CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—More than 100 white businessmen marched through the business district of this racial trouble spot today as a protest to restrictions imposed by militia control.

They stopped at the National Guard Armory and a group of them went inside to confer with Col. J. Maurice Tawes, acting as commander of the 400 troops in Cambridge. The others quickly dispersed.

Further Protest
A spokesman for the businessmen, Thomas Merryweather, Dorchester County Democrat, said up to 1,000 businessmen would demonstrate in front of the armory this afternoon to protest the National Guard releasing 14 Negroes taken into custody Monday.

About half a dozen bayonet-carrying Guardsmen were sent to the intersection outside the armory when the businessmen arrived. There were no incidents.

Merryweather did not say exactly what form the afternoon demonstration would take. It was scheduled for the same hour that Negroes planned to demonstrate.

Restrictions
Restrictions imposed include a ban on demonstrations, a 9 p.m. p.m., all vehicles subject to being stopped and searched, no sale of alcoholic beverages and no carrying of guns.

This town of 12,200 saw no prospect for a respite in its racial troubles today despite two peace moves:

1. National Guard leaders headed off a protest march by 500 angry Negroes Monday night by releasing 14 persons, including militant integrationist Gloria Richardson, who had been arrested for trying to picket a drug store.

2. Mayor Calvin W. Mowbray and the City Council appointed a human relations committee to help tackle racial problems. The committee is composed of seven white persons and four Negroes nominated by the Cambridge Non-violent Action Committee.

Mrs. Richardson called for a new demonstration today.

Expert Eyes Added Gains For Michigan

LANSING (AP)—An economic expert said Monday that Michigan's economic outlook should continue higher than the national average during the second half of 1963.

The prediction was made by Dr. Paul Herbert, research chief of the Department of Economic Expansion.

Herbert said Michigan's rate of employment, personal income, retail sales and industrial production will continue above the national average for the next six months.

Highest Advance
He added that the northern half of the Lower Peninsula and the southwestern portion of the state probably will show the highest economic advance in 1964 over 1963.

Updating his economic forecast for 1963, which was issued last December, Herbert said that on the basis of personal income, Michigan showed an increase of eight per cent, nearly double the national average of 4.8 per cent.

Monks, Nuns Outwit Police In Saigon

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—More than 200 Buddhist monks and nuns outwitted Saigon police today and staged a two-hour street demonstration in front of the home of U.S. Ambassador Frederick E. Nolting Jr.

The monks carried huge banners in English and Vietnamese reading: "The free world and the U.S.A. are expected to do anything possible for the Buddhist problem."

No Serious Violence
There was no serious violence. The Buddhists kept their plans to demonstrate secret until they left Xa Loi pagoda, tumbled over police lines from several directions, and marched on the embassy residence.

'Foodoholic' Wave Sheds 131 Pounds

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An Ex-Wave, who said "I'm a foodoholic," left Wadsworth Veterans Administration Hospital weighing a svelte—for her—134 pounds.

Mrs. Elaine Johnson, 39, entered the hospital six months ago weighing 315 pounds.

The reducing treatment at the West Los Angeles hospital included a 117-day fast. Doctors say it may be the longest time anyone has gone without food on a diet regimen. During this time she took nothing but water and vitamins.

"I feel great," Mrs. Johnson said as she came down the hospital steps Monday.

Swearers Get Mouth Washing
BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (AP)—City Judge Joseph W. Esworthy Monday offered two men who had pleaded guilty to public intoxication a choice of six months in jail or having their mouths washed with soap.

Richard Walkotte, 19, accused of swearing at women, and Francis Perkins, 56, who swore at a policeman, chose soap.

Settlement

Actress Shirley MacLaine, above, will make one final movie for producers Hal B. Wallis and Joseph Hazen under terms of an out-of-court settlement, made public Monday and provides that the actress will have unqualified script approval before the movie goes into production. Miss MacLaine, seeking to void her 1957 contract with the producers, filed suit last December citing a California law banning employment contracts extending more than seven years. (NEA Telephoto)

Haiti Says Terrorist Boss Slain

WASHINGTON (AP)—Terrorist leader Clement Barbot, who broke with Haitian President Francois Duvalier to become his chief political enemy and the most hunted man behind the voodoo curtain, has been shot to death, the Haitian government says.

The government-controlled Haitian radio was quoted by the State Department Monday as announcing that Barbot and his brother, Harry, had been surprised by security forces while trying to set aflame a cane field and were killed in exchange of gunfire.

Falling Out
The U.S. Embassy in the Dominican Republic picked up the broadcast and officials were unable to check out the report. But a State Department spokesman said there was no reason to doubt the broadcast.

Once Clement Barbot, who organized the president's dreaded militia, was described as the No. 2 man in the Duvalier government.

A year ago he and "Papa Doc" Duvalier had a falling out. Barbot fled to a hideaway from where he organized terrorist opposition to the voodoo-preaching doctor who rules the little French speaking Negro country.

Last May, while Duvalier staged his second inauguration riddled by the guns of bodyguards, Barbot vowed from his hideout to oust him.

Hopes Rise For Accord On Plan To Ban Nuclear Weapons Tests

Reds Swap Accusations, Recess Talks

MOSCOW (AP)—Chinese and Soviet delegates took another recess today in their "peace talks" as Moscow and Peking accused each other of attempting to split the Communist world.

Neither delegation showed up at the house in the Lenin Hills where they have been meeting. Each side apparently was trying to force the other to break off the stalemated talks.

The Chinese maintained silence over whether they would continue to meet with the Russians. The Soviet Foreign Office said, "We have no information," when asked if the Chinese planned to leave for home soon.

Meanwhile, Peking for the first time publicly attacked Soviet economic and military aid to India during last fall's Chinese-Indian border war.

The Soviet press was flooded with attacks on the Chinese. Abandoning the polite phrasing which even a week ago characterized most Soviet comments on China, the Soviet Communist party newspaper Pravda blasted "the erroneous views and actions of the leaders of the Communist party of China which weaken the unity of the world Socialist camp and the international Communist movement."

The Soviet government newspaper Izvestia Monday accused the Chinese of trying to shift the center of international communism from the Kremlin and of setting colored races against white.

One Step Away
Red China is only one step from "a schism of the world Communist center," Izvestia said. It said Peking was trying to find allies among the non-white nations on the basis of "the opposition of the colored peoples and the white race and the demarcation of peoples according to racial, national and continental lines."

The Chinese attack on India was aimed at the point where the split occurs.

The Soviet government has been trying to keep an open door into neutralist India with much publicized aid. It is a sample of the use of economic aid by which the Soviet government hopes to pursue the Communist revolution without risking nuclear war.

China argues that such aid should go to Communist and Socialist countries already pursuing the revolution against capitalism.

The Chinese said the Soviet aid to India played into American hands by lightening the Western burden.

Jury Indicts 4 For Espionage

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal grand jury has indicted four persons on espionage charges and said Russia spent "large sums of money" on the spy operations.

The indictments were returned in Brooklyn Monday against a Russian employee of the United Nations, his wife and a mystery known. At their arraignment, newsmen detected a slight foreign accent in their speech but could not identify it.

Baltch borrowed the identity of a Roman Catholic priest in Amsterdam, N.Y. His companion, Russian employee of the United Nations, also known as Joy Ann Garber, borrowed that name from a Norwalk, Conn., housewife.

The group was split into five units for the oath-taking and Factor was treated individually.

Judge Yankwich, noting that the English-born Factor once appeared before him as a defendant in an income tax evasion case, said it gave him "great joy" that he now qualified for citizenship.

Although Factor lost the tax case some years ago, Judge Yankwich said he became convinced at that time the man had rehabilitated himself from what he called the "delinquency of his youth."

As late as last December, the Immigration Service attempted to start deportation proceedings against Factor because of a 1943 conviction of mail fraud. Officials dropped the action when President Kennedy gave Factor a full pardon.

Factor first made headlines in 1933 as the victim in a sensational Chicago kidnaping case. Roger (The Terrible) Touhy, convicted as the abductor, served a long prison term and then met death in a gangland-type slaying soon after his release.

Factor, who moved to California in 1949, has since amassed a fortune in the real estate and insurance fields after starting on borrowed capital of $5,000. A close friend estimates that he has given nearly $4 million to various charities.

Jake Factor Attains U.S. Citizenship

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Describing himself as "the luckiest man alive," John F. (Jake the Barber) Factor became a United States citizen before the same judge who once tried him on an income tax charge.

Factor, 70, was among 10 persons who took the oath Monday before U.S. Dist. Judge Leon R. Yankwich. Like some of the others, Factor's right hand trembled as the ex-convict-turned-philanthropist raised it to swear his allegiance.

The group was split into five units for the oath-taking and Factor was treated individually.

Pontiac Father Charged With Manslaughter

PONTIAC (AP)—The father of two small children, who were killed Sunday night when fire swept through their unattended Waterford Township home, waived examination Monday and was charged with manslaughter.

George Mishenko, 34, said he and his wife Harriet, 32, were at a neighborhood bar when fire killed his two children, Patricia Ann Mishenko, 4 months, and Laura Mishenko, 18 months. A third child, Tammy Lee Kittles, 2, also died in the fire. She was Mrs. Mishenko's child by a previous marriage.

Firemen believe the blaze began in the living room of the home when a smoldering cigarette ignited a sofa.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Jewelry valued at half a million dollars was stolen from the plush home of oilman Arnold O. Morgan Monday.

Police Chief Dick Runyon said the burglary, largest in the history of this coastal city, occurred while members of the family were gone.

Among the 43 pieces taken by carting away a wall safe was a diamond necklace worth more than $100,000. Runyon reported.

Rocky Losing Strength In East

EDITOR'S NOTE—Political strategists are still poring through the smoke of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's bid at the Republican right to assay the New York election. Jack Bell, veteran AP political writer, analyzes the governor's attack—and sees a possible clue in New Jersey—in the following article.

BY JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's formerly excellent chances of getting New Jersey's 40 votes at the 1964 GOP convention appear to be dissolving in a trend toward an unstructured delegation.

While New Jersey Republicans traditionally go to the convention at least nominally uncommitted, until Rockefeller's remarriage to a divorced mother of four chilren it was expected they would swing to the New Yorker the first chance they got. Now whom they will support seems up in the air.

The evident disenchantment of New Jersey Republicans appears to be part of a pattern of collapsing strength in the Eastern industrial state complex Rockefeller had expected to form the foundation for his nomination bid.

Rockefeller's weekend thundering at the Republican right was interpreted as aimed at halting this trend and at re-establishing himself as the candidate of the heavy electoral vote states.

In his blast, Rockefeller said the strategy of supporters of Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., is to try to win the presidency with Southern and Western electoral votes while writing off the North—a strategy the New Yorker said "would not only defeat the Republican party in 1964 but would destroy it altogether."

Negro Vote
The Negro vote is heavy in New Jersey but even Rockefeller's strong stand on civil rights does not appear to be offsetting the political damage done to him there by his remarriage.

