Yank Boats Being Held In Ecuador

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ecuador rejected today Secretary of State Dean Rusk's plea for release of two U.S. tuna boats as a preliminary to working out a solution of the dispute over their fishing in waters off Ecuador.

Instead, the State Department said, Ecuador has notified the United States that the two seized U.S. vessels have been taken to an Ecuadorian port and will be subject to the procedures of Ecuadorian law.

SALINAS, Ecuador (AP)—Ecuador held 21 tuna boats from San Diego, Calif., today for alleged illegal fishing within its territorial waters.

Two boats, the White Star and the Ranger, faced charges originally. But Commander Francisco Espinosa of the navy general staff said Thursday night the fleet of 21 would be impounded and the captains tried if they lacked proper permits.

Show of Solidarity
Nineteen of the boats reported they accompanied the White Star and Ranger to port in a show of solidarity. The navy said, however, its warships escorted all the tuna boats to this port, 225 miles southwest of Quito.

The tuna skippers claim they fished 13 miles offshore, while Ecuador contends they were only 3 miles off shore. The United States recognizes only a three-mile territorial limit.

Demands Release
Secretary of State Dean Rusk demanded release of the White Star and the Ranger and called for negotiations to settle the dispute.

Jet Travel At Age 100
DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—William Robert Huckaby did something different Thursday on his 100th birthday—he flew in a jet airliner from Houston to Dallas.

"First time in the air in my life," he said, "but it's not too much different from settin' in the living room."

Huckaby, a retired farmer, lives with a son at Pasadena, a Houston suburb.

"Never fought a war, never killed a man, never took a drink, used tobacco or cussed," Huckaby summed up his long life.

Is that the reason he's still going strong at 100?
"Oh no," he said. "Just too busy working to count the years, and pretty soon they mounted up."

Republicans Call For Clear Review Of Foreign Policy
WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican leaders called on administration officials today for a clear and concise review in Congress of President Kennedy's foreign policies.

The Senate-House GOP leadership conference, headed by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, said in a statement that it wants to support a bipartisan approach to international problems. But members said they don't know which policies the administration is following.

"The concept of bipartisan support for foreign policy can only be effective when the supporters know what policy they are asked to support," the Republican leaders said.

Police Use Tear Gas To Break Up Riot
GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Police used tear gas to break up an antigovernment riot Thursday night outside a cemetery in Georgetown during the funeral of the minister for home affairs, Claude Christian.

Premier Cheddi Jagan and his wife, who were attending the ceremony, were stoned by hostile demonstrators.

AEC Announces Study On Fallout
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission announced today a broad new study of the effects on men, animals and plants from radioactive fallout from nuclear explosions.

The AEC said the comprehensive, long-range program will place special emphasis on studying early fallout—the kind that follows a nuclear detonation within hours or days.

The work has been assigned to the AEC Livermore, Calif., laboratory. During its first year, the program will cost about $2 million.

Union Local Pickets At Ionia Hospital
IONIA (AP)—Pickets carrying signs emphasizing that they are not on strike appeared today at Ionia State Hospital as authorized earlier by Michigan State Employees Union Local 281.

The union protests the May 20 dismissal of attendant Walter McCabe, a union steward and 16 years a hospital employee. He was dismissed in a dispute over a questionnaire inquiring into employee organizations and outside activities.

Navy Photographs Wreckage Of Sub

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—Searchers have photographed wreckage lying on the ocean floor some 8,400 feet below the surface and have identified it as the hull, diving plane and sail area of the nuclear submarine Thresher.

Thresher sank April 10 during a deep sea test dive with 129 men aboard.

The photographs, taken by the research vessel Conrad, were en route today to Boston. They will then be flown to the Navy Court of Inquiry at Portsmouth, N.H.

The court is investigating the sea disaster, which occurred some 220 miles east of Boston.

Bathyscaphe
The bathyscaphe Trieste is standing by in Boston, the Navy said, and will proceed to the scene if the Court of Inquiry decides more photographs are needed.

Dr. J. Lamar Worzel, assistant director of the Lamont Geological Observatory whose researchers photographed the wreckage Thursday, said the pictures were definitely of the sunken submarine.

Experts have said that if the Thresher sank to a depth of 8,400 feet, she could not possibly have survived. Water pressure at that level would be 3,730 pounds per square inch, compared with the sea-level pressure of 32 pounds.

The Trieste is constructed so that it can descend far deeper than 8,000 feet with men and cameras aboard and withstand the pressure.

Underwater Cameras
The Conrad and other search vessels have obtained their photographs with underwater camera systems lowered by cable nearly a mile and a half below the water's surface.

Tinker Bell Irks Bride
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A wedding bed is no place for a pet leopard, says Patricia Spades.

And unless, Tinker Bell, a 10-week old leopard, learns to sleep in a cage, Miss Spades' marriage to Frank Michelberger is off.

Tinker Bell only likes to sleep with her master.

"Patricia and Tinker Bell just don't seem to hit it off right," said Michelberger Thursday. "I just want to see how far one could go to make wild animal tame."

"I like the little stinker," countered Patricia, "but I'm darned if it's going to sleep in our bed."

Michelberger didn't enlighten newsmen as to his next move.

Labor Unions Stage Strike In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—After riotous demonstrations, Peronist labor unions launched a 24-hour general strike today to press for government action to ease unemployment.

The strike, aimed at paralyzing the troubled country, was called by the 2.5-million-member General Confederation of Labor to climax a week of protest. The CGT is dominated by followers of former Dictator Juan D. Peron, now in exile in Spain.

All unions except the white collar workers have agreed to support the strike, which threatened to slow public transportation to a crawl.

Skeleton Crews
Unions promised to keep skeleton crews manning utilities, hospitals, long distance telephones, airport control towers and other essential installations.

The strike began at midnight after a day of violence in which federal police used tear gas and high pressure water on about 12,000 marching workers. Half a dozen demonstrators were reported slightly injured.

In one clash, 5,000 men and women workers, led by Jose Alonso, CGT secretary-general, battled police for more than an hour until a police commissioner assured them they could demonstrate in peace.

Tear Gas
Tear gas scattered 7,000 workers in another demonstration.

Airmen Go To Bat For Holly Anne

UTICA (AP)—Three-year-old Holly Anne Smith is to have a heart operation in August.

Staunch friends and supporters in this will include S-Sgt. Jim Mc Brien and fellow airmen at Selfridge Air Force Base at Mount Clemens.

Few knew of the problem facing Holly Anne, one of five children of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smith Jr. of Utica.

One, however, has been Sgt. Mc Brien, a Utica neighbor and fellow church member of the Smiths.

Donate Blood
At Mc Brien's suggestion, 37 reservists of the 493rd Troop Carrier Wing and 305th Air Rescue Squadron donated a pint of blood each for Holly Anne's use at the time of the operation.

Holly Anne was born Christmas Day, 1959, with an opening in her heart. For her first nine months of life she wore leg braces. She then could discard them. But the heart condition remains. It could cripple her. Doctors at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit hope to avoid this with the operation.

Another Concern
Mc Brien, besides his concern for Holly Anne, has another interest. He and his wife, parents of twin sons, lost their first baby because of a heart ailment.

155 Lose Lives In Holiday Traffic

TRAFFIC accidents across the nation claimed 155 lives Thursday, a record for a one-day Memorial Day observance. The toll surpassed the National Safety Council estimate of 130 for the 30-hour period.

The previous record for a Memorial Day observance of 30 hours was 109 in 1956.

The count of traffic fatalities covered the period from 6 p.m. Wednesday to midnight Thursday.

Estimate
The National Safety Council had estimated that between 90 and 130 persons would be killed on the highways and streets during the holiday period. The council's latest report showed that traffic accidents in the first four months of this year killed 11,630 persons, an average of nearly one a day.

This year's Memorial Day traffic death toll compared to 107 for the 1962 holiday, also a period of 30 hours. In 1951, the only other one-day observance of the holiday since World War II, traffic deaths numbered 81, which is a record low for any one-day observance of any holiday.

Memorial Day accidents killed six persons in Michigan, State Police reported today.

But the death count was less than in any recent 30-hour Memorial Day vacation period, police said. Last year there were 10 fatalities, and in 1956 nine died during the period covered in an Associated Press tabulation which began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and ended at midnight Thursday.

Final Church Sacrament Given Pontiff

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A sudden release put Pope John XXIII near death today. Roman Catholic prelates administered the communion, viaticum and extreme unction, the sacraments for persons in danger of dying.

One of the Pope's doctors, Piero Mazzoni of Rome, was quoted as saying, "It can be a matter of hours—or of days."

That pronouncement was relayed to newsmen by Raimondo Manzini, director of the Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano, after an afternoon visit to the sickroom. Manzini was in tears.

