integration effort.

City officials, however, scoffed at a biracial citizen's committee agreement on proposals to end the conflict, which has seen more than 2,000 Negroes arrested and fire

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Negro leaders, hoping for a meeting with Nashville businessmen to resolve the city's racial problems, have pledged that no new demonstrations will occur today "insofar as we can prevent them." At least three persons, including a Negro minister and two teen-aged girls, were injured Friday in the third straight day of anti-segregation demonstrations in the downtown area.

Staunch segregationist Police Commissioner Eugene Connor, who directed the arrests and repulsed the crowds, said the agreement was "the longest face-saving statement that ever was in-

Businessmen Eye Funds To Push Tax Cut

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — The Business Committee for Tax Reduction in 1963 meets here today to consider raising more money to beat the drums for a tax cut.

The committee, organized last month by a group including Henry Ford II, board chairman of Ford Motor Co., is inviting some 1,500 businessmen to enroll and contribute up to $1,000 each.

A spokesman said the group's 10-member executive committee would decide whether to enlarge its budget, set tentatively at $120,000, in order to mount a broader promotion effort built mainly around newspaper and magazine advertising.

The meeting was scheduled between sessions of the Business Council, the organization of 163 corporation heads and financial leaders which is winding up a closed two-day session here.

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP) — "At first I thought about retribution to the guy who left me there, but mostly I was just scared to death."

With these words, Pvt. Daniel J. Arthur, 17, described Friday's feelings during 10 hours in a target area where thousands of rounds of live ammunition were falling.

Arthur was left to guard a phone mine field as part of Exercise Coulee Crest, an Air Force-Army maneuver. The exercise began May 5 and ends May 20 on a million acres of central Washington. The Los Angeles soldier, part of the "defending" Blue forces, was to be captured by elements of the "invading" Red forces. His captors failed to show up.

Erroneously Accounted For

Gen. Paul D. Adams, commander in chief of the U.S. Strike Command and head of the exercise, said Arthur was erroneously accounted for as being out of the area.

At 6:09 a. m. Thursday, the Red artillery opened fire. Arthur was asleep in his pup tent.

U.S. Officials Eye Shift In Soviet Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department believes the Soviet Union is revamping its foreign policy and may become even more difficult to deal with in the months ahead.

The Kremlin, a department spokesman said Friday, is seriously considering mending its rift with Red China, and is likely to press harder on a policy of Communist expansion abroad—particularly in Africa and Southeast Asia.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev, he said, seems to be in no danger of being toppled but is facing critical economic troubles at home as well as various difficulties abroad.

But he expects that a searching appraisal of policy now under way will result in Russia's concentrating on its revolutionary goals among the "have-not" nations, rather than concentrating on furthering the revolution at home.

That has been one of the sore points between Moscow and Peking, Red China, denouncing Moscow as cowardly, has demanded that Russia press communism more aggressively in the developing nations.

And this hard line has been attracting supporters in the Communist camp. The State Department official said the Indonesia Communist party, for instance, appears to be swinging toward Red China.

Also, he said, Soviet officials have been disappointed with the results of Russian aid in such countries as Mali, Guinea, Iraq and the Congo.

In patching up its troubles with Red China, Russia may also revise its tactics in Southeast Asia, the official suggested. This could mean more Soviet support for Communists in Laos and South Viet Nam.

It Costs More For Marriage!

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's prospective husbands will be tapped for $3 instead of $2 for a marriage license under a bill signed into law by Gov. George Romney.

The measure also provides that county clerks shall report the issuance of marriage licenses to the State Health Commissioner rather than the Secretary of State.

Gov. Romney Inks Speed Law Bill

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Romney Friday signed into law measures which provide for a 45 miles per hour minimum speed and a uniform day-and-night speed of 70 miles per hour on the state's freeways.

Another bill made law will allow Probate Courts to retain jurisdiction over a juvenile after his 17th birthday if the petition and offense were committed before the juvenile reached 17.

Unity Fever Spreads In Exile Colony

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Unity fever spread through the politically divided Cuban exile colony today as plotting for a knockout counter-revolution against Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro was reported maturing.

Enrique Rui Williams, unofficial coordinator of a movement to form a junta in exile to sponsor the counterrevolution, said he believed the body will be established within a week or two.

Other informed exile sources said that shortly thereafter, recruiting of rebels to infiltrate Cuba for underground activities would start.

The sources said plans made with the knowledge of the Central Intelligence Agency call for large-scale sabotage, guerrilla warfare and infiltration of armed forces, to be climaxed by bombardment or invasion from a non-U.S. base.

It was jets breaking the sound barrier," he said. "Then I looked out my tent. At first I just sat there and watched the show and wondered what was going to happen. I wasn't too worried.

"Then the firing got closer and the artillery opened up. I thought I might be sitting on one of their targets."

"I took all my white clothes—long underwear, shirts, shorts, a towel and things of this nature—and spread them out. I also made a small fire of sagebrush to try to attract the attention of the jets, but they couldn't see me at all."

"One artillery shell bounced off a hill and landed 100 yards from me. Their kill radius is 50 yards."

Arthur, who is 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 125 pounds, curled up into a ball to make as small a target as he could. He wore his metal helmet.

During intervals of the bombardment, he worked on a letter to his wife, Wanda, in Tacoma, Wash.

British businessman Greville Wynne, top, today was sentenced to an eight-year prison term for espionage by a Soviet military tribunal in Moscow. Wynne's co-defendant, former Soviet official Oleg Penkovsky, bottom, was sentenced to death. (NEA Telephoto).

When Wynne's sentence was announced, some of the 400 Russians in the courtroom muttered, "Too little, too little."

Mrs. Wynne was not in the courtroom when the sentence was announced.

Penkovsky's death sentence means he will be shot.

"It will be such a shock for my little boy," Wynne told the three-judge military tribunal, "that I am not with him to wish him many happy returns."

Prosecution Demand
"I ask you to remember my son, my wife and my aged father. I very much want my aged father to see me, but in England," Wynne added in concluding his 10-minute plea for mercy behind closed doors.

The prosecution Friday demanded 10 years in prison for Wynne and execution for Penkovsky, also charged with passing Soviet secrets to Washington and London. Both are 44.

The court agreed to hear 11th-hour appeals from the pair before handing down the verdicts.

Public Barred
The public was barred from the courtroom but Wynne's words were reported to Western newsmen later by the businessman's Soviet lawyer, Nikolai Borovik.

Wynne was arrested last November while on a trip through the Soviet bloc. He was accused of helping Penkovsky pass secrets to the West.

Borovik said Wynne repeated his allegations that British officials had threatened and blackmailed him when he tried to get out of the business of contacting Penkovsky.

Wynne To Appeal
"He said," Borovik reported, "that he was never a spy and had not intended to become one, and that he did not understand that it was spying at first."

Borovik told newsmen the prosecutor had not been able to prove Wynne was an active spy. If he had the prosecutor would have demanded a 15-year sentence, instead of only 10, Borovik asserted.

Borovik said Wynne has decided to appeal any sentence, and Borovik added that this will be done—to the President of the Supreme Soviet.

Details Unlearned
The lawyer said the pleas of Wynne and Penkovsky were made behind closed doors so as to give Penkovsky a chance to talk in detail about the secrets he allegedly passed on. Details about Penkovsky's plea could not be learned.

LONDON — A dispute over air fares threatened today to disrupt airline flights between the United States and Britain at midnight. The dispute revolves around refusal of the U. S. Briton Says He'll Appeal Court Action

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet military tribunal today sentenced former Soviet official Oleg Penkovsky to death for espionage. His British co-defendant, Greville Wynne, got an eight-year prison term.

The two were convicted by a military court after a five-day trial.

The verdict and sentence were read by the court president, Lt. Gen. Viktor Borisoglebsky.

Wynne's sentence was broken down to consist of three years in prison and the remainder in a corrective labor camp.

PRES. KENNEDY

LESTER PEARSON

JFK, Pearson Winding Up Talks Today

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — President Kennedy and Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada held the final formal meeting of their two-day conference today and promised an early pronouncement on the sticky U.S.-Canadian nuclear defense issue.

The President and Pearson began their windup conference at 10 a. m. at Kennedy's oceanfront home.

Agreement on a formal communique, which will deal with the defense issue, was one of the last items of business for the two leaders.

This 4-year-old problem, a major issue in the Canadian election that boosted Pearson to power last month, was discussed by the President and the prime minister during more than four hours of talks Friday.

In addition, both leaders announced at an impromptu press conference Friday night that progress had been made on other major questions of mutual interest to their neighboring countries.

The touchy defense issue hinges around a proposal to provide American-controlled nuclear warheads for two Bomarc missile bases in Canada.

Pearson and Kennedy gave no advance clue to whether the new Canadian government will accept the warheads, spurred by the preceding administration of defeated Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker. The answer could come in a conference-ending communique later today.

In addition to the Bomarc issue, Pearson said the initial talk before a roaring log fire in Kennedy's living room dealt with:

1. Proposals to develop and use expanded channels of communication between the American and Canadian governments. During the Diefenbaker regime, these virtually dried up, but Pearson, a former ambassador to the United States, joined Kennedy in agreeing for a revival of mutual consultation.

2. The sharing of defense production by the United States and Canada, a question to be explored further at an early meeting of U. S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and C. M. Drury, Canada's minister of defense production.

3. Possible solution of a maritime labor dispute in Canada which has spilled over into American ports on the Great Lakes, with several incidents of rifle firing at Canadian vessels docked in the United States. This matter will be taken up by U. S. Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, Canadian Labor Minister Allan MacEachern, AFL-CIO President George Meany and Claude Jodoin, head of the Canadian Labor Congress.

4. The proposed multinational nuclear force that would be set up under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. This will be an important topic at a NATO ministerial conference in Ottawa later this month.

5. Prospects for success in American and Canadian efforts to negotiate a reduction of international tariff barriers at forthcoming meetings in Geneva.

Bright Stars In Skies During May

ANN ARBOR — Two bright constellations of special interest, rising during the May evenings and conspicuous throughout the summer, are Lyra and Scorpion, University of Michigan Astronomer Hazel M. Losh said.

