British Vice Trial Jury Retires To Seek Verdict

LONDON (AP)—A jury in the Old Bailey court retired today to consider its verdict on lurid vice charges against Dr. Stephen Ward — while the defendant lay unconscious in a hospital from an overdose of drugs.

Fair Work Practices Bill Being Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—Civil rights leaders have asked the House Judiciary Committee to add a fair employment practices bill to the administration's civil rights package.

Tuesday, they got the assurance of Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., that he'll go along with them. The votes to do it will be harder to come by.

In the House, Celler hopes to wind up hearings this week, with the exception of testimony by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Celler said he will hold the hearings open until King has an opportunity to appear.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department filed its largest voting registration suit to date today, urging a federal court to order the immediate registration of more than 2,000 Negroes in Birmingham, Ala.

CHICAGO (AP) — Police arrested 21 persons Tuesday night as they dispersed about 1,000 white persons who milled around an apartment building into which a Negro family moved on Monday.

NEW YORK (AP)—Demonstrations for more construction jobs for Negroes and Puerto Ricans resumed today despite what civil rights leaders described as harmonious discussions toward settling the grievance.

It All Started When Horse Hit Bee Hive

CORVALLIS, Ore. — It all started when a horse knocked over a hive.

Bees swarmed out and stung the horse, which promptly kicked over to more hives. More bees came out fighting.

A horseman, Duane V. Ogle, was thrown to the ground and kicked in the head, but escaped serious injury.

Ely Swearingin, 63, a commercial beekeeper, came running out to help and was stung 50 times. His wife suffered more than 75 stings. Their daughter, Roberta, 18, was stung more than 100 times.

All were reported recovering in a hospital. A horse they own died of stings. Ogle's horse is recovering.

The Weather

Forecast for Marquette and vicinity: Variable cloudiness, with chance of scattered showers early tonight; partly cloudy and a little warmer Thursday; low temperature tonight 55 to 60; high temperature on Thursday 75 to 80. Outlook for Friday: Mostly fair with little temperature change.

Forecast for Lake Superior: Mostly west to southwest winds 10-18 MPH early tonight and northwest winds 10-15 MPH late tonight and Thursday; some showers and fog early tonight; partly cloudy, late tonight and Thursday. Lake temperature, 57.

Data for 24 hours ending at noon: Temperatures — 58 at 6 a. m.; 64 at noon; highest in last 24 hours, 71 at 1 p. m. yesterday; lowest in last 24 hours, 57 at 4 a. m. today.

Relative humidity at noon — 77 per cent.

Sir Archie Marshall would not sentence Ward, if convicted, until he is well enough to be present. Ward still was in a coma five hours after admission to the hospital. Doctors and nurses were administering oxygen in an effort to bring him around.

Christine Keeler, alleged by the prosecution to be the star attraction in a circus of prostitutes run by Ward, was stunned.

Hospital authorities indicated that Ward was expected to recover.

The presiding judge completed his summing up of the evidence and his instructions to the jury after cancelling Ward's bail of $3,000 pounds ($8,400) and instructing the police to "take the normal they carry."

The five charges against Ward are all misdemeanors although they carry a possible total penalty of 25 years in prison.

Ward, 50, an osteopath and artist, was found unconscious this morning by a friend, Noel Howard Jones, in whose Chelsea district flat he had spent the night.

A resident of the building said he understood Ward had left "lots and lots of notes."

Gen. Hurley Dies In Sleep At Age Of 80

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, World War II ambassador who claimed that U.S. State Department policy contributed to the Communist conquest of China, is dead at the age of 80.

Hurley died in his sleep Tuesday night at his home, apparently of a heart attack. He had not been ill.

The tall, gregarious soldier and diplomat began government service as a private in the Indian territory volunteer cavalry in 1902.

Secretary of War Before he quit in 1945 as ambassador to Chiang Kai-shek's government and retired from the Army, he had been secretary of war in President Herbert Hoover's cabinet and a diplomatic troubleshooter for President Frank D. Roosevelt.

Three times after resigning his China post, Hurley, a Republican, sought election to the U.S. Senate from New Mexico. Each time he was defeated by a Democrat.

Hurley's wartime role in China got back in the news in March of 1962, when the State Department released its secret China papers of 1943.

The papers included a report from Hurley to Roosevelt saying that Chiang Kai-shek has grave doubts about attending the Yalta conference with Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin because of Stalin's desire to communize China.

Hurley quit in protest when President Harry S. Truman implemented the Yalta agreement, under which Russia entered the war against Japan. He called the agreement a blueprint for a Communist victory in China.

A source close to Ward said that among the notes was one to Julia Gulliver, 22, his constant companion in recent weeks; one to Barry O'Brien, a newspaper reporter who testified in his defense at the trial, and one to his lawyers.

Inflation Seen Straining At Leash Again

BY DARDEN CHAMBLISS AP Business News Writer NEW YORK (AP) — New government statistics invite fears that inflation may be straining at the leash again.

Businessmen seem agreed that it probably won't get loose. But they concede there has been more price raising in recent months than there has been in a long time.

The government cost of living index for June took its biggest spurt in months, reaching a record high of 106.6 per cent.

This specific figure, strongly influenced by an unusual increase in sugar prices, can't be taken too seriously by itself. But businessmen are studying the index for what it reveals about the overall pattern.

Buyers' Market For years that pattern has been deflationary, many businessmen say. There has been a buyers' market, with stiff price competition, since about 1958.

During this period, wholesale price indices slipped downward and retail averages held about steady. The cost-of-living index inched upward, but this was almost exclusively because of higher charges for services (haircuts up 12 per cent, hospital care up 32 per cent, etc.), shelter and taxes.

Food prices have been almost steady for several years. Real estate prices kept rising longer, partly because of property taxes, but by last year, they too had about flattened out.

Steel Clash U.S. Steel tried unsuccessfully to boost its prices bringing the historic clash with President Kennedy in the spring of 1962.

This spring, the steel industry tried again but on a smaller scale. This time it worked.

Shortly afterward, aluminum producers gingerly raised some prices. Some brass and copper makers followed suit. Then came more aluminum boosts.

At about the same time, sugar prices zoomed from near-record depths to near-record heights.

Some see a new inflationary climate emerging from these developments. Many economists say this is illusory, however.

"Moderate Drift" "It's certainly a lot easier to raise prices now than it was," said one. "But this is not any trend. At best, it's a very moderate drift."

The sugar and cocoa rises, these economists say, are highly individual things, having little to do with the general economy. And both, especially sugar, appear to be headed downward again.

Many business economists sum up the price-level situation this way: Competition, both foreign and domestic, will make it hard for producers to push their prices very high very fast.

Problem The high level of unemployment will discourage labor unions from pushing their demands too vigorously and forcing prices up.

The administration, faced with a continuing balance of payments problem, will continue to discourage any general price increases, agency said today.

Patience Was Too Impatient

BENTON HARBOR (AP) — A Benton Harbor girl named Patience was so impatient for higher education that she enrolled in a community college shorthand course—in spite of the fact she is only in the sixth grade.

"A Student Patience Armstrong, 11, Tuesday finished a six-week shorthand course at Benton Harbor Community College. And, as expected by educators, her grade in the course was an "A."

Patience's teacher, Mrs. Doris Badgely, said, "She was one of my best students. In some areas she was the very best."

"Shorthand was something I'd never taken before," said Patience. "I just decided to take it."

Electors Vote For President In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Presidential electors vote in provincial capitals today with a country doctor, Arturo Illia, slated to be their choice for Argentina's 29th president.

The final tally is not expected until Thursday, but Illia, 62, has more than enough pledges to win. The moderate leftist awaited the results at his home in Cruz del Eje, 460 miles northwest of Buenos Aires, where he has mixed politics with prescriptions for 25 years.

Anti-Communist His administration is expected to be anti-Communist, although he promised in his campaign to cancel foreign oil development contracts. U.S. firms hold most of these contracts.

"We are not anti-Yankee," Illia said during the campaign. "We only want to be respected as a sovereign government and have things done in broad daylight."

He contended the foreign oil contracts benefited some officials and merchants rather than the country as a whole.

Illia won 26 per cent of the vote in the July 7 election to lead the nine-man field. He picked up additional electoral college pledges in post-election negotiations.

Argentina's military, in control behind President Jose Maria Gude's caretaker government, gave Brown, acting commander of the 1st Cavalry Division, said.

"No one was wounded or killed on our side and there were no definite results from the contact."

Brown's statement gave credence to the belief that the Communists have increased their infiltration of the 10-year-old buffer zone dividing North and South Korea.

Picket In Arms Of Law

A small Negro child is gently carried by a New York City policeman as he removed her from road where she was sitting in front of a truck Tuesday. Another policeman leads an older girl away from site of construction work of Downstate Medical Center in Brooklyn, N.Y., where 10 children were sitting in road. Yank Military Chiefs Keep Eyes On Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. military chiefs watched today for signs indicating whether the outbreak of shooting incidents in Korea might foreshadow major action by the Communists.

So far, the disposition in the Pentagon is to regard the incidents this week as isolated.

Any further ambushes by North Korea's Red marauders or encounters with them could raise the level of concern, sources said, because they might point to development of an offensive pattern.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff were being kept abreast of the situation along the demilitarized zone, but for the present were leaving the reins in the hands of U.S. commanders in Korea.

No Special Alert There has been no special alert of American forces outside Korea, authorities said.

In South Korea, patrols have been strengthened and vigilance increased along the 150-mile no-man's-land separating Communist and non-Communist halves of the country.

U.S. soldiers and a South Korean policeman have been killed this week battling raiders

Guns Of Dead Koreans Used In Ambush

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—The Communist guns which killed two U.S. soldiers and wounded a third Monday just south of the demilitarized zone were the same weapons carried by North Korean soldiers killed Tuesday, a U.N. command spokesman announced.

"Ballistic tests have proven conclusively that submachine guns taken from two North Koreans killed Tuesday afternoon are the same weapons used in the Monday morning ambush attack," Col. George Creel said.

Creel explained that the "markings on the bullets taken from the dead (American) cavalymen compare with the markings on bullets fired from the captured submachine guns, separate from North."

U.S. soldiers "exchanged fire with the enemy" early today for the third consecutive day just south of the demilitarized zone separating North and South Korea, Brig. Gen. Charles Pershing Brown announced.

Brown, acting commander of the 1st Cavalry Division, said.

"No one was wounded or killed on our side and there were no definite results from the contact."

Brown's statement gave credence to the belief that the Communists have increased their infiltration of the 10-year-old buffer zone dividing North and South Korea.

American diplomatic officials studied the flare-up in Korea against the background of the Chinese Communist cleavage with the Soviet Union and Red China's espousal of a hard line against the West.

The North Koreans have aligned themselves with the Red Chinese, who supported them in the Korean conflict.

AP NEWS ANALYSIS:

Irate Red Chinese May Start Trouble

BY WILLIAM L. RYAN AP Special Correspondent There are ominous signs that the Red Chinese, angry and frustrated because of Premier Khrushchev's policies of peaceful coexistence, are hell-bent for reckless action in Asia. They may even be toying with the idea of risking renewed war in Korea.

The Red Chinese attitude, reflected in recent statements by Asian Communist leaders, appears to be a direct result of the Soviet-British-U.S. agreement to discontinue all nuclear tests except those underground.

The ambushing of U.S. soldiers in South Korea looked anything but accidental. The Red Chinese are making noises indicating they want to apply the heat once again in that area.

