

Wallace Says Nation On Brink Of Civil War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. George Wallace of Alabama said today that inept handling of racial problems by the Kennedy administration has resulted in "a nation torn by strife and turmoil on the brink of civil warfare."

Wallace's remarks were in a statement delivered to the Senate Commerce Committee. It resumed hearings today on one of the seven points in President Kennedy's civil rights program—a bill prohibiting racial discrimination in such public facilities as restaurants and hotels.

Wallace said Americans "are not going to comply with this type legislation," and he labeled the rest of Kennedy's civil rights program "equally abominable."

Civil Rights Drive Hopeless Without New Jobs: Heller

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's top economist warned today that the Negro drive for civil rights and job equality will be "frustrated and frustrating" unless the country provides millions of new jobs.

low. It's true that the educational gap between Negroes and whites has been shrinking. Yet for the decade 1950 to 1960, we find that the income gap has not narrowed at all.

Job discrimination is dramatically reflected in the poverty figures. Over one-half of our Negroes are in poverty status.

GOV. WALLACE

Chairman Walter W. Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisors said Negro unemployment—now double the white rate—will fall twice as fast as that of whites if a tax cut paves the way to full employment.

By providing equal hiring opportunities, the nation can expand its output by $14.5 billion a year, Heller told The Associated Press in an interview.

Text

The question-and-answer text: Q. Mr. Chairman, would you say that the civil rights problem is in large part an economic problem?

A. Well, civil rights don't mean much without economic rights—without the right, and above all, the opportunity to get a self-respecting job.

Q. In that connection, you said recently in effect that full employment means more to non-whites than to any other major group. Why?

A. The answer is very simple, and is found in the unemployment rates today. For Negroes, unemployment is over 10 per cent. For whites it's about 5 per cent.

Q. Is it fairly predictable that Negro joblessness will drop twice as fast as white, given a general improvement in jobs?

A. Let me give you chapter and verse. First, let's look at the record when unemployment goes up. When the over-all unemployment rate rose 2 1/2 points, from 1957 to 1958, Negro unemployment rose 4.6 per cent; and from 1960 to '61, over-all unemployment rose 1.1 points, while Negro unemployment rose 2.3 points.

Q. Does this imply that while there have been gains in Negro education and integration, there hasn't been much economic improvement?

A. I think it demonstrates that the progress has been much too

Don't Look At Eclipse Saturday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation will be treated to the rare sight of an eclipse of the sun Saturday, but if you value your eyesight don't go out and look at it, health officials warn.

"Watch the eclipse on television or by the cardboard-reflector method," said Surgeon Gen. Luther L. Terry.

With the bright rays of the sun blocked out by passage of the moon between earth and sun, why isn't it safe to look at the phenomenon?

The reason, said Terry, is that the invisible infrared rays from the sun can cause permanent burns on the delicate retina of the eye, creating an incurable blank spot in vision.

Wirtz Raps Rails, Unions For Deadlock

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz says the four-year-old dispute over railroad work rules is headed toward a compulsory solution because both the carriers and the unions are guilty of "a failure of responsibility."

"There is no affirmative attempt by either side in this situation to do anything about settling it even at this hour," Wirtz said Sunday as a special presidential panel prepared to sift the facts in the jobs tangle.

Assumption

"There has been at this point an apparent assumption by both parties that somebody else, the government, the Congress, whoever it may be, is going to decide this," the secretary said in a televised interview.

Still, Wirtz added, he hopes that "when both of these parties are looking down the gun barrel" of possible congressional action, "there is going to be a real facing up to the implications of the fact that if they don't settle, the prospect is something which will weaken the whole institution of collective bargaining."

Wirtz is chairman of the special committee that begins today to lay the basis for a report President Kennedy plans to send to Congress July 22 aimed at solving the rules dispute. Wirtz refused to say whether the administration would recommend compulsory arbitration.

SEN. GOLDWATER GOV. ROCKEFELLER

Rocky Challenges Senator Goldwater To All-Out Battle

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has challenged Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to an all-out liberal vs. conservative fight for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

In a policy statement tantamount to announcing his candidacy, the New York governor said Sunday the Goldwater strategy is to try to weld conservative, Southern and Western support while writing off Northern states. This, Rockefeller said, "would not only defeat the Republican party in 1964 but would destroy it altogether."

Rockefeller said it was incredible that the Republicans would offer such an alternative to the "unprincipled opportunism that has captured the Democratic party."

Declaration of War

He added: "That alternative will never be found in a party of extremism, a party of sectionalism, a party of racism, a party that disclaims responsibility for most of the population before it even starts its campaign for their support."

Goldwater, who was not named in the statement, made no immediate response. But associates said they interpreted Rockefeller's attack as a declaration of war they were certain the senator would accept, even though he remains an unannounced belligerent.

They added that if Goldwater is writing off the industrial North as Rockefeller charged, the New York governor is giving up on Republican chances to collect electoral votes in the South.

Opening Gun

Rockefeller's blast is regarded in Washington as the opening gun of a vigorous comeback campaign for the nomination. He was considered by many observers the leading contender until his recent marriage to a divorced mother of four children.

In the period between his reelection as governor last year and his remarriage, Rockefeller tried with some success to warm up the conservatives to his cause by making what many of his listeners called "good Republican speeches" in the Midwest.

But the New York governor's attack on what he said were extremist views in the party indiated he has decided his best chance for the nomination is to champion the liberal viewpoint and sharpen his division with the conservatives.

Middle Ground

This seemed to leave open the middle ground where Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, said Sunday Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky. comes closest among possible presidential nominees to representing the party consensus.

Taft, son of the late conservative senator from Ohio who lost the presidential nomination to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952, said on a television program that neither Rockefeller nor Goldwater represents such a consensus.

Morton, who served as GOP national chairman three years under Eisenhower and now is head of the party's senatorial campaign committee, generally is listed as a moderate. He has supported most of Kennedy administration foreign policies but has been critical of the President's handling of the Cuban problem.

In emphasizing his division with the conservatives, Rockefeller called on Republicans to unite in opposition to "the radical right, lunatic fringe," which he said is trying to take over the party.

He denounced the John Birch Society's viewpoint and criticized as a form of totalitarianism the procedures of the recent San Francisco convention of the National Young Republicans Federation where delegates whooped it up for Goldwater.

3 Tots Die In Fire, Police Hold Father

PONTIAC (AP) — Three small children died in a fire at their Waterford Township home Sunday. The father of two of them was held for investigation.

Township police said the fire, discovered by a neighbor at 1:30 a. m., apparently started from a cigarette which had been left burning in the parents' absence.

Patricia Ann Mishenko, 4 months, was found dead in her crib. Laura Mishenko, 18 months, and Tammy Lee Kittles, 2, were found dead in a rear bedroom. George Mishenko, 34, a construction worker, was taken into custody for investigation of manslaughter.

Communists Lose Footing In Ecuador

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Moscow and Havana can write off Ecuador—at least for the time being—as a key target for Communist conquest in South America.

Their campaign of sabotage and terrorism, directed by Castro-trained Ecuadorians, was crushed after the armed forces took over Ecuador's government four days ago.

The military booted hard drinking, Communist sympathizing President Carlos Julio Arsemena out of the country and outlawed the Communist party.

Optimistic Khrushchev Opens Meet

MOSCOW (AP) — Jovial and apparently optimistic Premier Khrushchev personally opened talks today on a limited nuclear test ban agreement with special envoys of President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Sitting in a Kremlin conference room with U.S. Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Britain's Lord Hailsham, the Soviet leader quipped: "Shall we start off by signing the agreement right away?"

Harriman showed a pencil and pad across the table toward Khrushchev. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko grinned to his chief and said: "Sign it and leave it to be filled in."

10 Days

The conference is expected to last 10 days. Khrushchev's mood seemed to share the optimism of both the British and Americans about the success in agreeing on a prohibition which would bar nuclear test explosions in the air, in space and under water.

The Western side saw no prospect of getting a complete ban to cover underground explosions also.

Increasing the prospects for an agreement was the worsening split between the Soviet Union and Red China, Westerners here believed.

14 Representatives

News photographers were allowed to enter the conference room before the actual talks began to take pictures of the negotiators.

The conference began with nine representatives on the U.S. and British side and five on the Soviet side.

Both Western and Communist circles seemed optimistic about chances of agreeing on a ban of nuclear tests in the air, in space and under water.

Such a pact could be readily policed because nuclear explosions under any of these conditions can be detected from great distances. It would also outlaw the tests which produce radioactive nuclear fallout.

Speech

Khrushchev in a speech in East Berlin July 2 approved a Western proposal for an unpoliced partial ban. Underground tests were exempted to avoid the thorny issue of on-site inspection.

Russ Doubt Name Given To Defector

LONDON (AP) — A Soviet Embassy spokesman today injected an element of confusion regarding the identity of the Russian master spy who defected to the West 18 months ago.

In an unusual conversation, he told reporters that a man named Anatoli (Alexander) Dolynitsyn worked at the Soviet Embassy in 1961 but that he was not a defector and is actually living in Moscow.

The British government last week circulated a notice to British editors describing the defector by that name. U.S. security agents in Washington were said to be angry because the defector's identity came to light.

Fire Hazard Still Persists In State

(By the Associated Press)

Michigan's forest fire hazard persisted today despite weekend rains which brought relief to hard-pressed farm crops.

Rainfall of Saturday night and Sunday broke a long dry spell. It was insufficient, however, to dispose of the fire threat in northern forests.

