Navy Foresees Impracticality Of Non-Nuclear Surface Fleet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy believes U.S. atomic know-how is moving ahead so rapidly that before long it will be dollar-foolish to build surface warships with fuel oil engines rather than nuclear power plants.

It is supported by the Atomic Energy Commission, which in effect touched off the current dispute between the Defense Department and the Navy.

Many months ago, it was learned, AEC Chairman Glenn Seaborg suggested to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara that nuclear power costs were coming down and that the Pentagon should give thought to wider application of atomic power to surface vessels.

May Yet Win War The Navy may have lost the first battle—but with powerful backing on Capitol Hill it may yet win the war.

Naval Hero, Alan G. Kirk, Dead At 74

NEW YORK (AP) — Adm. Alan G. Kirk, 74, a naval hero who spent 40 years in military service and then went on to high diplomatic assignments, died today in Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center.

Kirk entered the hospital Sept. 1 for treatment of a heart ailment. He resigned last April as ambassador to Nationalist China because of ill health. He had held the post for almost a year.

Kirk retired from the Navy in 1946 to accept appointment as ambassador to Belgium and minister to Luxembourg.

He later served three years as ambassador to Russia and for a brief period as director of the country's Psychological Strategy Board.

When Allied soldiers stormed into Sicily in 1943, Kirk led a task force that landed a division in less than half the scheduled time and without the loss of a single ship.

In the invasion of France on June 6, 1944, Kirk commanded the huge U.S. Naval task force that landed Allied troops and supported them by bombarding enemy installations on the Normandy beaches.

Decorations For his part in the invasion of Sicily, Kirk was invested as honorary Knight Commander of the Bath and received the U.S. Legion of Merit.

Other honors which he held included the Army Distinguished Service Medal and the French Legion of Honor.

Convict Escapes From Jackson JACKSON — A prisoner slugged a feed mill foreman and fled from Southern Michigan Prison today.

Prison officials identified him as Willie Wilson, 21, who was sentenced last summer from Detroit to serve 2 1/2 years for burglary.

Wilson, who was employed outside the walls in the feed mill, slugged foreman Charles Ruggles. He fled in Ruggles' automobile.

Nuclear Carrier Spat May Erupt At Quiz Of Nitze

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's appointment of a new Navy secretary may set off a chain reaction leading to congressional explosion over a tentative Pentagon decision to deny the Navy any more nuclear carriers.

When Paul H. Nitze, named Monday to succeed Fred Korth, comes before the Senate for confirmation, it seems certain he will be asked for his views on the continuing controversy over whether carriers should be phased out in favor of missiles and missile-firing submarines.

Korth, who said he was resigning to "attend to my pressing private affairs," probably will be asked to explain if his decision had any connection with his apparently futile efforts to get a new nuclear carrier built.

Associates said his defeat in the nuclear power argument sped his decision to quit.

Some Congress members said they thought Korth's action stemmed from the row over the controversial TFX warplane contract award, and Sen. Carl

T. Curtis, R-Neb., said Korth will be questioned again about it.

Korth has told the Senate Investigations subcommittee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., that a bank he formerly headed in Fort Worth, Tex., joined several others in making a loan to the General Dynamics Corp.

General Dynamics was given the TFX contract by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara despite a claim by the Boeing Co. that it could produce the TFX — tactical fighter, experimental — cheaper. Korth supported the award to General Dynamics.

The nomination of Nitze, 55, will go to the Senate Armed Services Committee.

In announcing the Navy switch the White House disclosed that Korth wrote his resignation last Friday—the same day he persuaded McNamara to reconsider a tentative decision against permitting the Navy to install nuclear power rather than conventional engines in its new supercarrier.

Police Chief Testifies On Mafia Terrorism

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate probes heard testimony today of Mafia terrorism in central Florida's gay playland—killing and racketeering too carefully managed by a national crime syndicate for any local police force to crush.

Police Chief Neil G. Brown of Tampa told the Senate Investigations subcommittee there have been 23 "gangland slayings" in the Tampa area since 1928, only one of them solved.

Brown said the killings show "how the Mafia uses murder to discipline its membership, to revenge itself against violators of its code and to otherwise eliminate opposition to its criminal activities and goals," and how difficult it is to get witnesses to talk.

Of 145 homicides other than gang killings between 1958 and the end of 1962, he said, only four remain unsolved, and every homicide in the 1960-62 period has been solved.

Brown appealed for federal help for the police of all states and cities in the war on organized crime in which, he said, there are too many frustrations now.

Telephone Taps He urged Congress to legalize police tapping of telephone lines, provide federal grants to help finance the training of local police specialists in gang-busting techniques, and create a national clearing house for criminal intelligence "to help all police agencies coordinate efforts.

News In Brief

LANSING — Gov. George Romney indicated today he could accept "nothing less" than a tax reform program that provides his main objectives of tax equity for low income groups, business and local governments.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — An intensified buying boycott by Negroes against downtown stores has been urged by integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

LANSING — Milton Bergman, chief of the Conservation Department Fire Control Division, said today Gov. George Romney will be asked to issue a proclamation forbidding fires and smoking in the woods unless there is a change for the better in the weather outlook.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — The United States and the Soviet Union put final touches today on a joint effort to bar nuclear weapons from outer space and clear the way for new disarmament negotiations.

SEOUL, Korea — South Korea elected a president today, choosing between strongman Chung Hee Park and Yun Po-sun, whose party charged election fraud and accused the military of browbeating voters.

LONDON — The British Cabinet met for two hours today but announced no decision about a successor to ailing Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

WASHINGTON — The administration's $11-billion tax cut bill ran into rough going before the Senate Finance Committee today. Before secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon could even begin his plea for quick action, two Democratic senators protested what they said were intimidation and pressure tactics in behalf of the bill.

first battle—but with powerful backing on Capitol Hill it may yet win the war.

Secretary of the Navy Fred Korth's abrupt resignation, announced Monday, appears the tipoff that McNamara probably will deny the Navy permission to install nuclear engines in a new aircraft carrier for which Congress last year voted $280 million.

The Navy is not talking about the studies it made to support its bid for the new carrier and, beyond that, for all future warships heavier than 8,000 tons.

But certain members of Congress are aware of the Navy findings, and the matter may come out on the public record if hearings are held.

Cost is a pivotal factor both on the issue of the carriers' future as a weapon either conventionally or atomic-powered, and the longer range matter of building warships of various kinds with nuclear power plants.

The United States some years ago made a start on a nuclear surface fleet but the Pentagon changed direction when costs began getting out of hand. The $5,000-ton Enterprise, world's first and only nuclear carrier, ran up a bill of $474 million.

But Seaborg reported to McNamara that technological progress had been so marked that four nuclear engines installed in the new carrier could furnish about as much power as the eight reactors that propel the Enterprise.

He also said that the new type engines could use atomic fuel with more than double the life expectancy of those used in the Enterprise's engines.

Navy studies that followed showed that the costs of installing atomic power plants were dropping and are expected to drop even more. The nuclear engines also are expected to improve in output of power and in simplicity.

The prospects are so hopeful that atomic experts in the AEC and the Navy are giving serious thought to the practicality of mounting nuclear engines in fighting ships as small as 4,500-ton guided missile destroyers.

McNamara's experts reportedly have estimated it would cost another $180 million to build the next carrier with atomic power. The Navy's calculations arrived at a figure nearly $60 million lower.

Bound up in the whole question is the future size of the Navy's powerful carrier forces.

There have been strong hints that key defense officials are inclined to cut the Navy attack carrier fleet from 15 vessels to perhaps 13.

They reason that the advent of long range missiles and Polaris missile-firing submarines has reduced the former importance of the carrier as a strategic weapon and that the cost of maintaining the carrier strike force at their present levels is not justified by the contribution they can make to fighting limited war.

The Navy challenges this view contending that for the foreseeable future there is no readily available, powerful enough force comparable to the carrier task group to apply U.S. might in overcoming brush fire crises in far flung areas of the globe.

McNamara is reported to have proposed keeping the attack carrier force at 15 ships into 1970, then dropping one carrier a year for two years and leveling off at 13.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — The Civil Service Commission today denied a test case appeal of a state trooper who had asked six years back pay for overtime. The case conceivably could involve some $20 million in state funds for similar overtime pay.

The appeal by Trooper Charles Weber of the Romeo Post was financed by more than 450 of his fellow officers. Weber's attorney's already have promised to take the case to the courts.

Trade Bloc Backs Off In Chicken War

BRUSSELS, Belgium — The European Common Market backed down today and agreed to submit its chicken war with the United States to an impartial panel for settlement.

The European Ministerial Council, ruling body of the six-nation trade group, accepted an American proposal that the issue involved in the shipment of American frozen poultry to Western Europe be examined by a group of foreign trade experts.

U.S. Proposal Under the American proposal, each side would nominate an expert, and a third member of the panel would be named by the international trade organization known as the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade with headquarters in Geneva.

The panel would look into U.S. claims that the overseas sales of American poultrymen have been damaged to the tune of $46 million by the Common Market's tariffs. The U.S. government has been plugging for a reduction in European tariffs on American frozen poultry.

The Americans already have declined a 10-per cent cut in European duties as "small and uncertain."

The current European levy is 13.43 cents a pound. According to U.S. officials, this has cut deeply into U.S. shipments to the Common Market, particularly to West Germany.

Vatican II OK's Change In Language

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council voted overwhelmingly today to extend the use of local languages to the sacraments, keeping Latin only for the heart of the rites.

A majority of the council voted Monday to make the same changes in the Mass, but it failed of the needed two-thirds majority. The council's liturgical commission will rework the chapter and submit again to the council.

Today's vote approved the use of modern languages in the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, penance, matrimony and extreme unction.

The more than 2,000 prelates meeting in St. Peter's Basilica agreed to change the name of extreme unction—the Sacrament of Last Anointing—to "anointing of the sick." This was done to remove the fear-of-death overtones of the sacrament's present name.

Italians Will Rebuild Area

BELLUNO, Italy (AP)—The survivors of the Vaiont Dam disaster and the Italian government acted together today to bring life back to the desolate region.

Despite fears of another disaster, the death toll and the appalling destruction, there were signs the flood-stricken area might indeed live again.

Death Toll With the death toll estimate between 2,300 and 3,000, hundreds of persons still were missing. But army commanders leading recovery operations said it appeared pointless to keep up full-scale digging operations in the hardened mud much longer.

All taxation of communities in the area was suspended until further notice. Local budgets will be supplemented as needed. Special funds were voted to speed new construction.

Adenauer Says Farewell

Konrad Adenauer, right, bade farewell to the West German Parliament as chancellor today, saying his dream of a reunited Germany is possible only with the help of friends abroad. Adenauer, 87, has one more day in office. He will remain as acting chancellor until the Bundestag elects Ludwig Erhard, left, the vice chancellor, to succeed him. (NEA Telephoto).

Negro Realtor Runs For Mayor In Georgia City

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—Citizens of this Georgia city choose a Democratic candidate for mayor or today from among three persons—the first Negro ever to run for the office and two white segregationists.

All three agree that Negro integration leader Slater King has not a chance of winning the primary, but for different reasons.

