State Sets Recount On 16 Precincts In County Thursday

Sixteen precincts in Marquette County will be recounted next Thursday in the State Constitution referendum vote cast in the biennial state election on April 1, it was learned today.

Bruno Mardi, Escanaba, of the canvassing board, will conduct the recount of the county, during the Upper Peninsula recount scheduled to start Monday.

Fifteen precincts in the county will be recounted on petition of the State Democratic Party, which opposed the adoption of the new constitution. The other precinct will be recounted on petition of the Coordinating Committee for the New Constitution.

The non-con proposal was adopted by a margin of around 11,000 votes in the state election. Under the new constitution, the state agencies will be concentrated into 20 major departments with lines of authority more sharply drawn.

Three Paper Ballot Precincts

Paper ballot precincts will be recounted in the county courthouse here. These include both precincts in Ishpeming Township and the Chocoy Township precinct.

The coordinating committee requested recounting of the second Ishpeming Township precinct and the Democratic Party the other 15 precincts being recounted.

By requesting a recount in at least one precinct, the committee establishes its right to participate in the recount procedure.

Others Machine Precincts

All other precincts being recounted in the county are machine precincts, and in order to accomplish this the canvassers have to go directly to the precincts in question.

In Marquette, for example, Precincts 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 are being recounted. The canvassing committee will have to go to the city hall, the polling place for Precinct 5, to recount that precinct, and to the Gravier School, polling place for the other four precincts, to recount those.

Six In Ishpeming

Other precincts being recounted are Nos. 4 and 5 in Negaunee and Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 8 in Ishpeming.

Voting machines cannot be moved, unlike the paper ballot boxes, and are kept in their respective polling places. (Paper ballot boxes are brought to the office of County Clerk Lloyd LeVasseur in Marquette.)

Precinct 5 in Marquette is the north central district of the city. Nos. 6 and 9 comprise the east section of Marquette and Nos. 7 and 8 are the north central and west districts.

49 Precincts In County

Marquette County has 49 precincts, and hence the recounting of 16 is approximately one-third of the total.

While the purpose in recounting machine precincts primarily will be for the purpose of determining that correct figures were taken off the back of the machines (since those totals are not changeable), the absent voter ballots for each precinct where machines are used will have to be recounted by hand.

That, however, will not be as tedious a process as recounting the paper ballot precincts.

In Marquette, County the constitutional proposition was approved by a majority of over 1,200, with 5,134 "yes" votes and 3,860 "no" votes cast.

The proposition was approved by wide margins in the three cities and by generally slimmer margins in the townships.

U.P. Schedule Listed

The reported schedule of recounting for the con-con referendum in the Upper Peninsula follows:

Tuesday, May 21, Gogebic County; Wednesday, May 22, Ontonagon County, in the morning, and Houghton County, in the afternoon; Thursday, May 23, Marquette County; Friday, May 24, Dickinson County, in the morning, and Delta County, in the afternoon.

Monday, May 27, Menominee County; Tuesday, May 28, Alger County, in the morning, and Schoolcraft County, in the afternoon; Monday, June 3, Chippewa County, and Tuesday, June 4, Mackinac County.

JOHN F. LAHALE

JOSEPH MAINOLFI

Program, Speakers For KCs' Initiation Here Sunday Given

Details of the program for the Knights of Columbus major degree initiation tomorrow were announced today.

After attending the 8 o'clock Mass in St. John's Church for corporate communion and having a breakfast in St. Joan of Arc Hall in St. John's, the program of conferring of degrees will begin.

Principal speakers will be John F. LaHale, St. Ignace, who will bring greetings from the State KC Council, and Joseph Mainolfi, Saginaw, past state deputy and chairman of the KC Boysville project, who will deliver the major address.

Greetings By Dorais

Greetings will be extended the visiting group by John B. Dorais, Grand Knight of the Marquette Council.

Walter S. Hackett of Marquette will serve as toastmaster. Hackett is a past Grand Knight and is chairman of the KC's six-point program.

Ralph Izzo of Iron Mountain will introduce the KC initiation team.

Remarks By Riopelle, Kueber

Remarks will be given by Paul Riopelle, Marquette, district KC deputy, and by Joseph F. Kueber, Marquette, class patron.

The Rev. Raymond J. Garin, pastor of St. John's, will give the benediction.

A dance-social will be held in the KC Clubrooms in the evening, with a smorgasbord being prepared by the lecturer's committee.

Committees Listed

General chairman for the initiation are Father Garin and Grand Knight Dorais. Other committees are:

Degrees: District Deputy Riopelle, Hackett and Albert Piasecki.

Religious arrangements: Father Garin and Howard Robide.

Communion breakfast: Thomas Musolf and Ladies of St. John's Altar Society.

Ladies Entertainment: Daniel Troche and William Gray.

House: George Chopp, Maurice Brazil and Wilbert Challier.

Tickets: Conrad Muck and Francis Dupras.

Smorgasbord: Evert Schewerin.

Dance: James Connors and William McVannell.

Publicity: Edward Beaudry Jr.

Programs: Irving M. Wagner.

Hospitality: Oakes O'Neil.

Class Patron

Kueber, the class patron, was initiated into the KC in 1923 in Grand Forks, N. D., and has been an active KC since then. He has held the various offices of the KC, serving as Grand Knight here in 1937-38.

For the past seven years Kueber has been on the KC Council building committee. He has been a resident of Marquette since 1931 and is an attorney.

Organized In 1902

The Marquette KC Council was organized July 17, 1902. Since then nine members have served as district deputies, namely, Norman J. Dobson, T. O. Penhauer, Leo A. Fleury, Patrick L. Bennett, Harry Siegel, Wayne T. Balmer, James A. Smith, Henry L. Croisier and Paul Riopelle.

Present membership is about 600, making it one of the largest councils in Michigan and the largest in the Upper Peninsula.

The KC building here was erected in 1930 and on Dec. 6, 1944 the council celebrated its mortgage burning ceremony.

Countless Facts, Incidents Make U.P. Interesting Area

Upper Michigan, from a number of viewpoints, has been termed one of the most interesting regions in the country, and there are countless thousands of facts and "grass roots" incidents to substantiate this, as researchers and authors well know.

In addition, the U.P. is completely different from Lower Michigan, historically, geologically, industrially, agriculturally and in many other respects, and it resembles a bit of Canada, with a little of Wisconsin "thrown in."

Upper Michigan's borders were known by the mysterious prehistoric people, who, with the aid of stone hammers and fire, mined copper 3,000 to 8,000 years ago and left bits of evidence such as mine pits, timbers, implements and copper artifacts that testify to their summer trips from ancient villages on Wisconsin Bay, thence to Mackinac Island, St. Ignace, Sault Ste. Marie, an down the west shore of Lake Michigan.

Most of them feared the fierce Iroquois Indians of the Lake Erie region, one reason Detroit wasn't established until 1701.

Sent By French Monarch

The British, who came south from Hudson's Bay, later became bitter rivals of the French for territory and furs, but in June 1671, Simon Francois Daumont, Sieur de St. Lanson, who, with a large entourage, had been sent here by Louis XIV, of France to take possession of practically everything from the Great Lakes to the Mississippi, did so in an elaborate ceremony at Sault Ste. Marie.

Gen. Lewis Cass also planted a flag there in 1820 claiming the Upper Peninsula for the United States, and was said to have done the same either at Presque Isle or Little Presque Isle here.

The British had previously more or less taken over during the War of 1812, when they captured Mackinac Island from the American troops, who hadn't heard of it in time.

Some of these events gave rise to the statement by historians that the U.P. had been under French and British rule or control longer than it had been a part of the United States.

The story of the so-called Toledo War, between Michigan Territory and the State of Ohio, from 1835 to 1837, which ended with this state virtually being forced to accept the Upper Peninsula, "land of ice and snow," whose wealth was undreamed of, is well known to many. Later developments leading toward its prosperity seemed to come along in orderly sequence almost as if they had been pre-ordained, and the details have filled hundreds of history books.

Rush To Negaunee

Following two treaties with the Chippewas, the last in 1843, by which we obtained this region, Dr. Douglass Houghton, first state geologist, whose reports had told of copper, iron, gold and silver in the Peninsula, and the finding of iron ore outcrops by the Burt survey party, near Negaunee, combined to bring on a veritable mineral rush by 1845.

Just when needed most for direct shipping of these products, the Soo Canal was completed in 1855. Then the outbreak of the Civil War not only added to the mineral boom, but resulted in an adequate year round wagon road being built from Marquette to Escanaba and the hasty completion in 1864 of the railroad from Negaunee to Escanaba, in case any trouble should develop with Britain which might cut off the St. Marys River route.

Through rail service to the outside world was established in December 1872, when the Chicago & North Western Railroad Co. finished its last segment between Green Bay and Escanaba, and the Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon Railroad Co. pushed its line as far as LaSalle.

Fortunately the events occurred just before the panic of 1873.

However, in another decade the East-West transportation problem was nearly solved with the completion of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad from here to St. Ignace and the Soo Line Railroad from Minneapolis to Sault Ste. Marie. Final step was the consolidation that saw the forming of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Railroad Co.

These and other highlights of Upper Peninsula history will be told on the regular Marquette County Historical Society program over WDMJ. The Mining Journal station tomorrow at 12:30 p.m.

Coin enthusiasts met in the Union National Bank lounge this week to form the Upper Michigan Coin Club.

L. F. Bonamic, Marquette, was elected president. Carl Gingras, Marquette, was named secretary and Helen Lupton, Marquette, was elected treasurer.

Dave Lupton, Marquette, will be temporary chairman of trading tables.

The club will meet on the second Monday of the month. Next meeting is June 10, "Charter Night," at 7:30 p.m., in the lounge of the Union National Bank.

Tentative plans call for the formation of a junior division of the club.

Tech Group On Field Trip In Marquette

A group of Michigan Tech forestry students embarked on a two-day field trip yesterday to visit forest products industries in the Marquette, Escanaba and Iron Mountain areas.

Dr. Hereford Garland, director of Tech's Forest Products Research Division, is directing the trip. The Tech delegation includes 35 junior forestry students currently enrolled in a course in "Forest Products and Industries."

Yesterday's itinerary included stops at the Victor Ahonen Sawmill, Birds Eye Veneer Co. plant and Cliffs Dow Chemical Co. plant in Marquette, McGillis & Gibbs Co. plant in Gladstone and the Birds Eye main plant in Escanaba also were visited.

Today the group is visiting the Kimberly-Clark Corp. plant in Niagara, W.I., and the Lake States Wood Preserving Co. plant in Quinnesec.

100 Men Due In City For ARA Training

Approximately 100 men from various sections of the Upper Peninsula are scheduled to arrive in Marquette during the next two weeks to begin training at the Northern Michigan University Area Training Center.

William E. Martin, Marquette, coordinator of the program, which is part of the Area Redevelopment Administration program, said the length of training time for the trainees' programs here will range from 16 to 48 weeks.

The ARA program began in Marquette last year. Supervision is provided by Northern, administration and enrollment through the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Several classes of trainees in various types of work have graduated since the ARA center was established in Marquette. It was the first set up in the Upper Peninsula.

Spear Elected Legion Post Commander

George N. Spear Jr. was elected commander of the Richard M. Jopling Post of the American Legion at the post's regular monthly meeting this week in the clubrooms on Washington St.

Spear succeeds Joseph Fine as head of the post. Spear and the other new officers for the coming year will be installed at a meeting scheduled for Wednesday, July 17. Robert C. Alexander, Marquette, commander of the Upper Peninsula Legion Association, will be the installing officer.

Other officers elected are Robert Oakeson, senior vice commander; Clarence Wiltzius, junior vice commander; Eugene Murray, sergeant-at-arms; John Roberts, historian, and Marvin Buck, chaplain.

Served In Army

Spear is yard manager for Spear & Sons, Inc., and is a lifelong resident of Marquette.

During World War II he served in the U.S. Army for two years, having served 15 months in the European Theater of Operations. Spear is married and he and his wife, Ann, and their two children, Kris and David, reside at 367 E. Hewitt Ave.

Automobile Safety Check Held In Marquette

At least 500 cars were expected to go through the safety check sponsored by the automobile division of the chamber of commerce by the time the check ended today. Above picture, taken from the west, shows cars lined up at the check, which was conducted on Bluff St. between N. Seventh St. and Park Ave. Cars in top mechanical condition received "safety OK" stickers. Drivers who received a list of needed repairs can receive a sticker from any of the participating automobile agencies by having the repairs made within two weeks.—(Mining Journal photo).

