Speakers, Program For U. P. Chamber Parley Here Listed

Two symposiums and two addresses are among the items scheduled for the Upper Peninsula Conference for Chambers of Commerce, scheduled in Marquette Wednesday, Dec. 4.

The conference, presented by the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with the Marquette Chamber, will be conducted at Northern Michigan University.

Both symposiums are to be held in the morning, with registration stated at 9 a. m. and the meeting beginning at 10.

'Chamber' Symposium

One symposium, on "Chamber of Commerce," will have William Veerer, Houghton, vice president of the Upper Peninsula Power Co., Houghton, and a director of the state chamber, as the chairman.

On Veerer's panel will be ment imposed costs of doing business" and the various aspects of workmen's compensation, unemployment compensation and minimum wage.

Hall, Bandino To Speak

Following a luncheon, another business meeting will be held, with Lincoln B. Frazier, Marquette, president of Campbell Supply Co. and vice president of the state chamber, presiding.

"Are You Ready for the Challenge?" will be the topic of the address, to be delivered by Hall.

The response will be given by Peter M. Baudino, Calumet, president of Ace Hardware Co. and president of the Michigan Retail Hardware Association, Inc.

Presiding at the other symposium, on "State Legislation," will be H. D. (Bert) Stott, Houghton, member of the workmen's compensation committee of the state chamber.

Other Panelists

Panelists will be Lee Matthews, Lansing, general manager of the Michigan Insurance Information Service, and William A. Wickman, Detroit, general and legislative counsel for the state chamber.

They will discuss "Government

H. Croschere Dies At 63 In Ann Arbor

Henry Croschere Sr., 63, of 2502 Cherry St., died at 7:45 last night in University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mr. Croschere was born in Marquette and had resided here all his life with the exception of 10 years he spent in Pontiac. He was a member of St. Christopher's Church, Trowbridge Park.

Survivors are his wife, Vera; nine sons, Leslie, Henry Jr., Donald, Lloyd and John, Marquette; William, Villa Park, Ill.; James, Hallsville, Texas; Charles, Midland, and Richard, Denver; two daughters, Mrs. Mae Boyle, Denver, and Mrs. Raymond (Nancy) Montara, Waukegan, Ill.; a brother, Napoleon, Nisula, Mich.; three sisters, Mrs. William Smith Sr., Marquette; Mrs. Edward Peterson, Munising, and Mrs. Verney Hayes, Nisula, and 33 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning in St. Christopher's Church. Burial will be made in Holy Cross Cemetery.

The body is in the Fassbender Funeral Home, where friends may call beginning at noon Friday. Liturgical services will be held at 8 Friday evening.

City 'Rests Case' In Application For Power Plant Grant

At its regular meeting this week in the city hall, the city commission adopted a resolution resting the case of the city in its application for a federal grant to help finance the steam electric generating plant.

The resolution requests disposition of the application and states that "ample evidence and exhibits have been submitted supplementing and defining the information to qualify the city for the grant."

Authorization for the application for the federal grant was given by the commission one year ago today.

Since then, the application has been approved by a federal government regional office, where comments on the quality of Marquette's application and the importance of the steam plant project were encouraging.

The application was then sent to Washington, where it met with delay and requests from administrators for an endless supply of additional information, city officials complained.

A formal application for a grant of almost $2 million was filed Jan. 9 with the Housing and Finance Agency under terms of Public Law 345, as amended by the Accelerated Public Works Act.

An amended application, asking for $977,250 to help finance the steam electric generating plant, was filed May 27.

The city commission requested at its special meeting last week that the resolution, to be filed with the Housing and Finance Agency, be drawn up.

Hope To Force Action

City Commissioners feel that the resolution will force the federal government to act on the application for the Accelerated Public Works grant.

City Manager Thomas Moore reported that Washington administrators charged with reviewing the city's application have been making an endless number of telephone requests for additional information.

U.S. Car Production To Slow This Week

DETROIT (AP) — The U. S. auto industry which has turned out over eight million cars and trucks since Jan. 1 slowed its production rate this week because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Over 188,000 cars were built last week, but the one-day holiday interruption was expected to drop this week's figure to near the 150,000 mark.

