Clouds Pose Threat To Space Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Predicted heavy clouds in the launch area posed a threat today to astronaut Gordon Cooper's space flight. But Project Mercury officials said preparations were continuing for a launching Tuesday morning.

by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said that "morning cloudiness over Cape Canaveral tomorrow will cover at least half the sky, with some periods during the morning hours having nearly overcast conditions."

Atlas rocket is scheduled to blast off between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. EST to start Cooper on a 22-orbit flight, lasting more than 34 hours. A heavy cloudy cover over Cape Canaveral would prohibit vital camera coverage of the five-minute Atlas boost phase of flight. The photographic record is needed in case something goes wrong.

The weather forecast said conditions would improve later Tuesday and probably would be better by Wednesday morning. There was hope that a northeast wind blowing into the area today would shift sufficiently to carry the clouds away by launch time.

Elsewhere around the world, the weather remained favorable. The prediction for the primary Pacific area southeast of Midway—where Cooper would land at the end of the 22 orbits—was for moderate seas and winds.

Airliner Crashes, 31 Dead

CAIRO (AP)—Thirty-one persons died Sunday in the crash of a United Arab Airlines twin-engine plane near Cairo. The plane had just taken off on its daily flight to Alexandria.

A witness said the plane, carrying 27 passengers and a crew of four, appeared to catch fire at about 2,000 feet.

The U.S. Embassy said two Americans were among the victims. Their names were given as Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lion.

Their home address was not available here.

Top Product: Paradrone

CHELSEA (AP)—Michigan's 1963 "product of the year" can be used as a hunting lodge, a construction site field office—or a pony stable.

The product, named for the Michigan Week celebration, is the Paradrone, manufactured by Outdoor Fibre Products Inc. of Chelsea.

Paradrone is a camping house that can be folded up. It has a transparent roof, three sliding windows, and a hinged door. The roof is kept in place by aluminum rods that radiate upward from the center of the shelter.

Singer, Hubby Hurt In Crash

(By the Associated Press) Singer Julie London and her husband, musician Bobby Troup, were injured Sunday in a three-car pileup at Encino in the San Fernando Valley of California.

Their daughter, Helly, 1 and Lisa Webb, 10, daughter of Miss London and her first husband, producer Jack Webb, also were injured.

Troup told officers the pileup occurred when the two cars ahead of him stopped suddenly. Both the other drivers were injured but no one was hospitalized.

The Weather

Local forecast: Mostly cloudy with occasional rain tonight, the low around 40. Tomorrow partly cloudy with no decided temperature change, high in mid-50s. Wednesday: Generally fair and mild.

Hospitalized

Actor Marlon Brando, above, is hospitalized in Santa Monica, Calif., for treatment of what doctors described as a slight virus infection. Brando's physician said he will be in the hospital for a few days for observation and tests. Brando complained of feeling ill Friday on a movie set. (AP Wirephoto).

Officers Wary Of Red Drive To Kill Yanks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army Special Warfare officers are closely watching developments in South Viet Nam for signs of whether Communist guerrillas have started a concerted drive to kill U.S. military advisers.

Two advisers—one a lieutenant and the other a sergeant—were slain last Monday in widely separated parts of the Red-infested country.

The lieutenant and two South Vietnamese with him were sprayed with machine-gun bullets after a Communist grenade sent their Jeep careening into a tree.

The sergeant was dropped by a Communist sniper while he was out with a South Vietnamese patrol.

According to Pentagon figures, 36 American military men — 26 Army and 10 Air Force—have died as the result of what the defense department calls "actions by hostile forces" in South Viet Nam since Jan. 1, 1961. Another 49 are listed as having died from noncombat causes.

Officers who had served in South Viet Nam say many more Americans would have been slain if the Reds had been gunning for them.

The officers note that American advisers often are in action with Vietnamese units, that the bigger U.S. soldiers stand out clearly from the generally short and slim Vietnamese and thus could be prime targets.

Some U.S. officers say they think the Communist guerrillas have tried in the past to avoid killing Americans, possibly to keep from provoking the United States into a more direct and larger combat role in the war.

Now they are not sure this still is true. They are waiting to see if a trend or pattern develops. At least three other Americans have been shot and killed in cold blood after being wounded, records show.

5 Yanks, 5 Britons Accused Of Spying

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union officially accused five American and five British diplomats today of spying and declared them unwelcome in Russia. All of them had already left the Soviet Union, except one Briton.

Foreign Ministry notes addressed to the U.S. and British embassies charged the diplomats played parts in the espionage activities of British businessman Greville Wynne and Oleg Penkovsky, a Soviet scientific official. A Soviet court sentenced Penkovsky to death and Wynne to eight years in prison in a trial that ended last Saturday.

The note to the British named the wives of two of the British diplomats in the spy charges.

On Leave Only one of the five Americans named is still assigned to the U.S. Embassy here. He is Hugh Montgomery, an embassy attaché who is now on home leave.

Formerly of Windsor Rocks, Conn., Montgomery now makes his home at 3444 North Abingdon St., Arlington, Va.

Others declared persona non grata are: William C. Jones, 1814 Av. J, Lubbock, Tex., former embassy administrative officer, now assigned to the U.S. mission in Berlin;

Alexis H. Davison, 47 Tuxedo Rd., Atlanta, Ga., former embassy doctor, who left last week after completing his two-year assignment; and Rodney Carlson, 2938 N. 26th St., Arlington, Va., former assistant agricultural attaché, who left last December.

Expelled Nov. 5 The fifth U.S. diplomat mentioned was secretary-archivist Richard Jacob, who was expelled Nov. 5 after being formally accused of espionage. He was accused of picking up packages of secret information gathered by Penkovsky. Jacob now works at the State Department in Washington, D.C.

Justice Brennan announced the court's ruling in a complex decision in litigation that has been going on for 10 years and which, he said, has not yet run its course.

Separate Decision Justice Harlan wrote a separate decision dissenting in part with the ruling. Justice Goldberg disqualified himself.

The ruling affected specifically about 30 North Carolina employees of the Southern Railway. They have contended it would be illegal to force them to pay dues to unions when they opposed any use of such dues money by unions for political purposes.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court unanimously overruled today jail sentences given three Negroes in Louisiana for refusing to move from the "white" section of a courtroom to a section where Negroes were sitting.

The high court's order cited an April 29 decision in a similar case from Richmond, Va. In the Richmond case, the court said that a state may not require segregation in a courtroom.

Union Can't Demand Dues For Politics

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court ruled today that a railroad worker cannot be forced to pay that portion of his union dues which might be used for political purposes.