UMTA Sells Recreational, Industrial Appeals Of U.P.

(Third of a series) A cooperative effort to sell the recreational appeals of the Upper Peninsula—at the same time helping to portray the region as a favorable place for location of certain industries. That, in brief, is the program of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, which will review its accomplishments and make plans for the next fiscal year at its annual meeting in Sault Ste. Marie May 23.

U.P. Delegations To Receive State Week Awards Monday

Delegations from the central and western Upper Peninsula will be in Detroit next Monday to claim plaques denoting that they won two out of three top state awards for the 1963 Michigan Week.

According to the Michigan Week deputy public relations director, James Gooch of Marquette, a group of potato producers and county agents will be attending the Detroit Economic Club luncheon to claim the award for the Russet Burbank potato, the state's agricultural product development for the year.

A delegation from Gogebic County will also attend to receive its award for GO-INC., an industrial development project that won the community achievement contest. Representing GO-INC. will be a Gogebic delegation headed by Charles L. Santini, chairman of the temporary organization during the fund drive, William L. Johnson, Roy Ahonen, the Rev. Louis Cappa and G. A. Dahlen.

Report Given By Sheriff On Staff's Work

Four felony and eight misdemeanor arrests were made by the Marquette County Sheriff's Department last month. Sheriff Thomas F. Jerstad of Marquette reports.

Six regular and one special employee worked a total of 1,403 1/2 hours during April. They spent 670 1/2 hours on turkey duty, 496 hours on desk work and 237 hours on outside work. In addition, employees worked 133 overtime hours in excess of normal shifts.

183 Complaints Probed During the month, 183 complaints were received and investigated. At the end of the month, 111 complaints were open and 172 were closed. Twelve old complaints were closed during the month.

Persons fingerprinted numbered 115. Officers made 30 record checks, 71 investigations for others, investigated 10 missing persons reports and wrote 17 letters of information.

Five appeal hearings and six special conferences were attended. Officers transferred five mental patients, issued 117 driving licenses, processed 19 concealed weapons applications, issued 11 pistol purchase permits and registered 14 guns.

85 Inmates Admitted In addition, they served 62 civil processes and attended court a total of eight hours. Eighty-five inmates were admitted and they served 727 man days. Meals served numbered 2,181 and fines and costs totaling $514.30 were collected.

More Appointments In St. Mary's Drive Announced By DeFant

Development of the campaign organization for St. Mary's Hospital Psychiatric Unit building fund is in keeping with National Mental Health Week, which is being observed throughout the nation. Judge Michael F. DeFant, Marquette County probate judge, who is general chairman of the campaign, announced several appointments of co-chairmen of important divisions in the organization.

Condition Of 3 Children 'Improved'

Condition of the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Berg, who were hospitalized after a fire in the Berg apartment Wednesday afternoon, was "satisfactory and improving" this morning.

The three children were rescued by firemen from the second floor of a blazing apartment building. The children, all under three years of age, had been overcome by smoke while they were asleep in the five-apartment house at 351 E. Ridge St.

Timothy Berg, 2 1/2 years old, and Scott, 3 1/2 months, are at St. Mary's Hospital. Susan Berg, 16 months, was taken to St. Luke's Hospital after receiving mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. The girl is being kept under an oxygen tent, her father said today.

Fire Chief John W. Myers said the fire apparently started from a garbage bag in the kitchen. An ash tray had apparently been emptied into the garbage bag, Chief Myers said. It is expected that damage to the apartment will be well in excess of $10,000.

Women Thanked Chief Myers said that firemen wish to thank Mrs. Howard Treado Sr., 350 E. Ridge St., and Mrs. Warner H. Biekkola, 410 E. Ridge St.

The women served coffee and rolls to firemen following the blaze Wednesday afternoon and following another fire on E. Ridge St. March 22, at a six-apartment dwelling at 415 1/2 E. Ridge St.

MSU Staff In Line For 'Ag' Award

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, the nation's first Roman Catholic chief executive, will meet in Italy next month with Pope John XXIII, the ailing leader of his faith.

Kennedy once planned to defer an audience with the 81-year-old pontiff until he makes a scheduled state visit to Italy with Mrs. Kennedy early next year. He changed plans because of the Pope's failing health.

There have been published reports that Pope John has cancer. In recent public appearances, he has looked gray and drawn.

Departure Date Kennedy is expected to leave for Italy on June 20 and spend two or three days there before flying on to West Germany and Ireland.

Arrangements for the papal audience for Kennedy are being arranged in exchanges between U.S. officials and the Vatican. No meeting site has been selected, but the pontiff's quarters in the Vatican or his nearby summer palace, Castel Gandolfo, seem the most likely choices.

Man Walks Through City On Long Hike

Louis Lacinia, 50, Flint, followed U.S. 41 through Marquette yesterday on his 550-mile hike from Flint to Hancock.

A retired auto dealer, Lacinia is out to prove that "you're not washed up at 50."

Lacinia left Flint Thursday, May 9, carrying letters of greeting for Hancock's mayor from the mayors of Flint and the Flint suburb of Grand Blanc.

He expected to reach Hancock tonight, on schedule. He had figured it would take about 10 days for the trip. However, Lacinia said he was "20 miles behind schedule" when he walked through Marquette, and he did not stop to visit here.

He stayed Thursday night at a motel. Lacinia said he walks slightly under four miles per hour. He said he'd replaced the heels on his shoes once since leaving Flint, and the second set was completely worn down.

Former Dealer Lacinia makes one other point to show he's in the prime of life. He calls himself a former automobile dealer — not a retired one — even though he lives on the money, he made while in business.

Indiana Man Given County Jail Sentence Charles W. Brainard, 34, Peru, Ind., was ordered to spend six months in the county jail by Circuit Court Judge Bernard H. Davidson of Negaunee yesterday for resisting a law enforcement officer.

Alternative sentence for Brainard is to pay a fine of $500. Brainard, formerly of Forsyth Township, was found guilty by a jury Wednesday following a one-day trial in circuit court. Brainard was represented by Attorney E. Nickolas Bridges, Negaunee.

The offense occurred Oct. 22, 1962 at a tavern in Forsyth Township. Officer making the arrest was Gwinn Marshal Arthur Johnson.

Sentencing for nine defendants in criminal cases is scheduled in circuit court Monday.

Salvation Army Week Noted Here; Proclamation Issued

Salvation Army Week has been proclaimed by Mayor C. Fred Rydholm for the coming week.

At the same time Dr. Luther Gant, chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory Board's public relations committee, said local observances of the special observance have already commenced.

This week Major R. B. Sharp, Marquette area commander of the Salvation Army, addressed meetings of the Kiwanis and Exchange Clubs and next week he will appear at the Rotary Club luncheon meeting (on Monday, in the Clifton Hotel) and at the Lions Club dinner meeting (on Thursday, at Northern Michigan University's University Center).

Gant also says that radio and television interviews have been arranged with Major Sharp and various members of the Marquette Citizens Advisory Board participating.

1st Misunderstanding Noted Major Sharp, in his talks at Kiwanis and Exchange meetings this week, points out that the Salvation Army is 90 years old this year, having been founded by William Booth in London, England in 1865.

The Salvation Army is 83 years old in the United States, as Commissioner George Scott Ralston and seven Salvation Army Ladies from London first set foot on American soil in New York City in 1880.

After weathering severe misunderstanding and persecution for a number of months in New York and Philadelphia, Ralston transferred his activities to St. Louis, Mo., in order to be more in the center of the country to be able to work out from there in different directions.

In 20,464 Centers After further struggles for recognition and acceptance, the first Salvation Army National Headquarters was established in St. Louis. By 1888 the "Army" was operating in 32 states and District of Columbia.

The growth of the Army gained momentum and by 1900 the Army had established its work in 36 countries.

City Paragraphs The fire department was called out at 12:10 yesterday afternoon to the residence of Ralph Beaudin, Sheridan St., where an oil space heater became overheated. Nothing was used, with firemen standing by until the heater cooled off. Six firemen responded with the Nos. 2 (1,000-gallon) and 5 (500-gallon) pumps. They returned to the station at 12:23 p.m. There was no damage.

U. P. Congressional Districting

The Upper Peninsula appears headed toward loss of one of its congressmen. The incumbents are:

Victor A. Knox, Republican, of Sault Ste. Marie, representing the 11th District composed of the seven eastern counties of the Upper Peninsula — Menominee, Delta, Alger, Schoolcraft, Luce, Mackinac and Chippewa — and nine counties in the top of the Lower Peninsula.

John B. Bennett, Republican of Ontonagon, representing the 12th District composed of the western U. P. counties of Baraga, Dickinson, Gogebic, Houghton, Iron, Keweenaw, Marquette and Ontonagon.

When the 1960 census posted Michigan's population near the eight million mark it made the state eligible for a 19th congressman. The Legislature failed to create a 19th Congressional District in time, so the 19th congressman was elected in the state at large.

The election of the congressman at large (Neil Staebler, former Michigan Democratic state chairman) left the state's congressional districts undisturbed last year, but this situation couldn't prevail for long because of the population pattern of the state. The southernmost part of the state in Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, Genesee megalopolis has been growing very fast. The top of the state has been static or slipping.

People want their vote to count fully as their voice in government. When one congressman represents twice as many constituents as another, it doesn't. When this happens the people in the population growth areas demand redistricting. This has been happening in Michigan.

The situation has a partisan character because the Democrats have their greatest voting strength in Detroit and the other big cities; the Republicans have their greatest voting strength in the rural areas. The natural tendency is for the Republicans to want to maintain the status quo in district apportionment.

The Democrats want apportionment on a basis of population only, the Republicans plead that there are other factors which merit consideration in a reapportionment formula, like area.

The bill which the Legislature passed about to pass on June 4 to revamp Michigan's congressional districts to increase their number from 18 to 19 would affect the Upper Peninsula strongly. It would create a new 11th Congressional District which would embrace the whole U. P., all 15 counties. Some earlier proposals for redistricting would have included all of the U. P. and some counties in the Lower Peninsula in one district, so the present plan is not the worst conceivable as far as the U. P. is concerned.

Peninsula Perambulator

City commissioners in Iron River became embroiled in two controversial issues the other night. One involved a claim against the city for injuries allegedly received in a fall in the city hall and the other a request for permission to place a trailer home on a lot in the Burns Addition. In discussion of a claim received from Emery Manfrom, asking for payment of hospital X-ray and medical bills, Mayor Bernard Mariani was forced to use his gavel on several occasions during the heated argument. No action was taken on the $65 bills presented by Manfrom. A delegation of residents was present in opposition to a request for a trailer permit received from Charles Dellangelo, Inland Steel employee recently transferred to Iron River from Ishpeming. Objectors contended the mobile home would tend to decrease the value of their properties. The argument became bitter at times and again Mayor Mariani was forced to use the gavel. Action was postponed.

Effective July 1, quantity discounts for volume use of the Mackinac Bridge will be inaugurated. The discount will begin at monthly volumes amounting to more than $6,000, with the rate of discount set at 50 per cent. In other words, any single company, hauler or carrier doing a volume business in any one month of more than $6,000 will pay only 50 per cent of the toll on business over $6,000.

The Marquette baseball team started its season yesterday afternoon with a victory, taking the Negaunee aggregation into camp to the tune of 16 to 7. The locals held the game safe from the beginning, and all things considered, they put up a creditable exhibition, one that bodes well for the future. The play on both sides was somewhat ragged, but this was to have been expected in view of the fact that neither nine had had any adequate practice. Quinn pitched an excellent game for the locals. Peb Smith had on his batting clothes yesterday, getting a single and two doubles.

Both the Upper Peninsula's congressmen have protested the redistricting plan, but they have no vote in the State Legislature and the Upper Peninsula's representatives in the Legislature are overwhelmingly Democratic and tend to follow the party and not the home area line. Phil Rahol, the state senator from Iron Mountain, in senate debate on Senate reapportionment stated, "You cannot expect to have three senators in the U. P. any longer. I do want to hold two—if we can hold two we will be fortunate."

The U. P. should scrap tooth and toenail for all the representation it can get in the Legislature and in Congress, but its position is a difficult one both politically and democratically. Its population (and hence its representation) is too small to be forceful numerically and it has fallen seriously below the population norm for congressional districts.

The population totals of the proposed new districts downstate are: 1st 473,114, 13th 469,861, 14th 371,330, 15th 462,434, 16th 453,178, 17th 404,520.

The proposed 11th District would have 305,000 population.

