FATHER GUSTAVE WEIGEL

Noted Jesuit To Speak In Marquette

The Rev. Fr. Gustave Weigel, S. J., Ph. D., S. T. D., will be the third lecturer in the Forum Marquettensis series, when he speaks to the clergy of the diocese on "Vatican II — An Experience," and "The Present State of Ecumenism," on Wednesday, July 17, at St. Michael's parish here.

This is the third segment of a series of subscribed lectures on priestly studies.

Father Weigel, a noted Jesuit, who is professor of Ecclesiology at Woodstock College, in Maryland, has been a guest lecturer at 30 major colleges and universities on three continents, and is the author of 10 books on Ecumenism.

Father Weigel is a graduate of Woodstock, with Ph. D. and S.T.D. from Universita Gregoriana, and holds honorary doctorates from the Catholic University of Chile, University of Vermont, Georgetown, and Yale, where he gave the Yale Divinity School's Taylor Lecture in 1960.

In Vatican Council Unit
A corresponding editor of "America" and contributor to 29 periodicals, Father Weigel is Catholic Consultant to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

He is a consulting member to the secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity, of the Second Vatican Council, and draws from this experience in the lectures he will give at St. Michael's.

Guard Trucks On Highways This Week

CAMP GRAYLING — There'll be hundreds of Michigan Army National Guard trucks on the state's highways Friday and Saturday moving in scores of convoys toward the giant military training site at Camp Grayling but not 15 from Sault Ste. Marie.

They were ruled off the highways over the long Fourth of July weekend by state law because of their excessive length and width.

The vehicles belong to the 1437th Engineering Co. (Float Bridge) stationed at Sault Ste. Marie Army.

Capt. Edward P. Leask, company commander, and 16 other drivers made the 150-mile trek from Sault Ste. Marie to Grayling in about seven hours Monday. The truck carried and pulled river crossing equipment that belongs to the company.

As for the trucks that will be on the highways Friday and Saturday, the Michigan National Guard headquarters in Lansing advises holiday drivers that the convoys will be strung out on the open road to facilitate passing by automobiles. In cities they'll close up almost bumper to bumper.

Most of the trucks will be on the highway Saturday morning. The heaviest concentration will be on I-75 between Clare and Grayling.

Fireworks Display At Night Climaxes Celebration In City

Marquette's first Fourth of July celebration in several years will include activities from morning through evening tomorrow, with a gala program on tap.

The celebration is being sponsored by the Marquette Fourth of July Booster Club, with assistance from the Marquette Chamber of Commerce and the service clubs.

William Gray, chairman of the club, is in charge of the overall program, and the Booster Club "has gone all out" to make the celebration "one just like in the old days," he said.

Scheduled during the day are fireworks, contests for children, a band concert and a musical revue — everything that Americans have celebrated the Fourth with over the years, he said.

Formed During Winter
The July 4th Booster Club was formed this winter in response to public sentiment in favor of an Independence Day observance in Marquette, the first in nearly 10 years, Gray said. The club and the events planned have been endorsed and supported by the chamber of commerce.

Boosters, he said, are promising "a real good time for everyone" with:

- A 50-unit parade through Marquette, beginning at 10:30 a.m.
- A "Freedom Ring," with all bells in the city proclaiming "let freedom ring," at 2 p.m.
- Programs for children at Memorial Field and at Hurley Field, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

- A concert by the Marquette municipal band, followed by a 12-act musical revue, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Field.
- An hour-and-a-half-long fireworks display at Memorial Field, beginning at 9:15 p.m.

Many Tourists Staying Over
"Marquette will have the biggest celebration in the Upper Peninsula tomorrow," Chamber Executive Director Wyndahl H. Hudson predicted.

He said: "A lot of tourists have inquired about our plans for Independence Day at the chamber office and have decided to stay over for the Fourth."