City Taxes 95 Per Cent Collected

Approximately 95 per cent of the taxes levied in Marquette have been collected, City Treasurer Glen B. Wilson reports.

City taxes become due and payable July 1 each year, and a one per cent penalty fee is assessed against the unpaid amounts for each month thereafter. Hence there is now a four per cent penalty collection fee in effect, but the fee goes up by one per cent, to five per cent, next week.

This year a total of $608,876.72 in city and library taxes and unpaid special assessments were levied on the tax rolls. Up to today $572,812.28 had been collected, leaving an unpaid balance of $36,064.44, meaning collections have totaled about 94 per cent.

School Tax Collections

Collections of school and school debt taxes totaled $845,364.25, out of a total of $881,891.25 levied for the year. The unpaid balance of $36,530 represents approximately four per cent of the total.

County taxes also become due and payable in December. All county and city taxes which are unpaid by March 1 are designated as being delinquent and the rolls are turned over to the county treasurer's office.

Armed Forces

Recently promoted to specialist four, while serving with the 1st Armored Division at Ft. Hood, Texas was Paul H. Leveque, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Leveque, Munising. Leveque, a member of the division's 501st Military Police Company, entered the Army in Jan. 1962 and completed basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

Ernest P. Gregorich, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Gregorich, 545 Fisher St., Marquette, and Ronald L. Garber, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armin Garber, Route 1, Marquette, are undergoing basic training at the Naval Training

Shiras Institute Grants $500 To Tourist Group

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Shiras Institute this morning, a contribution of $500 for the Upper Michigan Tourist Association was approved.

The tourist association, which twice this year has been turned down in its effort to obtain assistance from the City of Marquette, is headquartered here but has been given an offer of free office space in Escanaba.

City officials have declined to participate in a grant for the tourist association because of the financial condition of the city, but indicated the matter would be reopened later.

Under Trust Fund

The Shiras Institute operates a trust fund set up by the late George Shiras III and Frances P. Shiras. Funds are used in accordance with the regulations of the trust, for the benefit of the public "in the fields of beautification, recreation and cultural activities in Marquette and Upper Michigan."

Frank J. Russell, president of the board, made the announcement of the grant for the tourist association.

Donations For Slain Dallas Policeman Accepted Here

Contributions are being accepted here for the family of the slain Dallas policeman, whose death was all but obscured by the slaying of President Kennedy and the President's accused assassin, Lee Oswald.

Chief of Police George G. Johnson announced today that donations for the family of J. D. Tippitt will be accepted by the police department and forwarded to the Tippitt family. Contributions should be made out to the "J.D. Tippitt Fund," he said.

Johnson said every member of the Marquette Police Department has already contributed to the fund.

Others Donated

The Marquette County Law Enforcement Officers Association and a number of city employees also have donated to the fund.

"It will be a lonely Christmas for the Tippitts," Johnson said, "and perhaps we can help them out a little. Policemen's wages aren't big to begin with, and without any insurance (Dallas police were not covered by municipal insurance), the family will be able to use anything it gets."

University Area Branch Bank Opens in Marquette

With ribbon-cutting ceremonies and participation by civic and community leaders, the University Area Branch Bank of the First National Bank at Fair Ave. and Third Sts. was opened this morning.

S. M. Cohodas, president, in remarks broadcast over WDMJ, The Mining Journal station, said:

"To keep pace with the growth of the area the bank serves, we are naming this unit of First National the University Area Branch to better identify it to the people of Marquette. We at First National have immense faith in the future of the Marquette area. This building being opened today is tangible proof of this faith."

Compliments Leadership

Preceding Cohodas were Dr. Edgar L. Harden, President of Northern Michigan University, who predicted a substantial business development within the area and complimented the leadership of First National in providing area banking facilities. Mayor Fred Rydholm expressed appreciation for the years of service the bank has given to the community, and Harlan Larson, Marquette Chamber of Commerce president, reflected the pleasure of the business community that this development could only be interpreted as growth for Marquette and for the area within the bank's zone of service.

County Gets $151,977 For Schools

Marquette County has received $151,977.82 from the Michigan Department of Public Instruction as its school districts' share of the primary school interest fund.

