DETROIT (AP) — Michigan AFL-CIO president August Scholle today informed Gov. George Romney that Michigan labor will fight the idea of a flat-rate state income tax...

Basic is our belief in taxation predicated on ability to pay, said Scholle's letter.

Proj. Mercury Flights Ended

WASHINGTON (AP) — Space Chief James E. Webb announced today that there will be no additional project Mercury orbital flights.

Instead, Webb said, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration will move ahead with the program for the two-man Gemini spacecraft...

Webb told the Senate Space Committee that the decision against another Mercury flight was reached this morning at a conference with Associate Director Robert Seamans Jr. and Deputy Administrator Hugh Dryden.

Youth Has Scrape With Boat Motor—Gets 623 Stitches

STANWOOD (AP) — Wilbur Leonard, 19, was reported in "fine" condition Tuesday at Mecca County Hospital where he had 623 surgical stitches taken in his back—and lost his heart beat for a time—after a motorboat accident.

State police said the incident, which took place Saturday, was not reported until Monday night. Leonard is a resident of Wyoming, a Grand Rapids suburb.

Dr. Duain Cummings said the youth suffered 33 cuts from shoulders to waist—each about 7 inches long—after falling from his outboard boat in a sharp turn on Sand Lake in Montcalm County.

The cuts were inflicted by the boat propeller as it passed over him. Leonard was brought to the hospital by James Mate, 20, a neighbor and boating companion.

Dr. Cummings said Leonard's heart fluttered and stopped while surgery was in progress. The doctor said chest massage restored the heart beat during surgery which required nearly five hours.

Monk Burns Himself To Death

Milling crowds gathered in front of Buddhist pagodas today for memorial services for the Rev. Quang Duc, a Buddhist monk, shown above as he burned himself to death Tuesday in Saigon, Viet Nam. He put a match to his gasoline-soaked robes at a main Saigon street intersection to protest alleged persecution of Buddhists by the Viet Nam government. (AP Wirephoto).

Diorite Man Killed In Crash

Marquette County's seventh traffic fatality of 1963 occurred today on U. S. 41, in Elk Township.

The victim was Reino J. Hannuksela, 52, Diorite, who died at 4:30 this morning in the Francis A. Bell Memorial Hospital, Ishpeming, of injuries suffered a traffic smash-up at 12:30 a. m.

State police said death was due to a skull fracture. Dr. W. A. Mudge, Neegaunee, deputy county medical examiner, was summoned.

Car Rolls Over Officers said Hannuksela's car was struck from behind by an automobile operated by Joseph C. Belanger, 23, Champion, while both were traveling west on U.S. 41, about 390 feet east of County Road C.J.

Troopers Larry Marr, Erb and Jerry Koenig, Hannuksela apparently was slowing down preparatory to making a right turn onto Road C.J.

The impact forced Hannuksela's automobile to go off the right side of the roadway and roll over several times, officers stated.

Belanger suffered a cut lip and possible internal injuries, and also was taken to Bell Hospital, but declined to stay, officers said.

The Hannuksela automobile, a 1958 small, foreign model, was practically a total wreck, police said.

STIFF PENALTY POSSIBLE: 'Tony Pro' Convicted On Extortion Charge

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Anthony (Tony) Provenzano, powerful leader of the New Jersey Teamsters Union Joint Council, has been found guilty of extorting $17,100 from a New York trucking firm.

The verdict against the chunky, 46-year-old Provenzano was delivered Tuesday night by a U.S. District Court jury of six men and six women. They received the case Monday.

Provenzano faces a maximum sentence of 20 years in jail and a $10,000 fine.

News In Brief

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney today named former Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker and two present Republican leaders as his emergency successors. Named to follow Brucker in line of succession were Sen. Stanley Thayer, R-Ann Arbor, the Senate majority leader, and House Speaker Allison Green, R-Kingston.

LANSING (AP) — The Democratic Party announced today it has abandoned plans to appeal the results of the ill-fated recount on the new Constitution in court.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee, drafting a tax cut and revision bill, has rejected President Kennedy's proposal that a $300 credit against income tax be substituted for the present extra personal exemption and retirement income credit for persons over 65.

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — Burma Airways airliner, missing since Monday with 21 persons aboard, is believed to have crashed in Communist China, an airline official said Tuesday.

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet scientists reported Tuesday that a 22-million mile radar probe of Mars showed sizable flat areas on the planet's surface. The news agency Tass said the probe was made last February. It said the radio waves took over 11 minutes to travel to Mars and back.

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan held an emergency Cabinet meeting today and reportedly persuaded his shaken ministers to back his handling of the Profumo vice scandal.

Negro Leader Slain

JFK Outlines Program On Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has warned the nation that discrimination against Negroes has lighted "fires of frustration and discord" that threaten lives and the public safety.

The President outlined a broad legislative program he will propose to Congress next week. He said it will be based on the proposition "that race has no place in American life or law."

A great change is at hand, he said, and "our task, our obligation, is to make that revolution, that change, peaceful and constructive for all."

Kennedy appeared Tuesday evening on radio and television in a fireside civil rights lecture to Americans of both North and South only hours after Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace bowed to federal pressure and stepped aside to let two Negro students register at the previously all-white University of Alabama.

"I hope that every American, regardless of where he lives, will stop and examine his conscience about this and other related incidents," said Kennedy.

"When Americans are sent to Viet Nam or West Berlin, we do not ask for whites only," he said. "It ought to be possible, therefore, for American students of any color to attend any public institution they select without having to be backed up by troops."

"Not The Case" Kennedy added, "every American ought to have the right to be treated as one would wish his children to be treated. But this is not the case."

Kennedy, declaring that America is a moral issue, said he will ask Congress to make a civil rights commitment "it has not fully made in this century."

The President said he will propose legislation that would: 1. Prohibit stores, hotels, restaurants and theaters from discriminating against Negroes.

2. Allow the federal government to take a more active part in court suits aimed at desegregating public schools.

3. Afford greater protection for Negroes' right to vote.

Acknowledging the new laws are not enough, Kennedy said, however, that in too many parts of the country wrongs are inflicted on Negroes because they have no remedies at law—and "unless the Congress acts, their only remedy is the street."

In Congress, leaders of both parties promised to put their shoulders to the wheel.

But from a southern Democratic warning of filibuster and violence.

"If the President tries to enforce his legislative proposals I think it will mean violence," said Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La. "Let Of Bloodshed"

"The threat I just heard tonight that the Negroes will be in the streets if there is a filibuster—this which will be—will mean a lot of bloodshed. I'm sorry this is what is in store—more violence, bloodshed without question."

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's call for civil rights legislation swiftly received the backing of congressional leaders of both parties but they expect its passage to be slow and turbulent.

"I will devote my very best efforts" to seeking an effective program, said Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois after Kennedy's address to the nation Tuesday night.

Dirksen said he recognized "that Congress has a responsibility in this field and there should be some action in this session."

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Senate Democratic leader, made it clear he does not expect any final action until late summer on any of the civil rights proposals the President promised to send to Congress next week.

Humphrey had told a news conference Tuesday that administration leaders will press for action on other segments of his program—some form of aid to education, the long-delayed tax reduction bill, a youth employment measure and other legislation.

Forecasting a Southern filibuster in the Senate against civil rights measures, Humphrey said the administration will have to get along as best it can without additional legal authority in its attempts to ward off racial violence.

2 Colored Students Attend First Classes At Alabama

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—Two Negroes—a girl and boy—went to their first classes at the University of Alabama today and white students extended friendly hands in an atmosphere of tranquility.

Three girls walked with Vivian Malone as she went from her dormitory to a classroom building. They chatted as they strolled.

And a white youth called James A. Hood "Jimmy" in advising him that he had taken the wrong turn along the tree-lined campus at one point.

Across from Comer Hall where Miss Malone went to study business administration, a National Guardsman in green fatigues uniform stood. Nearby were three federal marshals.

The marshals had followed the 20-year-old Negro discreetly in a car from her dormitory a quarter of a mile away. The car was well behind Miss Malone and three white coeds who chatted with her as they walked along to class.

One State Highway Patrol car drove around the area. But there were no crowds and no incidents. Students at the university seemed to take the situation in stride.

Hood, 20, the other Negro admitted to the school Tuesday under National Guard protection also was unscathed.

"Hey, Jimmy" The huge campus quadrangle was thronged with students hurrying to classes.

A few newsmen were present. Otherwise, it looked like the start of a normal day on the campus.

Hood, walking to his first class, started to take a wrong turn.

A student in a short-sleeved shirt saw him and called, "Hey, Jimmy, it's over this way."

Hood smiled his thanks. The two students enrolled Tuesday when segregation's wall around Alabama public schools cracked behind federalized National Guardsmen.

Miss Malone is studying business administration and Hood's major will be psychology.

Third Negro A third Negro student, Dave McGlahey, plans to enroll Thursday at the university's Huntsville center, 150 miles north of Tuscaloosa, Gov. George C. Wallace declined to say whether he will stand in the doorway there as he did futilely here Tuesday.

He turned back federal officials and delayed registration of the two Negroes only briefly at the University of Alabama. Then he yielded to an Alabama-born general.

King Confers With Aides On Greek Crisis

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—King Paul opened a round of consultations today designed to bring Greece out of its first real government crisis in seven years.

The monarch conferred with Constantine Rodopoulos, president of Parliament, and then invited two leading opponents of Constantine Caramanlis to a palace conference.

Caramanlis resigned as premier Tuesday, protesting the refusal of the royal family to postpone a state visit to London next month.

The king now must decide whether to name a new government or to dissolve Parliament and call a national election within 45 days.

A new government could only come from Caramanlis' National Radical Union party, which has a 60-seat majority in Parliament.

The party's high command advocated new elections, with the king naming a caretaker Cabinet to supervise the voting.

The 57-year-old premier had headed the government since 1955, a record for Greece, and his party won national elections in 1956, 1958 and 1961. The king said he accepted Caramanlis' resignation with "great regret."

Queen Justified But King Paul said that refusing the invitation from Queen Elizabeth II after it had been accepted might be "a blow to the friendship and mutual confidence which exists within the NATO alliance."

Evers Shot In Driveway At His Home

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Medgar W. Evers, one of the Negro leaders in the massive civil disobedience campaign against racial discrimination in Jackson, was shot to death in the driveway of his home early today.

Police launched a widespread search for his assassin. They said they had no definite leads.

Evers, 37, Mississippi field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, died at University Medical Center about 30 minutes after he was shot.

FBI Aid Sought Chief of Detectives M. B. Pierce called the shooting "most unfortunate." He asked the FBI to assist in the investigation.

"This is most unfortunate," said Jackson Chief of Detectives W. B. Pierce, who asked the FBI to assist in the investigation.

Reward In New York, Roy T. Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP, said the death of Evers "demonstrates anew the blind and murderous hatred which obsesses too many Mississippians."

"In their ignorance they believe that by killing a brave, dedicated and resourceful leader of the civil rights struggle they can kill the movement for human rights. They cannot."

Wilkins said the NAACP was posting a $10,000 reward for Evers' assassin.

Evers was shot as he stepped out of his car about 12:30 a.m. He had been in his offices conferring with NAACP attorneys after an integration rally.

30-30 Rifle The bullet struck Evers in the right side of his back, passed through his body and smashed into his house.

The slug went through a plate glass window at an angle, pierced a wall and hit a refrigerator.

The bullet bounced off the refrigerator onto a counter near the sink. Police found it beneath a watermelon.

Police said the weapon was apparently a 30-30 rifle, a weapon commonly used for deer hunting in this area.

Officers said the assassin was probably 150 feet away from Evers.

Sweatshirts Later, Willie Mae Bishop, a white teen-ager who lives near the spot where officers believe the shot was fired, told newsmen she saw three men running away from the scene.

Evers was carrying several NAACP sweatshirts when he stepped from his car and was shot.

The blood-spattered shirts, bearing the legend "Jim Crow Must Go," remained in the driveway for several hours.

Evers staggered past his station wagon, parked in the driveway, and collapsed in the carport.

Wife Hysterical His wife, Merle Beasley Evers, 30, became hysterical when she saw her husband.

Afterward, the grief-stricken Mrs. Evers said, "The children, we were up. And the children came out and tried to talk to their Daddy."

Police said they believed the assassin fired from a vacant lot across a triangular shaped vacant lot where two streets converge.

MORE HONOLULU, Hawaii (AP)—Houston Wells, 30, a Negro furniture dealer and another neighbor, Willie C. Quinn, summoned police. A cruising patrol car was on the scene in less than two minutes, Wells said.

Three Children Police units converged on Evers' modest, frame house in North Jackson. Hours later they were questioning neighbors.

Small groups of Negroes—many in nightclothes—huddled on porches.

The couple had three children, Darrell Kenyatta, 10; Denise, 8; and Van Dyke, 3.