Schools For Bachelors?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Schools for bachelors?

After discussing recently the idea of special schools to prepare girls to be wives and boys to be husbands, I received the following letter:

"You have the shoe on the wrong foot, brother.

"One of the biggest problems in the world today is the population explosion. What is the cause of it? Too many husbands and wives. They are the ones who have children.

"Instead of schools to make more wives and more husbands, why not instead create schools to train more lads to become, happy, independent, self-respecting bachelors? This would automatically also result in more spinsters, thus shutting off the human population explosion at its source.

"Most husbands today aren't men. They're henpecked slaves who've sold their masculine birthright down the river. The modern women of today aren't worth the powder it takes to blow their big ears off anyway."

"Proud Of It"

The letter was signed, "A thoughtful bachelor of 68 golden years—and proud of it."

At first glance the proposal advanced by this hale and hearty old single-footer seems to have at least a spurious merit.

It certainly is true that in the long run a marked increase in the supply of bachelors would gradually slow down the birth rate. But is this the best way to go about it? Would America be much better off with millions more bachelors around? The answer would seem to be a firm "No!"

There is no doubt that at times a family finds a certain type of bachelor handy. In return for a home-cooked meal, he performs chores around the house, babysits the kids while the parents go to the movies, fills in as a fourth at bridge, and cheerfully squires your departing mother-in-law to the air terminal.

Temporary Bachelors

We had a number of such bachelors hanging around our house when we were first married. But they were only temporary bachelors. As soon as they saw the joys of home life, they wandered off and got married themselves.

There remained a single hardcore bachelor whom I'll call Albert. He couldn't sew on a button. When the garbage had to be carried out, he suddenly developed a bad case of tired hands. All he could do was stick his feet under our table and eat.

Well, finally my wife became aware of Albert's double-dealing nature, and one fine spring night she tossed him out.

Clinging Vines

The fact about most permanent bachelors is they are simply male clinging vines. They are responsibility-dodgers who aren't avoiding marriage so much as they are looking for a new father and mother to take care of them.

Schools for bachelors?

Maybe it's a god idea at that. Reform schools—where they could learn to grow up and face life like real men.

17 Honor Students Listed In Baraga's Senior Class

BARAGA — Seventeen members of this year's graduating class of Baraga High School will receive diplomas as honor students, according to announcement by school officials.

A class of 42 will be graduated at commencement exercises to be held in the Baraga National Guard Armory Monday, June 3. The honor students have maintained an average of "B" or better during their four years in high school and, in addition, most have participated in many other school activities.

The list of honor graduates follows:

EILEEN CARLSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Carlson of Nautla, completed her last two years of high school at Baraga after transferring here from Laird Township (Alston) School. Her activities included band and chorus, four years; Future Nurses Club, one year; senior class play; freshman class secretary; Luther League secretary; Sunday School teacher, four years; part-time work in guidance office in senior year. She plans to enter U. S. Navy's WAVES at Bainbridge, Md., in August.

DOUGLAS DOMPIER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Dompier of Baraga, now employed as meat manager at Beck's IGA Market. Plans to enter Ferris Institute in fall to major in science for career as research biologist. School activities included basketball, one year; Student Council, two years; yearbook and Science Club, one year; general manager of magazine subscription drive in senior year; forensics, two years; Student Council reporter as senior; school play, three years; lab assistant; member of CYO.

JANET BENNIK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Bennik of Keweenaw Bay, attended Keweenaw Bay School until 7th grade, when she transferred to Baraga. Extra-curricular activities included chorus, four years; forensics, one year; Yearbook staff (art manager), two years; Luther League, all school play, one year; 4-H club work. She plans to work after graduation.

MIRIAM ROSKI, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Koski of Keweenaw Bay, has attended Baraga High School the last six years.

TVA Celebrates An Anniversary

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Back in President Washington's day U. S. Army engineers poked around in the Tennessee River, studying it. Today President Kennedy goes down to the river to celebrate an anniversary.

Between the two men were a lot of history and people, particularly these five presidents — the two Roosevelts, Wilson, Coolidge and Hoover — and a senator, George W. Norris of Nebraska.

In A Positive-Negative War

The first Roosevelt, Theodore, made such a big thing of conserving this country's natural resources — and boosting irrigation and reclamation — that some historians consider it his greatest achievement.

But it was something he did in a positive-negative way that has special significance in Kennedy's visit today. He vetoed a bill for private power development at Muscle Shoals, a 37-mile stretch of rapids in the Tennessee River.

He argued the government should develop the power made available by dams built to improve the stream.

Came World War I and the need for a lot of munitions. Under Wilson a munitions plant was built at Muscle Shoals and a dam, called Wilson, was started to provide power for the plant and improve navigation in the river.

Norris Enters Picture

For 15 years after the war there was a great debate: What to do with the plant? Private companies wanted to buy but they offered too little. Norris came into the picture.

He thought the Muscle Shoals properties should be operated publicly. Out of this thinking came the idea of a Tennessee Valley Authority to benefit the whole region. He steered two bills through Congress.

Coolidge vetoed the first (1928) and Hoover the second (1931). Their objection: That TVA would mean government competition with private enterprise. "That," Hoover said, "is not liberalism. It is degeneration."

But Franklin D. Roosevelt became President March 4, 1933. Within the next famous 100 days he and Norris got a TVA bill through Congress. Roosevelt signed it into law May 18, 1933.

Seven Other Programs Proposed

Kennedy's visit to Muscle Shoals today is to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the creation of TVA. Norris had later proposed seven other TVA-type programs for other parts of the country but all failed.

TVA, administered by three directors in Tennessee and not out of Washington, was created to help a region. Other dams and power projects may have multiple purposes but they're not like TVA whose expressed purpose was:

To provide power, flood control and navigation. Two historians, Samuel Eliot Morison and Henry Steele Commager, went so far as to say that of all the New Deal measures TVA was possibly the "most important for the future."

It serves an area involving seven states. There are now 31 dams in the TVA system — nine on the Tennessee River and 22 on its tributaries. The U-shaped river, which begins at Knoxville, turns down and then up to Paducah, Ky. where it joins the Ohio.

Navigable For 650 Miles

The Tennessee is navigable for 650 miles because of the locks in its dams and its channels. The TVA sells electric power wholesale to municipalities and cooperatives in an 80,000 mile area, thus keeping down the price.

Floods are controlled because water can be held back by the dams in reservoirs. TVA plants experiment with and produce fertilizers which industries get free on a TVA license. In addition to all this, there are lakes with 10,000 miles of shoreline for outdoor activities.

Nothing like TVA, which runs itself with its 18,000 employees, is likely soon. For one thing, business has never stopped yelling this is socialism.

So many government agencies have a hand in other projects around the country that they overlap and fight one another for a say-so. For example: 15 different agencies are involved in one way or another in power transmission, nine in irrigation and 12 in flood control.

Views Of Others

POLITICS AND WAR

I must study politics and war that my sons may have liberty to study mathematics and philosophy, in order to give their children the right to study painting, poetry, music.—John Adams.

SPEED MERCHANTS

A few years ago, the (auto) industry agreed to play down speed and acceleration, but now the race is on again. The manufacturers are undoubtedly shocked when one of their models disintegrates against a bridge abutment while traveling at "an excessive rate of speed," in the familiar words of news accounts. But they helped implant the idea.—Montgomery Advertiser.

JOINT PLEDGE IN TOLEDO

Contractors and unions in the construction industry—representing some 500 firms and 7,000 workers—pledged support to the University of Toledo in its effort to acquire a $28 million medical college. This support went beyond mere platitudes; it guarantees that the building trades will complete the proposed medical complex without work stoppages, that unions and contractors will settle grievances and disputes amicably, that the utmost efficiency and economy will be the aim of all concerned.—Toledo Blade.

RX FOR HEART ATTACK

There's a doctor in Washington who apparently doesn't believe a little bit of humor ever hurt the discussion of a serious problem.

The other day when he addressed a club of high pressure advertising executives at a luncheon, he told his listeners how they could have a successful heart attack without even trying. His prescription for a nice, clean heart attack covered these medically proven points: "Pick your ancestors (they should have a history of heart attacks), be a man, live in a city in the United States, try to get rich, sit behind a desk and swivel as you push a pencil, eat a lot of meat and fats, smoke two packs of cigarettes a day and never exercise."

We know a lot of folks who won't have to make any changes to qualify for a do it yourself heart attack.—Honolulu Times.

The National Whirligig News Behind The News

BY ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON — While we still have our shirt, the time has come for the United States to tell that lower-case bum in Indonesia to get lost.

They call him "President" Sukarno, but to anyone who has not spent the last 10 years on a desert island this reads "Dictator." Indonesia is not a republic but Sukarno's private property, complete with occasional martial law and a hot romance with communism.

When he is not tooling about his domain naming mountains after himself, Sukarno thumbs his nose at Uncle Sam by partying with Communies and suggesting it's about time Red China took a stick to India. Lately he has been making verbal swipes at Malaysia, which is scheduled to become a new nation Aug. 31 when Malaya absorbs Singapore and the three British colonies adjacent to Indonesia. Malaya is Western-oriented and vigorously anti-Communist, and so Sukarno hints that he may have to take the country over.

U. S. Supports Gestapo

It would seem time to cry enough after Uncle Sam has given Sukarno more than $750 million and received nothing in return but ideological kicks in the teeth, but the end is not in sight. To Congress' surprise, the Agency for International Development (AID) has revealed that it recently gave Sukarno $19.7 million in emergency aid, in addition to a $17 million loan announced March 6.

AID makes no bones of the fact that this dough has been handed Sukarno as a bribe to keep him from setting up housekeeping with the Communies. And just to make sure this junior grade Hitler maintains his grip on his country, we have earmarked $2.7 million of that financial sop to equip and train a "special unit" of the Indonesian police to keep the Indonesians in their place. Apparently, you don't call that sort of "special unit" a Gestapo these days.

So He's Disillusioned

Sukarno is the prime example of the American policy of turning the other cheek in dealing with so-called "emerging" nations. Frank Coffin, deputy administrator of AID, confirmed this in an almost incredible statement to the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Indonesia is one of countries which has been helped by the U. S., he said, after they accepted aid from the Sino-Soviet axis "and have since become disillusioned with such aid."

In Main St. English, this means we don't mind of Sukarno accepts aid and ideological comfort from the Reds so long as he lets us force a few million bucks on him when he's having a lover's quarrel with the Communies.

Blow To Good Friend

Ironically, our wooing of Sukarno is a slap in the face to one of our few friends in Asia, the 60-year-old Malayan prime minister, Abdul Rahman. But, of course, the trouble with Rahman is that he's anti-Communist and thus, apparently, suspect.

Rahman laughs at our argument that by keeping Sukarno in luxuries like the latest jet airliners — $20 million worth — we are preventing Indonesia from going Communist. It is Rahman's contention that we should force Sukarno to make up his mind once and for all whether he wants to go Communist, and some of the experts here say it would be a good idea if we lost the guy. For Indonesia is 90 per cent Moslem and the people undoubtedly would rise up and overthrow Sukarno rather than see their country handed over to those efficient office managers from Moscow or Peking.

Sukarno's latest vagary was to name the Indian Ocean after Indonesia. Give that guy a little more dough and he'll be trying to change the name of California. (Bell-McClure Syndicate)

Sid Has To Pay Wife With Borrowed Money

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former producer Sid Luft, who claims he is living on borrowed money, must pay $300 in monthly child support to his ex-wife, actress Lynn Bari. Superior Court Thursday ordered Luft to make the payments for six months, at which time a new hearing will be held to examine Luft's financial situation.

Boy At Base Wins Eagle Scout Award

At a recent Eagle Court of Honor for Boy Scouts of America, Troop 353, sponsored by K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, Life Scout Dennis Hanlon, 15, received the rank of Eagle Scout.

Presentation was made by Col. Daniel P. McLean, base commander, who was assisted by R. Ralph Smith, Hiawatha (Upper Peninsula Council executive). The Eagle Award is the highest in Boy Scouting.

Protestants Must Put Up Or Shut Up

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Efforts toward Protestant unity were pictured today as nearing a "put up or shut up" stage. Presbyterian leaders said the conciliatory tide is gaining momentum. They predicted several churches will start drafting a specific union plan within two years—or else quit talking about it.

sultation, said they were optimistic that agreements will be found for launching the blueprint. "The situation has been very promising, more so than could have been expected," Dr. McCord told a news conference, held in connection with the United Presbyterian general assembly.