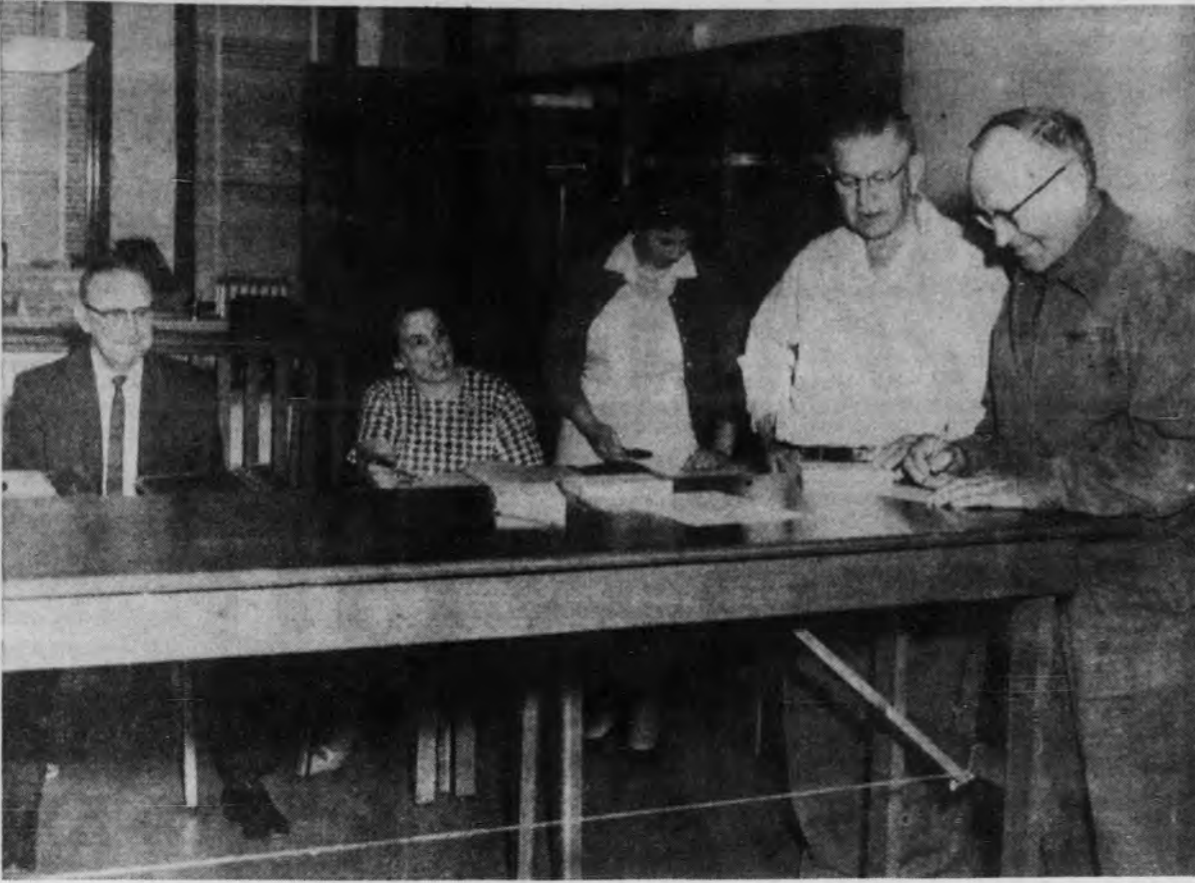

The Upper Peninsula, where the woods have been tinder-dry, got only light rain.

target area fire had burned over 200 acres at the camps before being extinguished.

Rainfall in the Detroit area figured in a highway mishap in which two state troopers were hurt badly.

On the way to a fatal car collision, the troopers' patrol car skidded off wet U.S. 24 four miles north of Monroe and rammed into a tree.

Balloting In County Millage Issue Light; Polls To Close At 8

Balloting in Marquette County's special tax millage election was exceptionally light this morning, with voters being able to cast ballots until the polls close at 8 tonight.

County Clerk Lloyd LeVasseur of Marquette said any eligible voter in line at any of the polling places in the county by 8 tonight may cast a ballot.

'Defeat Would Hurt'

However, it wasn't very likely there would be any lines at the precincts today, as interest in the voting was not high. Only a few voters had cast ballots at each of the precincts where checks had been made this morning on progress in the election.

Being decided is whether the county should continue a two-mill tax levy for an additional five years. Although the proposition, by law, states that the millage would be used for general county purposes, it will be used only for relief purposes.

Both Carl W. Corneliuson, Ishpening, chairman of the Marquette County Board of Supervisors, and County Controller Robert H. DeRoche, Marquette, have warned that the defeat of the millage issue in today's election could "cripple the operations of all county departments."

The county board of supervisors has heartily endorsed the millage extension, noting that it would not mean an increase in taxes, since the proposition would merely continue a two-mill levy which has been in effect for the past five years.

Observers believe only between 2,500 and 3,000 voters would go to the polls to cast ballots today. The number of persons who had obtained absent ballots was exceptionally low, even for a special election.

Clerks Advised

At the same time, LeVasseur reminded those who had voted by absent ballot that they must be returned to their respective city or township clerk before the close of the polls tonight in order to be counted in the election.

LeVasseur noted that, in accordance with state law, his office will remain open tonight until all returns have been received from the various city and township clerks in Marquette County.

He noted that state law requires the city and township clerks to either bring in person, or send by a duly-authorized person, tonight the results of the election in their respective city or township.

"This should be done as soon as possible after the results have been tabulated," LeVasseur said.

Returns Expected Early

Returns are expected shortly after 8:30 tonight from the three cities and two townships (Marquette and Negaunee), where voting machines are in use.

Returns from the other townships, where counting of ballots is by hand, is not expected to take long, however, since there is only one issue on the ballot.

He was born in Greenville, Ohio, and entered government service in 1923. He served 14 years with the U.S. Navy and 26 years with the Federal Aeronautics Administration.

He was a member of the U.S. Naval Reserve, the American Legion and the Elks.

He is survived by his wife, Florence.

Seaway Unable To Pay Debts

MASSENA, N.Y. (AP)—The St. Lawrence Seaway is facing "one of its most difficult years" because of its inability to meet its financial obligations, the head of the United States section of the seaway said today.

Joseph H. McCann, administrator of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp., described the international waterway's financial plight in a speech prepared for delivery at the annual meeting of the New York State Society of Newspaper Editors.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is scheduled to address a dinner meeting of the editors tonight. The three-day conference ends Tuesday.

McCann said the seaway's business since it opened in 1959 had increased by almost 30 per cent, "a rate to be envied by any private concern."

He predicted that 1963 would be a "banner year" for the seaway in the amount of tonnage carried.

But McCann pointed out the seaway has a debt of about $130 million it is required to pay off in 50 years at an interest rate of 3 1/2 per cent.

Under Study

"Because our tonnage is far behind original estimates," he said, "it is impossible for us to meet these financial obligations . . . the load of payments and interest we carry sinks us further into debt."

The administrator said the seaway's tolls, which are the waterway's only source of revenue, now are under study by his organization and its Canadian counterpart.

Guard In U.P. To Get Bridge On Wheels

GLADSTONE — One of the newest pieces of military equipment assigned but not yet delivered to the 46th Infantry Division of the Michigan Army National Guard is a $130,000 armored vehicle launched bridge (AVLB).

It is just what its name implies, a bridge on wheels, or in this case, tracks.

Weight 15 Tons
The 15-ton bridge is mounted on the 50-ton chassis of an M-48 tank. The two can be moved to virtually any spot an infantry division can go. It's designed to operate at or near the front lines.

When the 46th Division gets the new bridge four will be assigned to Co. E (bridge) of the 107th Engineering Bn. stationed at the Gladstone Armory.

'Scissors Bridge'
The men of Co. E had their first look at the portable bridge last week at Camp Grayling. The Army sent the bridge and a team of instructors on its operation from Fort Carson, Colo.

The AVLB, nicknamed the "scissors bridge," folds in the middle and then drops back on top of the tank chassis for transportation.

Pneumatic Power
A single operator can move the vehicle into position and plunk the 80-foot-long bridge down on a dime without a sound through the use of pneumatic power. The bridge can carry the weight of any vehicle used by the division. It can also be operated by motor power.

The U.S. Army Mobility Command in Warren is responsible for the procurement and supply management of the scissors bridge.

Sawyer Men Honored At Theater Here

"Crews of the Quarters" for the two tactical squadrons in the 410th Bombardment Wing at K.I. Sawyer Air Force Base will be honored between performances of "A Gathering of Eagles" Thursday at the Nordic Theatre.

A crew from the 46th Air Refueling Squadron and one from the 644th Bombardment Squadron will make personal appearances. The two crews were chosen for their top performances during the April-June quarter under crew rating plans in effect.

Introduced By Rydholm
Marquette Mayor Fred Rydholm will introduce the crew members to the audience.

In addition, the elaborate precautions taken by the Strategic Air Command to prevent any possibility of an atomic missile being launched by mistake will be shown in the movie which is scheduled for five other Upper Peninsula theaters this month.

Setting for the sequences on the missile launch prohibitions were shot in the underground command post at SAC headquarters, near Omaha.

Look behind Scenes

In "A Gathering of Eagles," movie-goers will get a thorough look behind the scenes of SAC, including such sights as an alert, the method of getting SAC's striking force into the air within 15 minutes of an alert order; a MITO (minimum interval take-off), showing a group of B-52 "Stratofortresses" being airborne at 15-second intervals and a drill of Titan I missiles, showing the 100-foot nuclear-warheaded ICBMs emerging from the deep silos to the launching pad.

Also shown will be an ORI, the operational readiness inspection by the surprise visit of a SAC inspection team to test the capabilities of a SAC wing to respond to a potential war order.

Four Units In State
The 410th Bombardment Wing here is a SAC unit, one of four in the state.

Most of the movie, which was produced with full cooperation of the Air Force, was taken at Beale AFB, Calif., a SAC installation. K. I. Sawyer AFB is an Air Defense Command installation, and the 410th Bombardment Wing is a tenant unit.

The movie features Rock Hudson and co-stars Rod Taylor, Mary Peach and Barry Sullivan. Hudson plays the role of a SAC wing commander.

Upper Peninsula theaters scheduled for "A Gathering of Eagles" are the Nordic, Marquette, July 17-23; Vista, Negaunee, July 17-20; Butler, Ishpeming, July 21-27; Delft, Escanaba, July 28-31; Delft, Iron River, July 28-31, and the Soo, Sault Ste Marie, July 25-31.