The apportionment is based on the 1962 public school census, and is distributed at a rate of $9.19 per student in each district.

Money is received from the state by the county treasurer's office, which this week distributed the appropriation to the various school districts within the county.

Breakdown Given
A breakdown of the distribution follows; listing the number of school children first and the appropriation for each district second:

Lions Man Yule Kettle This Friday

Members of the Lions Club will man the familiar red and green Salvation Army kettle on W. Washington St. this Friday.

The Lions will be the first of four service clubs in Marquette to take a Friday turn at handling the kettle post for the "Army." Other service clubs participating in the project are the Exchange Club, Dec. 6; Jaycees, Dec. 13, and Kiwanis Club, Dec. 20.

Service club members vie for a trophy given by the Salvation Army to the club collecting the most money for the cause.

Robert E. Moore, Christmas committee chairman for the Salvation Army, said, that the Lions will man the kettle booth Friday afternoon and evening. He also said some womens clubs will assist at the booth this season.

$3,000 Goal

Moore points out that the Salvation Army Christmas Committee, working with Major R. B. Sharp, Marquette area commander, has set a goal of $3,000 for this year's appeal.

"This is the same goal as was set last year. Last year's quota was met, but it is hoped the response this year will be generous enough for the goal to be reached, enabling the Salvation Army to better meet the Christmas welfare needs for this area," Moore said.

It is reported that the Salvation Army in the Marquette area, during the 1962 Christmas season prepared and distributed 174 food baskets to needy families, and assisted a total of 1,990 persons, in some way, with Christmas Cheer.

The other members of the Christmas committee are Mrs. Fannie Aartila, Leslie Erickson, H. R. Heathman, James H. Luke and Ellwood A. Mattson.

Was Oswald Really Guilty? The Evidence Says 'Yes'

Though it will never be presented in a court of law, the evidence against Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, was "complete and convincing," according to Dallas police officials. Salient aspects of that evidence are illustrated by sketches above.

It goes back as far as 1956 when Oswald, then 17, joined the U.S. Marine Corps and learned sharpshooting (1). FBI analysts proved handwriting on a mail order, sent to a Chicago firm in March 1963 purchasing the rifle used in the assassination, was written by Oswald (2). Oswald was also confronted with a photograph of him posing with his rifle and also the pistol used to kill Dallas patrolman J. D. Tippitt (3). Oswald admitted ownership of the pistol.

Got Job In Building

Only days after details of President Kennedy's trip to Dallas were announced in September, Oswald got a job in a building along the route the President was to take and rented a room nearby under a fictitious name (4). A map was later found in the room plotting the path of the bullets that killed President Kennedy and wounded Texas Gov. John B. Connally, whom Oswald had once threatened by letter.

According to Oswald's Russian wife, he always kept the rifle in the garage at their home in suburban Irving but, she said, it was not there on Friday, Nov. 22, the day of the assassination (5).

Witnesses testified they saw Oswald carry a package to work that day, which he said was window blinds (6), and fellow workers say that he remained upstairs in the building while they watched the presidential motorcade pass.

Palm Print Evidence

Most damaging evidence was Oswald's palm print, found on the murder rifle and on a carton by the window from which the shots were fired (7). The rifle and spent cartridges, and remains of a chicken lunch, were abandoned by the killer.

Housekeeper at Oswald's rooming house saw him run in while she was listening to news of the assassination, grab a coat and run out again without speaking (8).

Oswald testified against himself by killing one policeman during his flight and attempting to kill another when he was arrested in a theater (9). Finally, a paraffin test for gunpowder proved he had fired a gun (10). Traces were found on both hands, indicating he had fired a rifle.

Construction, Maintenance Jobs On County Roads Told

Construction and maintenance work carried out on state trunklines and county roads in Marquette County during the past month was listed today by H. L. Shroeger, Marquette, superintendent-engineer of the county road commission.

On state trunklines, in carrying out road surfaces and shoulder repairs 884 tons of crushed gravel, eight tons of cover stone, 300 gallons of asphalt and 72 tons of black top surface were used.