King, 35, a native of Albany, says he hopes the campaign has helped members of his race to think politically.

"I am really interested in freeing the minds of Negroes because many of them feel that no Negro should aspire for high office," he said. King is a real estate broker.

White Candidates The white candidates are attorney James V. Davis and architect Edward V. Jones.

King, a former state representative, expressed the belief there will be a runoff and that King will be in it.

But, he said, "I don't think he has a chance of winning unless the white people sit down and don't go to the polls. People are rather excited about the election and I don't believe they'll do that."

Jones, who describes himself as "a Goldwater conservative," based much of his campaign on opposition to what he called federal interference.

"I am against socialism and in favor of states rights," he said. "I am against a biracial committee."

Failure of the city to establish a biracial committee to discuss Negro grievances is one of several issues which brought intermittent civil rights demonstrations and more than 1,200 arrests during the past two years.

Albany has a population of 58,000, including about 24,000 Negroes. There are an estimated 4,600 Negroes among the 16,436 registered voters.

Clinic Helps Reporter To Give Up Smoking

EDITOR'S NOTE: A month has gone by since AP staff writer Michael Keating and 59 other men attempted to quit smoking in an experimental clinic sponsored by Roswell Park Memorial Institute, New York State cancer-research center. Here is Keating's third report.

By MICHAEL KEATING

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—After 15 years and 109,500 cigarettes, I have quit smoking.

So have 29 other men—all of us taking part in an experimental stop-smoking clinic that bolsters will power with drugs and psychology.

The clinic has been under way for a month and I have not had a cigarette since it began. Desire for one is almost negligible. A month ago it dominated me.

Although clinic doctors are withholding final judgment on their work until six months have passed, my mind is made up—Roswell Park Memorial Institute has a technique that helps a smoker stop without too much of a wrench.

Of the 60 men who started in the clinic a month ago, 30 no longer are smoking, 19 have reduced their smoking by at least half, one man has cut back less than half, and 10 others dropped out.

When the clinic began, Dr. Charles A. Ross, the director, said that if 50 per cent quit smoking for six months he would consider the clinic a success.

Besides will power, the clinic employs the psychology of group action and two drugs—one to substitute for nicotine, the other to control appetite, which often increases sharply in the absence of smoking.

Drugs were given for the first two weeks to 30 of the men. The other 30 received imitations. Neither the doctors nor the participants know who received the drugs. This information is contained in a code that will not be broken until the six months have passed.

Reports Ross thinks that at least some of the men quit without benefit of the drug—lobeline, which stimulates the nervous system as does nicotine.

Participants in the experiment report varying reactions. Arnold Winer, a 28-year-old teacher, says, "I haven't had a cigarette since the clinic began and I haven't missed them."

Donald R. Denk, 38, a lawyer who decided to quit smoking after suffering a perforated ulcer, reports "I stayed off about 10 days." Then came a cocktail party, and he flunked.

Passes Tests He is smoking about a pack a day, half of his previous consumption.

I have passed the cocktail test and the other tests — drinking coffee, facing tense situations, arguing politics, all without benefit of cigarettes.

U.S. Denies Airlift Of Moroccans

ALGIERS — Algiers Radio claimed today that Algeria forces have recaptured two desert outposts taken by Moroccan troops Monday.

The Algerians said Moroccan troops supported by tanks, planes and heavy artillery swept up to 60 miles over the border Monday in the area of Hassi-Beida and Tinjoub, the outposts.

The Algerian government never officially admitted that the two places fell to the Moroccan invaders. But today, the radio announcer said in a triumphant voice:

"Our forces have cleared the invaders from Hassi-Beida and Tinjoub."

The broadcast said the Moroccan forces were bringing in heavy reinforcements. It alleged that some of the Moroccan troops were airlifted to the fighting area in planes piloted by American airmen, members of a U.S. military training detachment with the Royal Moroccan Air Force.

The declaration that American airmen were involved was denied in Rabat, Morocco, by Col. Thomas McClung of Leivay, W.Va., chief of the U.S. Military Assistance group in Morocco. McClung said: "We haven't moved anybody."

Three bases of the U.S. Strategic Air Command are in western Morocco at Benguerir, Nouasseur and Sidi Slimane — far removed from the combat zone.

Investigators Probe Crash Of Helicopter

NEW YORK (AP) — Investigators probed the burned wreckage of a twin-engine helicopter today seeking to determine why it crashed, killing all six aboard.

The 10-ton Boeing Vertol 107 had just lifted off Monday for a seven-minute flight from Idlewild Airport to the East River heliport at the foot of Wall Street in Manhattan when it exploded about 100 feet in the air.

It was the first fatal crash in the 10 years that New York Airways has been shutting passengers between metropolitan airports.

The line grounded all helicopters after the crash, pending determination of the cause.

Only three passengers and three crew members, including a stewardess, were aboard the ill-fated craft. It had a passenger capacity of 25.

State Eyes Costly Plans

LANSING (AP)—Two proposals that could cost the state millions a year in pay raises for state employees have been taken under study by the Civil Service Commission.

The larger demand, built around an across-the-board pay hike of 49 cents an hour for all 32,000 classified workers, was submitted to the commission Monday by the Michigan State Employees Union.

Rival Proposal The other, based on a three per cent pay increase for all employees and a hike of 20 cents an hour for the six lowest classifications, came from the rival Michigan State Employees Association.

Both proposals will be considered on the basis of a report by the commission staff on wage levels in private industry and in other governments, with a decision expected in December.

Officials Using New Pest Control Weapon In Campaign Against Michigan Litterbugs

LANSING (AP) — Michigan has a new pest control weapon against an old enemy — the litterbug.

And police say the weapon, the new state anti-litter law, appears to be proving useful in keeping the state's roadways, beaches and parks clean.

In force less than six weeks, it has enabled State Police to arrest 14 persons. In a dozen other cases, offenders have volunteered to clean up their messes rather than be arrested.

"Some of these people are very happy to clean up the mess rather than face prosecution," says State Police Capt. Farrell Babcock.

Four of those arrested had to clean up the litter as part of their sentences. Two of these were in Genesee County and the others were in Wayne and Allegan counties.

Justice of the Peace Philip Labo of Flat Rock was among the first judges to implement the new statute — and with relish. The defendant, a Wyandotte resident, had to pay a $10 fine, $5 court costs, and also clean

"about a trailer-load" of litter from a roadside in Brownstown Township, about a mile from the Pointe Mouillie State Game Area.

"I feel the best thing to do with this type of offender is for him to get out there and pick the doggone stuff up," says Labo. He gave the defendant 72 hours to clean the site.

Forest Fire Conditions In Region Termed 'Explosive' Burning Index Tops 50 In U.P.

Conservation department officials said that conditions in most areas of the Upper Peninsula were "explosive" yesterday and that the fire danger was expected to be even worse today.

The burning index, which gives a numerical rating to the fire hazard, passed the 50 mark in many areas yesterday. A burning index of from 50 to 100 indicates that conditions are "explosive."

Strong winds would push the burning index up to 70 today, a conservation department official said. Winds today were expected to average between 10 and 20 miles per hour.

All department employees are on duty, just waiting for fires to break out. It's up to the people to prevent fires. The leaves in the woods are a foot thick and fires will start from anything at all.

Widely scattered showers predicted for tonight aren't expected to be sufficient to reduce the forest fire danger.

Rainfall Below Normal

Rainfall so far this month is more than an inch below the normal amount. There's been no rain at all on 10 days this month, a trace of rain on several days and a total of .18 of an inch on the second and third. Normal amount of rain for the month through today is 1.3 inches.

Tomorrow is expected to be partly cloudy and cooler, ending a stretch of perfect Indian summer days. However the prediction for Thursday is fair and a little warmer.

The sun has been out 100 per cent of the daylight hours for the past three days and the average temperature so far this month is 7.6 degrees above normal.

Hits 82 Here Yesterday the mercury went up to 82 at 4 p.m. and with a low of 60, the average was 21 degrees above normal. It was

A request to Gov. George Romney to declare a state of emergency in Upper Michigan forests was being considered by the regional conservation department headquarters today. John A. Angulum, field administration supervisor, said weather forecasts were being awaited before making the request. The forest fire danger throughout the U.P. was pointed up by the fact that all conservation officers are standing "fire call," with the department's three planes being used for continuous aerial patrol.

The third time this month that the temperature has been 80 or above, with highs of 85 Oct. 1 and 80 Oct. 5.

The high yesterday was two degrees below the record for the day, 84, in 1879.

Overnight the low was 62 in Marquette and 51 at the Marquette County Airport in Neegaunee Township. Meteorologist Fred Mueller reported.

Results Of 'Pays To Know' Drive In U.P. Under Study

Another "It Pays to Know" hospitality campaign has ended, and the results are being evaluated by tourist and resort specialists of Michigan State University's Extension Service here.

The campaign — part of a program through which the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, headquartered here, hopes its service people have become better hosts in catering to the needs and wants of visitors — involved "shopping trips" by tourist teams.

Just as they did in the first such venture in 1962, these "teams" visited resorts, motels, restaurants, gasoline stations and other establishments during the summer. The operator or employee of each was graded according to the service he extended, the way he answered questions or gave information on directions — in general, on his hosting ability.

The first portion of the program involved conducting of hospitality clinics last spring, sponsored by MSU's extension service, Upper Michigan Tourist Association, chambers of commerce and other civic agencies.

Tours to local points of interest were conducted. Those who passed tests at conclusions of the hospitality courses were issued certificates and CHUM (Certified Host of Upper Michigan) buttons.

As was the case last year, valuable prizes — both on the local as well as the Peninsula level — await the tourist and resort people who proved to be the "best hosts," as determined by the "shopping teams."

A "jackpot" again awaits the Peninsula's No. 1 host, who will receive a television set from Our Own Bakeries, Inc. of Marquette; an all-expense-paid 10-day vacation around the Upper Peninsula from the UMTA's "Who's Host" committee, and a $100 government bond from Kenman Associates of Houghton.

Family Goes, Too The "best host" winner, incidentally, won't have to go on that trip alone, since his wife and children, if any, will be able to accompany him without charge.

The family will receive about

Blaze Burns Camp North Of Here

Fire of undetermined origin last night destroyed a 24 by 20-foot frame cottage owned by Peter Meyers, Marquette, near Buckroe, off County Road 550, in Marquette Township.

The blaze was reported to city firemen at 8:40 p.m. by a group of Marquette persons returning to the city via Road 550. When firemen arrived at the scene the blaze had completely destroyed the camp. However, firemen were able to save a 20 by 24-foot cement block garage nearby.

Partly Covered By Insurance Both city and conservation department firemen battled a brush and forest blaze in the area surrounding the camp, with city firemen using the booster hose off the No. 5 (500-gallon) pumper and some pump cans to check the blaze.

Two conservation department crews and fire trucks were at the scene to battle the blaze, which burned a half acre of land.

The loss was partly covered by insurance, according to Fire Chief John W. Myers.

Chief Meyers said Meyers had been at his camp at 6 p.m. and said he had smelled smoke. He had investigated, he told the chief, but was unable to locate anything. Firemen said it was possible that the camp blaze started from a woods or brush blaze.