Justice Brennan announced the court's ruling in a complex decision in litigation that has been going on for 10 years and which, he said, has not yet run its course.

Separate Decision Justice Harlan wrote a separate decision dissenting in part with the ruling. Justice Goldberg disqualified himself.

Mother Held In Stabbing NOVI (AP)—A mother of two children was held today in the fatal stabbing of Walter A. Flory, 45.

State police said Mrs. Virginia Ann Martin, 37, of Farmington, admitted she killed Flory at her home Wednesday night, hid the body in her garage until Saturday, and then drove with it to a road intersection here and dumped it. Police said she declared Flory had threatened one of her children.

Mrs. Martin, arrested Saturday, was placed in the Oakland County jail at Pontiac. Police said they would seek a murder warrant against her.

3 Railroads Eye Merger

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Three railroads announced agreement today on merger-acquisition plans which, if approved, would put Southern Pacific into Kansas City and Union Pacific into Chicago and St. Louis.

Rock Island is the third railroad. The plan, which must be okayed by directors and stockholders and by the interstate commerce commission:

Union Pacific and Rock Island will merge. Southern Pacific will acquire Rock Island lines into Kansas City at a price to be determined.

There was no immediate reaction from the State Department.

2-Car Crash Claims Lives Of 7; 3 Hurt

CHATHAM, Ont. (AP)—A shattering two-car collision claimed seven lives during the weekend in Detroit.

Three of one car's occupants died and a fourth was to undergo surgery today for critical injuries. Two others also were seriously injured.

A long Rosary, crushed on the pavement, came from a car bearing four Roman Catholic nuns and a male employee from one of their American hospitals to a conference at the sisters' Mother House in Kingston. Three nuns and the man died. The other nun was injured.

Victims Police said the accident occurred on a straight stretch of Highway 2 some 20 miles east of this southwestern Ontario city. The nun driving apparently pulled out of line on the two-lane highway to pass another car and collided head-on with the oncoming vehicle, also driven by a woman.

The victims: Sister Julia Brace, 39, driver, and Sister Superior Winnifred Corcoran, 50, both of St. George's Hospital in Chicago; Sister Superior St. Joseph Kearns, 63, of St. Joseph's Hospital in Polson, Mont.; Peter F. Fitzsimmons, 62, an employee at the Chicago hospital; Eugene Hyde, 42 and his 32-year-old wife, who was driving; Glen Meyer, Ont.; and Walter Hulsebut, 39, of Tillsonburg, Ont., who died in hospital.

Sister Clarissa Donovan, 56, of Chicago was in satisfactory condition in hospital here with broken ankle and other injuries.

Hulsebut's wife, Elizabeth, 27, was in serious condition with multiple face cuts and a fractured leg, while their 4-year-old daughter, Sandra, was in fair condition with head injuries.

His mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Pal, 52, was to be operated on today.

Handless Man Flies, Visits Mom NEW YORK (AP)—A handless Kansas man paid a Mother's Day visit to his mother in New York Hospital—after piloting his own plane to get here.

Raymond Hollander, 41, of Wichita, Kan., who lost his hands when an old mortar shell exploded in his scrap yard 15 years ago said he flew through stormy weather, got lost and made two emergency landings when his gas got low.

But, he added, "if I had to walk here from Kansas, I would have. This will probably be my last trip here to see her."

Hollander said his mother, Lina Deutscher, 71, is a cancer patient and under heavy sedation most of the time, but was awake and able to talk to him.

JFK Plans To Fly To Birmingham

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, who has ordered federal troops to the area of racially troubled Birmingham, is going ahead with plans to fly to northern Alabama on Saturday.

The White House said today Kennedy also plans to answer a telegram from Alabama Gov. George Wallace who challenged the President's action in putting riot-trained troops into bases near Birmingham.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Riot-trained federal troops were being massed in Alabama today to deal with any further racial disorder in Birmingham, the state's largest city.

Life in Birmingham, however, had returned to near normal by mid-morning.

A 28-block area which had been sealed off after Negroes rioted Saturday night was reopened this morning and traffic was functioning at its normal pace.

The Southern Christian Leadership Council said that Jackie Robinson, first Negro to compete in organized major league baseball, and former heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson would fly here tonight. They were scheduled to arrive at 8:25 p. m. (EST).

The Birmingham Police Department said everything was quiet in the steel city this morning. No untoward incidents were reported overnight although more than a thousand city and special police officers held part of the city under virtual martial law.

Grim Warning President Kennedy sent Army troops to two Alabama bases with a grim warning that they would move into Birmingham if new violence erupted. Thousands of Negroes rioted early Sunday after bombs blasted a Negro minister's home and a motel.

Gov. George C. Wallace, arch-segregationist who once defied federal authorities over voter registration records, challenged the President's right to send in federal troops. He insisted state and local officers could preserve law and order.

City officials and Negro leaders issued strong appeals for law and order. Birmingham, like a city under siege, lay uneasily quiet after Mother's Day dawned with smoke and fire from rioting and bombing.

The President's action was three-pronged:

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara was ordered to alert riot-trained Army units and to deploy them in Alabama. Troops moved into Maxwell Air Force Base at Montgomery, 80 miles to the south, and at Ft. McClellan at Anniston, 60 miles to the east.

Preliminary steps were taken for federalizing the Alabama National Guard. The papers have not been signed.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Burke Marshall was sent back to Birmingham to consult with citizens and work with other Justice Department officials.

Crisis Over In Argentina, Rauch Ousted

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentine President Jose Maria Guido appeared today to have survived the ninth crisis of his year-old regime after maneuvering controversial Gen. Enrique Rauch out of the key post of interior minister.

All other Cabinet members resigned Sunday, following Rauch's charge that the administration was riddled with corruption and supporters of ex-dictator Juan Peron and ex-President Arturo Frondizi. Rauch finally handed in his resignation also after apparently getting assurance that some of those he wanted out would be removed.

Guido withheld action on the other ministers, but he snapped Rauch's resignation. He named Gen. Osiris Villevas, former army operations officer, to be interior minister. The post ranks next to the presidency.

Government sources expected Guido to drop four civilian ministers whom Rauch had attacked and War Secretary Benjamin Baltenbach, who had denounced the interior minister for causing the Cabinet rift.

Demands Rauch touched off the crisis last week by demanding replacement of most civilians in the Cabinet by military men, sweeping arrests and drastic overhaul of Argentina's penal laws to weed out disciples of Frondizi and Peron.

2 Michigan Area Strikes Settled In Flint, Lansing (By the Associated Press) Work resumed today on millions of dollars in construction projects in two Michigan areas with the settlement of laborers' strikes.