"Pope Is Grave"
"The Pope is grave, very grave," the Vatican radio announced. The new crisis is most grave.

The 81-year-old spiritual ruler of Catholics, who had appeared to be making a strong comeback from a near fatal crisis Tuesday, was reported failing rapidly.

It was a situation that he has regarded serenely.

"Don't worry too much about me," he told his chief physician, Prof. Antonio Gasbarrini, on Gasbarrini's departure Thursday for his home in Bologna. "The bags are packed and I am ready, in fact very ready, to go."

New Out Break
Gasbarrini was recalled from Bologna to assist physicians already on the scene when the emergency developed today.

It was believed the Pope suffered a new outbreak of internal bleeding, provoked by an internal stomach growth which had troubled him for a year. So far vaguely defined, it could be a benign tumor, a cancer or an overgrowth of normal tissue.

A communique issued shortly after 4 p.m. reiterated that the Pope's condition was grave.

The Pope was in a simple iron bed that had once belonged to his predecessor, Pius XXII.

Pray!
"To all members of the Vatican staff, the word went out, 'Pray!'" Cardinals rushed to the Vatican. Only a few were admitted to the apartment where the Pope lay on a cast iron bed.

Among those admitted were Archbishop Angelo Dell'Acqua, substitute secretary of state; Gustavo Cardinal Cento of the Vatican Curia, and Raimondo Manzini, director of L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper.

It was a dramatic turn in the illness of the pontiff.

Tranquil Night
This morning the Vatican had said the Pope was continuing to rally. The press office said he spent a tranquil night.

Prelates were looking ahead to the Pope resuming activity.

Suddenly came the crisis that his doctors had feared—a crisis at a time when he was still weak from the last one.

Doctors reported the hemorrhaging had been halted Wednesday. The Pope's personal doctor, Prof. Antonio Gasbarrini, had returned to his home in Bologna.

Gasbarrini said he and his colleagues were confident the Pope would rally.

But he provided a possible clue to the new collapse.

He told newsmen then that Pope John should stay in bed, but had refused to do so.

TALLAHASSEE, FLA.:

Police Arrest 257 Antisegregationists

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Authorities used tear gas to stall one march by Negroes and arrested 257 during Thursday, the 10th straight day of antisegregation demonstrations in Florida's capital city.

Most of those arrested are students at Florida A&M (Negro) University, and 220 of them were ordered before State Judge Ben Willis today to answer contempt of court charges.

The other 37 are to appear in City Court Monday to face charges of unlawful assembly.

No Violence
There was no violence during the marches, aimed at segregated movie theaters. A series of sit-in demonstrations some time ago resulted in the quiet desegregation of lunch counters in the business district.

Plans remained unchanged for another massive protest of segregation at two white theaters tonight.

The mass arrests in Tallahassee provided the major development on the racial front Thursday, but antisegregation activity was popping in many points across the nation.

Plans
Integrationists made plans to increase the tempo of demonstrations against segregation in Jackson, Miss.

A Negro spokesman said a massive, Birmingham-type campaign will be launched in Los Angeles with total elimination of discrimination as its goal.

Cities experiencing racial demonstrations Thursday included Philadelphia, Chicago, Baltimore, Baton Rouge, La., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Cambridge, Md.

Only an hour before the negotiators announced agreement, police and pickets clashed as officers escorted some 80 to 100 workmen through the lines around the construction site. At least eight policemen and an undetermined number of pickets were hurt in the scuffle, apparently none seriously.

Firm Says Sugar Won't Get Scarce

NEW YORK (AP)—No shortage of sugar is threatened in the United States, the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange said today, despite roller coaster activity of sugar prices and talk about hoarding.

In a memorandum to three congressional committees investigating the sugar situation, the exchange quoted the U.S. Agriculture Department as saying that commitments from friendly nations exporting sugar indicates that the normal requirements of the United States will be met.

Misunderstanding
The exchange said the memorandum is designed to correct some misunderstanding of the role played by commodity exchanges in the free enterprise marketing system.

Among the points stressed is that exchanges neither buy nor sell commodities at any time for their own account.

The congressional investigations developed from the belief of some members of the Senate and House that the quick rise from about 2 1/2 to more than 12 cents a pound for raw sugar was caused in part by deliberate withholding by suppliers seeking exorbitant profits.

Supply, Demand
Sugar prices have dropped in recent days after skyrocketing.

The coffee and sugar exchange said the rise in sugar prices "is directly traceable to supply and demand. World sugar production has fallen while the world's consumption of sugar is rising."

19 Firms Express Interest In City's Revenue Bond Issue

Nineteen investment firms have already expressed interest in the $3,775,000 electric utility revenue bond sale which the City of Marquette will conduct in June.

Mrs. Price, Lifelong City Resident, Dies

Mrs. Ida M. Price, 85, of 401 N. Third St., died at 4:55 Wednesday afternoon in St. Mary's Hospital, following an illness of 10 weeks.

Mrs. Price was born on Jan. 20, 1878, in Marquette, and had been a lifelong resident here. She was a member of St. John's Church and the Altar Society of St. John's.

Pinocle Tourny Set Next Tuesday At New USO Club

Marquette County servicemen and their dependents are eligible to participate in a pinocle tournament to be held in the new USO Center here next Tuesday night.

The existing electric utility system, including the construction of a steam electric generating plant.

Bonds are not of a general obligation type of the city, but are to be payable solely from the revenues of the electric utility system of Marquette, subject only to payment of the expenses of administration, operation and maintenance and a statutory first lien thereon.

The bonds will be of equal standing and priority with electric utility revenue bonds of the city dated July 1, 1963, in their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium.

In its notice of sale, the city said the bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose proposal on the computations listed in the notice, produces the lowest interest cost to the city.

The city also specifies that the bidding firm must provide a certified cashier's check in the amount of $75,500, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the treasurer of the city, along with this proposal.

The legal consultants of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, Detroit, and the investment firm of Kenover, MacArthur & Co., Detroit, have been retained by the City of Marquette in connection with the bond issue sale.

"We evidently have a good credit rating," Mayor C. Fred Rydholm said on being notified of the high interest in the bond issue.

City Manager Thomas Moore said the city has received an AA rating on the upcoming bond issue.

"In 1956 the city had an A rating for the bond issue," Moore said, "which means that the rating for Marquette has gone up. The past performance in paying off the bond issue and the phenomenal rise in the earnings of the past few years undoubtedly have enabled the city to obtain the double A rating."

Test borings on the proposed power plant site, the present site of the Standard Oil Co.'s bulk plant on the water front in the Lower Harbor, are being made by an engineering firm.

At the same time city officials announced a special meeting of the Marquette City Commission would be held at 2 p. m. Monday, June 17, for the purpose of opening the sealed proposals on the revenue bond issue.

Efforts also are being made by the city to obtain federal assistance through the steam plant project through the Area Redevelopment

Administration's accelerated public works program.

Both Mayor Rydholm and City Manager Moore have gone to the Chicago regional office of the ARA in connection with the aid application.

The city's application is now pending before the Chicago ARA office and action, approving or disapproving, is expected soon.

Marquette stands a good chance of receiving some assistance, city officials believe, because the city is in a depressed area and because of its sound record in the electric utility field, city officials stated.

Among the investment companies which have expressed an interest in the city's electric utility revenue bonds are the following: Walston & Co., Chicago; Burns, Corbett & Pickard, Inc., Chicago; R. D. White & Co., New York; John Naveen & Co., Chicago; F. S. Smithers & Co., New York; Hutchison, Shockey & Co., Chicago; Bohn & Co., Inc., New York; Craig W. Atwater, Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., New York.

Wertheim & Co., First National City Bank, Chase Manhattan Bank, Phelps, Penn & Co., Halsey, Stuart & Co. and R. W. Pressprich & Co., all of New York; Eastman Dillon, Union Securities & Co., Chicago; Hornbrosler & Weeks, Boston; Stern Brothers & Co., Kansas City, Mo.; and Pohl & Co., Inc., Cincinnati.

Two Injured In Pair Of Area Crashes

Two persons were injured, two tickets issued and two cars damaged in a pair of accidents in Marquette Township yesterday, state police from the Marquette post reported this morning.

State troopers from the local post also investigated four other county accidents, which occurred yesterday and on Wednesday. Three injuries resulted from those crashes (see story on Ishpeming page).

In the worst of the two Marquette Township crackups on Memorial Day, two persons were injured: Ronald Baggett, 26, of 124 Blenheim Ave., Marquette, driver of the car involved in the crash, and his passenger, Clifford Peterson, 19, Route 1, Marquette. Both sustained lacerations of the face and were taken to St. Mary's Hospital by ambulance.