"Toward the northeast, one is struck by the beauty of a dazzling bluish star Vega in the constellation of Lyra. During the succeeding months, it will climb the eastern sky higher and higher until about Sept. 1, when at 8 p. m. it crowns the heavens and is directly overhead," Prof. Losh said.

"This star is of particular interest, as the earth and all the planets are being dragged along by the sun at the rate of 12 miles per second. This star is also speeding toward us, so some time in the distant future, the sun and Vega will pass each other out there in space."

"Also another point of some interest about this star is that about 13,000 years ago Vega was the Pole Star, and in another 13,000 years from now, it will again assume this important role."

Antares — Red Star
"Turning toward the southeast and rising a little later than Lyra is an especially good group of bright stars visible during the summer evenings. This constellation is Scorpion which curves up by the left like a giant fish hook, and unlike many of the other groups, it actually looks very much like the figure that it is supposed to represent."

"Antares, the red star, in the heart of the Scorpion, is one of the most interesting stars in the sky. It is so large that Mars and its whole orbit around the sun could be placed in this star with plenty of room to spare, its diameter being 75,000 times that of the planet."

Snow Falls, Mercury Hits 33° In City

Snow in May! It can't be, but it did — yesterday in Marquette. It's not unusual, either, for 17 inches of snow fell here in May last year and 24 inches in May two years ago.

Only a trace of snow fell, but it definitely was snow, in several periods late yesterday morning and in the early afternoon.

From the high of 49 at midnight Thursday night, the mercury dropped to 34 yesterday and to 33 here this morning. Yesterday's mean temperature of 37 was 11 degrees below normal, and it was the first subnormal day here in five, with the month's mean temperature still averaging three degrees a day above normal.

It was cool throughout the Upper Peninsula yesterday, with weather elsewhere being similar to Marquette's again this morning — clear but cool.

Warmer Air Due

Meteorologist Emil Ellingson said the area was still being affected by the mass of high pressure from Canada, which this morning was centered over Lake Superior and moving eastward slowly. As it passes, he said, warmer air would follow it, causing temperature rises here.

It was expected to get into the mid-40s today and tonight it won't be as cool, 38 along the lake and near freezing inland, but tomorrow it will be in the 50s, although some showers are expected. Showers will end Monday, with little temperature change due.

Yesterday's 0.4 of an inch of precipitation increased the month's total to .40, still less than half the normal of 1.03. For the year precipitation here totals 6.42 inches, almost three inches below normal.

N. J. LaFond Dies At 50 On Lakes Ship

Norman J. LaFond, 50, of 1815 Woodland Ave., died suddenly on a Columbia Steamship Lines ship yesterday afternoon in Windsor, Canada.

Mr. LaFond was born Jan. 11, 1913, in Munising, and had been a resident of this area all his life.

He was a member of St. Christopher's Church. He had been employed as an officer on the merchant ship. He was a member of the Elks Club.

Survivors are his mother, Mrs. Naomi Beaudry, Marquette; two sons, James A., who is in the U. S. Navy, and Thomas, Marquette, and four brothers, Joseph, Marquette; Francis and Richard, Saginaw, and John, Decatur, Ill.

The body will be returned to Marquette for services and burial. Arrangements for services will be announced later. Fassbender Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Inmate Here Waives City Court Hearing

Ray Siler, 28, was arraigned yesterday in municipal court for a larceny which occurred in Sands Township when he was on parole from Marquette State Prison.

Appearing before Judge Edward H. Dembowski on the felony charge, Siler waived preliminary examination and was bound over to the May term of circuit court. He will appear in circuit court Monday morning.

Siler is charged with the theft of a total of $100 in cash from Marty's Restaurant, on County Road 553 in Sands Township, on Sept. 9, 1962.

State police said he took $82 from a cash register and $18 from a change box.

Siler was arrested by federal authorities in Norfolk, Va., Feb. 19. He was returned to the Marquette State Prison, where he had been released on parole June 20, 1962.

Pioneer Women Had No Easy Time In Marquette District

Housekeeping for the first white women in this area was no push button affair.

The fire in the kitchen stove had to be built, the water pumped to be built, drawn from the cistern in the yard or dipped from the lake, depending on the location.

Homemade Brooms

Then there were homemade brooms to do the sweeping, rag or fur rugs had to be hung out and wooden floors scrubbed on hands and knees.

Soap used for all the scrubbing and washing had to be made at home and the busy housewife had to take time out at the end of the day to rub her hands with tallow or grease to counteract the ravages of the harsh soap and the hard work.

Speaking of tallow, those who could afford it bought candles from local stores, which had ample supplies shipped in by boat. Others made their own soap out of tallow, lard, or bear's grease.

Homemade Remedies

Every accomplished housewife had her own supplies of home-made remedies, in addition to the usual patent medicines.

Despite the comparative isolation of Marquette and the little mining communities, there seem to have been severe epidemics of cholera, smallpox and typhoid fever and the mortality rates, especially among children, was high.

Neighborliness Cited

The birth of a baby meant that neighborliness, always an important factor, was carried to its highest degree. Whether rich or poor, the neighbors were called on for nursing care and amateur mid-wifery when any emergency arose.

The family, and usually it was a large one, remained a compact unit, and the women, particularly, were ardent workers in the establishment of churches. They held meetings in their homes, often for years, until sufficient funds could be raised to build churches.

Counteracting Scoury

For meals, the women fixed salt pork, slab bacon, fish, hardtack, and staples such as potatoes, corn and beans. Especially when the vegetables ran out, there was the

Waterfield Picked For SAC Contest

MSgt. Shelbe O. Waterfield has been selected to represent the 410th Bombardment Wing at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base in competition with other Strategic Air Command units for the honor of representing the command at the Air Force Association convention to be held in September.

Waterfield is first sergeant of the 69th Munitions Maintenance Squadron. He was selected by a wing board in competition with delegates of other SAC squadrons at Sawyer.

Selection June 15
One airman from each major air command is selected annually to attend the convention of the non-profit organization, SAC headquarters will make the command selection by June 15.

The wing's nominee, who was awarded the Airman's Medal at one time for rescuing three persons from a burning automobile, is active in civic and recreational activities, including scouting and PTA.

The Virginia Beach, Va., native was nominated by his squadron based on his record of sustained outstanding performance over a period of years, his exceptional police and military bearing.

Married and the father of two children, Waterfield has been in the service since 1946, and has completed three years of college education during that period.

This year's AFA convention will be held Sept. 11-14 in Washington, D.C.

At the convention last year, the AFA presented a plaque to the 46th Air Refueling Squadron here, symbolic of the outstanding tanker unit in the command.

Older Persons Sought For Peace Corps

More than 4,000 posts are to be filled in 45 overseas countries before Sept. 1 by the Peace Corps.

Senior citizens are being sought for the corps.

Periodical examinations are given in Marquette by the local U. S. Civil Service examiner, Percy C. Chubb, for Peace Corps examinations.

Many openings will be for replacement of volunteers who shall have completed their two year tour of duty. Others will meet requests for expansion of existing projects or for new programs.

The Peace Corps has indicated that hundreds of these requests from developing nations may be filled by senior volunteers — those who have recently retired or are contemplating early retirement.

Basic Requirements

The basic requirements are that each applicant must (1) possess a bona fide skill in some trade or profession, (2) be able to pass a satisfactory physical examination, and (3) successfully complete an orientation training period. There is no maximum age limit.

These posts are open to married couples, if both can qualify for the same project. Volunteers receive transportation to and from the country of assignment and a living allowance which covers housing, food, clothing, medical care and incidental expenses.

Volunteers also receive a readjustment allowance of $75 per month for each month of service. These allowances do not conflict with pension, social security or dual compensation laws.

State Senate To Meet On Appointment

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's Legislature is expected to be called back into session next week to allow the Senate to confirm the appointment of a Republican member to the Board of State Canvassers.

Gov. George Romney confirmed the plan to reconvene the lawmakers when questioned by newsmen Friday.

The Senate's advice and consent is needed before the appointment of Alma attorney Albert Fortino as a canvasser is declared official.

Fortino, a former Grafton County Republican chairman, was appointed by Romney Tuesday to fill a vacancy left by the resignation of Carl Lindquist of Iron River from the four-member bipartisan board.

Lindquist explained that he was too busy to serve on the board. Romney said he felt the appointment of Fortino should be confirmed as soon as possible because of the important responsibility facing the canvassers in connection with the forthcoming recount of the vote on the new constitution.

Fortino's confirmation probably would be the only business to come up at the brief session, Romney said.

If so, it appeared that the lawmakers might meet for less than an hour.

Romney said he did not know how much it would cost to bring the legislators back, but one source estimated that travel and other expenses might total as much as $10,000 for the one day.

The board is scheduled to meet Tuesday to give final approval to rules and regulations for the recount.

A class of 50 candidates is being balloted on at the stated meeting on Friday, May 17, with the three-day, 75th reunion opening on Thursday, May 23, and closing on Saturday, May 25.

Twelve degrees will be exemplified by casts from Iron Mountain, Ishpeming, Manistique, Marquette, Negaunee and Newberry.

An outstanding speaker has been engaged for the dinner meeting on Saturday night.

Selo, Marquette, sovereign prince, Lake Superior Council, Princess of Jerusalem; Juell E. Caspersen, Ishpeming, most wise master, Peninsular Chapter of Rose Croix, and Henry R. State Police Note Water Safety Week

State police are observing Michigan Water Safety Week (May 12-18) with a special emphasis program, but water safety is a problem throughout the year, Sgt. Grant C. Barry, commanding officer of the Marquette post, states.

"Water Safety Week, proclaimed by Gov. Romney, marks the beginning of the season of the greatest activity in water sports and the accident toll multiplies," Barry said.

"But the same causes that increase the toll are the same ones that account for water fatalities and nearly all the causes boil down into one — taking risks. The sorry part is that you don't have to take risks to enjoy water sports fully."

"Don't Go Out Alone" Among the common causes of accidents are swimming alone and swimming in unauthorized waters such as gravel pits; failure to provide life preservers on boats; reckless operation of motor boats; failure of water skiers to wear life belts, and failure to properly supervise small children playing in or near water.

The annual water accident summary, compiled by state police from reports submitted by all police agencies, shows that in 1962 there were 20 fatal accidents, 236 persons were drowned and 191 were injured. Twenty-four children under the age of 10 lost their lives by falling into the water from a bridge, bank, dock or in some other manner.