Former Sen. H. Alexander Smith, the patriarch of the New Jersey Republican party, has criticized Rockefeller sharply for his remarriage.

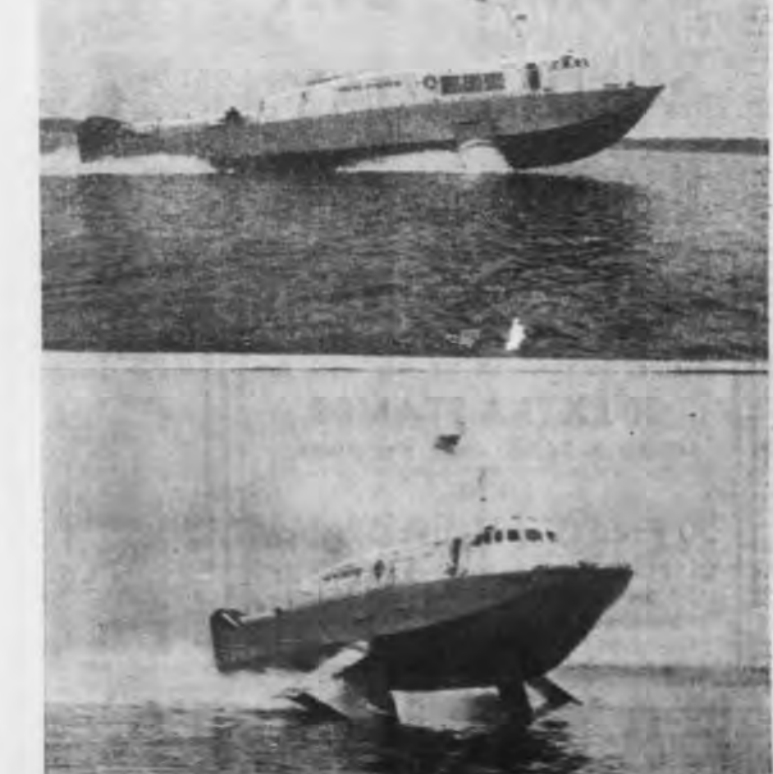

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R. N. J.,

who thought in March that Rockefeller was the only serious contender for the nomination and that he "would have no difficulty supporting him," has confined himself recently to saying cautiously that the governor has damaged himself politically.

GOP national committeeman Bernard M. Shanley, who was saying months ago that Rockefeller was certain to get New Jersey's support, has become silent.

The state's Republican county chairmen have agreed among themselves that it would be best to have an unstructured delegation which could look over the field at the convention before committing itself.

County's Millage Issue Approved By Overwhelming Margin

5-Year Tax Extension Passes By 1,600 To 612; Turnout Light; 10 Per Cent At Polls

Marquette County voters have approved by an overwhelming margin a referendum which extends the special two-mill tax levy for welfare purposes for a five year period.

Only about 2,300 persons went to the polls in yesterday's special election, but the result was decisive: 1,600 persons voting for the millage issue and only 612 casting ballots against it.

(There were only a few spoiled ballots, in some of the townships; all the cities and Marquette and Negaunee Townships have voting machines.)

Last Return At 10:20

Only 10 per cent of the number of registered voters went to the polls, even less than was anticipated. Most of the machine precincts had their results within minutes after the close of the polls at 8 last night, with the last county precinct to report being Sands Township, at 10:20 p.m.

County Clerk Lloyd LeVasseur and Undersheriff Adrian A. Pequet, who assisted LeVasseur in tabulation of the city and township votes, said they could not recall a county election in which all of the results had been received so early.

The measure was approved in every township and city precinct, in most of them by whopping margins.

Approval of the tax millage issue met with enthusiasm and appreciation on the part of county officials.

For Relief Purposes

The winning "yes" vote in the election enables the county to continue a special two-mill ($2 per $1,000 of assessed property valuation) levy for the next five years. This tax originally was approved five years ago, and the revenue is used for relief purposes.

County officials had warned that defeat of the measure would have seriously affected county services and crippled the relief program.

Was Rejected In April

The tax millage issue had been defeated in the regular biennial state election last April, but observers had contended that the referendum at that time was defeated because of the confusion of it with other issues in the election.

Since then concerted efforts had been made by county officials and other interested persons to get approval of the measure.

Pleased With Results

In commenting on the election results, Carl W. Corneliuson of Ishpeming, chairman of the Marquette County Board of Supervisors, and County Controller Robert H. DeRoche, said:

"We are certainly very happy with the results of the special election yesterday. Even though the vote was small, it was conclusive and the proposal carried in every precinct throughout the county. This fact leads us to believe that the people throughout the entire area are aware of the problems with which the county is faced.

"The county tax rate for the next five years, barring some unforeseen circumstances, should remain unchanged. However, even with this continued stable tax rate, the county will experience some difficulties in that we expect assessed valuations to decrease, due to the mine taxation change.

"Despite this factor, we are sure that every county official will endeavor to do everything possible to continue the services now being provided county residents. In other words, even though our tax revenues may be reduced, efforts will be made to continue to provide the same services.

"If the balloting had failed, we would have had a further loss of approximately 20 per cent of our tax income, and continuation of the present services would not have been possible."

Concerning the mine valuations, Corneliuson and DeRoche were referring to the fact that a large section of mining property valuations going from ad valorem (taxes based on the value of the property) to specific tax status (a specific tax based on production), thus producing less tax revenues.

Results Given

In the three cities, the millage issue passed by a total of 860 to 388 votes, while in the 19 townships the referendum was approved by a 740 to 246 vote majority.

The results, listing the "yes" votes first and the "no" votes second:

Marquette City — 385 yes and 191 no (north precinct, 123 and 63; south precinct, 262 and 128).

Ishpeming City — 251 yes and 89 no (first precinct, 168 and 52, and second, 83 and 37).

Negaunee City — 224 yes and 85 no (first precinct, 84 and 28, and second, 140 and 60).

Townships: Champion, 39 yes and 9 no; Chocoma, 39 and 22; Ely, 57 and 19; Ewing, 23 and 7; Forsyth, 74 and 41; Humboldt, 25 and 5.

Ishpeming, 46 and 10; Marquette, 31 and 10; Michigan, 43 and 21; Negaunee, 49 and 14; Powell, 84 and 24; Republic, 70 and 13.

Richmond, 35 and 6; Sands, 19 and 5; Skandia, 20 and 15; Tilden, 50 and 10; Turin, 7 and 5; Wells, 19 and 14, and West Branch, 10 and 6.

JOHN MEYERS

KIRK F. MULLALY

Mullaly Gets Water Superintendent Post, Meyers City Assessor

John Meyers is the new Marquette city assessor and Kirk F. Mullaly is the new city superintendent of the water and sewage disposal department.

Meyers and Mullaly were appointed to their positions yesterday by City Manager Thomas Moore and the appointments were approved by the Marquette City Commission at its special meeting in the city hall yesterday afternoon.

Meyers will hold the posts of both city assessor and building inspector, and he succeeds Lincoln J. Lindstrom. Mullaly replaces Merrill W. Fronee. Both Lindstrom and Fronee retired July 1.

Meyers will receive a $325 per month salary. Moore explained that the city assessor normally would start at $375 per month and the building inspector at $200 per month. In view of the economy, he said, it was desirable to combine both jobs at a salary which would actually be a saving to the city.

Mullaly begins at a starting salary of $560 per month.

Experience Cited

Meyers has served as assistant assessor and Mullaly also was promoted from within the department.

"It is best to promote a new water superintendent from within the department, I believe," Moore said, "inasmuch as Mr. Mullaly has had good experience and possesses the various State Health Department certificates which attest to his knowledge of the operation of the department."

Mayor C. Fred Rydholm commented that the city has the benefit of knowing the type of work Mullaly is capable of doing.

The assessor's car allowance had in the past been $40 per month. Other department heads draw straight mileage (10 cents per mile for the first 200 miles and seven cents a mile thereafter).

On Mileage Basis

Commissioner Elmer K. Carlson said he would favor an actual expense basis, "which would be fairer to both the city and to the person. Mileage should not be treated as a penalty or a bonus. We should reimburse him the exact amount used."

Commissioner Joseph Fine agreed and suggested the assessor's car expense be taken care of on a mileage basis.

Moore noted that he is stressing economy in city operations and therefore is directing that the department get along with one less person.

Mullaly, a native of Marquette, began working with the water de-

MARQUETTE

Six Vehicles Damaged, Three Drivers Ticketed In Crashes

Six automobiles were damaged and three motorists were given tickets, but no one was hurt, in four area traffic mishaps reported this morning by city and state police.

Another collision also occurred in the western section of Marquette County and was probed by state police from the Marquette post (see story on Page 3). Reports on this area's mishaps follow:

1. At 9:55 yesterday morning an automobile being driven north on S. Third St. by John W. Quigley, 3401 S. Marie, collided with a Stoe Line Railroad Co. diesel engine, which was traveling southeast.

Pushed 30 Feet

City police said Quigley reported he saw the flashing railroad signals as he approached the Maple St. intersection, but apparently didn't realize the train was so close. Officers said he drove over the tracks and his car was hit on the left front door and fender by the engine.

The train was traveling at a slow rate of speed, police said, and pushed the car about 30 feet.

Extensive damage occurred to the left side of Quigley's automobile. The 1951 two-door, which had to be hauled from the scene by a wrecker.

The wood platform of the engine was damaged. Engineer was Alfred DeRocher, 603 Baraga Ave.

Disobeying Signals

City police issued Quigley a summons for disobeying flashing railroad signals.

2. An automobile being driven south on N. Fourth St. by Gertrude M. Anderson, Milwaukee, apparently had cleared the W. Washington St. intersection when she attempted to make a right turn into a filling station driveway, with her car striking a fire hydrant at the southwest corner.

The mishap took place at 12:05 this morning, when she misjudged the corner, officers said.

Extensive damage occurred to the right front of the Anderson car, a 1958 two-door sedan, which was able to be driven from the scene under its own power.

Drunk Driving Count

City police jailed Miss Anderson, 44, on a charge of drunk driving.

3. At 4:45 yesterday afternoon a car being driven north on County Road 550 by LeRoy Tregear, 52, County Road 550, Marquette, was involved in a collision with an automobile traveling south on Road 550 and operated by Thomas L. Peterson, 22, of 212 N. Seventh St., Marquette.

State police said the smashup occurred one mile south of County Road KE, in Powell Township, where Tregear made a left turn in front of Peterson.

Improper Turn

The front end of Peterson's 1959 coach and the rear end of Tregear's 1956 station wagon were damaged. Both vehicles were removed from the scene by their owners.

State police ticketed Tregear for making an improper left turn.

4. An automobile being driven east on W. Washington St. by Sharon M. McGinn, Cheboygan, was struck by a car operated by Pearl A. Weber, 113 W. Ohio St., as the latter was attempting to back into a parking space on the right side of Washington, in the 100 block, at 12:01 yesterday afternoon.