State police said the accident happened at 1:05 a. m. on County Road HE, 200 feet from County Road HD, when Baggett, driving south on HE, came around a left curve too fast and ran off the pavement, hitting a tree on the right side of the road.

Baggett was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law, and his 1954 sedan, damaged on the front end, was hauled from the scene by a wrecker.

At 5:45 p. m. yesterday, Henry Fetterhoff, 24, of 2252 Bancroft St., Marquette, lost control

The 1951 sedan, damaged on the right front, was able to be driven from the crash site.

The equipment will include such items as an x-ray diffraction unit, analog computer, refractometer, colorimeter, spectrophotometer, and oscilloscope.

Five Ph.D.s On Staff
Northern's chemistry curriculum has been revised in order to require more chemistry for prospective high school teachers.

The revision also will permit students, under certain circumstances, to obtain a secondary teaching certificate while complying with the minimum recommendations of the American Chemical Society.

Northern's chemistry staff is composed of five members, all with the doctor's degree.

Brush, Chimney Blazes Bring Out City's Firemen

Brush and chimney blazes brought out the city's fire department yesterday, but no serious damage resulted.

Firemen said the brush blaze occurred on Cliffs Dow Chemical Co. property, north of Memorial Field, and apparently was started by children playing with matches.

A large area was burned, with firemen using the booster hose off the No. 5 (500-gallon) pumper to put out the flames. Four firemen responded to the call, received at 3:38 p. m., and returned to the station at 4:58 p. m.

The chimney blaze occurred at the residence of Mrs. W. P. Chamberlain, 323 Spruce St. Firemen were called at 8:26 p. m., with the blaze being out on arrival. Nothing was used.

Five firemen responded to the call with the No. 2 (1,000-gallon) pumper and the service truck and they returned to the station at 8:38 p. m.

Michigan And Exports

Michigan currently gets about 5 per cent of its annual income, estimated at from $900 million to $1.4 billion, from exports. The state has about 460,000 persons employed full or part time in the manufacture of things which are sold abroad.

Gov. Romney's administration, seeking ways to increase Michigan's income, regards exports as one means of doing this. To explore the possibilities, a mission was dispatched to Western Europe recently. It was composed of L. William Seidman, Grand Rapids accountant; Richard M. Gillett, Grand Rapids banker, and Herbert G. Davenport, head of Michigan Week.

Mr. Seidman, the Governor's economic counselor, has given him a preliminary report on the committee's findings which encourages Michigan to venture more in exporting and which counsels on how this should be done to be most effective in Europe.

The report should hold interest for the Upper Peninsula because it has possibilities for income in increased exports.

Where large industries are concerned, there are already organizations active in export trade, but for many smaller firms this is an untried trade. Small business has not ventured in it much because of the complexities of selling, financing and exporting, but this trade is now so much sought as necessary to Michigan's full economic health that the complexities are being reduced to relative simplicities by action of governmental and other agencies and the smaller industries are being encouraged to examine it.

The Seidman mission was concerned chiefly with the European Economic Community, usually called the Common Market. It was created by the Treaty of Rome in 1957 and includes six nations: West Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. Conceived originally as a trade union, it now includes a form of political-social union. It is an economic tool which works well for its member nations, which have a total population of 170 million people now tasting real prosperity for the first time in two generations.

The Common Market has a growth rate in total annual production that has slipped from 7 to 6 per cent, but this still is higher than that of the United States. There's little unemployment and there's a labor shortage in some areas. Labor costs are substantially lower than in the United States, ranging from one half to two-thirds lower, but they're rising faster than in the United States.

States due to the stronger union position in Europe, the labor shortage, and the emphasis on social security and fringe benefits.

Mr. Seidman found the Common Market "honeymoon of idealism" over and practical problems of economics being felt, but rated the Common Market lively and durable. "Some protectionism," he wrote (favoring of home goods in tariff adjustments), "is a reality that must be faced."

The Common Market is a fact of life that can affect sales, prices and growth inside Michigan, said Mr. Seidman; it is a new and strong economic force in the world and it has produced a more prosperous, peaceful and highly independent Western Europe. It was started by the United States' Marshall Plan, and thinking Europeans are grateful for the start, but not giving any trade edge to any competitor if they can help it; witness the exclusion of England from the market group.

Mr. Seidman sees competition as the key to the Common Market. He says, "Free enterprise — rather than the socialist or protectionist attitude of prewar Europe — is the reality of the common market today."

This hotly competitive market is bringing an "automobile economy" to Europe where ownership of a car is a status symbol and where previous ratio of one car to each 25 persons is moving rapidly toward the U.S. ratio of one car for every three persons.

Europe has money to buy foreign goods, but is highly price-consciousness and very discriminating on quality.

Investment in Michigan by foreign capital is a possibility that appears very limited at present because of higher returns on capital in Western Europe (20 per cent is not unusual). However, no specific attempt to attract capital has been made by other states, and Michigan might well take the lead. "Here is a chance for Michigan to pioneer in an era where present opportunity is small but may grow in years to come as competition lowers the returns in Europe," says Mr. Seidman.

Investments abroad are recommended and in some cases are indispensable because some products cannot be made in Michigan and sold abroad. Furniture, for example, is too bulky. Quota restrictions and high American production costs are other limitations.

Many Michigan firms have established plants in Europe, and Mr. Seidman cities that they have not exported jobs, but have actually created jobs in Michigan because there's no other way to sell the Common Market except to assemble component parts and materials into a marketable product abroad. The profits return to Michigan.

Michigan can expect increased competition from foreign products. Where tariffs are high, the prospect is for lower ones, and soon. The Common Market is committed to lower tariffs everywhere to stimulate competition. In general the U.S. has been more protectionist than the Common Market countries, so lower tariffs will mean more adjustments for us than for them. Because European labor costs are lower, Michigan manufacturers must rely on increased efficiency, technical and sales know-how and new products to be competitive.

Mr. Seidman believes Michigan can and should attract tourists from Europe. Europeans are travel-happy but generally consider America too expensive and aren't aware of attractions in a state like Michigan. "We should show them how they can make the trip within their budget means and acquaint them with our many beauties and enjoyments."

To take advantage of the European opportunity, Mr. Seidman would create a small corps of foreign trade ambassadors of successful Michigan operators abroad and equip them with information kits; improve Michigan's seaway ports in capacity and cost efficiency; invest some money to attract European tourists, and tell Michigan business about the potential of foreign trade. UPCAP and the U.S. Department of Commerce, Detroit banks and other agencies are doing that now and performing a valuable public service in this field of job making, where Michigan has heard so much talk and seen so little action.

Chaff, the aluminum foil slices occasionally found in this area, is a confusion device dispensed by B-52Hs of the 410th Bombardment Wing. Pictured here is a portion of the chaff contained in one box. (USAF photos).

CWO Robert Harding and RCAF Sgt. Al Smith of the Sault Ste. Marie NORAD Sector take action against the effects of chaff on the SAGE radar scopes. The chaff creates a false track on the scopes. The use of chaff on certain exercises provides realistic training for both the SAC crews and the weapons directors in the SAGE blockhouse.

Tiny Threads Of Aluminum Foil Help Sawyer Craft Confuse Radar

Needle-sized threads of aluminum foil, harmless to plant and animal life, may be the "weapon" which will save the lives of Strategic Air Command crewmembers, as well as the multi-million dollar aircraft they fly.

Air Force personnel call it chaff. The minute shreds and chunks are kicked out of the aircraft during training missions—or if necessary, the actual war-time mission—to confuse the enemy radar equipment which might detect the huge B-52H "Stratofortresses" of the 410th Bombardment Wing from K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base.

When dropped from SAC's bombers, chaff reflects or reradiates electromagnetic energy of radar equipment. It thus spoils the picture or "return" the radar operator sees on his scope.

It's a confusion device, and makes the radar operator see something that isn't really there. Become More Sophisticated

In use since World War II chaff has become more sophisticated with time just as the aircraft and air detection equipment have. But the principle remains the same.

Neither SAC nor the Air Force is the sole user of chaff. It is also used by the other Air Force commands and by other branches of the Armed Forces.

Has Two Purposes
Within SAC it has two purposes.

Man Escapes Prison Disguised As Woman

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Guards, finding discarded prison clothes in a courthouse restroom, learned too late that the "woman" who calmly walked past them was their male prisoner — a pro-Communist held in the half-million-dollar theft of French art.

The guards waited outside while Winston Bermudez Machado, 26-year-old university student, went to a restroom Tuesday. Police said an accomplice apparently had hidden women's clothing and makeup there. He had been brought to court for questioning.