The motorists who spotted the blaze thought it was a forest fire, which would endanger some camps.

Three city firemen responded to the call and returned from the blaze at 11:13 p.m.

Grass Blaze Put Out

Marquette firemen also were called out at 2:57 yesterday afternoon to the home of Stephen L. Campbell, off County Road

Attorney General's U.P. Law Meeting Set Here Oct. 24

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley announced today that he will sponsor a law enforcement conference for the entire Upper Peninsula in Marquette on Thursday, Oct. 24. Marquette County Prosecuting Attorney Edward A. Quinnell will hold the conference.

The conference to be held at the Student Center, Northern Michigan University campus, will bring together state and area law enforcement officials for the purpose of exchanging ideas and discussing mutual problems.

On Frauds, Cheats The morning session will deal with problems relating to arrest and search and seizure, as well as a discussion on "How to Deal with Frauds and Cheats."

Following the morning session, Attorney General Kelley will conduct a luncheon meeting on juvenile delinquency.

Attending the luncheon will be representatives of service clubs, business organizations, churches, fraternal societies, and other groups from the Marquette area.

The goal of the luncheon is to shift the emphasis from crime detection and punishment to the prevention of crime.

'Looking Forward To Parley' Kelley said: "I am looking forward to holding a law enforcement conference in the Upper Peninsula. The reputation of the U. P. for fine cooperation and a high level of competence in the area of law enforcement is well known."

City Acts To Vacate Two Areas

Action was taken by the Marquette City Commission at its regular meeting in the city hall last night to vacate the rights-of-way of portions of Freestone and Brook Sts.

The commission adopted the standard form resolution to vacate, following a public hearing during which no one spoke for or against the proposed action.

The commission approved the immediate vacation of Freestone St., from the west right-of-way of U. S. 41 to Division St., and Brook St., south from Furnace St. to Quarry Pool.

Action was taken at the re-

Heikkala intends to divert Billy Butcher's Creek (Oriana Brook), which runs through his property, from its intersection with Freestone St. eastward through the vacated street.

Heikkala's contractor, Don Britton of Marquette, is installing water and sewer lines in Furnace St. from Division St. to the U. S. 41 right-of-way. The work is being done under the supervision of the city engineer, M. J. Keranen.

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP) — It was wet and gray in Quint City USA—but the people turned out in droves to say "Happy Birthday" to the Fischer quintuplets.

An estimated 20,000 to 25,000 lined Aberdeen's main street Monday for a mile-long, hour and a half parade honoring Andrew Fischer, his wife, Mary Ann, and their newborn — four girls and a boy.

This is a view from W. Kaye Ave. of the million dollar addition to the University Center at Northern Michigan University. The work, being done by Miller, Davis and MacDonald, of Kalamazoo and Marquette, was started during the spring and is expected to be completed by January. It will about double the size of the present University Center. The addition extends eastward from the University Center.—(Mining Journal photo).

Continuance Of Growth, Rise By NMU Predicted

Growth and rise to prominence of Northern Michigan University has been a great and continuing news story in Marquette.

The Mining Journal has followed and reported Northern's progress step by step.

10,000 By 1975?

A recent interview with Dr. Edgar L. Harden, president of Northern, indicates that Northern's progress to date is a forerunner of greater things to come.

President Harden said enrollment projections point to 7,000 students by 1970 and possibly 10,000 by 1975.

A 19 per cent increase to 4,344 students this fall lends weight to the projections. And Northern's new status as a university can be expected to serve as an added attraction and stimulant.

Three-Fold Program

"Northern will continue to provide a three-fold program of instruction, research, and service," Dr. Harden said. "The university will concern itself with quality and quantity in higher education. It will foster both the liberal and professional aspects of education, and it will maintain for students the right to try in a university environment."

Northern today is implementing all of the objectives, preparing for the time, not too far off, when enrollment will be double its present size.

Innovations Cited

The faculty continues to grow, in quality and quantity, along with the size of the student body, he noted. New methods of instruction to extend the benefits of good teaching are being added.

Innovations this fall included closed-circuit television and FM educational radio facilities, a language laboratory and electronic learning center, and the installation of computer equipment to modernize and expand data-processing functions and to help prepare students for opportunities in this field.

A visit to the campus reveals that new construction to meet the teaching and housing needs of more students is proceeding at a rapid rate.

New Building Opened

Opened for classes this fall was the new fine and practical arts building which houses the departments of music, art, dramatic arts, home economics and industrial arts.

"The emancipation of these departments from their cramped and obsolete quarters in Kaye Hall will permit the instructional program to develop in ways never before possible," Dr. Harden said.

Scheduled for completion in January is the addition to the University Center, which campus leaders predict will give Northern one of the outstanding conference centers in the Midwest. The new wing will accommodate the public services program and the growing number of student and alumni activities.

To the west of the present campus, construction has begun on a residence hall and food service complex, forerunner of many new buildings in this area. A new campus drive soon will loop through the area.

New Residence Hall

The new residence hall will accommodate 624 students as Northern continues to grow as a residential university.

What of the future? Dr. Harden said a 25-year development plan contains the guidelines for growth which will combine natural beauty and architectural design to create a climate of learning.

Plans are being drawn for a science building. Also scheduled for the future are a new library and an education building. Plans also call for more married student apartments and additional residence halls.

More Research Grants

Research grants to Northern are increasing, and the program will continue to grow, Dr. Harden said.

It is apparent, one concludes after talking with President Harden, that Northern will become increasingly important to Marquette, the Upper Peninsula, and the State of Michigan in terms of education, culture, and economic strength.

Appeal Board Meets Here At 7:30 Tomorrow

Marquette's board of appeals will hold a regular meeting at 7:30 tomorrow evening in the city hall.

The appeal board, comprised of five members appointed by

Five City Traffic Control Measures Made Permanent

Several traffic control measures which have been in effect for 90 days or more were made permanent by the Marquette City Commission at its regular meeting last night in city hall.

The traffic control measures were accepted on the recommendation of Police Chief George G. Johnson, who said they had all proved effective during the trial period.

The permanent changes are:

1. Two hour parking on both sides of W. Washington St. in the 400 and 500 blocks.

2. No parking on the south side of Fisher and Rock Sts. from Front to Fourth Sts.

3. Two hour parking on Front St. from Baraga Ave. to Fisher St.

4. No parking on the south side of Mesnard in the 200 block.

5. A yield the right-of-way sign at the intersection of N. Seventh and Center Sts.

Chalking Tires
Chief Johnson said that the police department enforces two-hour parking regulations by chalking tires and checking cars at two-hour intervals.

In answer to a question from Commissioner Joseph Fine, who said that he had heard complaints about the two-hour parking regulations on S. Front St., between Baraga Ave. and Fisher St., and suggested that these stalls be metered, Johnson said that parking problems there had been settled during the trial period.

City Manager Thomas Moore informed the commission that several changes which would increase the city's metered parking spaces are being contemplated, on the basis of a recent parking meter survey.

Three seniors at Graveraet High School have received commendations for their high performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test given last spring.

Letters of commendation have been given to Cary Bjork, 329 W. Crescent St.; Linda Heathman, 318 E. Crescent St., and Mary Lu Schwarz, 325 E. Ridge St.

Three other students from Marquette County are among the 13,000 high school students throughout the nation who were selected last month as semifinalists in the competition for the Merit Scholarships.

They are Richard Sonderegger, Graveraet High School; Lorel K. Anderson, Ishpeming High School and Carl E. Hayes, Gwinn High School.

32,000 Cited
About 32,000 students in the United States will receive letters of commendation in recognition of their outstanding performance on the qualifying test.

The semifinalists and commended students together constitute about two per cent of all high school seniors in the nation.

This year's National Merit Scholarship program will conclude in April with the naming of students who qualify, through taking a semifinalists' examination, for four-year merit scholarships at colleges of their choice.

Purchase Of Four Vehicles Approved By Commission

Four new cars for municipal department use were purchased by the city commission at its regular meeting last night in city hall.

For three 1964-model cars for the police department, the low bidder, Olson Motors, Inc., Marquette, was awarded the contract at a net price of $5,463.

Olson Motors also was the low bidder and received the contract for a 1964 model car for the parks department at a net price of $1,972.46.

Other Proposals

Only other bidder for the police department cars was Specker Motor Sales, Marquette, at a net price of $5,598.

Other bidders for the parks department car were Frei Chevrolet, Inc., Marquette, at a net price of $2,055.39, and Specker Motor Sales, at a net price of $2,117.

The three police department cars will be four-door sedans with eight cylinders and automatic transmissions. They will be black, with white doors.

A trade-in allowance for two 1962 Dodge cars was included in the Olson proposal.

The contract for the provision of a four-door sedan for the parks department includes a trade-in allowance of $270 on a 1953 two-door sedan.

Emergency Action

City Manager Thomas Moore told commissioners that the bids opened for the provision of the police department cars were from Olson Motors, at a net price of $5,675, and from Specker Motor Sales, at a net price of $5,950.60.

"However the Olson bid contained an error and did not meet the specifications. Because we need the cars as soon as possible, I gave both firms an opportunity to submit an amended proposal," Moore said.

City Attorney Waldo A. McCrea stated that Moore's action was proper under the city charter, which permits leeway in accepting contracts in emergency situations.

Prof. Roberts To Report On Tenure

Michigan Education Association's campaign for statewide teacher tenure will be the main item of discussion at tomorrow's meeting of the MEA Region 17 Council, at 3:30 p.m. in Gladstone.

Forest Roberts, Marquette, MEA board of directors member and a professor at Northern Michigan University, will report on the tenure campaign and Robert Ferguson, MEA field representative to Region 17, will conduct a program concerning tenure. The agenda also includes reports from the nomination, budget and finance, ethics, and legislation committees. A critique of the regional teachers conference, held in Escanaba, also will be included in the session.

Council Officers

Council officers include: President, Edward M. Havitz, Escanaba High School; president-elect, Ivan Ryan, Gwinn High School; secretary, Miss Helen Masterson, Lemmer School, Escanaba; treasurer, Ken Anderson, Stephenson High School; legislation chairman, Leo Alperovitz, Hermansville High School; and NEA director, Thomas Quarnstrom, Iron Mountain High School.

Marquette, Dickinson, Alger, Delta and Menominee Counties make up Region 17.

Tech Budget Bid To Be Record High

HOUGHTON — Michigan Tech's board of control has voted to send to the Governor a record-breaking budget request of $9,348,835 for the 1964-65 fiscal year.

Fred G. Secrest, chairman of the board, said this figure includes both operational and capital outlay funds for both the Houghton and Sault Ste. Marie campuses.

The lion's share of the proposed budget, $6.7 million, is earmarked for operational needs, with approximately $2.5 million requested for special maintenance, remodeling and additions and new construction. For Operational Funds

Greatest increase is in the request for operational funds. The current operating budget for the college is slightly more than $4.3 million.

"The increase is vital," Sec-rest said, "if Michigan Tech is to raise its faculty salaries to a nationally competitive level with other leading science and engineering schools. It is also necessary if Tech is to enlarge the faculty to lighten teaching loads, and successfully carry on its special research programs in forestry, forest products and mineral production and utilization."