The left front bumper of the Weber car, a 1963 two-door sedan, struck the right rear panel of the McGinn automobile, a 1961 two-door sedan. Both cars were driven from the scene under their own power.

State police inspect the damage to the automobile owned by John P. Meyers, 26, of 442 W. Washington St., Marquette, which was wrecked in a smashup last night on County Road 550. Meyers was injured when his car rolled over. — (Howard C. Treado Jr. photo.)

60 Take Part In Special Events Here

Sixty participants and 140 spectators took part in the special events night held last week in four of Marquette's playgrounds.

This week's special events night is scheduled for Thursday night, with the activity being that of the playground supervisor's choice.

The parks taking part in the special night program last week were Williams, Memorial Field, Lakeside and Hurley.

Winners Listed

Winners of the wheel parade, which was the special event for the week, were:

Williams Park — boys, Joe Youren, Marlin Smith and Jim Dagenais; girls, Kathy Altmann, Beth Bianchi and Emily Constance.

Memorial Field — boys, Mike Burkman, Richard Burkman and Darryl Hamari; girls, Kathy Nowak, Margaret Scell and Hazel Douglas.

Lakeside Playground — boys, Jeff Duer and Mark Trehwella; girls, Jacqueline Trehwella, Carol LaFonde and Janita Ellsworth.

Bad Weather, Frosts Hurt Fruit Crops

LANSING (AP) — The severe winter, plus Springtime frosts, have caused Michigan's 1963 fruit crop to fall far short of last year's, according to estimates of the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service.

The total estimate of 429,700 tons of fruit is 28 per cent below the 1962 harvest and is 20 per cent short of the state's average production.

A part cherry crop estimate of 35,000 tons is less than half the average crop and less than one-third of last year's record crop. Sweet cherries, estimated at 10,000 tons, are slightly less than one-third below average and one-half of last year.

Estimates Given

The reporting service also estimated:

Apples, 11 million bushels, 15 per cent below last year and eight per cent below average; pears, 1.2 million bushels, seven per cent below average and 20 per cent below last year; grapes, 40,000 tons, 20 per cent below average and 40 per cent below last year;

Peaches, 1.8 million bushels, more than 10 per cent ahead of last year but nearly 50 per cent below average; plums, 7,500 tons, 35 per cent above last year and two per cent above average. The plum crop is the only fruit crop estimated to be above average this year.

In a separate report, the crop service said the number of bearing trees for apples, sweet cherries and plums increased this year, while the number of peach trees declined. Bearing tart cherry and pear trees remained the same, as did the number of grape vines.

Driver Hurt, Car Wrecked In Smashup

A 1953-model sedan was totally demolished in a one-car wreck last night on County Road 550, eight-tenths of a mile north of the Lake Superior and Ishpeming Railroad Co. tracks, state police said.

The owner and operator of the vehicle, John P. Meyers, 26, of 442 W. Washington St., was injured in the mishap, which occurred at 8:20 p.m.

The complaint was signed by Toivo Nevala, Marquette, deputy state inspector for the Michigan Department of Labor, for non-payment of wages for a day and a half of work on a construction job in Sands Township. The wage claim was made by Dale Williams of Marquette, for work done Feb. 18 and 19, 1962.

Law Explained

According to state wage laws, any employee leaving employment between the dates of any established pay day shall be paid the wages due at the time of leaving, Nevala said.

He noted that in this case the employee had not been paid wages at the time he was laid off.

Board Takes Up Appeal Of Fired Guards

JACKSON (AP)—A Civil Service Commission board resumes its appeal hearing today for three Southern Michigan prison guards fired for neglect in connection with the escape of four convicts in April.

The appeal hearing was adjourned June 26 after the board ran out of sufficient time to hear all testimony.

Corrections officials fired guards Elmer McClain, 59, of Hanover, and Lynnwood Miller, of Munith, following the successful break from a maximum security cellblock.

Prison officials said the guards failed to notice dummies placed in the bunks of three of the convicts. Attorneys for McClain and Miller have contended other security measures — beyond the scope of the guards' responsibilities — were weak.

The four convicts have since been captured and returned to the prison.

Judge Seeks Ouster Of SIU Leader

OTTAWA (AP) — Labor Minister Allen W. MacEachen today studied a judicial inquiry's recommendation that maritime union boss Hal C. Banks be run out of office and that a three-man trusteeship take over the waterfront unions to bring peace to shipping on the Great Lakes.

Banks, 54-year-old ex-convict, is president of the Seafarer's International Union of Canada. He is paid $20,000 a year and gets another $20,000 in expenses and a new Cadillac each year.

Justice T.G. Norris of the British Columbia Court of Appeals assailed Banks in a 318-page investigation of labor strife and shipping disruptions on the Great Lakes.

Iowa Native

Banks, a native of Waterloo, Iowa, is "capable, decisive, egotistic, intolerant and ruthless," Justice Norris said.

"He is a bully, cruel, dishonest, greedy, power-hungry, contemptuous of the law."

The judge also charged that Banks has the support of U. S. gangster elements in holding dictatorial sway over sailors and shipowners alike.

Banks said: "It isn't true."

Norris also suggested that the

One Jailed, Another Pays $50 Fine Here

One person was jailed and another was fined when they were arraigned before Judge Edward H. Dembowski in municipal court yesterday.

Norman L. Powers, 40, Palmer, was ordered to spend 10 days in the Marquette County Jail on a non-support charge.

Also Placed On Probation

Powers was placed on six months probation. For failure to support his family, he will receive an additional 30-day sentence, the judge decreed.

He was charged with the non-liability of his wife and a five children from March 15 through June 28. The complaint was signed by his wife, Olga.

A Marquette County sheriff's officer apprehended Powers in Escanaba Friday.

A Stephenson man was sentenced

Legion Opens Fiscal Year; Officers Set

Marquette's American Legion post will hold its first regular business meeting of the new fiscal year at 8 tomorrow evening in the Legion clubrooms.

At tomorrow's meeting, Legionnaires will tour the Nester School building, which has been purchased for the new post quarters.

At installation services held Saturday, George Spear Jr., was installed as commander of the post.

Other officers named by Upper Peninsula Association Past Commander Robert C. Alexander of Marquette were Robert Oakerson, senior vice commander; Clarence Whitius, junior vice commander; Marvin Buck, chaplain; Eugene Murray, sergeant-at-arms; John Roberts, historian; Miles Betts, service officer; George Quinnell, judge-advocate; and Chester Young, commander's aide.

New house committee members are Alexander, Ray Lynch and Vince Enrietti.

City Paragraphs

The city fire department was called out at 7:25 yesterday morning to the former Ahonen Lumber Co. sawmill site, off County Road 550, near the Lake Superior and Ishpeming Railroad Co. tracks, in Marquette Township, where some sawdust and slabs of wood caught fire. Cause of the blaze, extinguished by use of the booster hose

Plan Now For Retirement, Speaker Says

Plan ahead for your retirement, advises Louis Turner, an Akron, Ohio, school teacher, who is in Marquette on his annual summer vacation stay.

Turner, principal speaker at yesterday afternoon's luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club in the Clifton Hotel, said too many retired persons, who have ample money, become bored and begin looking for something to do after they retire.

"The solution," said Turner, who has addressed 150,000 high school and college students on various topics since last September, "is to plan now for your retirement."

Turner added that most persons wait too long to become interested in a hobby.

He cited various cases where men who were in one profession for a year or two or more finally changed their jobs and field of work, on discovering that their "chosen profession" was not the type of work they actually wanted to be in for a lifetime.

Five Steps To Follow

Turner advised persons who are within 10 or 15 years of retirement to concentrate on planning for their eventual leisure days. He suggested the following five steps:

1. Build a storehouse of things you want to do when you retire, they'll enjoy "catching up" on these items.
2. Keep doing the things you like to do (such as golf, playing cards, hiking, swimming, etc.), but do them at a slower pace.
3. Build a "bridge of friendship" with younger people, since too many persons are friendly only with persons their own age, and therefore lose out on many ideas of persons younger than them.
4. Join or organize a class of persons interested in a subject or hobby, for future enjoyment.
5. Begin looking each day for something to do for someone else, for "nothing makes one feel better than to realize he or she has done something to help another."

"If the average person follows those rules," Turner asserted, "retirement will most certainly be a pleasure, and not a bore."

City Paragraphs

The Marquette County Harvest Festival Association will meet tomorrow evening at 7:45 at the Lake States Forest Experiment Station, 700 W. Wright St. in Marquette.

Johansen Gets Promotion To Professor

Promotion of Associate Prof. John P. Johansen to full professor of economics and sociology was announced today by Dr. Edgar L. Harden, president of Northern University.

The promotion was approved by the State Board of Education, governing board of Northern.

Dr. Johansen, an enthusiastic teacher, traveler and former Fulbright lecturer, has been a member of the NMU faculty since 1955.

Doctorate From Wisconsin

A native of Denmark, Dr. Johansen came to the U.S. in 1919 and enrolled at Nebraska Wesleyan in 1921. He graduated with Phi Kappa Phi honors in 1924 and began graduate work at the University of Nebraska where he earned the master's degree. He received the doctor of philosophy degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1932.

Johansen was a Fulbright lecturer in Denmark in 1953-54 under the auspices of the State Department.

He lectured at the University of Copenhagen, the College of Agriculture of the No. 5 (500-gallon) pump-off, which began in 1953-54 under the auspices of the State Department.

culture, and at two leading high schools at Askov and Elsinore, Denmark. This appointment was extended to include lectures at Gothenburg, Sweden, and Frankfurt am Main, Germany.

Interested In Research

Interested in research and writing, his publications include "Population Trends in Relation to Resources Development in South Dakota," "Immigrants and Their Children in South Dakota," and "One Hundred New Homesteads in the Red River Valley, North Dakota," a study of the resettlement and rehabilitation of farm families.

Johansen has traveled extensively in the U.S., Canada and Europe. During the summer of 1962, he visited Denmark, Holland, England and Scotland. He was particularly impressed by Dutch reclamation projects on the Zuider Zee where land is being reclaimed from the sea and developed into productive farmsteads and new towns.

As a college professor in economics and sociology, Johansen has taught at the University of North Dakota, Sioux Falls College, South Dakota State College, North Dakota Agricultural College and the University of Nebraska.

He is a member of the American Economic Association, the Population Association of America, the American Academy of Political and Social Science and the American Association of University Professors, and is a fellow of the American Sociological Association.

How to swallow a bitter pill

First, find a bitter pill. There are so few nowadays. It all started because children, bless 'em, are so good at resisting bad-tasting medicine. You can medicate their chins or hair, but getting the stuff in them is beyond the ken of science. Kids can spit a country mile. So pharmacists began sugar-coating pills, putting medication in capsules, or mixing with sweet syrup. And we soon found that adults, too, like medicine the easy way. So now, most of our prescriptions are quite pleasant to take. If you should run into one of the few bitter ones, believe us, there are good medical reasons for it.