2 Shot, 4 Injured In Racial Rioting In Maryland City

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—Two white men were shot and at least four other persons were injured when a race riot erupted in this small Eastern Shore community late Tuesday night.

A tense racial situation flared into violence when a crowd of about 100 whites followed an equal number of Negro demonstrators back into the Negro section.

The Negroes had just finished their second march on the town's courthouse and jail protesting the sentencing of a Negro boy and girl. The 15-year-olds, who had been arrested several times for participating in racial demonstrations, were adjudged to be delinquent Monday and sent to state training schools for an indeterminate period.

A handful of city police tried to keep the two groups separated but the whites swarmed across the street toward the marchers just as they reached the Negro section.

The fight had just started when shots were fired. One shotgun blast struck the two white men. Another slammed through the window of a second-floor apartment occupied by a white woman.

Three fires, one a general alarm blaze, broke out after fire bombs were tossed into business establishments operated by whites in the Negro section. Police found homemade fire bombs fashioned from beer bottles filled with gasoline in two of these places.

Leaves Canceled Col. Carey Jarman, state police superintendent, and Maj. George E. Davidson, Maryland field force commander, rushed to this normally quiet town on the Choptank River at 1 a.m.

Davidson said he had canceled all state police leaves and had called in enough reserves to "sufficiently support the local authorities."

Jerome Sheton, 36, owner of an auto paint and fender shop and George Bernard Todd, 42, a fire insurance adjuster, were struck by shotgun pellets as they sat in a car in front of Sheton's shop. Minutes before Sheton's shop was the target of a crude fire bomb. The men were treated at a hospital and released.

Race Protest In New York, Three Injured

NEW YORK (AP)—Demonstrators and police clashed today at the site of the new 800-bed Harlem Hospital. Three men, two of them Negroes, said they were injured.

About 150 demonstrators had assembled to protest what they called discrimination against Negroes in employment in the building trades.

A dozen pickets attempted to block the entrance to the site at Lenox Avenue and 136th Street and were pushed back by police with wooden barricades. Start of work was delayed for 30 minutes.

Herbert Hill, NAACP national labor secretary, said he had an appointment with acting Mayor Paul R. Sorensen at City Hall later today and would protest what he called "police brutality."

Hill said he would "attack the police function in a demonstration designed to prevent to continuation of illegal practices."

Hill and other spokesmen of the organizations demonstrating castigated "City Hall" for allegedly failing to enforce the "anti-discrimination law which they maintained is violated daily at every construction site in New York City."

Contention Hill maintained that in New York City, "Negro participation in building trades construction is less than 2 per cent and that 2 per cent is concentrated in the travel trades."

Racial News At A Glance

DANVILLE, Va. — After night of quiet, Negro leader calls for larger demonstrations against racial bars in job opportunities, public facilities.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. — On same day federal forces put two Negroes into white University of Alabama, a white student signed up for summer classes at Alabama A&M, a Negro college. Robert Muekel, chemistry teacher from Utica, Neb., said he did not know A&M was Negro institution until he applied for campus quarters for a family.

ATLANTA — Under federal court orders, city desegregates public swimming pools today for first time. Strong security measures set up, police say will permit no disorders.

SAVANNAH, Ga. — Downtown park, scene of almost daily demonstrations, closed after what police called riotous situation developed Tuesday. Police arrested 49 adults and unannounced number of juveniles when estimated 1,000 demonstrators gathered at main business intersection.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — More than 20 white and Negro demonstrators launch sit-in to support passage of legislation banning discrimination in housing.

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. — Board of Education votes to close Lincoln school June 30 and distribute its 200 pupils, mostly Negro, to other schools. Board members termed Lincoln district a symbol of segregation.

NAACP To Fight Discrimination In Detroit Housing

DETROIT (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Tuesday urged the Detroit City Council to outlaw racial discrimination in private housing.

Failure to enact an open occupancy law, NAACP officials said, could lead to "rising racial tensions over the racial injustice and inequality in housing and schools."

Pilot Workshop Opens Here Tomorrow For U. P. School Officials

A pilot workshop on vocational and technical education for more than 40 Upper Peninsula administrators will be sponsored by Northern Michigan University's public services division tomorrow and Friday.

Sponsored in cooperation with the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, division of vocational education, the two-day program for superintendents, counselors, coordinators and board members at the Hotel Northland is designed to explore the specific needs of areas throughout the U. P. in vocational and technical education.

Among the topics to be discussed will be: "Does public education have the responsibility for providing vocational guidance services for our adult citizens?" "Do school administrators desire and seek the advice and counsel of community leaders?" and "What responsibilities should the school boards assume in determining curriculum?"

Welcome By Bosworth
Russell W. Adams, Northern's director of business and industrial services, will serve as general chairman.

Dr. Claud A. Bosworth, NMU vice president in charge of public services, will welcome the participants at a noon luncheon tomorrow. Following the luncheon, Harold Fisher, NMU business consultant, will speak on "The Need for Vocational Education Today."

Panelists appearing on a 2 p. m. panel on the vocational training needs in the U. P. will be: Al Gazvoda, Calumet, area coordinator, Michigan Employment Security Commission; Ray Brisson, Norway, president, Lo-Dal, Inc.; Bert Stott, director of community and employee relations, Calumet and Hecla, Inc.; Ken Dorman, executive secretary, Upper Michigan Tourist Association; E.

Byron Thomas, education director, Michigan Retailers Association and Dr. W. A. Berg, professor and head of the NMU psychology and education department.

Following a series of discussions, and a report on the findings, the participants will hear Leon J. Alger, research consultant, MDPI's division of vocational education speak on "The State Department Looks at Vocational Education."

The evening's final session will feature a panel discussion on "What is the University (Northern) Doing Today?" Representing Northern will be six members of the NMU public services division, Mrs. Marian Judish, director, practical nursing center; John Meyers, labor consultant; Fisher; William VanKosky, management consultant, and William Martin, supervisor, area training center.

Friday's morning session will feature a symposium on "What is Ahead in Vocational Education at Northern?" Appearing on the panel to discuss trade and technical education along with Martin will be K. A. Wahler, head of Northern's industrial arts department, Charles Pappas, head of NMU's business administration department, will discuss business and distributive education.

An afternoon discussion featuring "Teacher Training Services" will be led by Ted Sell, administrative teacher-trainer, NMU public services division, who will discuss trade and technical education. Dr. Jane Bemis, head, home economics and family life education at Northern, and Fisher.

Prior to a general session at 3:15 p. m., a group discussion will be held on "Better Ways to Jointly Solve Our Problems." Also participating in the two-day program will be representatives of Gogebic Community College, Ironwood, and Bay de Noc Community College, Escanaba.

Hearing In Court Waived By Inmate

A trusty who escaped from the Marquette State Prison's Mangum Farm in Chocolay Township April 22 with two homemade zip guns was bound over to the September term of Marquette County Circuit Court yesterday.

The trusty, James Major Jr., 27, was arraigned before Judge Edward H. Dembowski in municipal court. Major waived preliminary examination and was released by the custody of Warden Raymond J. Backhoe.

He is charged with prison escape and with felonious assault against Mangum Farm Guard John Meyers of Princeton.

Major has been hospitalized since his armed flight from the Mangum Farm April 22.

He accidentally shot himself in the stomach with a homemade derringer as he was captured on the evening of his breakout by County Sheriff Thomas F. Jerstad and Undersheriff Adrian A. Pequet of Marquette.

During the escape, Major threatened Meyers with the two guns, but failed to get the guard to drive him to Marquette, officers said. Major fed the farm, but a police search began immediately.

Less Than Mile Away
The inmate left the farm about 8:29 p. m. and he was captured just after 11 p. m. by Jerstad and Pequet, on U. S. 41 less than a mile from the farm.

Major shot himself in the right side of stomach as he was pulling his homemade derringer from his pocket.

He was kept under surveillance at St. Mary's Hospital in Marquette for several days and then taken to the hospital at the prison until he recuperated from the wound.

Hike In Federal Payments For National Forest Lands Proposed By Rep. Bennett

Congressman John B. Bennett (R-Ontonagon) today proposed an increase in federal payments made in lieu of taxes to counties in which national forest lands are located.

Rep. Bennett introduced a bill requiring payments of 10 cents an acre on such lands in addition to the amounts currently distributed to counties from forest revenues.

For Roads, Schools
States were national forests are located annually receive 25 percent of the gross revenues from each forest, mostly from the sale of timber. This money is distributed to counties for roads and schools.

Rep. Bennett said the revenue-sharing payments "are neither an adequate nor a dependable source of revenue upon which local governments may rely in budgeting for the needs of their communities."

The counties' share of revenues from the Ottawa National Forest in Northern Michigan, Rep. Bennett said, declined from an average of 10.7 cents an acre in 1953-57 to 7.9 cents in 1958-62 and is expected to fall to 6.5 cents this year.

This revenue loss, Rep. Bennett declared in a House speech, "has had a serious impact on the counties in my district at a time when expenses for schools, roads, and other public facilities and services have steadily increased."

Present law allows a county to spend its share of forest receipts only for schools and roads. The additional payment provided by the Bennett bill could also be used for other public purposes.

Natural Gas For U.P. 'In Realm Of Possibility'

Natural gas in the central part of the Upper Peninsula seemed to be within the realm of possibility at a meeting of the Upper Peninsula Committee for Natural Gas at the Northern Michigan University student center last night.

The ray of hope came in a "we mean business" report from Herbert Sampson, vice president of Northern Natural Gas Co. of Omaha, Neb., who said that his company is proceeding with a project for a natural gas pipeline to Escanaba and Marquette.

Northern Natural Gas Co. began investigating the possibility of laying a pipeline from its existing Duluth - Silver Bay line into the U. P. a year ago.

Sampson said that after a "road map study" and a crude cost estimate, the company began with preliminary marketing studies.

"These studies convinced our marketing department that a pipeline coming from the west across the Gogebic Range would benefit the most people and would have the best market. We feel that this is the best political and economic route," Sampson said.

He disclosed that since a meeting with the U. P. Natural Gas Committee held in Escanaba in February, the Northern Natural Gas Co. has spent more than $50,000 on engineering and marketing surveys for the U. P. project.

Aerial photos have been obtained of the entire proposed route and engineers have made ground reconnaissance studies of every foot of potential right-of-way, Sampson said.

Board Okays Project

"Two weeks ago our policy board reviewed the project and directed the company to proceed with the U. P. project," Sampson said.

The board acted on the recommendation of the marketing division, which normally doesn't stick its neck out," he added.

In the next few weeks, members of the marketing division of Northern Natural Gas Co. will contact industrial customers along the proposed 400-mile pipeline, Sampson said.

Sampson said the company will talk to industry along the proposed route to "see if our prices are in the ballpark" and also will ask for letters of intent from the potential industrial customers.

"If we can't meet the prices of industry here, we'll be the first to go home," Sampson said.

"We've already spent $50,000 and if we get to the point where we've lost our enthusiasm about the U. P. project or have spent too much money, we'll tell you," he said.

Depends On FPC Decision

Final decision of the Northern Natural Gas policy board on whether the company will continue with the project depends to a large degree on the decision in a company case before the Federal Power Commission.

"The FPC will decide on a 'town program' formula proposed by Northern Natural Gas. The formula determines whether communities will make an economic contribution to join the pipeline.

The U. P. project rests on this decision because it is based on the liberal town program formula, Sampson said. Based on this formula, none of the communities in the U. P. would have to make a contribution to join the line, he said.

Sampson pointed out that a determining factor in bringing natural gas to the U. P. is the economics of laying a pipeline from Duluth to Marquette and Escanaba.

For Smaller Cities

The proposed route to Marquette & Escanaba includes Ashland in Wisconsin, and communities such as Ironwood, Iron River, Wakefield, Ishpeming and Negaunee in the U. P.

Northern Natural Gas does 95 per cent of its business with towns under 5,000 in population, which other companies thought were a poor business venture, Sampson noted.

In addition to being a pipeline company, Northern Natural Gas is a producing company with 13 trillion feet of natural gas now under its control, he said.

Also A Distributor

Northern Natural Gas is also a distributor of natural gas. Sampson said that because of laws in Wisconsin and Michigan, in the proposed project the company would sell natural gas wholesale to distributing companies under FPC rates.

In the U. P. project, the company is particularly interested in the potential industrial load and the future development of taconite, he noted.

Thomas Moore, Marquette city manager and chairman of the U. P. Natural Gas Committee, noted that up until a year ago, the committee had been working with natural gas retailers.

Over 100 Attend

"Regardless of the market here, the retail companies weren't able to bring gas to the U. P. I felt it was time we started dealing with some natural gas producers," Moore said.

More than 100 members of the U. P. Natural Gas Committee and citizens interested in the effort to bring natural gas to the U. P. attended the meeting last night.