Settlements with AFL-CIO laborers' union locals were reached on the weekend at Lansing and Flint.

Local 1975 of Flint and Local 908 of Lansing came to terms with contractor associations. The groups agreed to three-year contracts providing for hourly pay increases totaling 27 to 30 cents.

Base pay will go above $3 an hour in the third year.

Altamont St. Closed For Construction Of Bridge For Bypass

City officials this morning announced that Altamont St. will be closed on Wednesday, at the relocation site, due to the construction work on the bypass.

Although it was not certain this morning as to exactly how long the Altamont St. area would be closed, city officials said it probably would be most of the summer.

Excavation work will be started immediately by the Bacco Construction Co. of Iron Mountain, which has the general contract for the work, and the Altamont St. section will be closed until the overpass, which will carry Altamont over the highway, is constructed.

The other overpass will be at Champion St. That was closed earlier this spring to facilitate the bypass construction work.

Only north-south routes which will be open temporarily in the South Marquette area are S. Front St.-U.S. 41 and M-28, Grove St. and McMillan St.

City engineer M. J. Kera-nen also cautioned residents and motorists to be especially careful in the Grove St. area, as some construction work also is proceeding at that site.

There will be a crossing at grade at Grove St.

Bacco's contract for the 1.7 miles of four-lane, limited access highway, covers construction and route relocation of U.S. 41 from S. Front St. at Palms St. to W. Washington St. in the Brewery Location, where the flashing lights are now in effect for eastbound traffic on U.S. 41.

E. C. Nolan and a Detroit combine have the $349,028 contract for the construction of the overpass to carry railroad tracks over the new highway at the west part of the route relocation.

Completion Next Year

Work on the bypass began last fall and is expected to be completed by late summer 1964.

The project will ease the critical traffic situation existing at the city's busiest intersection — Front and Washington Sts.

Police Probe Hit And Run Crash Here

An automobile owned by Edwin Peterson, 736 Champion St., was damaged in a hit-and-run accident which occurred here some time Saturday night.

City police said Peterson parked his car in front of his home, on the west side of the street, Saturday night, and 7:30 yesterday morning he noticed it had been struck and damaged during the night.

Extensive Damage Occurs

The left rear fender and bumper of his 1959 four-door sedan was extensively damaged, city police said, apparently by an automobile being driven south on Champion St. The impact had shoved his car ahead about five feet.

Officers said some green paint

Police kept the mishap open for investigation.

Alpine Village Project Stalled By Land Acquisition Program

The future of the Alpine Village and Superiorland projects remained clouded today after developers of the projects had disclosed earlier that their promotional efforts were being stalled by the land acquisition program.

Harry M. Wirth and John Zerbel, Milwaukee, said the Alpine Village portion will become a reality "only when and if the Superiorland developers obtain the right to develop key parcels of land in and around Big Bay."

Need Key Parcels Soon

"In other words," they stated, "the Alpine Village project will not even be commenced unless the people who presently own several key parcels of land are willing to sell them to the developers for construction of large structures."

They added that within the next two or three weeks all properties needed for large building construction must be obtained.

"Should we be unsuccessful in obtaining the required property," they said, "the idea of developing Big Bay into an Alpine Village will be abandoned and we will concentrate on Harlow Lake and a train excursion run from Frontier Town (Marquette) to Harlow Lake."

"The only use of the track beyond Harlow Lake will be for hauling lumber and logs for various logging outfits, such as Hiawatha Land."

Wirth and Zerbel said they also are presently involved in tax, investment and consulting services.

The track is now owned by the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railroad Co. and a $195,000 loan from the Federal Government's Area Redevelopment Administration has been granted to develop the scenic railroad project, which is part of a vast tourist development program Wirth and Zerbel announced last year they are undertaking.

LCC Request On Agenda Of City Meeting

Four items were listed today on the preliminary agenda for tonight's regular meeting of the Marquette City Commission, which starts at 7 in the city hall.

A communication will be received from Walter M. Noack, Lansing, director of enforcement for the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, requesting that the city act on an application for a transfer of ownership of a 1962 Class C (sale of beer, wine and whiskey for consumption on the premises) and SDM (packaged beer and wine) licensed business from 116 Spring St. to 124 Main St.

If approved, the change would move the liquor license from Kinsey's Bar to the Olympic Lanes.

Carnival Request

Grand Knight John B. Dorais of the Marquette Council will ask permission for the KCs to sponsor a carnival in Marquette from June 10 to June 15.

A letter will be received from Ken Slater, Newberry, president of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, inviting the commission to attend the annual meeting of UMTA May 23.

Robert E. Freer, Ann Arbor, director of the Michigan Municipal League, will notify the commission as to the date and place of the league's annual meeting.

St. Luke's Installs Radioactive Kidney Test Unit

Dr. R. L. Carefoot (left), pathologist at St. Luke's Hospital, and Howard B. Lehwald, hospital administrator, look over the new twin-channel rate-meter which is capable of measuring and recording the function of each human kidney separately. Technician Ray Mongiat poses as a "patient." In actual practice, a very small dose of radio-active material is injected intravenously. The twin probes then detect the ability of the kidneys to extract the radio-active material from the blood and excrete it. The test has been found extremely useful in diagnosing kidney disease, hospital officials said. The unit, costing $6,500, is one of a very small number in use in the state and the only one of its kind in the Upper Peninsula.—(Mining Journal photo).

Bishop Eases Abstinence, Fasting Rules

In announcements made in Catholic churches of the Marquette Diocese yesterday, the Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, D.D., bishop of the diocese, disclosed that fasting and abstinence regulations are being eased.

The announcement said the bishop "has decided to do something about the confusion in fast-abstinence regulations that are read each year before Lent."

"It is felt that the present rules cause some difficulties, especially at times of weddings or other parish and public events," Bishop Noa said.

His changes, in effect eliminating fasting (pertaining to the amount of food which may be eaten) and abstinence (pertaining to the use of meat) are eliminated, for the balance of the year, except for all Fridays and for vigils of two Catholic feast days.

Bishop Noa said the changes will apply only to the Marquette Diocese (the entire Upper Peninsula) and will remain in effect until the new rules for 1964 are Firemen, responding with the Nos. 2 (1,000-gallon) and 4 (750-gallon) pumbers and the ladder truck, did not have to use anything, as the flames were out on arrival. Eleven men responded to the call, returning to the station at 10:35 a. m.

The damage from smoke was covered by insurance, it was reported.

U-M Regent Says Average Student Hurt

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The chairman of the University of Michigan Board of Regents says the financial pains currently plaguing many of the U. S. colleges and universities create an injustice to students of average intelligence.