SBA Official In Marquette On Monday

A representative of the Small Business Administration will visit the Upper Peninsula next week, according to Robert F. Phillips, Detroit, Michigan regional director, for the purpose of furnishing inquiries in this area information about SBA activities.

Two Vehicles Involved In Mishap Here

Two automobiles were involved and a motorist was ticketed, but no one was hurt, in a traffic mishap in Marquette at 7:37 last evening. City police said Ruth J. Donohue, 610 1/2 N. Third St., was driving east on W. Washington St. and making a right turn onto S. Fourth St. when her car struck the left side of an automobile operated by Helen I. Alanen, Route 1, Dukas, who was headed north and stopped for the stop light on S. Fourth St.

State Police Open House Set Tuesday

A reminder that open house will be held Tuesday at the Marquette post of the Michigan State Police.

as part of the observance of Michigan Week was given today by Sgt. Grant C. Barry, commanding officer. Similar programs will be held at all other posts as well to give the public a special opportunity to see how a post operates and view equipment and other exhibits. Visiting hours at the Marquette post will be from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Ike Suggests Sen. Morton As Candidate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower seems to favor a free-for-all contest for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

Friday that Gov. George Romney of Michigan and Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., would make good nominees. This was immediately interpreted in party ranks here as an indication Eisenhower hasn't much hankering for either Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., or New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as the standard bearer.

found it difficult to forget Rockefeller's 1960 contention that the nation's military posture had been allowed to deteriorate. Despite Romney's repeated denials that he is a candidate or intends to become one, Eisenhower said the Governor would have to be considered for the 1964 nomination if he "does a good job in Michigan."

THE FAST PACE OF LIFE

You'll find lots of people concerned about the tempo of life today. But most of them simply catch a breath when they can, and try to keep up with the pace.

There is something more important! The winner trains . . . and plans his race. He may lag behind for a while, but he is confident of hidden resources. When others have burned up their energy and enthusiasm, he forges to the front. As they wilt in the home stretch, he sprints across the finish line.

The Church can help you train . . . and plan! A Christian is concerned with his own spiritual stamina rather than the fast pace of life. He is ready with hidden resources when the moment of challenge comes.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Dear Abby...

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Years ago, when my widowed mother came to live with me and my husband, she made our lives so miserable that I determined that I would never bring such misery to my children if I ever had to live with them. One day I sat down and wrote myself a letter. In it were some pertinent rules, and on the outside of the envelope I wrote, "To be opened on the day I go to live with my daughter, heaven forbid." I tucked it away in an old bank and forgot about it. I've been widowed and self-sufficient for six years, but now I am recently forced to give up my job and go to live with my oldest daughter. I've opened that letter and I think your older readers might benefit from it, as I intend to. Here they are:

1. Give what you can toward your keep. Any budget will stretch just so far.
 2. Keep yourself clean and neat.
 3. Remember, it is THEIR home. Be especially considerate of HIM. He allowed her to bring you here.
 4. Give them privacy at every opportunity.
 5. If they want to go away on a vacation, but are hesitant because of you, offer to visit another relative or friend so they will be free to go.
 6. Don't offer any advice or express any opinions unless asked.
 7. Volunteer information that they might be too embarrassed to ask for, such as arrangements for your burial, hospitalization, etc.
- These rules were written over 20 years ago. I read them often and am determined to keep them. Sincerely,

WIDOW X

DEAR ABBY: Whoever started that stupid rule of courtesy, stating that ladies should leave an elevator first? I am always annoyed with gentlemen who stand rooted to the floor of an elevator and refuse to get out ahead of the women who are in the rear of the elevator, struggling to get out. If those stupid men would just step out of the elevator ahead of the women it would be much simpler for everyone.

"ANNOYED"
DEAR ANNOYED: "Women and children first" is the rule when abandoning a stricken ship, but common sense should prevail when leaving an elevator.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BENNY: No, I am not a "nut" on the subject, but I still think that anyone who smokes is advertising the fact that he has money to burn.

Yes, Abby will send you a personal reply if you send her a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your problem to Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. (McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Baptist Clergymen Suffer From Strain

DETROIT (AP) — More than 80 per cent of American Baptist clergymen are suffering from excessive strain which could mean a threat to both health and effectiveness, according to a survey. The Rev. Dr. Oren H. Baker, of Rochester, N. Y., said the survey—based on a questionnaire answered by 401 American Baptist ministers—will be reported to the American Baptist Convention which meets here Friday.

Familiar Faces Featured In Gaieties, Opening At Kaufman Tomorrow Night

Among featured performers in Gaieties, on which the curtain goes up tomorrow night for the first of four performances, are several whose names have become well-known in the area's amateur theatrical productions.

Taking part in the show are Frank Wareham and his orchestra, Jack Wicklund, Venetta Bolz, Howard Treado Jr., Ron Garceau and Shirley Savitski, among an overall cast of 70.

Wareham will be remembered by local residents for his portrayals of Lt. Cable in "South Pacific" and Nathan Detroit in "Guys and Dolls." Wicklund also had roles in the two Northern Michigan University productions: as Emile deBeque in last year's "South Pacific" and Sky Masterson in this year's "Guys and Dolls."

Mrs. Bolz, Treado and Garceau were three of the principals in the St. Michael's Players-Saturday Music Club production of "Oklahoma!" in 1962, while Mrs. Savitski was in that show and has participated in other local events, as a dancer.

Several younger members of the Gaieties cast also were seen in "Oklahoma" — Patty Upson, Laura and Edith Savitski, Roger Condit and Barbara Molby.

3-Way Split Of Proceeds

Proceeds from the Gaieties, opening at 8:15 tomorrow night in Kaufman Auditorium at Graveraet High School, will benefit Bay Cliff Health Camp, the scholarship program of the Saturday Music Club and future Marquette Community Theatre productions. Returns are to be divided on a 50-25-25 basis, respectively.

The Saturday Music Club, Community Theatre and Junior Woman's Service Club are sponsoring the Gaieties, of which Director Michael Pober said today: "It offers something for everyone and will provide an evening of tuneful entertainment."

Memorial Service At St. Paul's

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, corner of E. Ridge and High Sts., will conduct its annual Florence Nightingale Memorial Service tomorrow night at 7:30.

For over 50 years this memorial service to an outstanding nurse and humanitarian has been a traditional observance at St. Paul's.

Members of the nursing and medical professions, as well as hospital personnel, will be present as guests at the service, which will be in charge of the Rev. John Adams Alford, rector of St. Paul's and chaplain for the St. Barnabas Guild of Nurses.

The senior choir of the church will sing the service, with Clyde W. Brooks featured as soloist on the anthem, "Keep Me, Lord, the Shadows Falling," by Sebastian Matthews.

Following the service a reception will be held in the Guild Hall under the auspices of the Women of St. Paul's, with members of Group J serving as hostesses for the occasion.

The public is invited to the service and reception.

DeFant Talks To Medical Auxiliary

Probate Judge Michael F. DeFant addressed the Marquette-Alger County Medical Auxiliary at its meeting this week in the Hotel Northland.

Introduced by Mrs. Fred Sabin, who presided, Judge DeFant spoke to the group on the psychiatric unit proposed for construction at St. Mary's Hospital. General chairman of fund-raising for the project, DeFant said the community would be asked to raise $160,000, to be matched dollar for dollar by Hill-Burton (government) funds.

The auxiliary voted to turn proceeds from its May bridge-lunch-over to Bay Cliff Health Camp and the American Medical Association Education and Research Foundation.

New Officers Elected

An election of officers for 1963-64 took place at the meeting, with Mrs. Harry Koenig being named president; Mrs. Matthew Bennett, vice president; Mrs. James Tobin, secretary; and Mrs. Lloyd Howe, treasurer.

Mrs. George Wilson reported on the health careers committee's participation in Bell Memorial Hospital's open house, held in observance of National Hospital Week.

Among other matters discussed were mental health, community service and fund-raising projects. The auxiliary decided to continue its recruitment of qualified students into various fields of medicine and related careers and to make scholarships available for such students.

Kellner New President Of H-S Club

Vernon Kellner was named president of St. Michael's Home and School Club for next year, at the group's final meeting held this week in the multi-purpose room, following a potluck supper.

Other officers elected were John Fassbender, vice president; Mrs. Ward DeWitt, secretary, and Mrs. Raymond Vonck, treasurer. The slate, drawn up by a nominating committee headed by Clifford Garfield and including Gerald Miron and Mesdames Henry Bertagnoli and John Dorais, was unanimously approved.

Called to order by this year's president, Albert Piasecki, the meeting opened with prayer led by Sister Thecla and included reports from the secretary and treasurer.

Registration Meet Monday Night For Chocloy 4-H Club

The Chocloy Township Hall in Harvey will be the site of a registration meeting for the Chocloy Community 4-H Club at 7 Monday night.

At that time, boys and girls will have the opportunity to sign up for summer projects in the Chocloy 4-H program. Among projects to be offered this summer are vegetable gardening, outdoor meal cookery, entomology and photography.

Chocloy area youngsters between the ages of 10 and 20 are eligible for 4-H Club work.

Parents also are welcome to attend the meeting Monday, which will be in charge of Don Browers and Mrs. Ted Wittler.

Family Night Event At Messiah Begins Tomorrow At 5:30

Family Night Fellowship tomorrow at Messiah Lutheran Church will feature a potluck supper, starting at 5:30.

Families participating are to provide food for the event, as follows: sandwiches, primary department parents; molded fruit salads, junior and intermediate department parents; cake, nursery and beginners' department parents. Rolls and beverages will be furnished by the church.

A program including songs, devotions and information on vacation church school, Bible Camp and Sunday School plans, is scheduled from 6:30 to 7:30, after which those attending will be given time to visit the Sunday School rooms and teachers.

Do-It-Yourselfers Less Keen On Home Building These Days

Are do-it-yourselfers getting lazy? Or are they so well-learned that they can't take those king-size blisters? Whatever the reason, fewer home handymen in a certain suburban do-it-yourself area are building their own homes or even refinishing house shells.

"In 1955 we built twice as many house shells or partially completed homes as finished homes," explains Gerard B. Eagen, vice president of New England Homes, a home-broker organization. "But in 1962 we built 90 per cent more completed houses than shells."

The shell home includes plumbing, heating and electrical wiring installed, the most difficult phases of home building. It costs one-third of a finished home. A partially finished home includes in addition, a full cellar, cesspool and connection, hot water heater, chimney and footing, exterior decorating, sheetrock, electrical wiring, interior doors and connection to water supply—about 85 per cent completed home.

More Money

"People have more money to spend on homes, lenders are more liberal with mortgage money than before, and a more superior-finished home is available for the money, through product development and new production methods, so perhaps they are content to have someone else build for them," Eagen points out.

Broker-builders like his organization reduce costs in many ways. They subcontract work to plumbers, heaters, wiring experts and flooring specialists who lay, sand and seal floors. It often doesn't pay for the do-it-yourselfer to be his own home builder.

"Labor costs are reduced as there are no Jack-of-all-trades involved, and the house looks professional. Costs are cut in other ways too. Insulation may be bought in carload lots, trucked to jobs and installed cheaper than the price a do-it-yourselfer is likely to pay over the counter for the insulation alone," Eagen says.

Meetings

Book Sale Set

It was announced that a sale of school books will be conducted in the classrooms by room mothers under the direction of Mrs. Alfred Mercure at the end of the school year. Students' books are to be priced and left with their teacher. First and second grade pupils will have rental books next year, while books for other grades—that are to be issued on a rental basis—will be listed before the book sale.

Sister Mary Edna's combined second-third grade was awarded the May attendance prize, and appreciation was expressed to retiring club officers for their services during the past year.

Paragaphs

"Family Devotions" will be broadcast daily next week at 6:45 p. m. over WDMJ by the Rev. Arthur Ericson, K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base chaplain.

Vesper services at Morgan Heights Sanatorium are scheduled at 4 p. m. tomorrow, with the Rev. O. E. Bakken in charge.

Speaker at the 11 a. m. service in Bethel Baptist Church tomorrow will be Edward Tregonnig. Chaplain Jimmie Baggett of K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base will speak at the 7 p. m. service.

Scores Listed For Thursday Games In Superior Bridge Club

Mrs. M. J. Khoury and Mrs. Russell Adams, with a percentage of 59.17, were high among bridge players who took part in the Thursday afternoon session conducted by the Superior Duplicate Club.