He added the college would need an increase of more than one million dollars in operational funds for next year — to approximately $5.5 million, just to adequately finance its present operations without new programs.

In the capital outlay budget request, the board asked for either planning money or beginning construction money for five new buildings, plus $100,000 for land purchase funds.

The breakdown: Construction funds of $600,000 toward a $3.1 million library building; $285,000 toward a $1.1 million building to house the department of forestry and forest products research division; $127,000 toward a $4.4 million mechanical engineering building; $15,000 toward a $2.2 million technical institute building; and $36,000 toward a $1.1 million classroom building.

County's 1964 Budget Shows Little Change; Tax Rate Same

Valuation Downturn Continues

A budget of $1,024,866.79, only slightly changed from the current year's appropriation, was adopted for 1964 at the annual meeting of the Marquette County Board of Supervisors Monday.

Of the total, $929,496.25 is to be raised through levying of a county tax of 10.33 mills on real and personal property, with the remaining $95,370.54 to be collected from the low-grade iron ore specific tax. The latter levy, set by the state, has been in effect two years and during 1963 produced $70,838.76.

Same Millage

While the budget of $1,024,866.79 as set up by the county board would appear to be nearly $17,000 under 1963 appropriations, the difference actually is only about $2,000. Last year, one of the amounts included in the budget was $14,800 for the county school budget; this year that amount is not included, but is figured separately for each city and township under a so-called intermediate school district tax.

The change also is reflected in the county tax levy, set at 10.33 mills this year in comparison to 10.50 mills for 1963. However, since the intermediate school district tax amounts to .17 of a mill, the millage actually is unchanged.

Valuation Drop Continues

Continuing the trend started when iron mining valuations stated declining in the late 1950's, an assessed valuation drop of nearly two and one-half million dollars is figured for the county's three cities and 19 townships. Valuations for the entire county on which the tax millage is levied total $99,980,276, as against $92,464,547 this year. Sizeable reductions are noted for the cities of Ishpeming and Negaunee and for Tilden Township.

The 1964 budget includes these following amounts:

Social welfare fund, $359,225 (includes $179,975 for direct relief and $179,250 for social welfare); county road, $205,275; county airport, $18,025; county parks, $7,815; Soldiers' Relief Commission, $3,000; Morgan Heights Sanatorium, $75,000; child care, $30,000; employees' retirement fund, $24,951 general fund, $301,545.79.

The Morgan Heights appropriation, cut by $10,000 last year from 1962, is back up to its former figure, while the amount allotted for general fund purposes shows a hike of more than $18,000.

The general funds is made up of earmarked funds as follows: Judiciary ($61,930) — Circuit court, $21,460; justice courts, $4,000; prosecuting attorney, $16,400; judge of probate, $20,070.

Legislative ($28,975) — Supervisors, meetings and mileage, $16,100; county clerk, $12,875.

Finance ($12,000) — County treasurer, $12,000. Public Safety ($62,940) — Sheriff's department, $7,720; jail, $43,100; medical examiners, $3,000; dog wardens, $1,000; contagious diseases, $1,000; county physician, $900; mine inspector, $5,620; civil defense, $1,500. Public Records ($16,550) — Register of deeds, $10,000; pub-

Apportionment of 1964 taxes for county purposes, based on a millage of 10.33 ($10.33 per $1,000 assessed valuation), is shown for the three cities and 19 townships in the following table (first two columns compare 1963 and 1964 valuations for each taxing unit):

Canvassers Named; Backels Retained On Welfare Board

A four-member bipartisan County Board of Canvassers was elected and a member of the County Social Welfare Board was named to a three-year term at yesterday's annual budget-adoption meeting of the board of supervisors.

Picked by supervisors' ballots for the canvass board were Mrs. Fannie Aartila, Marquette, and Carl Pellonpa, Ishpeming, Democrats, and Francis Dompierre, Negaunee, and Mrs. Evelyn Blewett, Ishpeming, Republicans. Mrs. Aartila and Dompierre's terms are for two years; the others for four.

The four were picked from slates presented by county Democratic and Republican committees. Dompierre's election came in a run-off ballot; he and William Schneider, Marquette, each received 18 votes on the first ballot.

John E. Backels, Marquette, was named to succeed himself on the County Welfare Board for a term expiring Nov. 1966. He has been serving as its chairman for several years.

The County Board of Canvassers may have its duties increased under pending legislation. The board, previously named by county political groups, has been certifying results for all general elections (county, state and federal) in the past, but a measure now before the Legislature, if passed, would require it to canvass results of local elections as well.

In other action yesterday (other than approving a 1964 budget and setting of tax rates, which are reported in other stories), the board:

• Approved attendance of a Michigan State University Extension Service gathering at East Lansing Oct. 28-31 by Melvin Nyquist, county extension director, and Paul Shogren, 4-H club agent.

• Learned from the Board of County Road Commissioners that it had advised camp owners in the Dead River Basin west of County Road 510 that requested blacktopping of a road in that area could not legally be effected because the road in question is not a certified road.

• Received and filed routine department and board reports (Morgan Heights Sanatorium, County Road Commission, County Welfare Department, treasurer's fund balances).

• Set 2 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20, as the time and date for the next supervisors' meeting.

Levy For 19 Townships, 3 Cities Told

Nearly five million dollars will be paid in taxes by Marquette County property owners the coming year for city, township, county and school purposes.

Of that amount, over $3,960,142 will be levied on taxpayers in the cities of Ishpeming, Marquette and Negaunee, with the remainder being paid in the 19 townships.

The figures were revealed in a resume of taxes to be levied during the coming year by the 22 governmental units in the county, approved yesterday morning at the annual meeting of the county board of supervisors.

Generally, tax rates continued spiraling upward, with millage levies dropping only in Chocoma, Ishpeming and Negaunee Townships. The rates remained unchanged in Marquette, Republic, Sands, Skandia and West Branch Townships, but went up in 11 townships and in the three cities.

Total tax rates to be paid in the 22 governmental units in the county range from a low of $27.25 in Turin Township to a high of $62.42 in the City of Marquette.

Car Damaged In Collision With Deer

An automobile was damaged, but no one was injured, in a traffic mishap at 10:30 last night on County Road 550, about a half mile south of Harlow Creek, in Marquette Township.

State police from the Marquette post said a car being driven north on Road 550 by Elizabeth Dagenais, 40, of 145 Champion St., Marquette, struck a deer which ran out from the west (left) side of the highway.

The deer fled into the woods after being bumped by the car. The left side of the vehicle, a 1959 station wagon, was damaged and the car was driven from the scene under its own power.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An Episcopal minister who won a beautiful tree contest with a flowering poinciana was quick to give credit where it was due.

Mrs. Swanson Given Food Concession For Palestra

Mrs. Robert Swanson, 1311 Pine St., will operate the food concession at the Palestra this winter.

The contract was approved by the city commission at its regular meeting last night in city hall.

The concession will be operated during the hours that the Palestra is open, James C. Engle, director of the parks and recreation department, said.

$35 Rental Fee

The contract calls for a rental fee of $35 per month, payable in advance, plus an electrical charge for an electric stove.

Engle noted that no proposals were received for operation of the concession when bids were called for last month. No other interested persons contacted his office, Engle said. He said that the contract is the same as the one held by the operator of the concession last year.

In other action, the commission:

- Approved bills payable totaling $98,993.88, of which $2,954.08 is the Peter White Library payroll and $35,487.78 is the city payroll.
- Approved the payment of $10 for membership in the Michigan Good Roads Federation, as requested by the Michigan Municipal League.
- Approved a notice of intent to issue bonds for street improvement special assessment bonds, $4,000 for sewer improvement special assessment bonds and $2,000 for water improvement special assessment bonds.
- Accepted a resolution authorizing the city manager together with the city treasurer or the city accountant to withdraw securities from the Detroit Bank & Trust Co. or direct the bank to purchase or sell securities, in connection with steam electric generating plant bonds.

• Heard a report from City Manager Thomas Moore on a letter which he has mailed to the State Highway Department, in response to a petition filed with the city commission last month, asking the highway department for fencing around the new Champion and Altamont St. overpasses.

Few Changes Made In Salaries For County Employees

Except for slight increases given three persons, salaries of courthouse and jail employees will remain unchanged for another year, the Marquette County Board of Supervisors decided yesterday.

In adopting the salary schedule recommended by its finance and taxation committee, the board made its usual statement of policy regarding the right to make changes at the board's "pleasure" and reaffirming a provision that all fees received by the clerk, treasurer, sheriff, register of deeds and judge of probate are to be turned over to the treasurer on the last day of each month.

An exception is made in the case of fees received for civil process — not payable from county funds — served on off time in private cars by the sheriff or his deputies.

One Jailed, Five Fined By City Judge

One person was jailed and five others were ordered to pay a total of $65.10 in fines and costs by Judge Edward H. Dembowski in city court yesterday for traffic violations.

Matt A. Maki, 67, of 925 Fisher St., was ordered to spend five days in the Marquette County Jail for driving while under the influence of alcohol. He also was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and $6.70 costs. Alternative to paying the fine and costs is to spend 10 additional days in the county jail.

Maki was arrested by sheriff's officers Sunday at the corner of Fisher and Champion Sts. No Operator's License

For driving without an operator's license, Maki paid a $10 fine and $5.10 costs. Alternative sentence was to spend five days in the county jail. The summons was issued by city police June 23 at the intersection of Fourth St. and Baraga Ave.

As in all such cases, Maki will not be eligible to obtain a driver's license from the secretary of state's office for a period of from three months to two years.

For reckless driving, Marilee J. Hornada, 25, Birch Grove Trailer Court, paid a fine of $25 and $5.10 costs. She was arrested by city police Jan. 26 following an accident on U. S. 41 near the Brewery Location. Had Issued Warrant

She entered a plea of not guilty in municipal court Feb. 8 and a warrant for her arrest was issued when she did not appear trial scheduled Feb. 19. A fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs were paid by Henry J. Pittinger, Royal Oak, for making an improper turn. The summons was issued by city police following an accident Oct. 1 at the intersection of Front and Washington Sts. Stop Sign Violation

Bernard J. Slattery Jr., 426 Rock St., paid a fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs for a stop sign violation. City police ticketed him following an accident Oct. 6 at the intersection of Spring and S. Third Sts.

Joel M. Nydahl, 224 E. Michigan St., was fined $1.30 and ordered to pay costs of $3.70 for speeding. City police issued the summons Oct. 8 for driving 35 miles per hour in a 25-MPH zone on N. Third St.

For a violation of the basic speed law, John D. Maki, 232 Bluff St., was fined $6.30 and ordered to pay costs of $3.70. State police ticketed him following an accident Oct. 7 on County Road BAE in Chocoley Township.

Automakers Plan Course For Dealers

DETROIT (AP) — An automotive industry committee said Monday it is setting up what is believed to be the first two-year college program to train future auto dealers and salesmen. The course will be inaugurated next fall on the Midland campus of Northwood Institute, a two year coeducational college.