War May Get Hotter In Southeast Asia, Peking indicates an impatience to clean up the situation in Indochina and drive the West and its influence out of South Viet Nam and Laos. The war in Viet Nam may get hotter.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru has warned his people to be ready for any eventuality, as if expecting a Red Chinese surprise attack along India's borders may be the prelude to new warlike pressures.

Chinese Reject N-Pact; Label It 'Dirty Fraud'

TOKYO (AP)—Red China officially rejected the U.S.-British-Soviet nuclear test ban agreement today in an attack on the Soviet government indicating Peking may be near a formal break with Moscow.

A government statement distributed by the official New China news agency said the Peking regime would not adhere to the pact initiated in Moscow last week because the agreement's main purpose was to bar Red China from obtaining nuclear weapons.

"Dirty Fraud" The statement described the partial test ban pact as a "dirty fraud" and said it was designed "to prevent all the threatened peace-loving countries, including China, from increasing their defense capability."

"The indisputable facts prove," it said, "that the policy pursued by the Soviet government is one of allying with the forces of war to oppose the forces of peace, allying with imperialism to oppose socialism, allying with the United States to oppose China, and allying with the reactionaries of all countries to oppose the people of the world."

No Record There is no record of a similar public criticism by the Peking government of the government of Russia. The language was the kind usually employed by a government which contemplates some serious step in relation to the other.

The Chinese and Russians have in the past few years used endless words to criticize each other. But until today they have done so only on the Communist party level.

appears to be a demonstration of truculence connected with the 10th anniversary of the armistice which brought an end to big-scale fighting in Korea.

No Troop Movements "However, I would not want to exclude the possibility of their being linked to wider developments in Asia," Phillips said.

By this he meant reports of a Red Chinese military buildup along India's frontier, which Communist Chinese troops penetrated last fall.

Phillips told newsmen there have been no reports of troop movements inside China.

The United States and South Korea are in an infinitely better military position than they were 13 years ago when the North Kore-ans poured across the 38th Parallel in a surprise attack. 50,000 Americans

The only American fighting men in Korea then were about 500 military advisers stationed with Korean forces. The last U.S. combat troops had been pulled out more than a year before.

The South Korean army in mid-1950 had only about 65,000 combat-ready men and was badly outfitted by the North Koreans. The South Korean air force numbered 22 planes.

Now, there are 50,000 American military men in South Korea, including the 1st Cavalry and 7th Infantry Divisions.

The South Koreans have a 500,000-man force equipped and trained by the United States.

The U.S. 8th Army in Korea lives in a constant state of readiness. Heavy weapons are trained on Communist positions.

Backing up U.S. Army and Air Force units in Korea are 40,000 men on Okinawa, strong air elements in Japan, on Okinawa, in the Philippines and on Formosa.

And the mighty 7th Fleet patrols the waters not far from Korea, one carrier task force always ready.

Dad Of Slain GI Raps U.S. As 'Too Lax'

DAVISON (AP) — George F. Larion Sr., father of six, bitterly rapped the cold war that killed his son in Korea and, carrying the telegram that brought the news, sought solitude in his room Tuesday.

The rest of the family worked on arrangements to have the body of Cpl. George F. Larion Jr., 24, flown back from the Korean field where a North Korean sniper's bullet killed him.

Larion was with a U.S. Army patrol searching for North Koreans who killed two other American soldiers and wounded one from ambush when he was shot.

The senior Larion criticized the United States for being "too lax" and said his son's death was "uncalled for."

"Not Definite Enough" "I don't think we are definite enough in any situation," he asserted. "It can be stopped and if it has to be stopped by force, let's get it over with."

"This year-after-year stuff in the cold war is not my way of thinking," he added. "I may be wrong but that's the way I feel."

The father then went to his room for several hours. His wife, Mary, 57, sobbed: "Oh, Freddie, Freddie, Freddie."

"Bullet Marked For Me" Larion, known as Freddie to his friends, had been a military man for seven of his 24 years.

He tried civilian life briefly after six years in the Marines, but had difficulty finding a job and decided military life was his best bet.

Larion joined the Army 15 months ago, planning to retire at half-pay at age 37 to start a civilian career.

At home last March, he told his family, "Somewhere there is a bullet marked for me."

Freddie's four sisters and brother gathered at the family home in this southern Lower Michigan town of 3,761.

Circuit Judge Brown Denies Union Petition To Suspend Injunction

A petition to suspend the temporary injunctive judgment issued against the Great Lakes District of the Seafarers' International Union has been denied by Circuit Judge Ernest W. Brown of Iron Mountain.

The injunction holds that picketing in Marquette of a Canadian ore carrier, the Red Wing, by the Great Lakes District of the SIU and other organizations acting in concert is "unlawful and for an unlawful purpose."

Filed This Week

The petition to suspend the injunction was filed this week by local counsel for the Great Lakes District of the SIU, E. Nickolas Bridges, Negaunee, and Michael P. DeFanti, Marquette.

Judge Brown denied the petition to suspend the injunction, following an informal hearing in chambers in Dickinson County Circuit Court, with Bridges and Attorney John E. MacDonald, Marquette, present.

MacDonald is local representative for the plaintiff in the case, Upper Lakes Shipping Co., Ltd., of Toronto.

Picketed 5 Times Here

Upper Lakes owns the Red Wing, which has been picketed five times at Marquette's two ore docks, either by the Great Lakes District of the SIU or by MEBA (Maritime Engineers Beneficial Association).

Judge Brown issued the temporary injunction against picketing July 18 following a three-day hearing in Marquette County Circuit Court. Attorneys for the Great Lakes District of the SIU are appealing the judgment to the Michigan Supreme Court.

Picketers signs have protested that the Red Wing is two-thirds American-owned and should employ American rather than Canadian seamen.

To Coerce Plaintiff

However, Judge Brown declared that "the real purpose of the picketing is to coerce the plaintiff (Upper Lakes Shipping Co.) and to compel it and its employees to become members of the SIU."

Since 1962, crews on the Upper Lakes fleet have been members of the Canadian Maritime Union. They previously belonged to the Canadian division of the SIU, a rival organization.

The petition to suspend the temporary injunction alleged that a state court has no jurisdiction in the incident, because the National Labor Relations Act and other federal legislation have pre-empted the field.

The petition claimed that the incident falls under the jurisdiction of the NLRB because this is a labor dispute.

The petition stated that the pickets were peaceful and claimed that they at no time had any intention of affecting the relationship between Upper Lakes and its employees on the Red Wing or the internal economy of the vessel.

Union Purpose Given

The sole purpose of the picketing was to publicly protest and to inform the American public that Upper Lakes is two-thirds owned by American interests and American seamen are being put out of work because American capital is being spent overseas, the petition alleged.

The petition also claimed that the injunction unjustly interferes with the pickets' exercise of the right to freedom of speech.

Hearing Set Here

Last incident of picketing here occurred when the Red Wing was loaded at the Lake Superior and Ishpeming Railroad Co. dock Saturday. Two pickets, carrying a sign sponsored by MEBA, were arrested, after they continued to demonstrate in defiance of the injunction served on them.

A hearing on the charge against the pickets is scheduled in Marquette County Circuit Court on Friday, Aug. 9.

The two men, William E. Babbitt and William Westbrook, both of Duluth, are free on $500 bond each. Bond was posted late Saturday by Bridges, as a representative of MEBA.

Federal Bureau of Investigation and city police officers are continuing with an investigation of two dynamiting incidents last Thursday and long distance telephone threats made to the homes of several LS&I dock workers.

Mrs. Swanson Dies At 81 In Hospital

Mrs. Albin (Anna) Swanson, 81, of 229 W. Prospect St., died at 9:10 last evening in St. Luke's Hospital, where she was a patient for one week.

Born Feb. 22, 1882, in Marquette, Mrs. Swanson was a lifelong resident of this city. She was a member of the Grace Methodist Church and of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Grace Methodist Church.

Services On Friday

Survivors are her husband, Albin; a daughter, Miss Emily Swanson, Marquette; a son, Russell, Rhinelander, Wis., and a grandchild.

Services will be held at 1:30 Friday afternoon in the Swanson Funeral Home with the Rev. Knut Savareid, pastor of the Grace Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be made in Park Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 tomorrow afternoon.

Services Held Today For Ex-Warden

Funeral services were held in Minneapolis this afternoon for William R. Doell, 78, retired mining engineer and former warden of the Marquette State Prison, who died Sunday in the Veterans Hospital, Iron Mountain.

Born June 5, 1885, in Minneapolis, he was resident manager of the Globe Iron Mining Co. in Iron Mountain for many years, until the company ceased operations in that area.

Was Mine Superintendent

Before moving to Iron Mountain, Mr. Doell was warden at the Marquette State Prison from July 1933 until January 1935. He also was superintendent of the Blueberry Mine for the Ford Motor Co. in Ishpeming for 10 years.

He was a graduate of the University of Michigan.

Survivors are his wife, Matilda, and a sister, Mrs. Arthur Crassweller, Duluth.

Burial was made today in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis.

Port District Hearings Slated In Three Cities

LANSING (AP)—Three hearings have been scheduled for August on two bills regarding the development of port districts considered by the legislature this year.

Both bills passed in the House but died in committee in the Senate.

The hearings will be held Aug. 14 in Detroit, Aug. 16 at Muskegon and Aug. 28 at Lansing.

The House Committee on Marine Affairs and the Senate Taxation Committee will conduct the hearings.

The bills would have authorized port districts to accept loans and gifts and cut the voter majority required to approve bond issues for the district from three fifths to 51 per cent.

Construction Of Overpass Started On Champion St.

Construction of the Champion St. overpass on the U.S. 41 and M-28 route relocation in Marquette has been started. Photo shows some of the long steel beams being put into place by use of a large crane. Work is being done by the Bacco Construction Co., Iron Mountain, which has the general construction contract, totaling $1,078,446.80. Another overpass will be erected at the Altamont St. intersection. There will be only one other cross-over on the bypass, at grade, at Grove St. Another overpass, for the Soo Line Railroad Co. tracks at the west city limits, is being done by another contractor. Work on the bypass began last fall and is expected to be completed by next summer. It will extend 1.7 miles, from the Brewery Location to Palms St., and will be four lanes of divided highway. — (Mining Journal photo.)

15 From Area Attending Camp Plagens

Fifteen Marquette area boys are among those now attending the older boys' session at Camp Plagens, the Marquette Diocesan summer camp, near Watersmeet, which opened Sunday with 80 boys, ages 12-16, reporting for 10 days of supervised camping activities.

Those attending the camp from this area are Paul Lukowski, Frank Lynott, Thomas Donckers, Jose Puig, Robert Glantz, James Drobney, Brian Van Overloop, Robert Maloney, Robert Brumm, Russell Brumm, Kirk St. Cyr, Frank Donckers, William Houlmout and Jay Dorais, all from Marquette; and Michael Bonetti from Ishpeming.

Quayle, Lynott Counselors

Daniel Sparapani, senior seminarian from Bessemer, is the camp director and is aided by a group of counselors who are studying for the priesthood, including two from this area, James Quayle, Negaunee, swimming instructor, and David Lynott, Marquette, riding instructor.

Head counselor is Corbin Eddy of Houghton; evening programs, the Rev. Mr. William Hower of Chicago; Jim Kaczmarek of Wakefield, general maintenance; and water safety instructor, Albert Stefanich of Ontonagon.

Mrs. Specker Buys Fashions Store Here

Mrs. Jean Specker is the new owner of Jeanne's Campus Fashions, 610 N. Third St.

The women's clothing store, formerly known as the 610 Shop, was purchased from Mrs. Bertha Hermandson.

Mrs. Specker will be business manager and Mrs. Dorothy Remillard will be store manager.