MSU Resort Specialist In Area June 17

Robert McIntosh, East Lansing, Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service tourist and resort specialist, will be in Marquette County on Monday, June 17, to meet and talk with hotel and resort personnel.

"Anyone in the hotel or resort business can increase his profits with more skillful management," said Melvin N. Nyquist, Marquette, MSU county extension director.

McIntosh, a business management specialist, will present progressive management ideas.

Consultant In U. P. Long Time

McIntosh has done consulting work in the Upper Peninsula for 17 years.

He has written circulars in the "Tourist and Resort" series put out by Michigan State University, including "Business Methods for Motels," "Business Methods for Cottage Resorts," and "Account Book for Small Tourist and Resort Businesses."

Appointments with McIntosh can be made at the Cooperative Extension Service office in the courthouse here.

All but seven states in the U.S. require a bachelor's degree for elementary school teachers.

Modernization Work Begins On M-53

LANSING (AP) — Work has begun on a $2.4 million modernizing of M-53 in Warren and Center Line. The road will be widened from its present four and five lanes to seven lanes between eight-mile and 14-mile roads, a distance of 6.3 miles. The project will be finished in August, 1964.

Program For Flag Day Set By Elks Lodge

Ceremonies will be conducted by the Elks Lodge at Memorial Field at 7:30 Friday evening in commemoration of Flag Day.

Honor guards from the Air Force, Coast Guard, National Guard and Boy Scouts also will participate in the ceremony, according to Elks Exalted Ruler Joseph Fountain.

Mayor C. Fred Rydholm has proclaimed Friday as Flag Day in Marquette.

'Symbol Of Liberty'

Mayor Rydholm states: "The flag of our country has been the symbol of the liberty of free men and government by law since our nation was born nearly 200 years ago.

"It is fitting each year that we salute our nation's emblem and renew allegiance to the principles for which it stands."

School Chief Inspects Progress At Building Site

Neil Hodge (left), superintendent of construction for the Marquette Senior High School, and Superintendent of Schools Henry J. Bothwell are shown reviewing progress at the high school construction site, west of Lincoln Ave., between W. College Ave. (extended) and W. Fair Ave. General contractor is Caspian Construction Co., Caspian. Total of the three main contracts is $2,266,156. Lower picture shows part of the construction area. Forty men are now employed at the site, where placement of footings, construction of concrete and masonry walls, installation of manholes, road work and grading are now being conducted.—(Joe Sullivan photo).

311 Eligible Area Residents Not Receiving Security Aid

Many residents of Marquette County who are entitled to old-age pensions are not getting them because they have not made application for them.

That is indicated by an examination of social security files, which has been undertaken on a national basis to discover and locate such individuals.

It had been supposed that everyone who had been making regular payments to the Old-age and Survivors Insurance fund would apply for benefits the minute he qualified for them. But it hasn't worked out that way.

To $250 Maximum

The government, after becoming aware that the situation was a wide-spread one, went to its electronic computers to find out just how many people were involved.

The machines turned up the names of more than 1,000,000 insured persons in the United States, all over the age of 65, who filed no claims.

In Marquette County, on the basis of the general findings, it appears that there are an estimated 311 local residents who could be receiving OASI checks each month and are not.

These payments would range from a minimum of $40 a month to more than $250, which is the maximum that the family of a retired or deceased worker can get.

On the average, the amount being paid in old-age benefits, according to the current figures, is $76.18 per month.

For the 311 in Marquette County who are not collecting, this would add up to $23,692 a month, or $284,250 a year.

Social security officials have made studies to determine why so many eligible people are missing out on their benefits.

Unaware Of Changes

They found that a large proportion of them who have continued working beyond 65 do not realize that changes in the regulations permit them to collect all or part of their benefits, even while working.

Others have failed to note that reductions have been made in the amount of coverage needed to qualify. As a result, some who were turned down in the past are now eligible.

A third group has the mistaken notion that a person has to be in need in order to get Social Security.

Many of these qualified people have already been located and advised of their rights. The search for the others continues.

Vehicle Registrations Up 4.2% During 1962

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. motor vehicle registrations shot up 3.2 million, or 4.2 per cent, in 1962, the Commerce Department reported Monday. The record increase was 7.2 per cent in 1955.

Curb Stake Work, Property Survey Done By City In Week

Curb stakes were set out by the city engineering department on Wright St. for the U. S. Forest Products Laboratory and on Neidhart Ave. between Clark and Union Sts. last week.

This and other information concerning the activities of municipal departments is included in the weekly report of City Manager Thomas Moore.

The engineering department also ran a property survey on a parcel of land on Wright St. west of the Forest Products Laboratory for the proposed Standard Oil relocation site and set grade stakes on Jonathan Carver Drive where street grading and installation of sanitary sewer and water mains will be done by the subdivider.

Sewer Construction

The city engineer also met with Michigan State Highway Department representatives concerning sanitary sewer construction along the service drive between Grove and Fisher Sts.

Excerpts from the reports of other municipal departments follow:

Public works — Shoulder maintenance on U. S. 41 carried on. Worked on Ridge St. storm sewer, cleaned catchbasins and made sewer calls.

Parks and recreation — Three bear cubs have been added to the zoo at Presque Isle, in addition to the six fawns in the deer pen. Started spring clean up at Shiras Pool. The pool was emptied and the bottom of the pool cleaned.

Water and sewage — Completed two three-quarter inch taps on Bluff St. and repaired a one-inch service line on White St. During the week 16,823,000 gallons of water were pumped.

Fire — One chimney, two grass and three gas spill fires. Drill sessions were conducted at the No. 2 fire station. A rubber goods clothes rack was constructed. The ambulance made four local and three out-of-city calls.

Police — Arrests, 3 misdemeanors, 2 felons, 56 traffic, four accidents; investigations, 5 larceny, 10 accidents, 44 disturbances. Two concealed weapons permits were issued and three missing persons cases were investigated. The dog warden picked up 20 dogs and disposed of 16. Eleven other animals were disposed of.

Clerk — Issued 103 dog licenses, took one new registration and made four cancellations of registration.

Court — Handled 11 traffic violations, six misdemeanors, two felonies and two civil cases. The violations bureau handled 94 meter and 10 restricted parking violations.

Accounts and finances — Multiple check voucher postings and semi-monthly payroll work completed. Michigan Employment Security Commission report prepared. General and payroll bank reconciliations completed.

Assessor — Continued spreading the 1963 city and library tax levy on the tax assessment rolls.

Birth, Death Rates Climb Here In May

Birth and death rates climbed in Marquette during May, although the year's baby crop is still well below last year's total, City Clerk Everett H. Kent reports.

Deaths are higher than last year. There were 21 babies born in Marquette last month, nine more than for April but three under the May 1962 total. This included 35 boys and 42 girls, 50 of whom were born to resident fathers and mothers and 27 to non-resident parents.

The births last month increased the year's total to 293, as compared to 283 for the first five months of 1962.

15 Resident Deaths

There were 21 deaths in the city last month, six under the previous month's figure but six more than the May 1962 figure.

Twelve were males and nine females. Fifteen were residents and six were non-residents.

For the year, there have been 104 deaths in the city, six more than last year at this time.

Causes of deaths in the city in May were heart disease, 10; pneumonia, three; carcinoma and uremia, two each, and alcoholism, colitis, embolism and cirrhosis, one each.

Escapes Took Special Care To Cover Tracks

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Police searched today for two prisoners who took special care to cover their tracks when they made their getaway Monday. They took the prison bloodhound with them.

Authorities of Camp Fairchance, a minimum-security branch of the state prison system, said the inmates had been assigned to train the dog to track prison escapees.

The fugitives, Harry B. Allen, 34, and Clyde Shears Jr., 28, were serving 1 to 10-year terms for grand larceny.

An Excellent Party

Lost in the busy round of graduation activities, but deeply significant as a successful experiment in safety and teen-age control was the post-commencement party for Gravenet High School graduating seniors held in the Elks hall immediately following their exercises.

National magazines have reported the horror of growing casualty lists and other tragic consequences of prom and graduation nights throughout the country. This year Marquette parents decided to act, and the result was proof of the old truism: When good people decide to take action, the results are invariably good.

The party was not a success for a single person or individual. It was a highly commendable community project. And one of the most valuable contributions was the consideration given the students themselves.

Briefly, a group of parents met to consider the party. Officers of the senior class and of the high school student council were invited. The high school PTA gave its approval. Senior class and student council representatives were on every committee. The youngsters knew what was planned; they expressed their opinions on what they wanted. The parents gave them every consideration.

The Elks, in keeping with that organization's reputation for community activities, donated the use of the hall. Parents handled chaperone responsibilities, the ministerial association backed it, high school officials gave hearty endorsement, the senior class and student council leadership gave effective support to the plan and enlisted the eager cooperation of the students. Every parent received a letter on the activities planned and when the graduates could be expected home.

They brought in a band, and the seniors danced to their heart's content. A committee of parents served breakfast in the wee hours of the morning. And tired youngsters, with an outlet for their energy and their bubbling desire to celebrate graduation, were given a great party, a safe party.

Two highly important results—One: As far as could be known, every member of the graduating class attended. No wallflowers, nobody left out, a great get-together as a final memory of high school and of graduation exercises.

Two: No accidents, no careening cars driven to distant cities, no tired youngsters taking the deadly chance of fighting fatigue at the wheel. No emergency calls from police or hospital.

This is a project that could well be commended to the parents of next year's graduating class, one that the high school officials and PTA could well mark down for reference.

Peninsula Perambulator

The 5½-pound mystery trout that confused Chippewa County fishing contest judges has turned out to be just what fisherman Wilfred Lee said it was—a brook trout. Positive identification of the fish—which some suspected was a splake—was made at the Tarentorus Hatchery outside the Ontario Sault by Stan Devereux, a fish culturist of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests. The only mystery now remaining is how many more of these record-breaking brooks remain in the St. Marys River, where Lee caught the big fish. Last year's record brook trout taken in Chippewa County waters weighed only 2 pounds, 9 ounces. While Lee's fish is a small one compared with the all-time record for a brook trout (14½ pounds, caught in the Nipigon River, Ontario, in July, 1916), it's one of the largest taken in Michigan waters in several years.

Rumblings reported heard in the Riverside and Burns Additions of Iron River the last two weeks have prompted the Michigan Highway Department to send an official to the area to investigate the situation. The department is maintaining watchmen on U. S. 2 on a 24-hour basis at the request of the county mine inspector. The mine inspector believes the rumblings were in the old Delta Mine workings, but mining company geologists say it is more likely the noise is coming from activity in the cavernous Virgil-Spies stopes, which have been caving since last year. The mine inspector recommends that test holes be drilled in an attempt to determine what is happening underground. For a time, rail traffic was halted on the Chicago & North Western Railroad's main line, but has now been resumed.

Leo Boisjeman, general chairman, reports that $410,250 has been subscribed to the Loretto Catholic Central High School building fund campaign being conducted in Sault Ste. Marie. Nearly 250 men of the four parishes in the Sault are participating in the drive.

Services were conducted Monday for Wesley J. Davis, 61, city treasurer of Kingsford for 12 years, who died suddenly in his home after a short illness.

Harvey W. Dishaw, 42, lifelong resident of Sagola, was fatally shot after he was robbed at Havre, Mont., where he had been employed since April.

The Alpine Construction Co., founded in Detroit June 19, 1919, and located in St. Ignace for the last 28 years, will close its business June 14. The firm has built nearly 500 miles of highways in Michigan and has employed as many as 250 men with a payroll amounting to nearly one million dollars.

The city officials have finally been able to ascertain that the State Legislature did not adjourn without passing the local measures affecting Marquette. The first provides compensation for aldermen for attending council meetings and also compensation for committee members for time actually put in. The water board act is by far the most important of the two bills, as it is designed to bring about the support of the fire department by direct taxation instead of out of income from water rates, as has heretofore been the case. This change will put the burden of the expense of the fire department where it has belonged all along, on the property owners.

Many children in Marquette County are expected to take advantage of the dental clinic which will open June 26 and continue until Sept. 16. Thousands of children in the state already have been benefited by the establishment of free dental clinics in 56 counties since the organization of the Michigan Children's Fund by Sen. James Couzens in 1929.

Maxwell K. Reynolds Jr. has returned home from the Romford School, Conn., to spend the summer vacation.

Ted Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Reynolds, E. Ridge St., accompanied by his friend, Adrian Fisher of Memphis, Tenn., motored to Marquette from Princeton University, arriving here Sunday.

representatives were on every committee. The youngsters knew what was planned; they expressed their opinions on what they wanted. The parents gave them every consideration.

The Elks, in keeping with that organization's reputation for community activities, donated the use of the hall. Parents handled chaperone responsibilities, the ministerial association backed it, high school officials gave hearty endorsement, the senior class and student council leadership gave effective support to the plan and enlisted the eager cooperation of the students. Every parent received a letter on the activities planned and when the graduates could be expected home.