Cambridge Seeks Help From Tawes

CAMBRIDGE Md. (AP) — Gov. J. Millard Tawes invited officials of this racially scarred city of 12,200 to meet with him today in the state capital of Annapolis.

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—Semi-paralyzed by racial strife and a resultant military clampdown, this Southern-oriented city of 12,000 anxiously awaited outside help today to solve its problems.

With 400 National Guardsmen posted at trouble spots, and business plummeting, white leaders got off a wire to Gov. J. Millard Tawes urgently requesting him to come here quickly for discussions.

They said they wanted to talk to the governor about the hardships imposed by militia law, invoked after six white persons were wounded in a wave of violence last week.

Curfew
The National Guard leaders, among other things, decreed a 9 p.m. off-the-streets curfew, a 7 p.m. closing hour for all commercial establishments, and a total ban on sale of alcoholic drink.

Attitudes on both sides seemed to be hardening today. Gloria Richardson, militant leader of the integrationists, announced that there would be some "non-violent direct action" during the day. Under militia law, a modified form of martial law, all demonstrations are forbidden.

Guardsmen Hear Speech By Governor

CAMP GRAYLING (AP) — The American way of life demands "infinitely greater sacrifices" than life under a dictatorship, Gov. George Romney told Michigan National Guardsmen Sunday.

"Our way of life is based on Judeo-Christian principals—including its premise of the existence of a Creator," he told some 7,500 members of the Guard's 46th Infantry Division at memorial services commemorating Michigan men who died in combat.

The men sat on the side of a hill under low, gray skies and a chilly mist for the ceremony which is a traditional part of "Governor's Weekend" — The middle weekend of the Guard's 15-day summer training period.

Romney cited remarks by Russians that the American way of life is selfish—allowing everyone to do as he wishes, while subjects of Communism are forced to make sacrifices. Romney said:

"We have the obligation of obey-ing the commandments of our Creator, as we know them...and of obeying our federal, state and local governments, since we live under a government by common consent."

Included in an American's obligations, he said, is the requirement to regard all men as our brothers.

Fuzzy Thinking
Americans, he said, sometimes are at a loss to answer the Communist argument—"only because a great deal of fuzzy thinking has taken place."

"Our way of life is not selfish; it does not allow us to do whatever we want," he added.

If Americans desire anything more than freedom, they will lose it along with their freedom, the Governor told his troops.

He also commended guardsmen for being ready when called upon to serve, and told them he had received a letter from Royce Benjamin, of Birmingham, thanking guardsmen for taking part in a search for his 5-year-old daughter Kathleen, who was lost for 25 hours in a rugged forest north of Gaylord last week.

Acting as commander-in-chief for the first time Saturday, Romney reviewed the division in a colorful, hour-long ceremony.

He pinned the Brig. Gen. Earl R. Stewart Medal on Staff Sgt. Eugene M. Kenney of Lansing, honoring the 30-year-old guardsman as Michigan's soldier of the year.

Romney made a tour of the military base, shook hands and chatted with the men, and flew to Flint to attend a memorial service for slain Mississippi integration leader Medgar Evers. On the return trip, the Governor's plane—a National Guard C47—had to land at the Camp Grayling airfield under low skies and a steady rain.

Three Mishaps In City; Boy Hurt In Car-'Bike' Crash

A youngster was injured, two motorists were given tickets and four vehicles were involved in three traffic mishaps which took place in Marquette during the weekend.

1. At 3:20 Saturday afternoon a bicycle being driven south on N. Front St. by Robert Derrick, 13, son of Mrs. Mary Derrick, 130 E. Crescent St., crashed into a car operated by Stephen H. Connor, 1200 N. Seventh St., at the Bluff St. intersection.

The Derrick boy suffered bruises on his right leg and a possible head injury. He was taken in the city patrol car to St. Mary's Hospital, where his condition this morning was reported as being satisfactory.

City police said the mishap occurred as Connors, traveling north on N. Front St., was making a left turn onto Bluff St. The Derrick boy was on the west side of Front St. when he drove into the car, officers said.

2. At 9:10 Saturday night a car being driven east on W. Washington St. by Peter A. Talbot, Cabourg, Ontario, Canada, smashed into an automobile operated by Michael K. Heritage, Box 2A, Sands, when the latter stopped for traffic ahead of him.

The mishap occurred as Talbot was driving through the Third St. intersection.

The front end and grill of Talbot's 1959 sedan were damaged and the left headlight on the car was broken. The trunk and rear end of Heritage's car, a 1957 sedan, were damaged. Both vehicles were driven from the scene under their own power.

City police issued Talbot a summons for failing to have his car under control. Heritage was ticketed for not having a valid Michigan operator's license.

3. Still under investigation today was a mishap which occurred at 10:26 last night in the 400 block of N. Third St.

City police said a car owned by Harris M. Cox, Route 2, Box 147, Marquette, which was parked on the east side of Third St. was struck by an automobile being driven north on Third.

A description of the hit-and-run car was obtained and given to police. The left rear of Cox's 1963 sedan was damaged.

Soviets Blast Red Chinese In Statement

MOSCOW (AP)—Diplomats predict the Soviet and Communist Chinese negotiators will conclude their deadlocked ideological talks soon with a meaningless face-saving communique assuring that time will heal the differences in the Communist camp.

The seriousness of the split between the Communist parties was emphasized by publication Saturday of a 35,000-word Soviet Communist party statement accusing the Chinese of being hypocrites and warmongers bent on a nuclear war with the West.

The Soviet statement, an open letter to the Communist parties of the world, was an official reply to the Chinese attack June 14 on Premier Khrushchev's policy of spreading communism by living in peace with the West. It was spread over four pages of the party newspaper Pravda.

Pravda also published the Communist Chinese letter, disclosing to the Soviet people for the first time the extent of the historic breach in the Communist movement.

Restates Opposition The Soviet statement vigorously restated Moscow's opposition to Peking's hard line and defended Khrushchev's arguments that communism can overcome capitalism through peaceful competition.

Step In Right Direction

That cooperation can exist among educational institutions which are working in the best interests of the Upper Peninsula was made evident in the recent announcement that Michigan State University's Upper Peninsula Extension Center will be located on the Northern Michigan University campus in Marquette.

For the past several years MSU's Extension Center for the U.P. has been located in the Nester School on W. Bluff St. The MSU lease on the property is expiring and the Marquette Board of Education has sold the site, necessitating new quarters for the center. Instead of establishing new quarters in some other part of the city, Michigan State and Northern officials very wisely worked out arrangements for the extension center to be set up on the NNU campus.

Both Northern and Michigan State have much to offer the Upper Peninsula as its region moves toward a stronger economy with the help of education and research. The two institutions, working together, in a concerted, cooperative effort, will have a much greater impact than would be possible under a system of competitive duplication.

The NNU-MSU agreement recognizes the regional nature of Northern as an Upper Peninsula-centered university. The agreement does not in any way diminish the efforts or identity of Michigan State or the work being done by its staff members in cooperative extension and continuing education. The closer, physical relationship, however, should facilitate cooperation and minimize duplication.

Northern has expressed a desire over a long period of time for a unified approach utilizing the strengths of NNU, Michigan State, the University of Michigan and other institutions — an approach which offers the greatest benefit to the taxpayer, and particularly to the people of the Upper Peninsula.

Presidents Edgar L. Harden of Northern and John Hannah of Michigan State have reached an agreement which seems to be in the best interests of the Upper Peninsula. It is hoped that this agreement will stimulate even greater progress in this direction.

From The Journal Files

90 Years Ago

—Marquette—

Tuesday night there set in one of the most terrific and devastating thunderstorms it ever has been our lot to witness. Early Wednesday morning the whistle of the Marquette Manufacturing Co. sounded an alarm, calling the people into the streets to assist in saving property from being washed away. Soon a stream of water was rushing down the main street out to the docks at a depth of 10 feet, and the road has been washed away and caved in. Along Front St. all the cellars were flooded and water damage to merchants' stocks was considerable. Parties of men with picks and shovels constructed temporary channels by which the great body of the flood was carried away toward the lake. Whetstone Brook became a roaring torrent, Mr. Ely's beautiful home near there was severely damaged and a house belonging to Col. Kidder nearby was tipped over into the lake.

On the Peers Saturday was a party of Indiana editors, many accompanied by their families, who were making a northwestern tour. The steamer stopped here all day, and the visitors expressed themselves as being highly pleased with Marquette's business capacity and fine appearance. It is to be regretted that no arrangements were made for a trip to our nearby mines, which our mining men would be glad to have done had there been time. Accompanying the excursion is the Warsaw Silver Cornet Band of 13 members, one of the best in Indiana, which gave us a concert.

Charles T. Harvey, Esq., with wife and family, came to Lake Superior last week and have taken their house at Chocomaug for the season. Mr. Harvey, we learn, will be present at the reopening of the Northern Iron Co.'s furnace.

An alarm of fire from the Coles House last week created a great hubbub on the streets. However, an investigation showed that the chimney of a building next door was burning out, and the crowd all dispersed, all talking about forming a hose company.

Why does not someone, well posted and up on all real estate affairs, open a first class real estate office in this city?

We express through the columns of The Mining Journal, the general thanks of the whole community for the manner in which the gas mains were taken care of during our recent freshet, so there was no stoppage of the supply for a single day.

The Marquette baseball team was in better trim yesterday, and, after the disastrous defeat of Sunday, it turned the tables on the Milwaukee Sentinels in a handy manner, the score being 9 to 6 and the locals handsomely earning their victory. The attendance was light, indeed, but few people being able to get away for a weekday game. However, those present were well pleased with the game, it being evenly and well contested.

Peter White left last night for Iron Mountain, where he will formally present a portrait of Hon. Don M. Dickinson to Dickinson County this evening. Judge J. W. Stone will preside at the exercises. Mr. White was accompanied by James Russell.

There are 33 places of various description — restaurants, gardens, clubs, hotels and merchants in Marquette — licensed by the state or which have made application for permission to sell beer, according to records in the office of the city clerk.