Ford Announces Grants To 72 Private Schools

DETROIT (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. Fund recently announced grants totaling more than $3,000 to 72 privately endowed colleges. The University of Detroit received the largest grant among Michigan schools, $4,750. Other state schools to receive grants were Kalamazoo College, Albion, Alma and Siena Heights.

One is the confusion device, and the other is the self-protection of the bomber force against enemy defense systems.

The chaff, which comes in a small cardboard box about the size of a plug of chewing tobacco, is loaded into magazines by members of the 410th Armament and Electronics Maintenance Squadron's electronic counter-measures branch.

It is then installed in the aircraft, and the electronic counter-measures (ECM) officer — one of six crew members on the big bomber — dispenses the chaff to confuse and protect.

Adding To The Confusion
As the cardboard box slips down the magazine, a razor sharp knife slices the package. It is then forced out into the plane's slipstream, and the box opens wide and allows the chaff to scatter in the air.

The ECM officer, assigned to the 644th Bombardment Squadron, selects the number of boxes he wishes to discharge, depending on the confusion factor he desires.

According to the wing's penetration aids section, it is also dispensed at different intervals, adding to the confusion.

Provides Realistic Practice
Because there is no known method of duplicating chaff training with simulators or other equipment, actual dropping of chaff is necessary.

This training keeps the ECM equipment proficient and also provides realistic practice for our nation's detection force. For instance, the bomb wing at Sawyer AFB makes regular practice "runs" on detection units throughout the country.

Should the ECM operator drop chaff in this area, the Sault Ste. Marie Air Defense Sector here would be responsible for detection. Completely Harmless

The training, therefore, gives

SAC crews practical experience in the use of the confusion device and it allows the sector's operators to train under a realistic war-time environment.

In the process, both SAC and the North American Air Defense Command have an opportunity to revise or refine tactics necessary to assume successful completion of their individual missions.

The training chaff is not harmful. It has no chemical or physical effects on plants or the soil, and should a prize bull munch some of the thin aluminum strips with his hay, he will suffer no ill results as it is non-toxic and can't injure animals.

Nor will it interrupt radio or television transmission. The chaff is designed to scatter in the air and very seldom will any amount come to the ground together. But if you should find a smattering of it in your backyard, you'll know it was dropped from the skies during a realistic training mission. The tiny strips aren't from a space craft — only a tried and true method of confusion by and protection for aircraft of the United States Air Force.

1st Lt. Jim Livesey, an ECM operator in the 644th Bombardment Squadron.

Peninsula Perambulator

In a major change in policy, Stambaugh city commissioners recommended appointment of David Carl, 34, member of the Stambaugh school faculty, as playground director for the summer program. He will replace Willard Anderson, who had held the post since 1931. Selection of Carl, who also was the choice of the West Side Recreation Council board of directors, came on a 4-1 vote after long and at times heated discussion. The four commissioners who voted for Carl said they believed the position of playground director should be rotated. "I can hardly believe it," Anderson said. Anderson praised the city for its foresight and cooperation in the past. "Now," he said, "the day has come when you are willing to throw out the man who did it."

Joseph Mishica, dean of the Calumet High School staff, will retire at the end of the school year after serving the Calumet system as a teacher and coach for 37 years. He began his career as a classroom teacher and coach in Hancock in 1921, remaining there for four years before going to Calumet. In addition to his teaching duties, he served as football coach from 1926 to 1949.

An egg within an egg was the unusual discovery made by Mrs. Margaret Kist, while she was preparing two hard-boiled eggs for breakfast in her Sault Ste. Marie home. When she started to crack one open, she heard a faint click and found embedded in the white of the egg and adjacent to the yoke another tiny egg, shell and all.

The Marquette ball team left for the Soo on the early train this morning to play two games, one this afternoon and the other tomorrow afternoon. The players are hopeful for the best results. The management feels sure that the locals will make it an even break, and it is not without hope that the team will get two games. The latter result would greatly endear it to the local fans and would mean a cracking big attendance when the first home games are played. Manager Price expects to have Foote, the Negaunee twirler, pitch one game and to use Connors, who made such a fine showing at Dollar Bay, in the other.

The National Whirligig News Behind The News

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON — Every time a businessman opens his mouth these days it's to demand that Congress reduce federal spending. But politicians long ago learned to pay little attention to these blasts, because what these businessmen preach is that economy in government is something to be practiced by the other fellow.

Therefore it is not news to learn that business associations are constantly lobbying for pet projects that cost the taxpayers money. It is, however, an interesting reminder of their schizophrenia when this double talk is spelled out in detail, as it has been by Don Pugnetti, managing editor of the Tri-City Herald, serving Pasco, Kennewick and Richland, in Washington State.

Pugnetti examined in print the dilemma facing Sens. Warren Magnuson and Henry Jackson of Washington in trying to find out just what in tarantula their constituents wanted them to do about federal spending. Item: Balanced Budget, But!

Magnuson received a letter from the Kennewick Chamber of Commerce demanding that "the national budget operate within present resources and efforts be expanded to balance the budget without additional taxation."

A few days later, the City of Kennewick requested a supplemental item be added to the Army Engineers' budget for a flood-control project for Zintel Canyon. The Walla Walla Chamber of Commerce wired Magnuson at length, informing him that "On behalf of our stockholders, growers and employees, our board of directors urges that you actively oppose all federal expenditures that exceed federal income this and the next federal year." It commented on "the irresponsibility of the current administration in fiscal matters."

At the same time, the C. of C.'s grower organizations were seeking matching federal funds totaling $5 million for research and marketing studies.

Two Letters
The Spokane Chamber of Commerce demanded a balanced budget and no additional taxes in one letter and $1,800,000 for the Columbia River Basin project in another.

Thus, with business lobbyists flooding Magnuson and Jackson with letters and telegrams demanding economy they are asking additional or new appropriations for their pet projects totaling $20,018,000.

Not 'This Time'
It is an old story of course, and worth mentioning only to illustrate the frustration of the average member of Congress in matters affecting federal spending. As Magnuson's administrative assistant, Frederick J. Lordan, put it: "Nonessential items in the budget are those pertaining to projects somebody else wants." And Rep. Catherine May notes that "If the people of Washington State really want a tax cut, they must be prepared to accept a comparable cut in spending for projects dear to their own hearts."

Editor Pugnetti also points up the sophistry of the situation in reporting an exchange between Lordan and Lorin Markham, manager of the Spokane chamber. Lordan said there had been a lot of newspaper criticism of spending. Markham replied that if the Columbia Basin project were put in the federal budget, there wouldn't be any criticism "this time."

Anybody in the hall who missed the point?

The Negroes And The Nation

By WALTER LIPPMANN

Suddenly, as it were, the struggle of the Negroes toward equality of status in American society has taken a sharp turn. The demonstrations in Birmingham have proved to be something more than the work of outsiders playing upon the imaginary grievances of otherwise docile and contented masses. Nobody can now doubt that the grievances are genuine and deep under the rule of such men as Bull Connor and Gov. Wallace. And nobody can have any doubt either that the new generation of American Negroes is shedding the mentality of slaves and that they will not accept quietly an imposed inferiority in education, in jobs, in housing and in the public facilities.

For a hundred years since Lincoln freed the slaves, this country has relied upon the education of the Negroes and the persuasion of the whites to bring about that equality of status to which it is committed. We are now realizing that the present rate of change will not be fast enough. The redress of the grievances of the Negroes is for the new generation too slow in coming. History teaches us that when this point is reached in the struggle for what men regard as their just rights, a revolutionary condition exists.

Supreme Questions Posed

Will the supreme questions be posed. Will the ruling and privileged classes command of the coming changes? Or will they cling to their privileges and become the immovable object in collision with an irresistible force?

The white people of this country, not only the white people of Alabama and Mississippi, are now at that crucial point where they must answer those questions. They must choose, on the one hand, between leading the movement toward equality of status and, on the other hand, standing aside and letting matters be decided by collisions between the Negro agitators and the Bull Connors.

The Negro rebellion is now led by men like Martin Luther King who preach and practice the Gandhian doctrine of non-violence. It is a difficult doctrine in any country, and this is a rather violent country. The doctrine worked effectively in British India. But there the ruling power was under the restraint of the long British habit of constitutionalism.

Where Turning Point Lies

We cannot count upon non-violence persisting in the face of brutal and illiterate resistance. The outstanding danger is not that there may be rioting and brawling, for these can be suppressed. The outstanding danger is a loss of confidence by the Negro people in the good faith of the white people. This is where the turning point lies at the present time.

If confidence is lost that there is a legitimate remedy for genuine grievances, there will be lost at the same time confidence in the doctrine of non-violence. What will come after that is unpleasant to contemplate.