Eugene B. Power of Ann Arbor, Mich., explained the situation at the opening session Sunday of the Association of Governing Boards of State Universities and Allied Institutions.

"The lack of money is forcing many universities like us to set up a limited enrollment policy," he said. "We are concentrating now on the high academic student but I think it is a mistake."

Power said that U-M now accepts only the highest 10 per cent from out of state and the top 25 per cent in the state.

Average Student Suffers

"The one who suffers is the student of average intelligence who can do college work but is being eliminated because of the financial limits of the university," he said.

Power said that a high academic rating is an unfair yardstick of the capabilities of student.

U-M has stopped its enrollment at 26,000. It has an annual budget of $115,000,000 with an endowment of $50 million. The state contributes about $37,000 million annually.

Tuition Fees

Power said financial headaches have forced U-M to increase student tuition fees to $350 a semester, making it the second highest state school in tuition.

Power thinks the solution to the problem lies in either getting the state legislature appropriate more funds or else turning to the federal government to bail them out. "And this talk about federal aid means federal control is hog wash," he said.

Lake Shore's Reeve On Judges Panel For State Event

DETROIT — Ten "citizens of the decade" will be honored for voluntary leadership over the past ten years at a statewide Michigan Week dinner in East Lansing in mid-June.

Nominations for leaders who have made outstanding contributions to Michigan's spiritual, educational and cultural life can be submitted by June 1. The deadline for nominations has been extended in order to accommodate the accelerating public interest in the citizen leadership awards.

A 12-member panel of judges will determine ground rules and requirements for the awards at a luncheon meeting at the Detroit Institute of Arts on Friday, May 24. The panel will reconvene after the June 1 deadline to make final selections. One of the judges is B. W. Reeve, Iron Mountain, president of Lake Shore, Inc., of Iron Mountain and Marquette.

In medieval England, the salt cellar was a social boundary at dinner table. High-ranking guests sat above the ornate silver container, lesser guests below it. King Canute's laws provided that a social climber could be "pelted out of his place by bones at the discretion of the company."

One Jailed, Six Fined By City Judge

One person was jailed and six others were ordered to pay a total of $50 in fines and costs for traffic violations when they appeared before Judge Edward H. Dembowski in municipal court last week.

Gerald T. Fetterhoff, 23, of 1943 Werner St., was ordered to spend seven days in the Marquette County Jail for reckless driving. Alternative sentence was to pay a fine of $25 and costs of $5.10.

Ticketed After Crackup
Fetterhoff was arrested by city police April 27 at the intersection of Westwood Road and U. S. 41, following a personal injury accident.

Police said Fetterhoff was driving southeast on Westwood Rd., apparently at a high rate of speed and his car crossed the highway without stopping for the stop sign. The car traveled east about 52 feet along the shoulder of U. S. 41 before coming to a stop against a wooden utility pole, police said.

For a stop sign violation at the corner of N. Fourth and Bluff Sts., Verna L. Arendsee, 414 W. Michigan St., paid a fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs. City police issued the summons Monday.

Car Not Under Control
Phillip A. Vilella, Lansing, was ordered to pay a fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs for failure to have his motor vehicle under control. He was ticketed by city police May 4 following an accident on W. Washington St.

A fine of $1.30 and $3.70 costs were paid by Carl A. St. Onge, Route 1, Marquette, for speeding. State police ticketed him Monday for driving 70 miles per hour in a 55-MPH zone on U. S. 41 in Chocolay Township.

For improper parking on the traveled portion of the highway, Otis E. Malmgren, County Road 550, Marquette, paid a fine of $1.30 and $3.70 costs. State police issued the summons April 28 on County Road 550 in Marquette Township.

A fine of $1.30 and $3.70 costs were paid by Bernard F. Marketty, 112 Oak St., Ishpeming, for speeding. He was ticketed April 30 by city police for driving 40 miles per hour in a 25-MPH zone on Lincoln Ave.

Marquette, U. P. district extension director, and the speakers from the MSU campus, discussed methods of utilizing limited existing resources to meet additional service requests and considered long-range program plans with the U. P. staff members.

Melvin N. Nyquist, county extension director, and Olive Sain, county extension agent in home economics, head the Marquette County extension staff, which is located in the county courthouse. The U. P. center is located in the old Nester School building. The group went to the Chalet for lunch.

Tech Given Two Science Unit Grants

HOUGHTON — Michigan Tech has received two equipment grants from the National Science Foundation which will help provide more than $12,000 worth of laboratory equipment for the college.

Dr. J. R. Van Pelt, tech president, said the funds are provided under the NSF Undergraduate Instructional Scientific Equipment Program, with the stipulation that the college provide matching funds.

Of the latest grants, $5,400 will be administered by Dr. James D. Spain, head of the department of biological sciences, and $770 by Dr. Marriot W. Bredekamp, professor of chemical engineering.

This is the second consecutive year Bredekamp has received such funds for the acquisition of modern electronic instrumentation equipment for the chemical engineering laboratory. Last year he was awarded $2,832 under NSF's equipment program.

To Buy Analog
This year's funds will be used to purchase a portable pneumatic analog, Bredekamp said.

The grant to Spain will be used to acquire a number of pieces of equipment for a course in a cell physiology, the study of the workings of a living cell.

The equipment purchases will include phase control microscopes, advanced dissecting microscopes, microdissection equipment, two oscilloscopes for studying nerve physiology and the transmission of nerve impulses, a flame photometer for analyzing salt concentrations in cells and fluids surrounding cells, a Warburg apparatus for studying cell respiration and a high speed centrifuge for fractionating cells.

It took the Congress three weeks and 63 ballots to elect a speaker in 1849. After a bitter fight, Howell Cobb of Georgia was chosen by a plurality instead of a majority, as is usually the case.

Fine Erecting Building For Stamp Store

Announcement of the start of construction of a building in a vacant lot on the south side of W. Washington St., in the 200 block, was made today by Joseph Fine, owner of the property.

Fine, who is proprietor of Joe Fine's Newsstand and Hobby Shop, said the one-story building will measure approximately 28 by 99 feet. Tentative plans call for the building to be occupied by the Gold Bond Co. as a stamp redemption center.

Construction work is being done by the Merrill Prin Construction Co. of Negaunee. It is expected that the building will be completed and ready for occupancy by July 1. Was Vacant Five Years

"Construction of this building will improve the general condition of the entire block," Fine pointed out.

The lot has been vacant for about five years. Prior to that time it was occupied by a barber shop.

Dental Care Insurance Still 'In Future'

DETROIT (AP)—Prepaid dental care insurance in Michigan evidently still is some time off in the future, observers say.