Barry pointed out the value of learning some method of artificial resuscitation, 19 persons having been revived in this manner last year. He recommended mouth to mouth resuscitation because it is a new technique that is easy to learn and use and is highly effective.

Display Slated As part of its water safety program, state police will display at its posts a series of eight Red Cross posters showing ways to prevent water accidents and ways to save the lives of those in danger. Also on display will be a copy of the Governor's proclamation.

Throughout the year, as in the past, the department will give demonstrations on water safety and resuscitation methods and otherwise promote the program. "Should Be Respected"

"Michigan with its abundance of lakes and streams is called the water recreation wonderland and there is no reason why people should not fully participate in these activities," said Barry.

"Water should not be feared, but it should be respected. There should be full appreciation that taking risks is just as deadly as doing the wrong thing on the highway."

"There is a lot of pleasure in taking part in water sports the right way so it just doesn't make sense to deliberately court danger by doing the daring foolhardy things that invite tragedy. The water safety rules are simple and the best thing to do is follow them."

Preliminary Upholstery Meet Slated

Men and women from this area have been invited to attend the preliminary upholstery meeting, to be conducted by Mrs. Olive Sain, Marquette county extension agent, home economics, at the Skandia School Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting is for the purpose of considering the fabrics, tools and other supplies necessary for upholstery. Some time will also be given to re-finishing of the exposed wood on the chairs and davenport.

Workshop In June The meeting is open to extension women or other men or women in the area who would like to learn how to upholster their own furniture.

The actual workshop will be held at the Skandia School June 10-11. They will be full days of work on furniture. It is necessary, in order to participate in the workshop, that one have a helper for the piece of furniture for the full five days.

Anyone planning to upholster their piece of furniture should make every effort to be at the meeting on Wednesday or to stop at the extension office in the courthouse for information about what is required in materials and tools, he said. This preliminary meeting is held several weeks in advance of the workshop to permit you to have sufficient time to purchase the upholstery fabric and other necessary supplies.

Persons from the Marquette, Skandia, Beaver Grove, Dukes, Harvey, Skandia and K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base areas are expected to attend, she stated.

The fastest current ever found in open sea — almost 11 miles an hour — was measured off Florida in the Gulf Stream.

AF Recruiting Team Here Next Week

An Air Force recruiting team will be in Marquette next week to interview college students and others interested in making a career as an AF officer.

The recruiting team includes Capt. Donald E. Schick Jr. of Milwaukee. He will be at the Student Center at Northern Michigan University from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., Tuesday and Wednesday.

Schick said the U. S. Air Force will need 5,400 new second lieutenants next year and that the AF will recruit college seniors to fill the vacancies.

He'll explain how seniors, not over 29½ years of age, can apply for this 90 day training course leading to a commission in the Air Force.

In their application, they may select three Air Force occupational specialties in which they desire to work.

In 40 Specialties Selection of occupational specialty can be made from among 40 that are available. Other than flying jobs, the Air Force requires officers in such diverse jobs as accounting, cartography, personnel and meteorology.

The application processes, with a subsequent reply from the Air Force, permits the potential officer trainee to know what job he will have prior to enlistment for the 90 day training period. Students interested in this opportunity may contact Schick at the Student Center, without prior appointment.

Gov. Romney Backs Park In Principle

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney says he approves in principle of the proposal to create a federal recreation area in the Sleeping Bear Dunes region of northwestern Michigan.

"I feel some type of area should be developed up there," said Romney.

The Governor added that he has not delved into the question thoroughly enough to express a viewpoint on just what type of development there should be, or how large.

Hart Bill Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich., seeks passage of a bill in congress to set aside 77,000 acres for a national seashore area to be operated by the National Park Service.

His plan has the support of the U. S. Dept. of the Interior but has been opposed by property owners in the affected areas as a "land-grab."

An alternative plan for a 37,000-acre development has been offered by U.S. Rep. Robert Griffin, R-Traverse City.

Romney, expressing himself on the issue for the first time, said he felt the Leelanau and Benzie county region which would be affected is "one of Michigan's finest areas."

"Some of those lakes up there are the most beautiful in the country," he said. "It seems to be an appropriate place for a national park."

Michigan conservation officials also have approved the federal plan "in principle" but have taken no position on whether Hart's plan or Griffin's, or a compromise would be best.

Tourist Office Here Readies For Rush

Marquette's headquarters of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, preparing for the 1963 summer tourist season, is busy answering inquiries from prospective visitors interested in vacationing north of the Straits of Mackinac. Above, Ken Slater, president of the organization, helps office clerk Mary Sell carry stacks of "Fun-Pacs" containing tourist literature which will be sent to all parts of the country. At least 200 large envelopes, each containing from four to six brochures listing the Upper Peninsula's recreational and scenic advantages, are mailed daily from the Tourist Association office in Marquette.

Appointments In Hospital Drive Listed

Several appointments to help fill the organization of the campaign committee for the St. Mary's Hospital psychiatric addition were announced today.

Archibald has been appointed chairman for the campaign in Marquette and Jack Powell, Negaunee, and Sigurd I. Nelson, Marquette, have been named co-chairmen for the labor section.

General Gifts Division In the Marquette organization, Leslie J. Cory has been appointed chairman of preparations, Thomas F. Jernstad chairman of the educational division and Patrick L. Bennett and Frank Menze co-chairmen of the general gifts division.

The educational phase of the campaign calls for speakers appearing at meetings of various clubs and organizations to present the need for the psychiatric ward.

To this end, Judge DeFant said, he and Homer Hilton Jr., president of the St. Mary's Advisory Board, have written letters to organizations in the county, offering to provide a speaker for this purpose. Their appointments will be named next week.

Man Jailed For Assault At Jail Here

George R. Parkkonen, 21, of 417 Prince St., Negaunee, was sentenced to jail yesterday morning when arraigned in municipal court here for assaulting a trustee on duty in the boiler room of the Marquette County Jail.

Judge Edward H. Dembowski ordered Parkkonen to spend 30 days in jail on the simple assault and battery charge. Parkkonen was also ordered to spend 30 consecutive days in jail on a charge of drunk and disorderly.

Undersheriff Adrian A. Dequet said that Parkkonen entered the boiler room of the jail early yesterday morning. When Trusty Raymond Johns ordered him to leave, he assaulted the trustee, the undersheriff said.

ARA Approves Aerial Survey Of U.P. For Timber Purposes

Approval of an aerial photography project in the Upper Peninsula by the United States Area Redevelopment Administration has been made, it was announced today.

The announcement came from U.S. Sens. Patrick V. McNamara and Philip A. Hart (D-Mich.).

Promote Wood Industries The Senators said the aerial survey will be used to help promote wood-using industries in the Upper Peninsula.

"Because wood-using, manufacturing plants in Upper Michigan employ a substantial percentage of the total work force in the region," they said, "it is hoped that this survey will provide information on which expansion of industries can be based."

Of this, $49,250 will come from the ARA and $11,570 from the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Forest Service.

The Forest Service also will provide professional services, administer the funds and supervise the project.

Nine Local Piano Students Recording Event Winners

Gold medals indicating top honors in a recording festival sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers have been awarded to nine local pianists, and cash awards accompanied seven of the nine citations. Mrs. Richard Beyers of Marquette announced today. All the winners are or were her students.

Largest cash prize — a $300 stipend — went to her son, Jack, presently studying piano at the Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, Md. The award was for first place honors in a recording event for guild members of artist calibre.

Miss Caron Tie Winner

Other cash winners were Audene Caron, who tied for second place in competition with others at her grade level in music; Julianne Isabelle, Ann Toupin, Wendy Selin and Judith Pertunen, all of Marquette, and Edward Wolf, Deerton. Total sum divided among the group, including Beyers, was $685.

The other two gold medal winners were Barbara Benzie, formerly of Marquette but now living in Texas, and Patricia Nord, Marquette.

Mrs. Beyers said receipt of gold medals by these nine piano students indicated they had received grades of 90 per cent or higher in the recording contest. The cash awards were given to the top 25 per cent of gold medal winners.

Biddle Did Recording

Drexel Biddle of Marquette made the long-play records which were entered in the festival by Mrs. Beyers' students.

The citation received by Jack Beyers was the latest in a long string of awards he has received over the years for his piano accomplishments. He studied with his mother from the age of four and, as a high school student, was sent to Interlochen on a scholarship provided by Marquette's Saturday Music Club.

He attended Northern Michigan University for a year before going to Peabody in June 1960, opened Northern's summer concert season. While at NMU, he studied with Dr. Harold Wright.

Currently studying with Mieczyslaw Munz, noted pianist and teacher, Beyers will receive his master's degree from Peabody on June 2. While completing his studies, he is serving on the faculty of the conservatory's preparatory school.

It was announced that the Elks Lodge rooms had been selected as the site for the party, which will begin at 11 p. m. June 6 and continue until 5 a. m., concluding with the serving of breakfast.

The Rhythm Rockers will provide music for dancing, and games, prizes and snacks also will be furnished.

All details of the party will be explained in a letter to be sent to each graduate's parents. May 31 has been set as the deadline for purchasing tickets for the event.

Representatives of women's clubs in the Upper Peninsula will meet in Iron Mountain Tuesday to discuss opportunities for stimulating community improvement programs and community development techniques.

The occasion will be a seminar for leadership development sponsored by Northern Michigan University and the Upper Peninsula Federation of Women's Clubs.

It follows earlier discussions of community development activities in connection with a $60,000 grant recently awarded to Northern by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. The meeting also reflects a growing interest in community improvement by women's clubs throughout the nation.

The seminar is one of a number of projects growing out of the foundation grant to aid community development efforts in the Upper Peninsula.

Morning sessions of the Iron Mountain meeting will be held at the Dickinson Hotel. Afternoon sessions will take place at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, and a 6 p. m. dinner meeting will be held in the Chippewa Club. The seminar will begin with a coffee hour and registration at 8:30 a. m. and will close with a summary at 8:30 p. m.

The Sears-Roebuck Foundation, a leading force for community improvement, awarded Northern $20,000 a year for a three-year period to help support community development at the "grass-roots" level.