But those among us who are capable of learning from history will do well to remember what happened in Ireland and what happened to Palestine before the grievances of the Irish and of the Jews were redressed, and also to reflect on what is boiling under the surface in those parts of Africa where black inferiority is imposed.

Must Become National Movement

The time has come when there must be a change in the American policy as it was laid down under Eisenhower and continued under Kennedy. This is the policy of leaving desegregation, which is a national commitment, to the conflict between private lawsuits and local authorities. The cause of desegregation must cease to be a Negro movement, blessed by white politicians from the northern states. It must become a national movement to enforce national laws, led and directed by the national government.

I think this is the direction in which the President and his brother, the attorney general, are now moving. They should move directly and boldly and take command of a cause which cannot now be left to irresponsible people. If it is still possible, and I think it is, to hold and even to recover the confidence of the Negroes in the good faith of the whites, then this is the basic principle by which to do it. It is to make plain by word and deed that the Negroes are no longer a weak and isolated minority trying to push the nation into doing what the national law and American principles require it to do.

Then, because the national power is behind the movement toward equality of status, that national power, which will be more than sufficient, can be exercised without violence, with wisdom and with restraint. For it is the very weak rebels who feel that they must resort to the extreme measures.

Views Of Others

TRANSCONTINENT GATEWAY AT SOO

Dedication of the Sault Ste. Marie International Bridge doesn't change anything, since the bridge actually has been in operation since last October. But it does emphasize again that this is the northern gateway for a continental highway that soon will stretch from Miami, Fla., to the Canadian province of Ontario.

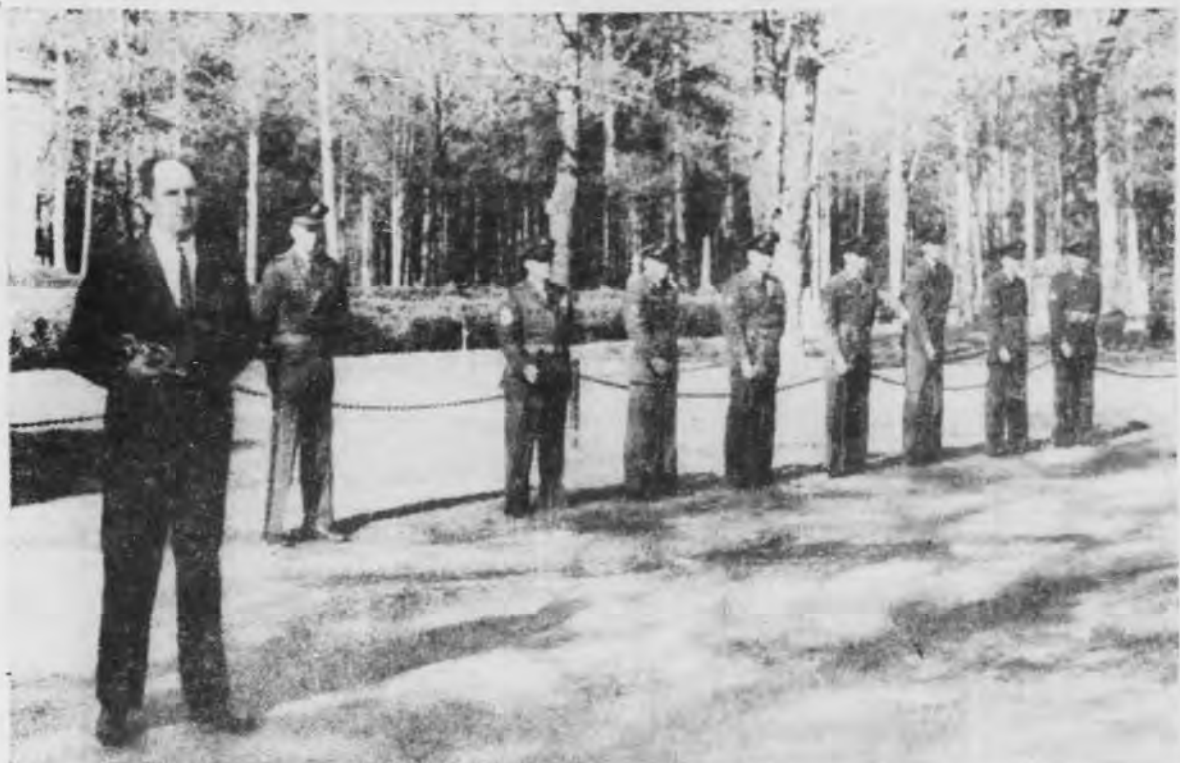

The Int. 75 highway which now stretches the length of the Lower Peninsula of Michigan from St. Ignace to Toledo is but the northern link of a vast undertaking which is complete through Ohio. Travelers south have noted that through Kentucky and Tennessee work is progressing rapidly to complete this great freeway now broken off at Cincinnati. Much of the work on the Florida end also has been completed.

North of the Mackinac Bridge, of course, the highway to the Soo is U. S. 2, but it is being pushed as a four-lane route.

The Soo Bridge therefore should not be viewed solely as an outlet to Canada, nor pessimistically as draining traffic away from Michigan's tourist area. The picture as a whole must include Int. 75 which will soon be bringing tourists from the Deep South, and to reach the Soo they must traverse the length of Michigan.

The southerner who would explore the Canadian wilds likely will find this the most direct route. Could anyone imagine that Michigan will gain from this prospect? — Grand Rapids Press.

Balmy Weather Enjoyed On Holiday, But Outlook Dismal

Summer "unofficially" began yesterday with a glorious preview of blue skies and warm temperatures.

However, the outlook for the weekend isn't so good, with scattered showers or thundershowers predicted tonight and tomorrow...

Rain and cool weather expected for the Memorial Day holiday were canceled out by a high pressure area which passed by south of here yesterday.

Because of the cooling effect of east-southeasterly winds blowing off Marquette Harbor, temperatures along the lake yesterday were cooler than in other areas.

At the U.S. Weather Bureau, located in the federal building, the mercury only got up to 63 yesterday afternoon.

The sun was out 90 per cent of the time from dawn to dusk yesterday and people were outside in cars, on the golf course and even at the beaches to enjoy the holiday.

With a low of 49 yesterday, the temperature yesterday averaged 56, one degree above normal. Wednesday the temperature averaged three degrees below normal, with extremes of 60 and 41.

Rainfall Below Normal The sun was out only 44 per cent of the possible time Wednesday and rainfall amounted to .02 of an inch. No precipitation occurred yesterday.

For the month, precipitation here had amounted to 1.59 of an inch through this morning. Normal amount of precipitation for the month through today is 2.96 inches.

Sunny skies were continued today and the mercury was expected to go up to the 70s. Tonight's low is expected to be in the same range as last night, 48 to 55.

Showers are predicted this weekend because of a low pressure system which was moving this way this morning from northwestern North Dakota.

Rainfall will total .2 to .4 of an inch. The long-range forecast, covering the period from tonight through Wednesday, calls for temperatures to average one to three degrees above the normal extremes of 66 and 46.

After warm temperatures over the weekend, it's expected to be cooler the first of the week.

Balmy Weather Enjoyed On Holiday, But Outlook Dismal

Summer "unofficially" began yesterday with a glorious preview of blue skies and warm temperatures.

However, the outlook for the weekend isn't so good, with scattered showers or thundershowers predicted tonight and tomorrow...

Rain and cool weather expected for the Memorial Day holiday were canceled out by a high pressure area which passed by south of here yesterday.

Because of the cooling effect of east-southeasterly winds blowing off Marquette Harbor, temperatures along the lake yesterday were cooler than in other areas.

At the U.S. Weather Bureau, located in the federal building, the mercury only got up to 63 yesterday afternoon.

The sun was out 90 per cent of the time from dawn to dusk yesterday and people were outside in cars, on the golf course and even at the beaches to enjoy the holiday.

With a low of 49 yesterday, the temperature yesterday averaged 56, one degree above normal. Wednesday the temperature averaged three degrees below normal, with extremes of 60 and 41.

Rainfall Below Normal The sun was out only 44 per cent of the possible time Wednesday and rainfall amounted to .02 of an inch. No precipitation occurred yesterday.

For the month, precipitation here had amounted to 1.59 of an inch through this morning. Normal amount of precipitation for the month through today is 2.96 inches.

Sunny skies were continued today and the mercury was expected to go up to the 70s. Tonight's low is expected to be in the same range as last night, 48 to 55.

Showers are predicted this weekend because of a low pressure system which was moving this way this morning from northwestern North Dakota.

Rainfall will total .2 to .4 of an inch. The long-range forecast, covering the period from tonight through Wednesday, calls for temperatures to average one to three degrees above the normal extremes of 66 and 46.