Others who posted percentages of 50 or better: Mrs. H. N. Young, Mrs. Earl Makiela, 58.33; Mrs. Norman Dobson, Mrs. Ruth Cone, 54.58; Mrs. Henry Caron, Mrs. Adelaide Jurmu, 52.08; Mrs. J. L. Farley, Mrs. W. H. Treloar, 51.25; Mrs. Frank Donckers Jr., Mrs. Robert Hale, 50.83; and Mrs. Ray Windus, Mrs. Mio Bergland, 50.42.

Woman's Choice

Left to his own devices, the average man wouldn't tackle building a house, Eagen says. He lacks confidence. "It's the woman who wants to buy the shell home, and encourages her husband to finish it. But after the first house many husbands have had it. The next one is on the builder."

One large hurdle the do-it-yourselfer encounters is plastering or applying sheet rock to walls. He chooses sheet rock because it seems easier to apply, but is stymied when he tries to join seams.

The trick is a professional one, says Eagen, simple as using a putty knife six to eight inches wide, instead of one that is two to three inches in width that do-it-yourselfers latch on to. The larger knife permits feathering the filler into seam gradually, whereas the amateur tries to fill in the seam at one clip with the smaller knife.

Reception Held For Andrew Mattson's 25th Anniversary

Mrs. and Mr. Andrew William Mattson, Route 1, Marquette, observed their 25th wedding anniversary this week.

Present for the occasion were the two persons who had attended the Mattsons at their wedding May 12, 1938: Mrs. John Swanson, Marquette, and Werner Mattson, Detroit, brother of Mr. Mattson.

More than 100 guests attended an afternoon reception in the Mattsons' home, including visitors from Lawson, Detroit and various communities in the Upper Peninsula.

The table decor featured a centerpiece of yellow daffodils, and the three-tiered silver anniversary cake was trimmed with silver leaves and white roses.

Parkview Pupils Prepare For PTA-Sponsored Circus

Parkview pupils are shown rehearsing games in the school yard, as plans near completion for the first all-school circus, slated Wednesday at 7 p. m. in the playground area behind the building. The Rev. and Mrs. Herschell Martin, retiring PTA presidents, and Richard Myers, new PTA chief, are in charge of arrangements for the event, for which Fred Taccolini, elementary school athletic supervisor, is helping each grade ready an "act." Circus music, sales of peanuts, popcorn and lemonade and the presence of clowns are designed to add the proper atmosphere to the occasion. Profits from the circus will help purchase multiple-use equipment for Parkview School's physical fitness program. (Mining Journal photo).

Six One-Act Plays Set For Presentation At Northern Next Week

Six one-act plays will be presented at Northern Michigan University Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of next week.

Each play, directed by students of Dr. James L. Rapport of the NMU Speech Department, will be presented twice during the three-day production.

The public is invited to attend the plays, which will begin at 8:15 p. m. in Lee Hall Ballroom. There will be no admission charge.

Presented Tuesday night will be "Sandbox" by Edward Aibe, "Fumed Oak" by Noel Coward, "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" by James Barrie, and "The Leader" by Eugene Ionesco.

On Wednesday evening, student directors will present "Morse's Impromptu," Bertolt Brecht's "Informant" (from "The Private Life of the Master Race"), the "Sandbox" and "Fumed Oak."

The final night will feature the works of Brecht, Morse, Aibe and Coward.

Scouts Plan Junior High Jamboree

Friday, May 24, has been set as the date for a Girl Scout Junior High Jamboree, to be held from 7 to 9 p. m. in Sandy Knoll School.

A variety of activities is planned to guarantee an evening of fun for seventh and eighth grade Girl Scouts. Mixed games will be played, and special program features will include a report from senior Scouts on Bay Jammer and Round-Up plans.

Mrs. Russell Daussey, field director for Timberlane Council will review plans for the Cadette program in the fall, and refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the program.

Each seventh and eighth grade Girl Scout may invite a friend to the jamboree and all troop leaders are to report to Mrs. Frances DePetro, CA 6-0720, by Monday regarding the number of girls planning to attend.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. DePetro, Mrs. Jean Pearman and Mrs. Leonard Brumm Jr.

Betty White, Allen Ludden Plan To Wed

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Betty White, much in demand as a panelist in various and assorted games shows, and Allen Ludden, host on CBS' "Password," are planning to be married in Las Vegas on June 14.

Apparently romance finally bloomed on a panel show—but in truth "Password" had little or nothing to do with it.

Betty, a busy and dedicated bachelor girl from Los Angeles, actually met Allen for the first time well over a year ago when she was a guest celebrity on his show.

'Critics' Choice'

"But I didn't see her after that," explained the bespectacled master of games. "It really happened last summer when our respective agents got together and booked us to play in 'Critics' Choice.'"

Their first date came when "Password" was originating briefly in Hollywood. Allen and Betty, chaperoned by their agents, had a business dinner together—and then attended a performance of "Critics' Choice."

"Strictly to catch the show, at least at the beginning," added Ludden.

Ludden Sings

Betty and Allen, after a week-end honeymoon, plunge right in a busy season of summer theatre. They'll play together in a straw hat version of "Brigadoon." Allen Ludden sings "Yes," said Betty, "and very nice, too." Betty will be busily filling commitments she made months ago, before the sound of wedding bells was in the air, including a period starring in "The King and I" at St. Louis.

Allen is a widower with three children—two girls and a boy. Betty's home is in Brentwood with her parents.

Suburban Home

They expect to make their home a big rambling house in suburban Westchester County, where Allen is dedicated gardener and amateur cabinetmaker.

Student Council Officers Elected At Graveraet

Colonial Popular

In Fairfield County, Conn., where many New York City commuters live, the two-story Garrison Colonial is replacing the ranch house in popularity, Eagen says.

"One can get more for one's money because there is a common foundation and common roof," he points out, "and this helps reduce costs."

But generally speaking, he says, the size of the house has doubled, even when a ranch house is chosen.

Details Unchanged

The most important features in a house for women haven't changed in many decades. They still want modern kitchens, bathrooms and lots of closets, and more than 50 per cent of houses now have dishwashers, Eagen says.

"But women are realistic. They don't want modern features that aren't practical. We are putting old-fashioned-style ranges back in the kitchen. Most women have found that wall ovens take up too much space."

Five From City To Attend Lyons' Investiture Ceremony

ISHPEMING — One of Ishpeming High School's better-known graduates, Patrick J. Lyons, Duluth attorney, will be honored tomorrow with investiture as a knight commander of the Order of St. Gregory the Great.

The investiture will be made by the Most Rev. Francis Joseph Schenk, D. D., J. C. D., bishop of Duluth, in the Holy Rosary Cathedral in that city. Attending from Ishpeming will be W. C. Peterson, superintendent, and C. C. Watson, assistant high school principal, representing the public school system here, and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. David P. Spelgatti, pastor; Leonard S. M. Altobello and William Hickey, representing St. John's Catholic Parish.

Lyons, who was born in Houghton, was reared in Ishpeming. He attended St. John's Parish school and in 1914 graduated from Ishpeming High School. He then attended St. Thomas College in St. Paul until June, 1915.

Lyons as a youth served St. John's Parish, and in more recent years provided counsel in discussions with the Oliver Mining Co. concerning properties upon which new St. John's facilities are now being completed.

Buddy Poppy Sale Slated In Negaunee

NEGAUNEE — Plans have been completed by the Negaunee Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary to hold its annual Buddy Poppy sale next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 23-25, Mrs. Bertha Lafkas, poppy chairman, announced today.

In requesting local residents to support the program, Mrs. Lafkas noted that every VFW Buddy Poppy is the work of a disabled veteran. These veterans are paid for their labor and proceeds from poppy sales are used for relief of disabled and hospitalized veterans and their dependents.

"For several years officials at Veterans Administration hospitals have recognized the fact that making Buddy Poppies is a helpful therapeutic rehabilitation," Mrs. Lafkas said. "Every veteran is paid a nominal fee for each flower he makes. The remainder of the money collected from the sale goes to aid them in other ways and for welfare work among the widows, orphans and dependents of deceased veterans."

"These memorial flowers are symbolic of those who gave so much during time of war, and we hope all Negaunee residents will respond to the drive which will be held here May 23-25."

Panel Airs Problems Of Adolescent

NEGAUNEE — "Teen-Age Problems" and "Guiding the Adolescent" were topics discussed by a panel at the final meeting in a series of sessions on mental health held in the Lakeview School multipurpose room.

Members of the panel included Mrs. A. B. Haist, who presented the view of parents; Dr. William Humphrey, who discussed the mental health program from a physician's point of view; the Rev. Judson Mather, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church, representing the clergy; and Supt. A. B. Haist, views of an educator. Robert Drew, Upper Peninsula consultant for the Michigan Department of Mental Health, served as moderator.

Several persons, including residents of Ishpeming and adjacent townships, took part in a discussion which followed the panel presentation. Drew expressed his appreciation to Mrs. Richard Yellin, Jr., president of the Central Grad School PTA, for her assistance in arranging the series of meetings and serving as secretary.

Mrs. Regan Asks Mail Box Check

NEGAUNEE — Residents of rural areas served by the Negaunee post office were urged today by Postmaster Agnes Regan to participate in the 1963 Mailbox Improvement Week, which gets under way throughout the nation Monday.

"This is the time when rural patrons are asked to check mail receptacles to be sure they are convenient, safe to use, neat appearing, protect the mail and provide for efficient, speedy mail delivery," Mrs. Regan said.

Mrs. Regan called attention of mounted route residents to the fact that their mail boxes should be of the rural type, or a model which will protect mail from the weather. Where receptacles are not located directly in front of homes, they should contain the patron's name and address.

Rural route patrons are required to provide mail boxes of the standard approved type. Names of owners should be shown on the side of the boxes, visible to the carrier as he approaches, or on the door if boxes are grouped. Numbers may be shown on the boxes, and both the boxes and supports should be kept painted.

Pasty Sale For Bay Cliff Camp Fund

BARAGA — At a meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary of Baraga, members were shown a film on the Bay Cliff Health Camp. John Vargo, executive secretary of Bay Cliff, presented the program.

Members decided to sponsor a pasty sale, with part of the proceeds to be used for sending local children to camp, in cooperation with the Baraga Health Department office. The pasty sale will be held Saturday, June 1, with advance orders for pasties to be taken at the Legion Club.

Members also completed plans for sale of poppies on May 23, 24 and 25. Mrs. Lloyd Herbert will be in charge.

On Memorial Day the unit will join with the Legion post in services at Baraga, Pelkie, Keweenaw Bay and Assinins cemeteries. At noon the unit will serve a pot-luck luncheon to all participants in the parade and observances at the Legion Hall.

RODERICK OLSON

MARILYN PETERSON

Roderick Olson No. 1 Honor Student In Graduating Class

L'ANSE — Roderick Olson, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Olson, has been named valedictorian of the 1963 graduating class of L'Anse High School.

He has maintained a scholastic average of 98.6 during his four years of high school and has been active in extra-curricular activities. He was cited at the annual honors convocation three years during his high school career and was selected to attend the science seminar at Michigan College of Mining and Technology in 1962.

Olson was sponsored as a delegate to Boys' State last spring by the L'Anse American Legion Post. In addition, he served as vice president of his class during his sophomore year and has been a member of the high school chorus for four years. He is a member of the First Lutheran Church of L'Anse and the Luther League. He will enroll in the fall at Michigan College of Mining and Technology, where he will major in mathematics. He received the board of control distinguished student scholarship from Tech and also the Guy M. Wilson American Legion scholarship.

Marilyn Peterson, who maintained an academic average of 96.2 during her four years in high school, is the salutatorian of her class. She is 17 years old and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erling Peterson of Skanee.

Miss Peterson has been a member of the high school chorus for four years and of the select chorus for two years, and has been the featured vocal soloist during many choral performances in recent years. She has served her class as historian and is the secretary of the Future Teachers Club here. She also is a member of the Skanee Evangelical Lutheran Church and has served as a Sunday School teacher there for four years.

Miss Peterson will attend Northern Michigan University, where she will major in the field of elementary education.

L'Anse Council To Assist In Rebuilding Honor Roll

L'ANSE — The L'Anse village council agreed to assist in rebuilding the village honor roll, approved purchase of a Cary-Lift machine and discussed details of a proposed agreement which would provide fire protection service to Arvon Township residents.

The council, at its May meeting, appropriated $400 toward the cost of rebuilding the village honor roll and also agreed to have the village crew dig and pour the concrete foundation for the new monument.

