Romping Spirits On The Run

Bouncing seven-year-olds Gary and Larry Hutchens are constantly on the go — "It's a chore just keeping up with them," says their mother, Mrs. Floyd Hutchens of Livermore, Calif. The two boys, and you wouldn't know it from this photo, were born Siamese twins on July 2, 1956, linked at the spine by nerve fiber and common spinal canal. They were separated by a team of surgeons 17 days after their birth in a 90-minute operation at a La Mesa, Calif., hospital. (AP Wirephoto)

Ole Miss Graduates Meredith

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — The white people stared stiffly ahead, without expression. The few Negroes in the audience watched somberly in small, self-conscious groups.

Except for a few glances, neither group seemed to look at the other. Together, under the tall oaks, they sat in awkward silence and watched what neither had ever seen before.

James Howard Meredith, a slight man of 30, became the first Negro to graduate from the University of Mississippi in its 115-year history. Without incident, he received what some are calling the $5 million diploma, that being the estimated cost of the soldiers and U.S. marshals it took to get and keep Meredith at Ole Miss.

The scene Sunday bore no resemblance to the night he entered, last Sept. 30, in an explosion of violence and death. Few people at the graduation were aware of the 16 marshals standing inconspicuously on the fringes of the crowd.

In a shaded glen, a short distance from the scene of last year's riot, about 2,500 whites and 40 of Meredith's family and friends looked on quietly.

Meredith shook hands with the university chancellor, John Davis Williams and walked down with his diploma.

Almost to the end, Meredith's graduation was resisted by Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi, who led the original resistance and was cited for contempt for defiance of a federal court order. Barnett, a few days ago, was trying to have the Negro expelled from Ole Miss for violating a university order against "inflammatory" statements. The attempt failed.

On Sunday, James Howard Meredith, holding a bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Mississippi, became a fellow alumnus of Barnett.

Meetings. Detectives were told that 12 men began holding night meetings at the house last March. The windows of the conference room were always blacked out. The drapes were carefully drawn. The meetings sometimes lasted all night.

U.P. Men Set To Use State Trawling License

ESCANABA — Under the first trawling license ever granted by the Conservation Department, two Cedar River commercial fishermen expect to begin trawling for smelt, alewife, herring and chub this week in upper Green Bay and Little Bay de Noc waters.

Robert and Louis Ruelau, Cedar River brothers, are outfitting a 61-foot Lake Erie gillnet boat as a trawler.

The Ruelaus have only an experimental permit good until Dec. 31 and must fish at specified spots and depths. A conservation officer will be stationed aboard their boat.

Paper Reports Attack On Cuban Oil Refinery

HAVANA — The newspaper Revolution charged today a plane, probably based in Nicaragua, attacked an oil refinery west of Havana Sunday morning.

It said rockets from the plane set fire to a tank car holding 8.12 gallons of crude oil and others hit near a dump holding 2 million gallons. The blasts opened a small hole in a big dump, but militia men and workers repaired the damage.

Alabama Police Hunt For Sheriff's Killer

LITTLEVILLE, Ala. — An intensive manhunt is underway today for a 40-year-old bootleg suspect officers said shot and killed a sheriff and police chief in a gun battle.

Dead are Colbert County Sheriff Herman Cook and Police Chief Neal Pace of Littleville, a town of about 700.

Pace was the town's only policeman.

In critical condition with a bullet wound in his stomach was Deputy Sheriff Donald Files.

Military Leaders Back Nuclear Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — The heads of the Air Force, Army, Navy and Marines united today in support of the limited nuclear test ban treaty provided minimum security safeguards are guaranteed.

Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, chief of the Air Force, testified that the military disadvantages "can only be made acceptable" by safeguards previously outlined by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

He and the other chiefs made nuclear laboratory facilities and programs, a state of readiness to resume atmospheric testing, and improved facilities for detecting any violation of the treaty and maintaining knowledge of Soviet nuclear activity, capabilities and achievements.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara testified earlier in the hearings that provision would be made for these and other safeguards.

In addition, they said it is based on maintenance of modern nuclear laboratory facilities and programs, a state of readiness to resume atmospheric testing, and improved facilities for detecting any violation of the treaty and maintaining knowledge of Soviet nuclear activity, capabilities and achievements.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara testified earlier in the hearings that provision would be made for these and other safeguards.

News In Brief

CHICAGO HEIGHTS, Ill. — The government offered assistance today to officials of Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers Union as they met to seek settlement of a strike which threatened to idle 10,000 workers in three states.

PATRAS, Greece — A strong earth tremor shook this Peloponnese city early today, throwing it into total darkness and sending residents and tourists panic-stricken into the streets.

WASHINGTON — Veteran diplomat George F. Kennan says the United States should be ready to explore the possibility of removing its troops from Europe if the Russians remove theirs from their side of the Iron Curtain. Kennan, former ambassador to Moscow and recently retired as envoy to Yugoslavia, was interviewed Sunday on a radio-television program.

WASHINGTON — The House opens its annual debate Tuesday on the foreign aid bill. Issues involving Indonesia and a projected steel mill for India are expected to generate considerable steam.

LANSING — A Democratic and a Republican state senator are urging Gov. George Romney to make the creation of a statutory legislative apportionment commission the first order of business of next month's special Legislature. The bipartisan request has come from Sen. John S. Bowman of Roseville, Democrat, and Garry Brown of Schoolcraft, Republican.

ISTANBUL, Turkey — The Turkish government, operating under martial law since an abortive coup last May 21, has rounded up 40 leftist critics in secret weekend raids. Army authorities declined comment.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. — A car struck and killed an enlisted man and woman from Sheppard Air Force Base Sunday night as they walked across an intersection. The dead were Airman 3-c Joyce Hencock, 23, of Hastings, Mich., and Airman 3-c William D. Owens, 17, of Bellingham, Wash.

'SO SATISFIED, IT'S SICKENING':

Evers Scolds Northern Negroes

DETROIT (AP)—Two thousand Negroes marched two miles in a peaceful demonstration Sunday, only to be scolded by one of their heroes for being "so satisfied it's sickening."

Charles Evers, brother and successor of slain Mississippi integrationist leader Medgar Evers, led the orderly march through two industrial Detroit suburbs and took the occasion to lambast the "Uncle Toms" and the complacent northern Negro.

The march, billed as a "Crusade of 10,000," was a failure numerically, but was followed by a spirited rally in a high school stadium where Evers compared the northern and southern brands of racial discrimination.

"You don't know where you're going," the Mississippian told the nearly-all Negro stadium audience. "In Mississippi, we know."

He said Negroes of the Deep South must struggle and sacrifice in the efforts to vote, and noted that Negroes in his audience were not prohibited from registering to vote.

"Stop blaming the white man" for racial inequality, the Negro said from the flag-decked bandstand, "it's your fault now."

He made fun of northerners who sent old clothes and canned fruit to southern NAACP offices.

"You may not believe it, but we have enough food and clothes in Mississippi," he said. "You can help us not with canned peaches, but by registering and voting to get the civil rights bills through."

"Stop fighting among yourselves. Stop calling yourselves

3 Trapped Miners Found Alive, Safe After 134½ Hours

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—Rescue workers lowered soup, medical supplies, head lamps and a reefer cigar today to three coal miners trapped since Tuesday near the bottom of a 400-foot shaft.

"We're all okay," shouted David Fellin, 58, one of the trio, after a six-inch drill broke through into the gangway where the men had fled after the main shaft walls collapsed.

Contact was made just before midnight Sunday after they virtually had been given up for dead. The next step is to bore a 28-inch hole to bring the men out.

There were various estimates on how long it would take.

H. B. Charnbury, secretary of mines for the state of Pennsylvania, estimated it might take anywhere from a day to a week.

Ralph Ditzler, district mine inspector, however, said it would take two to three days.

It took 22 hours to drill the six-inch shaft.

Ditzler said he wanted to start the rescue digging, but had to hold up because the trapped men were too tired to direct the operation.

All activity outside the mine stopped and most of the onlookers returned to their homes. Silence fell over the area as the three men, now aware that rescue was only a matter of time, slept peacefully some 400 feet below.

After the first contact, a microphone was lowered.

Fellin talked with his wife, Anna, and son, Joe.

"Dave, Dave," she shouted, "how are you?"

"Okay," he replied.

"Are you sure? Can you hear me? Are you sick or hurt?"

"I can hear you hollering all over. No I'm not sick or hurt."

Fellin reported he and Henry Throne, 28, were in one section and Louis Bova, 52, separated from them about 25 yards by debris. Bova was hurt slightly, Fellin said, but all three were in contact with each other.

16 Die In Traffic; 2 U.P. Drownings

(By the Associated Press) State Police counted at least 16 persons dead in Michigan traffic accidents over the weekend. In addition, at least three persons drowned in non-traffic connected accidents.

Two of the drownings were in the Upper Peninsula. Andrew Puckett, 46, of Iron River, drowned Sunday in Lake-On-Two in Iron County when his fishing boat capsized. Susan Morgan, of Madison, Wis., drowned Saturday in the Menominee River near Menominee when her canoe capsized.

The weekend traffic toll was a sharp drop from that of last week when state police recorded 32 deaths in the 54-hour period.

400 Rioting Chinese Gunned Down By Reds

HONG KONG (AP) — More than 400 rioting Chinese were machine-gunned to death by Communist troops recently in Chao Yang, Kwangtung Province, press reports said here today.

About 1,000 laborers fled to the hills after the incident, the reports said.

62 Dead, 67 Missing In Ferry Boat Mishap

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — A police checklist today showed that 62 persons were known dead and 67 missing in the sinking of the Okinawa ferry boat Midori Maru off Naha Saturday.

The mine, of which Fellin is a co-owner, is at Shepton, in adjoining Schuylkill County about nine miles from Hazleton, and some 80 miles northeast of Philadelphia.

Two-Fold Problems Underground, as one expert has put it, the land is like a piece of Swiss cheese—honeycombed with coal shafts. Pine forests cover much of the ground.

The problem in sinking the 28-inch bore, said Charnbury, is two-fold: Make certain it is accurate and make certain no new slide is started.

"If we put the 28-inch rotary drill in the same spot as the six inch hole will we reach you okay?" Gordon Smith, assistant state secretary of mines who is directing the digging operation, asked Fellin.