Other operations accounted for the cleaning of 19 culverts, replacement of five guard rail posts, the removal and storing of 20 roadside picnic tables and the cleaning of 69 intersections and cross overs.

County Road Construction

The blacktop construction on County Road 553 north of Road 480 was completed with the construction of 1.7 miles of crushed gravel shoulders. This project accounted for the placing of 770 tons of crushed gravel.

The local road improvement program, as being carried out in cooperation with the Ewing Township Board, accounted for the construction of 3.5 miles of road and the placing of 7,748 tons of crushed gravel, 530 cubic yards of gravel, four tons of calcium chloride and 68 lineal feet of metal pipe culvert.

Blacktopping Operation

In cooperation with the Humboldt Township Board and in preparation for the blacktopping operations, 25 cubic yards of gravel and 86 lineal feet of 18-inch metal pipe culvert were used. In addition, 116 lineal feet of metal pipe culvert was reset and one mile of roadside brush was cut and removed.

The reconstruction project on Road 545 in Forsyth and West Branch Townships accounted for the completion of one mile of improvement, with 9,981 cubic yards of sand, 6,644 tons of crushed gravel, 6.25 tons of calcium chloride and 32 lineal feet of 30-inch metal pipe culvert placed in carrying out this improvement.

During the month, the crushing plants produced 8,547 tons of crushed gravel.

Maintenance Job

Damage to road and shoulder surfaces accounted for the placing of 9,051 cubic yards of gravel, 3,226 tons of crushed gravel and 82 tons of blacktop.

Extensive drainage repair operations accounted for the placing of 300 lineal feet of metal pipe culvert, the cleaning and marking of 112 metal pipe culverts and the resetting of two metal pipe culverts.

In addition, 555 lineal feet of ditches were reconstructed. There were 204 guard rail posts replaced and 2,586 board feet of lumber used in bridge repair operations.

Miscellaneous operations accounted for the erection of 53 road signs, the cutting and removing of one mile of roadside brush, the placing of 2.75 tons of calcium chloride on dusty road surfaces, the removal of four cubic yards of trash on the Sugar Leaf Landing area on County Road 550 and the placing of 55 square yards of sodding on the eroded benches at Perkins Park, Big Bay.

Friday as part of the two-day gathering of the Upper Peninsula Association of Supervisors.

A 1955 graduate of Marquette University, Brouillette served in the Army two years before beginning law practice in Niagara in 1957. In 1958 he joined his brother, William, in a law firm here.

Brouillette was appointed city attorney in April 1959 and in 1960 was elected prosecutor. He is now in his second term of office.

The supervisors' conference will open Friday morning with registration and after luncheon a meeting will be held at which talks will be given by Ken Dorman, secretary-manager of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, and two officers of the Michigan Association of Supervisors, Horace Hodge, president, and William E. Denison, secretary.

Election of officers and other business is scheduled for the concluding session Saturday morning.

Soo Line's Stenberg Retires

Arthur C. Stenberg, general freight traffic manager for western sales, Soo Line Railroad Co., who for many years was in charge of the railroad's freight office here, has retired.

Since the formation of the New Soo by the merger in January 1961 of the Soo Line Railroad, Wisconsin Central and the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Railroad Cos., Stenberg has directed the Soo's sales force in the western U.S. and Canada from offices in Seattle.

Stenberg will be succeeded by Kenneth H. Peterson, freight traffic manager, eastern sales, Chicago, who will retain his office in Chicago.

Began In 1913

Stenberg began his career in railroad freight traffic in 1913 with the South Shore.

He held every position in the DSS&A's traffic department, advancing from the clerical ranks to become head of the department in 1946 as general traffic manager. He worked for the DSS&A in Duluth and Spokane, as well as in Seattle and Marquette.

Commission Okays Two Requests For Rezoning

Two requests for rezoning have been granted by the Marquette City Commission.

Following public hearings, the commission rezoned:

- Property which extends eastward from the west city limits 297 feet and is bounded by Westwood Rd. and U.S. 41, previously split into general business and general residential areas, to general business.
- Two lots in Woodland Park Addition, on Tracy Ave. and near Center Sts., previously

Man Waives Hearing; Held To Circuit Court

Earl Bressette, 41, of 425 N. Fourth St., was bound over to the December term of Marquette County Circuit Court by Municipal Judge Edward H. Dembowski yesterday on a charge of drunk and disorderly — third offense.