The law permitting such insurance takes effect in September. Questions exist, however.

Experts say the law has similarities to the one providing for Michigan Medical Service (Blue Shield), presently in a court battle over its authority.

An organization plan and subscriber rates for the dental insurance are yet to be determined.

Gov. George Romney made the bill a law with his signature last Friday.

Lacks Staff
Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colburn, court adversary of Blue Shield and an opponent of the dental insurance bill, says he lacks the staff to oversee a dental program.

Colburn and Blue Shield are in court over Blue Shield's proposed rate increase. Colburn brought suit to prevent an increase which Blue Shield said it would put in effect despite Colburn's refusal to approve it.

Colburn, commenting over the weekend, said the legislature in approving the dental insurance bill failed to provide him with the money to hire necessary personnel.

The commissioner said he approves the principle of dental insurance but he opposed the bill on grounds of its timing and some of its provisions.

Three Weather Records Set In Marquette During Month

This past winter was marked by a number of record breaking low temperatures and consecutive cold waves, and the past month also provided new records, but in a different way.

One maximum temperature mark was set and, despite the fact that the month's precipitation was below normal, two record rainfall marks were set during April.

On the 3rd it was 72 degrees, the highest temperature ever recorded on that date in Marquette. The previous mark was 68, in 1929.

That also was the highest reading for the month, with the mercury in the 70s on only two other days, the 17th and the 28th, when it was 71 both times.

Below Freezing 17 Days

Lowest temperature for April was 19, on the 4th—the day after the month's warmest day. It was below freezing on 17 days during the month, and the average temperature was below the freezing mark on three days.

Despite the large number of sub-freezing temperatures, the month's mean reading was 41.2, or 1.9 degrees above normal.

Rainfall records were broken on the 2nd, when .82 of an inch of rain came down, with the old mark having been .63 of an inch in 1903, and on the 29th, when .95 of an inch fell, the previous high having been .94 in 1903.

Precipitation includes snow reduced to water, but there wasn't much snow in April. Only 7 of an inch of snow fell, 6 of it on the 29th. Average April snowfall is 9.6 inches.

Abrupt Changes Noted

Precipitation itself totaled 2.39 inches, or 31 of an inch below normal.

Meteorologists at the U.S. Weather Bureau note that although the average temperature and precipitation for April were not far from normal, the weather was marked by unusual sharp contrasts and abrupt changes.

In each case when the temperature was in the 70s the following day saw the mercury dive below freezing.

Dry Most of Time

For the most part, April was quite dry. Three widely separated storm periods produced 98 per cent of the month's precipitation. Snowfall for April was the least in the past 35 years, except for 1933, when only a trace was recorded.

Wind direction varied considerably during the month, being from the north or northwest most of the time. Highest velocity recorded, however, was 46 miles per hour, from the southwest, on the 3rd.

Sunshine totaled 274 hours, 19 minutes, or 67 per cent of the daylight periods.

GOP Team To Look Over Motor City

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit's bidding for the 1964 Republican National Convention and the possibility of a George Romney presidential candidacy might create a conflict of sorts.

A deduction of that kind comes from a comment from one of the GOP three-member site committee inspection team.

The team was due today to take a long look at the Motor City as contender for the party's big show

NMU Honors Two Retirees On Wednesday

Two Northern Michigan University faculty members will be honored by their colleagues at a retirement dinner on Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Craig, associate professor of music, and Miss Lucille at which it will name the '64 nominee.

Gov. Romney has vowed repeatedly that he is not and won't be a candidate. But his name keeps bobbing up.

Helen G. Mitchell of Houlton, Me., GOP National Committee member from her state and one of the convention site trio, made the comment upon arriving Sunday. She was the first in town of the three.

Miss Mitchell said that from past experience the home state of a presidential candidate is not likely to be chosen for the nominating convention.

Payne, assistant professor of English, will retire in June.

Miss Craig came to Northern as a member of the music department in 1928, and Miss Payne joined the faculty as a critic teacher in the John D. Pierce Laboratory School in 1930.

Accomplished Musician
Miss Craig, a teacher of voice and music theory, organized the Girls Glee Club which became well-known in the area. An accomplished musician, she is active in local, state, and national music groups.

Miss Payne was a critic teacher in English in the Pierce school until 1961 when she began teaching university classes. At Pierce she had special responsibilities in dramatics and forensics. She also maintained a special interest in poetry. She is a member of the state and national councils of Teachers of English.

Miss Craig, a native of Traverse City, Mich., will reside in Marquette for the present. Miss Payne, who was born in Parke County, Indiana, plans to return to Indiana.

Commencement Speeches

The school year is running out, and soon we'll have the annual spring rite of commencement and speakers to explain that graduation is not a completion of school, but a commencement of learning.

There are more than 25,000 high schools and some 2,000 colleges in the United States, and good commencement speakers are as rare as good artists in any other field, so a lot of graduates and their parents and friends are going to have to listen to hours of trite counsel to young people anxious to get on with their education.

The dearth of good speakers is so pronounced that many schools have dispensed with the rite of the commencement address and send their graduates forth lacking the armor of ritual counsel. That educators do not view the lack of Periclean quality in commencement forensics with undue concern is indicated in the current issue of the National Education Association Journal.

There Peter Schrag, assistant secretary of Amherst, Mass., College, has fun with the subject, proposing that graduation speakers be given "Bona Fide Commencement Speaker" identification cards proclaiming "The above named is entitled to all the honors and courtesies due his exalted position."

Mr. Schrag offers a spoofing commencement speech service designed to fit the speaker or the occasion. Sample offerings:

Simple uplift speech stressing the need for renewed moral vigor, basic virtue, profound verities.

Inverted uplift speech stressing need for renewed moral vigor, basic virtue, profound verities.

Everything's down the drain baraque stressing that we're losing to communism, the race for space, the race against poverty, hunger and disease, the Olympics and initiative, but that the future looks promising.

Down with materialism tirade crying the surfeit of TV sets, tailfins and washing machines and the death of opera stars and college professors.

Golden haze soliloquy recalling teachers who stimulated discussion of matters that really mattered and urging the graduates to go forth with these old moral values and send money back to their Alma Mater.

Down with science diatribe exhorting the eggheads who have us in this fix and urging the average man to reassess his humanity and read a book on science.

Aching anywhere appeal for speakers just back from Anywhere saying Anywherians need our help and urging us to go Anywhere and help.

Stay at home exhortation saying the real opportunities are right here in Gourley because there's so much that has never been done here.

Reminiscence ramble back to the Good Old Days when people had it so much better with all those inconveniences and character-making labors and such lovely low taxes and no money to pay them with.