Floors will begin to take positions for the parade at 9:45 tomorrow morning, at the parade formation point on W. Kaye Ave., at Northern Michigan University.

The route will be east on W. Kaye Ave. to N. Third St., south on Third St. to Baraga Ave., and west on Baraga Ave. The units will disband between Fourth and Fifth Sts. on Baraga Ave. Parade marshal will be Dr. W. D. Salo.

A marching band made up of area musicians is bound to be one of the favorite units in the parade, Gray said. The band will be provided through a grant from the Recording Industries Trust Fund, through the cooperation of Local 218, American Federation of Musicians.

Other Marching Units
Other marching units will be the Marquette Municipal Band, Graveraet High School band, Bishop Baraga Central High School drill team and the Ishpeming Blue Notes Feeder Corp.

Also featured in the parade will be Miss Marquette, who is Miss Marcia Williams; a 1923 fire truck, Dick Lutey's antique cars, horses and ponies, a midget car and Ishpeming baton twirlers.

Ralph Kendrick's In Ferris Alumni 'Golden Eagles'
Ralph L. Kendrick, Marquette, was among the 217 Ferris Institute alumni who were inducted into the college's Society of Golden Eagles at the recent reunion in Big Rapids.

Golden Eagles are those alumni who attended the college at least 50 or more years ago. Twenty-nine received their certificates at the reunion, while the others received theirs in the mail.

Kendrick was a pharmacy student in the class of 1913.

Other units will be the Marquette Ambassadors, the color guard of the Marquette American Legion post and the Women's Relief Corps.

A count late yesterday afternoon showed that 20 floats had been entered in the parade, Gray said.

At 2 p.m. bells in Marquette will be rung, joining bells in villages and towns across the nation in a four minute tribute to national unity.

On Freedom Ring
A story in a national magazine first called attention to the proposal that communities should "let freedom ring" on July Fourth.

Mrs. William Geller, chairman of Marquette's "Freedom Ring" said: "Today people are so wrapped up in their personal problems and pleasures that they tend to forget just what the Fourth of July really stands for. We cannot afford to forget for one moment the priceless heritage with which we are endowed."

Contests for children tomorrow afternoon have been planned by the Booster Club in cooperation with the Marquette Parks and Recreation Park.

The children's events at both Memorial Field and Hurley Field are: Bicycle and tricycle parades, sawdust box (digging for pennies), sack races, back-to-back races, balloon races, wheelbarrow races and one-legged races.

James C. Engle, superintendent of the parks and recreation department, said all events will be in the following divisions: Boys, 6 to 8 years of age, 9 to 11 and 12 to 15; girls, 6 to 8, 9 to 11 and 12 to 15.

The only exception, he said, is the sawdust box contest, which will be for boys and girls five years of age and under.

Engle said cash awards will be given in all events.

Memorial Field At 6
Events for the evening will all take place at Memorial Field, where gates will open at 6 p.m. Concession stands will be set up at the field.

The evening program includes a concert by the Marquette Municipal Band, a 12-act musical revue with Prosecuting Attorney Edward A. Quinnell of Marquette as master of ceremonies and a fireworks display which is billed as the largest ever to be presented in the U.P.

The presentation of the colors at 7:30 p.m. will open the evening program.

Band Program
The municipal band concert, with T. Ray Uhlinger as director, will include:

"Emblem of Freedom" by Karl L. King; a lyric overture, "Lincoln," by Newell H. Long; a musical comedy selection, "Finian's Rainbow," by Burton Lane; a suite, "Four Episodes for Band," by John J. Morrissey; "Horse and Buggy" by LeRoy Anderson, and "American Patrol" by F. W. Meacham.

Twelve acts will be presented in the musical revue which will follow the half-hour band concert at Memorial Field. Mrs. Ralph Peters, K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, is director of the revue. The municipal band will furnish accompaniment for some of the acts.