They brought in a band, and the seniors danced to their heart's content. A committee of parents served breakfast in the wee hours of the morning. And tired youngsters, with an outlet for their energy and their bubbling desire to celebrate graduation, were given a great party, a safe party.

Two highly important results—One: As far as could be known, every member of the graduating class attended. No wallflowers, nobody left out, a great get-together as a final memory of high school and of graduation exercises.

Two: No accidents, no careening cars driven to distant cities, no tired youngsters taking the deadly chance of fighting fatigue at the wheel. No emergency calls from police or hospital.

This is a project that could well be commended to the parents of next year's graduating class, one that the high school officials and PTA could well mark down for reference.

Menominee is becoming the marching town in the Upper Peninsula. It stages an annual St. Patrick's Day heel and toe down its main thoroughfare to a Jiggs dinner at Hotel Menominee so the Doyleys and the Murphys can strut and forensicate and talk of the glories of Ireland before the potato famine.

Menominee's St. Patrick's Day turnout has a strong flavor of Scandinavia, but just to make sure that everybody's bappy and that all minority groups have expression, Menominee also stages a Scandinavian Day parade and dinner.

This year's march had Don Gunderson bearing the banner of Norway, Harry Nielsen that of Denmark, Guy Karry that of Finland and Oscar Pearson that of Sweden. The Swedish women of the Vasa Lodge wore blue skirts, white blouses and black veistes laced up the front.

Not many years ago Menominee, like most cities of the Upper Peninsula, had active lodges of national groups. Then the interest in Old Country culture faded in the second and third generations. Now, in the third and fourth, it seems to be reviving. People are saying, "Isn't it too bad that we stopped speaking Svensk at home," and are giving more attention to Grand-ma's customs.

Most of the lodges are gone, and, oddly, those of the largest nationality groups are not among the survivors. The Turn Verein is gone, its hall and gym razed; the St. John Baptist Society is no more; the Caledonian Society, Loyal Iberians, Sons of Hermann, are no more. The Scots don't dine on Bobby Burns birthday now, but still perking are the lodges and lodge halls of the Bohemians and of the Danes. And across the river in Marinette, Wis., the Sons of Sweden are still cutting herring for sill.

The Cornish party is the most imperishable culinary artifact of the Upper Peninsula's settlement, but the saffron rolls and head cheeses and other food delights that the pioneers brought from the Old World and fixed into our area diet should have ceremonial appreciation, too, and we should be cracking out the old flags periodically to remind us of our ties and our debts.

This is an artist's conception of what Pad 36 for launching Saturn for moon shot from Cape Canaveral area will look like. Moon project is expected to keep Cape's growth rate at the tremendous level it has maintained during the past decade.

Cape Canaveral, Fastest Growing Area In Nation, Poised For Shot At Moon

(The following article was written for The Mining Journal by Larry P. Miller, former Marquette resident who now is a reporter for the Miami Herald.—Ed.)

CAPE CANAVERAL.—They aren't just kidding here when they talk about shooting for the moon. Besides the giant Saturn missiles that will soon be streaking toward our nearest neighboring planet, the surrounding area's booming population and economy are zooming skyward, too.

California Included
The growth has been so rapid that between 1950 and 1960 the area was the fastest growing of any in the nation, according to the U. S. census.

And yes, the Florida Chamber of Commerce points out, that includes California too.

A Miami research firm has predicted that by 1970 the Cape Canaveral area will be able to support 200,000 more highly skilled jobs, six million dollars in additional payrolls, 600,000 more people and 2.5 million dollars in added residential construction.

Plenty Of Jobs
Because of this economic explosion, skilled job openings crop up daily—some of which are never filled. They range from those requiring a scientist to compute intricate missile data to grammar school teachers. The situation has brought about an unemployment rate of 2.9 per cent—lower than Florida's average of 4.9 and far below the national average.

For that matter, the labor force is growing at the fantastic rate of 1,000 per month in an area that just recently served past the 100,000 mark in population.

Formidable Task
Many of the workers are young—just out of high school or college. All have a formidable task: To guide both the missiles and the surrounding area along the right track.

In 1950 Brevard County, where the Cape is located, was a drowsy little town of 23,000. The tourist areas of Florida's fabulous Gold Coast were more than 100 miles to the south and the white sands of Daytona Beach were almost that far up the Atlantic shoreline.

Statistics Of Expansion
Then a War Department research and development board recommended the area as the logical site for the nation's missile range. On July 24, 1950, the first missile was fired and the surrounding economy started spiraling faster than the second stage of a Saturn rocket.

Within 10 years the population shot up 371 per cent, the school enrollment rose more than 200 per cent and the county's number of automobiles exploded to the tune of a 510 per cent gain.

Growth Brought Problems
The median age took a nosedive from 35 to 26 as thousands of younger people and their families began flooding the area to fill a gap that existed in the number of engineers, scientists, secretaries and school teachers who were available.

The mushrooming growth also brought its problems. Schools began to bulge like an overgrown teenager who's found he's too big for his clothes. Roads that were meant to handle a leisurely flow of traffic became unbelievably clogged. And land developers with an eye for a quick buck began selling acreage under a foot of water to amateur speculators throughout the nation who had never seen 'em.

'Moonboom' Coming
To combat this, a group known as the East-Central Florida Regional Planning Council is working out a master plan for the area's future. Predictions by them of what the Cape area will be like 10 years from now make current figures almost pale by comparison.

What's going to cause all the excitement? Florida officials have dubbed it a "moonboom."

It'll be caused by three heavy space vehicles now being developed by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) under the project name of "Saturn." Hopefully they will land our first astronaut on the moon within this decade.

The Saturn project is providing vehicles capable of sending payloads of many tons into earth orbit, to the moon and into deep space. The main purpose of the project is manned space exploration—including the landing of men and equipment on the lunar surface.

The smallest vehicle, the Saturn I, has a booster developing 1.5 million pounds thrust. The largest, Saturn V, will have a booster of 7.5 million pounds thrust—five times that of the Saturn I. The program is now in its early development phases, having been initiated in January of 1962.

'Hybrid' Vehicle
In addition to these two basic Saturn vehicles, a "hybrid" known as Saturn IB will be used. The IB will consist of the first stage of the Saturn I and the third stage of the Saturn V and will be used in the early phases of the manned lunar landing program.

The description of the sprawling pads from which these missiles will be launched resembles something from a modern-day Buck Rogers comic book.

Major elements of Complex 39—from which the Saturn will be fired—include:

- A vertical assembly building for checking out the Saturn. The building—48 stories high—will completely enclose the missile during prelaunch activity and will have the tallest sliding doors in creation.
- Four launch pads about 9,000 feet apart, spread along the Atlantic Ocean beaches.
- Specially constructed roadways that will connect the forward pads with the assembly building two miles to the rear.
- An arming tower along the main artery from which explosive charges necessary for flight control are attached to the missile after it leaves the assembly building.
- A canal on which a barge can deliver individual Saturn V stages to the vertical assembly building.

NLRB Rules Against Two Detroit Papers

WASHINGTON (AP)—A National Labor Relations Board trial examiner has ruled the Detroit Newspaper Publishers Association and its members were in partial violation of the National Labor Relations Act in connection with a Teamsters contract dispute at the Detroit Free Press last year.

NLRB examiner Harold Summers Monday issued a recommendation to the full board that the association and its members, the morning Free Press and the afternoon Detroit News, be ordered to cease and desist in applying what he said was a joint agreement to suspend publication if one newspaper was struck by a craft union.

Summers' finding said his recommendation applied only to joint suspension resulting from a strike by a union having separate contracts with both the News and the Free Press.

Summers said suspension of publication by one paper when another was struck by a union having a joint contract with both was not in violation of the National Labor Relations Act.

Spokesmen for the association and both papers had no immediate comment on the finding which now goes before the full board.

Summers' finding was issued after a hearing on a complaint against the association, The Evening News Association, publisher of the News and Knight Newspapers, Inc., publishers of the Free Press, by 14 unions representing employees at both papers.

Represented at the hearing last September were the Photo Engravers Union, Stereotypers Union, Mailers Union, Teamsters, American Newspaper Guild and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Other unions involved were Paper and Plate Handlers Union, the Pressman's Union, the International Typographical Union and various Detroit locals of the unions.

The unions listed several periods last year when one Detroit newspaper suspended operations during a dispute at the other paper although the suspending paper was not involved in a dispute with the union.

Eight of the unions negotiate contracts for employees at both newspapers through the publishers' association. The others have separate contracts with the News and the Free Press.

Shirley Gets Her One-Cent Tax Refund

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—Shirley Owen said Monday she has received a check from the Canadian government for the refund she sought on her 1962 income tax form—one cent.

She said she had been told that the government would not refund her one cent because she had not paid the tax on time.

Selecting The Next Pope

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The struggle among the cardinals in choosing a new Pope will shape the direction of the Roman Catholic Church for years.

The conservatives and those who favor a more liberal policy, when they begin June 19 to elect from among themselves a successor to Pope John XXIII, may hit a stalemate and have to settle on a compromise.

Could Be A Surprise
Still, he could be a surprise, one way or the other. Pope John was. He was a compromise and turned out in his short reign of about 4½ years to be the most progressive and adaptable Pope in the 20th century.

That the word liberal can be used to describe some of the cardinals who feel the church needs changes to adjust to new times is in itself a mark of change. Only 12 years ago, when Pope Leo XIII wrote his famous encyclical, Rerum Novarum (Of New Things), he denounced liberals in the word by name.

Dog-Eat-Dog Society
It was a time when part of the liberal tradition was anti-clerical but was particularly associated with European economic thinkers, especially in Britain, who urged free enterprise without government control or interference.

They were the social Darwinians, operating under the philosophy of Herbert Spencer's dog-eat-dog society in which the rich were considered superior and the poor deserved to be poor because they weren't smart enough to get rich.

But it was in that encyclical that Pope Leo urged consideration for workers and suggested labor unions. By the time he wrote it in 1891, already some programs of social welfare for workers had been started, but only on a tiny scale.

Went Far Beyond Pope Leo
Pope John, in his encyclical this year, Pacem in Terris (Peace on Earth), went far beyond Pope Leo's thinking and urged cradle-to-the-grave welfare programs. Nothing showed the changing times better.

Now liberals are no longer associated with the concept of unlimited free enterprise and the word liberal is not identified with anti-clericalism. Some Catholics consider themselves liberal, some conservative.

Liberals today in the economic field, concerned for the general welfare, urge government controls on business. Pope John, unlike Pope Leo, didn't condemn liberals in his encyclical. He didn't mention them.

Suggested Removing Restrictions
The most recent visible sign of change in thinking among church leaders came from Richard Cardinal Cushing, Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston and one of those who will choose the new Pope.

He expressed views in the June 15 issue of America, a Jesuit weekly, which would have seemed impossible 50 years ago.

He suggested removing many of the church restrictions on marriages between Catholics and non-Catholics, specifically proposing elimination of the religious promises required of the non-Catholic partner.

He predicted that the church's capon law on marriage would be changed as an outgrowth of the Ecumenical Council which Pope John had called into session last fall, the first in almost 100 years. It is expected to resume this fall.

'Result Of Pastoral Needs'
Cardinal Cushing said "canon law is the result of pastoral needs" but that the "needs of one time are not the needs of another" and may not be of "much help to a later generation."

He said, "in fact, they can sometimes be a hindrance in the care of souls." He also urged the gradual elimination of the procedure connected with the church's index of prohibited books.

Pope John wanted closer unity in the Christian world between Catholics and non-Catholics; he wanted reforms in the church. These were his main reasons for calling the Ecumenical Council.

Millions Behind Iron Curtain
But in the council meeting approval has to come from those taking part in it, not only cardinals but other church leaders from around the world. It is the cardinals alone who elect a Pope.

But Pope John, in the social and political fields, took steps on his own. For instance, by suggesting a world government and opening the door a bit to dealing with the Communist world. Millions of Catholics are behind the Iron Curtain.

The new Pope will either follow down the road paved by Pope John, revert to real conservatism or try to hit some middle ground. But it was the worldwide good will created by Pope John which caused world-wide regret when he died last week.

WASHINGTON — The struggle among the cardinals in choosing a new Pope will shape the direction of the Roman Catholic Church for years.

The conservatives and those who favor a more liberal policy, when they begin June 19 to elect from among themselves a successor to Pope John XXIII, may hit a stalemate and have to settle on a compromise.

Check Cashing Do's, Don't's Outlined Here By Sgt. Kelly

Check cashing "do's and don't's" were outlined for Marquette retail sales people yesterday by Det.-Sgt. Fred G. Kelly, Lansing, in charge of the bogus check department of the Michigan State Police.