Operates Second Store

Mrs. Specker also has owned and operated Specker's Store, 1128 N. Third St., since 1959.

Jeanne's Campus Fashions will continue to carry the same lines of ready-to-wear, millinery and jewelry, with several additions, and with special emphasis on college fashions, she said.

Mrs. Acocks, Staff Praised In Report By Supervisors Group

Dr. James R. Acocks, superintendent, and his staff at the Morgan Heights Sanatorium and Medical Section are praised in the annual report of the Marquette County Board of Supervisors' contact committee.

The report was issued following the committee's annual meeting at the sanatorium-medical section, 'In Good Order'

"The affairs of this county institution are exceptionally well managed and in good order," the committee report said. "The case load of tuberculosis patients is still declining and the incidence of new cases also is on the decline."

"The institution is still carrying a capacity load of patients in the medical section of the hospital and this continues to provide outstanding care for patients as well as a tremendous saving in tax monies to the county."

During the past year capital expenditures made by the institution were: Housekeeping and fixtures, $9,113; administrative equipment, $1,127; changes required by fire marshal, fire doors, $5,024, and partitions and installation of a sprinkler system, $24,155; consultant fees on new heating plant design, $3,000; medical and surgical equipment, $1,019, and x-ray equipment, $13,738.

This amounted to a total of $57,250.

From Sanatorium Fund

The committee noted that these expenditures were made from the sanatorium fund.

In addition, the Morgan Heights Sanatorium Board is contemplating the installation of a new heating boiler, at a cost of approximately $60,000. This improvement also will be made from the sanatorium fund.

Income from the care of patients in the medical unit, as well as the care of tuberculosis patients from several other Upper Peninsula counties, along with the exceptionally fine management of the institution, have enabled the sanatorium board to cover the cost of these improvements without making an additional request from the board of supervisors, the committee stated.

Committee Named

"The committee wishes to praise Dr. Acocks and the trustees of the sanatorium for the very fine job that is being done at this institution," said Supervisor Sol Wiseman, West Branch Township, committee chairman.

Rainfall Ends 10-Day Dry Spell In City

Rain last night ended a 10-day dry spell, the second longest of the summer.

Precipitation only amounted to .31 of an inch, including .06 before midnight and .25 after midnight, but it brought some relief to parched lawns and gardens.

An additional half inch of rainfall is expected during the next five days, with scattered showers or thundershowers predicted tonight and again next Monday.

Since July 19, there had been traces of precipitation, but only enough to barely wet the sidewalks.

The other dry stretch this summer, the longest in many years, began June 19. There was not even a trace of rain in the last 11 days of June and a dangerous forest fire hazard was created when there was only a single trace of rain in the first five days of July.

Dripped Most Of Night

It began to sprinkle at 6:40 last evening and kept up until 4:30 this morning, Emil Ellingson, meteorologist at the U. S. Weather Bureau here, said.

The rain increased precipitation for the month to 2.52 inches. Normal is 3.20 inches. For the year, precipitation through today has amounted to 14.26 inches and normal is 17.77.

Slightly warmer temperatures are expected during the rest of the week and the clouds are expected to give way to mostly fair weather by Friday.

Overnight, the mercury went down to 57. With extremes of 71

SEATTLE (AP)—Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., checked out of a hospital Monday night, still a bit wobbly.

He entered the hospital a week ago for treatment of a persistent fever.

Magnuson, 38, said he planned to return to Washington, D.C., either tonight or Wednesday.

and 52 yesterday, the average temperature was 62, six degrees below normal. Monday the daily temperature averaged below normal, too, for the first time since July 16. Temperatures were a little higher inland yesterday, with 75 at the Marquette County Airport.

Today the mercury was expected to rise to 75 or 80 and low tonight is predicted between 60 and 65. Warm temperatures are expected tomorrow and Friday.

For the next five days, temperatures are expected to average near or slightly above the normal extremes of 76 and 59. Cooler temperatures Saturday, but warmer readings again Sunday and Monday, are expected.

County's Relief Costs Drop; Surplus Food Distributed To 5,243

Marquette County's relief costs dropped last month to their lowest point of the year.

James B. Scanlon, Negaunee, director of the Marquette County Social Welfare Department, said relief expenses amounted to $59,136.87, or $16,901.34 less than for the previous month, which, oddly enough, had the highest welfare costs for 1963.

Principal reason for the drop in relief costs was the decline in social welfare commitments, which heretofore had been climbing sharply. The

Rating Of 'Select' Given Sawyer Unit

K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base's B-52H "Stratofortress" crew, commanded by Major Jim R. Williams, has been picked as a "select" crew by Strategic Air Command.

The six-man crew is assigned to the 64th Bombardment Squadron at Sawyer. The 40th Bombardment Wing is parent unit of the bomb squadron.

Members of the crew, in addition to the aircraft commander, are Capt. Russell Parsons, co-pilot; Capt. Leon Tuttle, radar navigator; 2nd Lt. Ronald Wintriss, navigator; 1st Lt. Harris Bartine, electronic countermeasures operator; and TSgt. Kenton Olson, gunner.

The "select" crew status is the highest rating given SAC's combat ready bomber crews. With the addition of Williams' crew, the wing has seven "select" crews. The remaining crews in the squadron are all "senior."

The selection is made at SAC headquarters by the same board that picks officers and enlisted personnel on bomber crews for "spot" promotions. Williams was recently given a "spot" promotion by the board.

Group Studies Abolition Of Mackie's Job

LANSING (AP) — Abolition of the office of State Highway Commissioner by the end of the year is being considered by a legislative committee completing preparations for implementing Michigan's new Constitution.

The joint House-Senate committee—a subcommittee of a larger group—has been assigned the task of applying the new document to the executive department and administrative agencies.

If the Legislature decides to abolish the office effective Dec. 31, it would put Highway Commissioner John Mackie out of his $17,500-a-year job a full 18 months before the June 30, 1965 expiration of the term for which he was elected.

Question Of When
"Since the highway commissioner's office is created by statute, it can be abolished by statute," said Sen. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, chairman of the subcommittee and onetime Constitutional Convention delegate.

Brown explained to the committee that since the new Constitution establishes a four-member bipartisan state highway commission to administer the highway department, the question remains of when the transfer of authority should take place.

If the new commission is to take over after the Constitution goes into effect next Jan. 1, the legislature must either abolish Mackie's job or else strip him of his powers and duties, Brown said.

No Authority
Stripped of his powers, Mackie would then remain in office and draw his salary, but he would have no authority over the highway department.

Failure of the Legislature to act one way or the other before the end of the year would give Mackie constitutional authority to continue to exercise his full powers and duties, it was pointed out.

Bartlett's Job
In addition to considering the highway department problem, Brown's committee discussed methods of putting the document into effect in the field of education, including university boards and the State Board of Education.

Another elective office to be eliminated is that of superintendent of public instruction, a job currently held by Dr. Lynn Bartlett. The post will be filled in the future by appointment to be made by an elected eight-member board of education.

social welfare program is primarily hospitalization, which takes about two-thirds of the entire budget.

Direct relief costs, such as surplus food and clothing, etc., for those under 65 and determined to be in need, are shared with the state on a 70-30 basis.

Drop From 1962 Figure
Direct relief costs last month amounted to $13,083.47, a drop of $3,074.20 from the previous month. Social welfare expenses amounted to $46,073.40, or $13,017.19 less than the May total.

In comparison to June 1962 totals, the relief costs dropped 21 per cent, or $16,354.51, last month.

Surplus commodities were issued to 377 public assistance cases and to 1,099 non-relief families, with the 1,476 families representing 5,243 persons.

Food distributed included beans, butter, peanut butter, white flour, cheese, dried milk, rice, chopped meat, rolled wheat, shortening and lard, totaling 67,922 pounds and bearing a total retail value of $19,135.80.

Charges incurred in the surplus food program were $1,484.36 for trucking and $295.20 for the outlet stores. Thirty per cent of the total expenses of $1,779.56 will be reimbursed to the county by the state under the cost-sharing program.

Principal Items Of Expense
Principal costs of the welfare department last month were: Food, $2,944.35; shelter, $484; fuel $209; nursing, medical, dental, $924; hospitalization, $40,090.88; cash aid, $1,179.46, and miscellaneous, burial and transportation, $5,342.68.

There were 17 residents in the County Citizens Home in Marquette in June. Costs of the upkeep of the institution during the month was $2,252.40.

Per Capital Costs
Per capital costs of relief last month ranged from highs of $2.19 for Powell Township and $2.69 for Champion Township to lows of 16 cents for Chocoma Township and 17 cents for Sands Township.

The city's per capita costs were: Ishpeming, $1.29; Negaunee, $1.20, and Marquette, 81 cents.

The case load last month totaled 291, a drop of 41 from the previous month's figure and 11 under the June 1962 total.

Ex-Marquette Forester Gets High Position

Z. A. Zasada, a former forester in this area, and research forester at the Lake States Forest Experiment Station between 1945 and 1961, has returned to the station to take up duties as a division chief.

Zasada, who in 1952 served as forester for the Upper Peninsula Experimental Forest at Dukes, with an office in Marquette, is chief of the division of forest management, wildlife habitat and fire research, in St. Paul.

He will replace R. D. McCulley, who is being transferred to the Washington, D.C., office of the U.S. Forest Service, according to M. B. Dickerman, director of the station.

Technical Research
Zasada will be responsible for the technical direction of research aimed at developing better forest management practices and improving tree quality in the Lake States.

"We are getting an expert in Lake States forestry to fill this important job," said Mr. Dickerman. "Mr. Zasada has worked nearly all of his professional life in the Lake States and is well known both by research men and by practicing foresters for his extensive knowledge of forestry conditions in the region."

The research program under his guidance will include studies in the genetic variability of trees and the selection, breeding, and propagating of superior trees; methods of restocking idle lands and encouraging natural regeneration of the better tree species; the effects of different cutting practices on the quality and yield of timber; and ways of improving present stands through various cultural treatments such as pruning or chemical treatments to kill back competing vegetation.

Two Persons Injured In U.S. 41 Crash

Two persons were injured and two automobiles were wrecked in a smashup at 10:50 yesterday morning on U.S. 41, at County Road JAA, in Negaunee Township.

Involved were a car operated by Michael Dallas, 18, of 421 E. Crescent St., Marquette, and a state police patrol vehicle driven by Trooper Jay Cossette, 27, of the Marquette post.

Pursuing Speeder
State police said officers were pursuing a speeder in a third car and Cossette was about to pass Dallas when the latter, traveling in the right lane, began turning left, in front of the patrol car. The patrol car struck the left side of the other vehicle, officers said.

Dallas suffered a contusion on his head and abrasions on his arms and legs and a passenger, Martin Kurian, 29, Route 1, Marquette, received abrasions on his left arm, hip and leg.

They were taken in the Marquette city ambulance to St. Mary's Hospital here, where their condition this morning was reported as being "satisfactory."

Both Cars Towed Away
Extensive damage occurred to the right front and right side of the patrol car, a 1962 coach, and to the left side of the Dallas automobile, a 1961 small, foreign model. Both vehicles had to be hauled from the scene by wreckers.

The accident was kept open for investigation.

Two Injured In Accidents In Marquette

Two injuries resulted and a ticket was issued in a pair of traffic mishaps which occurred in Marquette yesterday.

At 1 yesterday afternoon a car being driven north on S. Front St. by George Malvasio, 136 Division St., collided with an oncoming vehicle operated by Daniel McDonnell, 921 Phe St.

City police said the mishap occurred when Malvasio began making a left turn onto Rock St., turning in front of McDonnell.