Committees which planned the day's program are:
Parade — James A. Smith, chairman; Dr. W. D. Salo, parade marshal, and James R. Smith, committee member.

Children's events — Albert Fletcher, chairman, and the city parks and recreation department.

Musical revue — Wyndal H. Hudson, chairman.

Fireworks — Albert Mayhew and William Gray, co-chairmen.

Bell ringing — Mrs. Geller.

Concessions — Emil Paquette, Sterling J. LaFond and Mark Markantony.

Finances — Harold Herlich Jr.

Publicity — James Braddock.

Marquette County will take part tomorrow in a nation-wide "ringing of the bells", starting at 2 o'clock and lasting for four minutes. The great bells of universities, cities and churches will be heard throughout the land to re-awaken a tribute to The Declaration of Independence.

As we hear the bells, in solemn tribute to the founders of our country, let us be reminded of the real significance of this national holiday, and re-dedicate ourselves to our national unity and our devotion to our country.

Staebler, Chamber Discuss Possibilities Of Missile Site For U.P. At Meeting Here

A committee representing the Marquette Chamber of Commerce met this morning with Congressman Neil Staebler to discuss the possibilities of a geological survey of the Upper Peninsula as a basic study for industrial promotion with opportunity for adaptation to military projects.

35th Annual U.P. State Fair Held Aug. 13-18 In Escanaba

ESCANABA — The Upper Peninsula State Fair plans its 35th annual exposition in Escanaba Aug. 13-18, the successor of the Delta County Fair, which was started 85 years ago in the yard of the old Tilden Hotel by the Delta County Agricultural Society.

15 Blazes In Region Burn 7.7 Acres

Fifteen forest fires burned 7.7 acres of land in the Upper Peninsula state protection area during the past week.

That made a total of 264 blazes, which have burned 1,277.1 acres of land in the U.P. state protection area, for the year. By comparison, in the same period last year there were 131 fires, blackening 376.5 acres of land.

John A. Angulum, Marquette, assistant regional supervisor of the field administration division, Michigan Department of Conservation, said there was one blaze in this, the Escanaba district, which includes Marquette, Delta and the west half of Alger Counties, burning 2 of an acre.

For the year, the district has had 77 fires, blackening 335.5 acres of land.

Two In Baraga District
Two blazes burned .6 of an acre in the Baraga District (comprised of Baraga, Gogebic, Houghton, Keweenaw and Ontonagon Counties), with the district having 69 fires, blackening 133.1 acres land, so far this season.

In the Crystal Falls District (Iron, Dickinson and Menominee Counties), there were ten blazes, burning 6.1 acres of land, in the past week. For the year, 75 fires blackened 631.5 acres in the district.

In the Newberry District (the eastern portion of the U.P.), there were two blazes last week, burning .8 of an acre of land. So far the district has had 39 fires, blackening 176.4 acres of land.

Watch For Small Jobs, ARA Tells U.P.

Accent in Upper Peninsula economic development efforts for years has been on thinking big, in Peninsula-wide terms.

Without dropping that view, a famed job maker who completed a tour of the Upper Peninsula recently counseled the U. P. to "think small," and in terms of creating even a few jobs in the local community.

Gerald Albright, who headed North Carolina's local job making program under the then Gov. Luther Hodges, visited several U. P. cities on a tour for the Area Redevelopment Administration.

"I've been in many, many communities and areas where they have much less to do with than I've seen in the U. P.," said Albright. "In the short time we had to look over existing U. P. industries I saw the potential for jobs by expanding their markets and lines of products. Almost a sufficient number of jobs to bring the local economy up to par was in sight."

"I'm suggesting a program that will — if they will avail themselves of assistance offered by UPAP, Operation Action U. P., and the new State Department of Economic Expansion, and their county agencies already organized — do things right now."

"They can continue in operation permanently expanding the economy. They can keep adding to their industrial job potential. I'm prescribing a community group which will create its own industries in a community. They can have as many industries as they want because there are sufficient industry possibilities and potential for any community."