U. P.'s Scout Council Honored For Biggest Membership Increase

Upper Michigan's big interest in Boy Scouting has won the Hiawathaland (Upper Peninsula) Boy Scout Council another honor. R. Ralph Smith, Marquette council Scout executive, said the Hiawathaland Council has again been cited for membership achievement by the Region 7 headquarters staff in Chicago.

Ex-Marquette Residents End Stay In India

Prof. and Mrs. Herbert Alvord, former Marquette County residents, are returning to the United States from Roorkee, India, where Prof. Alvord has been a teacher for two years at the University of Roorkee. Alvord will resume his post as instructor at the University of Michigan upon his return to the States.

Prof. Alvord is the son of Mrs. Charles Alvord, 524 E. Hewitt Ave., Marquette, and his wife, Lorraine, is the daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Lindbom, Ridge St., Ishpeming.

Degree From Tech
Prof. Alvord went to Roorkee as a visiting professor to the mechanical engineering department of the university in 1961.

He obtained his bachelor of science degree at the Michigan College of Mining and Technology in Houghton and then worked for various firms before taking his master's degree from the University of Michigan. He has been there ever since.

Wife Also Teaches
Mrs. Alvord is a graduate in social science from the University of Chicago. She is extremely interested in education and has taught in St. Anne's Convent and St. Gabriel's Academy in India, achieving excellent results by using progressive teaching methods. She donated a set of children's encyclopedias to each school as well as numerous text books impossible to obtain there.

In a lecture delivered to the Doorkee Rotary Club, she pointed out means whereby primary education in India could be improved. She made the point that memory work occupies too large a place in the curriculum and tends to stifle the imagination. She stressed that more emphasis should be placed upon creative activity as this would liberate the mind and thereby develop the powers of expression and imagination.

Capacity To Understand
"Prof. Alvord has made his presence greatly felt in the university," stated an article in the Roorkee Rotarian, the university's paper. "Under his guidance, students and teachers have achieved excellent results."

"The Indian people feel that the Alvords have been wonderful American ambassadors. They possess a remarkable capacity to understand their problems and sympathize with their alien way of life. Both have come to feel very much at home in India. Mrs. Alvord looks extremely elegant in a sari (wrap around garment of the Indian people) and has learned to prepare many of their dishes."

"The Alvords have travelled through the country extensively, virtually from end to end. They have been deeply moved by the hospitality and good will they found everywhere and both recall how often people went out of their way to help them. They love the scenery and the historic beauties of this country, which they have captured in numerous slides."

Police Quell Near-Riotous Detroit Mob

DETROIT (AP) — More than 70 policemen quelled a near-riotous mob of 300 that threatened a precinct station Monday night. The rock-and-bottle throwing demonstration grew out of a protest of the fatal shooting by two officers of an 18-year-old boy.

Four men and two juvenile girls were arrested by police for investigation of inciting to riot. Five persons were hospitalized briefly with minor injuries, including two of the four men arrested. Police said several officers received superficial injuries.

Cars Damaged
Flying rocks damaged cars in the area as helmeted police armed with billy clubs clashed with the crowd. The demonstrators, primarily white youths, roamed around and in front of the Vernor Precinct Station on Detroit's near west side.

Two Vernor patrolmen, Paul Funk and Charles Archibald, had shot Kenneth Evans, 18, last Friday. They said he fled on foot, ignoring a warning shot, after abandoning a stolen car.

Evans and the patrolmen all were white. The patrolmen were exonerated in the shooting by Wayne County Prosecutor Olsen. Request Reports
Meanwhile, the City Council requested police reports on the Evans shooting and the fatal shooting by police of Cynthia Scott, a 24-year-old Negro woman.

Marquette office of the council, the U.P. council ranks first in the four-state region in Boy Scout membership increase, with a 19.1 per cent jump in membership over last June 30.

The next council, ranking second to the U.P. Council, was New Albany, Ind., which had a 12.6 per cent gain in membership.

Petersen Chairman
Frank Braden, regional Scout executive of Chicago, sent congratulations to "all of you who have helped write such a record of achievement in the first half of 1963."

Guy A. Petersen, Marquette, is the council's chairman of organization and extension for the 15 county council.

Jenner On Council
Braden also announced the appointment of a 16 man regional growth committee with the Scout Executives from Lansing, Kalamazoo and Marquette in Michigan; Green Bay and LaCrosse in Wisconsin; Anderson, Logansport, Fort Wayne and Indianapolis in Indiana and Oak Park, Bloomington, Quincy, DePlains, Joliet, Lombard and Chicago in Illinois as members.

These men will be working with members of the regional executive committee, headed by Milton Gray, Chicago attorney. The Hiawathaland Council's representatives on this regional group is R. Wesley Jenner of Marquette.

Gray and members of his committee will visit every one of the 81 councils in the Region 7 territory during September to review plans for the fall round up and followup work on membership.

'Crazy Jack' Sentenced For Assault

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — Jack (Crazy Jack) Hyatt, a leader in the sensational 1952 riot at Southern Michigan Prison, is under a jail sentence for beating up a woman.

Hyatt, 41, deported to Canada after his release in Michigan last year, was given a 30-day sentence Monday for assault.

He was sentenced in magistrate's court for assault on Irene Ives, 46, of Leamington. A witness, Mrs. Ruth Hillman, testified that Hyatt chased Miss Ives from a neighboring house where they had been living and beat and kicked her to the ground. Miss Ives suffered a chipped tooth, black eye, and mouth and ear injuries.

Prison Bad Man
Hyatt, given a 25 to 30-year sentence for robbery armed in Michigan, was a bad man of Michigan prisons.

In addition to being a leader of the Southern Michigan prison riot he tried with two other convicts to abduct former Gov. G. Mennen Williams at the State Prison at Marquette. The three grabbed Williams in a prison office. Guards

Report To Congress

The President intends to send the report to Congress Monday along with his recommendations for legislation to solve the crisis.

Rep. Oliver P. Bolton, R-Ohio, predicted Monday that Kennedy would ask for a 30-day cooling off period for one more attempt to settle the issues through mediation.

In case that failed, Bolton said in a newsletter to constituents, the President would also ask authority to enforce compulsory arbitration with "the threat of government seizure in the background."

WARNING: ECLIPSE COMING

This newspaper last week published an article about observing the eclipse of the sun in the Marquette area next Saturday. It was pointed out in the article that observers of the eclipse should NOT look at the sun during the partial eclipse. Yesterday The Mining Journal published a warning in bold face on its front page against direct viewing of the eclipse.

The reason for these warnings is simply this: THERE IS NO SAFE WAY TO LOOK DIRECTLY AT THE ECLIPSE. Those who do look directly at the eclipse risk permanent eye damage or even blindness.

Ophthalmologists know that with each recurring eclipse of the sun they can anticipate cases of serious eye damage. Dark sun glasses are no protection. There are no filters generally available that make safe viewing of an eclipse possible. This includes the sooted glass that many people once believed safe. Even heavy welders' glasses do not protect.

Telescopes and binoculars trained on an eclipse are particularly dangerous. They magnify and intensify the burn. DON'T PHOTOGRAPH THE ECLIPSE unless you are an experienced professional. Looking into the viewfinder of a camera pointed at the sun is highly dangerous.

Most people, especially children, don't realize that less than one second's exposure to the direct rays of the sun can, under some circumstances cause permanent blindness. There isn't even necessarily any immediate sensation of pain before the damage is done. And the lenses of children's eyes transmit the sun's rays more readily than those of adults.

During an eclipse in Seattle four years ago similar to the one that will occur in this area next Saturday 59 people, mostly children, suffered serious retinal burns even though they thought they had sufficient viewing protection. These people will never again be able to read.

During one eclipse more than 3,500 persons suffered eye burns in Germany. Similar reports have come from almost every country in which eclipses have occurred. In 1959 in Australia 170 people, mostly school children, suffered permanent damage to the sight of one or both eyes. Some even wore two pairs of sunglasses, and their eyes were exposed to the sun's rays for no more than 10 seconds.

These patients felt no pain, but all experienced permanently blurred vision. This is known as macular burn. The burn is due to an enormous concentration of radiant energy in a very small volume of tissue literally producing a local boiling point. The culprits here are the "visible light" and infra-red rays from the sun which can actually burn holes in the interior of the eye.

The only sure protection against eye damage in observing the eclipse is indirect viewing, either over television or with the aid of a simple sun projector. A simple projector for observing the eclipse can be made with two pieces of white cardboard. A pinhole or pencil hole in the top cardboard serves to project and focus the image of the eclipse on the second cardboard. The size of the image can be changed by altering the distance between cardboards. The observer should have his back to the sun while viewing the eclipse image on the cardboard. He should not, under any circumstances, look at the sun through the pinhole.

The Mining Journal trusts that adults will heed these words of warning and that parents will protect themselves and their children from exposure during Saturday's eclipse.

Peninsula Perambulator

The Drott Tractor Co., a small industry in the Iron River district for 27 years, has closed its doors for the last time, idling five employees. One serviceman, Walter Carlson of Bates, will continue to service Drott equipment out of his home.

David Brought, 18, has left Escanaba on his way to Orono, Ontario, after pedaling his bike about 3,100 miles from his home in San Diego, Calif. He's averaged about 100 miles a day. After spending the remainder of the summer with Canadian friends, he'll return west — but not by bicycle, he said.

A smallmouth bass weighing 6 1/2 pounds was caught in the Portage Entry area by Don Moran of Houghton. He had been fishing with little success for about seven hours before the big fellow was hooked.

John A. Sargeant, Green Bay, Wis., is returning to Menominee Aug. 1 to open a new industry for the manufacture of sabre saws and sanders. Initially the plant will employ six or seven persons.

From NCO Of Month

Dear Sir: As the K. I. Sawyer NCO of the Month for June 1963, I wish to express my thanks for the truly memorable weekend my wife and I spent as guests of the City of Marquette from 14 to 16 June.

The gracious and courteous manner in which we were received at every stop made us feel as though we were visiting dignitaries. On every occasion, the owner or manager personally served and made us welcome. I have been to many cities in many countries, but never before has an entire city rolled out its red carpet just for me.

Once again may I say thank you for your kindness, generosity and hospitality. HAROLD KAPLAN TSGT, USAF 56 USAF Hospital K. I. Sawyer AFB

—Marquette—

The Marquette City and Presque Isle St. Railway Co. Monday afternoon received its 230-horsepower generator, and yesterday Superintendent Mellin began work on moving it to the power house, it having been run out close to that structure in the railway tracks. It will require no little time and a great deal of hard work to place the generator within the building.

Says a Boston dispatch in a recent number of the Quincy Whig: The famous John M. Long-year mansion has begun to come to Brookline. When, some two years ago, it was first reported that the Marquette, Mich., millionaire intended to move his big half-million dollar mansion from that place to Brookline, the report met with small belief. Today sees that task well under way. Away up on the very summit of Fisher Hill, one of the highest and most beautiful in Brookline, the mansion will be reconstructed.

St. Genevieve's Guild will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon with Miss Cecelia Patenaude, Hewitt Ave.