A group of summer forestry students of Michigan State College, who have been studying at the Dunbar station, 12 miles south of Sault Ste. Marie, on the St. Marys River, will visit Marquette July 24 and 25 as a part of the field trip to the Upper Peninsula and Wisconsin.

It is not likely, it was stated here yesterday, that Marquette merchants will make an organized effort to oppose the state sales tax on the ground that the law is unconstitutional. Ironwood merchants have made formal protest against the tax and have asked merchants' organizations in other Upper Peninsula cities to follow their lead, but no action has been taken outside of Ironwood.

Performers In Early Marquette Theatrical Productions Recalled

BY ERNEST H. RANKIN
Marquette County
Historical Society

The writings on the late Miss Flora Retallic (Mining Journal, Feb. 20, 1958) and "Dinnie" MacDonald (June 13, 1963) were primarily prepared as short biographies of these two subjects, reviewing some of their accomplishments in the field of amateur theatricals. In doing this, it became necessary to mention a few of those who had played both principal and lesser roles to provide background material. It would be poor judgment to assume that these shows were peopled only by the few mentioned; however, one is confronted by the immediate fact that in the seven MacDonald Marquette productions, spanning a period of 20-odd years 330 young people found enjoyment in these colorful events, distributed between 185 young ladies and 145 young gentlemen. As many of these people played in two or more shows, the combined total of appearances amounts to 465.

Today's Special Story

To document all the members of the supporting casts in their several roles and their talents (and many were extremely proficient) would involve a tremendous task, over and beyond the scope of a single article. Neglecting Miss Retallic and MacDonald, who played in all seven of the Marquette area productions, the list is headed by three who took parts in five of the shows: Emily Phelps (Mrs. C. B. Randall, Polly Williams (Mrs. O'Ferrall) Knight and the late Richard M. Jopling, who was a casualty of World War I. Mrs. Randall and Mrs. Knight started their friendship in their "pigtails" days and it has prevailed throughout the years. Very few summers ago, they don't return to Marquette together to visit their many friends.

Harkin Family Heads List
Among those who played in four of the shows were Mrs. L. G. Kaufman, Estelle Patrick Zerbel, Marie Harkin Moore, Langan Ford, Cecil Charlton, Clara Drake, Bruno Primeau and Frank Denny. Playing in three shows were Mabel Russell, Eleanor Rankin (Mrs. T. V.) Williams, Beatrice Helen Crane of Negaunee, Iven Chamberlain, Blanche Primeau (the sole survivor of a large, prominent, early Marquette family), Rheta and Margaret Lewis (daughters of the late John Lewis, the ever congenial host of Hotel Marquette), Clara Fassbender, Mrs. Lewis Vierling, Lawrence Tucker (editor of the Iron Mountain News until his retirement a few years ago), Seymour Charlton, Donald Beale, Llewellyn Drake, Clarence McKereghan, George Durham and Clyde De Haas. Some 50-odd took parts in two of the productions and about 220 played in only one of the seven shows.

The Harkin family heads the list in contributing the greatest number of amateur performers, with Marie, Louise, Helen, Donald and Clara. Next in line are four families with four of their young people participating: Polly, Rhoda, Thomas and John Williams; Winifred, Pearl, Lawrence and Gordon Tucker; Betty, Donald, Charles and Herbert Begole and Pearl, Viola, Marguerite and Leslie LeVeque. The Sherman family not only included Gen. Crissie and Bernard (better known to his many friends as "Bunny"), but also the daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Sherman. The James Russell family gave three daughters to the theatrical cause and from the McCombs family came Jean, Margaret and George. In the list are Irene, Jack and Charles Courtney. (Jack is now serving as Marquette's postmaster.)

Included in the supporting casts in "The Talk of the Town," the 1908 production, will be found, in addition to others previously mentioned, Margary Mathews, Suzanne Copeland (of Grosse Isle), Earl Ross and Burton Frei taking part in "Danse Ecceptrique." Among these supporting Miss Retallic and M. MacDonald in "I Can't Do That Sum" were Louise Rushmore, Grace Retallic, Onota Schaffer, Margaret Barnes and Hazel Fassbender. Assisting Mrs. Kaufman in "I'm a Fickle Maid" were Wylis Manthei (younger brother of the late Manthei Howe of the Mining Journal staff), Julian Case, Ralph Eldredge and Ward Powell.

As many of these young people either danced or sang, or did both, in two or more scenes, it would be far too repetitious to mention their names time and time again. It is remarkable that one man, practically unassisted, could take 60-odd young people from the four corners of Marquette and in a period of two weeks train them to become fully presentable amateur performers. The Mining Journal wrote, "In years far past and years recent the Marquette Opera House has been the scene of many brilliant amateur performances, but last evening the schooled theatergoer went to see in putting 'The Talk of the Town' in a class by itself. . . . But the results attained would be impossible without the excellent material that he (MacDonald) had to work with, and the participants in the program individually and collectively, are much to be commended for their fine work."

Staggering List
Among those mentioned in a double sextette, "Put a Bet Down for Me," were Jessie Palmer, Mabel Watson, Emily McConnell and Carl Lunn. Jessie Palmer (Mrs. Elwood) Williams is now a well-known genealogist, associated with the National Genealogical Society, Washington, D. C., and Mabel Watson (Mrs. Alfred) Higgins writes a society column for a small town Connecticut newspaper. In "Smoke," assisting Edward Gilbert the soloist, were, among a dozen or more others, Aida Ransom, Agnes Withey, Clarence E. Ed Connell, Llewellyn and Clara Drake, Homer Pearce (who represented the General Electric Co. in China for many years and is a brother of E. L. Pearce of the Union National Bank), Clayton Frei and the late Samuel Earl Bracegirdle ("Bracy" in his school days) of Lake Shore, Inc. In the last two numbers (neglecting the finale, "The Pretenders" by the entire company), "Lutie" and "At the Stage Door" were Gladys and Mabel Brown (the Browns also had three of their offspring in the cast), Vinnie Mathews, Mrs. Walter Hill of Liverpool, Ohio, a native of Marquette, Gene Farrell, Katherine Watson (Mrs. Frank V.) Furrows, of Muskegon, Alia Ransom and Juliet Breitung.

The supporting casts in the next four productions, "Up and Down Broadway," 1910; "The Echoes of 1910," 1911; "Tango Town," 1915, and "The Whirl of Mirth," 1916, included many new names. Mentioned for the first time were the late George Shiras IV and his sister, the late Ellen Shiras (Mrs. Frank) Russell. The Shiras family is particularly notable for its many local philanthropies. The list of names is staggering and leaves one bewildered! A scattering of names mentioned were: McCarthy, McKereghan, Belding, Robertson, Rule, Van Horn, Johnson, Mully, Mitchell, Linstrom, Peters, Zerbel, Richardson, Denny, Anderson, De Haas, Van Evra, Stolpe, Maynard, Youngbluth, Thompson, Kern, Fryfogle, Stafford, Shaul, Conklin, Saladin, Stewart, Whitting, Kellan, Rydholm, Maney, Little, Archambeau, Menhennett, McCall, Teeple, Love, Jacobson, Witting and Wheatley — many of these names going back to pioneering days and representing a cross section of some of Marquette's early settlers.

There were very few "hold-overs" from the first five productions who appeared in the last two: "The Legion Follies" of 1921 and "Fads and Frills" in 1928. Dinnie's final Marquette show, included in this group will be found the names of George Durham, now of Cleveland and a frequent summer visitor; Frank Denny, Clyde C. Dixon, Jack Court, John Courtney and Edward Anderson. Among the young ladies will be found the following: Miriam Morrison (Mrs. Junis B.) Peake, who, at the age of 12 received special mention in the 1911 show for her excellent solo dancing (Mrs. Peake now lives in New Jersey and has been an outstanding authority on knitting and crocheting for some years, doing much writing on the subject); Margaret Lewis, Stella Patrick Zerbel, Betty Begole Spear, Marie Harkin Moore, the late Alice Stewart and Catherine Whitting. As the last two shows contributed over 90 new names to the list, some 50-odd young ladies and 40 odd gentlemen, it becomes impossible to list them all; however, a very few can be mentioned. From the Jacques family came Emery, Corinne and Lucille. Quoting from the Journal's article on the "Follies," "The opening chorus, a flower song, was sung admirably by Miss Corinne Jacques. It is well suited to her admirable voice. The chorus work in this, as in all numbers, was splendid. . . . Miss Jacques' splendid soprano voice was again heard in 'The Rose Song,' and Miss Joan Kaufman, assisted by the entire company, won merited applause (sic) with her song, 'You Look Like a Bad Man to Me.'" It was Corinne who married William (Bill) Clujro Jr., one of the many young Marquette men who went early and made good. Bill retired from the Dow Chemical Co., Midland, where he has been among the top executives for a number of years. They have remained frequent summer visitors and still enjoy swimming in the coolish waters of Lake Superior. Kenyon Boyer, the managing director of the Marquette County Historical Society, took part in many of the scenes, appearing in song and dance seven or eight times, as did many of the others.

With the passing of seven years an almost complete new group of young people appeared to take parts in "Fads and Frills," produced at the Delft Theatre on Aug. 13 and 16, 1928. Only two of the gentlemen and three of the young ladies who had appeared in pre-World War I shows took parts in this last MacDonald Marquette production. The Mining Journal in advance notices wrote, "They are going to give a Retallic-MacDonald musical potpourri. . . . It will include all their own songs, 'I Can't Do That Sum,' 'I Want You,' 'Little Girl,' the one the late Richard Jopling wrote, 'When the Light House Flashes,' 'One, Two, Four, Three' and ban between Khrushchev and his aides and the United States' Averell Harriman and Britain's Lord Hailsham already are complicated by Moscow's feud with Red China. Already accused by Peking of appeasing the West, Khrushchev may want to torpedo the discussions merely to show Mao Tse-tung that he can be tough with the capitalists, too. Or he may decide to go ahead with the test ban as a means of putting additional pressure on Peking to join a world-wide agreement to stop testing.