With these hints and a thesaurus of clichés, how can a commencement speaker miss?

Peninsula Perambulator

Arthur J. Myers, meteorologist in charge of the Saul Ste. Marie Weather Bureau station, said he has received many queries as a result of international press coverage of the record-breaking ice conditions that prevailed in the Great Lakes the past winter. He said that Lakes Erie, Huron and Ontario were 100 per cent frozen over, while Lakes Michigan and Superior both had 95 per cent-plus of their surfaces frozen. On March 1 the only open water in Lake Michigan was in the Milwaukee-Chicago area. Myers attributed this to the fact that these cities are in the southern portion of the lake and because sewer discharges from these two metropolitan areas added enough warmth to lake water to keep it from freezing.

With our change of form to a smaller size this week, The Mining Journal will now consist of 12 pages each week and quite a number of new advertisers who have not before patronized our columns will be found.

About once a year there has been a spasmodic effort made to have a state road built from Marquette to Grand Island Harbor, with an eastern terminus at Onota or Munising. This road was expected to be made passable for wagons and pleasure parties in carriages, furnishing an elegant drive or pleasure trip out of Marquette, as well as be serviceable for all business purposes at both blast furnaces. We regret to say that none of the promises made since 1867 have been carried out and travel continues to get heavier. Not even the most experienced woodsman could find his way through the half dozen trails in the district.

The Citizens Bank has taken possession of its new quarters in the Masonic Building, where it has a very neat and convenient banking office. The post office has moved from across the street to this handsome new structure, and Postmaster Moore is making many new improvements, including nearly 200 new lock drawers.

Brown & Williams have started the hair trade in connection with their barbering business. They propose to devote special attention to the manufacture of curls, switches and various hair goods. Their place of business is corner of Front and Superior Sts., upstairs.

The Building Association, at its adjourned meeting last week, chose a committee consisting of Messrs. Riddell, F. M. Moore and B. F. H. Lynn to draft articles of association. The matter is now taking tangible shape and is in the hands of good, strong, earnest parties, and we believe, if rightly started and managed, it will be one of the most beneficial institutions of the city.

The work at the different stone quarries shows renewed activity. Jacobs works 30 men and 11 teams at the Brownstone, and Wood is running about half that force at the Burt quarry. We understand that a mill for sawing the stone will shortly be erected, and then a large percentage in the working will be saved.

Lipsitt and Sinclair have a force of about 15 stone cutters at work at their shops near the South Marquette quarry, which just now presents a scene of much activity. A good force has been employed since early last fall, and in the interim most of the stone for the new courthouse has been cut, being brought down in its unfinished state from the Portage Lake quarries. There remains but a comparatively small part of the courthouse contract to be finished.

Mrs. Van Cleve, who has been away from the city for the past three years or so, has returned to Marquette to live. Miss Jessie Van Cleve, her daughter, and Mrs. Gay are expected here within two weeks or so.

The ball tossers are taking a lively interest in baseball matters now, and a club composed of two good nines has been organized. The boys practice nearly every day, and one can hardly enter a store or office without seeing a ball or bat stowed away in some corner. Next Saturday the first nine will meet the Humboldt team here and our club is anxious to meet the ball players of Marquette.

The young folks of Ishpeming intend to enjoy themselves this season, if warm weather ever sets in. A party of 20 ladies and gentlemen have chartered Wyoff's steam yacht at Marquette for a two days' trip to Grand Island. They will be accompanied by a reporter for The Mining Journal.

A great many of our merchants have ordered goods from below shipped by boat to Marquette and are disgusted with the way the ice hangs on, as they still are waiting anxiously for arrival of their merchandise.

Oie and Nelson have lately put up in their store an Iceberg soda fountain, which is in running order and furnishes a drink which "chews but does not inebriate."

Mr. Sam Rice, engaged in business on Main St., has lately purchased a gem of a music box. In addition to the machinery, this box contains six finely toned silver bells which add to the charm of the music.

Phil Kirkwood purchased a gay team on his list trip down below and says he is going to throw dust in all our eyes, but we have some good steppers here now and he'll have to "get up and dust" to beat some of them.

Rock Hounds Find Happy Hunting Ground In U.P.

For vacationing families in Michigan's Upper Peninsula or the northern part of Lower Peninsula, it's a good bet the youngsters will bring back with them a collection of rock specimens, fondly referred to as "pretty stones."

A closer examination might reveal that one or more of the rocks is a gem stone, and a few Michigan stones might be the beginning of an interesting rock collection.

From this small beginning is quite often born a hobby which can be as exciting as it is adventurous, and every man who pursues it becomes a prospector. It is at this point, then, when the "pebble-pup" becomes a full-fledged "rock hound," according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

The whole rocky business began in Michigan over two billion years ago when the area was rough with mountains as rugged and as high as the Alps. Since that time, volcanic eruption, erosion, the passing of the great glacier and earth splits transfigured the earth's profile and wrought great changes in the area's geological content.

These violent actions manufactured or deposited a wide diversity of rocks and minerals upon which much of the state's early economy and present natural fascination was built.

Common Along Lake Superior
Probably the most sought-after and most common of the Michigan gem stones is the agate. It is not too difficult to sift through stones and pebbles along the Lake Superior shore and find small agate chips. They are translucent and look like small pieces of caramel candy, or strata pieces beautifully lined in shades of brown, red, grey, black and white. The larger stones which may later be polished and used as jewelry pieces or desk ornaments are a little harder to come by and take some digging.

Sometimes an ordinary, inconspicuous rock about the size of a baseball or larger may be cracked open and found to be a geode—a hollow rock lined with agate or crystals. This is a real collector's item and takes the eye and practice of a professional to detect.

Agate is common to the Lake Superior shores, in inland glacial deposits or moraines and in gravel pits.

Copper County Paradise
But this is only the beginning. From here the collector will graduate to amethyst, garnets, thomsonites and topaz. His conversation will take on references to epidote, prehnite, chrysocolla, malachite, siderite and dozens of other names of rocks and minerals.

A paradise for the rock hound is the mine dumps in the Copper Country. At the Delaware and Iroquois Mines, for instance, dailies may be found, while thomsonites are in evidence at Calumet Mine dumps. Other dumps yield amethyst, chrysocolla, ankerite, prehnite and quartz as well as many other specimen types.

On Vaccinating The Germans

By WALTER LIPPMANN

At Beacon Hill near Champion, Tourmaline quartz crystals have been picked up along with siderite, garnets and staurolites. Gems have been uncovered near the mine at Ahmeek near the tip of the Keweenaw Peninsula. In the same area the Mohawk and Seneca mines yielded domeykite, almandine and whiteite, which are copper arsenide minerals. Domeykite is found intergrown with white quartz rosettes. When polished, the metallic surfaces give the appearance of unaltered silver.