—Ishpeming—

The interior of W. J. Roberts' jewelry store has been greatly improved by the recent addition of some new counters surmounted by plate glass show cases and other fixtures. The woodwork of the counters is of polished antique oak and is a specimen of the very best of the cabinet maker's art. The present quarters are already too small and it will not be long before the store will be compelled to seek a new location.

—Marquette—

Marquette will have one of the six beer warehouses in the Upper Peninsula, it was announced yesterday in Escanaba by V. P. Formely of Newberry, vice chairman of the State Liquor Control Commission. Flanigan Brothers have been designated to operate the warehouse for this county.

L. R. Walker, county agriculture agent, yesterday morning met Skandia Township farmers at Dukes and mixed and distributed about 7,000 pounds of grasshopper bait to 40 persons. The grasshopper plague seemed to be worse in certain parts of that township, and it is hoped that a second application of the poison will kill off the insects.

The steamer Mather cleared the LS&I ore dock at Presque Isle yesterday with a cargo of iron ore for lower lake ports.

—Ishpeming—

Allan Linn, 23, of Ishpeming won a $75,000 judgment against the Century of Progress exposition today for the loss of his left eye and impairment of his right in an accident a year ago.

Members of the Epworth League will present a college play entitled "Getting Acquainted with Madge" in the First Methodist Episcopal Church parlor next Wednesday evening. Furniture prices are zooming upward 10 to 40 per cent with prospects in sight for a further advance, according to George Quail, best of the cabinet maker's art. The present quarters are already too small and it will not be long before the store will be compelled to seek a new location.

Charles Miller, the barber, sprained his ankle Sunday in jumping from a swing at Cleveland Park. Twelve horses and a team of mules purchased by John C. Greenway during his recent trip to Nebraska arrived here Monday. One of the horses belongs to Paul Swift of Houghton, and Dr. Hudson, of Negaunee has secured another.

Steve Thomas began work Monday morning with a food force of men on the job of blasting out rock from the bluff back of the Maas Mine for use in the crusher. Hand drills are used, and the scattered rock is further reduced by the use of hand sledges, so that it can be run through the crusher easily. The big machine will be taken to the spot and placed as near the bluff as possible. Little, if any, street construction will be undertaken this season.

Capt. William Wivell of the Beaufort Mine was in town over Sunday with his family. He has made no plans for moving to the Beaufort, and the family probably will make his home here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Suess entertained the dinner club yesterday, the occasion being the 18th anniversary of their marriage.

At least nine of the 14 Upper Peninsula members of the Legislature will return to Lansing Monday for the final adjournment of the Legislature, according to information received by John P. Collins, Marquette County representative.

Eight persons, including Miss Dominica L. Toranzo of Negaunee, safely made their escape in night clothes on fire department ladders from the Colonial Building in Marinette, Wis., as fire broke out early Tuesday morning, friends have been advised. Miss Toranzo is employed in Marinette by the Boreal Manufacturing Co.

Three more persons caught violating Michigan game laws by carrying loaded rifles in game areas during the closed season were brought before William Shard, justice of the peace, today by Andrew Schmelz, conservation officer, who made the arrests. Each of the offenders was fined $25 and costs or given an alternative of spending 30 days in the county jail.

Sale Of Menominee's Newspaper Recalls Its Long, Colorful History

MENOMINEE — On Aug. 1, one month and 17 days short of its 100th birthday, the Menominee Herald-Leader will change ownership with Roger Williams taking over as president and publisher.

This position has been filled since August 1943 by P. C. Munroe, upon death of Roger M. Andrews, who merged the two Menominee newspapers, the Herald and the Leader in 1904 into the present day Herald-Leader. Munroe, who joined the Herald-Leader in January, 1908, will remain with the H-L family in an advisory capacity as consultant. Williams, the new publisher, has been business manager of the Greenville Daily News. Greenville is about 35 miles northeast of Grand Rapids.

Long, Interesting Existence

The Herald-Leader has had a long and interesting existence in the 100 years that have elapsed since the Herald was founded as a weekly by Judge Eleazer S. Ingalls, one of the leaders in the founding of Menominee County on May 7, 1863, who felt need for a newspaper in the fledgling county.

The first issues of the Herald were printed in Green Bay and brought here by steamboat. Later it was printed in Oconto before the newspaper acquired, in late 1864, a plant of its own and the start of publication in Menominee.

Contributing to the fund for purchasing the Herald's first printing press and equipment were Judge Ingalls, Isaac Stephenson, the Marinette lumber tycoon; the Kirby Carpenter Co., the N. Ludington Co., Jesse Spalding, the Chicago millionaire lumbermen, who each put up $200 in cash, and citizens of the tiny village of Menominee, who had been invited to donate from $1 to $50, taking their investment back in subscriptions to the Herald.

No First Edition

There is no known copy of the first edition of the Menominee Herald (the spelling was later changed). The Herald files in the big basement vault go back only to 1886. The late Roger M. Andrews spent half of his life running down "leads" to a first edition and did, early in his ownership, obtain a No. 1 Edition. He was on his way to a photographer to have it copied when he left it on a trolley car. He offered a $50 reward in the Herald-Leader the next day for its return, but no one showed up with it. The oldest known issue of the Herald is owned by William S. Carpenter, former manager of Hotel Menominee. It is dated Aug. 11, 1864.

There should be the basis for a historical drama in the story of the old newspaper days on the Menominee River. Early in 1863, at the personal urging of Judge Ingalls, the Michigan Legislature created Menominee County and named the village the county seat. It would seem to the searcher of the history of those days that Judge Ingalls was indeed the "man of the hour." He was at one and the same time Menominee County's judge of probate, prosecuting attorney, circuit court commissioner and school inspector. He decided that the new county and village should have a newspaper, which he undertook to promote in his spare time — if he had any.

Printed In Green Bay

The Green Bay Advocate then had the only steam printing press in northeastern Wisconsin. Arrangements were made where-by Judge Ingalls would prepare the copy for the newspaper in long hand and mail it to Green Bay where the paper was printed. The trial plan began with an issue bearing the date Sept. 17, 1863, but its progress was both difficult and intermittent. Mail came from Green Bay (then Fort Howard) by stage and boat three times a week when weather permitted. The roads were high impassable in stormy weather and closed when winter came. Only a few issues were published before the printing was shifted to Oconto.

In the late spring of 1864, a small printing press and meager equipment were purchased with the money raised as above mentioned and the Herald began regular publication in Menominee. It has been uninterrupted for 99 years ever since then, as a weekly, a semi-weekly, tri-weekly, Sunday paper and daily and finally in merger with the Evening Leader in 1904 as the Daily Herald-Leader. Two years after the founding in 1863, the Herald enlarged its plant to permit the addition of a job-printing department. The men who put up the money did it as a public service and not for profit so the business was turned over to Andrew F. Bradbury for his free use until he could earn enough to repay the investors who had bought the equipment. Bradbury sold the Herald to James A. Crozer, who sold it to D. S. Crandall but bought it back after a year and on June 6, 1881, sold the paper to Henry O. Fifield, who had been a man-of-all-work for Crozer in the one-man office of the Herald from March 14, 1879.

Personal Journalism

For the next 21 years, Major Fifield (a Civil War drummer boy) published the Herald and gave Menominee a helping of personal journalism which is the delight of today's readers in the Herald-Leader's "Menominee Yesterdays" column. He exoriated miscreants and Democrats, buttered up the big millmen as paragons of learning and business acumen and drolled in his description of the parties to which they invited him and Mrs. Fifield. His descriptions of the deaths of members of the families that lived in the noble homes of Old Menominee gave a celestial quality to the departed. He was a Republican in a time when editors wore their politics like a chip on the shoulder. Anything good that he had to say about the local Democrats was apt to be found only in the obituary column. Judge Ingalls had founded the paper under the Republican banner and the Leader was the mouthpiece of the Democrats. When the leader suggested that Hank Fifield had charged too much for printing county board proceedings his reaction was described by Herodotus who ate his own children.

Joseph Juttner, George Harter, Philip Loewenstein and William H. Jenkins established the Menominee Lumberman & Miner, which lasted for three hectic years and was succeeded by John L. Buell's Menominee Journal. In 1885 Joseph E. Soules, an able country editor came to Menominee from Fort Gratiot, Mich., and established the Menominee Democrat, which became the Menominee Leader under his ownership in 1893. Fifield had opposition. He resented like a fire-when-to-heavy-act feeding.

Slambang Competition

Competition between the Herald and the Leader became slambang. About 1896 each paper attempted daily publication, but after three years the publishers wearied of the expensive contest (type was set by hand and the papers got no wire news service) and agreed to divide Menominee's publishing week between them, the Herald publishing on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and the Leader on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The same newsboys and the same lone reporter, William J. Hubbard, served both newspapers. The acrimonious competition in business and politics went forward just the same, however, because while the publishers might share carriers they didn't share views. But the cost of the battle had been halved and the sheriff wasn't looking over the editor's shoulder as he wrote his editorials.

Fifield was Irish and as scrappy as a wildcat in turpentine. He enlisted at 20 in the drum corps of the First Minnesota Volunteer Infantry and became a drum major. The outfit had 83 per cent casualties at Gettysburg. He came to Me-

Michigan Shoreline Tour

Ever consider Michigan's shoreline for a touring summer vacation? Here are 2,254 miles of scenic frontier along which the vacationer may find as many different moods as suit his fancy. Perhaps a small portion of this long coastline will be enough; there is too much to see in a single summertime. Choose Lake Huron for the season. Here are sunsets that come to our east; or Lake Superior for moody unpredictability and violently wild nature. Where wilderness is needed, we are still lucky to have unhighwayed expanses along our Superior shore. To find solitude there, the traveler must leave his car and use Shank's Mare or Aluminum Canoe. Michigan's many islands also offer coastal opportunities. Take your pick and find a beach to poke along. The sun is sunnier, the air is srier, and the memory of such a trip will linger longer.—Mich. ## The National Whirligig

BY ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON — Two recent news stories sounded familiar to any American newsman who ever was silly enough to expect help from certain American diplomats abroad. One quoted a book written by an American held for 39 months in a Cuban prison in which the author claims he was sent back to jail because he sought sanctuary in the U. S. embassy in Havana. The other quoted one William Trueheart, charge d'affaires of the U. S. embassy in Saigon, as saying he would not formally protest the assault by South Vietnam secret police on seven American correspondents and a doctor.

William Martino, a Miami Beach electronics technician, relates in his book that he escaped from prison with the aid of a friendly guard in 1959 and fled to the American embassy. Under international law, he becomes a free man when he reached the embassy, but Martino says he was told by Consul General James E. Brown that if he stayed at the embassy he would "disrupt" Ambassador Philip Bonsal's efforts to deal with Fidel Castro.

Promised Freedom Brown, according to Martino, begged him to return to jail "because we don't want any trouble with Castro," and promised to free him within 24 hours. Martino went back to prison and was sentenced to 13 years as a gun-runner for anti-Castro forces. He was released in October 1962.