As one diplomat here puts it: "After all, Khrushchev has been arguing that peaceful coexistence with the West is possible. These negotiations offer him a chance to prove that the West will go along with his premise."

It is possible, too, that Khrushchev figures the proposed test ban is something the Administration can sell to the Senate. It is one that has been jointly sponsored by Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D., Minn.), a long-time advocate of a test ban, and Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D., Conn.), who has been critical of the whole idea of suspending tests. And 33 other senators have signed the resolution.

Public Opinion For Ban
Certainly, the Senate would be influenced by the fact that public opinion in the United States is solidly behind a ban. The latest Lou Harris poll in the Washington Post reports that 73 per cent of those polled favor the ban agreement, and 47 per cent give it their unqualified approval.

If it is really something Khrushchev wants, he will consider these evidences of American approval as an indication that he can have it. If he's just kidding again, it won't matter much what Harriman and Lord Hailsham say to him.

Problems Of Western Unity

By WALTER LIPPMANN

Things are moving so fast in both the Communist world and ours that it is hard for the observer to keep up with them. Yet there is already sufficient reason to ask ourselves whether, along with and no doubt affected by the rupture inside the Communist orbit, there is not also, long before most people expected it, a profound change within the Western system. We can begin to see dimly that events are overtaking the standard conception of Western unity as preached for the past 15 years and preached again recently by President Kennedy.

The standard conception of Western unity is that of a rally of beleaguered forces in a dire emergency. It originated in the years immediately after the war when Western Europe was devastated and disarmed, and there was nothing but a meager supply of American atomic bombs between the Red army and Paris. In that climate of imminent peril, there were conceived and constructed in a dazzling display of statesmanship the postwar institutions of the Western world, the Marshall Plan, NATO and the Common Market.

Accomplished Wonders
As is evident from the flourishing condition of Western Europe today, these postwar institutions accomplished wonders. But they contained within themselves an obvious, but unavowed difficulty which was destined to make them transitory. The difficulty was not "Germany," but the Western section of a divided Germany; the six countries of the Common Market are not "Europe," but only one part of the non-Communist part of Europe. And non-Communist Europe is only a part of Europe.

Unless I am misreading the present course of events, we are looking backward when we base American policy on the revival of the partitioned, divided and fragmented postwar "Europe." There is much ground for thinking that the main movement of affairs is away from a closer organization of postwar Western Europe and toward a looser association and increasing intercourse with the whole of Europe. The exclusion of Britain, together with Ireland and Scandinavia, from the six has been followed by many signs of stagnation and even fragmentation within the six.

If certain indiscreet, off-the-record remarks of Gen. de Gaulle have been correctly reported, he — as so often before — has been one of the first to see a new development. It is as recognized that there is not much of a future in the Paris-Bonn axis within a very small Europe. In any event, as the recent visit of the general to Bonn showed, the two countries collaborate as well, but no better than most neighbors. The West Germans are not only looking to Britain and across the Atlantic, but are looking also to Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union. The post-Adenauer Germans like Erhard and Schroeder and Brandt are not interested in the small postwar "Europe." They have no passionate enthusiasm for a close political integration of the partitioned Germany in a truncated Europe.

Break-Up Of An Established Order
In this connection, there is great importance in the changing relations between the Catholic Church and the East European states. There is much evidence that in Poland and Hungary and perhaps in the other Central European states the church may be on the way to winning freedom for its pastoral, and perhaps even for its teaching, function. This is certain to diminish the antagonism between the people on both sides of the iron curtain.

The confusion and disarray, the aimlessness and bewilderment, which are more or less prevalent everywhere, are the concomitants of the break-up of an established order. We are living amidst the break-up of the established order of the postwar world, and we are finding that much of our thinking is no longer able to explain the facts.

This intellectual and moral upheaval is not caused by the intransigence of Gen. de Gaulle. But he has been the first Western statesman to realize that the established postwar order was breaking up, and he was the first to act upon this insight. It is a fascinating question now which Western statesman, if any, will be the first to lead the way into the post-post-war era.

News Behind The News

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON — As the United States and Great Britain opened negotiations with the Soviet Union on a nuclear test ban agreement in Moscow today, diplomatic circles here were trying not to seem too hopeful.

From President Kennedy on down, everybody wanted to be optimistic about the talks but didn't quite dare. The past has taught them that when the Kremlin zig-zags it is often merely to set the stage for a devastating zag. And yet they would like to believe Nikita Khrushchev when he says that this time he means business.

Khrushchev has said it plainly enough — that he is willing to accept a ban on atmospheric and underwater tests, while excluding underground tests. But as predicted in this paper a few weeks ago, he has come up with the usual Russian gimmick. This is his proposal for a nonaggression pact between NATO and the Warsaw Treaty bloc, which could be the monkey wrench in the deal.

Will K. Demand Fine Print?
It all depends, of course, on how Khrushchev's East Berlin speech is read. After proposing the partial test ban, he added that "at the conclusion of the test ban agreement" a nonaggression pact should be signed to ease international tension. Some Russian experts say this means Mr. K. will demand some fine print in the test ban agreement providing for the nonaggression pact. Others say he meant only that he hoped the West would sign such a pact AFTER an agreement had been reached on a test ban.

Naturally, the State Department is hoping the latter interpretation is correct, since the negotiations for a nonaggression pact would pose dreadful complications, including possible Soviet insistence on recognition of East Germany. But if Mr. K. is willing to agree to a test ban and then talk about the peace treaty, there's no reason why we couldn't go along. In any event, the U. S. could not negotiate unilaterally for such a pact, since it would affect our NATO allies.

K's Direction Uncertain
Meanwhile, the talks on the test

ban between Khrushchev and his aides and the United States' Averell Harriman and Britain's Lord Hailsham already are complicated by Moscow's feud with Red China. Already accused by Peking of appeasing the West, Khrushchev may want to torpedo the discussions merely to show Mao Tse-tung that he can be tough with the capitalists, too. Four Persons Injured, Five Issued Tickets In Area Car Crackups

Four persons were injured, five motorists were given tickets and nine automobiles were damaged in six area traffic smashups reported this morning by state police from the Marquette post.

There also were three accidents in the city during the weekend (see other local traffic story). Reports on the mishaps investigated by state police follow:

1. At 2:40 Saturday morning an automobile being driven south on U. S. 41 by Jerry Child, 25, K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, struck the right rear door of a car, which was parked on the side of the highway, just south of County Road BBA, in Chocolay Township. Charged With Leaving Scene

State police said Ralph Detwiler, 27, Sawyer Base, had parked his automobile on the west (left) side of the highway, facing north, to assist another motorist.

Cortland Anderson, 28, also of Sawyer Base, opened the right rear door of Detwiler's automobile to get some tools, when Child drove by and his car hit the door.

Anderson suffered a bruised leg and sought his own treatment.

The right rear door of Detwiler's 1956 station wagon and the right side of Child's 1961 sedan were damaged. Both vehicles were driven from the scene under their own power.

Child did not stop at the scene, officers said, and later issued him a summons for leaving the scene of a property damage accident.

2. An automobile being driven south on M-95 by Ben L. Peterson, 55, of 642 W. Magnetic St., Marquette, struck a parked 1957 tractor-trailer operated by Alphonse Farley, 53, Republic, just north of County Road LLL, in Republic Township at 11 yesterday morning.

Peterson suffered a cut on one of his hands and his wife, Genevieve J., 51, sustained a possible right hip injury. She was taken in the Marquette city ambulance to St. Luke's Hospital here for treatment.

State police said Farley had parked near the guard rails and an unknown third vehicle had slowed down in passing it. Peterson's car went into a skid, striking the truck and going over to the left side of the highway, crashing into some guard rails, officers added.

Speed Law Violation

Extensive damage occurred to both sides of Peterson's car, a 1961 sedan, which had to be removed by a wrecker. The left rear of the tractor-trailer was damaged.

Peterson was ticketed for a speed law violation.

3. At 2:50 Saturday afternoon a car being driven north on County Road 553 by Jean Hollingsworth, 35, Sawyer Base, went out of control when it dropped off the edge of the pavement, just north of County Road EKK, in Forsyth Township. The car traveled over a pile of rocks.

Mrs. Hollingsworth suffered a cut lip and scratches on a leg. She was taken to the Sawyer Base hospital for treatment.

The front end of her vehicle, a 1959 sedan, was extensively damaged and the car was towed from the scene by a wrecker.

4. An automobile being driven south on Baraga County Road 341 by Larry Britton, 21, of 1621 Gray St., Marquette, went out of control just north of the Marquette-Baraga County line at 12:15 yesterday morning.

Britton told officers a deer jumped out from the west (right) side of the highway and he swerved to the left to avoid striking it. His car smashed into a tree.

Failed To Report Crash

The left front and side of Britton's 1960 coach were damaged and the vehicle was removed from the scene by the driver.

State police issued Britton a summons for failing to report a property damage accident.

5. At 6 p. m., yesterday a car being driven south on County Road 553 by Miles Murphy, 28, Sawyer Base, went out of control when he applied his brakes on a narrowing intersection, north of M-35, in Forsyth Township.

Reckless Driving Count

State police said his car went over to the left side of the highway and then traveled back over to the right side, rolling over.

Murphy was issued a summons for reckless driving.

The left side of his 1953 sedan was damaged and the car was removed from the scene by the driver.

6. At 6:35 Saturday evening a car being driven west on U. S. 41 by Roger Sturm, 41, of 323 Vine St., Ishpeming, struck the rear end of a vehicle operated by James Trettin, 21, Wakefield, as the latter was making a right turn, just south of M-95, in Humboldt Township.

Following Too Closely

The rear end of Trettin's 1956 sedan and the front and right side of Sturm's 1960 station wagon were damaged. Sturm's vehicle had to be removed from the scene by a wrecker.

State police gave Sturm a ticket for following too closely.