Robert V. Mullen, Chicago, executive-director of the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, will be one of the main speakers at the seminar. The Foundation has worked closely with the General Federation of Women's Clubs in sponsoring community improvement projects.

Representing Northern at the seminar will be Dr. Claud Bosworth, vice president in charge of public services; Raphael Salmon, head of community development programs in Northern's Public Services Division; and Mrs. Ruth Salmon, community development consultant.

Mrs. E. J. Strom, Ironwood, district president, Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs, will give a general introduction to the program.

Chairman of afternoon workshops will be Mrs. Harold Bernhardt, Iron River; Mrs. August Pavaglio, Kingsford; Mrs. Dana Cory, Negaunee; and Mrs. Frances Eastley, Laurium.

William Savola, formerly of Marquette, will be guest conductor for the Northern Community Symphony Orchestra's spring concert at Northern Michigan University next Thursday.

The program, which also will feature Northern's 70-voice choir, will begin at 8:15 p. m. in Kaye Auditorium. The public is invited to attend without charge.

Savola will conduct the Northern Community Symphony in two compositions by the great Finnish composer, Jean Sibelius: "Finlandia" and "The Song of Tuonela."

A teacher in the Livonia, Mich., school system, Savola has appeared as a guest conductor of the Scandinavian Symphony of Detroit and has been invited to perform as guest conductor of the National Philharmonic of the Philippines next year.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Savola, Lakewood, he was one of 12 selected from more than 200 applicants to attend the West Coast Institute of Orchestral Studies, a project supported by the Rockefeller Foundation.

In 1961, Savola was the special guest of Welland Wagner, grandson of the famous composer, Richard Wagner, in Bayreuth, Germany. While at Bayreuth he observed and participated in rehearsals for the Richard Wagner Festival.

While a sophomore at Marquette Graveraet, he organized a youth symphony, and he founded the Livonia Youth Orchestra in 1956.

Studied Widely

A graduate of Northern and of Indiana University, Savola has studied conducting with Dr. John Finley Williamson, founder of the famous Westminster Choir; Wilfred Pelletier, of Montreal and Quebec; and Dr. Richard Lert, conductor of the Berlin State Opera, Germany.

As a member of the U. S. Armed Forces, Savola was with the 7th Army Symphony which played in 15 European countries.

While a student at Graveraet, he played under Joseph Patterson. He also studied the violin with Russell Babcock and Dr. Allen Niemi, now dean of students at Northern.

ISHPEMING — Calvary Baptist Church, Negaunee, was the scene of a double-ring ceremony which united in marriage Darlene Ann Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. S. Carlson, National Mine, and Bryon W. Williams, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brailey, Negaunee.

The Rev. Arthur L. Johnson, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church, Green Bay, and former pastor of Calvary Baptist, officiated at the 8 p. m. ceremony last Saturday, before an altar decorated with yellow snapdragons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose her sister, Carol, as maid of honor, and Mrs. Jack Brailey, Milwaukee, sister-in-law of the groom, as bridesmaid.

Jack Brailey, Milwaukee, foster brother of the groom, was best man. Albert Carlson, brother of the bride, and Robert Jacka, were the ushers.

The bride wore a ballerina-length gown of lace over net and taffeta, with princess style waist, round neckline and long sleeves. A crown of crystal and pearls secured her shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white roses.

Her maid of honor wore a blue lace-over-taffeta dress, accented with a bow in the back. She carried a bouquet of blue and white roses and wore a matching headpiece. Mrs. Brailey was gowned in a dress of yellow silk over taffeta with a white bodice. Her headpiece matched the yellow and white roses in her bouquet.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise silk embroidered sheath with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white roses. Mrs. Brailey wore a powder blue sheath trimmed with blue lace, and yellow accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Ex-Resident's Son Makes Music At W. Carolina College

The son of a former Marquette woman is making a name for himself in music at Western Carolina College.

Jac Murphy, son of Mrs. Eileen Murphy, the former Eileen Richards of this city, wrote all the music for a one-act musical satire entitled "A Little College Is a Dangerous Thing" and presented in the Little Theatre at Cullowhee, N. C.

In addition to composing all music for the show, Jac conducted the orchestra in its rendition of his overture and then played first piano accompaniment on the background music.

He has been described by the head of the college's music department as having "astounding talent" and the musical satire was reported to have attracted sell-out crowds during its five-day run last week.

U.P. Airport Progress

William E. Hamlen, chief of planning, Division of Engineer, Michigan Department of Aeronautics, reports that "the Upper Peninsula as a total area is in very good condition with airports."

Mr. Hamlen suggests that this is important "because if someone is coming from Chicago and visiting several places, he can get out easily in a chartered plane."

The Upper Peninsula has far-and-away the best air service of any area in Michigan on the basis of population, wealth, business volume and other traffic factors. There are several reasons for this. They include:

1. The friendly treatment that the area has had from North Central Airlines, which has given it outstanding service under sometimes trying conditions.

2. The absolute need of the area for air transportation because of its distance from metropolitan centers and limited public surface transportation.

The Upper Peninsula's largest cities have provided runways (5,000 feet) for Convair airliner service. Most of them have two good strips on their airports and have built or are planning adequate terminals. The smaller cities are upgrading their airports, too. Even Mackinac Island is to get a paved runway.

The Marquette County Airport, adding taxi strips and additional apron, is the best non-military field in the U. P., says Mr.

Hamlen. Houghton has two good paved runways. Iron Mountain is set to serve the Convairs. The Soo is building a 5,000-foot runway. Manistique is adding length. Ironwood needs an extension. Menominee and Escanaba each have a good runway, but old terminals. Escanaba, with an unusually good record of service dependability, is planning a new terminal and change of the name of its port to Escanaba-Gladstone. Munising and St. Ignace have ports which please the aero officials.

There's been a lot of work done since the Civil Aeronautics Board authorized scheduled airline service in the Upper Peninsula in the 40's and Francis Higgins of Wisconsin Central Airlines toured the area and reported the facilities "primitive."

Mr. Hamlen said, "The Upper Peninsula appreciates air service." No engineer has said a truer thing. It makes Lansing and Detroit only a few hours away and it's now an increasing custom for U. P. businessmen to fly downstate, do their business and return home on the evening plane. That cuts two days, a head cold and a vow to make it a long time until the next one off the schedule.

Remarks Moms Tire Of Hearing

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK — Remarks that mothers get tired of hearing:

"What'll we give Mom for Mother's Day this Sunday—a new ice pick or a new can opener?"

"Don't tell we're having shish kebabs with grape leaves for dinner again? That's what I had for lunch. Can't you ever think up anything new?"

"After all, Mother, this is a new generation, and I don't want to be stick-in-the-mud. Why, there are girls in our class who have been going steady since they were 10—and here I am almost 12 years old."

"Hey, Mom, here's some good news. My big pet blacksnake in the basement has just had kittens. Now we can have snakes all over the house."

"Mothers sure have it easy today. My grandmother used to have to go out and help pull the plow when the mule got sick."

"Three of her front teeth are coming in crooked. But I think that in three years—and for $750—I can straighten them out nicely."

"Answer the phone, will you, Mom? I'm busy studying this book on the boyhood of Abraham Lincoln. What a square he was!"

"I don't care what the kids did. I've had a hard day at the office. If they need pushing, you punish them."

"Hurry up and sew on the button, Mom, or I'll be late to school."

"Mother, dear, could you please help me with this homework problem in algebra? While you're working it out I'll watch television. They've got a real keen program on, and I'll just die utterly if I don't get to see it."

"Stab me with a knife, Mother, shoot me with a gun—but please, please, please don't make me wear an old-fashioned dress like that to school. Everybody in class will laugh at me. I'd rather be dead, dead, dead."

"What a soft snap women have today. Why, my grandmother used to take in washing to help out the family."

"It's Mrs. Spieler on the phone, Mom. She wants to know if you can drive around and pick up three or four more parents on your way to the P.T.A. meeting tonight."

"Please don't let Dad see my report card. Mom, he'll kill me—I just know he will."

"I'd love to help you with the dinner dishes, Mother dear, but right now I have to call Jane and ask her about this history quiz we're going to have tomorrow. You wouldn't want me to flunk it, would you?"

"So what if the meal does get cold, Mom? I ain't really hungry anyway."

"I'm The Boss

"Now I want to get one thing straight once and for all: I'm the boss in this family."

"I don't see why you complain about being so tired. Why, my grandmother worked 16 hours a day, lived to be 80, and never had a labor-saving device in her life."

The directors of the Marquette County Agricultural Association met last week and decided to hang up $2,000 in purses for the races to be held in conjunction with the annual county fair, the dates for which are this year Sept. 14. This is the largest amount in purses that has ever been offered by the Agricultural Association, and it should be effective in attracting a fine field of horses to Marquette.

The promoters of the proposed Ishpeming Theatre have finally decided what kind of a house they will erect on the Branstad site on Cleveland Ave. When Ed J. The building committee met that evening and decided to accept plans to be made from the sketches. The committee ordered Frank P. McClure of Chicago, whose architects drew the sketches, to prepare building plans and specifications.

High School Students To Tour Bell Memorial During National Hospital Week; Department Heads To Address Them On Available Careers

Hemispheric Reappraisal

By WALTER LIPPMANN

ISHPEMING — In recognition of National Hospital Week, May 12-18, the Francis A. Bell Memorial Hospital will hold a special two-day event next week to orient people of high school age who have professed an interest in the health sciences.

Monday and Tuesday has been designated as Health Science time for students representing Ishpeming, Gwinn and Republic High Schools and the C. L. Phelps Intermediate School.

John Edmondson, administrator, said the entire hospital will play an active part during tours by students. However, it will be more than a tour, as students will take an active part in hospital operations, making lab tests, looking at and examining growth specimens of diseased tissues and other phases of hospital work.

Each department head at the hospital will speak on the careers available at a hospital. The hospital administrator points out there are many careers in the hospital field, such as in the administrative branch, nursing service, medical records, surgical technicians, physical therapy, X-rays, housekeeping and dietary.