Fifty-four persons attended the sessions, which was an almost perfect representation from members of the retail division of the chamber of commerce, it was reported.

The two sessions were sponsored by the Union National Bank, in cooperation with the state police, in an effort to prevent the cashing of bad checks.

Millions Of Dollars Annually

Det.-Sgt. Kelly, who has been in charge of the state police bogus check department for 15 years, noted that bad checks cashed in Michigan total several million dollars each year.

The "don't's" of check cashing, Det.-Sgt. Kelly said, include:

1. Accept post-dated checks.
2. Cash checks for juveniles because they are not legally responsible.
3. Accept checks that are not properly endorsed.
4. Cash checks which have signs of alterations or erasures.
5. Leave blank or canceled checks accessible to the public.
6. Fail to report bad checks to

Romney Eyes Program For Senior Citizens

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney has called for a 10-year program for "more adequate services, facilities and opportunities" for senior citizens to be developed by the Michigan Commission on Aging.

Such a program could set the pace for the entire nation, Romney told Commission Chairman John Martin in a letter.

The Governor said the group could furnish the leadership to "stimulate planning, coordination and a division of program responsibility between public and private agencies and organizations."

Romney said state leadership and local control must be used to help elderly persons meet their health, housing, economic, spiritual, educational, social and recreational needs.

One aspect of the plan, he said, should be a program of formal and informal education on preparation for retirement. Another should be aimed at maximum use of the experience, skills, knowledge and talent of the elderly in community enterprises.

"A long-range plan could mutually benefit older and younger generations and would be a significant first in the United States," Romney told Martin.

Tech To Hike Tuition Fees During Fall

HOUGHTON — Michigan Tech will increase student fees $10 per quarter beginning next fall, but will still be charging the lowest tuition rate of any tax-supported institution in Michigan granting degrees in engineering.

The decision to increase fees was made by Tech's board of control. Members indicated the increase was a matter of urgent necessity, but was approved with extreme reluctance.

The new rate will be $276 for a three-quarter year for Michigan residents and $540 for non-residents. This compares with $324 and $870 at Michigan State University and $312 and $666 at Wayne State University. The University of Michigan has a sliding fee scale of $280 and $900 for freshmen and sophomores, $310 and $960 for juniors and seniors and $350 and $1,000 for graduate students.

College officials said without the increase it would be impossible to carry on the proposed program for 1963-64, which is essentially the same as the present year's operation.

Named Benedict Building

In other action the board voted to name Tech's Ores Research Building in honor of the late Dr. C. Harry Benedict, former chief metallurgist for Calumet and Hecla, Inc., who died April 4 at 86. Benedict served Tech 25 years as a highly skilled and respected metallurgical lecturer, and from 1931 to 1938 was a member of Tech's board.

Dr. J. R. Van Delt, president of Tech, said the board's action was "a fitting tribute to one of the world's great scientists and an outstanding citizen of the Copper Country."

Although a native of Pittsburgh, Benedict spent his entire career in the Copper Country. He was honored in 1932 with an honorary doctor of science degree from Tech.

The building was completed in 1955 and houses Tech's institute of mineral research, which has made many significant contributions to the mining industry and the economy of the State through an intensive program of research.

Dear Abby....

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: If I'm wrong, please tell me and I'll keep quiet. Last year I attended seven weddings, nine bridal showers, two 15-year wedding celebrations, one 25th wedding anniversary, two housewarming parties, and six baby showers. Please don't think I'm stings, but I've been married 14 years, have had five babies and I never gave any sort of a party where a gift was expected. We moved into a new home, too, and have entertained for our wedding anniversaries, but we invited only our immediate family. Why can't people keep THEIR celebrations to themselves?

NO GIMMICKS
DEAR NO: I GUESS THEY JUST CAN'T RESIST SHARING EVERYTHING WITH FRIENDS.

DEAR ABBY: Speaking of unusual names, here is one I found in the Philadelphia phone book a few years ago — "Wolfschlaechtsteinhausenberger, Hubert B., Jr." Sincerely, C. H.

DEAR C. H.: Thank you. He's probably changed his name to "Wolfe" by now. And the woods are full of 'em.

DEAR ABBY: I don't suppose this will be news to the people of Texas, but when I read your column on usual surnames I was reminded of the Texas governor whose name was HOGG. He named his two daughters URA HOGG and IMA HOGG.

CLARENCE F. M.
DEAR CLARENCE: I know you aren't feeding me a line because no less than 500 readers included those names in their odd name round-up.

DEAR ABBY: Our little grandson, who is six years old, has been busy playing "Good Fairy." (The child puts the tooth under his pillow at night, and during the night the "Good Fairy" takes the tooth and leaves a dime.)

Well, if "Ma" who is annoyed because her husband leaves his "choppers" grinning at her from the top of the dresser, wants to play a cute trick on "Pa," she should take his "choppers" and leave $3.20 in dimes in their place. She should tell him that the "Good Fairy" thought he didn't need them any more and took them. Then when the joke is over she could present them to him in a jeweled plastic box with a lid on it — available in any five-and-dime.

SENSE OF HUMOR

CONFIDENTIAL TO DEUTCH: If you would be wise, be silent. No man wants an honest opinion of a horse after he's bought it.

For a personal, unpublished answer to your letter, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Syrians Welcome President Of Yemen

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Thousands of clapping and banner waving Syrians lavished a hero's welcome on Yemen's President Field Marshal Abdullah Sallal Monday on his arrival from Cairo for his first state visit to Syria. He told cheering crowds he came to seek immediate admission to the projected United Arab Republic of Egypt, Syria and Iraq.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

OUT OUR WAY

Mrs. Charles W. Bur, left, installed new officers of the Marquette Woman's Club at its recent annual meeting. With her in the above photo are Mrs. C. W. Dupras, retiring president, and Mrs. Russell Balconi, new head of the organization. (Photos by The Mining Journal).

Mrs. Dupras presents a special birthday cake to Mrs. S. James Bessolo of Negaunee, president of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs, at the annual luncheon meeting in the Federated Women's Clubhouse. Mrs. Bessolo was guest of honor at the meeting, which occurred on her birthday anniversary.

Four Generations

Alan Russel Tripp, 21-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Tripp, Marquette, is the youngest in this all-male four generation picture and his great grandfather, John H. Tripp of Sands, who is holding him, is the eldest. At left is young Alan's father, and the grandfather, Russel L. Tripp of Iron Mountain, is at the right. The Lee Tripps and another child, Judith Ann, 2 1/2 months, have been living in quarters for married students at Northern Michigan University, from which Tripp received his bachelor's degree at commencement exercises Sunday afternoon.

Funds From Isabella Card Party Go To Newman Movement

Father Marquette Circle of the Daughters of Isabella has turned over a total of $55, proceeds from a recent card party, to the Newman Club of Northern Michigan University. Mrs. C. W. Dupras, Isabella regent, reports that two other card parties held this year for the benefit of the Newman Club netted $50 each. Winners at the party, which was held in the Newman Center, were as follows: Bridge — Mrs. Homer Gingras, Mrs. Arthur Olivier, Mrs. Russell W. Adams, Mrs. Harold Berquist, Mrs. James Cleary, Mrs. James Powers, Mrs. Max Reynolds, Mrs. James A. Smith, Mrs. Henry Bertagnoli and Mrs. Robert Rieboldt; Canasta—Mrs. Albert Dahlstrom and Mrs. Phillip Desormier. Individual table prizes were also awarded and special prizes went to Mrs. Rollin K. Thoren, Mrs. Robert Rieboldt, Mrs. Lynn Keast, Mrs. Stuart Johnson Jr. and Mrs. Henry Bertagnoli. The Rev. Stephen Mannie, O.F.M., Newman chaplain at NMU, informed the women that a painting of Christ in the Newman Club lounge is a memorial to the Isabellas for their support of the Newman Movement. Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Thomas Woodbridge Jr., Mrs. Dupras and Mrs. A. W. Haglund.

MFWC Head At National Convention

Mrs. S. James Bessolo of Negaunee, president of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs, is attending the 72nd annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs being held this week in Milwaukee. Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, president of the General Federation is presiding at the week-long convention, which opened Monday. Among the speakers to be heard are: Vice-President Lyndon B. Johnson; Ambassador Francis T. Plimpton, U. S. Mission to the United Nations; Senator Thurston B. Morton, of Kentucky; Edward R. Murrow, director of the U. S. Information Agency; Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, president of the American National Red Cross; John Walker, director of the National Art Gallery; Cleveland Amory, author, and others.

"Women's Role in a Changing World" will be discussed by a distinguished panel including Mrs. Philip A. Hart, airplane pilot and wife of the junior Senator from Michigan; Dr. Leona Baumgartner, U. S. State Department; Margaret Price, vice-chairman of the Democratic National Committee; Mrs. Clare Williams, Assistant Chairman, Republican National Committee; Miss Christine Sadler, McCall's Magazine; and Miss Tina Ferringa, Royal Netherlands Embassy.

Music, always an integral part of the federation's annual gathering, will feature many well known artists, including famed violinist, Mischa Elman.

A large group of delegates from clubs in other countries is attending the convention. The General Federation has a membership of 11,000,000 in 50 state federations and in 34 countries abroad.

Clubwomen Hold Annual Installation

New officers of the Marquette Woman's Club were installed at the recent annual luncheon meeting at which yearly reports were given and Mrs. S. James Bessolo of Negaunee, president of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs was the guest of honor.

Mrs. Charles Bur acted as installing officer at the ceremony for Mrs. Russell Balconi, new president, and her corps of officers, including Mrs. Harold Beckman, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Patti, second vice-president; Mrs. Ernest Mallingren, recording secretary; Mrs. Hilmer Hedberg, treasurer; Mrs. Francis Marshall, financial and corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Bur, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Julius Young and Mrs. A. P. Wendt, house co-chairmen.

Hostesses for the luncheon meeting, held at the Federated Women's Clubhouse, were Mrs. Harold Beckman, Mrs. Gunther Meyland, Mrs. Russell Balconi and Mrs. Robert Lundquist. Individual place cards, made by Mrs. Meyland, depicted a rock garden.

Mrs. Bessolo spoke to the group on club leadership and lauded Mrs. C. W. Dupras, retiring president, for her record in local, district and state Women's Club endeavors. She also cited the value to the community of Northern Michigan University.

Convention Dates It was announced at the meeting that the district convention will be held Sept. 18-19 at Ironwood and that the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs' annual convention will be in Flint next April 21-24. The Marquette Woman's Club will resume its regular series of meetings next fall.

Three-Day Lutheran Girls' Retreat Near Waupaca's Pine Lake

Three Marquette women are on the speaking program for a three-day Lutheran girls' vocational retreat opening Friday at Pine Lake, near Waupaca, Wis. They are Mrs. Thomas V. Asuma, who will speak on homemaking; Mrs. Verle Bernard of the Michigan Children's Aid, whose topic is social work, and Miss Effie Pelkonen of the Whitman School staff, who will speak on the teaching profession.

Girls registered for the retreat from Marquette County are Sandi Von Dellen of Marquette and Joy Hakala and Cynthia Wuorenmaa of Republic.

Mrs. George Levis of Marquette, a member of the retreat committee, is also attending the gathering, to be concluded Sunday.

Demonstration Set Tomorrow Evening For Art Session

Dora Savola of Marquette will be the guest artist at tomorrow night's meeting of the adult education art class working with oils. Anita E. Meyland, instructor, has announced.

Mrs. Savola is scheduled to conduct a workshop demonstration of a marine painting, using oils. She is one of several guest artists Mrs. Meyland has invited to appear before her classes, which are held at 7 p. m. in the art room at Gravenet High School.

Former members of the adult education art program and members of the Lake Superior Creative Arts Association are invited to attend tomorrow night's demonstration.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pascoe, 348 W. Park St., have returned from St. Paul, Minn., where they attended the high school graduation of their granddaughter, Constance Pascoe, an honor graduate of St. Paul's Johnson High School. Miss Pascoe, who will attend the University of Minnesota on a Lions Club scholarship, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pascoe, formerly of Marquette.

McDonald-Stencil

MUNISING — Sacred Heart Church was the scene of the wedding Saturday, June 1, of Sandra Irene McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald of Shingleton, and Louis Leonard Stencil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stencil of Stratford, Wis. Officiating at the service was the Rev. Chester Poppa, O.F.M. Cap.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of nylon and lace and her fingertip veil was secured to a pearl-trimmed crown. She carried red roses and white chrysanthemums. Loretta Jane Blank, who was maid of honor and Gloria Jean

Barley, the bridesmaid, wore dresses of light blue lace over taffeta with matching headpieces and their flowers were white chrysanthemums accented by blue ribbon tufts.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Forest Inn, and a reception for 200 guests was held later at the Moose Lodge.