McDonnell, 33, later reported to city police that he had sustained sprains on both wrists. He sought his own treatment.

Extensive damage occurred to the left side of McDonnell's automobile, a 1962 two-door sedan, which was towed from the scene by a wrecker. The left front fender of Malvasio's 1963 four-door sedan was damaged. His car was driven from the scene under its own power.

An unusual mishap occurred at 10:15 yesterday morning at the corner of Baraga Ave. and S. Lake St. City police said Robert Bernard, 124 Division St., was driving a pickup truck, traveling east on Baraga Ave. and making a left turn onto Lake St., when a passenger riding on top some insulation bags in the back of the truck fell off.

Michael Malloy, 15, of 108 Hogan St., who fell off the truck, suffered abrasions on his arms.

He was taken in the city ambulance to St. Mary's Hospital. His condition this morning was reported as being "satisfactory."

City police said the accident occurred when the insulation bags shifted, causing Malloy to fall off.

Mayor Picking Delegates To League Meet

Mayor C. Fred Rydholm has been authorized by the city commission to designate the delegate and alternate to the Michigan Municipal League convention, to be held Sept. 5-7 at Mackinac Island.

Business sessions, which will be held Friday, Sept. 6, will include election of trustees, resolutions and other new business. Reviews, reports and committee data will be presented on the opening day.

Several bylaws changes also are being considered this year.

The league is an "association of Michigan cities and villages organized in 1899 for improvement of municipal government by united action." Its headquarters are in Ann Arbor.

Californian To Head Tech Department

HOUGHTON — Dr. Dean W. Stebbins, Los Angeles, has been appointed head of the Michigan Tech Department of Physics, effective Aug. 1, according to Dean Frank Kerekes, dean of the faculty.

William A. Longacre, who has served as head of the department since 1954, will continue to serve as professor and director of geophysics within the department. The change was made at Longacre's request to relieve him of departmental administrative duties to devote more time to teaching and geophysical research.

"Prof. Longacre requested this move three years ago," said Dean Kerekes, "but we have been reluctant to make the change. Under his direction the department has undergone sound development, both in program and personnel."

Other Changes
In other departmental action Dr. Rolland O. Keeling Jr., associate professor of physics, has been named professor of physics, and Keith M. Baldwin of Andover, Mass., has been added to the staff as an associate professor of physics.

Stebbins, a native of Montana, earned his B.S. degree at Montana State College and his Ph.D. in applied physics at Iowa State University. He has taught at Washington State College, Texas A&M College, Lehigh University and Iowa State. Since 1960 he has been employed by the Rand Corp., working on various studies involving stability of satellite orbits, earth science and the nuclear test ban.

Proposals For Development Of Business Area To Be Aired

Proposals for the development of Marquette's central business district will be presented at a meeting of the Marquette Area Planning Commission at 7 tomorrow evening in the city hall.

Charles Leman, Southfield, a principal in the planning firm of Villican-Leman and Associates, will present a series of maps showing stages of development for the commission's approval.

Proposals for the development of Marquette's central business district will be presented at a meeting of the Marquette Area Planning Commission at 7 tomorrow evening in the city hall.

Stebbins has been active in many phases of research for the Air Force and several industrial firms. At Iowa State he organized and directed for eight years the USAF Iowa State University Operations Analysis Standby Unit, one of only two such units in the nation at the time.

Longacre first joined the Tech faculty on a half-time basis in 1927, and has been a full-time faculty member since 1929. He earned his B.S. and E.Met. degrees at Tech in 1929, and his M.S. degree in geophysics in 1941.

He has been extremely active in faculty affairs at Tech and in 1952 was awarded the first distinguished teacher award initiated by the faculty association. He has been particularly interested in the college's athletic affairs. He has served on the athletic board for a number of years and is presently chairman, and he has been an officer of both the Western Collegiate Hockey Association and the Northern Intercollegiate Conference.

Longacre has done extensive research in geophysics, and frequent consulting work.

Keeling, a member of the Tech faculty since 1960, holds the B.A. degree from Wabash and his M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from Pennsylvania State. He has been active in solid state physics research, and since 1962 he has been working on a research project under a $41,800 grant from the National Science Foundation.

Research Leader
Baldwin, a native of New York, earned his B.S. degree in physics from Michigan State University and his M.S. degree in physics from the University of Maine. Since 1957 he has been with AVCO Research and Advanced Development in Wilmington, Mass., serving as a group leader in research and development.

As a second lieutenant in the Army during the Korean War, he spent a year teaching electronics. The following year he served in Civil Service, teaching electronics and radio communication at the Ft. Monmouth, N. J., Officers Signal School.

Associate Scientists
In 1954 he joined the Raytheon Co.'s research division in Waltham, Mass., as a development engineer. In 1955 he was made an associate scientist, doing research and development work on solid state devices.

He is a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Rocket Society and several honorary societies.

Another proposal is for the construction of a mall on W. Washington St. from Front St. to Third St. The planners have said that if Marquette was to follow through on their suggestion for a mall, parking and traffic movement improvements would be necessary first.

Open To Public
Members of the chamber of commerce have been invited to attend the meeting tomorrow night. Max Putters, consultant here for Villican-Leman said. All area planning commission meetings are open to the public.

Villican-Leman is conducting an area planning study, called the "701 Study," under contract with the City of Marquette and Chocoma and Marquette Townships.

The "701 Study" is derived from Section 701 of the Housing Act of 1954, which enables the federal government to participate in local projects on a 50-50 basis, or as in the case of Marquette, a 75-25 basis, since the area has been designated as a depressed area.

One Jailed, Five Fined By City Judge

One person was jailed and five others were ordered to pay a total of $120.30 in fines and costs by Judge Edward H. Dembowski this week in municipal court.

Donald W. Swenor, 20, of 526 Fisher St., was ordered to spend 30 days in the Marquette County Jail on a charge of minor in possession of beer in a motor vehicle.

Swenor was ordered to serve a concurrent 30-day term on a charge of furnishing beer to a minor (a 16-year-old boy). He also was ordered to pay a fine of $130 and $37.00 costs, or spend an additional two days in the county jail, for driving with defective brakes.

City police arrested Swenor Monday at the intersection of Wilson and Fisher Sts.

Minors 'In Possession'
On charges of minor in possession of beer in a motor vehicle, Reino Hissala, 18, Route 1, Neegaunee, and Melvin E. Anderson, 17, of 304 E. Clark St., Neegaunee, were each ordered to pay fines of $25 and court costs of $5.10 by Aug. 15. Alternative sentence to paying the fines and costs is to spend seven days in the county jail.

The pair was arrested by city police yesterday on S. Front St.

Anderson also was ordered to pay a fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs by Aug. 15 for making an improper left turn at the intersection of Third and W. Washington Sts. City police issued the ticket yesterday.

Reckless Boat Operation
For reckless operation of a motorboat, Kenneth J. Bureau, 24, of 332 Rock St., was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and $5.10 costs. City police arrested him Sunday following a motorboat accident in lower harbor in which two persons were injured.

A fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs were paid by William L. LaBelle, 2330 Wright St., for failure to have his motor vehicle under control. The summons was issued by city police July 23 following an accident on Lake Shore Drive.

Floyd J. Haglund, Skandia, was fined $6.30 and ordered to pay costs of $3.70 for failure to have his motor vehicle under control. He was ticketed by city police following an accident July 19 on N. Third St.

15 Fires Burn 432.7 Acres In Peninsula

Fifteen forest fires burned 432.7 acres of land in the Upper Peninsula state protection area during the past week.

That made a total of 341 blazes, which have burned 1,782.7 acres of land in the U.P. state protection area, for the year. By comparison, in the same period last year there were 154 fires, blackening 413 acres of land.

John A. Anguilim, Marquette, assistant regional supervisor of the field administration division, Michigan Department of Conservation, said there were five fires in this, the Escanaba district, which includes Marquette, Delta and the west half of Alger Counties, burning 8 of an acre. For the year, the district has had 98 fires, blackening 343.1 acres of land.

431 Acres Damaged
Eight blazes burned 431 acres in the Newberry District comprised of Luce, Mackinac, Schoolcraft, Chippewa, and the east half of Alger Counties, with the district having 70 fires, blackening 658.3 acres of land, so far this season.

In the Crystal Falls District (Iron, Dickinson and Menominee Counties), there was one fire, burning 8 of an acre of land, in the past week. For the year, 93 fire blackened 642 acres in the district.

In the Baraga District (Baraga, Gogebic, Houghton, Keweenaw and Ontonagon Counties), there was one fire, burning 1 of an acre of land. So far the district has had 80 fires, blackening 139.3 acres of land.

U. P. State Fair Dates Earliest Ever

ESCANABA — The Upper Peninsula State Fair dates this year are Aug. 13-18, earliest on record and one day earlier than last year's exposition.

Ray LaPorte, secretary-manager of the Fair, said the Fair dates are established by the board of Managers after consideration of a number of factors.

For example, the date of the Michigan State Fair at Detroit is a factor, since many of the judges, Michigan Department of Administration officials, auditors, and so forth work both the fair at Escanaba and that at Detroit.

"Many of the exhibits, the midway shows, entertainment and other features that will be in Escanaba are also scheduled for the fair at Detroit," LaPorte said.

Next year the U. P. State Fair will be one week later because of Labor Day's relation to the calendar.

Record Gallonage Pumped In Week In Heat Wave Here

During last week's heat wave, a season's record of 22,843,000 gallons of water was pumped by Marquette's Water and Sewage Department, City Manager Thomas Moore stated in his weekly report on municipal department activities.

Heavy water usage was caused by lawn sprinkling in the late afternoon and evening hours during the hot weather.

Last week the water department crews repaired a three-quarter inch line on Longyear Ave., a half-inch line on Spruce St. and a 1 1/4 inch line on Fisher St. Two hydrants were installed on the main being installed to the Abonon Lumber Co.

Excerpts from the reports of other municipal department follow:

Parks and recreation — Presque Isle Park, cared for animals, cleaned grounds daily, gravelled road to bandshell, patched black top road and started construction of sanitary facility near the breakwater; Shiras Park, cleared and gravelled new parking area, rejuvenated horseshoe courts and continued brushing out of wooded areas; erected fencing at North Marquette ball field. Playgrounds have been operated for six weeks and the program will terminate Aug. 18.

Engineering — Mapped location and elevations of existing sanitary sewer and water mains of proposed steam plant site at east end of Hampton St.

Fire — One rubbish, one car and one gas spill call. The ambulance made three local and four out of city calls.

Assessor — Issued four building permits.

Health — Complaints received with assistance given numbered 48. Administered 20 physical examinations.

Public works — Conducted sweeping of streets, repaired paved and gravel streets and repaired traffic signs and parking meter posts. Preparations being made for seal coating streets.

Clerk — Issued 12 city licenses, two dog licenses, one new registration, one reinstatement of registration, two cancellations and two changes of address.

Court — Handled 22 traffic violations, seven misdemeanors, one felony and eight civil cases. The violations bureau handled 126 meter and 20 restricted parking violations.

Police — Felony arrests 1, misdemeanor arrests 3, traffic arrests 7, larcenies reported 10; vandalism reported 8, disturbances investigated 23, accidents reported 17.

Finance — Completed 1962-63 departmental summaries for workmen's compensation insurance audit purposes and prepared forms for new fiscal year. Conducted cost accounting for fiscal year of monthly and hourly additions to wages to employees not benefitting from full family coverage.

Light and power department — Line crews started work on line along U. S. 41 at Green Garden for highway construction and worked on line to new high school. At the hydro-electric plants, water received was less than last week and less than last year. Elevation at the Hoist Pond dropped a half foot and was 3.4 feet higher than at the same time last year and seven feet from the top of the dam. The total system's kilowatt hour load was 3.95 per cent higher than last year.