"It will be close enough," said Fellin.

134 Hours, 25 Minutes After the six-inch hole broke through, John Biros, a friend of Fellin, shouted into the hole. It was drilled to a depth of 331 feet.

"Who are you?" came the reply from the mine. "We're all okay."

Biros leaped back from the hole and exclaimed: "They are alive! I hear them! They're alive."

The dramatic contact with the men brought relief to a vigil which had lasted 134 hours and 25 minutes.

"Monk barbecue shows," is the term Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, above, sister-in-law of Viet Nam's bachelor president and officially his first lady, applies to the fiery protest suicides of Buddhist monks. ## Haiti Seeks To Drive Out Exile Invaders

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — Reinforced government troops were reported pressing a drive today to push exile invaders out of the northeast mountain area around Mont Organise, near the Haiti-Dominican border.

Fresh troops were airlifted out of the capital's commercial airport Saturday and Sunday. The main highway north was jammed with trucks filled with militia units.

Rebel Claim A rebel spokesman in Santo Domingo claimed fresh triumphs for Gen. Leon Cantave's invading force.

The rebels claimed that before pulling out of Mont Organise, they wiped out a government force and shot down one of the government's two operational Mustang fighter planes.

Unconfirmed reports in Port au Prince said a government plane had not returned from a reconnaissance flight over Mont Organise Saturday.

Invaders Cantave led a band of exiles into Haiti two weeks ago with the aim of bringing down the dictatorship of President Francois Duvalier. He failed to rally enough popular support for attacks on major cities and his force took to the mountains to begin a guerrilla campaign. The rebels captured Mont Organise Thursday.

Official sources acknowledged that Duvalier's forces are having trouble handling the situation in the northeast.

Solid South Seen On Way To GOP Fold

NEW YORK — The American Institute of Public Opinion at Princeton, N.J., says the traditionally "solid Democratic south" may be on its way to becoming the "solid Republican south."

A copyright story by Institute Director George Gallup, published in The New York Herald Tribune, says at least two of the possible contenders for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination — Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Gov. George Romney of Michigan — now lead President Kennedy in a Gallup poll "trial heat" tests in the south.

On The Rise The story said racial unrest is on the increase and white voters in the south are highly critical of the Kennedy Administration's civil rights program.

The story also said in part: When Goldwater is pitted against Kennedy in a "trial heat" test in the south, he receives 59 per cent of the votes of those with opinions to 41 per cent for Kennedy.

The latest "trial heat" figures in the south are: Kennedy vs. Goldwater — Kennedy 38 per cent, Goldwater 34, undecided and other, 8.

Kennedy vs. Romney — Kennedy 40, Romney, 47, undecided and other, 13.

Hart Named Chairman Of Antitrust Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., was named chairman of the Senate Judiciary subcommittee on anti-trust and monopoly today.

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., of the full committee announced the appointment of Hart to succeed the late Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn.

Buddhists On 48-Hour Hunger Strike

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Buddhist monks continued a 48-hour hunger strike in Saigon today and university students boycotted classes in Hanoi as the Buddhists stepped up their campaign against the government.

Authorities sought to head off further outbreaks, but another young monk was reported determined to burn himself to death as a protest against the regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem, a Roman Catholic.

Suicides Four monks and one nun have committed fiery suicide to press Buddhist demands for religious equality and government reforms. The government denies Buddhist charges that their religion is being persecuted.

Buddhist delegations shuttled back and forth between Saigon and Hue, 400 miles to the north, to coordinate the antigovernment movement in the two centers.

About 17,000 demonstrators, mostly young people, crowded around Saigon's main pagoda Sunday. They cheered antigovernment speeches by the fasting monks and waved banners against the government of barbarism.

Police Watch Police stood watch but did not interfere with the 12-hour demonstration, the biggest the Buddhists have held.

The monks announced they had started a 48-hour hunger strike and asked the crowd to join them for one day.

Negroes Alter Plans On Tape

DETROIT (AP)—Leaders of a Negro rally of 700 persons Sunday night submitted to a court order and called off plans to play tape recorded testimony of the white policeman who shot and killed Negro Cynthia Scott.

They said they acted—not out of fear of being in contempt of court—but because Miss Scott's mother, Mrs. Lillian Scott, did not want to risk having her civil suit against the patrolman dismissed.

Mrs. Scott has filed suit asking $5 million damages from Patrolman Theodore Spicher and the City of Detroit in the fatal shooting of Cynthia, 24, a convicted prostitute, July 5.

It's Sickening "You have become complacent," he told the rally. "You have become so satisfied, it's sickening." The remark was loudly cheered.

British Detectives Study Fingerprints

LONDON (AP)—Scotland Yard experts, studying 15 sets of fingerprints found at the farm hideout used by the great train robbery gang 10 days ago, hoped today that the prints would identify more of the men who got away with $7.28 million.

The prints were found in buildings at isolated Leatherslade Farm at Oakley, the gang's hideout 18 miles from where the Glasgow-London mail train was held up. Police hoped they would match prints in the yard's criminal records.

Possible Clues Other possible clues included: ● A Monopoly set, a card game usually played with stage money but believed used by gang members playing with their banknote loot while they waited in their hideout to make their getaway.

● A house in a respectable district of London where, detectives were told, 12 men began holding night meetings behind darkened windows last March.

● Five men sought for questioning because they have been absent from their homes since the robbery.

● A trail of five-pound banknotes in St. Helier, Jersey, one of the Channel Islands, which were the mechanics of Wirtz' proposal for binding arbitration of the two main issues and negotiation of the rest.

The two major issues which Wirtz proposed be submitted to a six-man arbitration board involve firemen's jobs and train-crew makeup.

Five-Pound Notes The couple bought the car for $2,338—all in five-pound notes—the day after the robbery.

Police found the car Friday night after giving nationwide publicity to its registration number and to a description of the couple.

Richard James, an employee of the firm that sold the auto to the couple, said the police knew the registration number and details of the sale when they came to check on the buyers. The implication was that they already knew a good deal about the activities of the couple.

Alliance Marks 2nd Birthday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Alliance for Progress, President Kennedy's master plan for helping Latin American nations, has cost U.S. taxpayers $2.5 billion. There are mixed views on how well it is doing.

The 10-year program marking its second birthday is a U.S.-Latin American undertaking aimed at replacing poverty and stagnation with economic and social progress.

A long weekend of second anniversary observance will be climaxed here Tuesday. Kennedy will meet with Alliance for Progress visitors and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will address the Organization of American States.

2 To Get Pups Of Space Dog

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—A Missouri boy and an Illinois girl will get two direct-line descendants of the Soviet space dog Strelka from the White House kennel.

Mark Bruce, 9, of Columbia, Mo., and Karen House, 10, of Westchester, Ill., a Chicago suburb, expressed amazement Sunday when they learned that Mrs. John F. Kennedy had chosen them from among 5,000 applicants for puppies.

Of the brown puppies born to Pushinka, daughter of the Soviet dog that orbited the earth, Karen will get Butterfly, a female. Mark will receive Streaker, a male.

Analysis Of City Budget Indicates Fiscal Stability

An analysis of the status of the general city budget as of the end of the past fiscal year indicates that Marquette is heading toward sound fiscal stability, City Manager Thomas Moore reports.

The city's fiscal year runs from July 1 to June 30. The statistical sheets on the past year's operations list (1) a summary of the cash and investments as of June 30, 1963, (2) the status of the general city budget, and (3) the condition of the utility budgets.

The general city budget revenues for the year totaled $1,157,731.99, while the total expenditures amounted to $1,131,271.44, leaving a surplus of $26,460.55 for the period.

Moore said this surplus will be applied toward the cash deficit which was discovered and disclosed by city officials in the fall of 1960. At that time, the cash needs were listed at $315,054 more than the anticipated revenues for the 1960-61 fiscal year.

May Be Cleared Next Year

In 1961 the city commission arranged for the borrowing of $210,000 in tax anticipation notes and delayed the paying of bills for the last month of the fiscal year to absorb the difference.

In 1962 the city had to borrow $160,000 in tax anticipation notes to meet the cash deficit. This year the city borrowed $120,000 for the same reason.

"If everything goes right we hope that next year there will be no need to borrow any money in tax anticipation notes," Moore stated.

The cash deficit occurred due to the lagging accounting reports of the cash picture of the city, officials stated.

Mrs. Fleury, Lifelong City Resident, Dies

Mrs. Alfred J. (Mathilda) Fleury, 74, of 349 Alger St., died at 1:30 yesterday afternoon in St. Luke's Hospital, where she had been a patient nine days.

Mrs. Fleury, a lifetime resident of Marquette, was born here on Oct. 3, 1890.

She was a member of the Lady Trainmen Lodge, Royal Neighbors of America, Marine Corps League Auxiliary, the Women's Relief Corps, and was a volunteer worker for the USO.

She is survived by her husband, Alfred J.; one daughter, Mrs. George H. (Dorothy) Nelson, Ironwood; one son, Norman W. Rose, Howell, Mich.; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Anderson and Mrs. Anna Bunker, Marquette, and Mrs. Charles (Nellie) Gade, Detroit; one brother, Harry Leskee, Marquette; five granddaughters, one grandson, and one great-grandson.

Services Wednesday

Services will be held at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon in the Swanson Funeral Home with the Rev. Robert Peterson, Seminary intern at the Messiah Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial will be made in Park Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tomorrow afternoon and evening.

The Cable TV View

... By Richard Bur

Television was in existence for some five years after World War II before the moving picture industry publicly acknowledged its presence. Then it began to look at the small home screen with alarm.

Box office receipts dropped. Strangely there wasn't much evidence that moving pictures on television were earning high audience ratings. Those were the days when Uncle Miltie Berle was keeping everybody who owned a TV set at home on Tuesday nights.

The movies reacted by enlarging the size of the screen and adding illusions of depth. But the formula that worked was the simple one of making better movies. Competition for an audience brought out a better product. This has traditionally been one of the functions of competition.

Television, in turn has benefited in these recent years. A cartoon in Broadcasting Magazine aptly put it on an illustration of a movie marquee, "Movies are better than ever... On television."

The broadcasting networks have discovered with better conceived story foundations, direction and acting, viewers are flocking to television's Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays, Mondays, etc. at the movies at home. Motion picture houses, too, are reporting increases in patronage.