The bride is a graduate of Marquette High School and is employed in Milwaukee by Kirby, Cogenhall and Steinau, Inc. Her husband is in the employ of American Motors in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Stencil are residing at 2204 E. Ivanhoe St., Milwaukee.

Shirley Snell Weds Sawyer Airman In North Lake Church

ISHPEMING — Announcement is made of the marriage May 4 of Shirley Ruth Snell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snell of Champlin and Airman Carl Paul Dehner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dehner of Pittston, Pa. The wedding took place at St. Pius X Church, North Lake, the Very Rev. Msgr. Edmund C. Szoka officiating. White gladioli decorated the 11 o'clock ceremony and Nuptial High Mass. The bride's father gave her in marriage. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rochon of Crystal Falls, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of rosepoint lace and taffeta and a pearl tiara held her veil in place. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Attendant in Beige Mrs. Rochon wore a beige ensemble with white accessories and her flowers were white and yellow roses.

A wedding dinner and reception for 200 guests were held at the Moose Lodge.

Airman and Mrs. Dehner have returned from a wedding trip to points in the East and are residing in Champlin.

The bride is a graduate of Ishpeming High School and has been employed as a nurse's aide at Morgan Heights Sanatorium. The groom, a graduate of St. John's High School in Pittston, is now stationed at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base.

New 4-H Club Agent Here Has Wide Experience And Training For Assignment

Paul Shogren didn't just happen to get the appointment as Marquette County's 4-H Club agent. A look at the 34-year-old Shogren's record over the past years would indicate he's been preparing for this specific assignment through his work experiences, his education and travels.

A review of the new agent's recent past gives an insight into the way today's young men and women are preparing for their careers, says Michigan State University county extension director Melvin N. Nyquist.

Shogren received a bachelor of science degree in forestry at Pennsylvania State University in 1951 and later earned a bachelor of divinity degree at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.

His non-professional experience has included one summer's employment at the famous Philmon Boy Scout Ranch near Cimarron, New Mexico, and approximately one year each with the U. S. Forest Service on jobs in California, Arizona and Alaska.

In Marine Corps After spending three years in the U. S. Marine Corps, Shogren started his professional employment, which first included two years as a civil service employee with the U. S. Forestry Service with headquarters at Mt. Hood National Forest in Oregon. He then spent 16 months in Sweden, employed by a large pulp company, and on his off-duty time traveled and studied in Norway, Finland and Great Britain.

Following this came short stints with the U. S. Forest Service during which he was assigned to the Allegheny National Forest in Pennsylvania and the Ochoco National Forest in Oregon.

During the summer of 1961 Shogren was employed by a private logging company at Estacada, Ore., and also served as a student pastor of a rural church. In 1961-62 he served as a "stand-in" for a church in Murrysville, Pa., and in the summer of 1962 he was a nature director of the Boy Scout Camp at Easton, Pa.

Active In Scouting The new club agent has been associated with Boy Scouting for 22 years and has been an active 4-H club member and leader for several years. Nyquist says Shogren will spend most of his time providing assistance to 4-H members and leaders, but because of his training and practical experience in the field will also help landowners in timber management areas such as stand improvement, thinning, recreational development and multiple use concepts. The agent may also provide some assistance to clubs in surrounding counties. Shogren, his wife and seven-month-old son, Gunnar, are living in Big Bay, where he is also serving as pastor of Community Presbyterian Church.

Foster Has Confidence In Senate

Editor's Note — As U. S. disarmament director, William C. Foster would have a major role in selling any nuclear test ban treaty to the Senate. Does he think Senate approval of such a treaty is likely? Does he believe the Russians really want to end nuclear testing? These and other questions are answered in this exclusive interview.

BY STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. Disarmament Director William C. Foster predicts a safe passage in the Senate for any nuclear test ban treaty signed by the Soviet Union and the West.

He does not agree with those who predict that a treaty would provoke the most bruising battle in the Senate since the proposal to join the League of Nations after World War I. Nor does he believe it would suffer the same dismal fate.

"It would be tough," Foster said in an interview, "but we could get a treaty through the Senate."

Foster, 66, director of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, will not take part in the U.S.-British-Soviet nuclear test ban treaty negotiations in Moscow next month. From his office here, he will back up the efforts of the American negotiators.

He would have a major role in selling any treaty to the Senate without the approval of a two-thirds majority, the treaty, like the League of Nations proposal almost 30 years ago, would die, unratified.

Despite his optimism, Foster said he had no illusions about the significance of a nuclear test ban treaty.

Foster also saw an overemphasis in the current concern over the number of inspections in a treaty. The Russians have said they would allow no more than three inspections of possible underground tests. The Americans have said they would settle for no less than seven.

"The number of inspections is not as important as the fact that these inspections are part of a system," Foster said. "We want to know how long we can inspect, who does the inspecting, where do we inspect, and so on."

"Three inspections a year would be 'too little,'" he said. "But there's no magic in the number seven."

Foster took issue with Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., and others who feel that the U.S. Senate is the "big, black obstacle" to a test ban.

"Congress isn't the big, black obstacle to a treaty," Foster said with a smile. "The Russians are."

Foster believes that the Russians sincerely want to end nuclear testing.

WILLIAM KOSKI

Koski Given Scholarship To Mich. Tech

CHAMPION — William Koski, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Koski, Humboldt, and a 1963 graduate of Champion High School, has been awarded a $500 scholarship from the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co. to Michigan Tech, where he will enroll this fall.

He also has received a basketball athletic scholarship.

Koski was selected on the all-Upper Peninsula and all-state Class D basketball teams during his junior and senior years and on the Mid-Peninsula Conference team in his sophomore, junior and senior years.

He received four varsity letters in baseball, four in basketball and three in track; was sophomore class president, senior class vice president and class treasurer in his freshman and junior years; a member of the band, treasurer and vice president of the Hi-Y club, and was a student council member.

He was co-captain of the basketball team his junior year and captain his senior year, and selected most valuable player by his teammates during his last three years in school.

During a recent honors assembly, Koski was named "athlete of the year."

Long-Vacation Plan In Steel Pay Contract?

NEW YORK (AP)—The Iron Age said today a steel industry wage settlement now in the making will include an extended vacation plan proportionate to one in the can industry.

Under a 1962 pact with the United Steelworkers Union, can manufacturers granted 13 weeks vacation every five years to employees with 15 years seniority.

The metalworking weekly said steel industry bargainers, working through a joint management-union human relations research committee, have been close to agreement for possibly six weeks.

"The human relations approach is being blamed in varying degrees—and by both sides—for inability to come to an agreement earlier," the magazine said.

"According to sources within the bargaining groups, when talks reached the negotiation stage they continued to be conducted under rules designed for exploration and study, not final agreement."

"Because of this machinery, there had been no attempt to fill in the fine print of the extended vacation plan or any other section."

"Until the whole framework is assembled, no portion is considered firm."

California Inventor Has Chicks See Red

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP)—A Santa Rosa inventor wants chickens to see red and to do the job he has developed contact lenses that a chicken can wear permanently.

A. W. Schriener said he noticed chickens with cataracts were better behaved than others and their egg production was good. He hit on a red plastic contrivance to distort the vision of healthy chickens.

Schriener says since everything the chicken sees is red, bleeding injuries do not attract it and cannibalism is prevented; the birds no longer fight; they stop chickens from picking over their food and wasting it and they reduce emotional stresses and egg breakage.

RONALD J. BALDINI

R. J. Baldini Wins Alumni Scholarship

NEGAUNEE — Ronald J. Baldini, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Baldini, 809 Maas St., Negaunee, has been named the winner of the 1963 scholarship grant provided by the St. Paul's School Alumni Foundation, the Rev. Robert Cordy, St. Paul pastor, announced yesterday.

Alumni created the scholarship a year ago with proceeds remaining from a souvenir program published in the fall of 1961 to mark the observance of the parish centennial anniversary.

Joseph Barabe Jr., currently a student at Michigan State University, was the recipient of the first grant, awarded in June of 1962.

Baldini has been an honor student throughout his entire four-year career at St. Paul's High School.

He was active in the Latin, Mission, Science and Choral Clubs, serving as president of the Mission Club during his junior year. He was elected class treasurer in his senior year.

At the 1963 Northern Michigan Science Fair, Baldini's entry received a superior rating. He was active in sports as a member of the school basketball and baseball teams.

Baldini, who also has been awarded a State Board of Education scholarship, will enter Northern Michigan University, where he plans to major in business administration.

11 Seeking Superintendent's Post At L'Anse; 3 Teachers Engaged To Fill Vacancies

L'ANSE — At its June meeting, the L'Anse Township Board of Education examined applications from candidates for the post of superintendent of schools, hired three new teachers to fill vacancies on the faculty, approved major purchases for the coming year and called for a review of additional duties required of various members of the teaching staff and the extra compensation they received.

Eleven applications have been received from candidates for the position of superintendent of schools, being vacated by C. J. Sullivan, who will retire July 1 after 26 years in that post. The board agreed to call all applicants in for personal interviews. The first five were conducted Monday night in a closed-door session of the board. Others are being scheduled as quickly as possible.

Webman Goes To Gwin
The resignation of Robert K. Webman, drafting instructor who has accepted a post in the Gwin school system, was accepted. Board members authorized the hiring of three new teachers recommended by Sullivan to fill vacancies on the teaching staff. They include C. J. Sullivan Jr., seventh and eighth grade English and history; Edward J. Brinkman, drafting; and William Popp, physical education and coaching.

Four vacancies are still unfilled — those of third, fifth and sixth grades and high school English. Several lengthy lists of supplies and equipment purchases for the coming year were okayed by a vote of 6 to 1.

As agreed several meetings ago, all expenditures which total over $25 are to be accumulated and put out for competitive bids and then submitted to the board for prior approval. Dr. Eric A. Bourdo, board treasurer, pointed out that if this new system is adhered to, the problem of disputing payment of an invoice after the equipment or service already has been delivered would be eliminated.

The board also agreed that all bills authorized for payment should be paid before the end of the current fiscal year if possible, $4,750 For Band Uniforms

In addition, the board approved immediate payment of the $4,750 for new band uniforms as soon as they are delivered. In this way, the board can take advantage of any discount which might be offered for cash payment within 10 days. Dr. Winkler refrained from voting on the motion. The board also authorized payment of school census and school election expenses when they fall due.

An invoice for $22.40 rendered by the state electrical inspector for an inspection of the school earlier this year, which had been passed for payment at the last meeting, was finally authorized by a vote of 5 to 2. Bernard Penokie of L'Anse, electrical engineer who will install the newly purchased clock system, pointed out that this department, although controlled by the state, is self-supporting and depends solely on revenues received from electrical inspections and fees for its operating budget.

Drs. J. A. Stroube and H. J. Winkler, both of whom said they could not conceive of a state agency which is not state-supported, voted against paying the bill on the grounds that any inspections made by a state agency should be free of charge to the school system. Penokie, who accompanied the state inspector on his tour of the L'Anse school, also noted that the inspector had said he was surprised to find the school in such good shape.

New Watches Every Year
Dr. Winkler questioned the necessity for purchasing several stop watches every year at a cost of $27 each. Sullivan explained that stop watches are used in the athletic, business and forensic departments, where they get heavy use. In answer to a question about equipment inventories raised by Dr. Bourdo, Sullivan told the board that all department heads take a complete inventory of their equipment at the close of each school year and account for any discrepancies which might occur. He added that the handling of school equipment has been quite satisfactory.

Glenn A. Anderson, music director, appeared before the board seeking an increase in the rate of additional compensation received by himself and Miss Ruth Lee of the music staff for extra activities which they take part in and which are not a part of their regular academic day. Anderson told the board that he and Miss Lee are both required to put in many additional hours for special programs, football and basketball games, etc., for which they feel the extra compensation is inadequate.

Mrs. Iris Johnson, board secretary, commended Anderson highly on an excellent music department, due to the fine work done here by you and Miss Lee. Board President Carlo Heikkinen said the bonus compensation for extra music duties should be set at a flat yearly rate, as extra payments for athletic coaching, special dramatic coaching and forensics work are determined.

Sullivan To Study Problem
Theodore C. Groves, trustee, stated: "The teachers want a salary schedule rather than a merit system. All of these factors should be considered in the basic salary schedule. Certainly Mr. Anderson's performance merits an increase. I think all these things should be worked out and carefully evaluated before they ever come up to the board, and we should have some basis on which to start."

The board agreed to have Sullivan make a study of the entire problem of extra duties and recommend a solution which will be satisfactory to all concerned.

Sullivan also was authorized to negotiate a $15,000 loan for operating expenses, if the state aid payment which is due before the end of the current fiscal year is not received on time.

A recommendation was received from Armstrong-Thielman Co. of L'Anse, local contractor and building supply company, to engage the Tonne Engineering Co. of Hancock to recommend what should be done and the approximate prices to remedy faults noted by the state fire marshal in a recent tour of the L'Anse schools.