Courses Students will receive instructions in the management of an automotive dealership, merchandising of new and used cars, financial management, public relations and other aspects of the retail automotive field. Dean L. Sellers, a Detroit auto dealer and chairman of the dealer-industry committee, said he expected about 50 students would be accepted for the course in its first year. Northwood-Midland campus has an enrollment of 354 students this year.

U.P. Pair Guilty In Child Death

MENOMINEE — Wilfred Jackson, 41, and his wife, Gladys, 30, of Harris, were found guilty of manslaughter yesterday in the death of their eight-month-old daughter, Jacqueline, last Dec. 11.

The Jacksons told sheriff's deputies that they had been arguing when Jackson went outside their house on the Hannahville Potawatomi Indian reservation and got into their car.

Mrs. Jackson put the baby on the driveway behind the left rear wheel thinking he would stop, she said. She said she had threatened to do this in previous arguments and he had not left. However, the car went over the baby and killed her.

Circuit Judge Ernest W. Brown of Iron Mountain, who found the Jacksons guilty Monday, ordered a pre-sentence investigation. The Jacksons are free on their own recognizance.

Prosecuting Atty. Russell Bradley and court appointed Defense Atty. Kenneth O. Doyle stipulated that testimony at the preliminary examination would be admitted as evidence rather than calling witnesses again.

Brown said: "I have read and reread testimony taken at the examination and I am satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt of their guilt."

Doyle said he would "definitely appeal the decision to the Michigan Supreme Court."

Doyle said it was not established that a crime had been committed and "evidence is not consistent with the guilt of the defendants but is consistent with a reasonable theory of their innocence."

The Jacksons have two other children, Darryl, 5, and Earline, 2.

Red Wing Takes On Cargo Here

An ore carrier which has been picketed here five times this season was loaded overnight at the Lake Superior and Ishpeming Railroad Co. dock without hindrance.

A temporary injunction against picketing of the ship, the Red Wing, an Upper Lakes Shipping Ltd. carrier, was issued in Marquette County Circuit Court July 17.

The Red Wing was tied up at 11:45 p. m. and left upper harbor at 8:15 this morning carrying about 24,000 tons of iron ore. The ship was bound for Dominican Foundries and Steel Co., Hamilton, Ontario, Canada.

It was the fifth time in a row that the ship has not been picketed, after pickets appeared five times previously carrying signs in behalf of the Great Lakes District of the Seafarers International Union and in behalf of the Maritime Engineers Beneficial Association.

Bartlett Irked By Delay In Amish Trial

CAMDEN (AP) — After postponement of the trial of 11 Amish farmers accused of sending their children to improper schools, Michigan's school chief planned to request speedy action today from Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley.

The trial was postponed Monday at the request of Hillsdale County Prosecutor James Parker. He said a previous court date conflicted with Monday's scheduled session.

A jury for the case is being selected now, he said, and the case will be tried "as soon as I can conveniently arrange a schedule with the other attorneys involved."

Supt. of Public Instruction Lynn Bartlett expressed surprise at the possible delay and said he expected action "as soon as is possible." He said Kelley probably would want to discuss the situation with Parker.

The farmers, accused of refusing to enroll their children in certified public schools, pleaded innocent Oct. 7 to violating any law.

Own Schools The Amish families have been sending their children to their own schools. The state says the teachers, Jerome Delagrang, 19, and Ruth Graber, cannot be certified because they have only eighth grade educations.

Compania Corp., Batavia, Ill. and "Nobacco," Approved Pharmaceutical Corp., Syracuse, N.Y. Tobacco Sales Up

Tobacco manufacturers report that sales of cigars and pipe tobacco are increasing. Some medical courses hold that smoking cigars and pipes is not as harmful as cigarettes.

The vending machine industry is acting to make its wares less available to minors. The machines are being moved from locations easily accessible to youngsters.

Cigarette advertising is being specifically aimed at adults. Tobacco ads have been withdrawn from college publications.

Tobaccoless Cigarette In Buffalo, N.Y., one of the nation's leading cancer research centers, Roswell Park Memorial Institute, is experimenting with a tobaccoless cigarette.

Part of this research will delve into the role, if any, of nicotine in the smoking habit. The institute recently started an experimental clinic for people who want to quit smoking. The smokers will be given drugs over several months.

Put Baby Behind Car

Mrs. Jackson put the baby on the driveway behind the left rear wheel thinking he would stop, she said. She said she had threatened to do this in previous arguments and he had not left. However, the car went over the baby and killed her.

The Jacksons have two other children, Darryl, 5, and Earline, 2.

State Tax Change

Gov. Romney has wound up his series of state meetings presenting his tax reform changes and it appears that it may be revised somewhat.

The Romney tour and those of House and Senate taxation committees in the state were public service missions of value. The Governor's earlier conferences before development of the tax reform package were rather unique and, with its public review of the package, offered citizens and groups a chance to shape legislation on this very important business of financing state government.

Michigan's new constitution brought the challenge and opportunity for reform of the state's tax structure. Actually it brought the necessity for reform, if citizens are to insist upon improvement of their state government; which they should. The tax structure is a patchwork of many levies added to the original land tax one at a time to meet new state needs for government. Such a patchwork inevitably develops inequities if they do not exist from inception, because circumstances of income and ability to pay change with time.

The state's practice of constantly increasing the property tax has been unfair and harmful to progress; the more so since the area of actual income has been somewhat neglected. The land, once an immediate source of all wealth in an agrarian society, is no longer in this position. Too, the imposition of sales taxes across the board hit hardest at persons of small income because they take away a disproportionate part of such persons' income.

Gov. Romney faced assured opposition when he proposed new state taxes on personal and corporate income. The State Legislature's most conservative elements have fought a state income tax for years. They're still fighting it to the death.

But curiously, the income tax proposals didn't raise most of the fur at the public hearings on the tax package. Income taxes will be hard to sell to the Legislature, but the public appears to have come to a general realization that they are equitable, commonplace in state tax structures and inevitable.

The heavy guns unlimbered on the tax package hit at such things as liens on homesteads granted tax deferment because they were owned by elderly persons of small income. Lack of such liens would make need for still more taxes and amount to a subsidy to heirs and not the elderly, but the issue seems an emotional and politically itchy one.

Alternative tax reform plans have emerged and will get a hearing in the Legislature. There is no reason for the public to swallow the Romney plan like a boa constrictor and the Governor himself will probably have some suggestions for change as result of the public hearings, but the public should be mindful that some of the alternative proposals have as their chief prospect the killing of the tax reform package by the familiar old technique of substitution, obfuscation and distraction.

The state needs tax reform and the public should press its legislators for it. The Romney package would only reshuffle the levies to produce the same amount of money, as a first phase of tax reform. This makes schoolmen unhappy because they need more income, but we face the need for change with no prospect that it can all be accomplished in one legislative session.

OATMEAL ON THE ROCKS

A chilling prospect indeed is the report that a frozen breakfast, complete with disposable tray, is to be added to the now glutted TV dinner line.

Breakfast is an altogether different sort of meal than lunch or supper. And it does not entail a great amount of time in preparation. The first meal of the day has long been an area of confidence for the bride. It is sometimes the only meal she can prepare without vast feelings of inadequacy. Denied the opportunity to achieve perfectly scrambled eggs, how will she find the courage to attempt roast beef, fried chicken and country ham?

The disappearance of the aroma of coffee brewing on a chilly morning was something to be lamented. And the passing of the sweet smell of bacon frying will make it increasingly difficult to crawl from beneath the covers.

While everyone can stand in awe of a frozen four-minute egg, it won't do much to bring out the sunny sides of every morning dispositions. — Charlotte Observer

After the middle of next month there will be a mail service between Marquette and Big Bay. A delivery will be made once a week, the carrier returning directly to Marquette. The distance between Marquette and Big Bay is 30 miles, a good day's jaunt, but not an excessively long route. Of course the carrier's duties will include handling mail at intervening places.

The high school football team will have its first game this coming Saturday, when it will journey to the Soo to try conclusions with the Lock City team.

The Ironwood High School football team wants to meet Ishpeming on the gridiron at the Gogebic range metropolis next Saturday. Superintendent Wright claims that inasmuch as Ironwood played here in 1901, the last time his team contested against Ishpeming, the coming game should take place at Ironwood. The management of the local team claims that the game was played here. It is going to be decided by chance, Principal Waldo, of Marquette, tossing the coin.

Joe Pollard and Frank Cochran, from the Cripple Creek mining district, addressed a meeting of mine workers at McDonald's Opera House last night. The mission of the men is to persuade miners from this region from going to Colorado to help in breaking the strike that has been in progress there for several weeks. Last night they set forth the cause of the strikers, arguing that they are justified in tying up operations to gain their ends. Agents of the Cripple Creek operators have visited the other ranges in search of men to take the places of those who are out.

Fast driving in the city limits Sunday proved costly amusement for a couple of men who were arraigned in Justice Trathen's court yesterday morning. The offenders are brothers. They had been drinking freely, it is claimed, and started out at Ishpeming to break records, driving their unfortunate horse at a breakneck pace there, along several of the downtown streets. Deputy Marshall Blewett tried to intercept them, but after an inefficient effort to gain possession of the reins, he was thrown violently to the ground and badly bruised. His uniform was ruined. The speeders were intercepted here by Marshal Gribble and arrested. They paid $50 fines for their little burst of speed.

BRUCE SHANKS, BUFFALO EVENING NEWS

The National Whirligig News Behind The News

By ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON — Bobby Kennedy and Senator John McClellan can come off it any time now. Their Hollywood-type hearings featuring a cheap little murderer-for-pay named Joseph Valachi are strictly for political gain and have not caused the arrest of a single hoodlum.

Bobby Kennedy is a devoted public servant, but because he is also a consummate politician the Valachi performance is money in the bank. McClellan, the very able Democrat from Arkansas who heads the Senate Investigations Subcommittee, is going along because the hearings bring him the kind of headlines an elected official uses to perpetuate his career.

Aside from the fact that Valachi's alleged revelations have been worthless as evidence, the man is a proven liar.

Valachi was not "selected" as a roommate by Vito Genovese, the so-called dictator of the underworld, in the Atlanta penitentiary, but was assigned to the cell occupied by Genovese by prison officials as a matter of routine.

Valachi did not make a mistake when he murdered the convict Saupp in prison. He did not kill Saupp because he feared Saupp had been ordered to kill him, but because he had a personal grievance against Saupp and wanted him dead.

In contrast to the hogwash heard in the hearings, these are facts. I have them from the government official who knows more about such things than anyone else in the Federal Government.

Valachi was admitted to the Atlanta penitentiary before Genovese was. They were convicted of separate crimes. After Valachi had been in the pen for two years he applied for work in the "industries" — various artisan shops operated by the penitentiary. He was assigned to the tailor shop. Genovese, meanwhile, had been put to work elsewhere.

Valachi has testified that Genovese "invited" him to share his cell with him. This is pure jazz. Both Genovese and Valachi were maximum security prisoners, and so as a matter of course they would up in the same cell so they could be kept under close surveillance. Also, it was an eight-man cell — there were six other prisoners in it, which made confidence between Genovese and Valachi difficult if not impossible.