Cool Tonight, But Warmer Weather Due

Cool temperatures were expected to continue tonight, but tomorrow the sun should break through the cloudcover and warm things up a little.

The sun "went under" late Saturday morning and then it only came out once all weekend, for a brief period late yesterday afternoon.

Rain over the weekend in Marquette included .01 of an inch Saturday and traces yesterday and early this morning.

Saturday's drizzle was the second time this month that there's been a measurable amount of precipitation. Marquette also had .77 of an inch of rain July 6. Before that, last measurable amount of precipitation was .52 of an inch June 19.

More Rain Elsewhere

It rained off and on from 2:15 through 9:30 p.m. Saturday and drizzled yesterday between 1:30 and 2:25 p.m., Meteorologist Fred Mueller reported.

Some other areas in the Peninsula had more rain, with .07 of an inch of rain over the weekend at the Marquette County Airport in Negaunee Township and .57 of an inch between 7 a.m. yesterday and 7 a.m. today at Sault Ste. Marie.

High temperature Saturday was 77, at noon. After that thick clouds obscured the sun and the mercury dropped to the upper 60s for the rest of the afternoon.

Record Was On This Date

With a low of 62, the average Saturday was 70, three degrees above normal.

Yesterday's average temperature was three degrees below normal, with extremes of 68 and 60.

The mercury got down to 55 at 7:30 this morning, the overnight low. It was 59 in Escanaba, but most other weather stations in the Peninsula the minimums last night were in the low 50s.

Marquette's all-time record high temperature occurred on this date in 1901, when the mercury got up to 108.

Showers are predicted about mid-week, Mueller said. Precipitation during the period is expected to total one-half of an inch.

Long-Range Outlook

The long-range forecast, covering the period from midnight tonight through midnight Saturday, calls for temperatures to average near the normal extremes of 75 and 58. After a slow warming trend tomorrow and tomorrow night, it's expected to be cooler Wednesday and Thursday, but warmer about Saturday.

7 Neo-Nazis Arrested At Bronx Diner

White leaders in racially troubled Cambridge, Md., have sent an urgent appeal to Gov. J. Millard Tawes to come to that city and aid in the settlement of racial disputes.

The appeal was issued Sunday after a meeting of county commissioners and members of the state legislature and the city council. The governor today invited officials to meet with him in Annapolis.

Arrested

In New York, the leader of a Neo-Nazi party and six other members were arrested on charges of trying to incite a riot at a Bronx diner where racial violence broke out last week.

The seven were accused of being members of the National Renaissance party, described in 1954 by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as "clearly subversive and un-American."

Six of those arrested also were charged with anarchy. Police said a cache of weapons and ammunition was found in a truck that had been driven by three of the men.

At the capitol in Albany, N.Y., about 400 persons gathered to pay tribute to Medgar Evers, Negro integration leader slain in Jackson, Miss. A proclamation by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was read to the crowd.

In a television interview in Washington, James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, said plans are being made for a nationwide boycott of chain stores that discriminate among customers or employees.

More Christ, Less Gandhi

The Rev. Dr. C. William Billingslea, pastor of Damascus Baptist Church, said the groups advised Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. of their action and offered him their charters. Billingslea urged King to teach more of Christ and less of Gandhi.

At Danville, Va., six Negro demonstrators were arrested for picketing outside the home of Myrao Julian Stinson. The demonstrators were led by an Army private carrying an American flag.

Negroes staged a peaceful march in Lexington, N.C., and 10 were admitted to a white swimming pool. About 115 marched through the downtown area in the first demonstrations since a white man was killed in a race riot June 6.

About 12,000 persons attended a rally at Cleveland, Ohio, to hear Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, demand congressional action on civil rights.

It Took 60 Bullets To Fell Grizzly Bear

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — A 1,000 pound grizzly bear was killed by blasts from two machine guns, rifles and shotguns when he crashed, growling, through a plywood barrier set up after the animal dug through his sprayed concrete enclosure.

The huge beast roamed the tear gas filled service tunnel behind the bear caves for almost five hours as zoo keepers and police tried to coax him back Friday.

Emergency squad Capt. Sam Evans said the bear finally fell after being hit by more than 60 bullets.

Governor's Message In Fair Book

ESCANABA — "Let's all work together to build Michigan," says Gov. George Romney in a message to Northern Michigan people in the 1963 U. P. State Fair Premium Book.

The premium book carries the greetings of the Governor to the fair's officials and patrons, as well as listing premiums totaling $25,000 for the fair's 17 departments. "Michigan Unsurpassed"

"Michigan is proud of the Upper Peninsula State Fair, a six-day festival when the citizens display the abundance of human and natural resources our state is graced with," Gov. Romney said.

"Fairs, however, should mean more than exhibiting our agricultural and industrial products and skills or carnival rides for our children," he continued. "Fairs serve more importantly as excellent opportunities to demonstrate dramatically to the rest of the nation that Michigan is unsurpassed as a place to work, live and play."

Three Fundamental Elements

"The Upper Peninsula State Fair each year helps promote Michigan at a time when we welcome visitors from outside Michigan. This essential promotion in turn encourages growth in the Michigan economy with its three fundamental elements — industry, agriculture and tourism.

"Each must be strengthened and each must grow if Michigan is to regain its competitive position among the states. Let's all work together to build Michigan," Gov. Romney said.

Copies of the U. P. State Fair Premium Book are being distributed to offices of county extension agents and to chambers of commerce in the Peninsula, or they may be requested by writing to the U. P. State Fair, Escanaba.

In 1918 President Woodrow Wilson set aside an Alaskan val-

Homemaking Tips

- Serve Canadian bacon, instead of the regular variety, with skillet-fried liver — just for a change.
- Brown ground beef — mashing with a fork to break up — and add to those canned baked beans for a quick lunch or supper dish.
- Toast walnuts and serve them with any kind of curried dish.
- Ever add a pinch or two of basil to canned tomato soup?
- Ever add a little molasses to hard sauce for steamed pudding?
- Did you know that some spring-form pans come without clamps?
- A little canned tomato sauce leftover? Add it to ground beef you are going to make into hamburgers.

Shipment of the statue, "Our Lady of the Poor," was arranged by Heinrich Witte, of Cologne, Germany, a cousin of Sister M. Bonaventura, administrator of St. Mary's, and the Rev. George Jacob, rector of the shrine, built by Banneux villagers in gratitude for preservation of Banneux from World War I destruction. (Photo by Joseph Sullivan.)

Marquette Girl One Of 30 Going To U-M Workshop

Cynthia Lee Russell, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell, 529 E. Arch St., is leaving Sunday for Ann Arbor, where she will be one of 30 Michigan high school students participating in a 12-day workshop at the University of Michigan for high school editors and publications staff members.

Purpose of the workshop, which is under the aegis of the U-M Department of Journalism, is to give students background for and practice in producing high school publications. Two other such conferences are being held at the University this summer.

Personal Relationship
An experienced high school teacher will serve on the teaching staff with members of the faculty in journalism. Since the student conferences will be working closely with the workshop for advisers, students will have an opportunity for an unusual personal relationship with advisers during the entire 12 days. All classes will be in the journalism department's classrooms and conference rooms.

Included in the weekend program will be informational tours of newspapers and other publications, and varied social activities.

CYNTHIA RUSSELL

Students may also attend the many plays, concerts and lectures scheduled during the summer session.

Special Staff Help
Special attention will be given those students wishing help in staff organization, administration for content and objectives of school publications.

Miss Russell, who will be a senior this fall at Graveraet High School, was on the staff of the Graveraet Weekly last year. She hopes to pursue the study of journalism in college.

Director of the workshop conferences is Prof. John V. Field of the U-M's Department Of Journalism.

Buglers Holiday Parade, 'Night Of Music' Among Highlights Of Eventful Weekend In Ishpeming

ISHPEMING — Another exciting and eventful weekend in Ishpeming is now history.

Beginning Friday night with the Miss Michigan dance at the National Guard Armory, followed by a huge parade Saturday afternoon and a "Night of Music" Saturday evening, festivities came to a close on Sunday as St. John's Catholic Church of Ishpeming held dedication ceremonies at its new school.

Seven Competing Units
Saturday's parade, which ushered in the Buglers Holiday, featured the seven competing units leading the way.

Floats of all descriptions, clowns and pretty girls contributed to a highly successful parade which wound its way through the crowded streets of Ishpeming on a dismal and cold afternoon, threatened by rain, which eventually came that night.

Ishpeming's Kathleen McLaughlin, Miss Michigan of 1963, perched atop her official car, again extended greetings to the multitude.

Rain in the evening forced cancellation of the outdoor competition of the visiting drum and bugle corps, but the event was moved to the Ishpeming High School auditorium, where, as a Blue Note leader said, "The place was jammed to capacity, and many people had to be turned away."

Northernaires Winners

In an impressive performance, the Menominee Northernaires garnered the highest point total with 87.7, followed by the Mercury Thunderbolts and L'Anse Golden Eagles, tied for second with 87.4, and Ontonagon placing third with 78.7.

The Ishpeming Blue Notes Drum and Bugle Corps will leave Thursday for Detroit, where they will compete in the state American Legion competitions on Friday.

Woodward Ave. Parade

Preliminaries will begin Friday at 11 a.m. on MacKensie Field on the corner of Wyoming and Chicago Sts. with the finals set for 7 the same day.

The Blue Notes will also march in the huge parade on Woodward Ave. on Saturday.

Ceremonies Mark Completion Of St. John's Building Program

ISHPEMING — Threatening weather broke up in time for sunshine to brighten colorful dedication ceremonies yesterday marking the completion of the building program of St. John the Evangelist parish.

Following blessing of the flag, the cornerstone, a dedicatory crucifix and the school itself by the most Rev. Thomas L. Noa,

D.D., bishop of the Diocese of Marquette, the speakers gathered in the combined entrance for the rectory and the school.

$650,000 Structure

Principal address was that of Patrick Lyons of Duluth, designated a Knight of St. Gregory by Pope John XXIII. A 1914 graduate of St. John's Grade School, Lyons recalled that some of the Sisters of St. Joseph who served the original school were still on hand when he attended.