Robert Riopelle, representing the L'Anse American Legion Post, told councilmen that the Legionnaires would procure a local stone and erect the monument, adding that his group agreed the honor roll should be rebuilt on its present site adjacent to the city hall, where local police surveillance could reduce the danger of vandalism.

Honor Roll Plaque

Preliminary estimates on a three by four foot bronze plaque decorated with an American eagle and a cross, which will carry the names of the 1,200 veterans of World War I, World War II and the Korean War, ranged from $800 to $1,000. Village Clerk G. Glen Sands was instructed to seek additional quotations on plaques of various sizes. Sands noted that the total price of the new memorial could be reduced by purchasing a less ornate plaque or one of a smaller size.

Following recommendation of the purchasing committee, councilmen authorized purchase of a Pettibone-Mulliken Cary-Lift machine at a price of $10,380, with a choice of terms for financing. Leonard C. Smith, councilman stated, "We need it, and in the long run we are going to save money. Instead of trying to adapt our old trucks, we will be money ahead to buy this new machine. If we buy it on a long-term contract it won't hurt us a bit."

If the machine is purchased on a three-year contract, payments will be $315 a month; a 48-month contract would call for $240 payments each month. The machine, to be delivered within 30 days, is equipped with standard accessories and two slip-on buckets.

Fire Protection Asked

George W. Falk, Arvon Township supervisor, approached the council about entering into a fire protection agreement for one year. He proposed that the L'Anse fire department should answer Arvon fire calls if they are available, at a rate of $50 per call. Councilman A. Edward Moilanen suggested that an additional $3 fee be paid to each fireman who answers the request of Mrs. George Giard, Mrs. William Vadnais and Mrs. Conrad Miller was chosen to present the slate of officers for election at the June meeting. The annual Upper Peninsula convention at Marquette June 21 to 23, will be Mrs. Wilfred Dompier, Mrs. William Vadnais, Mrs. Conrad Miller and Mrs. John Shanahan. Mrs. John Shanahan and Mrs. Wilfred Dompier were named delegates to the department convention in Detroit July 18 to 21. They will accompany the 12th District president, Mrs. Russell Carriere, to the convention.

Following the meeting the committee chairman completed their annual reports and lunch was served by Mrs. John Shanahan and her committee.

McDonald Band, Choir Give Concert

GWINN — The music department of the Leo P. McDonald Elementary School will present its first annual spring concert at 7 p. m. Monday, May 20, in the multi-purpose room.

An elementary choir, comprised of 30 fifth and sixth grade students, directed by Mrs. Stephen Ward, will sing six selections. A 41-piece elementary band, comprised of fourth, fifth and sixth grade students, directed by James E. Keranen, will play eight selections.

The public is invited. A donation will be taken and will be used by the music department to purchase new music.

Members of the choir are: Soprano — Kristin Beightol, Susan Black, Peggy Cowart, Betsy Davids, Lisa Hall, Brenda Lewis, Gretchen Peterson. Carolyn Smith, Wendy Dawson, Sandra Monahan, Suzanne Kaiser, Linda Watson, Delores Scott, Margaret Morson, Mary Whitesell.

Also — Kathy Blanchard, Theresa Gelsone, Vicki Henri, Karen Mahon, Frances Miller, Nancy Scott, Carolyn Moffatt, JoAnn Bennett, Barbara Best, Michèle Seeger.

Tenors — Jim Hughes, Paul Hyatt, Ken Henri, Bill Kozlowski, Frank Burris.

The choir will sing the following selections: "Prayer for Peace" (Hayes), "The Heavens Are Declaring" (Beethoven), "The Sound of Flute and Pipe and Drum" (Breton folk song), "Donkey Serenade" (Frimly), "Listen to the Mockingbird" (old popular song), and "Polly Wolly Doodle" (Ray Charles).

Members of the elementary band are: Flutes — Debbie Green, Cynthia Sweiz, Theresa Gelsone.

Clarinets — Clay Manley, Linda Watson, Emily Phares, Tom Best, Paul Hyatt, Bill Kozlowski, Mary Whitesell, Scott Small, Phil Mills, Joe McGee, David Allie, Mark Engle, Jody Newton, Mike McGuckin, Leslie McCallion, Joey Gondek, Doug Dial, Carolyn Smith, Penny Drake.

Also Saxes — Diane Daley, Linda Davis.

Cornets — Tim Caplett, Richard Caplett, Bob Kelly, Fred Badger, Rodney Hampton.

Horns — John Reed. Trombones — Jim Hughes, Susan Black, Carl Perazola, Sean Hayes, George Hensley.

Drummers — Jim Lancaster, Jim Vitek, Jeff Mangone, Steve Morrison, Marshall Hart.

Rod, Gun Club To Discuss Land Sale

NEGAUNEE — An important meeting of the Negaunee Rod and Gun Club, which is anticipating the sale of property it owns, will be held at 7:30 Sunday night.

In addition to property sale discussion, members are to make final plans for the annual dinner to be held Saturday, May 25. Arrangements include plans for a skeet shoot following the 6 p. m. dinner and a dance at 9:30, with the "String Dusters" furnishing the music.

At the club's most recent skeet shoot, William Shearer, Lakeview, by hitting 47 out of 50 birds, took top honors, followed by Joe Haller and Charles Giotto.

land on U. S. 41 near the Booster Club building to Sigurd Catherman at a price of $285 was authorized. Catherman also will pay fees connected with a survey of the property and the abstract. A minimum figure of $250 had been set on the property at the time bids were solicited. Catherman submitted the only bid.

Two bids for repairing and painting the council room, the hall and stairway, furnishing both labor and material, were received. The low bid of $138, offered by Bertel Anderson, was accepted. Sylvester Patrikus bid $195 on the job.

Kent stated that complaints had been received about raw sewage flowing into a wooden septic tank at a home in one section of town. Since the waste line from this house could not be hooked up to the sewage disposal system, the council agreed to bear the expense of buying and installing a septic tank.

Absenteeism of council members at regularly scheduled meetings was discussed, and the council concluded that some provision should be set up to govern attendance of council members. Smith cited a recent decision by the City of Gastra council, wherein any councilman who has missed three consecutive meetings is asked to resign his post.

"If a man is missing three times straight, he isn't doing his duty to the community, and the load is thrown onto everybody else," Smith said.

Councilmen okayed $300 for purchase and erection of new street signs for the village, and set the final trash pickup for the coming week. They warned that all eye-

Dr. Tearnan Honored For Long Service

MUNISING — A testimonial dinner was held here, during the Upper Peninsula public health meeting, honoring Dr. R. A. Tearnan of Munising for his 51 years of medical service.

More than 100 public health officials from throughout the Peninsula attended the gathering and heard Dr. Irwin C. Sweet, toastmaster, read a telegram of recognition from Gov. George Romney to Dr. Tearnan. Also lauding the veteran physician was Dr. Albert E. Heustis, head of the State Health Department.

Dr. Tearnan has been practicing medicine since 1912. He spent his early years as a physician in Munising, then served as a surgeon with his brother, Clyde, in Decatur, Ill. He returned to Munising in 1947 and has been director of the Alger-Schoolcraft Health Department since 1951.

Sorority Installs Helen Romeli At Ishpeming Dinner

ISHPEMING — Xi Alpha Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, held a Founder's Day dinner at the Mather Inn at which Helen Romeli was installed as president. She succeeds Marion Linberg, who was the installing officer.

Other officers installed were Joanne Boyum, vice president; Joanne Gagliardi, recording secretary, and Lois Johnson, treasurer.

GABELGRAM

Another Upper Peninsula youth ran afield of the Michigan High School Athletic Association's awards rule this past winter. Eero Ranta of Dollar Bay received $20 cash and a pen-and-pencil set valued at $9 in a ski tournament sponsored by the Calumet Chamber of Commerce.

The principal of his high school reported that the awards were returned to the donors, and that a language barrier which confronted the boy made it difficult for him to have understood that acceptance of the awards affected his high school eligibility.

Eero came from Finland, early last fall, to enroll at Dollar Bay. However, the MHSAA executive committee handed down its usual ruling, that Ranta was ineligible for all interscholastic athletics for one year.

Basically, the Awards rule prohibits a high school athlete from accepting ANY award from ANY source for participation in baseball, basketball, bowling (when conducted as a school activity), boxing, cross-country, football, golf, gymnastics, hockey, skiing, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track or wrestling. The minimum penalty is one semester of ineligibility.

The exceptions to the rule: The athlete may accept a trophy, medal, ribbon, badge, plaque, cup, banner, picture or ring valued at no more than three dollars.

The athlete may accept a regular school letter award, providing only one such award is made per sport season.

Banquets, luncheons, dinners, trips and admissions to athletic events, if accepted in kind, are not prohibited.

Costs of engraving are not included in the three-dollar limit on awards.

Rain Erases Bobo's Blast

WASHINGTON (AP) — Threatened still with a dive into tenth place in the American League, the Detroit Tigers are trying again in two games with the Washington Senators tonight after being saved by rain Friday night.

With four Washington runs in after a grand slam home run by former Tiger Bobo Osborne, Friday night's two-night doubleheader was washed out in the second inning of the opener by a downpour.

Nothing counted—including a homer by Al Kaline.

The Tigers, only one game out of the cellar after starting their road trip with two straight defeats from the Chicago White Sox, got immediate rough treatment from the Senators.

Osborne, abandoned by Detroit this spring hit his homer off Don Mossi in the first inning. The blow sent the veteran lefthander to the showers for the second straight time. Kaline hit his home run in the second.

In tonight's double bill, Jim Bunning (1-4) and Hank Amsure (3-0) will pitch for Detroit against Washington's Art Quirk (0-0) and Claude Osteen (0-3).

A silver lining—from far away Tennessee—did shine through the dark clouds for Detroit Friday night.

Lary Looking Better: Frank Lary, trying for a comeback, pitched five scoreless innings for Knoxville in helping his Sally League temporary clubmates to a 5-1 victory over Nashville.

Lary, hopeful of working his arm into shape, did not yield a walk. He struck out two men. He also hit a home run, a 355-foot drive in the fifth inning.

The plan had been for Lary to work six or seven innings. But the night turned cool and he called it enough after five frames.

No Optimism In Spartan Grid Circles: EAST LANSING — The happy glow of optimism which frequently envelops the Michigan State football scene, isn't there this year.

All is not gloom, either, but just about everyone close to the situation — assistant coaches, practice sideliners, press, radio and TV observers — tend to go down the line with Head Coach Duffy Daugherty's characterization of his team as "one big question mark."

The spring practice routine started Monday, April 8, on a querulous note due to a complication of factors and ended much the same way with a lackluster Green and White game (intra-squad) last Saturday, May 11.

Using the Green and White game as a yardstick, the big job of preparing for the 1963 schedule has just begun.

ERNE DAVIS

Davis, 1961's Top Gridder, Dead At 23

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Ernie Davis, the nation's top collegiate football player of 1961, died in Lakeside Hospital early today.

The 23-year-old All-America half-back and Heisman Trophy winner was stricken with leukemia at the College All-Star camp last July.

He was prevented from playing last fall in the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League last season.

He underwent a conditioning program after the football season ended and played basketball with a team of Browns' players, but quit in February. He had been working on a film study for the Browns.

A spokesman for the Browns said funeral arrangements have not been completed, but said services probably would be held Monday or Tuesday in Elmira, N.Y., Davis' home town.

Davis died at 2 a.m., but the announcement was withheld by the Browns for nearly seven hours until his next of kin were notified.

He entered the hospital Thursday afternoon, apparently unaware that death was imminent.

He told Browns' officials he probably would be out in a couple of days. He had been undergoing periodic checkups at the hospital for several months.

Arthur B. Modell, Browns' president, said, "It will be a long time before we see a boy like Ernie Davis again, as an athlete or as a man."

The diagnosis of acute leukemia was withheld from Davis and the public for several weeks. Doctors first diagnosed it definitely in an examination at the hospital last Aug. 1. It later was confirmed by seven medical experts who examined laboratory specimens in Cleveland.

Browns' club officials held an "off-the-record" news conference on Aug. 9 to explain the situation to news media representatives. It was at that conference that information was relayed on a confidential basis that Davis only six to 12 months to live.

Graveret Takes Easy Net Win From Flippers; Go To Stambaugh Tuesday

Marquette Graveret eased through a dual tennis meet with Kingsford Friday in straight sets, losing less than two games per match. The tally was 6-0.

John Beldo took the No. 1 singles match, 6-0, 6-1, from Gene Kangas, while Matt Bennett beat Roy Steinke and Richard Sondergerger defeated Bob Marsh without dropping a game.