Smith Gives Report On Rights Parley

Emphasis was placed on Northern Michigan at a human rights conference of local government officials and Gov. George Romney last week in East Lansing, City Commissioner James R. Smith said today.

Smith represented Marquette at the meeting, which was attended by 175 local government officials.

Gov. Romney told the group that although human rights problems "may seem distant to the northern Lower Peninsula and the Upper Peninsula, these areas must be prepared to avoid tension and bitterness."

The Governor pointed out that rights cannot be denied to members of minority groups who are vacationing in the U. P. or seeking employment here.

Discrimination Not Allowed — Attorney General Frank Kelley pointed out that discrimination in public accommodations, including restaurants and places of lodging, is not permitted under the Public Accommodations Act.

Under the civil rights section of the new Constitution, cities in Michigan will no longer have a choice between integrated and segregated housing, the Governor said. Remarks on housing were pointed to those cities with small or no Negro populations, Smith said.

To Name Group Aug. 15 — Gov. Romney announced that he will appoint members of the new Civil Rights Commission by Aug. 15, so that the commission will be prepared to take office Jan. 1, when the new Constitution goes into effect.

Representatives of many small communities noted that their cities have civil rights committees, patterned after similar groups in larger cities.

These groups now serve in an advisory capacity, pending a decision by the attorney general as to what action they can take.

Henry Ford II, Two Brothers Aided Demos

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Ford II, chairman of the Ford Motor Co. board of directors, and two brothers contributed $15,500 to Democrats in the 1962 congressional campaign, Congressional Quarterly says.

Henry Ford gave $3,000 to the Democratic National Committee and Benson Ford and William C. Ford each gave $2,500, according to a CQ survey of political contributions and expenditures filed with the House Clerk.

The survey showed each brother also contributed $2,500 to the Citizens for Kennedy-Johnson.

Henry and Benson Ford also gave $500 each to the Republican campaign of Alvin M. Bentley for congressman-at-large in Michigan, CQ said.

Michigan Contributions — Their mother, Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, gave $1,000 to the National Republican Committee, which financed congressional campaigns in all states, the newspaper reference organization said.

The report said 32 persons in Michigan gave $500 or more to Republican causes in 1962, with Bentley's $35,913 contributions the largest. Relatives of Bentley gave $8,000, CQ said.

Neil Staebler, a Democrat from Ann Arbor, defeated Bentley.

Tax, Spending Reform

The first session of the Legislature in the Romney administration is over and preparations are under way for the next one, to meet in the fall at Lansing on taxes. This is the big one.

Gov. Romney came out of the first session with a good record of legislation. Some of the Republican legislators complained privately that they had their arms twisted to support administration proposals and not make the first Republican Governor in 14 years look bad before a Republican Legislature in his first time at bat.

This sort of political jiu jitsu is as familiar in Washington as in Lansing, and the public should probably complain that there isn't more of it. The people elect a Governor to govern as well as a Legislature to legislate. For 14 years under Democratic Govs. Williams and Swainson and a Republican Legislature, never the twain did meet.

Gov. Romney has been meeting with groups of legislators at Mackinac Island after 16 regional meetings around the state with citizen groups to explain his proposals for a tax reform. This program is as complicated as the Seafarers International Union's dispute with Upper Lakes Shipping Co., which is to say that few people understand it. It consists of a number of options on which the Governor wanted the people to express themselves so he'd have an idea of what the public would support in tax reform.

The public probably looks upon "tax reform" as tax reduction, but Gov. Romney, at least, knows that this is not possible and that actually there will be need for increased taxes, not less taxes. What Gov. Romney hopes to achieve is more equity in taxation, a fairer spread of the tax burden to finance government.

The other half of reform in government financing is spending reform. This was mentioned in some of the Governor's regional meetings, but there's no clear plan for this yet, and it can be politically more offensive even than tax reform, because if grandma is going to have her welfare aid reduced she is going to be a very peppy old gal when she visits the polls. There is always lots of talk about cutting government spending, but the spending goes up and up, and realists know that while it is possible to reduce spending it is politically inexpedient to do so and therefore most difficult to accomplish.

The big spending that causes state taxes is for education, welfare, mental health and highways. Michigan is one of the states that has assumed a big state burden of higher education and this ups the tax bill, but we're in a situation of knowledge explosion that justifies big spending on public education. Some of the soft fringes in education can be pared, but our organization of public education has made it difficult for the establishment to do this, and the public finds it difficult to pare effectively.

Mental health spending can be changed, if not reduced, and should be. There's a wholesome tendency today to spend on rehabilitation rather than incarceration. Welfare spending is a huge drain on the treasury which has indispensable functions like support of the aged, but it can be made more efficient and possibly less expensive with a system of public works and such devices to replace the dole system.

Highways are a national indulgence. People spend a big part of their income on automobiles, and they're not much good without roads, so Americans find themselves on a merry-go-round with fast new cars demanding fast new roads. It would be naive to expect Gov. Romney to offer the Legislature and the state a tax program which is helpful and painless. He will do well if he can reduce the discrimination in taxes against property owners and small business and make Michigan's levies less repellent to industry.

There can be a helpful shifting of taxes, but no total reduction of taxes. Even to maintain the present levels of state service will require $50 million a year in new tax revenues.

A search for sites inhabited by Indian tribes of the 16th, 17th and 18th Centuries is being conducted in Michigan, Wisconsin and Ontario by George I. Quimby of the Chicago Natural History Museum, who was in Escanaba in pursuit of information from local Indian "relic" collectors. Quimby, curator of North American archaeology and ethnology for the museum, visited the Delta County Historical Museum to confer with Dave Coon, director. The author of several works on the American Indian and an authority on the prehistoric Indians of the Great Lakes region, Quimby is a native of Michigan (he was born at Grand Rapids) and received his master's in anthropology from the University of Michigan. He is especially interested in collecting artifacts representing a newly-discovered flint-knapping technique that was characteristic of Indians living in the Upper Great Lakes region from 1000 to 1700 A. D. With him on this trip are his wife and three sons. "We are deeply appreciative of Escanaba's fine waterfront," said Quimby. "To have lunch under the trees and then to have the opportunity to go swimming at your fine beach is most welcome to visitors like us on a warm day."

Hugh Downs, television conversationalist, has projected his talent into a new field—a game for home play geared to raise conversation to a lively art in every American family. Chit Chat, Downs' game of conversation, will make its debut tomorrow night at the Grand Hotel at Mackinac Island, with Downs as master of ceremonies. Reversing the usual procedure of developing a hit game, such as Concentration, from a TV show format, Chit Chat will be published for home distribution next winter and will bow as a TV show later.

Baseball Careers

A magazine lies before me. It is entitled "Baseball The Game — The Career — The Opportunity." For anyone seriously considering a baseball career, this magazine is a must. Whether you are an American Legion ball player or a Little Leaguer, it would be worth your while to read through this and see what this wonderful game has to offer. Among other things, this magazine discusses the opportunities in baseball, education and an explanation of how the pension system operates. The last section of the magazine tells you what baseball means to those who are playing the game now and what it has meant to those who are now retired from baseball. It would be a good idea for all of the schools to send for a copy to put on reserve in their library. Remember, you Little Leaguers will find this interesting also.

Police reaction to jeering crowds, in either North or South, could result in major racial violence in the United States this summer. As this policeman in Birmingham faced a crowd last May, so will other law enforcement officers in other cities face demonstrators. A miscalculation in the handling of a crowd could be the spark that touches off a racial conflagration. (AP Wirephoto.)

The Deepening Crisis (1):

Racial Time Bomb Ticking Away In America's Streets

EDITOR'S NOTE — Will racial strife in America be limited to sporadic outbreaks or are we, in this turbulent summer, on the verge of major domestic violence? The first installment of a special series on the deepening integration crisis outlines an on-the-spot survey of major friction spots.

BY BERNARD ZAVZER
AP Newsfeature Writer

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson has warned that "a time bomb ticks" in America's streets this turbulent summer of 1961. The bomb is the explosive crisis which has flared in sporadic violence in Danville, Va., Cambridge, Md., and New York as Negroes and whites have clashed on the issue of full racial equality now.

Today's Special Story

Haunting Questions
Overhanging these and other outbreaks are the haunting questions: Will the bomb go off? How? Where?
Interviews with and reports from top-level white and Negro officials in federal, state and municipal governments, with civic, social and religious leaders, and with citizens in the street, point to one conclusion:

Danger Of Major Violence
There is grave danger of major racial violence as America looks for a solution to the deepening integration crisis.

If chaos comes, the consensus is:
1. It may very likely—but not necessarily—occur in a Northern big city.
2. It may stem from rigid police action—or from a minor incident blown out of proportion by rumor.

Reaching Breaking Point
"Hundreds of thousands of (Northern) Negro citizens—struggling beneath the mounting burden of automation, overcrowding and subtle discrimination—are reaching the breaking point."
The Rev. Dr. Gardner Taylor, Negro pastor of Brooklyn's Concord Baptist Church, warns: "Miscalculation of the moment of truth which is upon us could plunge

New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit and Los Angeles into a crimson carnage with a blood bath unparalleled in the history of the nation."
"Can such riots come again?"
"Can't Kill Everyone"
One of the worst years in the history of U.S. race relations was 1919. There were seven major riots that year—the three worst occurring in Chicago (38 killed, 537 wounded and injured), Washington, D.C. (6 killed, scores hurt), Phillips County, Ark. (30 killed, and hundreds hurt).

Dr. Kenneth Clark, Negro professor at City College of New York, answers: "If white America refuses to grant rights to Negro citizens and continues to withhold them, I suppose white America will try killing Negroes. If white America is prepared to see Negroes being killed and killed and killed, then this will happen, but it won't stop anything, because you simply cannot kill everyone."
In Chicago, Ralph Helstein, president of the United Packinghouse Workers—a union integrated decades ago—says: "My feeling is that the discontent still is below the boiling point, but... our organizers throughout the country are surprised that it hasn't boiled over."

Where Will Bomb Explode?
Burke Marshall, assistant attorney general in charge of civil rights, says: "The country has to move on this issue in rapid fashion or there will be a great deal of racial unrest that will boil over into violence."
If the time bomb should go off, where is it likely to explode?
Some, including Dr. Richard Wade, professor of urban history at the University of Chicago, think it may occur in the South.
Wade cites a long history of defiance on the part of the Negro, who in many Southern regions is unskilled and uneducated and has little organization.

'Hits Me In Face'
Others believe the explosion is more likely to occur in the North where there is job discrimination, de facto segregation in housing, de facto school segregation and social discrimination.
A Negro public relations man notes: "I sit in my air-conditioned office all day and I see nicely dressed people and I look down on Sixth Avenue and I almost forget about color. Then at 5:30 I get downstairs and it hits me in the face. I can't get a cab because everybody thinks I want to go up to Harlem."

In Chicago, Alvin Prejean, deputy director of the Urban League, insists all the ingredients for explosion are to be found in Chicago, among other Northern cities.
"Negroes are pushing and whites are pushing back," he says. "People here used to talk about those poor people down in Birmingham. Now they are talking about here. We need better teachers, better jobs, better housing, just to catch up with whites."

Learning About Dignity
Earl Brown, Negro, deputy Manhattan borough president and former magazine writer who with Louis E. Martin, now a member of the Democratic National Committee, predicted the 1943 Detroit race riot (54 dead, 700 injured), says it is the discovery of obtaining dignity which contributes to the Negro militancy.
"This is the Negro doing something for himself," Brown says. "He's learning something about dignity. He may have to lose some blood, but he's found that that's the road to freedom, not just winning a peace."