"The job that has to be done is to organize persistent effort on the part of the community in a continuing search for new industry ideas and potentials."

Albright is of mixed mind on

State Plans War Against Road Deaths

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's climbing traffic accident and fatality toll is the target of a program being mapped jointly by state officials and leaders of outside organizations.

In a two-hour meeting in Gov. George Romney's office Tuesday, the group backed a seven-point plan of action which includes recommendation for a depth analysis of Michigan's present activities in the field of traffic safety.

Suggested among long-range possibilities were several pieces of legislation to strengthen traffic laws, increase state police personnel and reinstate the Michigan State University Traffic Safety Center.

Among possible new laws discussed in the conference was one to require periodic safety inspections on vehicles, such as are in operation in other states.

The meeting resulted from continuing expressed by the Safety Commission.

Romney echoed the commission's concern over statistics showing traffic accidents rising over the past three years and a sudden jump this year in the number of fatalities.

Two Contracts For Post Office Work In U.P. Issued

CHICAGO (AP) — The General Services Administration has announced these contract awards: Yalmer, Matilla Contracting Inc., Houghton, Mich., for extension and remodeling of the Houghton Post Office, $212,000.

West Construction Co., Flushing, Mich., for space conversion at the Flint, Mich., U.S. Courthouse and Office Building, $188,837.

Ridahl Construction Inc., Minneapolis, for extension and remodeling of the Ironwood, Mich., Post Office, $146,400.

giving a chamber or existing group this task of creating new jobs, but he insists that the group which tackles this work have no other task. "Most organized groups are looking for the big black headline in the paper telling of a new plant moving to town," he says. "I have no quarrel with the chambers, but they have too many tasks to do and usually what they do they do remarkably well."

"We advocate that each community do for their own home industries as much as they'd do for an outside industry prospect."

"We originated this idea in North Carolina in 1955 under a new industry development program. There's nothing new to it, but we were able to help communities start 310 new local industries in a two and half year period."

Seven Drivers Pay $80 In Fines, Costs

Seven persons were ordered to pay a total of $80 in fines and costs by Judge Edward H. Dembowski when they appeared in city court yesterday for traffic violations.

A fine of $16.30 and $3.70 costs were paid by Ernest C. Burgoyne, Harrisville, Mich., for speeding. He was ticketed by city police June 23 for driving 65 miles per hour in a 25-MPH zone on Wright St.

Car Not Under Control
William V. Koval, 226 W. Prospect St., paid a fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs for failure to have his motor vehicle under control. He was ticketed by city police June 23 following an accident on W. Prospect St.

For failure to have his motor vehicle under control, Edward A. Dauphinais, 2323 Beaudoin St., paid a fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs. City police issued the summons June 22 following an accident on S. Front St.

For speeding, Frank J. Leckwart, New Castle, Pa., was fined $6.30 and ordered to pay costs of $3.70. He was ticketed by city police yesterday for driving 40 miles per hour in a 25-MPH zone on S. Front St.

Gary A. Davis, 521 High St., was ordered to pay a fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs for failure to stop for a stop light. He was ticketed by city police June 24 following an accident at the intersection of 108 Ravbault Dr. and Bertil Agnoli, 201 S. Front St.

Jury Acquits Man In City Court Trial

William C. King, 31 of 140 Rock St., was found not guilty by a jury in a trial conducted before Judge Edward H. Dembowski in municipal court yesterday on a charge of being disorderly.

King and three others were arrested May 11 as a result of a skirmish which arose when Police Officer William Lasich was arresting a fifth man for being drunk and disorderly at the Shoreland Bar on Baraga Ave.

The three others pleaded guilty in May to charges of being disorderly and were ordered to pay fines and costs. The fifth man pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly and also was ordered to pay a fine and costs.

Witnesses Listed
Prosecuting Attorney Edward A. Quinnell of Marquette called Officer Lasich to testify for the people.