Bressette waived preliminary examination on the circuit court misdemeanor. He was committed to the Marquette County Jail in default of $100 bond.

City police arrested him Monday on N. Fourth St. for being drunk and disorderly. Previous arrests were July 19 and Sept. 13.

State Police Hunt Three Hunters Who Raped Mother, Girl

BALDWIN — State police continued a search today for three men in hunting garb said to have kidnapped and raped a 32-year-old Coloma woman and her 12-year-old daughter Sunday.

Several suspects were questioned and released Monday, officers said. The woman's car had been stopped when a gunshot punctured a tire, police said. She and her daughter were taken in a 1963 blue Ford convertible or hardtop and assaulted in a lonely area northeast of Baldwin, they said.

Forty ships from some 20 nations are currently engaged in the International Indian Ocean Expedition. Of major importance will be studies in marine biology, for although this ocean contains the world's most productive fishing grounds, it has an unusually high fish mortality rate.

Marquette School Board Opens Bids On Equipment

Marquette's board of education opened bids at its regular meeting in the Graveraet building yesterday on 560 types of movable equipment for the new high school.

The school staff will begin an extensive study of the proposals. Superintendent Henry J. Bothwell will then present the staff's recommendations to the board for consideration.

Cost of the movable equipment is expected to be upwards of $145,000. (In May the board awarded three contracts totaling $136,645 for the new high school's built-in equipment.)

Of the total cost of the movable equipment, $116,875 will be provided by the federal government and the remainder will be provided by funds from the high school bond issue.

The school district is able to receive the federal allocation because a qualifying percentage of dependents of federal government employees attend the public schools here.

Must Meet U.S. Rules

Because federal funds are being used, the school board must meet several federal regulations in awarding the contracts. A representative of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, A. G. Lipsett, Sault Ste. Marie, was present and will help to select equipment.

Bidders were asked to submit quotations by groupings. There were 567 items broken down into 30 groups.

Twenty firms submitted bids for at least one of the 30 groups. However, the board did not consider the bids of seven firms which did not meet specifications, in that they did not bid on all items in a group or did not present the required certified check.

No bids met specifications for two groups, sewing machines and clinic furniture. The school board will call for proposals for these groups later.

Bids received yesterday were:

1. Classroom and office furniture, McFadden Corp., Lansing, $14,925.35; Northern Stationers, Inc., Marquette, $21,467.90; U.P. Office Supply Co., Marquette, $21,997.76, and

2. Classroom and office equipment, Northern Stationers, $3,302.18; U.P. Office Supply, $3,770.85, and Valley School, $4,921.85.
3. Office machines, Altman's, Marquette, $7,217.
4. Mathematics equipment, U.P. Office Supply, $9,445.
5. General school supplies, U.P. Office Supply, $301.12; Northern Stationers, $342.05; and Valley School, $380.49.

Biological Supplies

6. Biological Supplies and equipment, Michigan Medical Supply Co., Ann Arbor, $5,236.29, and U.P. Office Supply, $5,410.06.
7. Homemaking and home economics furniture, U.P. Office Supply, $1,365.04.
8. Sewing machines, no bids meeting specifications.
9. Homemaking appliances, Northland Appliance, Marquette, $1,696.30.
10. Physical education equipment, U.P. Office Supply, $6,053.95, and Valley School, $6,529.20.

Audio Visual Equipment

11. Audio visual equipment, Superior Audio-Visual Corp., Ironwood, $2,711.67; Northern Stationers, $2,788.47; U.P. Office Supply, $2,984, and Valley School, $3,091.65.
12. Physics, U.P. Office Supply, $4,096.18, and Valley School, $6,864.70.
13. Social Studies teaching aids, U.P. Office Supply, $2,965.06.

30. IBM typewriters, Altman's, $1,305 and I.B.M. Corp., Marquette, $1,731.25.

Rights Group Bill Ready For Action

LANSING (AP)—The bill spelling out the powers of the State Civil Rights Commission today was ready for action in the special legislative session which starts Tuesday.