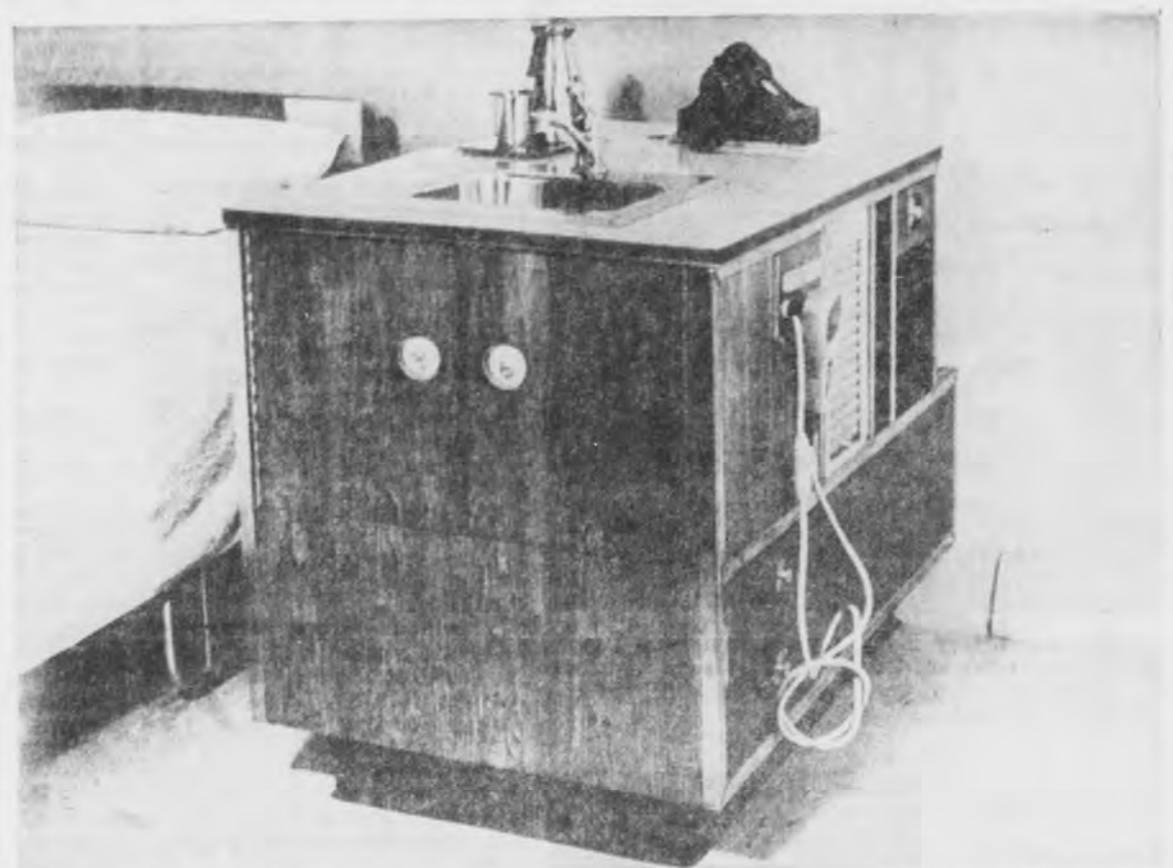

From 3 until 5:30 p. m. Monday and Tuesday, students will have an opportunity to see what goes on at the hospital, from one end to the other.

Also on hand to greet them will be the representatives of the auxiliary of the Marquette County Medical Society, who will have a booth with a variety of brochures on schools of nursing and for technicians.

Any other interested groups who would like to make a tour of the hospital facilities may make arrangements to do so by calling the administrator.

The City of Ishpeming, in recognition of National Hospital Week, saluted the Francis A. Bell Memorial Hospital with a resolution which read in part:

"We salute the Bell Hospital for its continued progress in health care, for conducting the educational programs that insure a continuing supply of well-trained health personnel, and for providing a growing number of career opportunities for the youth of America." "We of the Francis A. Bell Memorial Hospital encourage the youth of our community to seriously consider careers in the health services as a satisfying and rewarding lifetime experience," Edmondson declared.

"We urge all young people who are interested in these careers to avail themselves of the hospital personnel for guidance and advice in the health science careers."

Hospitals employ more than a million and a half workers in some 200 different job classifications, he noted.

Bell Hospital, itself, has 141 full-time employees and 85

Implications Noted

Well, okay. But the President certainly must have known several months ago that the arrival of the third Kennedy child in August would alter the original plans, and yet no announcement was made until very recently. It makes it appear as if someone had a second thought about the political effect of a visit to the Vatican.

Unofficial visit or no, there is no reason why any president should not see the Pope during a visit to Italy. John XXIII is more than a spiritual leader of a religious sect; he is a world statesman whose words carry extraordinary weight in the search for peace. A meeting between the Pope and President Kennedy — or Prime Minister Macmillan, or Charles de Gaulle, or Nikita Khrushchev, could not have any other result than to contribute to global stability. There was even comfort to be found in the visit to the Vatican of Khrushchev's son-in-law.

Backward Leaning Over

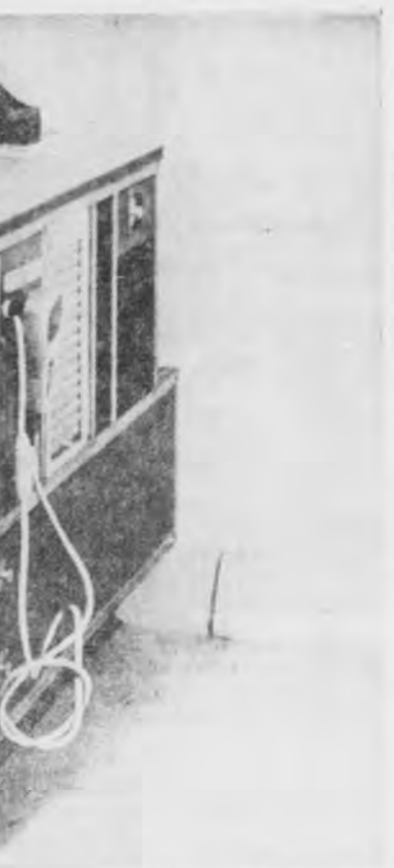

On any kind of a trip to Italy, Eisenhower almost certainly would have visited the Pope. So would Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, if he were President, and Barry Goldwater if he made it. Such a gesture is merely the acknowledgment by realists of the Pope's unique position, and has nothing to do with what church a man happens to attend.

Kennedy laid the question of his religion on the line during the 1960 campaign and won admiration for it. He made it plain that to worship his loyalty would be first to worship his God as a Roman Catholic. Yet throughout the first two years of his term in the White House he has appeared to make a point of avoiding association with the Catholic clergy. He has had many more clerymen from other faiths to the White House than he has Catholics, and the files show numerous photos of Kennedy with Protestant leaders and comparatively few with Catholic clergy.

Faith Is Avowed

This doesn't make sense. Kennedy is a Catholic, which in the eyes of intelligent people is no better or worse than being a Lutheran. He attends services regularly, and both of his children have been baptized into their father's faith. He can neither hush up nor play down the fact of his Catholicism.

Moreover, John Kennedy is a sophisticated Catholic, in the tradition of the ancient Spanish grandees and the other wealthy Irishmen from Ivy League schools. His faith has not made him narrow or bigoted toward other faiths. Knowing him, you find a man who keeps his religion in a separate compartment of his life, for private contemplation only. It would be ridiculous to suspect this Renaissance Man of being under any clerical influence in affairs of state, especially including the Pope. As President, John Kennedy should stop being so sensitive to public opinion in matters of religion. As an avowed Catholic, he has the respect of the majority of his countrymen; the idiotic fringe doesn't count. Perhaps nothing can be done about a Vatican audience now, but at the next opportunity he should stand up and be counted — not as a Catholic, but as a statesman.

The events in Haiti illustrate how great has been the change during the past 30 years in our relations with the Latin countries to the south of us. The Republic of Haiti has rarely been anything but a bloody tyranny, and in 1915 the United States landed the Marines and governed the country for the next 19 years. Now once again Haiti is seething with violence. But now, while in an extreme emergency we might have to go in once more to protect lives, we are bound by treaties with the other American republics to avoid intervention and to work through the Organization of American States.

The reason we signed the treaties which forbid us to intervene now is that all the American republics insisted upon it. They felt strongly that if the United States did not renounce unilateral intervention, their dignity as fully sovereign states was degraded. We signed the treaties, and now we are learning in Cuba and in Haiti that it is not easy for 20 divergent republics to form a single, decisive and effective international policy.

Two-Legged Stool

Increasingly I have come to think that our hemispheric policy is a two-legged stool which does not stand up. The policy is built upon the notion that in the Western Hemisphere the international order revolves on a north-south axis which extends from Washington to the Latin-speaking republics.

It is, I think, a fallacious conception. Since the generation of the founding fathers of the United States, the international order of the Western Hemisphere has been triangular as between the United States, the mother countries of Europe and the liberated colonies. Thus, the Monroe Doctrine was a tacit and unwritten understanding between Britain and the United States. Britain was then eight years from Waterloo, and she commanded the seas; the United States, as John Quincy Adams, the chief author of the Monroe Doctrine, said, was "as a cockroach in the wake of the British man-of-war."

By the beginning of this century, Britain was locked in the coming struggle with Germany, and the United States, under President Theodore Roosevelt, accepted the responsibility of becoming a world power on its own. But except for a few specialized students, the Americans were never taught that the Monroe Doctrine rested on the unwavering arrangement with Great Britain and the power of the British fleet. Later on in this century the idea took root that the United States was, if not dominant, then at least ascendant in the whole hemisphere.

Riddled With Anti-American Feeling

When we realized that our repeated interventions in Haiti and elsewhere aroused the anger and resentment of the other American republics, we moved to join with them in creating the multilateral system which now exists.

The system does not work very well, and at bottom this is, I think, because there is missing the third leg of the stool, which is European presence and participation in this hemisphere. The candid students of hemispheric affairs tell us that the Alliance for Progress is riddled with anti-American feeling. If we ask ourselves why, the answer is, I think, that we are much too powerful and too rich to have a trusting relationship with countries that are so weak and so poor. We should not leave the Latin American countries in the position where, if they cannot get help from us, they have no alternative but to turn to Russia.

If this is correct, then the right course is to encourage other friendly countries to take not only an economic, but also a cultural and political part in the affairs of the Western Hemisphere. Our solitary pre-eminence today should be reduced and diluted by the presence of the European Economic Community, by Britain and Scandinavia and, of course, by Spain and Portugal.