The theatre remains a place for "going out." And television, among its other functions, centers entertainment right in the comfort of one's own home. Credit for an overall improvement in quality of moving pictures can go to the entry of another method of viewing. Thus television, by being competitive, may have helped put an extra dash of life into the movie industry.

One Injured, Two Ticketed In Accidents

Three other mishaps were probed by state police during the weekend.

At 12:55 Saturday afternoon a car being driven south on County Road 553 by Daniel Wren, 44, K.I. Sawyer Air Force Base, went out of control on a curve and traveled off the right side of the highway, crashing into the ditch and rolling over.

Wren suffered a bruised nose and was taken to the Sawyer Base Hospital for treatment.

The crashup took place a mile south of the main gate to Sawyer Base, in Forsyth Township.

Speed Law Violation

Extensive damage occurred to the front end, both sides and the top of Wren's car, a 1955 coach, which had to be hauled from the scene by a wrecker.

State police issued Wren a ticket for violation of the basic speed law.

An automobile being driven south on County Road 553 by Carl Clark, 19, Sawyer Base, struck a car operated by John Staeb, 20, also of Sawyer, a mile north of the main gate to the base, in Sands Township, at 3:45 yesterday morning.

Reckless Driving Count

State police said Clark was passing Staeb against oncoming traffic. Staeb pulled over to the shoulder to get out of the way and Clark also swerved to the right, with his car striking Staeb's.

Officers said Clark continued on after the crashup without stopping, but was apprehended at the gate at Sawyer.

The left rear of Staeb's car, a 1959 sedan, was damaged. Apparently no damage resulted to Clark's car, a 1959 sedan.

Clark was arrested by state police for failing to stop at the scene of a property damage accident and also was issued a summons for reckless driving.

Moore pointed out that the water supply department went in the red due to the numerous freeze-ups of water lines, which caused the department to handle a lot of thaws that were city responsibility and to permit water to run for over a month in many homes (with no charge for the excess).

"It was an unusual year for the water department," the manager commented, "and I'm sure this situation will be improved and made up during the coming year."

A year ago expenses of the water supply department totaled $329,200.11, while revenues came to $320,399.33.

Automobile Parking Utility

Operating revenues of the automobile parking utility last year came to $32,816.95, compared to the estimate of $32,000, while in excess on the revenues totaled $440.85, making a total revenue of $33,057.80.

Expenditures of the parking utility totaled $25,782.26, making a profit of $7,275.54 for the period. Tax equivalent accrued, however, was fixed at $1,000.

Moore listed the summary of the city revenues as follows:

Principal revenues—Taxes, penalties and interest, $488,031.23; licenses and permits, $2,167.27; fines, forfeits and penalties, $6,361.45; from use of money and property, $8,825.70; state collected taxes and grants-in-aid, $334,534.49; service charges for current services, $32,086.74, and sale and compensation for loss of properties, $15,092.21.

Transfers from other municipally-owned funds—From utilities, in lieu of property taxes, $210,773.44; in lieu of services, $33,699.84, and for office rent, $3,600; from other municipal funds, for engineering services, $531.82, and for profit on equipment charges at standard rates, $22,003.29.

Surplus from discontinued funds—Municipal funds, $24.51.

Breakdown of Expenditures

A breakdown of the expenditures showed $237,355.33 used for all the various city departments and unclassified items (such as social security, retirement, etc.).

Finance (accounting and control, assessing and treasury) cost $61,799.89, and health, police, fire, engineering, public works and parks and recreation made up the balance.

Practically all of the departments remained within the budget last year, Moore said.

The city clerk's department went over due primarily to an increase in the cost of the publication of the annual report, publication for which is charged to this department.

Employees' insurance climbed by 276 per cent, because of the soaring costs of medical and health insurance.

Electric Utility

Actual expenditures of the electric utility totaled $1,467,628.69, or 101.55 per cent of the estimated figure of $1,445,186.72. In the previous fiscal year actual expenses amounted to $1,399,153.09.

Income of the electric utility, however, amounted to $1,467,203.37, or 101.49 per cent of the budget estimate of $1,446,000, thus enabling revenues to exceed expenses for the period.

Moore said that because of the unusually severe winter (regarded as one of the worst in history, and the worst in at least three decades), expenses of the water supply and a sewage disposal system exceeded revenues.

Water Line Freeze-Ups

Revenues totaled $320,476.09 while expenses came to $337,324.77. The estimated figures had been $322,000 for revenues and

City Firemen Called Out Two Times

Marquette's fire department was called out twice during the weekend, with no serious damage resulting in either instance.

At 3:49 Saturday afternoon firemen were called to the corner of Bluff and McClellan Sts., where a grass and brush blaze broke out in an open field, north of Bluff.

Because the blaze was too far away to use the booster hoses, firemen used wire brooms to stamp out the blaze, which blackened an area measuring approximately 200 feet square.

Firemen said the blaze apparently had been started by children playing with matches. They responded to the call with the Nos. 2 (1,000-gallon) and 4 (750-gallon) pumps and returned to the station at 4:15 p. m.

Firemen also were summoned at 10:57 last night to U.S. 41 south, near the Edgewater Motel, where a car had caught fire.

However, the blaze was out on arrival of firemen. Three firemen answered the call with the No. 4 pumper and returned to the station at 11:08 p. m.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

France Has One Car For Every 6 Citizens

PARIS (AP) — The number of motor vehicles in France has risen to 7.9 million, an average of one for every six inhabitants. About 1.1 million new cars, trucks and buses went on the roads last year, including 120,000 imports.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

Shoreline Hearing In U.P. Aug. 27

ESCANABA—Rep. Hans C. Rasmussen (R-Ludington) will bring his Interim Committee on the Great Lakes Shoreline to Escanaba for a public meeting on Tuesday, Aug. 27, from 2 to 4 p. m., in the State Office Building.

The stop will be one of six in the state on a tour to study the Great Lakes shoreline and submerged lands problems for the Michigan Legislature.

The Escanaba stop will be the committee's only one in the Upper Peninsula. The Lower Peninsula itinerary from Aug. 20 to Aug. 29 includes Caseville, Port Austin, Detroit and Ludington, and another hearing will be set up in Lansing after Labor Day, says Rasmussen, a state leader in conservation and chairman of the House Committee on Conservation.

'Important Question'

"This is a very important question, of vital interest to all the people of Michigan," said Rasmussen. "We urge them to bring their problems or questions on shoreline problems to our legislative study committee. The public is invited to all the meetings."

$151,941 County's Share Of Second Road Fund Collection

Second quarter motor vehicle highway fund collections are being distributed to the various counties and incorporated cities and villages in Michigan by the State Highway Department.

Marquette County's share of the receipts totaled $151,941. Area Cities' Totals Given State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said net receipts of the highway fund during April, May and June this year amounted to $47,265,540, an increase of $2,487,060, or 5.5 per cent, over the second quarter of 1962.

Amounts being paid to area cities are: Baraga, $2,231; Ishpeming, $13,866; L'Anse, $4,...

405; Marquette, $29,765; Munising, $7,431, and Negaunee, $12,346.

All state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and license plate fees go to the motor vehicle highway fund.

Formula Noted After deduction of collection costs and the State Waterways Commission's share, the money is distributed under provisions of state law which provide that 47 per cent goes to the State Highway Department for use on state highways, 35 per cent to the state's 83 counties for use on county roads and 18 per cent to 515 incorporated cities and villages for their roads and streets.

Under this formula, the State Highway Department will receive $22,214,804 this year, its share of the second quarter collections, while the counties will receive $16,542,939 and the incorporated cities and villages will get $8,507,797.

U. P. County Totals The following amounts will be paid Upper Peninsula counties from quarter collections:

Alger, $60,261; Baraga, $50,876; Chippewa, $123,175; Delta, $115,090; Dickinson, $90,059; Gogebic, $78,496; Houghton, $114,548; Iron, $78,895. Keweenaw, $38,447; Luce, $53,631; Mackinac, $71,931; Marquette, $151,941; Menominee, $120,659; Ontonagon, $68,847, and Schoolcraft, $58,798.

Six Vehicles Involved In Mishaps Here

Six automobiles were involved and a motorist was issued a ticket, but no one was injured, in three traffic mishaps which took place in Marquette during the weekend.

1. At 5:20 yesterday afternoon a car being driven north on S. Fourth St. by William Richer, 525 S. Fourth, struck a 1957 ton truck operated by Alton Reetz, Route 2, Box 987-H, Marquette, about 75 feet north of Fisher St.

City police said Reetz had stopped in the northbound traffic lane and was in the process of delivering fuel oil to a resident. Parked vehicles had made it impossible for the truck to go any closer to the curbing, officers said.

Failed To Stop In Time Extensive damage occurred to the front end, bumper, grill and both fenders on Richer's car, a 1955 four-door sedan, and minor damage resulted to the rear bumper and the right rear cargo door of Reetz' tank truck. Both vehicles were driven from the scene under their own power.

City police issued Richer a summons for failing to stop in the assured clear distance ahead. 2. An automobile being driven south on N. Front St. and being turned right (west) onto Bluff St. by Christine Bellmore, Wright St., struck a 1960 pickup truck operated by Henry L. Caron, Werner St., at 11:37 yesterday morning.

City police said Caron was facing east and stopped on Bluff St. for the Front St. stop sign. The left rear fender of Caron's truck was damaged. Apparently no damage resulted to the Bellmore car, a 1958 two-door sedan.

3. At 10:30 Saturday morning a car being driven east on W. Washington St. by Bernard Pello, Milwaukee, caught the right door of a car operated by Gary Grawn, 225 E. Ridge St., at the Front St. intersection.

Passenger Opens Door City police said Grawn was stopped, facing east, in the inside lane on Washington St., when a passenger, Robert Meyers, 442 W. Washington, opened the door to be discharged. Pello was driving in the right turn lane when the mishap occurred.

The right door of Grawn's 1956 two-door sedan and the left rear fender and bumper of Pello's car, a 1962 four-door sedan, were damaged. Both vehicles were driven from the scene under their own power.

Temperature Subnormal 10th Day Here

Temperatures averaged below normal in Marquette yesterday, for the 10th straight day.