In doubles, Greg Seppanen-John Stindt had the longest match of the day, downing Don Manni and Ron Poisson, 6-3, 6-1; Jon Magnuson and Pete MacDougall beat Bill McCarthy-Randy Trumble, 6-1, 6-2, and Dennis Betway-Dean Booklund beat Randy Brookington-Paul Santoni, 6-2, 6-1.

Graveret goes to Stambaugh on Tuesday, hosts Escanaba on Thursday next week.

Marquette City Softball Slate Includes 10 Games: Here is the softball schedule for next week in the Marquette City League.

Monday — At Hurley Field, Syria's Barbers at Herb's Flyers and Remillard II at City Merchants; Shoreland II at Hon-Camp and Mangum at Dormitory.

Tuesday — At Hurley Field, Remillard I vs. South Marquette; Wednesday — At Hurley Field, Remillard II at Shoreland, South Marquette at Syria's; Dormitory at Hon-Camp.

Thursday — At Hurley Field, City Merchants at Herb's Flyers; Remillard I at Mangum. Late games, Tuesday and Thursday, are Tri-City League contests.

Entry fees are due June 1.

Jim Depew To Succeed Bob Johnson As Eben Basketball Coach: Robert Johnson, varsity basketball and track coach at Eben for the past three years, has resigned from all coaching duties effective at the close of the present school year.

Depew is from Munising, Simpson was a Negaunee High graduate.

How Times Have Changed!: LOS ANGELES (AP) — Little Jim Beatty of the United States and Peter Snell of New Zealand shared victory tributes today but there won't be any need to revise the world record book of track and field after Friday night's Coliseum Rays.

None was threatened. Excellent Times: A crowd of 32,450 turned out for this 23rd annual event, with these major results: Snell, world record holder for the mile, easily won in what he frankly conceded was the disappointing time of 4:00.3.

Two Schools Skip Regionals

The entry list was down to 12 teams, including 187 high school boys, because the start of the Regional Track meets at Memorial Field, today.

Michigan did not enter, and Trenary withdrew from the "D" regional, leaving Champion, Channing, Eben, Felch, National Mine and Republic on the roster.

The Class A-B field included Gwynn, Iron Mountain, Ishpeming, Marquette Baraga, Marquette Graveret, and Negaunee High Schools.

Set to get under way this morning, with running event finals beginning at 1:15 this afternoon, the meet was to run until about 4 p.m.

Four 'Derby' Winners Run In Preakness

BALTIMORE (AP) — Four of the Preakness horses today were to be sporting derbies and hoping to pick up a cloak of Black-Eyed Susans.

The derbies are figurative and the Susans artificial. But owners of 3-year-olds prize them as much as the money.

The 87th Preakness brings together the winners of derbies from both coasts, the Midwest and Kentucky.

John W. Galbreath's Chateaugay boasts the most cherished, the Kentucky Derby of two weeks ago. T. D. Buhl's Lemon Twist wears the most recent, the Illinois Derby of last Saturday.

Michael and Jack Stein's On My Honor was the California Derby winner April 20, and Rex Ellsworth's Candy Spots took the Florida Derby March 30.

The other four Preakness entries, Harry F. Guggenheim's Never Bend, Jacnot Stables' Country Square, Mrs. Charles D. Moran's Sky Wonder, and William B. Robinson's Rural Retreat would settle right now for winning a blanket of Black-Eyed Susans — actually daisies with their centers painted with black shoe polish.

And, of course, the winner's prize of $127,500 which can't be topped in any race for 3-year-olds. Candy Spots was undefeated in six races entering the Kentucky Derby. Now the spotlight is on Chateaugay, winner of all four starts this year and causing wonder if he is the long-awaited ninth Triple Crown champion.

None since Citation in 1948 has been able to conquer the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont, which is next month. The decision in the Preakness will be shown on television 4:30-5:00 p.m. EST through CBS.

Weeks, Washington Snap Marks; Northern Takes Tech Invitational Track Contest

HOUGHTON — Northern Michigan thunders disregarded pouring rain Friday to run up a total of 80 points and smash two meet records in capturing the 14th annual Michigan Tech Invitational Track Meet here.

Finishing second was Michigan Tech with 71½ points, followed by Son Tech 30½, St. Norbert 28½, Superior State, Wis. 11½, and Suomi 0.

Northern Michigan's Harold Weeks won the high jump with a record-breaking leap of 6 feet one inch — half an inch over the old mark, while his teammate, Al Washington, set a new meet record of 9.75 in the 100-yard dash, smashing the old record of 10.0.

Chris Waldhelm of Michigan Tech set new meet records of 15.25 in the high hurdles and 24.9 in the low hurdles. The old marks were 15.5 and 25.3 respectively.

Weeks also took the pole vault, at 11 feet. Gary Smith of Northern won the broad jump at 21-7 and took a third in the high hurdles. He tied for second in the high jump.

Art Wenzlaff won the javelin throw at 167-8, and placed second behind Barry Gay's 125-0¼ discus toss. Art was fifth in the shot put.

Gary Silc was second to Gay's 46-3¼ in the shot, and fourth in the discus. Washington, in addition to his century record, was second to Jofre Scores 38th 'KO' In Defending Bantam Ring Title.

MANILA (AP) — Brazil's Eder Jofre scored his 38th knockout in 48 fights tonight, successfully defending his world bantamweight championship against Johnny Jamito of the Philippines. Jamito failed to answer the bell for the 12th round.

It was scored a technical knockout in the 12th round. Jofre, 117½ pounds, was making the sixth defense of the bantamweight crown. He has won all of his defenses by knockouts. Jamito weighed 117½.

Retired jockey Eddie Arcaro won the triple crown of racing with Whirlaway in 1941 and with Citation in 1948. The triple crown consists of the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont.

Not A Hit Off Nottebart; Braves Castoff First Colt To Join Baseball's Elite: HOUSTON (AP) — Don Nottebart, a relatively unknown right hander, has joined baseball's elite by pitching the first Houston Colt 40s pitcher against the Philadelphia Phillies.

A three-run homer by Howie Goss and a 4-for-4 night by Carl Warwick, who also homered, gave Nottebart his 4-1 victory Friday night.

Second In Week: It was the "second no-hitter in the majors this year, coming six days after Sandy Koufax of Los Angeles pitched his against the San Francisco Giants. It was the first in which the hitless team has scored a run since July 1951, when Bob Feller of Cleveland no-hit Detroit, 2-1.

Bowsfield Tough; Allison Blasts Three

(By The Associated Press) Another superb pitching job by Ted Bowsfield and a herculean hitting performance by Bob Allison have scrambled the standings at the opposite ends of the American League.

Bowsfield, who no-hit Minnesota for eight innings last Saturday before settling for a two-hit victory, turned in a masterful three-hitter Friday night as the Kansas City Athletics blanked Boston 2-0. The setback halted the Red Sox' winning string at five games and dumped them out of first place — six percentage points back of the Chicago White Sox, whose game at Baltimore was rained out.

3 Consecutive HR's: Allison blasted three home runs in consecutive at bats, and the faltering Minnesota Twins struggled out of the cellar with an 11-4 romp over Cleveland. The Twins had dropped four straight, seven of their last eight and 10 of 12 before erupting against the Indians — but they now hold ninth place by one-half game over Washington.

Match Muscles: Joe Peppone of the New York Yankees and Leon Wagner of Los Angeles also put on a display of muscle with two homers apiece as the Yanks nipped the Angels 4-3. Peppone's pair of two-run clouts supported the nifty four-hit pitching of Jim Bouton.

Holy Name Edge Royals In Golf Meet

ESCANABA — John Frenn's sparkling 74 boosted Escanaba Holy Name toward its 13½-10½ golf victory over Marquette Baraga Central this week.

The meet left the Crusader linksmen with a 5-1 dual meet record for the season.

Ed Zarsky's 85 was wasted against Frenn's good tally, but, for the Royals, Tom Payant shot an 88 to edge Warren Starchina by a stroke; Dave Dupras shot an 89 to win his match by five; Pete Andriacchi and EHN opponent Bob Winchester each shot a 92; Frank Perlich scored a 95 to beat Dave DeLorge by five.

Jim LeMire of Holy Name defeated Bill Johnson of Baraga, 95 to 107; Duane St. Cyr of EHN downed Dennis Zyskowski, 97-112, and Joe Snow defeated Brendan Biolo of BBCHS, 98-118.

Both teams are expected to enter the Upper Peninsula tournament at Ishpeming next Friday.

Golf: The Stroke and the Wheelers share the lead in the Marquette Golf & Country Club Twilight League after two weeks of competition, Tuesday's pairings:

DRIVERS: Bill Herby, Don Cooley, Ken Peretz, Bob Thompson, Mark Payant, Larry Orville, John Danlike, Bob Luke, Frank Perlich, Ed Everett, Lloyd Seestoff.

Housewives Loop Tops Off Season With Awards Fete

The Marquette Housewives bowling league ended its season with a feast at The Chalet, to honor the top keepers of the year.

The Now-Then team took all the honors, as Geneva Powell had high average, high match and high game to go with the team titles.

Edith Tauch of the Pin Splitters was the most improved bowler for the season, and six members were saluted for perfect attendance.

Officers for next year are Mary Anderson as president, Helen Kowacki as vice president, Ethel Anderson as secretary-treasurer, and Ingrid Barkow, sergeant-at-arms. Retiring officers were President Dorothy Carlson, Vice President Aileen Hakala, Secretary-Treasurer Lydia McAuliffe and Sgt. at Arms Ethel Anderson.

Tony O'Donnell, Michigan State singles tennis ace, won four straight title championships between 1958 and 1961 in his home town of London, Ontario.

'Bows Up To 8 Lbs. Taken In Peninsula

Although the rainbow trout spawning run has begun to taper off, some 'bows up to eight pounds were taken during the past week in the Upper Peninsula, the conservation department reported.

Rainbows in the six to eight-pound class were taken at the mouth of the Rock River in Alger County and also in the rapids below and above the foot bridge. Heavier runs were expected there next week.

Brook Trout Catches

An eight and a half pound rainbow was taken recently on the Two-Hearted River in Luce County.

A few rainbows were being taken on the Falls River at L'Anse early each morning, the largest being a seven-pounder. Trollers at the mouth of the Anna River in Munising continued to pick up a few bows on spawn bags and flat fish.

Several very fine catches of brook trout ranging in size from eight to 12 inches were taken from the Escanaba River south and west of Ishpeming, mostly on wet flies. Hemlock, Rock and Mike Lakes in the Munising area have been producing some good trout and the Mosquito River, also in Alger County, has given up a few nice-sized trout.

Coasters, Splake, Lakers

Fair coaster fishing was reported on Lake Superior in the vicinity of Big Bay.

Several good catches of brown trout were made on the main branch of the Escanaba River in the Gwinn area.

Squaw Lake southwest of Republic continued to produce good-sized splake.

Some lake trout three pounds and over were taken in L'Anse aux Pins.

Northern Pike Hot Spot

Several menominee were taken at the mouth of the Rock River on small hooks and worms. Menominee fishing was reported very good at the mouth of the Little Two-Hearted River.

For warm water fishing, one of the hottest spots was the Bond Falls Basin at Calderwood in Ontonagon County. A party of three Sidnaw fishermen — Paul Ober and his son, Robert, and Fred McIntire — caught 13 northern pike there in less than three hours. The fish had a cumulative weight of 73 pounds. The party released a number of legal-sized northern pike weighing two pounds and over.

Pike fishing also was good on the Blind Sucker Flooding Area near Grand Marais.

Lake Michigan was producing good catches of walleyes, and fishing for walleyes on the Michigan River has picked up. Walleye fishing on Teal Lake in Negaunee was holding up well.

Suckers were running in Goldmine Creek north of Ishpeming, where people were taking them by the basket full. Use of spears is permitted there east of Deer Lake Road. Spearing of suckers was rather good also on the Big Indian River south of Munising, where spearing is legal between Federal Forest Highway 13 and the Wildwaters.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

AN EXPERT BASS FISHERMAN FLIPS HIS ROD TIP WHILE RETRIEVING A SURFACE PLUG TO GIVE THE LURE EXTRA ACTION. SOMETIMES HE STARTS THE RETRIEVE WHEN LURE LANDS—OR HE MAY LET IT LIE STILL BEFORE STARTING THE RETRIEVE. HE VARIES THE RETRIEVE WITH STOPS BETWEEN SHORT JERKS, TWITCHES, ET CETERA. THEN HE VARIES SPEED ON DIFFERENT RETRIEVES. MOST SUCCESSFUL BASS FISHERMEN AVOID STEADY RETRIEVES AS A RULE.