As in any social movement, there is confusion. Leaders struggle for power positions, goals depend upon who's defining them, control of the masses evaporates.
Bood In Chicago
James H. Meredith gets booted at an NAACP convention in Chicago. At the same convention, the Rev. Dr. J. H. Jackson, president of the National (Negro) Baptist Convention, is booted for nine minutes, supposedly because he had backed President Kennedy's call for a moratorium on demonstrations. Leaving the speaker's platform, the Rev. Dr. Jackson was pinned against it by 50 persons, crying "Kill him! Kill him!"
The mood of action is all-pervading. Its beat is sounded by Dr. James M. Nabrit Jr., president of Howard University.
"We are sick of evasions, weary of excuses, fed up with promises and want action now, liberty now, equality now."

Changing Philosophy
C. Sumner Stone Jr., editor of the Washington (D.C.) Afro-American, says "For the first time, I'd say everybody is involved. All Negroes, except for some Uncle Toms, are prepared to be involved."
In Detroit, George W. Cathcart of the Trade Union Leadership Council—a Negro labor power—was told about a professor's comment that "the old people got con-

Will Moscow Talks Lead To Summit?

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials expressed strong doubt Tuesday that Secretary of State Dean Rusk's forthcoming talks in Moscow will become a prelude to a summit conference.

They said Rusk will carry a letter from President Kennedy to Soviet Premier Khrushchev, but it is expected to be only a reply to the message Khrushchev sent to Kennedy via Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman.

Khrushchev's letter, high-ranking sources said, expressed his satisfaction with the agreement to ban all nuclear tests except underground but did not offer any suggestions on further steps to ease East-West tensions.

Reply
Kennedy's reply is expected to express similar feelings without attempting to break new ground.

State Department officials denied any thought is being given to a meeting between Kennedy, Khrushchev and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Great Britain.

That possibility was mentioned by Lord Hailsham, British negotiator at the test ban treaty talks in Moscow.

Officials here pointed to Kennedy's remark at a press conference July 17 that "there is no evidence that a summit is indicated or needed."

Leaves Saturday
Also, U.S. officials don't believe Khrushchev himself wants a summit meeting now.

Rusk is scheduled to leave Saturday for Moscow to sign the U.S.-Soviet partial test ban treaty and to check on the way the Kremlin wind is blowing. While in the Soviet capital, Rusk intends to continue exploratory talks Harriman began on proposals Khrushchev made in a Kremlin speech July 19.

Among other things, the Soviet leader suggested tensions could be eased by a nonaggression pact between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Communist Warsaw Pact countries.

No Mandate
U.S. officials stressed that Rusk has no mandate to negotiate for NATO.

verted and the young people got religion," and related: "When I was a boy they told me, 'don't fight, get an education, I tell my boy, 'fight, and if you get thrown out of school, I'll find you another one.'"
March On Washington
There is concern that the one thing which might lead to trouble would be a march on Washington. Such a march is set for Aug. 28. It was decided upon in New York recently at a strategy meeting involving the NAACP's Roy Wilkins, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's Martin Luther King Jr., the Urban League's Whitney Young, CORE's James Farmer, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee's John Lewis and A. Philip Randolph, president of the Negro American Labor Council.

Vigorous Determination Voiced
The march was scheduled even though the Kennedy administration has voiced vigorous determination to get a strong civil rights bill through Congress. Negro leaders feel there will be a filibuster and that a march will show lawmakers the degree of Negro unity and determination.
Authorities who must plan for any eventuality have done so in many areas. The federal government is committed to back decisions of courts and policies of the administration with troops. Police in many cities have been given and are undergoing special training and indoctrination. Detroit and Chicago have police departments especially alert to any possible racial disturbance.

What Comes After De Gaulle?

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — French President Charles de Gaulle, in front of a splendid red silk curtain, talked to a news conference 80 minutes Monday and brushed off as if it were stupid one of the most important questions.

He was asked his ideas about a successor. Three Years To Go

De Gaulle, 72, has another three years to go as president. When he took power five years ago, France, in political chaos since World War II, was teetering toward civil war. Politics were a nightmare.

After five years, he has failed to achieve lasting political reform or to provide for what comes after him. He once said: "After me, a mess."

Thus, while his whole career has been dedicated to the restoration of French grandeur and influence, he has done little to make sure France after him will have the stability necessary to endure.

Celestial Slot Machine
For this reason, he gives the impression of a mystic trying to play a celestial slot machine.

For years he has pulled the lever, seeking the right combination to fit his dreams: A new Europe under French leadership, a firm new relationship with Germany, perhaps a new relationship with the Soviet Union and an undeniable place for himself in history. It has eluded him.

But he acts and talks, as he did Monday, as if it were only a matter of time when somehow, perhaps because it's de Gaulle wishing it so, he will give the lever a magic pull and hear that tinkling, tumbling sound that means a jackpot.

Three years ago in Washington, to Congress and newsmen, he made easing relations with the Soviet Union "paramount."

That was just three weeks before Premier Khrushchev broke up the summit conference in Paris with de Gaulle, President Dwight D. Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Wants No Part Of Test Ban
But last week Khrushchev finally agreed with the United States and Britain on a nuclear test ban in the atmosphere, outer space and under water. De Gaulle wanted no part of it. He said the world situation hasn't changed "one whit." He said France would not join.

Khrushchev last week talked of an East-West nonaggression pact. Maybe it's a pipe dream. De Gaulle made it impossible by saying France wanted no part of that, either.

He said France treasures the Western Alliance nations. But he's unhappy with NATO, the military organization which gives the alliance meaning.

He said France will go on making nuclear weapons, unless the United States and the Soviet Union destroy theirs. This is so far in the future it's invisible. So France has a good excuse, by de Gaulle's reasoning, to go on making weapons.

Warned Against Trust In U.S.
On June 25 President Kennedy pledged in Germany — certainly for the benefit of France — to risk the destruction of American cities in defense of Western Europe.

Two days later de Gaulle told what he thought of this with his information minister, Alain Peyrefitte, who warned Europe against trusting its security completely and indefinitely to the United States.

He said no one knows what Washington's policy will be 10 years from now, after Kennedy's presidency, and mentioned that American neutrality in 1914 and 1939 do not inspire confidence now.

By this same reasoning of de Gaulle it would be impossible for the United States to trust France as an ally, for in 10 years de Gaulle also probably will be gone, and even he doesn't know what kind of France there will be then.

Things We Could All Do Without

NEW YORK (AP) — Things we could all do without:
Career women who demand equal status with men, but don't do their fair share of pushing while going through a revolving door.

Girls with lipstick that makes them look like Dracula's daughter at mid-day.
Middle-aged ladies who say, "Oh fudge," or, "My, isn't that yummy!"

Girls who say they never eat anything but a smidgen of tuna fish salad for lunch, but always order a one-pound sirloin steak when you take them to dinner.

Shorts In Office
People who buy astrology books and also insist professional wrestling is on the level. Bermuda shorts in the office.

Cocktail guests who draw diagrams on your living room walls while trying to explain the principles of nuclear fission.
All snarly little dogs that look like ambulances — and sneak up and bite your ankle if you turn your back.

Parents who brag of being able to help their kids do their homework in algebra.
Friends who never have anything smaller than a $20 bill when we ride with them in a cab.

Heat waves Monday through Friday followed by rainy weekends.
Too Dainty
Any man over 50 with a full crop of hair and all his own teeth.

People too dainty to pick up fried chicken in their hands and eat it.
Airplane hostesses who won't bring you lukewarm tea until every other passenger has been served hot coffee.

Men's shoes without shoelaces, and secretaries who come to work wearing ballet slippers.
Magazines in multicolored inks that come off on your hands and make them look like five-fingered rainbows.

Men who always have a folded handkerchief in their breast pocket.
Honkers
Drivers behind you who honk their horns impatiently the moment the light turns green.
Paperback books that cost more than hard cover books used to.

All girls over 25 who wear tight sweaters and all men over 30 who wear tight pants.
Any party at which they pass out silly hats to get you in the right spirit of fun.
Overnight guests who forget to bring a toothbrush and get mad if you offer them an old one instead of a new one.

tranquilizing pills, it is nice to be reassured by the Food and Drug Administration that there will always be a France — filled with nice, excited Frenchmen.

The FDA long has been concerned with Americans' dependence on tranquilizers. With many of us, the take-it-easy capsule has become as much of a habit as smoking or being nagged by our wives. We are, it seems, both ashamed and frightened of being excited or tense. Now, by implication, the FDA suggests we take a tip from the volatile French.

At any rate, some charming historian has discovered that the French are snubbing American-type tranquilizing pills. In Paris and Nancy and Orleans, the pellet that soothes is a drug on the market any way you look at it. Faithful to their tradition, the French prefer to remain excited.

Patient's Shun Pills
French doctors report that they have tried to introduce tranquilizers to certain of their patients whom they feel need calming down. Rather proudly, the docs say, these patients laugh in their faces — a classically traditional, high-strung sort of laugh.

It is not that the French lack daring. Like the English, they are rather fond of taking medicine — experimenting with various remedies for the stomach and the liver. After all, any Frenchman who is anybody has a fretful liver.

And although the Frenchman may not discuss with friends his insides with the enthusiasm of the Englishman, among intimates he can be most eloquent on the subject of the idiosyncracies of his digestive system.

But though the Frenchman may want to change the color of his liver, he does not want to change his way of life. A Frenchman enjoys being excited; it is his normal condition. Find a tranquil Frenchman and you have an unhappy Frenchman, an emotional pariah in a nation of blissfully overweight citizens.

It would be ridiculous to say that a Frenchman comes home from his office tense, and all his job does is make him tired and leave him insufficient time to get really excited. He is glad when quitting time comes, not because his nerves are on edge, but because his work bores him, and he wants to go home or to some bistro where a man's nerves can work up a really authentic jangle.

Even Hangovers Appreciated
In Chicago and Boston and Miami, doctors are always telling Americans to be careful about losing their tempers. In France, losing one's temper is fun; the Frenchman who has had the narrowly serene experience of going an entire day without becoming furious is likely to feel he no longer knows how to enjoy life.
In the U.S. a hangover is dreaded, whereas in France it is sweet, nerve-wracking evidence that he had a good time the night before.
It cannot be proved, but there is the suspicion of an ulterior motive in those French doctors who seek to foist tranquilizing pills on their French patients. For the excited Frenchman is the happy Frenchman, and happy people do not get sick often enough to please the average pill-pusher.

More Than 40 At Writers' Round-Up; Peninsula-Wide Organization Established

PEQUAMING — A newly formed writers' group — "Upper Peninsula Writers" — was organized at a Peninsula-wide Writers' Round-Up staged at the former Henry Ford summer home in this picturesque little ghost town.

A group of over 40 authors, would-be writers and a sprinkling of newspaper people — several from as far away as Escanaba and Sault Ste. Marie — attended the day-long session.

'Group Dynamics'
J. Willis Owen, head of the field course and correspondence course department at Northern Michigan University, addressed the members briefly on "group dynamics" and directed the afternoon question and answer session.

He noted that the staff of the university has worked with approximately 30,000 of the Upper Peninsula's 30,000 people, and has done considerable work with business and professional people to help them solve problems related to their particular needs and demands. He also told the group that sessions in group dynamics for professional social workers would be offered in Escanaba for 15 consecutive days.

Concerns Of Writers
Pro. Owen divided the writers into "buzz groups" of five, which were directed to discuss and define the problems (of personal nature, of the organization of the entire area), the questions and the goals of the new organization.