However, it was mild this morning and Meteorologist Fred Mueller said that near normal temperatures are predicted, at least for the first part of the week.

The 10-day cool spell is the longest stretch of below normal temperatures since the official beginning of summer. In June, from the 9th to the 22nd, there were no days of above normal temperatures.

Saturday's average temperature was 10 degrees below normal, with extremes of 63 and 49. Average Saturday was 56. Yesterday's average was five degrees below normal.

Pleasant Weather Despite the cool temperatures, weekend weather was pleasant, with sunshine 100 per cent of the possible time Saturday and 90 per cent of the possible time from dawn to dusk yesterday.

The maximum reading of 73 yesterday was the warmest reading here since Aug. 8, when it was 73. Overnight the mercury only dropped to 55. Overnight low at the Marquette County Airport in Negaunee Township was 49.

A chance of a few light showers is predicted for tonight and low tonight is expected between 50 and 55. Tomorrow the mercury is expected to go up to the mid-70s and the outlook for Wednesday is continued fair and mild.

Long-Range Outlook However, after the minor warming tomorrow and Wednesday, cool temperatures are expected for the balance of the week. For the next five days, temperatures are expected to average around five degrees below the normal high of 73 and the low of 57.

Rainfall through Friday night is expected to total near one-half inch, occurring mostly in periods of showers the latter part of the week.

HAROLD JONES

Police Search For Prison Camp Trusty

Upper Peninsula law enforcement officers today were conducting a search for a trusty from the Marquette State Prison who walked away from the prison's Honor Camp in Sands Township last evening.

The escapee is Harold Jones, 36, a third-offender, who was serving a 15 to 20-year term for breaking and entering in the night time. Jones fled from the Honor Camp at approximately 10 last night and his absence was discovered shortly after, prison officials said.

State police have placed into effect the usual road blockade at key points in the region and will maintain the watch until the convict is apprehended. No Hitchhikers Meanwhile, residents were urged not to pick up hitchhikers, to lock their vehicles and to report any person answering to the fugitive's description.

Jones stands five feet, eight inches, weighs 146 pounds, is of medium build and has gray eyes, black hair and a medium complexion. He has a small oval scar on the front of his left elbow.

He was last wearing brown denim pants and possibly a white shirt, prison officials said. Jones was last sentenced Nov. 8, 1955, from Ionia, and had been transferred to the Marquette State Prison Aug. 21, 1957. Since then he had been returned to the Jackson State Prison and was shifted back to Marquette in June 1962.

Trusty Once Before Prison officials said Jones had been a trusty once before and had been returned to behind the walls for a minor violation. He was placed in a trusty status on Aug. 5 and had been at the Honor Camp since then. He would have been eligible for parole next August.

Jones' previous offenses include grand larceny (for which he was sentenced to a four and one-half to five and one-half year term at the Indiana State Reformatory, Pendleton, Ind., March 9, 1944) and larceny from a building (for which he received a three-and-one-half to four-year sentence from Ionia Dec. 9, 1946).

No Leads Reported Jones had been paroled on the latter court Oct. 12, 1954, from Jackson. Prison and police officials said no leads had been received up to this morning as to the felon's whereabouts.

As in all cases, a $50 reward is being offered by the prison for information leading to the apprehension of the fugitive. It is the third walkaway by a trusty in the Upper Peninsula this year.

In April a trusty fled the prison's Mangum Farm in Chocoley Township and was captured the same day. In May a prisoner left his post at the corrections-conservation camp in the Porcupine Mountains and was apprehended in Grand Rapids in June.

Last year there were eight walkaways in the U.P. (four from honor camps of the prison and four from corrections - conservation camps) and all were apprehended.

Sanford Brown Sees Trouble Ahead For New Constitution

ESCANABA — State Treasurer Sanford Brown visited the U.P. State Fair last week, shook his head mournfully and told people he met that there'll be the heck to pay over the new Michigan Constitution.

He agreed, he said, with the wag who declared that "It will be a full employment bill for attorneys." (Brown is a Democrat and his party opposed the new Constitution, which takes effect Jan. 1.)

Brown said there is a possibility that Michigan will be without a Legislature because of failure to implement the new Constitution's provision for an eight-member bipartisan commission on legislative apportionment. The Republicans have named their members, including Ralph Huhtala of Iron

Niki's Visit Could Deepen Commie Rift

By WILLIAM L. RYAN AP Special Correspondent

The often-chilled Soviet-Yugoslav romance basks again this week. Premier Khrushchev is headed for Belgrade, and his visit seems to betoken a significant victory at home for his policies.

Whatever Khrushchev's trouble may be with divisions in the Communist world, his meeting Tuesday with President Tito indicates that in his own bailiwick, Khrushchev is at the pinnacle of his personal political power.

Soviet-Yugoslav relations get a periodic defrosting. The defroster switched on again about a year ago, is going full blast. Once Again Once again, the recurring Belgrade-Moscow ritual of mutual admiration will arouse questions in the United States, which, since Stalin cast Tito from the Communist fold in 1948, has invested more than a billion dollars in one or another form of assistance to Yugoslavia.

Khrushchev, in Stalin's time, joined with other Soviet leaders in calling Tito a traitor for rejecting total Moscow domination. Since Stalin's death, Yugoslav-Soviet relations have served as a fair barometer of Khrushchev's authority. When relations with Belgrade were good, he seemed to do well. When relations sagged, Khrushchev appeared to be having difficulties at home.

Slap In Face The Soviet leader ostensibly is on vacation but to the Red Chinese who call Tito the arch-enemy of world communism, Khrushchev hardly could have delivered a more calculated slap in the face. For almost 10 years Khrushchev has tried to have the Belgrade-Moscow feud swept under the rug. He was just emerging as top man among equals in the post-Stalin "collective leadership" early in 1954 when there was a report of gestures from Tito seeking a reconciliation and a common effort toward world Communist victory.

By November of that year there were clear signs of thaw. Khrushchev and other Kremlin leaders showed up at a Yugoslav reception in Moscow. Mixed Feelings The reconciliation faded quickly. Relaxations in the Red bloc after Khrushchev's denunciation of Stalin at the 20th Soviet party congress generated trouble: unrest in Poland and finally revolution in Hungary, which the Soviets stamped out.

The West will eye this week's Khrushchev visit with mixed feelings, remembering that through all the ups and downs of Belgrade-Moscow relations, Tito never deviated from the general line of Kremlin foreign policy. Possibilities The meeting could mean the final stage of reconciliation bringing Yugoslavia back to full bloc membership, but could deepen the world Communist rift. It is not difficult to predict the Red Chinese reaction to the Khrushchev visit.

Mountain as the Upper Peninsula member, but the Democrats have not named their four members yet.

Brown said that Attorney General Frank Kelley, a Democrat, has ruled that the commission members can't be legally paid for work done before Jan. 1, 1964. Since nominations must be filed in June for the fall primary, the apportionment of 114 legislative districts in Michigan must be completed by early March.

Better Interest Rate This timetable is in increasing trouble as time passes. The Democrats want Gov. Romney to put a call in his fall legislative session for action, but he says it isn't necessary, says Brown, who insists he'll pay no state money to legislative apportionment commission members until after Jan. 1, unless the law is changed.

On the brighter side, Brown said that Michigan is now getting a much better interest rate on its school bonds than it did a few years ago. He had his own explanation for it. "Investors," he said, "are finally recognizing the Michigan bond fund for what it is. If they qualify for it and can't pay debt service, all the bondholders have to do is notify the state treasurer, and he can pay them."

Helped Bond Sales "When the banks went to 4 per cent interest it also helped bond sales. Previously many banks didn't buy school or municipal bonds (which school bonds are). When the interest was increased banks that had held to 10 years on these kinds of bonds doubled the maturity time and bought 10 to 20-year bonds and became good customers in the bond market. These are tax free bonds and while they pay in the 3 to 3.5 per cent interest bracket, if a bank is in the 52 per cent bracket the rate gives 5.6 or 7 per cent and most are."

Brown said the interest benefit in the improved state image was almost one per cent on Michigan securities. Tough On Breweries Brown said that increases in the beer and whisky taxes had contributed heavily to the state's improved debt position, which will allow payment of about $50 million of the state debt as of the end of the fiscal year last June 30, but that the increase was driving Michigan breweries to the wall.

Brown said the beer tax increase last year brought in an additional $27.7 million and the whisky tax increase $7 million, or a total of $35 million of the $50 million surplus.

Marquette's Chamber Revives Booster Club; Bares New Program

Above is the crest to be worn on the breast pocket of the blazers by members of the Marquette Boosters Club, an adjunct of the Marquette Chamber of Commerce. The Boosters Club, dreamed up about two years ago and then allowed to die, was revived by Harlan F. Larson this year when he assumed presidency of the Chamber.

While the club has a limited membership, it plans on growth. Decision was made to start off with a smaller group and add to the roster through the succeeding months, chamber spokesmen said.

It has been of notable service on several occasions. The Boosters have acted as an organized group of greeters and as ambassadors of good will for Marquette.

Five Drivers Pay $86 In Fines, Costs

Five persons were ordered to pay fines and costs totaling $86.20 by Judge Edward H. Dembowski last week in Marquette Municipal Court.

Clare W. Willman, 914 Lee St., paid fines totaling $23 and $5.10 costs for 13 meter and restricted parking violations. A warrant was issued on the oldest violation, which was dated Aug. 21, 1961.

For 18 meter and restricted parking violations, Mary J. Handrahan, 535 Baraga Ave., paid fines totaling $18 and $5.10 costs. A warrant was issued on the oldest violation, which occurred June 6, 1960.

Stop Sign Violation

A fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs were paid by Duane Black, 325 N. Third St., for a stop sign violation Sunday at the intersection of Hampton and Division Sts. City police issued the summons following an accident.

For a stop sign violation at the intersection of Third St. and Fair Ave., Tuesday, Cyril M. VanAel, Wright St., was fined $6.30 and ordered to pay costs of $3.70. City police issued the ticket.

Car Not Under Control

Karen L. Ruuska, 1912 Westwood Rd., was fined $6.30 and ordered to pay costs of $3.70. City police issued the ticket Aug. 9 for failure to have her motor vehicle under control following an accident on W. Washington St.