He reminded the audience that their forefathers had sacrificed much to provide the original buildings this six-unit, $650,000 structure replaces. The Duluth attorney noted poetically that "the student goes forth to be to others what his teacher was to him" and that the "music of the teacher's soul" vibrates in the soul of the pupil.

Mayor Pro Tem Emil Aho spoke of the city council's interest in the building program and congratulated the parish on its fine new school.

W. C. Peterson, Ishpeming superintendent of schools, pointed out that while the program was a dream to many, beginning five years ago, it was a prayer for the sisters, past and present, who "have done a tremendous job of teaching" under adverse conditions. He noted particularly the large size of classes and the sisters' hope that this can now be remedied.

Peterson had high praise for the pastor, Msgr. David Spelgatti, and of ceremonies and spoke on behalf of the education of the children.

Speaks For Laymen

Kenneth Nault acted as master of ceremonies and spoke on behalf of the laymen of the parish.

Bishop Noa used the Easter text, "This is the Day that the Lord hath made. Rejoice in it and be glad." He added his congratulations to the parish and pastor and said it was appropriate that the dedication and confirmation services (which followed immediately for nearly 100 children and adults) should be together bringing both the new facilities and the confirmands into "membership" in the church.

A dinner in the new Kron-Dingfelder Hall completed the program. In a brief talk which followed the meal, Msgr. Spelgatti expressed his gratitude to all the people of the parish, whose sacrifices had made completion of the school, hall, rectory, offices, convent and baptistry possible.

Bishop Noa again spoke briefly, saluting the brevity, graciousness and substance of the day's program.

Replaced 1880 Facilities

The building program began with the accumulation by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George Dingfelder of a new rectory fund and continued, under Msgr. Spelgatti, spurred by the growing danger of aged buildings and success in obtaining a lease for the property, which adjoins the parish church.

St. John's is among the older parishes of the Upper Peninsula, and the facilities which have been replaced were originated in the 1880's.

Miss Michigan of 1963, Kathleen McLaughlin (second from left) of Ishpeming, sponsored her sister, Patricia (far left) at her confirmation in St. John the Evangelist Church yesterday immediately following ceremonies dedicating new church facilities. Confirmation rite was administered by the Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, bishop of the Marquette Catholic Diocese. Present for the confirmation exercises were Michael McLaughlin (third from left), brother of Patricia and Kathleen, and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin.

Bob Charles, 27, of New Zealand, poses with trophy after winning the British Open Tournament in a 36-hole playoff against Phil Rodgers of La Jolla, Calif. Charles is the first southpaw golfer to win a major golf championship.

Charles Not Confident In PGA Meet

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Bob Charles, the lanky New Zealander who became the patron saint of left-handers everywhere when he won the British Open, can't see himself repeating the trick in the National PGA here this week.

Charles arrived Sunday night, weary from 72 holes of pressure golf in two days during which he dropped about six pounds from his already spare frame.

Fears Weather

"I don't think I'll have much chance here," said the only southpaw ever to win a major golf championship. "The weather was very good in England and now I must try to adjust to the Texas heat. Also, I have to adjust from the small English ball to the American ball and I'll be playing on a new course. It's quite a combination to beat."

But Charles said "Golf is like picking horses — you never can tell." He said he planned to give it all he has and he figures his game is suitable to the long-narrow fairways and big greens of Dac Country Club course, which measures 7,046 yards and has a 56-35-71 par.

Endurance

"Winning the British Open became an endurance contest more than a test of golf," said Charles. "Phil Rodgers felt the strain more than I did in the last 18 holes." Charles beat Rodgers by eight strokes in the British Open play-off, shooting par 140 on the 36 holes while Rodgers was taking 148. They had tied at 277 for 72 holes.

Mrs. Werner Wins Fourth Mich. Title

DETROIT (AP) — Mrs. Sally Sharp Werner, a 26-year-old putting whiz who wins state women's titles on the average of one every two years, has her fourth Michigan amateur women's championship today.

One-putt greens helped Mrs. Werner, of Birmingham, past two younger opponents Friday in the tournament's semifinals and finals at Western Golf and Country Club.

Paired With Shook

She eliminated 17-year-old Joyce Kazmierski of Detroit, 3 and 2, in the morning's semifinals and then defeated 20-year-old Patti Shook of South Haven in the final round.

Miss Shook, a long-hitting junior at Valparaiso University, ousted Mrs. S. E. Gawne of Bloomfield Hills in the semifinals, 4 and 2.

Won At 19

Mrs. Werner, who first won the state title in 1956 at age 19 and won again in 1958 and 1961, had to defeat five-time winner Mrs. Don Weiss of Flint to advance to the quarterfinals. Then she defeated another former champion, Mrs. John Hume of Royal Oak.

In Friday's finals, Mrs. Werner had a 2-up lead after nine holes, but Miss Shook evened things by winning the 11th and 12th holes. A 12-foot putt put Mrs. Werner ahead again on the 14th and then went 2-up with an eight-footer on the 16th. The two golfers halved the par-3 17th to end the match.

Mitena First In Mackinac Boat Race

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP) — The yacht Mitena, of Macatowa Bay, Mich., today was the first finisher in the 333-mile Chicago-to-Mackinac yacht race. Officials said the finish at 8:09 a.m. was unusually early, but not a record early finishing time for the annual race up Lake Michigan and through the Straits of Mackinac.

No Winner Yet

The Mitena will get the Royana Trophy for being the first boat in. But the Mitena, skippered by Charles Witney, is not the winner of the race, necessarily, under the event's handicap system. Some smaller boats have 12 to 14 hour handicaps.

A second boat, Blitzen, skippered by William and Tom Schoendorf of Milwaukee, came into the judges' view an hour after the Mitena's finish. Other boats were not expected until mid-day today.

At last report Rubaiyat, of the Columbia Yacht Club, Aura, of the Chicago Yacht Club, Interlude, of the Milwaukee Yacht Club, Robin, of the Chicago Yacht Club, Pygmalion, of the Columbia Yacht Club, and Tanya II, of the Milwaukee Yacht Club, have been bunched behind Blitzen.

Man Overboard

The front running Mitena had a man washed overboard at the start of the race, but recovered him immediately. Before the race began, one of the yacht's halyard lines broke and had to be replaced.

Early Wynn Makes It 300 Games At KC

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Early Wynn, the latest and the last of baseball's 300-game winners—at least for several years—wants to continue pitching as long as he can help the Cleveland Indians.

"This No. 300 was so hard to get, it's tough to name any future goals," said the 43-year-old right-hander. Wynn finally reached the select circle on his eighth attempt Saturday, pitching the first five innings of a 7-4 victory over the A's.

Will Continue

Manager Birdie Tebbetts made it clear before boarding a plane for Minneapolis that Wynn will continue his once-a-week pitching for the Indians. "He's pitched excellent ball and I'm going to go right on using him as often as I have," Tebbetts said.

"The goat was killing me," the night before he got the big 300th. Wynn said. He said he awoke every hour or two and took pills to relieve the aches.

A cautious 310 was the limit for Wynn in future goals. He declined to make any long-range predictions and laughed off suggestions of 350 or 400 victories. Two Since 1941
Warren Spahn, now at 339, is the only other pitcher to reach the 300 circle in the past 22 years. Lefty Grove then with the Red Sox, won his 300th in 1941. And Grove was the first to make it since Grover Alexander and Walter Johnson, both in the late '20s.

There's no doubt 300-game winners are a vanishing breed in the modern era of the lively ball. Wynn is the 14th to join the club. Grove, Spahn and Wynn are the only ones who pitched all of their careers in the lively ball, or home run era.

Michigan State's first full-fledged varsity squad was in 1883. Michigan State's first full-fledged varsity squad was in 1883.

Yanks, Dodgers Extend Leads To 6½ Games

(By the Associated Press) Consider the desperate plight of the New York Yankees. They've been forced to use the likes of Hector Lopez and John Blanchard in the outfield in place of injured super-stars Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

New And Old

They've pressed their aging coach, Yogi Berra, into duty as catcher and pinch hitter.

They've had to put a youthful left-hander named Al Downing straight from the minors into their front-line pitching rotation.

Lead Anyhow

But, somehow or another, the Yankees have struggled into a 6½-game edge in the American League—which is quite an edge for this time of the season, even for the perennial pennant winners.

The Yanks pushed into their biggest lead of the year Sunday with a doubleheader sweep over their favorite opponents, the Kansas City Athletics.

Won At 19

A 14-hit attack led by Lopez, Berra and Blanchard powered the Yanks to an 1-6 victory in the opener, while Downing's four-hit pitching and the slugging of Elston Howard and Tom Tresh won the second game 5-0.

Boston Holds 2nd

The Boston Red Sox kept their slim hold on second place in a split at Los Angeles, winning the second game 5-0 after the Angels took the opener 11-8. Chicago's third-place White Sox divided with Baltimore, nipping the Orioles 3-2 on Nellie Fox' clutch two-run single in the ninth inning following a 6-3 setback in the first game.

Minnesota unloaded a barrage of home runs and swept Cleveland 5-3 and 8-2.

The Detroit-Washington doubleheader was rained out.

The Los Angeles Dodgers also jumped to a 6½-game lead in the National League by winning their seventh straight, 3-2 over Philadelphia in six innings. The rest of the doubleheader was washed out.

Also in the NL—St. Louis and Chicago split, the Cardinals winning 10-3 and the Cubs 7-3; Cincinnati beat Milwaukee 5-3, then lost to the Braves 7-6; and Houston dealt the New York Mets their 15th loss in a row, 8-3 in a doubleheader opener called in the eighth because of rain. San Francisco's scheduled doubleheader at Pittsburgh also was lost to rain.

A's Walk

The A's drew five walks off Bill Stafford in the first inning of the opener at Kansas City, taking a 4-0 lead, but the Yanks pounded back and finally made a rout of it with five runs in the eighth.