Records selected from each of these groups reported that the writers were concerned with finding outlets for their material and had expressed a need to learn the location of primary research sources where data on historical background, etc. might be found.

Links With Drama, Art
The members felt that annual or semi-annual workshops for U.P. writers would be advantageous and agreed that groups working together could probably gain knowledge than lone authors and could pool their findings to the mutual advantage of members. In addition, they agreed that local groups need to research historical facts of their individual areas for use by themselves and as research data for other authors.

It also was pointed out that

Stambaugh; Mrs. James B. Lowell, retired member of the Escanaba Press editorial staff. The group was snapped during the morning session, as members of the new group compared notes on everything from punctuation to rejection slips. (Mining Journal photo.)

The Keweenaw Playhouse, which operates in Calumet each summer, is interested in pageants and plays pertaining to the U.P. and that there are artists in the area who might be interested in working with authors on illustrating books and articles.

Bring Fine Arts To U.P.
The writers added their voice to the growing number of organizations which are bent on bringing the fine arts to the Upper Peninsula. They also agreed that a Peninsula-wide committee should be set up to seek out sources to help the group attain their goals of increased professional competence and improvement of their work.

Pro. Owen told the group there was a real need for local writers' clubs and proposed that a Peninsula-wide committee be set up which would seek out sources of help for the members.

Committee Members
Elected to this committee were Mrs. Arlene Schovaid and Mrs. Lily Carlson, both of Iron River; Arne Arntzen of Escanaba; Mrs. Ruth Glasson of Hancock; Mrs. Irja Harju of L'Anse and Mrs. Helen Keskitalo of Champion.

Officers of the Upper Peninsula Writers for the coming year include Mrs. Anton J. Genetski of Iron River, president; Arntzen, vice president; and Mrs. Harju, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Evert Strom, Route 1, Box 130, Iron River, was named editor of the Newsletter.

of the trade" to those interested in newspaper work. Included among the membership of the new organization are Mrs. Jean Wolcott Piper of Iron River, whose journalistic accomplishments include a number of years as staff members and feature writer of several large metropolitan newspapers and the editorships of several magazines, and Arntzen, a successful detective story writer. About one-fourth of the members of the U.P. Writers have had their work published in magazines, newspapers or in book form.

$55,700 Grant Given To Munising Hospital By Kellogg Foundation

MUNISING — A grant from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation amounting to $55,700 has been received by the Munising Memorial Hospital Association, Charles Cheverette, president of the board of trustees, announced today.

The grant will make it possible for the hospital to offer many additional services and conduct research in problems unique to small hospitals in rural areas. New services that will be made possible by the grant are occupational therapy, rehabilitative nursing and medical social service. The hospital's present physical therapy service will be greatly expanded as result of the grant.

Comprehensive Program
It is anticipated that multiple screening programs and evaluation clinics will be offered in cooperation with the Munising Memorial Hospital staff, the Alger County Health Department and the Michigan Department of Health. The new services provided by the grant, along with the Alger County home nursing project started in December of 1962 by the U. S. Public Health Service, the Michigan Department of Health and the Alger County Health Department, will make it possible to offer the community a comprehensive home care program. Cheverette explained that the hospital has been cooperating closely with the home nursing project in fulfilling one of the hospital's objectives of promoting the general health and welfare of the residents in the service area.

The grant, which is divided over a three-year period, provides money for new services, study and evaluation and new equipment. The Bureau of Hospital Administration of the University of Michigan will assist with the research portions of the program. Richard Wagner, hospital administrator, will be project coordinator for the grant. Applications are now being received for the position of part-time medical director and other full and part time personnel.

Huge Mining Unit Produced In Michigan

BENTON HARBOR — A Nevada strip mining company soon will have a mammoth Clark Equipment Co. unit to haul up to 85 tons per trip, Clark vice-president C.E. Killebrew announced today.

The new "Michigan Model 65 End Dump Hauling Unit" towers 14 feet and will go to Kennecott Copper Corp. The unit was designed for mining and off-highway construction work.

Weights 250,000 Pounds
With a full payload, the unit weighs 250,000 pounds, but can travel at 50 miles an hour and maneuver like a family sedan, Clark officials claim. Killebrew said the vehicle develops 700 horse power from a diesel engine.

The engine powers a G.E. electrical system that does the wheel-turning work. Future models, which are being developed to handle even bigger payloads, will have the option of the electrical drive or Clark's mechanical "Power Train" drive, Killebrew said.

Permits "Hitching Rides"
A feature of the electrical drive permits loaded units to "hitch rides" on trolley cables leading up a mine shaft, and thereby supplement the truck's own pulling power. Front end trolley attachments permit such a hitch-up, Killebrew said.

An equivalent power unit with a trailer instead of the dump body is planned to haul from 125 to 175 tons of raw coal as a tractor-trailer rig.

Bear Forays Into Chatham Camp Once Too Often

CHATHAM — A big black bear that "called" once too often when Abel Takkinen was away from home has been trapped and disposed of by Conservation Officer John Seppi of Chatham.

Takkinen is a wood cutter who lives in a trailer north of Chatham. On weekends when Takkinen was away the bear broke into the trailer, entering through a window. Takkinen didn't like it and registered a complaint with Seppi.

Seppi set a trap, and in a couple days the trap was sprung by the bear without being caught. Twice more the bear entered the trailer before he was trapped. Bruin weighed about 200 pounds and was on the thin side.

"There are fewer wild berries now than in past year and I think this may cause bears to move about more and even to enter camps in a search for food," said Seppi.

Baritone Solo Featured In Band Concert
NEGAUNEE — Walter Warren will be featured in a baritone solo, "Zaraida Polka," by Losey, when the Negaunee City Band presents its weekly concert at 7:30 Thursday night at the municipal band shell.

Four marches are listed on the program announced today by Director James T. Nylander. The group includes "Colonel Bogey" (Alford), "Hall of Fame" (Olivadotti), "Gold and Silver" (Coffee) and "Law and Order" (Alford).

As the overture to the weekly program, Nylander has selected "La Grace" (Carvers). Popular selections will include "Midnight in Moscow" and "Star Dust."

Other selections on the program will include LeRoy Anderson's "Syncopated Clock"; the waltz, "Fascination" (Marchetti); "Two Guitars" (Horlick) and a trombone smear, "Slim Trombone" (Fillmore).

55 Workers Held Prisoner 5 Days
PUEBLA, Mexico (AP)—Police freed on Monday 55 workers who had been held prisoners in a textile factory by 15 gunmen for five days.

The officers crept into the factory and took control without firing a shot. The gunmen had taken the workers prisoners in an effort to force them to switch unions. Police acted after several days of constant guard on the factory.

Mts. Curwood, Arvon Winning Entries In Peak Naming Contest

L'ANSE — Mt. Curwood and Mt. Arvon are winning entries in the L'Anse Lions Club contest to name the highest and second highest points in Michigan.

Dr. Eric A. Bourdo Jr., a member of the Lions' contest committee, stated that 283 votes were cast in the contest which closed yesterday. Over 75 different names were submitted.

In Foothills Of Hurons

Both high points are located in Baraga County in the famed "Arvon Hills" — foothills of the Huron Mountains, east of L'Anse. The Lions, acting on their conviction that these two Michigan high spots have a high potential tourist value and should be noted on Michigan's official map in its tourist publicity, sponsored the name contest.

Winners of the two $10 prizes for being the first ones to propose the names were John Westberg, L'Anse, who submitted the earliest Mt. Curwood entry, and Eugene Olson, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Olson, L'Anse, who first proposed Mt. Arvon.

Officially, the two peaks are still anonymous and will remain so until the names are accepted by the U.S. Board of Geologic Names. The Lions Club will submit the two names to the county board of supervisors for approval, and they in turn will be asked to submit the twin proposals to the U.S. Board of Geologic Names in Washington, D.C., for final acceptance. If approved, the two names will become official and the two peaks will be designated as such on official maps and publications.

The U.S. Geologic Names handbook specifies that names of living persons or hyphenated names are not acceptable, which automatically disqualified a number of suggestions.

Would Honor Novelist

U.S. Geological Survey teams have set an official height of 1,980 feet on Michigan's highest point, which is located about one mile northeast of Dirkman Lake, in Section 30, T50N, R31W. Other surveyors claim this point actually is 1,993.6 feet above sea level, but all agree that it is Michigan's topper. The second highest point in the state is located about four miles due east of the Arvon fire tower in Section 2, T50N, R31W, about seven miles northeast of the top peak.

Mt. Curwood — if the new name is accepted — will honor the famous author, James Oliver Curwood, who had a cabin in the Huron Mountains area about seven miles from the spot which may bear his name.

'Gentleman Of Courage'

Curwood first came to Baraga County in 1921 when he spent a 15-day deer season, hunting out of the Huron mountains camp of James Leatherby, an old Scot, known as the "Hermit of the Hurons." Curwood fell in love with the area and had a cabin built for a vacation retreat in which he and his family spent the following summer.

Curwood's novel, "Gentleman of Courage," reportedly was set in the Huron mountains area. The main characters in Curwood's "Gentlemen" reportedly are patterned after Leatherby and Rex Erickson of Skanee, who served as a guide and camp handyman for Curwood and his family.

The Curwood and Leatherby cabins are located six and a half miles south of McComb's Corner (in Section 35) or about 17 miles east and a little north of L'Anse. The cabins are four miles north-east of Curwood Lake and Alice Lake on the Peshekee Grade. Actually, the Curwood cabin is closer to the second highest peak than it is to the proposed Mt. Curwood, but the lake, cabin and mountain are all in the same general area. The contest was conducted and the results tallied by Lions Bourdo, Robert Gouin and Robert Rafferty.

L'Anse Court Levies $106 In Penalties

L'ANSE — Justice of the Peace Steven P. Markovich assessed fines and court costs totaling $106.70 against nine persons arraigned in his court during the past week.

Dale LeClaire, 19, of Baraga was ordered to pay a $10 fine plus $4.30 court costs or spend 15 days in the county jail as an alternative sentence on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. LeClaire was arrested by state police officers at 1:30 Saturday morning at the L'Anse Township Park, in company of a 14-year-old L'Anse girl. LeClaire was held overnight in the Baraga County jail awaiting his appearance before Markovich.

Marvin W. Stebbins, 21, of Sidsnaw, ticketed for violations of the basic speed law and failure to stop following a minor traffic accident in L'Anse a month ago, was fined $10 and $6.30. Since Stebbins failed to appear before the justice within the required ten-day period, he was brought in to court by an officer who arrested him on a warrant, resulting in a higher than usual assessment for court costs.

William Knapp, 18, of L'Anse, arrested as a minor in possession of beer, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 and $4.30 costs. An identical fine and costs were collected from Donald O. Keippela, 18, of Pelkie for drinking on the public highway (on U.S. 41 near L'Anse.)

Ticketed for improper overtaking on U.S. 41 near Baraga, Arnold J. Putala, 20, of Keweenaw Bay paid a $10 fine and $4.30 court costs. Two 23-year-old L'Anse men, William Nordstrom and Robert Lind, ticketed for illegal possession of firecrackers, each paid fines of $5 and $4.30 court costs.

Michael Kraus, 27, of Houghton, who received a summons for improper backing as a result of a minor traffic mishap on Broad St. in L'Anse, paid $3 and $4.30. Loring E. Sherman, 25, of L'Anse, ticketed for defective brakes, also paid $3 and $4.30 costs. With the exception of Stebbins and Kraus, who were ticketed by L'Anse village police officers, the above arrests were made by state police officers from the L'Anse post.