We shall not, I think, be able to make orderly progress in this hemisphere as long as the fallacy of the north-south axis prevails. We should remind ourselves of the geography of the globe and of the spiritual and cultural consequences of this geography. We in the United States are nearer to Western Europe than we are to most of South America, and most of South America is nearer to the outposts of Europe than it is to us. As we learn to invest our Latin American policy with such realities and the truths which grow upon them, we shall be better able to work out a stable foundation for our policy.

INDIA'S LANGUAGE WOES

Prime Minister Nehru remains at bay in the Indian parliament as he defends the government's decision to continue English alongside Hindi as a national working language.

The Hindus demand that an earlier promise to make Hindi the exclusive national language be honored. Nehru argues that much of the nation doesn't understand Hindi and that English is the single language linking most Indians.

The nation's true mark of language diversity is symbolized by 100 members of parliament who don't speak or understand either Hindi or English.—Milwaukee Journal.

GO EAST, YOUNG MAN

We do not know exactly why former Vice President Richard Nixon moved to New York from his home state of California, but we do know that he has provided operators of the political rumor mills with an abundance of grist. Does Mr. Nixon, having lost out in the West, want to begin a new political career in the East? Or is he simply taking advantage of a legal opportunity? Again, we don't know, but we wonder what Horace Greeley would say.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

SMOKING OUT THE TRUTH

For the Bulgarian citizen who may fear he has been smoking too much, the Communist government has come up with a solution. It's something called "Atrotabak" cigarettes. "These new cigarettes," says the announcement, "have a pleasant flavor, are quite harmless and help in the curing of bronchial asthma, duodenal ulcer, Burger's disease, high blood pressure and a number of other illnesses."

Though the cigarettes contain no nicotine, they do contain atropine, hyoscyamine and scopolamine. And scopolamine, whatever its curative powers, is widely used as a "truth" drug; under its influence, anyone is likely to babble his innermost thoughts. Which may cause some free-thinking pufflers to ponder the wisdom of changing brands.—Wall Street Journal.

Navy May Face Period Of Ship Obsolescence

TOKYO (AP)—U.S. Navy Secretary Fred Karst said Thursday the Navy may face a critical period of ship obsolescence in five years unless there is "greater recognition of our needs" in 1965 appropriations for new ships.

Karst, who arrived Wednesday on a Far Eastern tour, told newsmen the proposed 1964 budget provides for 41 new ships and 35 conversions.

Bill Takes No Chances With Boa Constrictor

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Officials of the National Science Fair-International were surprised when Bill Hartsman, 17, Riverside, Calif., asked for a boa constrictor, but they found one for him at a pet shop.

He took no chances with the new snake. He took it to his motel Monday night for safekeeping.

Soviets Limit Private Livestock Ownership

MOSCOW (AP)—The Russian Soviet Republic sharply limited today the amount of livestock which private citizens may own.

Effective July 1, the decree said, "citizens who are not members of collective farms may have included in their personal property one cow and a calf not older than four months, one goat and kids not older than a year, and one pig or three sheep with offspring not older than a year."

part-time employees in 45 job classifications, ranging from accountant to X-ray technician.

There are approximately 7,000 hospitals in the United States with about 1,700,000 persons employed, or one out of every 39 adults. Incidentally, it is the fifth largest industry in the United States.

"Hospital employment nationwide has more than doubled since 1946," Edmondson said, "which reflects the increased service that hospitals are furnishing."

All of the nation's hospitals are observing National Hospital Week, centered this year on the theme, "Today's Hospital — Career Center for America's Youth."

The hospital is, indeed, a career center, for it needs nearly every skill, profession, talent and trade.

Hospital employees include writers, artists, engineers, stenographers, librarians, carpenters and cooks, as well as the paramedical professional workers, such as nurses, therapists and technicians.

Even with more than a million and a half persons employed in the nation's hospitals, there are serious shortages of personnel, particularly in the professional fields. The shortages will continue, and even grow as the population increases and as more people recognize the value of prompt medical care, Edmondson said.

Two Vehicles Damaged In Area Crash

ISHPEMING — Two vehicles were damaged in a crash at 11:05 last night on Iron St., a mile south of the M-28 business route, in Ishpeming Township.

State police said an automobile being driven north on Iron St. by James Warren, 28, Itasca, Minn., and a car headed south and operated by Irving Korpi, 30, of 280 Silver St., Ishpeming, collided in a sideswiping fashion, shortly after Warren had backed out of a driveway and proceeded north.

Officers said neither saw the other approaching because of a hill.

The left front of Korpi's 1955 coach and the left rear of Warren's 1960 coach were damaged. Both vehicles were driven from the scene.

False Alarms Result In Fire Department Payroll Increase

NEGAUNEE — Despite a controlled burning program authorized by the Negaunee City Council at its April meeting, an increase in the fire department payroll of approximately $1,954 over April of 1962 brought inquiries from councilmen Thursday night.

In response to questions by Councilman Oliver Maki, City Manager Leonard Harris pointed out that he also was disturbed by the hike in the fire department payroll, particularly in view of the fact that the city was attempting to retrench in every way possible because of declining tax revenues.

False Alarms Blamed

Harris explained that the boost was caused by the number of false alarms turned in, plus the fact the procedure agreed upon regarding controlled burning to eliminate grass fire calls was not followed because the fire chief was in the hospital and the manager was on vacation.

Discussion was held regarding garbage collections at school buildings where hot lunch programs are in effect as a result of a communication received from the Rev. Robert Cordy, pastor of St. Paul's Church, requesting an increase in the number of pick-ups at the school for sanitation reasons.

More Collections Needed

Under the schedule approved by the council, schools were slated to receive two collections per week. Father Cordy warned that health department inspectors would not permit continuation of a hot lunch program unless collections were made more frequently.

Councilman Matt Vanni, an industrial arts instructor at Negaunee High School, commented that members of the school custodial staff had called his attention to the fact that it was impossible to handle the amount of garbage in the school incinerator, which accumulated under the twice-a-week collection schedule.

Administrative Problem

Members of the council decided that the question was an administrative problem and instructed Harris to meet with officials of both schools in an attempt to work out a satisfactory solution.

Permission was granted to Mrs. Taimie Mattson to operate a beauty shop in her home. Approval was given to a request by Francisco B. Paris for a dance permit in connection with his tavern, and to Milton and Elizabeth Cain for transfer of their SDM license to a new location.

Women's Society Meeting Monday

GWINN — A regular meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Gwinn Methodist Church will be held Monday night at 8 in Fellowship Hall. A meeting of the executive committee will be held at 7:30.

Newly elected officers will be in charge of the program and the hostesses will be the outgoing officers. An installation service will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Everett Erickson, and four members of the junior high MYF will give a report on their recent educational trip to Milwaukee.

Teachers Given Mouth-To-Mouth Breathing Lesson

MUNISING — State Police Trooper Ken Rhyndard demonstrated mouth-to-mouth resuscitation at a regular faculty meeting in the Central School. Resuscitate Annie, a life-size model of a girl who had actually drowned, was used for the demonstration, after which teachers were given opportunity to work on the dummy under Rhyndard's supervision.

Trooper Rhyndard pointed out that teachers, in handling many children, were in a unique position since their chances of having to use life-saving methods were far greater than those of other persons.

Early this year a steel beam, able to bear twice the weight of the 2,000-pound Liberty Bell, was inserted into the worn wooden yoke. The bell also got sturdier steel frames, attached to a new steel platform.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Memories in the Making

A picture... a frame... to treasure always. So she believes!

The fleeting baby smile, the outgrown pair of baby shoes—these she'll always treasure.

But in later years not every mother can point with pride to her son's baby picture. Memories sometimes become tarnished with remorse.

So much depends on us.

If we hope always to treasure our glimpse of yesterday... we must carve with spiritual tools our vision of tomorrow.

Photo albums containing pictures of all the mothers so honored are presented to each "Mother of the Year."

Wallace Paquette, serving as dinner chairman for the third year, extended an invitation to all Baraga County residents to attend the special program and dinner. The dinner menu will feature roast beef and ham, complete with all the trimmings.

50 Employed At Hospital In Munising

MUNISING — "Hospitals employ more than a million and a half workers in some 200 different job classifications," Richard Wagner, administrator of Munising Memorial Hospital, said today regarding the observance of National Hospital Week, May 12 to 18.

Munising Memorial Hospital has 50 employees in 22 job classifications, ranging from administration to x-ray technician.

The theme of National Hospital Week, held annually during the week of Florence Nightingale's birthday (May 12) under sponsorship of the American Hospital Association, is "Today's Hospital — Career Center for America's Youth."

Public Works Program Told By Roberts

MUNISING — The accelerated public works program was the topic for a speech given to the Munising Rotary Club by Floyd Roberts, district ranger of the Munising district of the U.S. Forest Service, at a noon meeting this week.

He explained that the program was set up to relieve unemployment and that it was for new projects that had not been planned under routine operations for the next two years. All workers must apply through the state employment office. Since the program began, $103,000 has been spent in Alger County, and it has been possible to remove 12 cases from the county relief rolls because of the program, Roberts said.

He outlined some of the projects, such as fire-breaks and road clearing during last winter and planting done this spring. "Recreational developments such as camp sites and swimming beaches will be worked on this summer if funds are available," Roberts added.

Tigers Finally Combine Pitching, Hitting; Indians Clobbered, 14-0

DETROIT (AP)—"Good hitting. Good pitching. Can I ask for anything else?"

Dodgers Tip Giants; Cub String Ends

(By The Associated Press) The National League champion San Francisco Giants and the runner-up Dodgers met Friday night for the first time since last year's playoff and Los Angeles came away with a 2-1 victory.

Don Drysdale, who had been unable to post a victory in almost a month, checked the Giants on six hits and retired 13 batters in order at one stretch.

The victory pulled the Dodgers to within four games of the pace-setting Giants and cut the Giants edge to one game over the second-place St. Louis Cardinals, who edged Pittsburgh 1-0 on Curt Simmons' pitching and George Altman's ninth inning homer.