Specialist On Zoning In Area On June 12th

Dr. Louis A. Wolfanger, East Lansing, professor in land use at Michigan State University and an authority on township zoning, will be in Marquette County on Wednesday, June 12.

Dr. Wolfanger has been scheduled here to assist township zoning boards on problems which they may have in connection with township zoning ordinances, according to Melvin N. Nyquist, Marquette, county extension director.

This includes information on how one can go about establishing a zoning ordinance, administration and interpretation of ordinance laws.

At the present time, zoning boards and laws are in effect in Ishpeming, Marquette, Chocoma, Sandus, and Forsyth Townships.

An ordinance has been adopted by Skandia Township to take effect June 1. A public hearing was held for the West Branch Township ordinance last Monday.

Powell Township has created a zoning board and at the present time is involved in developing an ordinance.

Other townships in the county where there may be problems in land use could work with Dr. Wolfanger in problems on land use, Nyquist said.

"A zoning ordinance is merely a development within the township of good land use so that the people within that township can have their community grow in an orderly way," Nyquist noted.

"It is a legal process whereby the zoning board plans the use of the land. It cannot change any existing land use."

"It is expressed by the well-known saying: 'A place for everything and everything in its place.' A good zoning ordinance tends more to 'zone in' than 'zone out' land uses, to invite in or encourage those uses for which a zoning district seems best adapted."

A copy of Extension Folder F-272 can be obtained from the cooperative Extension Office in the county courthouse here. There is no charge for this bulletin.

This booklet written by Dr. Wolfanger gives an insight why a community should zone, the basic laws and the steps necessary for enactment of a zoning ordinance, Nyquist said.

Communities desiring the service of Dr. Wolfanger should contact the Marquette extension office as soon as possible, he said.

Romney To Keep Report Confidential

LANSING (AP)—Settlement of a full-blown controversy between Gov. George Romney and the State Board of Education appeared today to be a matter of simple, direct communication.

At issue in the dispute was a report by an investigating team of the North Central Association, a college and high school accrediting agency, criticizing administrative policies at Eastern Michigan University.

The board was standing firm in its position that Romney could not have a copy of the report unless he would promise to keep it confidential.

Surprise Move

Romney, in a surprise move, announced he would be willing to do this if it were true that the NCA, in compiling the report for the state, had stipulated it should not be made public.

He said he had no firsthand knowledge that the NCA had set such a condition. But board president Chris Magnusson insisted he had so informed the Governor in a phone conversation three days ago.

"Who's he kidding?" asked Magnusson.

Romney earlier had demanded formally that the board give him a copy of the NCA report, and an irate Magnusson retorted that not only would the board not comply, but it "won't even let him see the report."

'Unbelievable'

Commenting on this, Romney said:

"I can conceive of circumstances in which a private agency would want its report to be confidential, if the NCA said the report should not be made public, I would not violate that understanding."

The board's refusal to give him the report unless he agreed in advance to keep it private was termed "unbelievable" by the Governor.

He said the board was making a direct challenge to the Governor's constitutional authority to request and receive "any information" from an elected or appointed official.

Confidential

Magnusson said later the head of the NCA team which investigated the Ypsilanti school had stipulated that the report should be kept confidential.

Magnusson has refused to divulge contents of the report because it contains "references to personalities" and to make it public would "serve no useful purpose."

Magnusson said later the head of the NCA team which investigated the Ypsilanti school had stipulated that the report should be kept confidential.

Magnusson has refused to divulge contents of the report because it contains "references to personalities" and to make it public would "serve no useful purpose."

"I can conceive of circumstances in which a private agency would want its report to be confidential, if the NCA said the report should not be made public, I would not violate that understanding."

Nurses Class Opens Soon At Northern

Students may apply now for the 1963 summer class in practical nursing and psychiatric attendant nursing which will begin June 10 at Northern Michigan University. Adopted last year as part of a "trimmer" plan to accommodate increasing enrollments, the summer class, conducted by the Nursing Education Center at Northern, includes four months of classroom study on the NMU campus and eight months of training in affiliating hospitals. The training program is open to men as well as women.

Hospitals affiliating with Northern in the nursing program are St. Mary's of Marquette, Dickinson Memorial of Iron Mountain, Bell Memorial of Ishpeming and the Newberry State Hospital. The students, however, get their first practical introduction to nursing at St. Luke's Hospital, Marquette. Application forms for the nursing education program are available at all local Michigan Employment Security Commission offices and area high schools. This Week When You Buy — Sugar

BY INGRID BARTELLI (Consumer Marketing Information Agent, Michigan State University) Jump for joy and bust loose — it's June! June is report card time, the last for the "graduates" Wedding bells work overtime in June. If there is anything scheduled this month (besides baseball games) it's apt to be a take-to-the-road-vacation. June is busting out all over the grocery store, too. June means top quality and lots of it — all except sugar. The sugar market is reminiscent of rationing days during the war. And because too many folks remember sugar rationing, they're tempted to do some stockpiling against advancing prices, which of course helps to drive the price up. The "bubble must burst," according to authorities, because sugar supplies are not as short as the skyrocketing price would indicate. Three Factors Recent sharp price advances have been attributed to: (1) A maneuver to get sugar prices, which have not been in keeping with other rising food costs, up and in line. (2) The severe winter affected the crop outlook, especially European beet production. (3) The newer nations, and many not so new, are experiencing a rising economy and a raised standard of living which means increased consumption of sugar. We're just the little guys down at the end of the line and unless we do a good deal of fruit processing at home, we feel the pinch only when we go to buy an occasional 10-pound bag of sugar and have to pay twice as much as we did a few months ago. The folks who are really hurting — and their "hurt" will be passed along to us — are the soft drink manufacturers, candy manufacturers, canners and bakers. There has been some switch from sugar (sucrose) to corn syrup (dextrose) but these costs are also rising. So it looks like we'll not be able to cater to our sweet tooth for a while and you and I will be digging up recipes for canning and freezing without sugar. Rhubarb is one of the commodities which we can hardly eat without sugar, but cheer up. It freezes just as well without sugar. Just wash, wipe it dry, cut and pack it in freezer containers. Maybe by winter the sugar price will have stabilized and then we can make our rhubarb pie and marmalade. Beef Prices Firm Retail beef prices in June are expected to be about the same as in May. Quick cooking cuts will be pushed as the weather warms up. This often means good buys on the longer cooking cuts — those usually found in the foreground. Pork prices start an upward seasonal trend in June. Do you have your summer supply of pork chops tucked away in your freezer? Broilers are headliners as often as any other single food item. This is increasingly true as we move into the cook-out and cook-for-company season. Fish, fresh from the Great Lakes, is a must for those of us who live near the fishing ports.

Calumet Man Fatally Injured During Scuffle

CALUMET — Philip Kiviniemi, 28, Calumet, was fatally injured in a scuffle at about 4 a.m. yesterday, following an all-night beer party at a cottage near the Calumet waterworks, state police reported today.

Death was attributed to a brain hemorrhage which Dr. J. Parker, pathologist at St. Joseph's Medical Center in Hancock, deemed the result of aggravation of a previous brain injury.

According to state police at the Calumet post, Kiviniemi had spent the evening and early morning hours at a drinking party attended by a large number of young adults and some minors as young as 16 and 17.

Inquest Next Week Officers said today that James Waara, 27, Calumet, another guest at the affair, was outside the cottage talking to a woman in a car, when Kiviniemi "came outside and started pushing him around."

Waara told officers he hit Kiviniemi, they both fell to the ground and Kiviniemi "passed out."

No charges have been filed against Waara, who has been released. An inquest will be held sometime next week, and the state police investigation of the death is continuing.

Had Previous Injury Kiviniemi was rushed to Memorial Hospital, Laurium, by Earl Kalley, Laurium, who stopped at the cottage shortly before the fight. Kiviniemi died in Kalley's car on the way to the hospital. Police said Kalley was not involved.

An autopsy was performed yesterday morning by Dr. Parker at St. Joseph's Medical Center. Dr. Parker told officers that Kiviniemi had a previous brain injury, apparently sustained while he was in service over a year ago, in which a blood vessel at the back of his brain had developed a bubble. The pathologist said either a jar or fall had probably caused that vessel to rupture, resulting in Kiviniemi's death from brain hemorrhage.

The victim was married and the father of two children. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

The Soviet Union is nearly three times the size of the United States.

Three Injured, Five Tickets Issued, Six Cars Damaged In Four Accidents In Area

ISHPEMING — Three persons were hurt, five tickets issued and six cars damaged in four crashes in the western end of Marquette County Wednesday and Thursday, state police from the post at Marquette reported today.

Most serious accident occurred at 1:30 yesterday afternoon on County Road FF, just south of County Road FFH in Humboldt Township when a car being driven west on FF by Robert Perry, 23, Waukegan, Ill., left the road and struck a tree.