In South Vietnam plainclothes secret police attacked the correspondent with rocks, fists and feet as they were covering a peaceful Buddhist religious ceremony protesting discrimination by the Catholic regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem. But Trueheart said he could not make a formal protest because "I can't conclude that it was a planned attack." Yet even an American diplomat should know that Diem's cops don't attack anybody except under orders.

But this is par for the course in many parts of the world where the State Department has repre-

Russian-Chinese Split Widens

BY JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The efforts of the Russians and Red Chinese to explain their split would look like a farce in the use of language if the split itself did not have such immense significance for the future.

In their attacks on each other both sides were obviously writing for the history books to justify their positions. This was still no excuse for their long-windedness.

Scathing Criticism On June 14 the Chinese banged the Russians — particularly Premier Khrushchev — in a statement which took up four full pages when reprinted in an American newspaper. It was a scathing criticism of the Soviet Union.

Yet, it hardly mentioned the Soviet Union by name. Instead, it turned its scorn on "certain persons."

It ridiculed the Russians for accepting Western notions, condemned them as unrealistic, accused them of long and repeated hostility to Red China and, in short, accused them of undermining world communism.

35,000-Word Open Letter Over this past weekend the Russians replied in a 35,000-word open letter to "all Communist parties of the world." The Russians indicted the Red Chinese directly, thus demonstrating how much the split has widened.

This was a savage answer which accused the Red Chinese of being anti-white racists, of falsifications and distortions, of ingratitude for Soviet help and of undermining the unity of world communism.

In between the two documents the Russians and Chinese on July 5 opened talks in Moscow to settle their differences. The week-end publication of Soviet feelings showed how little the talks achieved.

Summarization Of Differences In fact, the Soviet statement said the Chinese delegates to the talks were making the split worse.

If that split — as it appears on the surface — could be summarized in a few paragraphs, this would be it:

1. Khrushchev, realizing the United States and Russia are so advanced in nuclear weapons that a war between them would eliminate both and much of the world besides, insists peaceful coexistence with the West is possible.

The Red Chinese say it is impossible and that capitalism is aggressive and must be overcome by force. The Russians say the Chinese don't seem to have any idea what a nuclear war means.

2. Khrushchev isn't giving up hope of communizing the rest of the world. But he says this can be brought about peacefully. For instance: Through internal efforts in individual countries and even through such devices as elections.

To this the Red Chinese say: Nonsense. They insist that only revolutions can achieve world communism because the West wouldn't permit peaceful takeovers.

Ancient Problem Of Nationalism Actually, ill-will between the Russian and Chinese Communist parties goes back into the 1920s when Stalin dominated the Red Chinese — 20 years before they took control — and almost got them wiped out by Chiang Kai-shek.

Other tensions have built up since the Chinese Reds drove Chiang out of mainland China in 1949 and took over the country. In addition, there is the ancient problem of nationalism — of rivalry — between the two forces.

On top of this, and perhaps as vital as anything in the split, is the fact that the Russians and Chinese are in two different stages of communism, the former far advanced, the latter just in the beginning stages.

Less Reckless Than Chinese Thus the Russians, with their developing prosperity, would have far more to lose than the Chinese who are still in the scratching stage. They can afford to be more venturesome than the Russians.

Because this is so, Khrushchev has reason to be less reckless than the Chinese, although he was reckless enough last autumn when he slipped his missiles into Cuba and brought the United States and Russia to the edge of war.

He is no less a revolutionary than the Chinese. He's just more sophisticated. There can hardly be any doubt, even among the Chinese — that Khrushchev will never stop trying his luck when and where he can. Cuba showed that.

He just doesn't want to stick his neck out, if he thinks it will be chopped off. If he does stick it out, as he did in Cuba, and knows he's stuck it out too far, he'll pull it back and wait for another time.

Views Of Others

SMALL BEGINNING ON BIG PROBLEM

The new experimental project launched at the Grand Rapids Child Guidance Clinic is an attempt to find workable answers to a growing problem that how to help children with psychological or learning problems. The clinic's project, which is being operated in cooperation with the Grand Rapids school system, involves only nine children, but they represent a cross-section of the kinds of behavioral and emotional problems encountered in youngsters in the elementary grades.

The principal problem is to keep such children in a school situation of some kind. The clinic's project actually consists of two parts — learning and therapeutic. The children are attending classes at the clinic, five mornings a week; but they also are receiving regular attention from psychiatrists and other clinic staff members. Between teaching and treatment, it is hoped, it will be possible to keep these children in the community.

It is estimated that about 10 per cent of the children in Kent County — or 15,460 — will need some kind of psychiatric attention before they get through adolescence. Obviously the clinic alone could not handle a job of such magnitude. Ways have to be found to help many of the youngsters in a regular school setting, while other provisions must be made for those who will require more intensive treatment while continuing the learning process.

Similar programs have been conducted in other communities, some in Michigan, although the local project differs from most of them in some respects, especially in drawing in the parents through regular conferences.

Any program that involves only nine children may seem almost insignificant to the average person; but only from such carefully planned and conducted experiments can we hope to be able to learn how to tackle the problem on a broad scale. — Grand Rapids Press

Side Glances

"He's a psychiatrist, so be nice to him dear. Listening to troubles all day long, he's probably just a bundle of nerves!"

sentatives. Our diplomats live in mortal fear that they'll offend some two-bit regime if they stick up for American citizens. Drop in on them with a complaint that some official thug has knocked out your front teeth out of sheer pique, and they'll mutter about "complications" and "delicate situations," and suggest you go back to the U. S. and see a doctor.

In most foreign countries, especially those living off our handouts, U. S. officials seem to feel that American visitors show up solely to embarrass them with the regime. Our diplomats are scared to talk up to anyone above the rank of messenger boy, and if a correspondent makes too much noise he's apt to find himself minus a passport. Mostly, they are career men and they won't make any fuss that might get them recalled from their plushy jobs.

No Bothering Bohlen They are also noted for their courtesy. Once, in Moscow, I traipsed over to the American embassy to ask the then Ambassador Chip Bohlen to help me make an appointment with a minor Soviet functionary. Dutifully, I presented him with a letter from the then White House Press Secretary Jim Hagerly which said I was a nice guy. Bohlen tossed the letter in the wastebasket and told me he could couldn't be bothered.

Mostly, when I'm abroad, I go to the British embassy with my problems. John Bull's boys take the position they are on hand to prevent the regime from pushing their citizens around, and they always graciously stretch a point to include me. Possibly this is why the average Briton, though he may be hated in a foreign land, is always respected. You can't say that about many American diplomats these days. (Bell-Clure Syndicate)

Melka-Capizzi

NEGAUNEE — A ceremony Saturday morning in St. Paul's Church united in marriage Judith Ann Melka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Estion Melka, and Anthony Capizzi Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Capizzi, Willimantic, Conn.

White gladiolus blooms and blue daisies decorated the high altar of the church for the ceremony, performed at 10 o'clock by the Rev. Paul A. Schiska, also celebrant of the Nuptial High Mass. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Sister Honor Attendant Bonita Melka was her sister's maid of honor and Donna Kuivinen was bridesmaid. Both wore blue organza gowns, ballerina length, with white velvety-embroidery, and headpieces of aurora borealis with blue veils. Their flowers were pink carnations and white pompons.

The bride's wedding gown was styled with Chantilly lace bodice featuring a Sabrina neckline, trimmed with sequins and seed pearls, and long sleeves tapered at the wrists and a crystal taffeta skirt, accented with bows at both front and back and a double tier of Chantilly lace at the hemline. Her sheer illusion tulle veil was secured to a tiara of baby pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and white pompons. For jewelry, she wore the pearl necklace which was a gift of the groom.

Brother Best Man Thomas Capizzi of Willimantic was his brother's best man and James LaChance of Forsyth was groomsmen. Ushers were Airman 1c Leon Lennemann and Airman 1c John Schnackenberg, both of K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base.

Jane Weatherly of Marquette was flower girl and Mark Melka, Negaunee, the bride's cousin, was ring bearer. Little Miss Weatherly wore a light blue organza frock with matching headpiece and carried a basket filled with pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Melka attended her daughter's wedding wearing a beige chiffon dress over taffeta with white accessories and Mrs. Capizzi wore yellow chiffon over taffeta with accessories to match. Each had a corsage of yellow roses and white pompons. Mrs. Laine Hestrom of Princeton, the bride's maternal grandmother, wore a gray chiffon print with a matching hat and a corsage of white roses.

Dinner, Reception A wedding dinner was served at one o'clock at the Midway and a reception was held in the evening for 300 guests at the Thimmes

Memorial Building. The rehearsal luncheon Friday was at the home of the bride's parents, 626 Lake St.

A graduate of Negaunee High School, the bride completed a stenographic course at Northern Michigan University. The groom, a graduate of Windham High School in Willimantic, recently completed four years of service as an airman in the U. S. Air Force. He has been stationed at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base.

Mr. and Mrs. Capizzi are leaving this week on a wedding trip to points in Canada and on the East Coast. They will reside in Willimantic.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Capizzi and daughter, Patricia, Willimantic, and friends and relatives from Ishpeming, Marquette and Gwinn.

Tips On Bugs For Allergic People Issued At U-M

The summer "bug season" has brought some cautions and comments from specialists at the University of Michigan.

Doctors in University Hospital warn that bees, wasps and their relatives are as dangerous as venomous snakes for people with allergic reactions.

A campus zoologist, however, offers reassurance for people who fear that the ferocious looking Dragon-fly ranks with these damaging insects.

"Despite the folk legends," says Prof. T. H. Hubbell, "the Dragon-fly, Mosquito Hawk or Devil's Darning Needle simply does not sting."

"He won't bump into you accidentally, either, for the Dragon-fly is one of nature's most exquisite flying machines. His flight is swift, remarkably precise and he feeds on the wing."

"You have more chance of being hit by a meteor than by a Dragon-fly," says Hubbell. An allergist at the U-M Medical Center, Dr. James A. McLean, points out that stinging insects cause a potentially deadly reaction in certain patients who have become "sensitized" to the poison.

VNA Coordinator Visitor To Famed Kenny Institute

BY MARY VEKER

Visiting Nurse Association Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of articles by Mrs. Veker, who is coordinator of a pilot study program under the aegis of the Michigan Department of Health.

Your visiting nurse just returned from a three-week intensive course in rehabilitation at the Kenny Institute in Minneapolis. You might be interested to know there are only three polio patients at the center — one of the many indications of the change of health needs. Ten years ago, there was a tremendous toll of polio — but with research, that dread disease is now under control with the vaccine.

The Institute now concentrates on rehabilitation in a general sense, and the ninety-six beds are occupied with people recovering from strokes, auto accidents resulting in various types of paralysis, arthritides and amputees. The whole philosophy is to make the most of what is left — and believe me, they do!

Therapy Learned I thought it would be interesting for you to know what is, and can be, done for people afflicted with a stroke that includes paralysis — temporary or permanent. There are 1,800,000 people in the United States that have had this condition, so it is significant enough for all of us to sit up and take notice!