For speeding, William C. Marshall, 801 Altamont St., paid a fine of $1.30 and $3.70 costs. He was ticketed by state police Aug. 9 for failure to have his motor vehicle under control following an accident on W. Washington St.

For speeding, William C. Marshall, 801 Altamont St., paid a fine of $1.30 and $3.70 costs. He was ticketed by state police Aug. 8 for driving 55 miles per hour in a 45-MPH zone on U. S. 41 in Ne-gaunsee.

Canadian and American Soos and attracted a great deal of attention. They assisted in the reception here for Miss Michigan.

When Operation Action — U. P. brought in the Lower Michigan members of the Action council, representing top management of some of Michigan's best known industries, members of the Boosters Club acted as greeters and guides. They drew favorable attention and several inquiries were made about them.

Called Major Basic Move

Larson said: "I feel the boosters club is one of the major basic moves the Chamber made this year in the area of civic relations and inter-city communications. The ultimate role of the club will be that of ambassadors of many-sided responsibilities and they could well be one of the most important groups within the chamber structure."

Robert J. Luke is currently serving as president of the club.

Goldwater Ponders Vote On N-Treaty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater appears to be struggling with a decision on the limited nuclear test ban treaty that could affect his 1964 GOP presidential aspirations.

If the Arizona Republican votes against ratification of a treaty he has called "one small step toward peaceful coexistence" of a kind that could only give "tyranny a protected sanctuary from which it can erode or attack freedom," he will set himself apart from a majority of politicians in both parties.

By a negative vote he would sharpen — if, indeed, they need sharpening — his foreign policy differences with President Kennedy. Kennedy is certain to be his party's nominee for a second term.

That the Democrats intend to plug the treaty in next year's campaign as a significant step toward world peace was indicated in today's issue of the party organ, "Democrat."

A front page story is bannered "Test Ban Support Grows." In mentioning opposition to the treaty, it refers to Goldwater as a "frequent ally" of the "far right-John Birch element."

'No' Vote
A "no" vote by Goldwater on the treaty would add to the already voluminous evidence that if he were the Republican nominee opposing Kennedy he would be no "me too" candidate.

Such a vote would put him at odds with a majority of his Senate GOP colleagues and probably the big majority of the party leaders.

Unsatisfied
He said in an interview that while he hasn't finally made up his mind he is inclined to vote against the treaty which would ban all but underground tests.

He said he has not been satisfied by pledges received from the

948 Employers In County Paid $9,360,000 In Taxable Wages In Three-Month Period

About 47,123 workers in the Upper Peninsula's non-farming businesses earned taxable wages under the old-age, survivors and disability insurance program, according to the latest edition of "County Business Patterns," George C. Franzen, social security district manager in Marquette, said today.

Five thousand six hundred and seventy-seven reporting units of employers of non-farm employees covered under the program paid out some $46,694,000 in taxable wages in the 15 Upper Peninsula counties during the first quarter of 1962.

56 With 100 Or More

The report shows 56 of the employing units reported 100 or more workers each at that time. The largest proportion of employment, 13,547 workers, was in the manufacturing industry with 3,798 employed in lumber and wood products.

Marquette County's share of the total amounted to 948 reporting units which paid out $9,360,000 in taxable wages and had 15 employing units reporting 100 or more workers.

The current edition of County Business Patterns is the 10th in a series showing county and industry statistics based on wage reports filed under the federal social security program. This edition is divided into 10 parts (15 books), one for the United States as a whole and one for each of nine geographic divisions. For five of the nine geographic divisions there are two books each.

Uniform Data

The data are uniform and comparable from state to state and county to county and are shown for many kinds of business under the following broad industry groups: agricultural services, forestry, and fisheries; mining; contract construction; manufacturing; public utilities; wholesale trade; retail trade; finance, insurance and real estate; and services.

The publication shows how many people work, where, and in what industries, and how much they are paid in taxable earnings. In addition to its use in administering the social security program, the publication is valuable to businessmen in analyzing market potentials and establishing advertising and sales programs, in analyzing the industrial structure of regional areas, and in making basic economic studies of small areas.

Can Buy Complete Set

Reference copies of "County Business Patterns" may be examined at field offices of the U.S. Department of Commerce, at district offices of the Social Security Administration and at many public libraries.

The complete set of 15 books of "County Business Patterns, First Quarter 1962," may be purchased. Individual books also can be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C., or to any U.S. Department of Commerce field office.

State Democratic Fund Collections Nearing $33,000

LANSING (AP) — The state Democratic Party reports that nearly $33,000 has been collected in its current fund drive.

Stuart Hertzberg, chairman of the party's finance committee, said the amount is about one-third of the immediate party goal of $100,000.

About $2,400 of the money collected has been sent back to 34 county and district committees in the first such move since October, 1961, State Chairman Zolton Ferency said.

County Sales Tax Figure U.P.'s Highest

Sales tax collections in Marquette County during June, based on May sales, totaled $228,064.06, the Michigan Department of Revenue reports.

The figure was the highest for any of the Upper Peninsula's 15 counties. Ranking second behind Marquette County was Delta County, where sales tax returns amounted to $146,066.74.

Taxes collected in Marquette, with a population of 19,824, amounted to $118,480.45 from 357 business establishments.

This compared with $105,891.07 collected from the 405 business establishments reporting in Escanaba (population 15,391), seat of Delta County.

In the remainder of Marquette County, excluding Marquette, a total of $109,583.61 was realized in sales tax returns from 543 places of business.

On the Marquette County Level, $18,791 came from dealers in building materials; $14,736 from general merchandise shops; $87,444 from food stores; $48,683 from automotive dealers; $9,436 from apparel shops; $8,927 from furniture stores; $17,261 from miscellaneous retail outlets and $22-

783 from non-retail businesses.

City Breakdown

In the City of Marquette, the total tax return broke down as follows: $10,807 from dealers in building materials; $11,085 from general merchandise shops; $37,691 from food stores; $26,732 from automobile dealers; $5,308 from apparel shops; $4,137 from furniture stores; $10,648 from miscellaneous retail outlets and $12,068 from non-retail businesses.

Peninsula County Totals

The Peninsula's 15 counties showed the following in June sales tax collections:

Alger, $27,799.01; Baraga, $23,861.01; Chippewa, $137,475.80; Delta, $146,066.74; Dickinson, $110,601.30; Gogebic, $81,927.91; Houghton, $136,972.60; Iron, $61,336.54; Keweenaw, $5,912.51; Luce, $25,981.61; Mackinac, $33,707.27; Marquette, $228,074.06; Menominee, $60,809.98; Ontongon, $35,373.38 and Schoolcraft, $36,323.58.

June sales tax collections in all of Michigan totaled $39,548,427.62. This was an increase in dollar volume of $1,868,712.25, or 4.96 per cent, over June 1962.

Cost Of Federal Roads

To what extent is the nation's road-building program digging into the pocket-books of Marquette County motorists? How much are local car owners paying toward it per year through their gasoline taxes?

The cost of the program and who is paying for it are of particular interest at this time because of a protest made by Congressman Oliver P. Bolton of Ohio to the "myth" that the 41,000-mile highway system is being built with federal funds. He asked that the thousands of signs along the highways that make this statement be removed as "clearly misleading." Actually, he pointed out, the money comes from special taxes collected from the nation's motorists.

The cost, for the average Marquette County driver, who clocks 10,000 miles annually and gets around 14 miles to the gallon, is a little over $30 a year. This is based on figures compiled by the Bureau of Public Roads. For those who use their cars to the extent of 15,000 miles a year, the bill is about $45. The total amount being contributed by local passenger car owners to the Highway Trust Fund is estimated at $583,200 a year.

Most of it is raised through the 4-cent-a-gallon levy on gasoline. The balance comes principally from taxes on tires and tubes, on diesel fuel and oil and on vehicles over a certain weight. All this is exclusive of the gas tax and other auto taxes being collected by the state.

The federal taxes were increased in October 1959, when it was found that the trust fund was running low. Higher road construction costs and changes in plans made it necessary to raise more money if the pay-as-you-build policy was to be maintained. As a result, the motor fuel tax, which had been 3 cents a gallon, was boosted to 4 cents. It meant an increase of more than $8 a year for the average driver.

Marquette County's car owners are now paying approximately $145,800 more per year because of the change.

In the nine years remaining to 1972, at which time the Interstate Highway System is supposed to be finished, it is expected that an additional $5,249,000 will be collected from local car operators in the form of federal auto use taxes.

Peninsula Perambulator

A recent account in this column about the search for artifacts and probable early Indian encampments by George I. Quimby of the Chicago Natural History Museum caused Jack C. Messenger, RR 2, Pioneer Road, Marquette, to write Quimby that he knows of two places where spear and arrow heads should be found. "It is possible that your Delta County sources may have overlooked them," Messenger wrote, adding that he had found them as a boy. There is a farm about four miles north of Rapid River where the owner has collected a few items, he told Quimby. Messenger said he had seen a stone axe weighing about two to three pounds which was found on this farm.

A state labor mediator will be asked to help settle contract differences between the Custodial Union of Sault Ste. Marie public schools and that city's board of education. Only $3 a year is reportedly separating the union and board from agreement on a contract. The board first offered custodians an annual increase of $150, then upped that to $166.40. Members rejected a request for an even $170 hike.

The work of overhauling and rebuilding the blast furnace of the Northern Iron Co. at the mouth of the Chocoyau River has been progressing steadily for some months past and is nearing completion. The stack now will be 50 feet high, and the new hot blast consists of five ovens and combustion chambers, located with the boiler, on a level with the top of the furnace. The work of dredging the channel to a depth of 14 feet is progressing favorably. This leads into the harbor where the iron and bituminous coal will be loaded and the pig iron shipped out.

Rublein's new brewery, just west of the city, is receiving all the attention that can be bestowed upon it, with the view of making it the model establishment of the kind in the state. The conveniences for making, cooling, storing and handling the product are the very best and the buildings and grounds are all neat and tasty. The farm at Franklin Station recently burned, but the old brewery was spared.

The new bridge being constructed by the town over the Carp River, near the furnace, is progressing steadily. The structure promises to be a substantial one.

A four-horse team drawing a stone truck started to run on Lake St. last Tuesday and made pretty good time until they were brought up against a corner of the gas works.