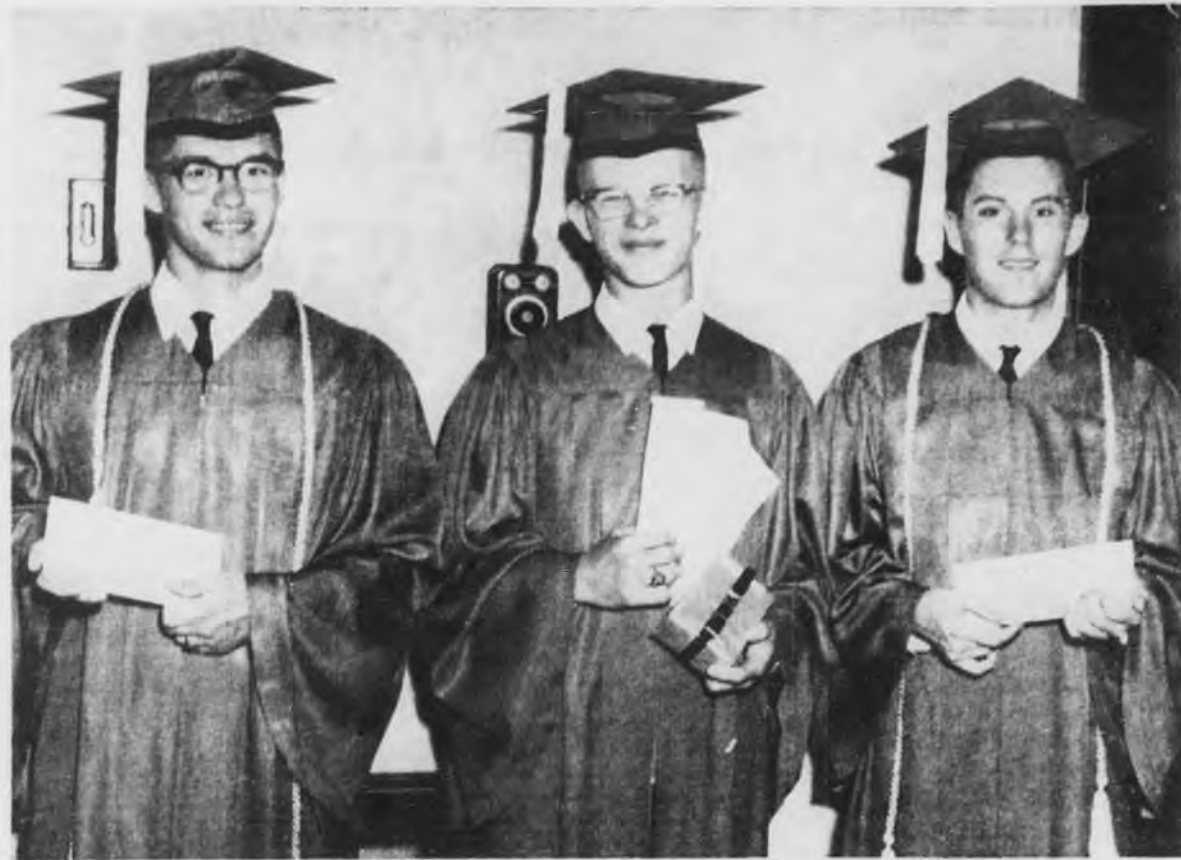

programs set up with relative ease by local school personnel, thereby eliminating the need to call in special service people from a distant office.

Richard Mollanen, L'Anse representative of the State Farm Insurance Co., asked to be permitted to submit a bid on the school bus insurance, which will come up for renewal in July. He stated that his firm would be interested in bidding only on the automotive insurance requirements of the school district, but added that he felt a saving of nearly half could be realized by putting the bus insurance out on competitive bids. At present, the fleet insurance is written together with the general liability policy on the school buildings and general operations.

The board agreed to advertise for competitive bids on bus insurance providing $25,000-$100,000 bodily injury and liability, $10,000 property damage liability limit, $1,000 per person medical payments, $50 deductible collision and actual cash value comprehensive coverage. Mollanen also noted that his company could offer policies written on either a full-year basis or a nine-month school year.

Three Take Majority Of Awards

A majority of awards granted at Munising High School graduation exercises were taken by the three seniors above. From left are Stephen Ingraham, awarded first in English, second in science and second in math; Jim Benzing, third in math, Rotary award, Frank and Mary Hausler scholarship and partment of Public Instruction, Lansing, requested by Superintendent C. J. Sullivan as a follow-up to the dispute over proper apparel for physical education students last month, was read. It stated in part that it was the opinion of that department that gym shoes were an important part of gymnasium equipment, and that shoes are a definite aid to the ankles, adding that all young children should have their ankles protected.

The letter further stated that shoes provide definite protection against unsanitary floors, slivers and other dangerous conditions. Brochures providing information on the planning of physical education programs were included with the letter.

Dr. H. J. Winkler, trustee, again noted that the original letter from Harry Vivian, of the Copper Country Health Department, "was definitely a statement of his own opinion and has nothing whatsoever to do with the health department." Dr. Winkler pointed out that neither Vivian nor the author of the state letter are medical doctors, and added that he had "discussed the entire problem with some health department physicians who said they felt this (having students participate in physical education classes in their bare feet) was all right." No action was taken by the board.

Building Committee Report
Carlo Heikkinen, board president, reported on progress made to date and recommendations of the building committee, which met recently.

"It was the feeling of the group that we should get going on this new grade school as soon as possible," he said. "We decided to contact our school attorney, William Konstenius, and have him get an option on a suitable piece of property for a new school."

This money — the yield of a special 5-year bond issue — plus a large stock of structural steel purchased at that time for auditorium construction, which can either be used in new construction or sold to swell the construction fund, can provide a sizeable nucleus for a new construction program.

Heikkinen suggested that a couple of board members be designated to call on owners of the parcels in question to seek a one-year option on the property.

The building committee, meeting on and off since last September, has discussed the advisability of constructing a new elementary school to replace the present structure, which was erected in 1906. Several sites have been considered, as well as types of construction and the number of pupils which should be housed in the proposed new building. No decision has been reached on whether the school should be geared to handle kindergarten through grade six or K-8. The committee favors construction of a wooden school in preference to either steel or brick, from the standpoints of both economy and aesthetics.

Special Fund Available
A special fund containing over $75,000 plus interest, originally set up for construction of an auditorium, may be tapped for

Parade To Mark Flag Day Observance In Ishpeming

ISHPEMING — Edmund J. Nautil, exalted ruler of the Ishpeming Elks Lodge, today appeared for display of the Stars and Stripes throughout the community on Flag Day, June 14, that will "make every street in Ishpeming a star-spangled salute to freedom."

Elks were observing Flag Day long before Congress formally declared it, Nautil said, adding: "Now is the time for Americans everywhere to develop a deeper pride in our flag, to better understand its glorious history and the noble principles for which it stands."

The Elks leader announced that the Flag Day program will consist of a parade at 7 p. m. through downtown Ishpeming, climaxed by a public observance of Flag Day ceremonies at the Miners' First

State Police Report Issued In Munising

MUNISING — Troopers at the Munising state police post worked 296 man-days during May, according to Sgt. Clarence Miller, post commander.

The man-hours worked by officers during the month amounted to 2,086. They performed the following duties: traffic patrol, 840 hours; other traffic work, 13; traffic complaints, 22; traffic accidents, 47; general criminal investigation, 167; fire investigation, 2; report writing, 32; administration and supervision, 621; training, 41; night duty assignment, 186; fatigue work, 78, and other duties, 13.

Cars assigned to the post were driven 12,640 miles in 619 car-hours on patrol. During that time officers made 46 traffic offense arrests, 11 other patrol arrests, assisted 27 cars, investigated 37 cars, made 633 property and 131 liquor inspections. Verbal warnings were given to 155 motorists and 310 other duties were performed.

units from the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Boy and Girl Scouts, and the Sea Scouts.

Past Exalted Rulers Elliot Fredrickson and Calvin Bjorne will give the "History of the Flag" during the program.

Other officers taking part in the ceremony are John Fassbender, leading knight; James Smith, loyal knight; William Dally, lecturing knight; Jack Allen, esquire, and Ansfred Holmgren, chaplain.

"We hope that all patriotic citizens will join in celebrating Flag Day in a spirit of reverent dedication to our nation's truly glorious principles," Nautil said. "From our flag, the sight of freedom, we can draw renewed faith and strength to defend those principles."

In case of inclement weather, the services will be held at the Elks Hall.

The public is invited to take part.

Biologist Talks To Junior Game Club Thursday

ISHPEMING — Tom Prawdzik, game biologist for the State Conservation Department, will speak at a meeting of the Ishpeming Junior Conservation Club in the Ishpeming Armory Thursday night at 7.

He will speak on beaver and ducks in Michigan and explain a duck count to the young club. During the meeting, crews will be organized for a beaver and duck count. Conservation Officer Art Savluoto said, and maps will be issued to each group.

Savluoto also will show a movie entitled "Lakes, Trout and Fishing," a conservation department film.

New Clock System Ordered For L'Anse School; Board Considering Land Purchase

L'ANSE — The L'Anse Township Board of Education authorized purchase of a new clock system, agreed to call for competitive bids on school bus insurance, received an additional report on the gym shoe fracas which sparked last month's board meeting and discussed a recommendation for land purchase made by the building committee at its June meeting.

Purchase of a new Minneapolis-Honeywell Co. clock system, to be installed by Bernard Penokie of L'Anse, was authorized at a total price of $2,900. A Minneapolis-Honeywell sales representative demonstrated operation of his firm's equipment, which carries a full guarantee. The system will be installed according to specifications by Penokie, who is a graduate electrical engineer and who will be available in the immediate vicinity in case repairs or adjustments become necessary at a future date.

Old System Installed In '28
Another quotation for equipment and installation totaling $3,120 was received from the Simplex Time Recorder Co. The old system of school clocks was installed in 1928, and has been out of order the past year. The new equipment can be reset and new bell-ringing

Graduate Of St. Paul Gets Scholarship

NEGAUNEE — Miss Diane Tremblay, a 1963 graduate of St. Paul's High School, has been selected as the recipient of the annual nursing scholarship presented by the Negaunee Women's Club.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Tremblay, 440 East Ann St., Negaunee.

A student at St. Paul's since her kindergarten year, Miss Tremblay was active in extra-curricular affairs during her high school career. She was a member of the Handmaids of the Altar, Pep, Mission, Choral and Latin Clubs.

Miss Tremblay served on the staff of the Paulian, school yearbook, was a class officer during her freshman and junior years, and a member of the cheerleading squad in her sophomore, junior and senior years.

Only Four Fire Alarms Last Month

NEGAUNEE — Members of the Negaunee Volunteer Fire Department responded to only four alarms in May—the lowest number in several months—according to the monthly department report submitted by Chief Francis Dighera to City Manager Leonard Harris.

Responsible for the alarms were two grass and brush fires, a blaze resulting from an overheated kitchen stove, and a mine shaft fire caused by a torch cutting steel frames which ignited timbers. There was no insurable damage on any of the calls.

Practice Session Held

Chief Dighera made one building inspection and issued two burning permits.

One practice session was held at which equipment was checked.

All told, the department worked a total of three hours and five minutes, and traveled a distance of seven miles. An average of 26 volunteers responded per alarm.

Alger Extension Office Has 'Host' Tests Ready

MUNISING — John P. Campana, Alger County extension director, announced today that many residents of the area are eager to become certified hosts of Upper Michigan in the "It Pays To Know" campaign, sponsored locally by the Munising - Alger Chamber of Commerce.

Tests which will help to certify those who want to become CHUMS have been received in the extension office, Campana stated, and will be ready for administering at the following time and places:

Tuesday evening, June 18 senior study hall at Munising High School; Wednesday afternoon, June 19, at the court house and in the evening at the study hall. The afternoon sessions will begin at 2 and the evening sessions at 7:30.

County hosting manuals were sent to most people connected with serving the tourist and they are invited to participate in these qualifying tests, prepared by Michigan State University Extension Service in cooperation with the Upper Michigan Tourist Association. Anyone wishing to test his ability as a host is urged to take the test.

Radatz Stretches Scoreless Streak At Tiger Expense

DETROIT (AP)—After watching his charges lose a heart-breaking 15-inning decision to Boston Tuesday, Detroit Tiger Manager Bob Scheffing had high praise for Red Sox reliever ace Dick Radatz.

"He's the best control pitcher in the American League," said Scheffing, "and that includes Whitey Ford of New York and everyone else."

Relieved Rookie

Radatz, who handuffed the Tigers in 8 2/3 innings in relief of rookie Whitey Wood, picked up his fifth victory in six decisions when Frank Malzone and Dick Stuart hit home runs in the 13th inning to give the Red Sox a 7-3 victory.