The physical characteristics of rocks and minerals found in Michigan are as varied as the specimens themselves. Tourmaline is found as slender, black prisms; black pseudo-garnets are 12-sided rhombic forms of iron ore; and magnetite and other crystals are discovered in their own peculiar identifiable forms. Interesting specimens of native copper, iron—and if he's lucky—gold will be picked up by the intrepid mineral hunter. At one time, in the late 1800's, at least 13 gold mines were in operation in the Ishpeming area. All of the mines struck rich ore, but the veins either quickly played out, or the yield became too low for further exploitation.

The influence of rocks and minerals is evidenced in Michigan community names such as Copper Falls, Agate, Ironwood, Silver City and Garnet—all in the Upper Peninsula.

Not all of the interesting rocks and gem stones are confined to the Copper Country. Petoskey stones—fossilized coral—are found near the top of Michigan's mitten-shaped Lower Peninsula, and many specimens of rocks can be located in gravel pits and along streams and lake shores throughout the entire Lower Peninsula.

Liz Taylor's London Won't Have Cliches

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—When Elizabeth Taylor, an American motion picture actress, gets around to showing her native city, London, to television viewers next season, there won't be a tourist cliché shown, the producers assured us.

"I suppose we'll see Liz Taylor in the Post's Corner, Liz Taylor setting her watch by Big Ben, Liz Taylor borrowing a pound from the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street," ventured our reporter eagerly.

Norman Baer and Phil D'Antoni who dreamed up "Elizabeth Taylor's London" and sold it to Miss Taylor, a sponsor and the CBS network inside of four days, looked disdainful.

"Absolutely not," replied D'Antoni firmly. "You won't see any of those tired old things."

Baer and D'Antoni have been in network broadcasting for several years, and formed a television packaging company about three months ago.

"We want to produce specials, and we worked on several ideas," explained Baer. "Then we thought of the London show. There were really only two people who would have been perfect to do it."

"Elizabeth Two or Elizabeth T.?" asked your reporter.

"No," said Baer. "Miss Taylor or Princess Margaret. We asked Miss Taylor first and she accepted."

The producers air-mailed some material directly to the actress, who immediately invited them to talk it over.

D'Antoni flew to London and wrapped up the deal. Neither producer will say how much Miss Taylor will receive for the hour-long special but indicated that $400,000 was a most conservative figure.

News Behind The News

BY ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON — It is good news that the State Department finally has taken public cognizance of a Communist racket that has been flourishing in the United Nations ever since its formation in 1945.

This would be the operations of what might be called an unofficial, portable wrecking crew directed by the Kremlin. The crew consists of Russian employees of the UN, who take their orders from Moscow instead of from the UN secretary General and who work full time at trying to weaken the international organization.

Assistant Secretary of State Harold Cleveland was caused to look this fact in the face by a report from a 10-man citizens' committee on the hiring of staff members for international organizations. In effect, the report said there are not enough competent Americans employed by these organizations and that State should rattle its hooks and recruit some brains for these jobs.

U. S. Neutralism Fails
Cleveland, in charge of international affairs of State, now says the government already has started to promote recruitment of more Americans for international jobs. Presumably, the recruiters will take a hard look at the quality offered.

The committee, of course, is dead right, and it is hoped the State Department will pursue the course recommended and stop playing the gentleman. Alone among UN members, the U. S. always has maintained a hands-off policy on UN staff hiring, on the ground that political interference would be unethical if not immoral. The result, as always when we get gentle, is that other countries led by the Soviet Union have infiltrated UN groups to their own advantage.

Records show that the staff for the UN and other international organizations totals about 11,600, of whom 1,700, or 14.75 per cent, are Americans. Of 1,425 at UN headquarters in New York, 354 are Americans and 74 are Russians.

But when you're playing ball with Moscow, numbers don't count. Every Russian hired by the UN is a specialist in pursuing the Communist line and in fouling things up when Russian interests are threatened. They are hired by the UN after having been thoroughly screened and trained by Moscow.

Not Too Smart
Our boys, on the other hand, are largely idealists and persons wanting a career in international organizations. They are nice guys and dolls and not dumb by a long shot—but unlike the Russians, they take their orders from Secretary General U Thant. This is fine for U Thant, and that's the way it should be, but since the Russians don't play by the rules, our moral posture doesn't help either the U.N. or the U. S. And it's fact that the Russians have stepped up their tactics to weaken the U.N. since they failed to sell their "troika" plan for a three-man U.N. secretariat a couple of years ago.

The citizens' committee has made three vital recommendations in its 36-page report. It has asked for a single U. S. recruiting policy for Americans to be hired by international organizations, leaves of absence for U. S. officials to serve temporary terms with international units and increased recognition for Americans with those groups.

All that would help, of course. Meanwhile, somebody on high should remind Americans on international staffs that while they are presumed to be neutral in pursuit of their duties, it wouldn't hurt to be neutral on our side.

Views Of Others

RELAX, GOVERNOR

We suggest that Gov. Rockefeller calm down. If he engages in a contest with Sen. Goldwater to see who can throw the most matches into the most inflammable material, someone is going to set up an opposition line, peddling asbestos garments and fire extinguishers. And such a polarization of American opinion into "war" and "antiwar" groups could be disastrous.

It would, among other evils, distract attention from the root problem, which is not whether or not to "appease" Castro. It is, rather, to decide which is the most practical way to eliminate communism from this hemisphere. That is a big job, which needs coolness, resolution and a recognition of the difference between decisive struggles and command raids. —New York Herald-Tribune.

LE PAIN? MAIS OUI!

"Visiting French bakers like American breads," says a news summary. Reading a little further, one finds that the bakers and their wives—on an 18-day tour of the United States—were a bit more subtle.

The food, said one of them, had been better than expected, and the bread was "interesting." Another was amazed at the variety of breads available, and found them "different but good."

The second speaker was surprised at the custom of serving dinner rolls hot. Such things were better cold, he thought. Fortunately this was not said in one of those parts of the American South where a meal without "hot bread," often meaning beaten biscuit, is considered uncivilized.

But the point is that the visitors from the land of long, crisp-crustured loaves managed to leave an impression that they actually liked American bread. Which goes to show (as if proof were needed) that the French are a very polite people.—Christian Science Monitor.

Over 15,000 Attend Open House At Base

By MARY WHITE
Of The Journal Staff

More than 15,000 people entered the gates of K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base Saturday to observe Armed Forces Day.