Let's have a yacht race. There are 15 or 20 yachts owned here in Marquette and our harbor is as fine a place as could be desired for a regatta. Having everything handy, why not get up a little sport? The offering of a citizens' prize for the first and second best sailing would undoubtedly induce a number of yacht owners to enter their boats for a race. We suggest the Argonaut Boat Club take hold of the matter and give us a taste of aquatic sports. Prizes could be procured with little exertion and a gala day had.

The academy of the Sisters of St. Joseph will open the next scholastic year on the first Monday in September. It is a very fine school and affords excellent satisfaction to all its patrons. The season lasts 10 months and the system embraces every useful and ornamental branch of a solid English education. Music, French, German and the making of artificial flowers are also taught, at extra cost. Board and regular tuition are $80. Pupils of all denominations are admissible and their religious opinions are not interfered with.

The project of paving Washington St. between Front and Third streets has been the subject of much discussion the past two months, was quietly put to sleep by the aldermen last evening and today it is likely the work of giving the thoroughfare its new macadam dressing will be resumed. The thing responsible for putting the quietus on the brick paving proposition was a petition in protest, signed by property owners representing about three-fourths of the frontage, so the action of the aldermen was only what might be expected.

Tourist Woes On Lake Superior Circle Route Finally Stemmed

The sleepy little Ontario town of Wawa, gateway to one of the few almost-trackless wildernesses left on the North American continent, has finally caught up with the times. It's taken three years and a $2,000,000 investment.

Ever since the completion of the Canadian portion of Highway 17, a spectacularly scenic route that winds for 1,127 miles around Lake Superior, Wawa has been the tourist's problem.

Ready For Anything It was a place where he slept in his car, where he had to wait all night for one of the few gasoline stations to open; it was a place where he often went without food for 12 hours until a restaurant owner threw open his doors.

But all that's been changed. This jumping-off spot along the greatest adventure road opened to Michigan tourists in the last 30 years is now ready for anything. That's the word brought back by an Automobile Club of Michigan reporting team.

Inexpensive Fishing "From completion of the highway in September 1960, until this year, there were no facilities on this highway which bisects a magnificent wilderness of 456 miles from the Soo north and west to Port Arthur-Fort Williams," says Jerry E. Fisher, Auto Club touring manager.

Today, from either Wawa or White River, one can fly via White River Air Service into total wilderness fishing lakes less expensively than anywhere else in the world, for $25 round trip.

Expanded Accommodations Motel rooms, all-night gas stations (in tourist season), restaurants and camping facilities have increased faster than visitor-needs as far as Wawa, 142 miles north and west of the Canadian Soo, the AAA team reports.

Unreachable by road until Ontario 17 was completed, Wawa has increased its overnight accommodations from 100 to 500 rooms. One motel just outside town with 100 rooms, cocktail bar and restaurant is not open yet, but another with 50 units has just opened. Wawa now has more than a dozen restaurants, with over 500 campsites in a 60-mile radius.

One can get a good full-course meal for $1.50, a clean motel room with bath for $5 single, $8 a couple, the AAA reports. A spur road from Wawa to Chapleau is now under construction.

Boom Town Wawa resembles Alaskan towns during World War II, with constant activity on its wide, partly-paved main street. Its population is 4,500, with Algoma Ore Co. employing 1,000. Algoma has erected a new, more realistic-looking replica of a goose beside the road at the east limits of Wawa, which means "Wild Goose" in Indian. Built by a Sault tradesman, its wingspread is about 25 feet. It is brown with a black neck and white-black head.

The Ontario Lands and Forests Department has 28 camp areas and roadside parks, plus many one-car camp spots along Ontario 17. When the road opened it had only eight camp areas. Private enterprise operates others. All provide fireplaces, chopped wood, water and outdoor toilets. Some have showers, hot water and electricity.

At White Lake Narrows there are more than 200 campsites with more being developed. They are seldom full except on weekends. Supervisor Aubrey Dunne says the AAA road team adds that those who wait until 10 or 11 p.m. to look for a motel at White River or Terrace Bay, or even Wawa some days, may not be able to pick and choose. But they will be able to find a room.

No Vacancy Signs Absent Ontario Travel and Publicity Chief Lionel McAuley at the Soo hasn't seen a "No Vacancy" sign on the road so far this year. Michigan resort owners' fears that I-75 would be a concrete tunnel and the Soo International Bridge a funnel pouring motorists into Canada without stopping in Michigan, have not proven true thus far, Fiser said. Michigan travel routing requests at AAA offices are up 17 per cent so far this year.

Straits Traffic Up Mackinac Bridge traffic is up 2.3 per cent through June 30 over 1962, and up 6 per cent in July over last year. International Bridge traffic from American to Canadian Sault is about double the ferry traffic of last year.

Economic impact of tourism and the road are just beginning to be felt in places like Wawa, White River and Terrace Bay. At Wawa, a conservative $2 million has been invested in motels alone, with dozen new restaurants, several department stores (including Hudsons Bay Co.) and supermarkets.

Rise Of Tourism Until the road came along, Terrace Bay, 300 miles west of the Canadian Sault existed just for processing of wood pulp. Now its residents find more income from tourists, and more facilities for recreation, almost weekly.

White River, a railroad division town, has suddenly found itself with gas stations to spare, several hundred visitors nightly. Tourism, begun in earnest only four years ago, is already competing strongly with the top two northern Ontario industries, mining and paper making.

About a third of those who drive this road are campers. AAA estimates it costs a non-camping couple driving and moving daily a total of $36 per day. About 4,000 cars move daily on this road, with their owners leaving behind $144,000.

Chance To See Moose So in the three summer months tourists are pumping over $15 million into the area.

Lures of the trip include a good chance to see moose, bear and other wildlife along the highway, unexplored lakes only a few steps off the road, and scenic vistas comparable to Scandinavia or Alaska's inland passage. The road goes through Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan.

sin and Michigan. Good Road Of smooth concrete or macadam almost all the way, it twists and turns as it follows Lake Superior, sometimes snaking inland and uphill through sand dunes and pine trees for a higher look. It ripples through rock gorges, snakes through swamps, hurdles the highlands. Much of the route is so close to Superior that one can almost get his wheels wet.

On much of the route there are absolutely no commercial developments, billboards, cross roads or traffic lights. Some of the overlooks just east of Port Arthur, near Terrace Bay and east of Wawa, match those of the fjords of Norway, with islands floating in blue waters and fingers of land jutting out to form small protrusions. Mountain-like terrain rises 2,000 feet, with some hills and cliffs along shore towering sheer up to 800 feet.

Wilderness Drive It is essentially a wilderness drive and there are scenic thrills in each area. That near Copper Harbor in Michigan's Keeweenaw Peninsula is hard to beat. Best spot for watching orer-loading on the Great Lakes is at Two Harbors, Minn., just north of Duluth. Superior and Bayfield, a Wisconsin fishing village, Porcupine Mountains, Houghton, Copper and Eagle Harbors, Marquette, Pictured Rocks, Tahquamenon Falls and the American and Canadian Saults are on the route.

Hundreds of side roads beg to be explored from Trout Lake and Whispering Pines road just outside the Canadian Soo on north. Names of lakes on the trip describe it well: Beartrap, Jackfish, Nabikoba, Sawpit, Kawapitokia. Fishing along the road in Ontario has been good, with 1½ pound speckle (combination of speckled and lake trout) to be caught at lakes right on Ontario 17 for the first time this year. Wawa and White River offer flights into wilderness 50 miles from a road. For $40 a week including round trip flight, tent, camping equipment, one can camp on a lonely lake. Guides charge $14 a day.

Five-Day Trip Fisher suggests planning at least five days for the circle trip around Lake Superior, or three days for the drive from Canadian Soo to Port Arthur, though this 456 miles can be negotiated in a long day of driving. He advises reservations of the staying overnight in White River or Terrace Bay.

Except for about five miles of construction in Pancake Bay area, 32 miles north of the Soo, and a few miles of narrow asphalt, the entire highway is good, wide road, with plenty of turnouts for scenic views and plenty of lonely camp spots beside small lakes right on the road.

Slowest Pace In Years While the city waits, Congress, bumbling along at the slowest pace in years, continues to drag its feet and may be here until the end of the year.

The center of this quiet stage is occupied now, and will be for a couple of weeks, by Senate hearings on the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

That treaty, once approved, could be a fiendish embarrassment to the Kennedy administration if the Russians then try tricks to American disadvantage.

Risk Acknowledged If nothing goes wrong, it will be an asset to President Kennedy in seeking re-election. If it goes wrong it will be an issue in the 1964 campaign.

The administration, conscious of both possibilities, acknowledges risk but insists the treaty's advantages outweigh the disadvantages.

The two most likely Republican presidential candidates as of now — New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater — are conscious of the for and against possibilities too. Both have provided themselves an "I told you so" if the treaty proves a dud.

Wide Popular Support The treaty has wide popular support, it seems sure to pass the Senate by a wide margin, and neither Rockefeller nor Goldwater has come out against it. Rockefeller, in fact, has suggested it be approved but then he added a list warning of things to look out for. But most of the things he warned about already had been discussed in one way or another by the administration. For instance, he said this country should "pursue research and development in the vital area of antimissile defense."

He said that Sunday, Aug. 11, but on Aug. 1 at his news conference Kennedy said developing an antimissile missile is "beyond us and beyond the Soviets."

He was supported in this Tuesday by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, testifying before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He said developing an antimissile system is something neither the United States nor Russia has solved. But he didn't say it was impossible.

Goldwater Adds Warning And Tuesday Goldwater, who hasn't yet gone as far as Rockefeller in saying the treaty should be supported, added his warning. He hammered on the antimissile business, too, saying he wants "iron-clad assurance" development in this field won't be inhibited by the treaty. Goldwater is an Air Force Reserve major general.

McNamara told the committee: "I know of no one of my senior scientific advisers and no one on the Joint Chiefs of Staff who recommend against the treaty with safeguards."

Arguments about the treaty should provide the most excitement in Washington until the civil rights demonstration.

Two outstanding exceptions have been CBS' indestructible Lucille Ball and NBC's Shirley Booth of "Hazel." Both are comedienne.