Genovese knew the convict Saupp only casually, if at all. Saupp was not one of Genovese's alleged executioners, and Valachi knew he was not and knows it today. But Valachi had a grudge against Saupp and he saw in their confinement in the same prison an opportunity to eliminate him. Valachi was a man who had killed often before and shortly he murdered Saupp — as a personal enemy, not as a man he was afraid had been assigned to kill him.

The Kennedy-McClellan hearings have presented Valachi in a false light. He has been permitted to suggest to the American people that he is a reformed gangster and killer who now wants to do all he can to help the authorities smash the underworld which once employed his filthy hands. There have been outlandish declarations that Valachi's life has been threatened, that the mob has placed a $100,000 price on his head, and the government has reported receiving tips that a bomb would be placed in Valachi's cell in district jail.

Valachi is an admitted murderer and racketeer. If he knows anything worthwhile, which is doubtful, he should be taken into a roomful of expert interrogators and told to spill it so honest cops can go out and put the arm on the mob. He has no other proper function in the practice of law enforcement. Certainly, he should not be used merely to make politicians look good. (Bell-McClure Syndicate)

BID FOR FEMALE VOTE?

There are many ways of looking at the White House decision (exempting young married men from the draft). One guess, sure to occur to the politically suspicious, is that the exemption is a Kennedy move to grab the young female vote. What other president has ever provided husbands? — (Baltimore Sun.)

Chiang Gets Revenge

By JOSEPH ALSOP

TAIPEI, Formosa — The winding road to the villa in the hills, the villa itself, modest but comfortable, the excellent tea swiftly brought by silent menservants, in a big room with a superb view — all these features of a visit to Chiang Kai-shek in 1963 were also the customary features of such visits in Chungking some 20 years ago.

As always, Madame Chiang sits erect by her husband's side, occasionally helping out the interpreter with a quiet correction or suggestion. As always, Chiang Kai-shek himself is soft-spoken but articulate. And the years have passed over him lightly, too; he even looks five years younger than he did five years ago.

Yet There's Difference

At first, therefore, it is rather like taking a trip in a time machine. Yet there is a difference all the same, for heavy in the air hangs the constant thought of all the water that has flowed over all the dams, and all the blood that has been shed, and all the follies that have been committed, and all the tragedies that have occurred both needlessly and unavoidably, in the two decades that have passed since those days in Chungking in wartime.

On the heels of this thought, moreover, still another crowds in. The year 1943 was a great turning point for Chiang Kai-shek. A command crisis centering on that foolish and violent old man, Gen. Joseph Stilwell, in turn precipitated a domestic political crisis. All that was worst, most corrupt, and most incompetent in Nationalist China won the day that autumn.

No Longer Beleaguered

Then the Japanese launched major new offensives. The Communists, who always used the Japanese to run interference for them, thus won control over huge new provinces in the wake of the Japanese advance. Inflation became virginitous. Morale collapsed. And although Chiang's regime barely managed to survive the storm, it had been fatally undermined; and so Chiang's road went downwards, ever downwards, ever downwards, until he reached this island.

Twenty years ago, even his good manners could not conceal the fact that Chiang was not a tranquil man. But he is tranquil today, simply because today the shoe is on the other foot. The man beleaguered, the man pursued and threatened by misfortune, is no longer Chiang Kai-shek, but his enemy, Mao Tse-tung.

As long as two years ago, Mao paid Chiang the considerable compliment of hastily re-deploying upwards of 300,000 troops, in order to strengthen the defenses of the mainland coast against a possible landing by Chiang — the maximum Nationalist landing strength being only a division and a half!

Fruitless Retreat

Since then, Mao has been driven to his humiliating and fruitless retreat from the policy of the great leap forwards. He has plunged onwards to the final break with Moscow. He has defied the world, to small avail; for the reports have just come in, as these words are being written, that the Soviets have cut off their oil shipments to China and are getting ready to expel Mao from the world brotherhood of Communists.

On Chiang Kai-shek, it must be added, all this was slow to take effect. In 1962 he was deadly serious in his preparations for a mainland landing; and only the strongest American pressure held him back. This winter, once again, he ordered new landing preparations, and again in earnest. But this time, those of his advisors who believe in a deteriorating mainland situation at length persuaded him to wait till the time was ripe.

"We can afford to wait a little now," he says, "because we can now see the Communists growing weaker all the time. We need not be in a hurry, as we had to be before."

Major Change

Those two sentences announce a rather major change in the Asian situation. Until Chiang was belatedly convinced, this spring, that the position of the Communists must become more and more vulnerable with each passing month and year, a wild Nationalist gamble on a landing on the mainland was an ever-present possibility. But that risk has been eliminated, at least for the time being.

That much is all that can now be said with certainty, since time machines to visit the future are unhappily never available. Will Chiang's moment ever come? No one can tell. He is waiting and getting ready, but even if Mao and his government go under, as no longer seems impossible, that may not be Chiang's moment either.

One thing can be foretold already, however. Whether or not Chiang's moment comes, Chiang will have his revenge in the end on the fashionable twaddlers who have denounced and belittled him.

He has his own grave faults. He has the grave handicaps, too, of one who stands between two eras and two cultures, and does not fully belong to either. Yet he is a big man, a major figure of the sort the twaddlers can never understand; and history will laugh at the twaddlers rather than Chiang Kai-shek. (c) 1963 New York Herald Tribune Inc.

Agency Operates At Profit

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON — The American citizen is wrong if he thinks his government never does anything but tax and tax, spend and spend.

There's one federal outfit that actually operates at a profit, bringing in the cash from happy, satisfied customers.

It's the Philatelic Sales Agency in the Post Office Department, which sells more than $3-million worth of stamps to collectors each year.

The agency points out, in a pretty well-satisfied way: Not Used For Postage — Stamps sold for philatelic purposes are not used for postage and the government is not called upon to perform any service, making the sale of these issues a profitable operation for the Post Office Department.

This is an appropriate time to consider the operations of the agency, since its newest commemorative stamp, honoring Eleanor Roosevelt, is being issued today at a White House ceremony.

Many 'Hoarded' — One hundred and thirty million of these Mrs. Roosevelt stamps, five cents each, are being printed. Most, of course, will be used on regular mail but many will be hoarded by collectors and never "cashied."

Collectors have a particular liking for commemorative stamps. They are rarer than regular issues and many of them are interesting works of art. Some, it must be admitted, are pretty dowdy.

Commemorative were first issued in connection with the Chicago World's Fair in 1893. Since then many events and persons have been honored.

15 Per Year — The department issues a maximum of 15 different commemorative stamps each year, a total that has been found acceptable to a majority of collectors, as well as the postal authorities.

There has to be some kind of a hold-down, since the department gets 250-300 new proposals each year and has a backlog of requests for approximately 3,000 different stamps.

There are some hurt feelings over the department's refusal to commemorate the founding of cities and towns, but the postal people say there are just too many of them now reaching round-figure anniversaries.

There's also a flat rule against issuing stamps to honor fraternal, political or religious organizations, a commercial enterprise or a specific product. The best bets for commemora-

Dear Abby...
By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What good are laws? I'll tell you. They are good for the lawyers. The judge says a divorced man must pay so much alimony and child support. The man doesn't do it, so the woman has to go back to her lawyer and pay him to try to get her money for her. The divorced man says, "Okay, put me in jail and you'll get nothing!" Now, is that fair?

Here is my plan. Instead of putting these men in jail full-time, why don't they sentence them to "jobs" on evenings and week-ends so they won't have all that free time to run around and spend the money they agreed to pay their ex-wives? How do I start the ball rolling?

DEAR BITTER: In some circumstances the law permits a garnishee of wages, which means you get your share whether he likes it or not. If this relief fails, let the man test his bluff in jail on a charge of non-support. I'll betcha he won't repeat.

DEAR ABBY: I am a young woman. I have been told I am very attractive. I recently took a job running an elevator in what is supposed to be a high class office building. I would rather not go into detail, but I would like to know if it is really against the law to hit man with glasses.

DEAR GOING: Yes—unless, of course, you hit with a police court warrant for tampering with an elevator jockey.

DEAR ABBY: I understand that most men have a streak of jealousy in them, but my husband is impossible. He wakes me up at five o'clock in the morning to question me because he DREAMT I was clashing around with men all over the city. Abby, I am an ordinary-looking, middle-aged woman with three small children to look after, and I tell you I am not interested in any other men. I can't even go to church for fear of being accused of going somewhere else. My nerves are shot trying to stay sane for the children. I've never given my husband any reason to distrust me. He says he acts this way because he LOVES me. Is this love?

DEAR NERVOUS: Your husband's jealousy has nothing to do with "love." Suspicious based on fantasy are a symptom of mental illness.

DEAR ABBY: I don't have a problem (any more) but I have some advice for young women. When you meet a man who says he is married "in name only" but isn't heel enough to divorce his wife because she is "sickly" — watch out! I fell for that line for two years. One evening while Mr. "No Heel" and I were barbecuing in my back yard his wife paid us an unexpected visit. She was so "sickly" that she picked up this 180-pound man and sailed him across the yard. He landed on his head and broke his collarbone. Sincerely yours,

HELEN

Mary Makel Reigns As NMU Queen

Brunette, blue-eyed Mary Makel, Manistique senior, and personable Don Keranen, Baraga senior, reigned today as queen and king of Northern Michigan University's homecoming celebration which ended Sunday.

The royal couple was crowned Saturday afternoon during half-time ceremonies of the Northern-Central Michigan University football game, won by NMU, 19-0.

In Elementary Education
Queen Mary, an attractive, 5-5½" coed who was elected Friday from among six finalists, is enrolled in the elementary education curriculum, and is a member of the Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and Newman Club. She is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Makel, 101 S. Cedar St., Manistique.

King Don, a prospective music teacher, is enrolled in the music education curriculum, and is a member of the Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity and the Four Degrees North combo.

Chosen By Students
The new regents, chosen by Northern's student body, received their royal vestments and full rights and responsibilities as sovereigns from Ron Siktas, Rockford, Ill., and Connie Rye, Sault Ste. Marie, last year's king and queen.

Don and Mary occupied the spotlight at Northern's football game and reigned over the homecoming dance Saturday afternoon and evening.

The queen's mother and two brothers, both NMU students, witnessed the coronation.

BETTER BREAKFASTS

September is Better Breakfast Month, but are you aware of what makes up a good breakfast? Every morning each member of your family should receive a serving of (1) Citrus fruit, (2) Meat and/or eggs, (3) Cereal and/or bread, (4) Milk.

BASIC MEAT RULE

The basic rule of meat cooking is: Always cook meat at a low to moderate temperature. This rule applies whether meat is cooked by dry heat (roasting, broiling or panbroiling) or moist heat (braising or in liquid).

Kabuki sleeves in natural and bloused dresses are favorite style details among designers creating winter lines for the junior figure. The rugby shirt, broad-striped long sleeved over blouse with wide collar, is also popular with the young set. So is the wide-collared, little boy shirt tagged the Oliver.

Comments from several members indicated they believe most parents apparently are content to "sit back and relax and forget their responsibilities" towards the youth of the community.