Despite chilly temperatures and cold winds which ripped across the base, people waited in line for as long as half an hour to inspect ground displays and crowded the flight line to marvel at jets whooshing across the blue sky.

Bumper to bumper traffic lined roads on base most of the day, with cars coming from all over the Upper Peninsula and Northern Wisconsin.

The count taken at the main gate was 15,332, which topped last year's attendance of between 8,000 and 10,000.

'Power For Peace'

In keeping with the theme of "Power for Peace Over the Years," several out-dated planes on display on the ground and in the air offered contrast to the Air Force's mighty defenses.

Older aircraft included a 1929 Spartan C3-65, and World War II aircraft, a Ryan PT-22 trainer and and industrial building, where on-lookers expressed amazement at the spotlessly clean shops.

See Fighter Jets

Spectators climbed up steps and walked under aircraft wheels to view the "real thing," including the F-101B "Voodoo" of the 62nd Fighter Squadron, plus the KC-135 and B-52H belonging to Sawyer's 410th Bombardment Wing.

Visitors were able to see, both on the aircraft and close-up in a special display, the "Hound Dog" air-to-surface missile carried by the B-52H.

People also viewed setups of maintenance equipment, personal equipment used by combat crews and photographs of all types of aircraft in the Air Force inventory.

One of the most popular ground displays was the long "boom" used by the KC-135 tanker for refueling missions.

Helicopter Demonstrations

Especially interesting, particularly to the children, were demonstrations of the H-43B rescue helicopter of the base's air rescue detachment. The helicopter demonstrated fire-fighting and rescue techniques.

Crowds lined the flightline to get a close-up view of jet formation takeoff, flybys and landings. Aircraft participating in aerial displays included the B-52, the F-101B and 106 "fighters," and the T-33 (T-Bird) trainers.

Armed Forces Day committee chairman was Lt. Col. John H. Mark.

Ten years ago 20,000 Hollanders left for Brazil and last year another 120,000 left for Australia and New Zealand.

Of special interest were several base facilities which were opened to the public, including the 410th Bombardment Wing tactical squadron's building and the maintenance

Albert Anderson, J. and Dennis Leaf, who have accepted positions in other school systems for next year, also submitted their resignations.

Following the panel consideration of the subject, there will be a general discussion period. The public is invited.

Alger To Vote Next Monday On $80,000 Jail Bond Proposal

MUNISING — Alger County voters will decide next Monday whether to pay $80,000 for a new jail or toss the issue back to the building authority and pay $560,000 for the same building.

A third option for the county would be to send prisoners to some other jail in the Upper Peninsula at a cost of $20,000 a year.

At the May 20 special election voters will be asked to approve a one-mill levy for five years (1963-1967) to provide matching funds for an $80,000 federal grant for construction of a new Alger jail and sheriff's quarters. Cost of the structure would be approximately $160,000.

If this proposal fails to pass, the issue will be turned back to the county building authority, which is empowered to bond the county for the building cost. The county would rent the jail from the authority at $14,000 a year for 40 years, a total of $560,000.

According to James Knox, chairman of the board of supervisors, considerable money has been spent in an effort to remodel the present jail building during the last 10 years, but it is still far from meeting state specifications. Reasons given by the State Corrections Department for condemnation are: the area surrounding the jail itself is of wood construction and is a definite fire hazard; the jail consists of only one cell block, with absolutely no segregation; there are no quarters for women prisoners, no visiting room, interrogation room, or a room for issuing operator licenses.

According to state standards, remodeling is out because the jail is located between the sheriff's quarters and the court house, both of which have considerable wood in their structures and are not fire-proof.

Food, Equipment Show In Negaunee Set For Tuesday

Approximately 20 food specialists provided through the courtesy of McNulty Brokerage Co. of Milwaukee will present new ideas in cookery and upgrading of flavor.

Several special prizes will be given away and a smorgasbord will be served from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Alger Direct Relief Costs Climb $884

MUNISING — Direct relief in Alger County was given to 23 families involving 185 persons and expenditures amounted to $6,580.45 during April. This was an increase of $884.16 over March, according to Mrs. Alice Aley, county director of social welfare.

The money was allotted to the townships as follows: AuTrain, $325; Burt, $409.50; Munising city, $3,012.23; Limestone, $28; Mathias, $194.55; Munising, $1,317.49; Ontonagon, $216; and Rock River $144.75.

A total of 215 cases of public assistance cost the county $15,727 during the same period. Of this amount, old age assistance recipients received $7,808, aid to dependent children cases $7,119, and aid to the disabled cases $800.

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, will be the principal speaker Thursday evening. Also appearing on the program will be Dr. John A. Koufax Outdrew Matt Dillon With No-Hit Game

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was Saturday night and Marshall Matt Dillon, in his characteristically quiet but resolute manner, was confronting the last trouble-law and order in trouble-prone Dodge City.

Suddenly, in mid-pitch, Southern California's viewers of "Gunsmoke" were snatched from the 19th Century midwest. The picture on the television screen faded and a voice, unmistakably from a later century, said: "Here is a KNXT news bulletin."

Headed Off at Ravine
The voice proceeded to tell the marshal's fans that the San Francisco Giants had been cut off at Chavez Ravine. In fact, Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers, had just pitched a no-hitter against them.

To be sure, Koufax drew other salutes. At the stadium, a crowd of more than 35,000 gave him a standing ovation. Dodger President Walter O'Malley, not exactly the biggest spender this side of the Defense Department, gave Sandy a $500 raise.

Overpowers Hitters
And Giant Manager Alvin Dark confessed: "Koufax is the only pitcher I ever played against that I couldn't get a line drive off. I got a few hits off him but never a line drive. His fast ball just overpowers the hitter."

Saturday night the 27-year-old left hander struck out only four but pitched a perfect game until the eighth inning. He retired 22 batters in order, before walking catches Ed Bailey, Bailey was wiped out on a double play and the only other Giant to reach base was pinch hitter Willie McCovey, who walked in the ninth.

Sandy got his fourth victory in five decisions and lowered his earned-run average to 1.15. It was the first no-hitter in the majors this season.

"To pitch a perfect game would have been something really great," Koufax said. "I'm sorry I had to walk those two guys. But it's still my biggest thrill."

Bigger, he said, than his first no-hitter, against the New York Mets last June 30. And bigger than his two 18-strikeout performances, one against the Giants in 1959 and one against the Chicago Cubs last season.

Michigan State's first swimming pool was only 17 by 35 feet. Built in 1902 it was surrounded by eight classic white Grecian columns.