Dick Farrell allowed only two hits as Houston ended the Chicago Cubs' winning streak at six, 4-1, the New York Mets won their fifth in a row by defeating Cincinnati 3-2 on Jim Hickman's Philadelphia 4-1 in a game called in the seventh inning due to rain.

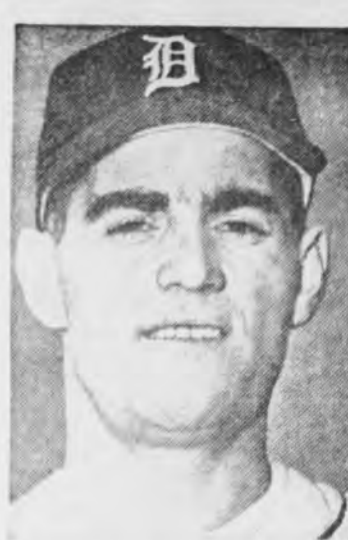

A crowd of 50,407 turned out at Los Angeles for the first meeting between the Dodgers and Giants since last Oct. 3, when San Francisco defeated Los Angeles 6-4 in the third and deciding game of the NL playoffs.

Altman's homer with two out in the ninth ended a pitcher's duel between Card southpaw Simmons and Pittsburgh's Bob Friend. Simmons scattered nine hits for his fifth victory without a loss while Friend absorbed his second defeat in five decisions despite allowing only five hits. It was the first time the Pirates had been shut out this season.

Farrell pitched perfect ball for six innings, but the Cubs put both their hits together for a run in the seventh inning on Lou Brock's single and a triple by Billy Williams. Rusty Staub, 19-year-old Cubs rookie, collected three singles in four at-bats and drove in two runs in support of Farrell, who struck out 13 and squared his record at 3-3. Glen Hobbie lost it.

Hickman's eighth inning homer snapped a 2-1 tie and provided the Mets with the longest winning streak in their two-year history. It also ended Jim O'Toole's five-game winning streak and handed the Reds' southpaw his second defeat against six victories. Carl Willey, touched for Johnny Edwards' two-run homer, was the winner with a five-hitter that brought his record to 3-1.

The Braves beat a left-hander for the first time in nine tries by shelling Phil's starter Chris Short and cut off their losing streak at six. Dennis Menke and Roy McMillan homered in support of Don Pis Lemaster, the winner with a three-hitter.

Tiger Dick McAuliffe batted in six runs, including four on a grand slam home run, to pace the Tigers, Friday night.

Pizarro Paces Quick Chisox; NY Loses 4th

(By The Associated Press) The Chicago White Sox took only 112 minutes Friday night to polish off the Los Angeles Angels 2-0, with Juan Pizarro pitching a three-hitter and driving in both runs, one with a homer.

That was one minute longer than the Sox took the night before to trim the New York Yankees by the same score. They have now won five straight games during which they have allowed the opposition five runs, and are a full game in front in the American League.

Phil Regan threw a three-hitter for the Detroit Tigers who bombed the Cleveland Indians 14-0, and Camilo Pascual did the same job for the Minnesota Twins over the Kansas City Athletics, 2-0. The Boston Red Sox dropped the Washington Senators 6-3.

Pizarro, the 26-year-old southpaw, struck out six Angels and walked only one as he gained his second victory. He homered in the third inning and batted home the insurance run in the fifth with a single, after catcher J. C. Martin had tripled.

Ken McBride, who brought a string of 29 scoreless innings against Chicago into the game and had never lost to his old Sox mates, was the loser.

Luis Aparicio and Al Smith slugged solo homers off Yankee starter Whitey Ford, and Baltimore starter Mike McCormick was nursing a two-run lead when his arm stiffened in the eighth inning. Relief pitcher Dick Hall came just before rain had held up play for 35 minutes, and eventually gave up a two-run single to Clete Boyer that tied the score.

The Orioles came right back with three runs off Yankee reliever Hal Renf in the eighth, on two walks, Jackie Brandt's run-producing double and John Orsino's two-run single.

Pascual, who is the only thing keeping the cellar Twins from dropping completely out of sight, pitched his fourth straight complete game. It was the A's fifth straight defeat, and only the third triumph for the Twins in their last 10—all of them by Pascual.

Rookie Jay Ward doubled home both runs for the Twins in the second inning, after Jimmie Hall doubled and Bernie Allen walked. Orlando Pena, who also allowed only three hits in the seven innings he worked, was the loser.

Frank Malone, shifted to the cleanup spot in the Red Sox batting order, responded with three hits, including a two-run double that broke a 3-3 tie against the Senators in the eighth. Washington's Tom Cheney suffered his second loss against four victories although he pitched a three-hitter and struck out 11 in the 7-13 innings he worked.

Manager Sagn Mele said he would keep Ward in the lineup, at least for the time being.

Boros Leading, But Nicklaus Close In Colonial

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—The massive shadow of Jack Nicklaus hovered over the field today as Julius Boros led the golfing elite into the third round of the Colonial National Invitation golf tournament.

Boros, on the wings of a 4-under-par 66, sported a two-shot lead over Doug Sanders as a field of 65 moved 18 steps closer to division of the $50,000 jackpot.

Passed In 2nd Round Boros posted a 71-66-137 at the halfway point while Sanders, the leader after the first round, drafted to a 72 Friday for a 36-hole total of 139.

Trailing Sanders by one stroke were Nicklaus, Bobby Nichols, Bruce Crampton and Tony Lema, who all carved one or more eights from the 7,021-yard-yard par-70 Colonial course Friday.

The presence of Nicklaus among the leaders apparently was uppermost in the minds of the front-runners as the 72-hole tournament headed down the home stretch.

Nicklaus, 23, came to Colonial with three current tournament titles, including the Masters, already gracing his trophy case.

Phil Regan threw a three-hitter for the Detroit Tigers who bombed the Cleveland Indians 14-0, and Camilo Pascual did the same job for the Minnesota Twins over the Kansas City Athletics, 2-0.

Pizarro, the 26-year-old southpaw, struck out six Angels and walked only one as he gained his second victory. He homered in the third inning and batted home the insurance run in the fifth with a single, after catcher J. C. Martin had tripled.

Marquette LSL Entry To Meet

The Marquette entry in the Lake Superior Baseball League will hold a meeting Monday at 7:30 p. m. at the Shoreland.

Tech Spring Teams Post Victories

HOUGHTON—All three Michigan Tech spring sports broke into the win column this week at the expense of Wisconsin teams.

The trackmen evened their record at 1-1 with a 76-55 win over St. Norbert at West de Pere, Wis. The tennis and golf teams took the measure of Northland College in meets held at Houghton.

This weekend the tennis team is hosting Superior State, while on the road, the track team will take part in the Bemidji Relays and the golfers entering the Bemidji Invitational.

Next week all three spring sports teams will see heavy action on Tuesday, May 14, the golfers travel to Superior to meet Superior State, while on Wednesday, May 15, they will meet Northland College at Ashland, Wisconsin.

May 17 will be Tech's spring sports day with the 14th annual running of the Michigan Tech Invitational Track meet the main feature. In tennis, it will be a dual meet with Sault Tech while the golfers will enter a triangular with Sault Tech and Superior State.

Roundup of the busy week will be the tennis team in a match at St. Norbert College on Saturday, May 18.

In track, hurdler Chris Waldhelm, Ludington, continues to sparkle, winning both high and low hurdles. In four years of competition he has lost only one high hurdle race and tied another.

Other thin clads who have shown up exceptionally well have been pole vaulter Bruce Ostin, Wauwatosa, Wis., javelin thrower Carl Brousseau, Alpena; high jumper Warren Luoma, Ishpeming; and distance man, captain Oliver Hannula, South Porcupine, Ont. In his last meet, Hannula won the mile and placed second in both the 880 and 2 mile.

In golf, Jim Torjenson, Jefferson, Wis., turned in a sparkling 72 followed by a 73, posted a 75. Captain Bob Denny, Wauwatosa, and Pat Casey, Kirkland Lake, Ont., each had 78's for a four-man total of 303.

Tennis veterans Lou Graier, Stambaugh, and Gary Anderson, Caspian, have picked up good support from sophomore Jim Cope, Trenton, and freshmen Ray Kennedy, Cleveland, Ohio; Jan Loeber, Westfield, N. J.; and two Detroit athletes, Gary Ptak and Don Wick.

Denucci Favored In Middleweight Television Bout BOSTON (AP)—Joe Denucci, who gets another televised boxing chance tonight, is like the commuter who loses to the 8.15 train every morning. He has been missing recognition and the big money.

Denucci is a 3-to-1 favorite over Bronco contender Jose Gonzalez in a scheduled 10-rounder at Boston Arena. One of the most active middleweights of all time at the age of 23, the court officer at the Massachusetts State House has a 40-4-2 record.

Weather Or Not:

It's Softball Time Again

Among the hardest of area sports enthusiasts, the softball players swing back into action Sunday and Monday.

Ignoring the thermometers, the Marquette City League has scheduled five games for Sunday while the Twin City League has three games set for Monday, and the Tri-City "A" circuit starts Tuesday.

In Marquette, three of the games are scheduled for prison fields, while Remillard's No. 1 meets Remillard's No. 2 at 6:45, and Shoreland Bar is "at" South Marquette Merchants at 8:15, in Hurley Field.

Mangum Farm at City Merchants, Dormitory at Syria's Barbers and Honor Camp at Herb's Flyers are the other home-and-away listings, for schedule purposes. All three start at 1:30 p.m.

Monday will be open, unless Sunday proves too cold for play. This year, each team is to play two games a week, and there will be open dates almost every week for make-up games.

Most games on prison fields will start at 6:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursday at Hurley Field, Tri-City league contests will be played under the lights, following early Marquette City loop games.

Entry fees are due by June 1st and tentative rosters are also due. Those interested in umpiring Marquette games should contact Paul Bosworth at 5-0450 or Al Lawrence, 6-9757.

Tuesday, City Merchants at Syria's Barbers will precede a Tri-City tilt. Wednesday at Hurley Field, Remillard's No. 2 is at South Marquette; Mangum Farm is at Honor Camp and Dormitory at Herb's Flyers.

Thursday, Remillard's No. 1 at Shoreland precedes the Tri-City tilt. ISHPeming - NEGAUNEE —A six team Twin City Softball league swings into action Monday night on a four round schedule.