New Shows Two new comedy shows, incidentally, will join "Hazel" by having their stars playing domestic: Imogene Coca in NBC's "Grindl," and Inger Stevens in ABC's "Farmer's Daughter."

Glynis Johns in CBS' "Glynis" will be a happy housewife and mystery writer.

Bea Benadett will be the central figure in CBS' "Petticoat Junction," playing a widowed hotelkeeper. And Patty Duke will play two look-alike girls on her ABC series, Edie Adams, of course, will hit comedy hard on her variety show on ABC.

Of course there will be the usual number of comely young women playing wives in the family situation comedies, but only Donna Reed of the ABC show of the same name can claim star status.

Washington In Slow Swirl

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Washington is in a slow swirl, psychologically and politically. It waits for the massive civil rights demonstration Aug. 28, hoping that whole memorable day will go off peacefully.

Rail Strike Looms Negotiations between railroads and unions are stalemated. Unless some way is found to stop it, there will be a railroad strike Aug. 29.

The arrival and departure of 100,000 or more demonstrators in one day, even if everything is peaceful, will be an unforgettable burden.

But to have the demonstration followed the next day by a rail strike would be piling climax on climax.

The National Whirligig

The News News Behind

BY ANDREW TULLY WASHINGTON—A frightening thing happened the other day in Chicago. A proposal for an amendment to the Constitution reversing the Supreme Court's reapportionment decision was defeated by a mere 136 to 74 votes by the American Bar Association's House of Delegates.

Ordinarily, 136 to 74 would be considered a "comfortable" margin, but not on this issue. What this result meant was not that 136 lawyers opposed the proposal, but that 74 actually were confused enough, or ornery enough, to vote FOR it. It meant that a proposal to undermine one of the nation's vital branches of government was considered proper by more than one

Dear Abby....

BY ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 22 years, but my husband and I are only good friends. Ten years ago I met a married man. He and his wife had nothing in common, so he courted me and we became sweethearts. He joined my husband and son and me for weekend trips and we were like one big happy family. All my friends knew he was crazy about me but out of charity, we were careful not to let his wife find out. Well, last week his wife called and told me her husband admitted everything, and if I didn't get out of their lives, she would tell my husband and son. If she breaks up my marriage, I'll have nothing left. I never wanted to hurt her Abby. She wasn't a good wife. I gave up years of my life making her husband happy. I never ran after him. He ran after me. Now when I call him he refuses to talk to me. How can I get him back?

They aren't satisfied unless they know everything. NEW CITIZEN

DEAR NEW CITIZEN: Send me your name and address and I'll do your Hungarian husband a favor.

DEAR ABBY: I was taught to tell the truth, but I am tempted to start lying. A girl in our office can't compliment anyone on her shoes, blouse, purse or anything she wears without asking, "Where did you get it and how much was it?" She's asked me about several new things I've worn, and, not knowing how to get out of it, I've told her. Then she shows up at work all smiles in the identical thing. How do I put a stop to this?

ANNNOYED
DEAR ANNOYED: Tell her pointedly that you think her

BROKEN-HEARTED
DEAR BROKEN-HEARTED: How many "husbands" do you think a woman is entitled to make happy—at one time, that is? Your "sweetheart" turned sour, and your little game is over. Leave him alone, and be grateful that your unknowing but betrayed husband is still a "good friend."

DEAR ABBY: I don't know if you will understand this or not because I can hardly understand it myself. The man I am marrying insists that I write to you and tell you that we are getting married and we would like to have a book on married life. I would not do this under any other circumstances, but I love this man and if it will make him happy it is not too big a favor to grant him. He is Hungarian. Maybe that will explain it.

Improvements Noted By Chamber In Refuting 'Slum Area' Criticism

ISHPEMING — Residents of this city were quick to contradict the remarks of a former resident who feels Ishpeiming has degraded to such an extent as to be labeled a slum area, the Ishpeiming Chamber of Commerce declared today in a statement.

"Feelings of homeowners and businessmen in this fair city of some 10,000 friendly individuals have it that Ishpeiming, although there's room for civic improvement (and what city is there where something more can't be done?), has come a long way in providing a good city, a city with efficient government and conscientious businessmen as well.

"To make such an issue of a few weeds and several buildings of questionable appearances is in poor taste, because something is being done. Though not rapid, improvements are being accomplished. Just because homeowners and business people are not glory seekers or publicity hounds is no reason for them to be included in a remark which puts them into the middle of a 'slum' area.

"All a person has to do is to take a stroll through the business district and much of the residential area to know that great strides are being taken to improve the city as a whole."

The City of Ishpeiming, operating more or less on a shoestring, still provides services for its residents for which other cities would charge extra taxes or fees, the chamber noted.

"While it is possible that the City of Ishpeiming may be lax in enforcing certain ordinances pertaining to property, it still has to be commended for what it has done and what it is doing," the statement continued. "It should be noted that municipal employees in many cases are doubling up on tasks that ordinarily are performed by one department or group. This is due to the loss of mining valuations and the policy of the city is not replacing workers, a policy which is not desirable but one which has been proven necessary.

"How anyone can say Ishpeiming has 'regressed' practically back to the day it was a newly settled mining camp and 'is by far one of the ugliest towns' is beyond our comprehension.

"A mention of remodeling of business places in the downtown area of Ishpeiming was made and opinion expressed by an individual who does not believe is qualified to pass judgment on the ability of local contractors who worked on such projects.

No Longer 'Boom Town' "It must be remembered that

Ishpeiming no longer is a 'boom town' as was the case when mining activity were at its peak and the cash outlay was tremendous. "Ishpeiming is operating its businesses here to fill the needs of its people and in doing so store owners are making improvements as they see fit, using good judgment in deciding whether or not to tear down or remodel."

Businessmen here take pride in their city. There is a Retail Division of the Ishpeiming Chamber of Commerce, designed to give each and every businessman an opportunity to express his view on business in general. Without such an organization, business affairs would reflect an individualist approach to the community's way of life.

"Sure, there's more to a city than stone and brick, streets and sidewalks," the chamber declared. "There are the people responsible for all of this. Those who took over where their forefathers left off are now the nucleus of a city which has gained fame throughout the United States and one which gained its share of recognition throughout the world."

Aware Of Renowned Figures "Many distinguished personalities have grown up in this city, but there's no need to go into this subject, as all Ishpeiming residents are aware of its renowned figures. "Getting back to the city as a whole, there are numerous bright spots which overshadow the gloomy ones.

"How many churches have been renovated? How many stores have completely remodeled their buildings, some inside and some outside, even when the tax structure was such that the venture took courage and foresightedness? What have our financial institutions been doing over the years? What about our school system? What about the City of Ishpeiming's accomplishments? Why the sewage plant and the new south area sewer project? What about the recreational facilities?"

"We could go on and on, but it should be obvious that Ishpeiming is on the way up, not on the way down. Take a better look around you, disregard the unfavorable aspects to some degree and commend the spirit of those who have the courage and stamina to build for the future.

"Perhaps we do need a 'little elbow grease,' but that's about all. "Ishpeiming is taking strides in beautification of its city, and an organization which has taken it upon itself to stimulate residents in such a venture is the Women's Civic League."

Not Slum Area "One can't say Ishpeiming's residential area is a slum area, because it is not. Sure, there are homes which need a coat of paint and others which need new siding. What town hasn't these problems? There's need for improvement.

ASCS Field Group Meets In Munising

ASCS Field Group Meets In Munising

MUNISING — Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service field men of Michigan met Thursday and Friday at the Forest Inn, Munising. Members of the state office staff from Lansing gave up-to-the-minute reports on price support, performance, production adjustment, conservation, safety and administrative programs.

Carl Shumway, chairman of the state committee, related the progress and goals of ASCS. Frank Light, member of the committee, reviewed farm legislation pending in Congress. Frank Switzer discussed coordinated efforts of the U.S. Department of Agriculture agencies.

Guest speaker for the meeting was Gardner Smith, from the northeast area ASCS office of Washington, D.C. His "Message from Washington" revealed efforts of ASCS toward the development of natural resources. If anticipated legislation is passed by Congress, some of the present cropland may be converted to other uses to satisfy the recreational needs of millions of midwesterners, thus adding to the income of many farm families in this area.

Mining Community Of 600 Taking Ride To New Location

TAHAWUS, N.Y. (AP) — The hamlet of Tahawus is packing its children, its bags, its houses and its churches and moving 10 miles down the road.

There the drab mining community of 600 persons will be transformed into Winebrook Hills, an 80-acre place with home owners, taxes, circular drives and streets

State Police Ticket Driver In Smashup

ISHPEMING — A motorist was ticketed and four vehicles were damaged in three area traffic smashups reported this morning by state police from the Marquette post.

At 12:10 Saturday afternoon an automobile being driven north on County Road 494 by Charles Baldine, 37, Route 1, Ishpeiming, smashed into the rear end of a car operated by Paul LaFreniere, 32, Route 1, Ishpeiming, at County Road 583, in Ishpeiming Township. Excessive speed

State police said LaFreniere was stopped for the stop sign and Baldine was unable to stop.

The rear end of LaFreniere's 1953 coach and the front end of Baldine's 1957 station wagon were damaged. Both cars were driven from the scene under their own power.

State police issued Baldine a summons for excessive speed — failing to stop in the assured clear distance ahead.

An automobile being driven west on U.S. 41 by James Belanger, 20, Champion, was struck by a deer which ran out from the south (left) side of the highway, just east of County Road 496, in Ely Township, at 2 a.m. yesterday.

Crane Goes Out Of Control

State police said the deer ran into the left door of Belanger's car, a 1957 station wagon, which was driven from the scene under its own power.

At 3:50 Saturday afternoon the front wheel spindle of a 1948 crane operated by Paul Gresl, 37, Appleton, Wis., broke, causing the crane to go out of control and crash into the ditch on the right side of the highway, just west of the Soo Line Railroad Co. crossing, in Humboldt Township.

The mishap occurred as Gresl was driving the crane west on U.S. 41. A wrecker was used to tow away the crane.

bearing elegant names like Henderson Lane.

Town To Tumble Into Mine

It is suburbia with a difference. Winebrook Hills is in the middle of the highest peaks in the Adirondack forest.

Tahawus — a company town built in the rush of World War II — eventually will tumble into the open-pit titanium mine that has crept to within several hundred feet of Main Street.