The 22-year-old Downing struck out 10 in his third shutout and fifth victory since being promoted from Richmond last month.

Chet Nichols and relief ace Dick Radatz combined for a five-hit shutout for the Red Sox in the second game at Los Angeles, while in the opener the Angels drew seven walks and every one became a run.

Fox brought the White Sox a split with the Orioles when he banged a bases-loaded single with two out in the bottom of the ninth inning.

Manager Restrained

The second game was marred by a beanball incident in which Manager Billy Hitchcock of the Orioles had to be restrained as he charged toward White Sox pitcher John Buzhardt. Jerry Adair was hit in the mouth and Brooks Robinson in the helmet by Buzhardt fast balls.

Homers brought Minnesota 11 of its 13 runs in the sweep over Cleveland. Reserve Don Mincher belted a grand slam and Harmon Killebrew hit a two-run shot in the second game, while Earl Batley, Zoilo Versalles and Vic Power connected in the opener. Jim Kast and Bill Pleis were the winning pitchers.

Jacobson Wins AAU Decathlon

FLINT (AP) — Harry Jacobson won the 5th annual Michigan AAU Decathlon Tournament Saturday. The former Central Michigan track star scored 5,933 points to 5,890 for runner-up John Gregg.

Zoilo Versalles of the Minnesota Twins led American League shortstops by taking part in 127 double plays last season.

All-Stars Win Pair, Go To U.P. Tourney

ISHPEMING — The ability to capitalize on the other fellow's mistakes was a major factor as the Marquette All-Stars advanced to the Upper Peninsula Babe Ruth tournament by downing Sawyer-Forsyth and Ishpeming at the Ishpeming Playground.

Marquette, managed by Eddie Voet, topped Sawyer-Forsyth, 7-6, when two runs scored in the bottom of the seventh on a drive through shortstop that kept going between the outfielders. Then, Sunday, Paul Albright's shutout pitching, plus a bad-hop hit in the midst of a rally, and a mis-fired cutoff play on a double steal, paved the way to a 4-0 victory over the defending U.P. champs of Ishpeming. Marquette now goes to Iron Mountain for the four-team U.P. finals.

Misty rain spattered both games a bit.

Republic Hits Trenary 15-9 In LSL Play

Republic gained their fourth straight victory in Lake Superior League play by defeating Trenary, 15-9 last night. The Trenary nine put out fine efforts in home runs by Al Kallio and Lusardi, the latter a grand-slam smash, but Republic's heavy hitting by Vern Jarvinen, credited with two of the homers, Curt Hendrickson with one homer, a double and a single, and Paul Ringuette's homer, overcame excellent Trenary hitting and play, converting all of their fifteen hits into scoring runs.

Baraga Team Champions At Grayling

CAMP GRAYLING, Michigan—Last week under the lights of Engineer Field at Camp Grayling, Michigan, the Company C softball team of Baraga defeated a tough Company E team of Gladstone, 5-3, for the 107th Engineer Battalion Championship. A large crowd witnessed a four-hitter thrown by Pvt. Earl Froberg of Baraga. The Engineers of Company C advanced to the Championship game with easy victories over Company A (Calumet), 15-3; Headquarters Company (Ishpeming), 14-3; and climaxed the single elimination tournament with a seven hit effort and 5-3 victory over Gladstone.

Hitting power was supplied for the winning team by catcher Pvt. Don Froberg, center-fielder Sgt. Len Goddard and Sp4 Rich Clis. Froberg was relieved on the mound in the sixth inning by Sp4 J. R. Clis who completed the game, pitching no-hit ball. The losing pitcher was Sp4 "Speed" Smith, who went the distance throwing a seven-hitter. This was Company "C's" first Battalion Softball title, and qualifies them to advance into the Division Championships later this month.

According to team manager, Lt. Ken Cox, the victory was a team effort, and Baraga's chances of winning the Division Championship are good. The company is commanded by Capt. Robert Jacobs Baraga, who accepted the Battalion Softball Trophy on behalf of the officers and men of Company C.

Yogi Still Vital To Yank Hits

KANSAS CITY — Yogi Berra, 35 years young, is on a hitting streak that gives the New York Yankees a lift when they need it most, with Mickey Miller and Roger Maris on the shelf.

This doubtless is what the Yanks had in mind when they kept him on the active list as a player-coach. Berra is making the decisive look good, with a 10-for-18 scurge in his last five games, raising his batting average as a part time performer to .304.

Berra drove in eight runs and slugged two homers and two doubles in the streak.

Helps Down KC
Berra stroked a double and two singles, drove in a run, scored once and caught the game as the Yanks beat Kansas City 11-6 Sunday.

Berra sidestepped any discussion of his future in baseball. He made it clear, though, he feels his career as a player isn't over. When it is, that will be soon enough for a decision.

Hunk Nonplussed
Manager Ralph Houk said Berra's hitting was no surprise to him.

"Yogi is sure a nice guy to have around when the doubtheaders start hitting up," Houk said. "Next year? Well, that's a long way off."

Second Baseman Bobby Richardson of the Yankees took part in 116 double plays last season. He led the American League's second catchers.

Legion Play Sees 6-2 Marquette Win

In Legion baseball action, Marquette took Neegaune 6-2 behind the pitching of Curt Vandenberg, who struck out 18 men in nine innings of play. Singles added up to Marquette's win, including pitcher Vandenberg's winning base hit in the sixth inning which brought in two runs. Gary Klein was 3-4 to lead Marquette hitting. Neegaune's Lenten, who was 2-3, had the only extra base hit for the losers of the game.

Peterson's Hikes Lead In Gwinn Softball League

GWINN — Peterson's Restaurant increased its first place lead in the Gwinn Softball League by downing the second place Frackick Loggers, 11-2, in a contest in which the Loggers were without the services of their two regular hurlers.

Happy Hour is now tied with the Loggers for second place with a 6-3 record, followed by Steen's Hide-A-Way at 4-4. Bauman's Egg-Idle this week, remained even at 5-5, while Little Lake, with a 5-4 win over the Vets, are in sixth place, followed by the Gwinn Inn, 3-7, and the VFW, holding down the cellar spot with a 3-8 record.

The week's schedule: Monday, Bauman's Eggs at Little Lake and Loggers vs. Gwinn Inn at Gwinn. Tuesday, Happy Hour vs. Peterson's at Gwinn and Steen's at Little Lake. Wednesday, Gwinn Inn vs. Steen's at Gwinn. Thursday, VFW and Bauman's at Gwinn and Happy Hour vs. Loggers at Little Lake. Friday, VFW and Peterson's at Gwinn. All games will get under way at 6:30 p. m.

Much Action In Twin-City And Tri-City

Unless the roof caves in, the CCI nine in the Twin City Softball League should nail down the title this week.

Tonight, CCI plays Hill's Auto Mart in Ishpeming at 7. WJPD meets the Independents in the second encounter in Ishpeming, and at Neegaune, it'll be Schlitz tangling with Maruke's.

Currently in first place, CCI has a 14-2 record with their only losses being to second place Maruke's, who started the season in a shaky fashion but have been coming on strong, posting a 10-5 slate to date.

Closely following Maruke's are WJPD and Schlitz. The Airbase team has a 9-6 showing while the Radiomen have one game to be made up. There's a possibility of a double header tonight with Schlitz and Maruke's, which could make a change in the standings for the second spot.

Hills are in the fifth position and the Independents are at the bottom.

The rest of the schedule: July 17 in Ishpeming: WJPD vs. Schlitz at 7 p. m., Independents vs. CCI at 8:15 p. m., and at Neegaune, Hills vs. Maruke's, at 7 p. m.

July 22 — Ishpeming: WJPD vs. Maruke's, at 8:15. CCI vs. Schlitz, and at 7 in Neegaune, Hills vs. Independents.

July 24 — Ishpeming: At 7, Independents vs. Maruke's, at 8:15 in Ishpeming, WJPD vs. CCI, and at 7 in Neegaune, Hills vs. Schlitz.

In a Tri-City makeup game played last night, Woody's Bar downed Marquette Casino Bar 7-2 behind Tony Miljour's four-hit pitching. Doug Marceau was tagged with the loss.

Miljour made his first appearance of the year in this game and had little control trouble in the first inning, allowing one hit and walking three batters to force in a run, but then became virtually untouchable, regaining his old form and excellence.

In the remaining six innings, he allowed one walk and three hits, one of which was a solo blast by Joe Versailles.

Woody's struck for three runs in the second inning on a hit by Joe Poliner, who continues his torrid hitting, a fielder's choice, and back-to-back singles by Aystie and Miljour.

Candy Spots Wins Derby For $65,000

CHICAGO (AP) — Things have more than simply leveled off in the race for 3-year-old honors involving Red Ellsworth's Candy Spots and Kentucky Derby winner Chateaugay.

Candy Spots captured the $10,833 American Derby at Arlington Park Saturday, defeating B. Major by 1 1/4 lengths, while Chateaugay, who also finished ahead of Candy Spots in the Belmont was third in the Dwyer Handicap at Aqueduct.

Candy Takes Preckness
In the battle for the triple crown, however, Candy Spots took the Preckness. Trainer Mesh Tenney said after Candy Spots' victory in the American Derby that "this victory sort of levels things off again in the 3-year-old division and we are looking forward to meeting Chateaugay again, wherever it is."

Candy Spots, the 2-5 favorite, had only to contend with B. Major. The two fought neck and neck from the three-quarter pole and Candy Spots pulled ahead midway in the stretch.

Half a Million
Candy Spots picked up $65,833 for owner Rex Ellsworth and boosted his total earnings to $666,360.

Chateaugay, owned by John Galbreath, was the odds-on favorite in the $85,000 Dwyer but wound up third as Greenleaf Stable's Outing Class hit the finish line one length in front of Tenace for a $12.70 payoff. Chateaugay was another one-half length back in the race. The Galbreath colt carried 129 pounds and gave seven to Outing Class and 21 to Tenace.

George Sauer, a veteran of 13 years of coaching college teams, is director of player personnel for the New York Jets of the American Football League.