Rapid River Routs Rivals In CUP Meet; Koski Snaps 220 Mark

ESCANABA — Eben took home the only new record, but most of the other honors went to Rapid River, in a wind-swept Central League track meet held here.

Dick Koski of the Eagles ran a 23.9 for a new 220-yard dash standard but Eben finished third behind Rapid River (85.2 points) and Rock (45.1) with a total of 38. Eben's neighbor, Trenary, had five.

Rapid River took ten firsts including a 10.55 running of the 100-yard dash by Jeff Johnson, Johnson's effort, like Koski's, was made with the strong tailwind which usually prevails off Lake Michigan at these events.

Both times were as good as any run in Class D across the peninsula.

Menke Shines At 3rd; Mathews To Stay In Left PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "He looked like Pie Traynor on those two plays, didn't he?"

Skinner Bobby Bragan of the Milwaukee Braves was speaking of his young third baseman, Denis Menke.

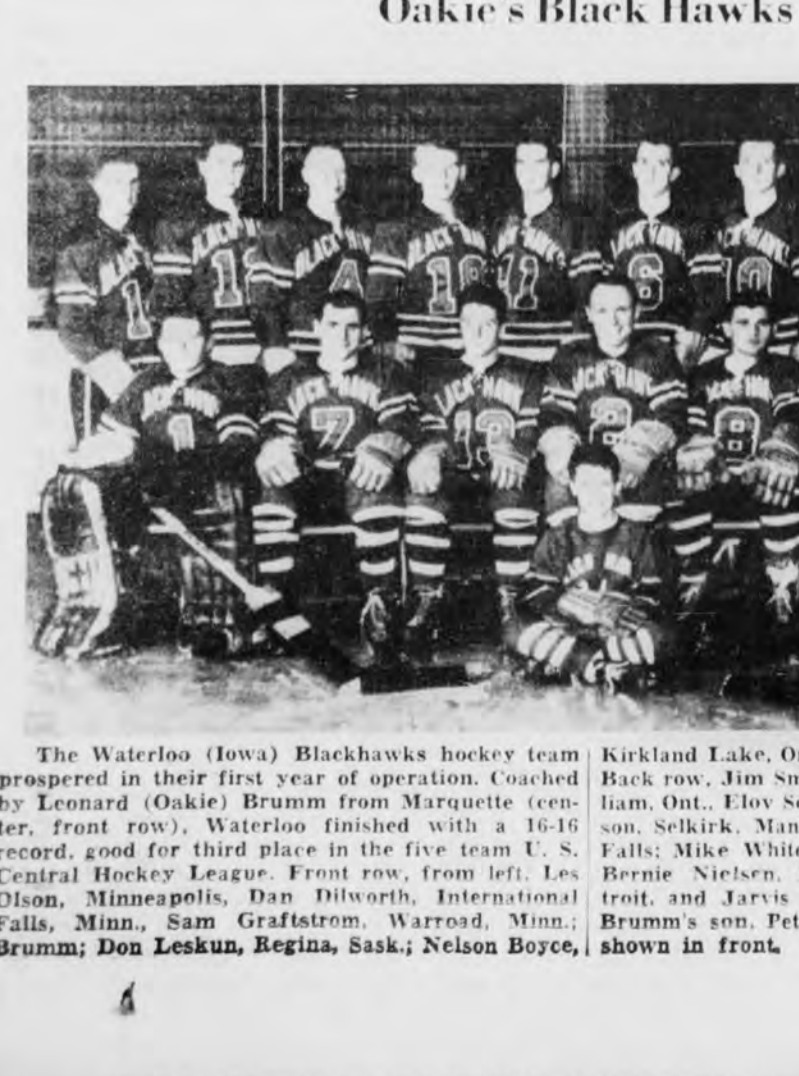

Menke made a sensational backhand stop of a Philadelphia Phillies Cookie Rojas liner in the third inning Friday night as the Braves ended a six-game losing streak with a rain-curtailed, 4-1 victory.

In the fifth, Rojas hit a high pop fly toward the pitcher's mound. Menke came in and kept after the ball as the wind whipped it back across the first base foul line, halfway to the dugout. He caught it at the last second.

And if that wasn't enough, Menke broke a 1-1 tie with a home run in the middle of a four-run sixth inning.

Bragan, after comparing Menke's two plays with the kind made yesterday by Traynor of the Pittsburgh Pirates, said he intended to keep the 22-year-old at third base and the veteran Eddie Mathews in left field.

Seventy-three harness horses covered the mile in two minutes or less in 1962.

Lakers From Hatchery Here Go To Ontario

The program of lake trout rehabilitation in the upper Great Lakes, principally Lakes Superior and Michigan, took a new twist with disclosure that 100,000 yearling lake trout, developed from eggs produced at the state's Marquette hatchery, will be flown from the federal hatchery at Charlevoix, beginning next week, for planting in Lake Ontario. They were hatched and reared at Charlevoix.

U. P. Trout Plants Get Under Way

Stream planting of trout is under way in the Upper Peninsula. James Scully, Marquette, regional fisheries supervisor for the conservation department, said the total plant for the summer will be about 200,000, with 30,000 to 40,000 in the May plant. Hatchery fish in the Upper Peninsula had a fine growing season, he said, and many are well over the seven-inch minimum length. This is especially true among brook trout.

Sea Lamprey Catch Drops Behind 1962

For the first time this year, the number of sea lampreys captured and killed in electro-mechanical weirs on streams emptying into Lake Superior from the Upper Peninsula and Wisconsin is running behind the totals for the comparable period last year. To date, 291 lampreys have been taken in 24 weirs, as against 412 during the same period in 1962.

Commission Acts On State Park Fees, Fish Site Camping Problem

The problem of camping on public fishing sites in Northern Michigan will be studied by the director of conservation, daily fees for camping in state parks will be increased to $1.50 and the name of a state park in the Upper Peninsula will be changed as a result of action taken by the Michigan Conservation Commission yesterday.

Holding its May meeting in Lansing, the commission instructed Director Gerald E. Eddy to look into the public fishing site camping problem with a view toward providing as much camping as possible on these sites.

Declining Revenues — The conservation department, in compliance with a directive from the Michigan Department of Health, issued an order banning camping on public fishing sites that failed to meet health department sanitation standards. These standards call for an approved drinking water supply, garbage receptacles and at least two toilets on each site.

Because of declining revenues, we were forced to lay off maintenance personnel for public fishing sites," said Dorais J. Curry, Marquette, regional director of the conservation department. "You increase maintenance problems if you permit camping."

Fire Trucks For Garbage — Curry pointed out that the department's money shortage has resulted in the use of conservation officers and parks, game and fish division personnel in cleaning public fishing sites. And he said, the department was forced to use fire trucks to haul garbage from these sites because other vehicles were not available.

Michigan's white ash forests are being scouted by two baseball bat companies. Conservation department forestry officials, hopeful that Michigan might make a hit with the bat-producing industry, have advised the companies that some 4,000,000 board feet of ash are growing in the Lower Peninsula.

Aerial Survey Turns Up 44 Eagle Nests In Peninsula

An aerial survey of the Upper Peninsula has turned up 44 active bald eagle nests. It was about three miles south of where it was originally trapped. Its weight had tripled in the three intervening years.

Skyward go tons of Tawas peat, much of it frozen to a depth of more than a foot, as U. S. Forest Service blasters open a ditch in the St. Jacques Marsh on the west branch of the Ogontz River in the Hiawatha National Forest to create more "edge" for a duck factory.

Blast Creates Big Duck Factory In Marsh In U. P. National Forest

BY JEAN WORTH. The blast tore a big trench in the marsh beside the east branch of the Ogontz River and hurled a great curtain of frozen Tawas peat hundreds of feet into the air. The group of men in bright yellow hard hats with the insignia of the Hiawatha National Forest on them looked skyward at the black cloud. They were hundreds of yards from it, and the long look that they had at the airborne muck told the height to which it had been blasted. They watched individual hunks that arched toward them, but they all fell short.

to do similar work on its 40. "The soil is Tawas peat and it's relatively fertile, except for the high water level." The ditches are blasted by digging 20 holes four feet deep and placing a plastic bag of explosive in each one, connected into a train by primacord, an explosive rope. The 20-pound charges are of ammonium nitrate fertilizer, mixed overnight with a quart of fuel oil and detonated with a half pound stick of dynamite in each charge.

Creating More 'Edge' — Once bearing a swamp of tamaracks and other swamp trees, it was cut off and never recovered its ability to reforest because of lack of transportation. The Forest Service, which owns most of the marsh, plans to put it back to work as a duck factory.

Grissold explained, "The water and land 'edge' effect creates the carrying capacity of marsh for ducks. We're going to create more 'edge' with these ponds. Our present project will cover about 40 acres and provide 15 strips of water with a total of about 3,000 feet of ditching. In future years we'll do more and urge the state

Six-Year-Old Champion Boy Lands Musky In Peshekee

When six-year-old Paul Arsenault went fishing with worms on the Peshekee River the other day, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Arsenault of Champion, didn't really expect much of him. But Paul fooled them. He came home with a most unusual catch. Never before recorded. Paul felt his line go tight and saw his rod arch into a semicircle, touching off a tussle that lasted quite a while. When it was all over, Paul had landed a muskellunge, a species never before recorded in the Peshekee.

Limit Takes Of Walleyes In Peshekee

Highlights of the past week's angling in Marquette and Alger Counties: Walleyes — Limit catches being made on the Peshekee River; most fish in the three-pound class. Excellent walleye fishing on Lake Michigan. Brook trout — A fine catch of speckled trout was reported on the AuTrain River downstream from the power house, the largest being an 18-inch fish weighing two pounds, nine and a half ounces.

Speculation On Origin

The musky is believed to have entered the Peshekee River from Craig Lake in Baraga County. The late Fred Miller of Milwaukee, who had a camp on Craig Lake, planted the lake with muskies. Some of them may have escaped from the lake, which is the headwater of the West Branch of the Peshekee. If the fish that Paul caught was one of the Miller plantings, the incident could spur studies into the possibility of planting muskies in the Peshekee River. Paul is shown in the accompanying photo proudly displaying his catch. The fish was inspected and identified as a muskellunge by T. B. Durling, Baraga, district fisheries supervisor for the conservation department.