The mine is owned by the National Lead Co. and its product is used as pigment in paint and plastics. The town, too, is owned lock, stock and schoolhouse by the company. So when it was discovered that the titanium deposit extended under the village, the company ordered the move.

77 Units Being Moved National Lead bought the site of Winebrook Hills in the town of Newcomb from a paper company, built sewers and a water system and hired Carl Tuxill of Weedsport to move 77 units, including houses, apartment dwellings and two churches.

The exodus began the week of Aug. 4. Down the winding highway aboard a trailer rolled the log-cabin Episcopal church. A 1½-story house was moved on a separate rig. The trip took 2½ hours and only a couple of bashed highway guard rails testified to their passage.

The job is to be completed before winter sets in.

A shrug of the shoulders is the principal reaction of the residents of Tahawus — pronounced Tah' — was locally.

Not Much Difference

"I can't see much difference, we'll have the same neighbors," said Francis Abare, a filter-operator who has been here for 17 years.

Abare lives in one of the barracks-like apartment buildings. In Winebrook Hills, he will live in the same apartment, with the same neighbors. Only the view will be different. The $49 a month he pays for his five rooms will go up $15 but he doesn't mind.

Hare Next Governor — Only For Five Days

LANSING — Michigan has a new governor this week — but just for five days.

While Gov. Romney officially is on vacation and Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski is in Hawaii, Secretary of State James Hare will take over chief executive duties. Lesinski is due to return Aug. 24.

'Old Ish' To Be Back On Pedestal This Week

ISHPEMING — "Old Ish" — victim of early-morning vandalism a few months ago — will be back on its pedestal this week.

Through the cooperation of many persons, the statue of the ancient Indian has been restored to its former composure and once again will proudly stand overlooking the business — "guardian of the city," as some residents regard it.

Repairs were effected, according to City Manager Thomas R. McNabb, mainly through the efforts of Roy Bennett, retired Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. metal worker who devoted numerous hours of painstaking work to create what might be described as a "new Ish."

Starting with a container of pieces which looked more like a jigsaw puzzle than anything else, Bennett accepted the challenge of a task which many believed was impossible to fulfill. He worked for weeks "under wraps," then notified city officials that the rejuvenation

David Johnson, of 221½ Kanter St., Negaunee, as the winner and the Kirkish Boot Shop named Leona Junak, Ishpeiming, as its winner.

The two registered at the stores during clearance sales conducted by the two store last week.

job was completed. It was then removed from his garage and taken to the city warehouse, where it will be painted by Edward Luoma of the Luoma Sign Co.

"The statue of 'Old Ish' will look even better than before as additional improvements have been made," McNabb said.

The improvements of which he spoke include a new arrow; replacement of the Indian's feathers (missing for years) and addition of the fingers which were broken off sometime ago.

Midland Man's Body Found In Higgins Lake

ROSCOMMON, Mich. (AP) — The body of Parker Frisselle, well-known Michigan broadcasting executive, was recovered in 40 feet of water in nearby Higgins Lake Friday.

Frisselle, 49, drowned Wednesday night when his sailboat overturned. State police skin divers found the body about a mile from shore. Frisselle was a member of the board of Midland Mid-State Broadcasting Corp. and was director of market research for Dow Chemical Co. at Midland.

Approximately 60 per cent of U.S. hotel and motel rooms are air conditioned.

Water Program Ends; Over 300 Took Part

NEGAUNEE — One of the most successful swimming programs in several years ended during the past week when swimming and non-swimming groups each spent complete days at Van Riper State Park. More than 300 children registered for the summer program, and with ideal weather prevailing for most of the eight-week period, which got under way in June, attendance averaged two busloads of non-swimmers and one of swimmers each Tuesday and Thursday, according to Director Marshall Phillips. Cooperation and conduct of the youngsters both on the buses and while at Champion Beach was excellent, the director reported. The program was sponsored jointly by the City of Negaunee and Negaunee School District, with the municipality providing supervision and the schools bus transportation to and from the park. Miss Judy Korpinen served as swimming instructor.

'Certain Stagnation' In Tourist Business

PARIS (AP) — The latest figures on foreign visitors to France indicate "a certain stagnation" in the tourist business, according to a report of the committee on tourism of the National Assembly. The number of visitors increased only 3.3 per cent from 1960 to 1961, the report said, and preliminary figures showed a similar low growth rate from 1961 to 1962. In addition, the report said, foreigners are tending to stay shorter periods in France, an average of about 2.5 days.

School Audit Reveals Books Don't Balance

BLUE RIVER, Ore. (AP) — The McKenzie School Board ordered an audit of the school's student body fund after questions were raised about the possibility of an unauthorized deficit. The auditor's report showed that there was $70 more money in the fund than was on the books.

Freed From Wreck, Car Crash Victim Pulls Gun On Cops

PERU, Ind. (AP) — Police reported a seriously injured Michigan boy pulled a gun on them after they worked 15 minutes to free him from the wreckage of a stolen car they said he had been driving. Sheriff David Richardson said the boy, Patrick P. O'Grady, 15, of Muskegon, lost control of the car on a U. S. 31 curve eight miles south of Rochester, and it collided with another car. The sheriff said he and State Trooper Lawrence Wagenknecht, who had been freeing the boy, subdued him. O'Grady is under police guard in Dukes Hospital with a possible skull fracture. Richardson said the car had been stolen from Dr. Philip Frandsen in Muskegon.

High School Registration At Gwinn

GWINN — Junior high school and high school students who will attend Gwinn public schools this fall are to register at the high school library Aug. 22, 23 or 26, according to Principal Henry Sherry. Registration will be conducted from 9 a. m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p. m. Students who will attend grades 7 through 12 for the first time in the Gwinn system will be required to take tests in mathematics and English Aug. 27 at 1 p. m. They should report to the high school guidance offices. Sherry urges all new students or parents registering new students to bring report cards or any credentials they might hold that will indicate credits earned in other schools.

Pair Convicted In Mob Violence Case In Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Two men were convicted of assault and battery in connection with mob violence outside Detroit's Vernor Precinct police station. Three persons were injured July 12 in a rock-throwing demonstration over the police shooting of Kenneth Evans, 18. Evans was killed as he ran from a car which police said was stolen. Convicted were Lawrence Mozham, 22, and William T. Feeley, 23, both of Detroit. They will be sentenced Aug. 30. A third defendant, James Minor, 25, also of Detroit, was acquitted of the same charge by a jury in recorder's court.

2 To Attend State School Board Confab

NEGAUNEE — Two members of the Negaunee Board of Education will attend the annual meeting of the Michigan Association of School Boards Sept. 11-12 in Detroit. At a special meeting of the board, Peter J. Ghiardi was designated the voting delegate from the Negaunee School District and Leslie W. Richards was named alternate. Richards, elected president of the state organization in 1962, will preside. He has been active in the organization for several years, and prior to assuming the presidency served as first and second vice president.

CCI Water Plea Hearing Wednesday

NEGAUNEE — In accordance with state laws, a public hearing will be held at 1 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 21, in the Negaunee City Hall council chambers on an application by Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. for permission to divert a quantity of water made available by a dam on Schweitzer Creek. According to the application, Cliffs plans to divert water from Schweitzer with the exception of a minimum flow of 1,400 gallons per minute, for use in beneficiation of low grade ores at the Empire Mine currently under development at Palmer. Following the Schweitzer Creek hearing, a second public hearing will be held in the council chambers on a company proposal to utilize Green Creek for disposal of processing wastes from iron ore beneficiation tailings basins. Interested persons have been invited to file their views and data in writing in advance of the hearing with the State Water Resource Commission at Lansing.

School Chief Lauds Drum, Bugle Corps

ISHPEMING — The Ishpeming Blue Notes Drum and Bugle Corps, honored at a dinner Saturday night in the Mather Inn, was lauded for its outstanding achievements by W. C. Peterson, superintendent of Ishpeming public schools.

Nearly 100 persons attended the dinner honoring the 1963 state champions.

Robert Mantyla, president of the Blue Notes organization, in his "recognition address," expressed the sentiments of the entire corps for the support received over the years.

Six Given Medals

Robert Sturm, Ishpeming, American Legion commander, presented medals to outgoing members of the Blue Notes — Peter Tasson, Jim Sarvello, Fran Mantyla, Bruce Mantyla, Bradley Gleason and Neil Granlund.

Past State Legion Commander Joe Paul was presented with the latest picture of the Blue Notes.

"I was very pleased to serve as state commander and especially so because of our Blue Notes Drum and Bugle Corps. Words can't describe the feeling we had when this unit strutted down Woodward Ave. in Detroit after their triumphant performance.

"You youngsters have done a lot for Ishpeming, the American Legion and yourselves. Through participation in such an organization, you have matured, made new acquaintances and have broadened your experience."

Paul also commended the Parents Club for the time and effort spent in working with the corps.

Peterson had nothing but praise and appreciation for the corps. "I can't figure out how this perfection was attained," he said, but before he ended his talk he answered his own query by declaring:

"Through hours and hours of work, the corps reached the point they had strived for. When speaking of the corps, I mean also the very fine supervision and undying determination of its leaders.

"As long as this type of leadership exists, the Ishpeming Blue Notes Drum and Bugle Corps should flourish, win or lose, and heads will be held high.

Discipline 'Terrific'

"These people have done a much better job with you than we in the teaching field. The discipline you have established in the corps is terrific. Carry it on in life and everyone of your reach the goal you are seeking.

"There is no easy way to succeed. Your work habits have been marvelous and your efforts have paid off. I congratulate each and everyone of you. You can be sure democracy will live on a long time as long as we have Americans such as these."

Following the dinner, members of the corps enjoyed a dance at the inn.

Gardner originated the "Duffy" show for radio when he was a producer. He stepped into the Archie role when he could not find another good mug type for the role. (AP Wire-photo)

Kansans Can't Eat Snakes In Public

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Just to keep the record straight: It's against the law to eat snakes, tarantulas or other reptiles in public in Kansas.

In fact, a law forbids you to even pretend to eat such items publicly.

Another old law requires every theater, public hall or building in the state to provide sufficient spittoons or cuspidors. The same applies to railway cars.

And in Topeka, a city ordinance prohibits citizens from running an opium den — or frequenting one.