Purpose of the meeting was to discuss the youth center problem in Ishpeming.

The panel consisted of representatives from Ishpeming High School, Parent-Teacher Association, Youth Council, Ishpeming School Board and the City of Ishpeming.

A lengthy discussion by a very small segment of the audience produced no specific proposals or solutions to the problem.

Can't Fire Guns In City Limits, Chief Warns

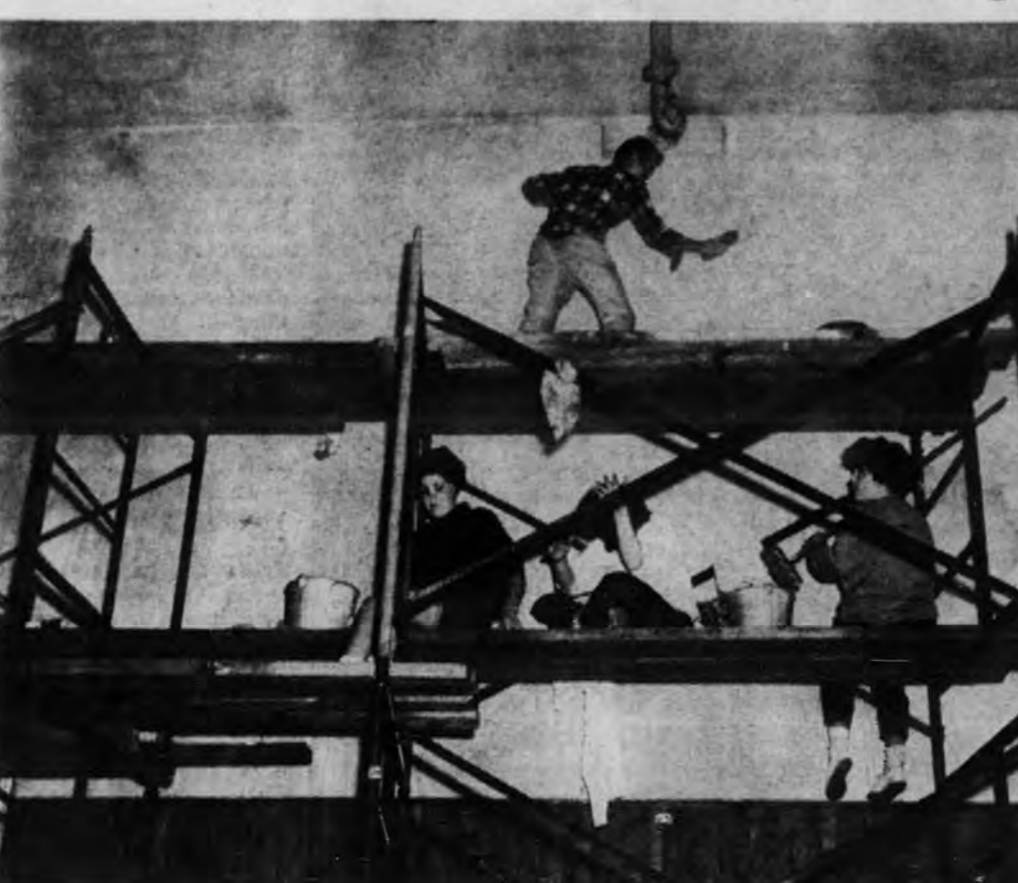

ISHPEMING — "Parents, please caution your youngsters on the proper use of air rifles or B-B guns," said Police Chief Frank Sarvello today after an instance where an Ishpeming youngster was injured.

The police chief stated that the use of air rifles in the city limits is prohibited and that anyone seen with one of these weapons, will be stopped and the weapon confiscated.

"Let's avoid serious accidents," said Sarvello, who pointed out that such weapons must be fired outside the city limits.

West Branch, Skandia Buy Fire Truck

SKANDIA — One of the attractions at a smorgasbord served by the Skandia Lions Club in the Skandia School Sunday was a new fire truck.

Purchased by Skandia and West Branch Township Boards, the unit will serve this area from a fire hall to be built near the county garage in the Village of Skandia.

Township Supervisors Edward Swanson of Skandia and Sol Wiseman of West Branch said that a department of about 20 men is now in the process of organization and that plans for it probably will be completed at a public meeting in the Skandia School at 8 Wednesday night. A member of the Rock River Township Department will be present to explain operations of that group.

The fire truck, costing nearly $13,000, was purchased from Specker Motor Sales, Marquette. The fire hall will be constructed for about $8,000.

The four-wheel-drive vehicle came complete with equipment, including a 600-gallon tank. More equipment will be added later, including high-pressure fog facilities, as funds become available.

In the past, the Skandia-West Branch area has had to depend on fire-fighting units in the City of Marquette, at the Marquette State Prison and State Conservation Department facilities.

As planned by the two township boards, telephones in about six department members' homes will ring when the fire department number is called. A chief is to be appointed soon, and he and his men will hold monthly meetings, at which it is

Bernard Specker, proprietor of Specker Motor Sales, Marquette, hands keys for new fire truck to Supervisors Sol Wiseman of West Branch and Edward Swanson of Skandia. Others in picture are Florence Holman, Skandia clerk; Ellen Carrier, West Branch treasurer; Evangeline Berglund, West Branch clerk; Waino Rajala, Skandia treasurer, and William Quayle, foreman of Marquette County Road Commission who has been helping townships in planning organization of a fire department and erection of a fire hall.—(Mining Journal photo).

Baraga Committee Studies Faults, Needs Of School

BARAGA — Lack of a quorum ruled out any official action by the Baraga School Study Committee at this month's meeting, but several possible remedies for dealing with the ills which plague the school district were analyzed.

It was hoped to conduct training sessions under the supervision of a trained fireman from a nearby community.

The 14-member committee was appointed nearly a year ago to make a thorough study of existing facilities and to recommend to the school board the best means for solving the educational problems facing Baraga Township residents.

At that time the board agreed that there appeared to be four alternative courses of action: (1) To construct a new elementary school in Baraga and repair the existing high school; (2) to construct a new high school and convert the old high school for use as an elementary school; (3) to take steps to join with other small school districts in the area to form a reorganized school district; or (4) to continue to operate at the "status quo" with the kindergarten pupils attending classes at the Baraga Armory; grades one, two and three having classes in the high school building; fourth, fifth and sixth grade students being transported to the Pelkie school which is nine miles from Baraga, and the junior and senior high school students housed in the high school at Baraga.

When it became apparent that only three committee members would be present to meet with board members and school administrators and that a final report would not be forthcoming at this meeting, Superintendent E. E. Erickson proposed an informal exchange of ideas and a review of the committee's work to date.

Committee member John V. Clements cautioned: "Let's bide our time until the Governor's fiscal reform program has been kicked around a little bit during the next 30 days. I don't think we would be wise to plunge into a program until we know what the score is. Many things have been discussed in the course of this committee's work."

Mrs. Mary Lee Magnuson, secretary of the group, retorted: "It's time now for some positive action, and a little less talk! This fourth alternative — continuing to operate at the status quo — is not at all satisfactory. Just because things have been done this way for a couple of years doesn't mean it's the best way."

Clements pointed out that there have been no major improvements to the high school in the past 30 years and stated, "We should give some careful thought to doing what we can along these lines without our means."

Maintenance Costs Rising

Arthur Kujansuu, high school principal, explained that annual maintenance costs are rising every year. He pointed out that these increasing costs merely keep the district school buildings "even with the board" and do not provide for any unexpected expenses such as the current repairs to a storm sewer which ran underneath the school. This construction project may run as high as $15,000 — and there is no provision in the budget for such emergency maintenance work or repairs.

William Mayo, board secretary, proposed calling in a contractor to examine the old elementary school in Baraga to see if it would be practical to repair and remodel the building. This school, although not officially condemned, was abandoned by the board two years ago on the grounds that it was unsafe for occupancy. Plans have been made to have the two-story frame structure, built in 1892, razed during the Christmas vacation.

Step Backward

Erickson said that, in his opinion, going back into the old building would definitely be a step backwards, that if the state fire marshal were to inspect the building, it would almost certainly be condemned.

He pointed out that construction or remodeling projects totaling $15,000 or more must be authorized by State Department of Public Instruction architects and engineers, and expressed serious doubt that they would okay remodeling a school such as this (two stories, all-frame construction, antique plumbing, open stairwells, etc.)

Mrs. Nan Kivilanen of Pelkie, invited to sit in on the session, asked, "Have any steps been taken to bring the L'Anse and Baraga school boards together?"

Committeemen and school administrators recalled that the two boards met two and one-half years ago to discuss the possibility of cooperating in joint educational ventures and to explore the feasibility of pooling their resources to form a reorganized county school district as recommended in the Baraga County area study report completed in July, 1960.

The issue of consolidation was not handled on its merits at that time, but rather was dealt with in a very emotional manner. Clements said. The two boards met twice in attempts to work out a joint solution to common problems and to investigate the feasibility of constructing a county-wide high school to serve both school districts. The consolidation issue, couched at that time with a proposal to inaugurate an expanded home and family living program in the schools, got bogged down in the resultant public furor and never got off the ground.

Erickson explained that in such a vocational program, a carefully screened group of above-average students, who would not be going on to college, could take their final year of schooling on a "half-day in class, half-day on the job" basis. "In this manner," he said, "these students will receive on-the-job training, and will be skilled in their chosen field by the time they graduate from high school."

He emphasized that all phases of the program would be closely supervised by one or more qualified teachers who would serve as coordinators and instructors. Such a program could eventually cover such fields as auto mechanics and body work, plumbing, masonry, meat cutting, agriculture, stenography and retail merchandising.

Under a program of this type, the students would receive compensation for their work commensurate with their ability and the "going rate" during their training period. Then, upon graduation, they would enter the labor force as trained and experienced workers who could command good salaries, rather than as green kids who would have to serve an apprenticeship or take further training in another institution.

Foreign Languages

Mrs. Magnuson cited what she termed a serious lack in the preparation of top quality students who do plan to go on to higher education.

"In both Baraga and L'Anse these students are unable to get the continuity of courses they want, especially in the field of foreign languages," she de-

Council Orders Ordinance Study, Delays Codification

NEGAUNEE — Codification of municipal ordinances has been delayed by the Negaunee City Council to permit a study of all existing local laws. Action was taken at a regular session as a result of a communication from the David Keyser Ordinance Codification Service of Milwaukee, which submitted a proposal for examining, revising and bringing ordinances up to date.

Traffic Safety Proposals

Referred to Manager Leonard Harris was a letter from Police Chief Ralph Carlson with suggestions for improving traffic safety on U.S. 41 within the city limits, and streets lying in the vicinity of two school buildings. Harris was authorized to consult with State Highway Department representatives concerning parking on U.S. 41, and to investigate the cost of installing a school warning signal on Teal Lake Ave., which forms a part of M-55, in the vicinity of the high school and Central Grade buildings.

Another proposal to close that portion of Peck St. lying between Kanter and Pioneer during the school noon hour was referred to the manager with power to act. The segment of the street which would be closed runs in front of St. Paul's School. This practice is now followed on one block of Case St. in front of the Central Grade School.