The driver was not hurt but his passenger, Robert Mattson, 21, Republic, suffered severe lacerations of the forehead and was taken by a passing motorist to Bell Memorial Hospital, Ishpeming, for treatment.

State police said Perry told them he swerved to avoid hitting a deer and, in so doing, lost control of his car, which hit a tree after going off the road on the right.

Perry was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law, and his 1952 sedan, damaged on the left front, had to be hauled away by a tow truck.

At 11:40 Wednesday morning, two cars were involved in a crash-up on County Road LLK at the intersection of Fire St. in Republic.

Drivers were Albert Clavel, 18, Republic, making a left turn into LLK, and Joan Venn, 24, Republic, going south on LLK. Police said Clavel had stopped for a stop sign at the corner, then pulled out and hit Mrs. Venn's car.

Injured in the collision were Robert Venn, 4, who received bruises on top of his head, and Susan Venn, 3, who suffered a bruised chin. Mrs. Venn sought her own treatment for the children.

State police issued Clavel two tickets, one for failure to yield the right-of-way, the other for having no operator's license.

The Clavel car, a 1956 coach, was damaged on the right front, and the Venn auto, a 1958 coach, on the left side, but both were driven away under their own power.

One car going north on County Road 476 was involved in a crash-up at 4:25 Wednesday afternoon, two miles south of County Road PN in Tilden Township.

Driver of the 1954 sedan was Douglas Pottla, 15, National Mine, who missed a left curve. His car ran off the road into a ditch and rolled over onto its top.

State police issued Pottla a summons for having no operator's license and said he would appear in juvenile court on the charge.

The youth's car, extensively damaged, had to be towed from the scene by a wrecker.

Two cars were involved in the fourth crash which took place at 1:45 Wednesday afternoon on U.S. 41 where the highway intersects with County Road 494 in Ishpeming Township.

Driver was Lois Hooper, 43, Republic, and Floyd Voltz, 64, Evanston, Ill.

Police said Voltz was driving north across 41 on 404 and hit Mrs. Hooper, who was going west on 41. They ticketed him for failure to yield the right-of-way.

The Hooper vehicle, a 1960 coach, was damaged on the left rear, and Voltz's car, a 1956 sedan, on the right front, but both could be driven.

Blacktopping Plan Okayed By Council

NEGAUNEE — City Manager Leonard Harris was authorized by the Negaunee Council at a special meeting to complete necessary arrangements with the Marquette County Road Commission for blacktopping, at a later date this summer, approximately one mile of municipal streets.

Council authorization was given to a program that will include blacktopping of Brown Ave. from Lincoln St. to Baldwin Ave., Baldwin Ave. from Cherry St. to U.S. 41, all of Cherry St. and Lincoln St. east of Healy Ave.

When the 1963 improvement program is completed, all streets in the city will be blacktopped and all alleys covered with a hard surface of seal coating.

In other business at the special session, the council approved transfer of the Iron Range Liquor license to Frank Valente; instructed the manager to advise a representative of the State, County and Municipal Employees Union that he may meet with the council at the regular monthly session scheduled the second Thursday in June; approved the noxious weed ordinance as amended in its second hearing, and the anti-peddling ordinance in its first reading.

Deer Lake Group To Hold Dinner Meeting Monday

ISHPEMING — Deer Lake homemakers will meet at 6:30 p.m. Monday, June 3, at Ken's Grocery, from where they will leave to enjoy dinner at the Northwoods.

Anyone needing a ride should phone Mrs. Dolores Jacobson at HU 6-8839.

Newly elected officers for the group are: Mrs. Marian Medlyn, chairman; Mrs. Ann Wood, vice chairman; Mrs. Fay Mayrand, secretary; and Mrs. Joan Perry, treasurer.

The group also will have a pot-luck luncheon picnic in the third week of July. Members will be contacted at a later date with more details.

George Rock Retired Rail Worker, Dies

ISHPEMING — George M. Rock, 78, of 778 E. Wabash St., died at 12:30 this morning in Bell Memorial Hospital where he was a patient five days.

He also was a member of the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's Church.

Survivors include his wife, Evangelina, two stepdaughters, Mrs. William (Helen) Anderson and Mrs. Jack (Ethel) Walters of Ishpeming; three stepsons, Peter DeRoche, Donald DeRoche and Thomas DeRoche of Ishpeming and five brothers, Edward of Baraga, Fred and Walter of Ishpeming, Charles of North Lake and Leo of Gwinn.

Services will be held at 9 a.m. Monday in St. Joseph's Church, with the Rev. Clement Ledine officiating.

Friends may call at the Passenger Funeral Home beginning at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Driver Escapes Serious Injury As Car Overtakes

ISHPEMING — Howard C. England, 21, of Negaunee escaped serious injury last night when the car he was driving left the highway on U.S. 41 and overturned.

England was admitted to the Bell Hospital, where he was treated for bruises and abrasions. X-rays were taken, but it was expected he would be released from the hospital today.

The 11:35 p.m. accident occurred when the right front of the England car went off the roadway, causing England to lose control of the car.

The car was removed from the scene by a wrecker. The roof and right side were considerably damaged.

England was ticketed by Ishpeming police for failure to have his car under control.

and a film strip entitled "The Long Way to Tenango" will be held following the service.

73 L'Anse Students Receive Scholastic Excellence Honors

L'ANSE—A group of 73 L'Anse elementary and high school students received awards and certificates for scholastic excellence at the annual PTA-sponsored honors convocation held here earlier this week.

These are students in Grades 4 through 12 who have maintained an academic average of B-plus throughout the school year. Three received special awards for athletics, band and chorus, in addition to their scholastic honors.

Grade School Principal Taisto Harkonen presented letters and certificates to seven fourth graders — Joan Derocher, Rebecca Stroube, Lynn Rock, Linda Stevens, Ruth Ann Connor, Jack Moilanen and Jill Sikorsky. Fifth graders who received awards were Charles Hofbauer, Lynn VanBuren, James Derocher, Michael Johnson, Deborah Stelmazek, Craig Biland and Mamie Waisanen. The group of 15 sixth graders who maintained a B-plus average includes Andrea Sikorsky, Linda Kinnunen, Judy Salo, Della Olsen, Janet Holso, Ronald Erickson, Jane Johnston, Verna Maki, Karen Lyberg, David Sikorsky, Linda Waisanen, Nancy Thoresen, Susan Aia, David Kemppainen and David VanAbeL.

P. K. Ward, high school principal, passed out congratulations and awards to seven students in the seventh grade — Lois Framstad, Peter Heltunen, Diane Jacoby, Jane Kotila, Patricia Roberts, Mary Soli and Steven VanBuren. The five eighth graders who qualified for honors were James Hofbauer, Mary Moilanen, Mary Olsen, David Saarinen and James Yeaton.

Nine ninth graders receiving awards included Sally Champine, Michael Connor, Betty Falk, David Marion, Therese Mannick, Susan Rock, Katherine Sands, Bogue Sandberg and Rena Tollefson. In Grade 10, nine students qualified for honor awards. They are Glen Franti, Beverly Goudreau, Mary Hofbauer, Rosalie Johnson, Lynn Koski, Raymond McDonald, Shirley Maki, Donna Titus and Diane Westman.

Six students — Jean Autio, Elaine Franti, Victoria Lind, Carol Peltoniemi, Anita Tikkanen and Evelyn Waisanen — received the 11th grade honors. Eight graduating seniors, Wayne Abba, Roland Erickson, Clyde Maki, Patricia Maki, Anke Riekens, Jenny Salo, Rosemary St. Onge and Louise Waisanen maintained the B-plus average requirement to qualify for awards.

Standing Ovation
In addition their scholastic achievements, Roland Erickson received a special award for athletics, Nora Lynn Koski was cited for her band contributions and Evelyn Waisanen received the award for chorus work.

A standing ovation greeted C. J. Sullivan, superintendent of schools, who will retire on July 1, as he accepted a gift check from the PTA for the C. J. Sullivan Memorial Scholarship Fund at Northern Michigan University, Marquette. Sullivan is completing a long and lustrous career in the L'Anse school system, including 26 years in the post of superintendent.

Teacher Honored
Mrs. Hattie Delgoffe, retiring second grade teacher was also specially honored by the PTA for her many years of service as a member of the elementary school faculty. Tokens of esteem and heartfelt thanks for their continued efforts toward better education were presented to both Sullivan and Mrs. Delgoffe by Dr. Eric A. Bourdo, treasurer of the L'Anse Board of Education.

Service pins were also presented to past PTA presidents Mrs. Irja Harju and Robert Rafferty by Mrs. Betty Yeaton, president of the PTA and mistress of ceremonies for the affair.