MUNISING — Richard McLaughlin, president of the Munising Chamber of Commerce, announced today that 6,000 persons have registered at the chamber office so far this season, along with many more who stop for information but do not register.

To date, over 10,000 pieces of literature on Alger County have been distributed, as well as additional thousands of cards and pamphlets by individual members. Information about this area is being sent out at the rate of 30 pieces a day by mail. This is a costly project, McLaughlin stated, and may well set a record outlay for postage, due in part to the increase in cost.

Tigers Shut Out By Pappas; One Man Gets Past Second Base In Baltimore Massacre

BALTIMORE (AP) — After tonight's game with the Baltimore Orioles, the Detroit Tigers will not return to Memorial Stadium until the last three games of the season — and Charlie Dressen's boys couldn't be happier.

Milt Pappas allowed just four hits Tuesday night as the Orioles did all their scoring in the first six innings and clobbered the Tigers 9-0.

Slim Pickings

In the first two games of the series, the Tigers have picked up exactly six hits and one unearned run.

They only got one man past second base in Tuesday night's game as Pappas picked up his second straight shutout and fourth of the season. His record is 10-5.

Hank Aguirre was the Detroit starter, but he lasted only until the third inning.

Robinson Started It All

Brooks Robinson blasted a two-run homer in the second inning to start the Baltimore rout.

The Orioles picked up two more runs in the third to send Aguirre to an early shower and his tenth loss in 19 decisions. Bob Anderson put out the fire in the third, but before he departed the Orioles picked up 11 more hits and five runs.

Their big inning was the fifth when they put together five hits for three runs.

Lost Chances

The Tigers had two opportunities to spoil Pappas' shutout.

Don Wert's single and a walk to Billy Brunt put two men on with only one out in the third. Dick McAuliffe's infield out advanced the runners, but Al Kaline struck out to end the threat.

Anderson and Brunt singled with two down in the fifth, but McAuliffe grounded back to Pappas for the final out.

Bubba Phillips' single to left in the sixth was the last Tiger hit.

Smith Paced

Al Smith paced the Orioles' 18-hit attack with four hits, while Robinson and Joe Gaines each added three. Robinson batted in four runs.

The Orioles, who won only two games in 18 meetings with the Tigers last year, have now taken 9 of the 11 contests between the two clubs this season.

Frank Lary (1-4) is slated to start for the Tigers tonight. He'll be opposed by lefthander Steve Barber (13-8).

Detroit returns home Thursday and will start a four-game weekend series with Cleveland Friday night.

Olson Does It Again; Gets Title

HAYWARD, Wis. — Several Marquette and U.P. competitors collected prizes and awards in the World Log Rolling Championships held in Hayward last weekend.

Jim Ogle of Marquette, runner-up last year for the world title, took first place in consolation competition after being eliminated from the title contest in the first day of the tournament. He also won third place in the Trick & Fancy Division competition, with Ray Heidemann of California as a partner.

Ricky Olson, also of Marquette, retained his World Junior Championship, won in 1962, by taking first place honors in this year's tournament in defeating all challengers for the title.

Escanaba's Don Jacobs got to the quarter-finals before he was eliminated from competition for the world log rolling title, putting on a fine display of ability.

Although he did not succeed in dethroning 1962 World Champion Jubiel Wickheim of Sooke, British Columbia, Ogle displayed such rolling ability that he was tentatively invited to perform at the 1964 New York World Fair, and will, in all probability, accept the invitation.

The new Women's Division World Champion is Betty Toothacher, of Clarkston, Washington, formerly Betty Ellis, and title winner in 1961.

Ishpeming Inter-League Midgets Play

ISHPEMING — The Ishpeming Midget League inter-league baseball tournament begins in Ishpeming on Thursday evening at 7.

Teams in the tourney are Ishpeming East Negaunee No. 3, L'Anse, Negaunee No. 1, Alger County and Ishpeming West.

On Thursday at 7, the Ishpeming East squad will play Negaunee No. 2. The winner of this game will play Negaunee No. 3 at 6 p. m. Saturday.

Friday night's action pits L'Anse against Negaunee No. 1 at 6 and Alger County against Ishpeming West at 8 p. m. The winners of Friday night's games will clash on Saturday night at 6.

The winner of the 6 p. m. game Saturday will play the winner of the 8 p. m. Saturday game in the finals on Sunday night at 8.

There will also be a consolation game on Saturday at 6 p. m. as the losers play.

The lineup for the Ishpeming East squad is composed of David Argall, David Ameen, Paul Healey, Bill Polkinghorne, Terry Roberts, Terry Maki, Bruce Millimaki, Lowell Anderson, Tom Hammer, Louis Toussaint, Jerry Racine, Richard Moyle, David Holmgren, Terry Simula and David Donato.

Peter Moyle manages the East squad and he has coaches, Russel Argall and Eino Pasanen.

"Speck" Charboneau will manage the Ishpeming West squad and will have Merv Stanaway and Bob Williams as coaches.

Taking the field for Ishpeming West will be, Allen Korpi, Steven Carlson, Frank Bennett, Larry Larson, Terry LaMere, John Juicci, Robert Poier, Gary LeClair, Peter Andriacchi, Pete Moyle, Wayne Charboneau, Mike Nelson, Mike Sanpaka, Doug Oja and Keny Mattonen.

Final Standings in the Ishpeming Midget League are as follows:

Republic Will See Old Timers Play Rangers

REPUBLIC — The Rangers have accepted a challenge from the Old Timers for a game to be played on Friday, at 6:15 p. m.

The last time these two teams met, the game was called at the end of six innings, with the score tied at 7-7.

This year, the Old Timers will be coached by a board of coaches. As of today, coaches will be Eldon "Ike" Isaacson, Bob Perry, Bob Tapio and Slim Sevesty.

Bob Perry has indicated that two more coaches may be added by game time. The coaches have not yet contacted all of the players, but they have hopes that most of the former members of the team in this area will show up for the contest.

Line Up Best Hurlers

For this year's tilt, the Old Timers have lined up one of their best pitching staffs in years. Heading the list are Isaacson and Ollie "Change the Pace" Granlund. Others to see action will be "Wild Willie" Ross and Bob Tapio. Some of the other players are Ray Sullivan, Otto Hendrickson, Ed Evans, Bill Koski, Chub Antillo, Pete Skagman, Warren Granlund, Harry Johnson, Porky Johnson and Cuppy Wentila. Len Hanninen and the Mattila brothers, Jack, Ken, Smudge and Heiki are on the roster, as are the Wixtrom brothers, Bill and Bruce.

In charge of umpiring will be "Eagle Eye" Peterson. In the event of rain, the game will be played Monday, at 6:15 p. m.

Little Leaguers To Picnic On Island Thursday

A picnic for all Little League players and their families will be held tomorrow night at 6 at Presque Isle. A tasty supper is planned, with families bringing their own food. Soft drinks and ice cream will be furnished by the AmVets.

In the event of rain, the picnic will be held in the pavilion at the island, and will begin at the same time.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. John Hume, CA 5-1259, in Marquette.

Baraga County Junior League Begins 6th Week

BARAGA — The Baraga County Junior Baseball League starts the sixth week of play this week, with four games scheduled.

Baraga will entertain Tapiola tonight, and Alston will be at L'Anse. On Thursday, Baraga will visit L'Anse, and Alston will move to Tapiola for a game.

The Tapiola nine leads the league with a 7-3 record, followed by Baraga, with six wins and four losses.

The present standings in the league are as follows:

Hurley Field Sees Close Game, Upset

In Monday night's softball action at Hurley Field, the South Marquette Merchants defeated City Merchants, 10-6, and Shoreland's came from behind to down Remillard's, 3-2.

John Sarka and Jim Jacobson led the hitting for the South Marquette Merchants in the first game, with two hits apiece, one of them a Sarka homer. Most of the winners' runs clustered in the last two innings of the contest, to break a 4-4 tie which existed until the fifth inning. Jim Spagnolo took the win, and Herman Frazier had to accept the loss.

Lead Killed

In the second game of the evening at Hurley Field, the Remillard's squad led, 2-0, into the sixth inning, on hits by Bill Gorst and Dan Rice, but Shoreland's came to life in that inning to score three runs in a row, one of them on a homer by Mark Peterson, the winning hurler. Mel Parker took the Remillard's loss.

Peterson's Restaurant tightened its lead on first place in the Gwinn Soft Ball league last week by blanking Little Lake, 4-0 on a two-hitter pitched by Williams, and snowed under the Gwinn Inn, 17-7, to give them a 12-2 season record.

Happy Hour went into second place when they defeated Steen's Hide-away, 9-3, and shut out Fralick's Loggers twice, by scores of 5-0 and 7-0. Steen's and the Loggers now have 8-6 records, and are followed by Buaman's Eggs with 6-6.

Little Lake, with a win and a loss this week, have a 6-8 mark, and Gwinn Inn is in seventh place at 3-10. VFV continues to hold down the bottom rung with a 3-11 slate.

A meeting of all managers or representatives will be held at 9 Tuesday evening at the Gwinn Clubhouse.

Remillard's, Beau Chateau Are Defeated

In Tuesday night's softball play at Hurley Field, Remillard's lost their second game running to South Marquette Merchants, 9-4, and Beau Chateau lost a close one to Casino, 10-9.

The first contest of the evening saw Remillard's leading, 3-0, into the fifth inning. The eventual winners cut loose to bring in eight runs in that inning, to demolish the uncatchable one of their own, South Marquette Merchants added another run to the lead in the seventh, to equal the one run brought in by Remillard's in a vain effort to recoup the game in that inning.

One inning figured in the Beau Chateau defeat, too, as the losers gained eight of their nine runs in the third inning, to establish an 8-5 lead over Casino. The latter team was more successful in combatting the lead, and brought in two runs in the fourth, two in the seventh, and the winning run in the eighth on a hit by Gene Marceau.

Little Shifting Done In Gwinn Softball League

All entry fees for the District Softball Tournament should be submitted no later than Saturday. Fees for Class "A" and Class "D" teams should be sent to Barry Torrance, Negaunee, and those for Class "B" and "C" teams should be sent to Paul Bosworth, Marquette.

All entries are $15.00, and tournament play begins Monday, August 5.

The first contest of the evening saw Remillard's leading, 3-0, into the fifth inning. The eventual winners cut loose to bring in eight runs in that inning, to demolish the uncatchable one of their own, South Marquette Merchants added another run to the lead in the seventh, to equal the one run brought in by Remillard's in a vain effort to recoup the game in that inning.

One inning figured in the Beau Chateau defeat, too, as the losers gained eight of their nine runs in the third inning, to establish an 8-5 lead over Casino. The latter team was more successful in combatting the lead, and brought in two runs in the fourth, two in the seventh, and the winning run in the eighth on a hit by Gene Marceau.

Angels Flutter To Sixth Place In AL; Yankees Hold Eight-Game Lead Intact

(By the Associated Press)

They aren't flying high, but it appears the Los Angeles Angels have at least gotten off the ground.

The surprise team of last year, a third-place finisher in its second season, has been a surprise this year too—in reverse.

Dove To Eighth

After sputtering through April, May and June, the Angels went into a dive at the start of July and as late as five days ago were in eighth place. But five straight victories have carried them to sixth — the highest they've been in a month.

The Angels' latest victory came Tuesday night at Cleveland when they frittered away a four-run lead, then won 6-4 with two runs in the 10th inning.

The New York Yankees kept their eight-game hold on the league lead by beating Kansas City 6-2 with four runs in the eighth inning. Chicago's second-place White Sox trimmed Wash-