I saw people with the use of one side only wheel themselves about — going to their appointments at gym, cardiac kitchen, physio therapy and occupational therapy. There wasn't any time to sit around and feel sorry for themselves — they were too busy with their eight hour scheduled day of activities. These people were taught how to feed, dress and care for themselves as much as possible so they could return to their family and community to be as independent as possible. Morale is very high when they are accomplishing important aspects of daily living activities.

Speech Affected Of course strokes affect many areas other than paralyzing one side of the body. Speech is often interfered with when the right side of the body is affected. With proper help and evaluation by a speech therapist, treatments can be given and the family can be a direct help. There are ways to communicate with loved ones — gesture, demonstration, repetition, speaking simply and slowly, plus much patience.

A very important aspect in patient care is to have them do everything possible for themselves — this is the way they get in exercise, and learn to be on their own. It is possible to learn how to dress yourself with one hand only. There are simple work savers that can be made at home to help a one armed woman cook and be independent in her own kitchen. It is possible to get around in your own home even though severely disabled. You have the will — we'll show you the way!

Treatment Studied The reason I went to the Kenny Rehabilitation Institute was to bring back some of the current treatments in nursing care of people with disabilities and make the service available to people of Marquette County. Your family doctor would give his orders for care to the visiting nurse at your request. Our agency is geared to help meet health needs of the area. Let us hear from you.

Other Precautions He can also take other precautions such as: — Wearing long trousers and long-sleeved shirts. — Avoiding bright jewelry, leather and certain odors which attract stinging insects. — Avoiding dark clothing, for this arouses the ire of bees.

Reception At Holy Family For Sisters

Nuns of the Sisters of St. Agnes, who have staffed the Holy Family Home here since 1915, will be guests of honor at a farewell reception Thursday evening.

The affair, planned by the five altar societies of Marquette area parishes and Father Marquette Circle of the Daughters of Isabella, will be held in the Holy Family Home's auditorium from 7 to 9 p. m. The public is invited.

The 10 nuns now at Holy Family Home are leaving the end of the month for their motherhouse in Fond du Lac, Wis., for reassignment to other missions. Their work at Holy Family Home is being taken over by the Sisters of St. Paul of Chartres, France, who are establishing a foundation here, their first in the United States, about Aug. 1.

Bishop Praises Work

The Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Marquette, today paid tribute to "the wonderful work of the Sisters of St. Agnes in our midst" and expressed the hope that "they might consider favorably continuing their services in other areas in the diocese."

Sisters of St. Agnes began a program on behalf of orphaned children at Assinins in 1906 and came to Marquette nine years later. Recently, the nuns have taken a prominent part in activities of the Marquette chapter of the Michigan Retarded Children's Association of which one of its staff members, Sister M. Alrose, has been an officer.

In charge of arrangements for the reception are the five presidents of the altar societies: Mrs. Burt Carlston, St. Peter's Cathedral; Mrs. George Lynott, St. Michael's; Mrs. Henry Caron, St. John's; Mrs. John F. O'Neill, St. Christopher's, and Mrs. William J. White, St. Louis the King, and Mrs. C. W. Dupras, regent of the Daughters of Isabella.

Marriage vows were exchanged in St. John's rectory Saturday morning by Bonnie Jean Berquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Berquist, Marquette, and Harvey LaVerne Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Becker of Elkhardt, Ind. The Rev. Dennis O'Leary performed the ceremony at 11 o'clock.

Attendants were Miss Patricia Weiger of Milwaukee and Dale Berquist, the bride's brother, Marquette.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza dress, sheath style, and a fingertip veil of filmy nylon illusion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

Miss Weiger was in a corse-colored ensemble with headpiece to match and her flowers were white carnations and red roses.

A wedding dinner was served at one o'clock at the Berquist home, 326 Bluff St., and the couple left later on a wedding trip to Elkhardt and other points in Indiana.

The bride is a graduate of Graceraet High School and is employed at the First National Bank and Trust Co. Her husband, who graduated from an Elkhardt high school, was recently released from service in the U. S. Air Force at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base.

A HEARTY THANK YOU

To my committee, cast, and the Marquette Municipal Band for making the Fourth of July entertainment at Memorial Field such a grand success.

Soo Weaver Will Attend Crafts Fair

The Upper Peninsula Crafts Council, meeting in special session at the Peter White Library in Marquette Friday, named Mrs. Milton Scherer, Sault Ste. Marie weaver, to represent the council at the New Hampshire Crafts Fair Aug. 6-10.

Mrs. Scherer, wife of a professor at Michigan Tech's Sault Branch, is a weaver and teacher of loom operation. # Baraga County Road Commissioner Resigns In Dispute Over Bids

L'ANSE — A three-hour debate over purchase of a new front end loader for the county road commission precipitated the unexpected resignation of veteran commissioner, Leo J. Erickson of Skanee, and the rejection of all 10 bids submitted on the specifications advertised by the road commission.

Erickson, who has been a member of the commission since January 1957, tendered his resignation, effective immediately, claiming that heavy pressure was exerted upon members of the road commission to purchase a local machine in preference to another model. "I refuse to continue to work under this kind of pressure — it is too much for any department," he stated.

Major Taxpayer In County
A delegation from the Pettibone-Michigan Corp., Cary-Lift plant in Baraga and Baraga Township Supervisor Robert P. Brown appeared at the commission meeting to press for purchase of the Pettibone machine instead of another loader. Brown pointed out that the Pettibone plant is a major taxpayer in the county and noted the annual payroll runs to over $1,000,000. "From an economic standpoint, if a local product is capable of producing the required work, it should be purchased in preference to another machine," he declared. "We can't afford to take a chance on losing this type of payroll."

Commissioners Erickson and Eino M. Seppala of Covington both stated that they felt Pettibone machines were absolutely tops for logging and lumber-yard purposes, but added they had serious doubts as to whether the Pettibone machine could handle the heavy duty gravel loading which would be required, day in and day out. They also cited the fact that the Pettibone

Three L'Anse Girls Injured In Car Wreck

L'ANSE — Three 16-year-old L'Anse girls, Katherine McIntyre, Frances Whitman and Dorothy Kahkonen, were injured at 3:10 Saturday afternoon in a smash-up on U.S. 41 near Chassel.

The driver, Miss McIntyre, lost control of the car, which ran off the right hand side of the road, hit the ditch and rolled over. She told Houghton County Sheriff's Department officers that the vacuum windshield wipers on the car failed to operate properly and her vision was cut off by heavy rain. Officers ticketed the girl for reckless driving.

Taken To Medical Center
All three girls were rushed by ambulance to St. Joseph's Medical Center at Hancock, where they were treated for their injuries and later released. All three were badly shaken up and bruised and suffered severe cuts and lacerations. The car, which had the front and sides completely smashed, is a total wreck and had to be hauled from the scene of the accident by a wrecker.

Houghton County Sheriff John Wiltanen, who investigated the accident, stated that the girls were very fortunate to have escaped more serious injury in a crashup as bad as this one.

Keski is accused of assaulting a Spurr Township constable who was attempting to arrest him on July 2. Keski will be represented in court by L'Anse Attorney William G. Konstenious, and F. Hubert Mather, Baraga County prosecuting attorney, will represent the people.

Reckless Driving

Ishpeming Sergeant, 47, Does One-Handed Pushups

M/Sgt. Louis Mayotte, 47, of Ishpeming can turn out 10 one-handed pushups on request — while men half his age obviously have difficulty working up anything resembling enthusiasm for the idea. Mayotte, 5-foot-5, 150 pounds, is a member of the 107th Engineering Battalion, which has just completed its two weeks of active duty training at Camp Grayling. In the Michigan National Guard's newly instituted physical training program test, Mayotte beat out men in the under-29 age bracket. Ten minutes were allotted for the completion of four exercises and a half-mile run. Mayotte did it all in seven minutes — including a four-minute half mile in heavy combat boots. Once a boxer, he still works out daily. Watching are (from left) Sp/4 Ronald I. Lehtinen, 25, Negaunee; Sp/4 Paul R. Denome, 22, Marquette, and Pvt. Harlen E. Heikkila, 18, Ishpeming. The 500 men of the Upper Peninsula unit started and completed field training a week before other members of the Michigan Guard.

Pharmacy Proposals Attacked
LANSING (AP) — Proposed changes and new rules in the state's pharmacy code were rapped Monday by union, hospital and retailer representatives at a Board of Pharmacy hearing.

Some rules would impose undue hardships on hospital patients, said Allan Barth, executive secretary of the Michigan Hospital Association.

Elton Tubbs of the Lansing Labor Council questioned whether a rule against discrimination could prevent group discount prices now extended to retirees and labor union members.

David Moss, the board's executive secretary, asked that all criticisms and questions be re-submitted to the board in written form for further consideration at a meeting in late August.

Tubbs' question arose from a rule which would forbid discrimination by pharmacists "in any manner between patients (or) groups of patients."

Moss said the board did not intend to deny discount rates for retired persons with such a rule. He added that all new rules would be discussed with the attorney general's office before becoming effective.

False Report Case Results In 4 Arrests

ISHPEMING — Michigan State Police went on a "wild goose chase" in Tilden Township recently in answer to a phone call saying a drinking party was taking place.

Resulting from their investigation, state police apprehended parties they said made the call. They were identified as James Talaback, Erland L. Bickers, William Tonge and Randy Emanuelson, all of National Mine.

Large Territory To Cover
State troopers pointed out the seriousness of the offense by stating the state police have a large territory to cover in Marquette County and "false alarms" make the task much harder.

State police from the Marquette post said any further incidents such as this would be dealt with severely, as did Judge Fred Berg in Ishpeming Municipal Court.

Appearing before Judge Berg was Talaback, who paid a $5 fine and court costs of $4.30. Bickers, Tonge and Emanuelson are scheduled to appear in court later.

4 Cases Of Beer Stolen
Ishpeming police officers went on a chase of their own early Sunday morning following a report of a passerby that the Tasson Distributing Co. on Division St. was being "visited by two young men."

Arriving on the scene, officers spotted two men attempting to make off with four cases of beer stolen from one of the trucks parked near the warehouse.

A chase up the railroad tracks going west past the warehouse ended as Ishpeming officers apprehended one of the men, Lauri A. Tamppari, 22, of Ishpeming.

Tamppari, charged with larceny from a motor vehicle, was questioned by Ishpeming police and the case was left open for investigation.

In default of $500 bond, Tamppari was committed to the county jail and will appear on July 31 for a preliminary hearing.

Furnishing Drinks To Minors
Another case of furnishing alcoholic beverage to minors came up again in Ishpeming.

Ishpeming police arrested Reino Hendrickson of Champion, who pleaded guilty to furnishing beer to four minors, all under 16 years of age.

Officers stated the youths were intoxicated and in deplorable condition. Parents of the youngsters were notified and appeared at the police station to accompany their children home.