The L'Anse High School band played several selections during the program and the Rev. Raymond Schaedig, pastor of the L'Anse Baptist Church, offered the invocation and benediction.

Highest legally fixed salary in the U.S. is that of the president.

Gooch Tells Of Need For Training

L'ANSE — "There are plenty of jobs for the right men and the right women who have the necessary qualifications and who show up at the right place at the right time. The need for people with technical training is booming, but the value of the unskilled, uneducated worker is plummeting."

James Gooch of the MSU Extension Service, Marquette, who is also Michigan PTA publicity chairman, aimed these thoughts at the group of 73 L'Anse elementary and high school students who received awards for scholastic excellence at the annual PTA honors convocation earlier this week.

The Knowledge Race
Gooch emphasized to the honor students the great importance of getting a good basic education, developing skills in a specific area, developing good study habits and creating a lasting pattern of self education, citing particularly the need for good reading habits and writing skills.

"It is no longer enough to get one good education and stop," he warned. "Many people with master's degrees are now returning to college to catch up with the knowledge race. The total accumulation of knowledge now doubles approximately every eight or 10 years. Skills and demands for technical abilities also change rapidly."

Largest Graduating Class
Gooch noted that the 1963 college graduating class is the largest in history, with 440,000 men and women scheduled to receive bachelor's degrees in June and an additional 95,000 getting higher degrees. Citing a recent Detroit Free Press article, he told the group that Michigan's teenage labor force is expected to increase by nearly 75,000 within the next two or three years, and added that the labor force will be slow to absorb these young people mainly because many of them will need additional training and more education.

He emphasized the importance of choosing "the right post high school training" and cautioned against allowing the choice of a college to be determined by its size or location alone. He offered high praise for Michigan College of Mining and Technology at Houghton and Northern Michigan University in Marquette, as well as the University of Michigan and Michigan State University. "Bigness is not always a disadvantage," he said. "At MSU, 61 Grade A freshmen students, when questioned about the things they liked best about the institution, placed personal attention, freedom of course selection and diversity of opportunity at the top of the list."

Gooch detailed factors which tend to influence the occupational choices of young people and noted that the expectations of parents, teachers and the community often influence the student's aspirations. He told the group that almost all teen-agers must have some post high school training if they hope to earn a fair livelihood in today's world, where the demand is for special techniques and skilled laborers. "Creative choices and experiences must be provided for children—especially at the secondary level—if today's society is to be remembered as one that gave youngsters a fair break," he stated. "This is a challenge to the community as well as to the school staff, for there must be community support for major adjustments in school services."

In conclusion, Gooch called for closer understanding between parents and teachers and added, "A school system and the quality of its graduates is normally only as good as the community support it reflects."

Guard Slates Range Firing For Weekend

ISHPEMING — Headquarters and Headquarters Company of the 107th Engineer Battalion, Ishpeming, will conduct its annual range firing at Mulligan's flats north of Ishpeming this Saturday and Sunday. Capt. Gene Neibaur announced today.

Each member of the unit will fire his individual weapon for qualification. The weapons the Guard members will be firing will be the 30 caliber M-1 and the 45 caliber automatic pistol. They also will fire their crew-served weapon, the 30 caliber machinegun.

Guardsmen fire at home stations so to be more familiar with their weapons before leaving for annual duty training at Camp Grayling.

Members of the unit will leave the Ishpeming Armory at 8 a.m. Saturday and return at 5 p.m. Sunday. The company will hold a bivouac and tactical training program Saturday. Firing will be conducted Sunday.

The company mess section will prepare four meals for the Guardsmen while in the field.

Fishermen and outdoorsmen in the Mulligan Creek area are asked to avoid the area while range firing is being conducted. All safety precautions will be complied with. Capt. Neibaur said, but there is still danger of a stray round.

Guards will be posted up and down the creek near the impact area to prevent fishermen from entering the danger zone. Cooperation of sportsmen will be appreciated.

Going On A Trip? . . . Buying A New Car? You "MUST SEE" This Outstanding Car!
LARSSON MOTORS SAYS: "TAKE HER FOR A SPIN!"
Step in and take our Swedish SAAB for a demonstration ride. . . before you buy any other car. No strings attached.
On the way home, feel the road-hugging stability of SAAB's air age aerodynamic design. She steers easier. The sure-footed front wheel drive makes any road a clear road in any weather.
Listen to her. The simple 3-cylinder engine with only 7 basic moving parts sings a sweet song at highway speeds. Inspired Swedish engineering gets six-cylinder power at low low cost. . . and up to 25 miles per gallon.
Show her to the wife. She'll appreciate the smart lines. No fins. No frills. (But lots of standard extras.) Just a solid, sensible automobile that's fun to drive.
Take a look at SAAB's record. No peer in her class. She's proved in rugged international rally competition. Built so well that it has a 24,000-mile/24-month written warranty, that's twice the guarantee of most imported cars!
A delightful companion. A wonderful member of the family if you'd like her to stay. . . and only $1,895 P.O.E. (little enough for one of the world's best engineered cars).

72 Baraga Central Students Receive Athletic Awards

Bishop Baraga Central High School saluted 56 boys and 16 girls for their parts in the school's athletic endeavors this year at the annual all-sports dinner in St. Peter's Cathedral Hall Wednesday night.

Baseball, basketball, golf and track teams, along with cheerleaders, were given awards, after hearing Gillo Canale speak of the significance of sports in the school program.

Canale, member of the Northern Michigan University physical education staff and team trainer for the Wildcats, stressed sports as teaching the acceptance of challenges, the acceptance of criticism, along with the lessons of sacrifice and dedication toward a goal.

Points earned in any part of the program counting toward a letter, or, after the first letter is won, toward chevrons.

Three of the boys honored Wednesday took part in three sports during the year, while 12 others took part in two. The complete list:

57 Prep Netters Here Saturday For U.P. Finals

Fifty-seven high school tennis players take to tri-city courts beginning at 8:10 a.m. Saturday, in search of Upper Peninsula honors.

Singles and doubles competitors will need up to five victories to take top honors. John Crawford of Sault, winner of the "17-and-under" title in the Escanaba tourney last summer is a solid singles challenger, as is John Beldt, doubles winner from Marquette-Graveland.

Steve Contardi and Eugene Lepist of Stambaugh, Class C doubles winners last year, are a senior combination and should be favored in their event.

Because of the size of the field, some opening round matches are slated for Ishpeming Playgrounds and Negaunee's Jackson Park and playground courts.

Here are the early pairings: SINGLES Paul Feldhaus of Iron Mountain meets Roy Stenke of Kingsford at 8:10 at the Negaunee Playground. The winner meets Crawford of Soo at 9:45 at Northern Michigan; Tom Greenwood of Menominee and Ron Shoult of Stambaugh get first round byes, and meet at 8:30 at the college, with the winner taking on the 9:45 victor.

Bob Haack of Escanaba and Pete MacDougall of Marquette draw byes and meet 8:30 at Presque Isle; Clarence Kooker of Soo plays Bub Turcotte of Stambaugh at 8:30 at Ohio Street, with the winner taking on Bill Rocheleau of Iron Mountain at 10, the 10 a.m. victor takes on the Haack-MacDougall winner at 11:30.

John Stindt of Graveland meets Bob Marsh of Kingsford at 8:10 a.m. at Jackson Park in Negaunee, with the winner taking on Gene Kangas of Kingsford at 10 on the same court; Mike Quilliam of Iron Mountain and Joe Milecki of Escanaba play at 8:30 at the college courts, with victor playing Tom Hanley of Menominee at 10 at the island; The 10 a.m. victor meets Jackson Park and Presque Isle play at 11:30 at the island; Also at 8:30 at the college courts, Chuck Kennedy of Soo meets Dick Chern of Esby; The winner plays Jack Umuth of Stambaugh at 10 at Ohio Street; Larry Trautner of Menominee and Beldo of Graveland draw byes and meet at 10 on the college courts; The Beldt-Trautner winner takes on the 10 a.m. Ohio St. victor at 11:30 at the NMU courts.

No-Hitter Hurlled By Matt Bjorne For Republic '9'

ISHPeming — WIPD's Sherman Morcom fashioned a five-inning 10-0 softball no-hitter against DIT's Auto Mart Wednesday night, striking out five and walking only one to record his fourth win of the year.

Three triples by as many batters highlighted the slugfest for WIPD, which had only five hits, but received six walks.

CCI continued its winning ways in the Twin City loop by defeating Marukes behind the pitching of Jack Stone, who notched his second win since his re-entry in the league. Stone struck out seven and allowed five hits in a 6-3 decision, the sixth straight for the CCI.