Water Well At Cemetery

Harris was instructed to obtain additional information on a proposal submitted by Hakala Well & Pump Service to construct an eight-inch water well to an estimated depth of 40 feet at the Negaunee Cemetery.

In action regarding other items on the agenda, the council accepted a recommendation by City Clerk Edward C. Stevens that only two polling places be used for the municipal election Nov. 5, retained Ernst & Ernst to make the annual audit of municipal funds for 1963, accepted monthly financial statements presented by the manager, ordered September claims against the city paid, and received and placed on file monthly reports of department heads.

MSU Hoop Squad Is Improved

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State's basketball hopes this season are pinned on a 6-9 center, six returning lettermen and some promising sophomores. "We should be much improved over last year," said Coach Fordy Anderson. The Spartan hoopsters started practice today. They open early this season, with the first game a home game against Northern Michigan here Nov. 30. First Big Ten date is Jan. 4 against Illinois, away. A lot will depend on how Fred Thomann, the 6-9 senior center from Taylor, works out this season. He has the height needed in the Big Ten and is a senior this fall. But, last year he averaged only 5.8 points a game.

Ellsworth Comeback Man Of '63

CHICAGO (AP)—Young Dick Ellsworth, voted the National League's comeback baseball player-of-the-year in the annual Associated Press Poll, is happy to get the award but never wants to win it again. "No thanks," said Ellsworth who compiled a 22-10 record with the Chicago Cubs in 1963 after a horrible 9-20 mark in 1962. "If you have to lose 20 games one year and then come back and win 20 the next, I don't want it anymore." Slider Helped The 23-year-old left-hander credits the development of a slider for his season, which included a 2.10 earned run average with 75 walks and 185 strikeouts in 290 2-3 innings. Ellsworth collected 24 votes in the balloting by 68 baseball writers and finished far ahead of Curt Simmons of St. Louis, another southpaw. Simmons picked up 11 votes, St. Louis shortstop Dick Groat was third with 10, and Ron Santo, the Chicago Cubs' third baseman, received 9.

Michigan In Good Condition For Saturday Battle

ANN ARBOR (AP)—All things considered, Michigan will be in good physical condition for its Big Ten battle with Purdue Saturday. The Wolverines escaped a rough, tough 7-7 deadlock with the Boilermakers without any significant injuries although there were more than the ordinary run of bumps and bruises. Left halfback Jack Clancy had to leave the game with leg cramps but he'll be ready to go against the Boilermakers. The Wolverines did not use Dick Wells against the Spartans because of a hip bruise but it is hoped he's nearing the point of returning to competition. Sophomore tackle Bill Yearby still is bothered by a bruised knee and he played despite considerable pain. Coach Bump Elliott limited Yearby to defensive duty but he should be ready for offensive work Saturday. Michigan had a relatively light workout Monday to provide for another day of recovery from the battle with the Spartans, but the Wolverines got down to serious business quickly today and are planning a lot more work on pass defense.

Three State Schools Are Above .500

(By the Associated Press) Adrian, Michigan Tech and surprising Northwood Institute were the only three Michigan colleges boasting winning football teams after the season passed the halfway point for many teams last Saturday. Adrian is 3-1 after pounding out a 54-30 victory over hapless Olivet last Saturday. Michigan Tech and Northwood, meanwhile, are both 3-2. Even Records Six other Michigan teams are at the .500 mark, while Wayne State, Western Michigan and Olivet are still looking for their first wins. Hope downed Alma 21-8 for its first victory after four straight losses. Northwood, which hadn't won a game before this season, also has the state's top scorer, Bob Benjamin took over the lead with 36 points on six touchdowns. He scored three times against Defiance, Ohio last Saturday. Bill Hultgren of Hope and Olivet's Jim Sigler trail with 32 points. Each has scored five touchdowns and added two extra points. Michigan Scoring Leaders G Pts. Bob Benjamin, Northwood 5 36 Bill Hultgren, Hope 4 32 Jim Sigler, Olivet 3 32 Larry Moore, Central Mich 5 28 Jerry Chandler, Albion 4 24 Tim Davies, Adrian 4 24 Ron Matesich, Mich. Tech 5 24 Emery Welsh, Ferris State 5 24 Doug King, Michigan Tech 5 19 Eleven others tied with 18 points each. Mickey Mantle entered the 1963 World Series—his 10th—with a record of 41 strikeouts. He also has the most walks—56.

Independent Basketball League Begins

ISHPEMING — A seven-team independent basketball league dribbles into action tonight on the hardwood court of the Ishpeming High School Gymnasium. Play begins at 6:30 for six teams in the Ishpeming Industrial League, as DeRichers Standard Service plays Mike's Texaco. Elsons meet Republic Arola Seven-Up, and National Mine goes against A & C. Woody's air drew a bye. All-Star Match Loren Bess and Less Lamour, co-directors for the league, announced a schedule of 18 games. One of the highlights planned for independent play will be an All-Star game between Ishpeming and Negaunee after the first of the year. The co-directors also issued an invitation to any ball players who desire to take part in the league to turn up tomorrow night with gym shoes and trunks.

U.P. Teams Shift In Grid Poll

(By the Associated Press) Kingsford moved up one notch in the weekly Associated Press Poll this week after taking a win from previously undefeated Stambaugh on Saturday. Resting comfortably in fourth place in Class B of the Michigan State High School Grid Poll, Kingsford boasts a 7-0 record for the season thus far. Bad Axe, Willow Run and Hillsdale are in the first three spots, in that order, in Class B, all of them possessing 5-0 records for the season. Stambaugh now occupies 15th position in the Class B ratings, followed in 18th by Escanaba Holy Name, which lost its only game to Kingsford. Ironwood is rated 24th in the class. Sault Ste. Marie has been accorded a ninth place spot in Class A voting, boasting a 7-0 record and will meet Marquette in this week's action. Detroit, Flint and Adrian schools appear frequently in Class C-D voting, but no U.P. teams are represented. More major leaguers come from California than from any other state.

Many U.P. High Schools Winding Up Season This Weekend; Games Crucial

By JAMES TRETHERWEY Of The Journal Staff All but a handful of Upper Peninsula high schools wind up their 1963 football campaigns this week, with prospects that the "big winners" will finish with unblemished records. Kingsford, successfully fighting off an all-out attempt by previously unbeaten Stambaugh to stop the high-flying Flyers, meets Iron Mountain in renewal of an old twin-city rivalry; Sault Ste. Marie meets a sometimes dangerous Marquette eleven, while Ironwood hosts a suddenly aroused Ashland, Wis., crew. All Need To Win Each has won a share of its conference title, but needs a victory to assure an outright championship. All are defending titlists, although Sault last year had to share the Great Lakes Crown with Escanaba. Resumption of another ancient rivalry sends Houghton across the Portage bridge to meet Hancock, with Copper Country Conference laurels resting on the outcome. The famous Copper Bowl goes to the winner. The Peninsula's fourth unbeaten-untied eleven, Sault Loretto, goes against Brimley to wind up its Eastern U. P. Conference schedule. The Angels are one of six schoolboy outfits slated for another week of action Oct. 25-26. Top Two Two of the four all-winning outfits, Kingsford and Ironwood, were atop the U. P. grid heap last fall, each winning seven games and losing one along with Escanaba Holy Name and Rudyard. Holy Name was declared the 1962 U. P. champion in post-season balloting by sports writers. Ironwood last week avenged its lone 1962 loss by routing

Meminee, a week after Kingsford had defeated Holy Name, its only conqueror the previous season. Following this week's matches, only games left on the Peninsula schedule will send Escanaba Holy Name to Manistique, Newberry to Rudyard, Cedarville to Sault B, Cheboygan Catholic Central to Sault Loretto, Hurley, Wis., to Bessemer and Marinette, Wis., to Menominee. Most of the schools will be playing their eighth game, with Bessemer the only one that will be in its ninth test. This week's schedule: Friday — Ishpeming at Stambaugh, Stephenson at Manistique, Sault Ste. Marie at Marquette, Ashland, Wis., at Ironwood, Sault Loretto at Brimley, Pickford at Cedarville, Menominee at Antigo, Wis. Saturday — Negaunee at Escanaba, Gladstone at Gwinn, Munising at Newberry, Kingsford at Iron Mountain, Iron River at Norway, Superior (Wis.) East at Bessemer, Hurley, Wis., at Wakefield, Houghton at Hancock, Engadine at DeTour, Calumet vs. Escanaba Holy Name at Gladstone, Crystal Falls at Niagara, Wis., St. Ignace at Rudyard, Powers at Bark River-Harris, Rock at Pembine, Wis. Area Cagers Dropped By Detroiters

DETROIT (AP) — Eddie Miles, former Seattle University star, survived a Detroit Pistons squad cut Monday and will be the only rookie on the roster when the Pistons open their National Basketball Association season Wednesday night. While retaining Miles, the Pistons dropped four men—Ernie Dunston of Seattle, Dave Erickson of Marquette, Gary Silc of Northern Michigan and Jerry Smith of Furman. The Pistons open against the Philadelphia 76ers here.

QUARTERBACK FORMULA MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Norm Van Brocklin, former quarterback and coach of the Minnesota Vikings, gave the advice to rookie Ron VanderKelen when he reported to camp: "A quarterback must always be setting up the scoring play without sacrificing a single play to do so. Never call just a number, know the reason for calling each play. Keep your confidence in the ultimate success of your attack and impart this confidence to your team."

In Carry Back's comeback campaign he ran second, first and third in his first three starts this year.

Texas Takes Over First Place In College Poll After Upset Of Sooners

(By the Associated Press) The Texas Longhorns, who've worked their way up step by step, took over the No. 1 spot today in The Associated Press poll of the nation's college football teams, leading a wholesale shuffling resulting from last weekend's stunning upsets. The Longhorns finally climbed into the top spot by knocking off Oklahoma 28-7 Saturday. The Sooners had been rated the No. 1 team in the country going into the game. Stepped Up Texas, rated No. 5 in the pre-season balloting topped by 1962 national champion Southern California, made the top after moving a step at a time up the ladder. The Longhorns were fourth in the first regular poll, third in the next, and second a week ago. Oklahoma, leader for the past two weeks, skidded to No. 6. The special panel of sports writers and broadcasters gave Texas 51 of 53 first place votes, after wading through the weekend wreckage that showed defeat for five of the teams in last week's Top Ten. Besides Texas, the only other winner among the elite was Wisconsin, which beat Purdue 28-20 and jumped from fifth to

Spittoon Adds Interest To MSU Conflicts

EAST LANSING — Adding to game interest this week when the Michigan State Spartans go against Indiana will be the presence of the "Old Brass Spittoon," a relic from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts. The spittoon goes to the winner of the game each season, and has been in the Spartan trophy case each year except 1958. This week's game will be No. 18 in the series that began in 1922 and became an annual affair in 1950, the year of the spittoon's beginning as the winner's trophy. The Spartans are the series leader, having won 12 to Indiana's four games, and have taken the last four straight games. When the St. Louis Cardinals compiled 19 victories during a 20-game stretch their only defeat was tagged on them by Pittsburgh's Bob Veale. He shut them out 3-0.