Hendrickson paid a $25 fine and court costs of $5.10 and received a stern reprimand from the judge, who said, "A case such as this is one which is deplorable and serious, one which affects not only our youngsters but one which causes considerable grief to the parents, and families of these children. Through your disgraceful act, you have caused heartaches for many."

Judge Berg stated that further cases such as this one would be dealt with by raising the fines or giving jail sentences or both.

Hendrickson also was charged with not having an operator's license. He paid a total of $6.70 on this offense.

Also recorded in the docket in court was a speeding summons issued to Bernard R. Maloney of 205 Ely St., Ishpeming. He was arrested in Negaunee Township and paid a total of $8.70.

Cubs Second As Cards Tumble, Giants Lose

That's no misprint in the National League standings — that team in second place IS the Chicago Cubs. And since it's already mid-July, that ranks as one of the big surprises of the baseball year. Ninth Last Year Last season, you'll remember, these Cubs finished in ninth place — even behind Houston's brand-new Colts. The season before that it was next-to-last, and the season before that, the same. In fact, you have to go all the way back to 1946 before you'll find the Cubs in a first-division finish. They took over the runner-up spot Monday — with an assist from San Francisco's collapsing Giants. Dick Ellsworth and Lindy McDaniel combined for a five-hit shutout and Ellsworth keyed the attack with a two-run single as the Cubs trimmed St. Louis 2-0. Then the Pittsburgh Pirates took care of the Giants, sweeping the defending champions in a twin-night doubleheader, 2-1 and 4-1. Phillies Upset Meanwhile, the Philadelphia Phillies parlayed a two-base error and Bob Olds' single for an 11th-inning run that gave them a 1-4 decision over front-running Los Angeles, snapping the Dodgers' winning string at seven games and cutting their lead over the Cubs to six. Also in the NL — a bases-loaded walk to Ken Walters in the 12th inning enabled Cincinnati to edge Milwaukee 4-3; and the New York Mets ended a 15-game losing slump by trouncing Houston 14-3, but the Colts came back in the second half of the doubleheader

Pennant Race On In AL

(By the Associated Press) There may still be a pennant race in the American League if Dick Radatz' arm holds out and Harmon Killebrew's bat remains ablaze. Radatz, Boston's redoubtable relief pitcher, saved another Monday as the Red Sox defeated Los Angeles 2-1 and Killebrew, Minnesota's home run king, socked another as the Twins overpowered Cleveland 13-1.

Babe Ruth League Tightens, Mobil Downs Lions, 4-3

The Marquette Babe Ruth League race, which has only this week, plus rainouts and completions, to be wrapped up, isn't getting anything but tighter. The Lions Club's potential eight-game winning streak (two lopsided contests are an inning short of completion) came to an end as the Mobil Specials took a 4-3 decision. It was the fourth loss for the Lions. No BR team has lost less than four this year.

Peters Hurls No-Hitter To Kill Doubts

CHICAGO (AP) — Some make it quick. Some never do. With others it takes time, as in the case of Gary Petros of the Chicago White Sox. Petros, a 26-year-old rookie although he has had four previous trials with the Sox, pitched a one-hitter Monday night in dealing the Baltimore Orioles a 4-0 defeat. The only hit off Peters was a line single to center by opposing pitcher Robin Roberts with two out in the third. Roberts was Baltimore's only base runner. Peters didn't issue a walk and struck out 13.

CMU Athlete Northwood Coach Now

MIDLAND (AP) — Northwood Institute Monday appointed Tom Brown, a former Central Michigan athlete, head basketball coach. Brown had been coach of Bad Axe's high school team the last three years. He'll also be a football assistant at Northwood.

TV Bouts Will Be Moved To Friday Nights

NEW YORK (AP) — Starting in September, nationally televised boxing will return to Friday nights instead of Saturday nights. The New York State Athletic Commission announced the switch back to Fridays when it approved Monday a contract between Madison Square Garden and the sponsoring Gillette Co.

Tigers Dry Up With Weather, Tumble 11-6

DETROIT (AP) — The Tigers fare better when their treadmill becomes slippery and wet — they can slide out of the same old spot. Rainouts are their best method of progress. But when the rains let up, the treadmill dries and the Tigers go right back where they were. Lost In First They got their first game in since Friday and lost 11-6 to the sad-sack Senators in Washington Monday. So after one rainy day in the atmosphere of eighth place, the Tigers dropped right back into ninth.

Schayes Made NBA Syracuse Nats Coach

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dolph Schayes, one of the oldest stars in pro basketball, today is one of its youngest coaches. "It's going to be quite a change for me," said the 35-year-old Schayes Monday after being named coach of the National Basketball Association Syracuse Nationals, transplanted here at the end of last season. Succeeds Hannum Schayes, possessor of the longest, highest scoring career in pro basketball, was picked by co-owners Irv Kosloff and Ike Richmond to succeed Alex Hannum, who said business interests in his home state of California kept him from moving here with the Nats.

Zorza Hurls Well To End Pepsi Streak

In Marquette Babe Ruth League play last night, Sinclair put an end to Pepsi's winning streak, 7-6. Tom Parker took the win in pitching the first four innings, but the relief hurling of Mike Zorza saved the game for Sinclair as he struck out two men with a potential Pepsi run waiting on third base. Jerry Kesti and Harold Libby contributed two hits each for the winning squad, and Carlson had 2-3 for the losers, pitched by Bill Myron.

Kiwanis Win On Keranen No-Hitter

In perhaps the best Marquette Little League game so far this season, Tommy Keranen struck out fourteen men to pitch a no-hitter for the Kiwanis team, and earned the 1-0 victory over the Elks last night. Nyquist struck out ten for the Elks, but allowed the fatal one of which became the fatal one as Roger Hyde's base hit brought in Keranen, who had singled earlier in the fifth and last inning.

Liston Hoping For 'Divorce' From Floyd

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston views his return match with Floyd Patterson something like — and get this — marriage. The Big Bear explained his intriguing bit of philosophy in regard to the title fight with Patterson Monday. "The first time, in Chicago, we got married. Now, this time, I'll get a divorce and I won't have to bother about him anymore."

Insufficient Players, High Scores In City Basketball Play At Williams Park

Williams Park saw such action in City Basketball last week, in both "A" and "B" Divisions. Here is the week in review: "A" Division: Monday, July 8 saw the Hart's Failures winning a close game from the Defenders, 59-58. Leading the scoring for the Failures were Jerry Perttunen with 17 points, followed by Bruce Forstrom with 15. The Defenders' Tom Bullock scored 15 points, followed by Dick Shanley and Dale Berglund, each with 12 points. In Monday's second game, the Underdogs ran over Peterson's, 80-54. Gordy LeDuc copped the scoring honors with 23 points, and teammate Mick Nevala dropped in 16. Bill Kessel dropped in 18 points for Peterson's in a losing cause.

Insufficient Players, High Scores In City Basketball Play At Williams Park

In Wednesday's second contest, the Underdogs continued their winning streak by scoring 79-66 over Hart's Failures. Mick Nevala's 20 points and Ray Johnson's 16 made up nearly half of the winning total. Bruce Forstrom and Steve Nyquist led the losing team with 17 and 16 points, respectively. Patterson's downed the Leftovers 56-48. Bill Kessel dropped in 17 of the winning points, followed by Joe Peterson with 13. Jackson and Waino again tried to spark the Leftovers, with 13 and 12 points each. In the final game of the week, the Hasbeens barely copied victory from the Defenders 65-62 in a close game which saw Garthry drop in 25 points, Benson with 14 and Treado with 12. All five Defender players scored in double figures, as Pearson accumulated 15, Balmes with 13, Shanley and Berglund with 12 each and Laccosse with 10 to his credit. "B" Division: In the first game of the week on Tuesday night, July 9, the Hummers kept their winning streak going by defeating the Chuckers 50-35. Pacing the winning team were Tom Ahlorn with 20 points scored, followed by Bruce Pesola with 14. Tom Jernstad led the losers with 16 points. In the second game of the night, the Simpletons gained a scoreless victory over the Finlistones, who failed to appear with a full team. On Thursday evening, the Chuckers recovered from Tuesday's loss and downed the All-Stars 65-50. John Brami sparked the winners with 21 points of his own, and Wayne Smith assisted with 20. High scorer for the All-Stars was Carl Pace, who dumped in 13. Insufficient players gave the Hummers a victory over the Warriors in the second game of the evening, keeping their winning streak intact with little effort.

Dear Abby....

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Aren't there men in this world who shave twice a day? My husband shaves at 7 a. m. and by 6 p. m. he needs another shave. If we are going out in the evening I have to beg him to shave again. It's always a battle. He says he'd rather stay home. In all our nine years of marriage, this is the only thing we've ever fought about. He says if I loved him I wouldn't nag him about shaving. I DO love him, but I don't want to be seen with a man who looks like he's on his way to hold up a bank & Can you suggest something?

says he doesn't want to live any more.

A BUDDY'S BUDDY
DEAR BUDDY: I've said it many times, but I'll say it again. When a girl promises to "wait" for her man who's gone in the service, she should keep that promise. Frequently, that's the only thing that keeps a guy going.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of people who invite you to their home for a visit and have the TV going full blast all the time you are there? By the time the evening is over your throat is sore from trying to out-shout the television.

SORE THROAT
DEAR SORE: Guests who are asked to compete with the

MARCIE
DEAR MARCIE: Many men shave twice a day and don't mind it a bit. If your man is one of those unfortunate fellows with a heavy beard and a tender face, lay off. If he's just lazy, promise him anything, but give him persuasion.

DEAR ABBY: Did you ever see a grown man cry? Well, I just did and it's enough to break your heart. I'm stationed in Germany and one of my buddies here just got a "Dear John" from his girl back home. They'd been engaged two years. He was nuts about her and talked about her day and night. He used to "dance" with her picture and sleep with it under his pillow. He never looked at any other girl, and he had plenty of chances. His girl just wrote and said she was giving his engagement ring to his mother because she was marrying another guy. Please, Abby, tell girls back home not to write guys news like that, but to wait until they get home to break the news. My buddy television all evening should decline the second invitation.

CONFIDENTIAL TO EDDIE AND PAUL: Get the lettuce together, boys, and you'll have no trouble finding the tomatoes.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. (McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Security Regulations Tightened At Jackson

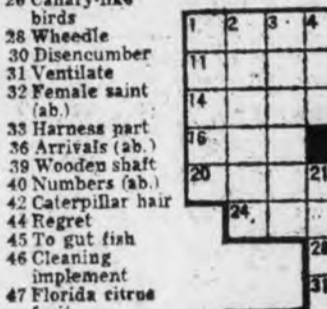

JACKSON (AP) — Tighter security regulations are in force at Southern Michigan Prison as a result of the escape of four long-term convicts April 23.

Nine doors have been welded along the catwalk of one cell block. Smilar doors have been installed on other catwalks.

Duty time for tower guards has been reduced in the alertness. Floodlights have been put on the towers at lower levels. At any given time, an accounting of all prison tools is to be available.