STREAMER TIPS

THE ONLY TEST FOR ANY STREAMER IS ITS APPEARANCE IN WATER. SELECT THOSE WITH GOOD ACTION THAT QUIVER AND 'PUSE.' SOME ANGLERS INSIST UPON AN OPTIC FEATHER (LIKE AN EYE) AND A TAG, TIED ON ANY TYPE THEY USE. ABOVE ARE 3 BASIC TYPES.

BUY 'MINNOW-SIZES' TO SUIT LOCAL FISH SIZES: LARGE, # 1-1-1/2; FOR LARGE BASS, TROUT, ETC.; MEDIUM TO SMALL SIZES, # 2-1/2 TO 3-1/2; FOR AVERAGE TROUT, ETC.; OR DOWN TO SMALL PERCH, ETC.

Alger Goose Porky Victim

Its body, wings and legs covered with porcupine quills, this Canada goose was found dead near the headwaters of the Seven-Mile Creek in northern Alger County by Conservation Officer Bruce J. Andrews of Munising. Biologists at the Cusino Wildlife Experiment Station speculated that the goose met its death in attempting to defend its nest against a porcupine that had wandered into the area. Cause of death appeared to be from quills lodged in the chest area. Sex of the bird was not determined, but both male and female honkers defend their nests. (Mining Journal photo).

Great Lakes Tapped For Fish Plants

For several years certain inland lakes have been drawn upon for lake trout eggs which, ultimately, go into the Great Lakes as planters. Now the Great Lakes are being tapped to supply certain types of fish — especially walleyes and northern pike — for some inland waters.

In a community project conceived and financed by the Indian Lake Property Owners Association, with support of sportsmen of the Manistique area and close supervision by conservation department personnel, Lake Michigan fish resources are being drawn upon to provide a "shot in the arm" for fish populations in Indian Lake near Manistique.

One Protest Sounded

Commercial fishermen were hired to do the actual netting of walleyes and northern in Lake Michigan. Several hundred walleyes, averaging 17 inches, already have been transferred, plus more than 50 northern averaging 25 inches.

U.P. Native Ending Long State Career

Durward Robson, chief of the conservation department's field administration division since 1947, has announced he will retire June 15.

He leaves a career with the department which began in 1933 when he headed a CCC camp in Montmorency County. Two years later he was placed in charge of fire towers and communication, and in 1937 became assistant chief of the division and head of the forest fire section.

Spent Youth In U. P.

Under his leadership, the field administration division retained its leadership among the nation's top conservation law enforcement and forest fire control organizations.

Veteran Of World War I

He served in World War I in France and Germany with the Red Arrow Division.

When asked how he plans to spend his retirement, his reply was: "I'm going to hunt and fish and sailboat."

SLEEPS ON BACK
The other sleeps in the water on its back.

Quick Shots

Sandhill cranes may be establishing a colony on Drummond Island. G. A. Ammann, Lansing, game division specialist for the conservation department, says the birds are breeding there now. Last fall six birds were seen on the island south of Sault Ste. Marie, and two years ago Ammann saw the first pair he ever observed there during his many years of game checking.

Ammann also reports that sharp-tailed grouse appear to have built up a slightly better population than last year in some areas of the Upper Peninsula. He said "there are a few more at the Seney National Wildlife Refuge and in the Bullock Ranch area" of Schoolcraft County.

The number of sea lampress captured in barriers on Upper Peninsula and Wisconsin streams emptying into Lake Superior now stands at 884 this year, compared with 1,998 during the same period last year.

Ronald M. Hays of Negaunee has been appointed a certified rifle instructor. He was announced by the National Rifle Association of America. He passed a specified series of tests and served a prescribed period of time in training activities before receiving certification.

The Marquette area had the greatest precipitation shortage of any area in the Upper Peninsula for the period January 1962 to March 1963, according to the Michigan Water Resources Commission. The deficiency, based on 1931-1960 normals, was between 8.1 and 14 inches for an area extending roughly from Marquette to Gwinn to Ishpeming.

Tilden Lake Winter Fishing Asked By Ishpeming Juniors

The newly-organized Ishpeming Junior Conservation Club's first resolution calls on the conservation department to open Tilden Lake near Ishpeming to winter fishing. The resolution asks that the lake be stocked with lake trout only and that the limit be set at two fish per day. The lake now has brook trout, rainbow trout and splake.

Dedication Of Tepee Lake Site June 2nd

Dedication of the new Tepee Lake Camp and Picnic Ground on Forest Highway 16 south of Kenyon is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, June 2.

The recreation area includes a 16-unit camp ground, picnic site, beach and boat landing. Construction of the area has been a cooperative venture between the Ottawa National Forest Improvement Association, of the Kenyon-Trout Creek-Sidnaw-Ewen area and the U.S. Forest Service.

Speakers will be Congressman John Bennett and Assistant Chief Clare Hendee of the Forest Service. Hendee was district ranger at Kenyon from 1932 to 1935 and supervisor of the Ottawa National Forest from 1935 to 1936. Other features of the program will be performances of the Ewen High School Band and the L'Anse Golden Eagles Drum and Bugle Corps. Smokey, the fire prevention bear, also has promised to be present.

All residents are invited to attend and become acquainted with this new forest facility.

Ottawa Forest Recreation Projects To Double Capacity

Outdoor recreation area development on the Ottawa National Forest is taking a needed stride forward, according to John Wernham, at Ironwood. The program under way will more than double the capacity on the forest when the sites are completed and all the facilities installed.

New sites under construction are located at Bobcat, Pomeroy, Moosehead, Taylor, Henry, Tepee, Elbow, Redboat, Thrush, Moraine, Deadman, Brule and James Lakes and Gorge and Potowatomi Falls on the Black River. New boat landings are being constructed at all these lakes. New campgrounds are under development at Tepee, Bobcat, Henry, Pomeroy, Moosehead and Taylor Lakes. Picnic areas under construction are located at Brule Lake and Gorge and Potowatomi Falls. Bobcat Lake and Tepee Lake have development of picnic areas and swimming beaches under way.

Existing sites on which major rehabilitation projects are under way are at Bob, Golden, Kidney and Imp Lakes. Expansion of existing campground sites is being done at Ottawa, Marion and Norway Lakes. Minor rehabilitation and expansion is progressing on several other recreation sites.

North Country Notes

Savage Forest Battle
TWO Iron River men, Anton Skrivanie Jr. and Julius Omillion, went into the woods near the headquarters of Cooks Run this spring and stumbled upon the scene of a rare and brutal forest killing. Scattered about them lay the remains of an adult female bear and her two cubs. Huge fang marks were found in the skull of the adult bear. Both hind legs and one foreleg of one of the cubs had been eaten away. Only the skull of the other cub remained. Nearby Skrivanie and Omillion found a bear den and signs of a savage struggle. After returning to Iron River, the two men notified the conservation department. A few days later they guided Ivan Thompson, Crystal Falls, district game supervisor, and Duane Wenzel, Crystal Falls, habitat biologist, to the scene.

Based on the evidence at hand, Thompson said it appeared that the three bears were victims of a large and hungry male bear. It looked as though the male, probably hungry after a winter of hibernation, had been rummaging in the area when he accidentally came across the den harboring the female and her two cubs. The female, weighing between 190 and 200 pounds, probably had chased her cubs into the den and then turned to defend them from the intruder. Broken saplings around the den suggested that the mother bear staged a valiant fight for her young before being killed by the male, who not only mangled her skull but also ripped open her belly with a swipe of one of his powerful legs and slashed her throat. After devouring one cub and eating the legs of the other, the male bear covered the remains with a mound of leaves, the customary manner of caching kills.

ALTHOUGH cannibalism among bears has been established, Thompson said it was highly unusual for Skrivanie and Omillion to have discovered this vivid evidence of cannibalism. Both Thompson and Wenzel said they had never encountered an instance of this kind during their careers with the conservation department.—KSL.

Indian River Country Offers Fine Canoeing

If you've never paddled a canoe but would like to do so, it isn't wise to shoot rapids on the first try. "If canoeing seems dangerous to you, and more like hard work than pleasure, you are right—if you've never mastered the technique of canoeing," says John Trotter, Escanaba, Hiawatha National Forest supervisor. "But, if you're sound in mind and limb, and accept the challenge, you'll find that canoeing is not just backbreaking paddling—it's pleasure, and the work and the risks are reduced by know-how."

You'll soon be thinking in terms of cruising and sculling, slow turns and short turns and backing and towing and what to do when the waves are running and offshore winds make it difficult to beach. The scenic boat and canoe trips beneath pine and hardwood tree-covered ridges are only part of the information in the Indian River Country folder. It also provides information on resorts, campgrounds and hiking trails in this vacation-land.

There's no assurance that you'd ever keep an even bow with an Indian scout, even when you've mastered technique, but you'd not be so far behind in his wake, and your style would produce an appreciative grunt.

Don't be too ambitious at first. It'll be 99 per cent perspiration for a while but that percentage will decrease as your knowledge and stamina build up. Get to know your canoe, its peculiarities. You'll gain confidence. You can pick up many pointers on waters close to home. The Indian River Country in the Hiawatha National Forest offers both streams and lakes for the canoeist. A new folder on this Indian River Country is now available from the forest supervisor at Escanaba or from the district ranger at Manistique or at Munising.

Choice Of Vessel
Outdoor magazines and books will initiate you into the mysteries and shortcuts of canoeing. You can then decide on your choice of canoe — canvas, fiberglass or aluminum. Select a proper paddle. There's an unwritten rule that specifies a stern paddle should be

Lake Trout Catch Plan To Be Aired
A meeting to review the U. S. Bureau of Commercial Fisheries 1963 lake trout assessment program for Michigan's lake Superior water has been set for 1 p. m., May 21, at the Union Building of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology, Houghton.

The meeting, requested by State Sen. Charles McManiman, Houghton, was arranged for by the Michigan Department of Conservation.

BORN SCALELESS
Fish are not born with scales. A baby fish is born naked of scales, later sprouting them from under its skin.

Others Want To Share
Eight of more than 100 hundred commercial fishermen on the lake have been designated to catch the 22,000 lake trout and will furnish the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries with information regarding the effectiveness of their sea lamprey control program. Michigan's Lake Superior commercial fishermen not selected to participate in this lake trout assessment program believe that they, too, should have opportunity to catch an equal amount of the 22,000 lake trout ordered to be taken in the project.

Still Unable To Meet Demand
"This compares with the 219 family unit capacity of the Ottawa at the close of the 1962 use season," said Wernham. "Installation of these facilities will more than double our capacity, but it appears that we will still be unable to meet the increasing demand."

Other facilities under construction are toilets, fireplaces, grills, garbage can holders and benches. The more than 600 rustic signs required are being prepared in the shops. Most of the material was purchased locally, and all of the construction is being done in this area.

BROWN TROUT TIPS
To improve your fishing success with brown trout, study a stream in the day, fish it at night. Drift your bait down into the upper end of likely deep holes and move it only occasionally. Allow plenty of slack line; a brown that feels line drag will spit out the bait.

500 Expected To Take Part In MUCC's 1963 Convention In U. P.

Approximately 500 persons are expected to attend the 26th annual convention of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs in Iron River on June 20 through 23.

They will act on resolutions submitted by the 319 groups throughout Michigan that are affiliated with MUCC.

Among the resolutions will be the following, submitted by Upper Peninsula MUCC affiliates:

● That the conservation department be given authority to regulate or supervise the building of roads, bridges and sewers so as to minimize bank erosion and lessen stream and lake pollution. (Bay de Noc Conservation League.)

● That MUCC seek legislation to change the camp deer regulations from buck only to deer of either sex. (Rock Community Sportsmen's Club.)

● That MUCC request the Michigan Water Resources Commission to immediately investigate the alleged dumping of raw sewage in the East Branch of the Escanaba River by the Village of Gwinn. (Upper Peninsula MUCC affiliates.)

● That the ruffed grouse season be shortened to 20 days. (Bay de Noc Conservation League.)

● That MUCC go on record opposing the discontinuation of the present bounty system. (Delta County Sportsmen's Club and Rock Community Sportsmen's Club.)

● That MUCC go on record favoring a uniform opening date for the deer hunting season throughout the state. (Delta County Sportsmen's Club.)

● That the one-buck law be rescinded. (Bay de Noc Conservation League and Rock Community Sportsmen's Club.)