Witnesses called to testify for the defense by Attorney Neil S. Lynch, Negaunee, were Jean Montagna, 334 W. Hampton St., Joseph Holland, Marquette, and the defendant's wife, Mary L. King. King also testified in his own behalf.

New Wing Popular Feature Of Baraga County Hospital

L'ANSE — The new half-million-dollar wing of the Baraga County Memorial Hospital, officially opened for occupancy last month, is being used at 50 per cent of its 29-bed capacity. Although designed primarily as a long-term care unit, a number of ambulatory medical patients and others recovering from surgery, as well as chronically ill patients, are housed in the section. Therapist To Arrive In August — The wing boasts a new stainless steel kitchen and staff dining room, which went into use immediately after the formal dedication May 25. All departments in the new wing are being used, with the exception of the physical therapy department. A registered physical therapist engaged to handle this department is expected to arrive in L'Anse in August. Two L'Anse physicians and the local office of the Copper Country Health Department are operating from ground-floor offices in the new wing. The second floor lounge and patient dining room which overlooks picturesque L'Anse Bay is a popular spot with convalescing patients and their guests. Hospital personnel point out that this lounge is a big improvement over conventional sick rooms for patients who are not sick enough to be confined to bed, but who formerly had to eat their meals and receive visitors in the same room with another pa-

Dunes Hearing Set On July 4 At Glen Arbor

GLEN ARBOR (AP) — A big event is shaping up for this area Thursday — the public hearing on the government's proposed Sleeping Bear Dunes national park site. The proposal will be discussed in the presence of a contingent of U.S. senators in the auditorium of Frankfort High School in Frankfort. Advance indications are that the auditorium will be jammed with advocates and opponents. Bus Tour — Beforehand, the senators, including Michigan's Democratic Sen. Philip A. Hart, author of the Sleeping Bear Dunes bill, will take a bus tour of the dunes areas of Leelanau and Benzie Counties. Ove Jensen, chairman of a Citizens Council fighting the Hart bill, said he had been informed from Washington that proponents and opponents would be given an hour each at the hearing. Colleagues of Hart who will come here — all members of a Senate subcommittee — are Sens. Alan Bible, D-Nebraska, chairman; Frank E. Moss, D-Utah; Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska; Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, and Milward L. Simpson, R-Wyo.

Hospital Receives Award For Entry In State Event

MUNISING — Munising Memorial Hospital received a certificate of recognition in Michigan's fifth annual search for new hospital achievements sponsored by the Michigan Hospital Association and Michigan Blue Cross. The honorable mention citation was for an entry submitted by Richard Wagner, hospital administrator, regarding a special form designed for use in the business office. Wagner received certificates for the hospital and himself from William S. McNary, president of Michigan Blue Cross, at the annual Blue Cross luncheon held in conjunction with the 44th annual convention of the Michigan Hospital Association in Traverse City.

Urban Renewal Group Approves Land Sale

DETROIT (AP) — The Urban Renewal Administration has approved a contract for the sale of 23 acres of redevelopment land in downtown Detroit for the proposed International Village. The Detroit Common Council also must approve the $3,236,699 contract. It has scheduled a public hearing on the sale for July 18.

Absent Voter Ballots Ready In Negaunee

NEGAUNEE — Absent voter ballots are now available at the city clerk's office for the special county millage election July 15. The deadline for applying for ballots is 2 p.m. Saturday, July 13. The clerk's office will be open continuously from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. that day. Residents once again will vote on a proposition to increase the millage limitation for a period of five years by two mills for general county purposes only. The proposal was defeated in the spring election. Edward Stevens, city clerk, reminds residents that, in order to be absent voter, a person must be a registered voter who expects to be absent the day of the election, or is physically unable to attend the polls without the assistance of another or because of the tenets of one's religion. For this special election only, Negaunee voters will use only two