31 Scoreless Innings

The tall right-hander has gone 31 consecutive innings without allowing a run. The last earned run scored off Radatz was a home run by Washington's Don Lock May 12.

Radatz pitched six innings in relief in Baltimore Sunday and struck out 10 while walking one man. Against the Tigers yesterday, he fanned 11, walked one and allowed just three hits.

Control Impressive

"He's only got one pitch — a fast ball — but his ability to put that ball where he wants it has made him effective," said Scheffing. "He can just pick the corners, and I think that the umpires usually give him the benefit on any real close pitches."

The Michigan State University graduate has 64 strikeouts, and only 14 walks in 49 innings.

The Tigers took a 1-0 lead in the fourth inning when Norm Cash singled in Al Kaline.

Homer In Sixth

Tiger starter Jim Bunning protected the lead until the sixth when the Red Sox put together three extra-base hits — including a two-run homer by Roman Mejias — and a single to score three runs.

Singles by Bubba Phillips, Kaline and Gus Triandos gave the Tigers their second run in the last of the sixth.

Radatz came on in the seventh after Don Wert singled and was sacrificed to second. Radatz struck out pinch hitter Whitey Herzog, walked Jake Wood and gave up a game-tying single to Billy Bruton.

Duel With Fox

From that point on, Radatz and Tiger reliever Terry Fox were locked in a tight duel until the 13th.

Chuck Schilling reached first on Wood's bobble to open the inning and was sacrificed to second. Carl Yastrzemski was intentionally walked and Malzone, the American League batting leader, clouted his eighth homer of the season.

Stuart then hit his 11th before Tom Sturdivant came on to retire the side.

Mejias Faced Attack

Mejias had three hits to pace Boston's 11-hit attack. Malzone and Stuart picked up two hits each. Kaline, Cash and McAlliff each had two hits for the Tigers.

Detroit and Cleveland were to open a two-game series tonight with Hank Aguirre (5-5) going against the Indians' Dick Donovan (3-4).

Indian HRs Blast Birds; Twins Win

The Cleveland Indians made it five victories in a row Tuesday night with a home run crescendo that drowned out Baltimore's off-key Orioles, 9-5.

The Indians, next-to-last in the standings and 9 1/2 games behind just 10 days ago, now have won eight of their last 10 and climbed to seventh, five games off the pace.

Orioles Now 3rd

Meanwhile, the drooping Orioles have dropped 10 of 12 and fallen from first to third. They're a game behind the Chicago White Sox, who were trimmed 8-6 by Minnesota, and eight percentage points behind the New York Yankees, who were idle.

In other AL action, Kansas City beat Los Angeles 5-2. Washington was also idle.

Rake Roberts

Al Luplow, Fred Whitfield and Dick Houser socked Cleveland homers off Robin Roberts and Willie Kirkland connected with two on against Wes Stock in the Indians' four-run seventh inning.

Mudcat Grant yielded a two-run homer to Al Smith in Baltimore's eighth, then was lifted in a rib-rubbed ninth. With one run in and the bases loaded, Bob Allen came on in relief and pitched two balls to Jim Gentile.

Protested Switch

Tebbetts then called in Ted Abernathy—despite the rule that says a reliever must finish pitching to at least one man—and Manager Billy Hitchcock of the Orioles protested.

Allen was recalled, walked Gentile and forced in a run, then Abernathy got the last out.

Twins Blew Leads

The Twins blew three leads before finally nailing down their victory over the White Sox, with Bernie Allen's double in the ninth inning deciding it.

Zito Gets 4 Hits

Bill Dailey won his first in relief, even though his string of scoreless innings ended at 19 when Dave Nicholson hit his 13th homer in the eighth. Zito Versalles collected four of Minnesota's 16 hits.

Diego Segui, starting for the A's for the first time in seven weeks, threw a seven-hitter in beating the Angels.

3 — DRY RUN
Written for NEA

Before getting the feet wet, make several dry runs.

Fit the skis by adjusting the rubber bindings until they are snug. Dunking the feet in water will keep the bindings from chafing when they rub.

Start land instruction with a pull-up. This is to get you used to the feel of being pulled up by the tow boat—and teach you the right way to do it. Have someone stand close to you with the tow rope. Take the shallow water starting position—sitting on the skis with the thighs pushed tight against the

Cards Take NL Lead; McCovey Continues Spree Against Drysdale

(By the Associated Press)

Willie McCovey Tuesday night nipped Don Drysdale for a three-run homer that gave the San Francisco Giants a 3-0 victory over Los Angeles behind Juan Marchetti's strong pitching and dropped the Dodgers out of the National League lead.

McCovey now has tagged Drysdale for 8 homers, 4 doubles, 1 triple and a cover of singles since he joined the Giants in 1959. The slugging outfielder is 21-for-46, a .457 average, overall against Drysdale, last year's 25-game winner bogged down at 7-7 this season.

More Than Enough

McCovey's homer was more than enough margin for Marchetti, who posted his first shutout of the season and brought his record to 9-3 with a seven-hitter that left

Hitters Fail, Broncs Fold In Tourney

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Western Michigan had the best team batting average and highest winning percentage when the college world series started.

The Broncos, second ranked in the nation, were the first team to go home.

Shut Out By Lions

They were knocked out of the double-elimination NCAA tournament Tuesday, losing 3-0 to Penn State in their second-round meeting for survival.

Western's hitting was a big factor as it roared through the regular season and District 4 playoffs with a 244 record. The Broncos came here with a .295 team batting average, five points better than the second hottest hitting team.

Hit Only 159

But then in the losses to Penn State and Florida State, Western could eke out only ten hits and had a college world series batting average of .159.

"We just stopped hitting," said Coach Charlie Maher. "Our hitters started pressing and when you do that you stop hitting."

None of Western's four regulars with averages above .300 came close to matching their season's hitting production.

5 Unearned Runs

Western, which yielded five unearned runs in the two losses due to shaky fielding, was in trouble right away against Penn State. Maher was forced to start Dave Bitante in an emergency role when Lee Salo, his number two pitcher, came up with intestinal flu.

Bitante could get only one batter out as Penn State scored all three of its runs in the first inning. Bruce Pitych pitched scoreless ball the rest of the way, but it was too late.

"We just didn't play ball to win," summed up Maher.

The Broncos were due home today and a celebration congratulating them for their Mid-American Conference championship was planned for their arrival in downtown Kalamazoo.

Arnold Palmer Ends Rest, Returns To Links Thursday In Major Golf Tournament

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—A thoroughly rested, relaxed but determined Arnold Palmer sets out Thursday to re-establish his shaky position as the No. 1 man in professional golf.

"I feel great," the all-time leading major winner from Latrobe, Pa., said today as he faced up to his first competition in more than a month. "Nothing really was the matter with me. I was just mentally and physically tired."

Eager To Play

"I am eager to play again and I think that is a good sign. This was the first real vacation I have had in three years."

In the Thunderbird, a four-day, 72-hole prologue to next week's National Open at Brookline, Mass., the tough, muscled son of a Pennsylvania pro should learn whether he has finally snapped the back of a nagging slump.

Ortiz Stripped Of Title For Lane Snub

SAN JUAN P.R. (AP)—Lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz, who has become accustomed to collecting $50,000 purses for title defenses, said today he is going to talk to his lawyers about the action of the World Boxing Association in stripping him of his crown.

The 26-year-old Puerto Rican-born New Yorker charged the WBA has no authorization to depose him.

Better Offers

"They are acting in a dictatorial way, as they always have," said Ortiz, holder of the lightweight championship for 14 months. "I have received several offers for title defenses at between $89,000 and $100,000 and all I have seen in the papers is something about some promoters offering $30,000 for a fight against Kenny Lane."

"It is ridiculous to expect me to fight him for 30 grand when I can get 60."

The WBA announced at Spokane its withdrawal of recognition from Ortiz Tuesday because of his failure to defend against Kenny Lane, a long-time No. 1 contender from Muskegon, Mich.

Veteran challenger Lane expects the world lightweight title to be in possession of someone other than Carlos Ortiz by August.

"I don't know what other logical bout there is for the title except between Paulie Armstrong of Los Angeles and myself," he said today.

Armstead is the division's No. 2 challenger immediately behind the Muskegon southpaw.

Snead Earns 23rd Shot At Open Title

(By the Associated Press)

Sam Snead, competing with 114 golfers in the toughest sectional qualifying competition of them all at Purchase, N.Y., Tuesday fired rounds of 69 and 71 for a 140 total that easily put him among the 150-man line-up for the Open at The Country Club in Brookline, June 20-22.

It'll be Snead's 23rd attempt for the Open title.

99 Places Awarded

The last 99 places for Brookline were determined at seven locations Tuesday, with 45 berths awarded at Purchase, 20 at Detroit, 10 at Pittsburgh, 7 each at Atlanta and Winchester, Mass., 6 at Bakersfield, Calif., and 4 at Fort Worth. The first 30 were settled Monday at six other spots.

The 129 survivors will join 21 exempt players, headed by defending champion Jack Nicklaus, in next week's battling for the 63rd Open championship.

Barber Missing

Among the chief players missing will be Jerry Barber, the 1961 PGA champion, Lew Worsham, winner of the Open in 1947 in a playoff with Snead; former PGA winners Jim Turnesa, Jim Ferrier and Jimmy Shute; and such regulars on the PGA tour as Ken Venturi, Don Whitt, Bill Collins, Rex Baxter and Jerry Steelsmith.

Top Tuesday Total

Barber's 36-hole total of 151 shut him out at Detroit, where veteran Gardner Dickinson led the field — as well as the nation — with rounds of 68-67-135.

Venturi, Whitt, Steelsmith, Baxter, Collins, Turnesa and Ferrier were casualties in the New York eliminations, won by Bob Schooner Jr. with a 139 total.

For the two days of firing, Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., was the low scorer with 69-64-133 in Monday's eliminations at Cincinnati.

'Have-Nots' Bolstered In AFL Draft

NEW YORK (AP)—The have-not clubs of the American Football League plan to swoop on the cut-offs from the more affluent clubs of the AFL and the rival National Football League like hawks after a flock of pigeons.

Coach Weeb Ewbank of the New York Jets of the AFL said so after he plucked two rookies and the Oakland Raiders picked one veteran in the special league draft Tuesday to help the two weak clubs.

The Jets formerly known as the Titans under the old management took tackle Jeff Slaughter of Indiana from Buffalo and end Gene Heeter of West Virginia from San Diego. The Raiders drafted Claude Gibson, a defensive half-back from San Diego.

The rookies cost the Jets $2,500 each plus any bonuses the players received. Gibson cost the Raiders $7,500.

In the special draft set up to help the two clubs, each of the other 11 teams in the AFL was permitted to reserve 25 veterans and half their rookies and free agents before the Jets and Raiders were allowed to pick.

Fourteen of the 1963 Tigers attended college and five hold degrees.

Delayed 'Openers' Tonight?

Old Man Weather brightened up a bit today, and might even allow junior baseball and softball programs, along with other outdoor sports, to resume.

Parades were planned in Marquette, Ishpeming and Negaunee to mark the official opening of the junior baseball season.

Twin City softball games rained out Monday night included WIPD and Maruke's, CCI and Schiltz and Independents vs. Hills. These games will be made up Friday night at the same times and places.

Tonight, Independents tangle with Maruke's at 7 in Ishpeming, WIPD goes against undefeated CCI at 8:15 and Hills will clash with Schiltz in Negaunee at 7.

In Midget League play with ceremonies beginning at 5 p. m., the Elks and Rotary will play at 6 and Kiwanis and Lions the second game.

The opening ceremonies were to start at 5:30 in Negaunee with a parade through the business district. Marquette ceremonies were to start with a downtown parade, then tossing of the first ball in the Amvets Little League at 5, and the Babe Ruth League at 5:15.

Novelty Shoot At Tomahawk Range Thursday

ISHPEMING — The Tomahawk bowmen will hold a novelty shoot tomorrow night beginning at 6:30 at the archery range off of U.S. highway 41 near the Carp River Bridge heading west.

Everyone interested in archery is invited to attend.

$5 DOWN $2.50 PER WEEK

Picture the favorite man in your life enjoying his leisure hours in a chair like this. He can sit in deep comfort in the upright position while reading, he can lean back to a medium reclined position for TV viewing, then for those welcome cat-naps he can lean way back to the "Siesta position." It's the ideal Father's Day Gift because it spells out c-o-m-f-o-r-t 365 days of the year. It'll be worth the price of the chair just to see the look of satisfaction on his face when he first tries the deep, just-right comfort of a Berkline Recliner. The ladies like 'em, too! The new designs are even available in Danish Modern and Early American styling. You'll love the new super-soft, but, oh-so-durable washable Vinelle covers! Most models are available in brown, green, beige or ivory. Buy now on easy terms.