The bill sailed through the House-Senate Constitutional Implementation Committee Tuesday with only a hint of controversy. But Committee Chairman Rep. Rollo Conlin, R-Tipton, predicted "a hassle" over it during the session.

Committee Co-Chairman Sen. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, said the endorsement was not to be taken as a "unanimous consent with the attorney general on this."

Absolute Power

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley last summer handed down an opinion saying the commission will have absolute power to protect civil rights in education, housing, employment, and public accommodations.

Sen. Kent Lundgren, R-Memnonie, asked what limitations will be placed on the commission's powers.

He said he does not oppose the commission idea but is "afraid they're creating a huge agency with no control over it. I want to see it have reasonable control over it. I want to see it have reasonable controls on it."

FEPC Law

Brown said the commission's spending could be limited through its legislative appropriation.

Also, Brown said part of the Fair Employment Practices Commission Law will apply to the new commission. The Civil Rights Commission will replace the FEPC, taking over its unspent funds.

The committee approved a bill appropriating "such funds as may be necessary" to operate the commission.

Northern's TV Program On Berlin Tonight

"Focus on Berlin," the second program in the "World Today" series presented by Northern Michigan University television station WNMR-TV, will be telecast at 10 tonight over Channel 3.

Dr. Milton Byrd, NMU vice president in charge of academic affairs, will serve as moderator. Panel members will be Profs. Eugene Whitehouse and Andrei Lobanov of the history department; Jarl Roine, geography, and William A. Hambley, political science. The program originally had been scheduled for Friday but was postponed due to the President's death.

One Injured, Three Given Tickets In City Accidents

One person was injured, three motorists were issued summonses and six vehicles were involved in three traffic mishaps reported today by city police.

1. At 1:05 yesterday afternoon a car being driven east on W. College Ave. by William D. LaPorte, 47, of 1952 Waldo St., was struck by automobile operated by Vernon S. Calkins, 42, of 238 W. Michigan St., who was traveling north on Third.
- LaPorte said he had stopped for the stop sign and then drove out, not seeing Calkins approaching.
- Dora LaPorte, 46, riding with her husband, complained of a bump on the right side of her temple. She sought her own treatment.
- Extensive damage resulted to the right front of LaPorte's 1959

sedan, which had to be towed from the scene by a wrecker. The left front of Calkins' car, a 1963 sedan, was damaged. It was driven from the scene.

Right-Of-Way Violation

City police ticketed LaPorte for a right-of-way violation.

2. An automobile being driven south on S. Front St. by Lucille G. Bunge, 20, of 101 Genesee St., was struck by a vehicle operated by Donald F. Goggin, 19, K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, who was traveling east on Baraga Ave. and turning right (south) onto Front, at 9:25 last night.
- The right front fender of the Bunge car, a 1961 twodoor, was damaged. Apparently no damage resulted to Goggin's vehicle.
- Didn't Yield Way
- Goggin was ticketed for a right-of-way violation.
3. City police also reported the solution of a hit-and-run accident which had occurred at 10:55 Saturday night at the corner of Bluff and N. Third Sts., where a car owned by Jerry T. Bafford, Sawyer Base, was struck by an unknown vehicle.
- Arrested On 2 Counts
- Officers on patrol yesterday noticed a car with the license number similar to the one believed to have struck Bafford's vehicle. They brought the driver, Gary B. Clark, 19, County Road 550, to the police station, where he admitted being the motorist whose car struck the Bafford auto.
- Clark was issued two summonses by city police, one for leaving the scene of a property damage accident and the other for failing to have his car under control.

2 Alleys Vacated By City

Two alleys east of S. Front St. which actually have been non-existent for many years have been officially ordered vacated by the Marquette City Commission.

The vacated alleys run parallel to S. Front St., one 145 feet east and the other 230 feet east. They extend between extended Genesee and Mesnard Sts.

City Clerk Everett H. Kent explained that although it was thought that the alleys had been vacated years ago, no record of the action could be found. The U.P. Office Supply Co. has a warehouse opposite one of them.

To Lease For Industry

George T. Bergren, Minneapolis, industrial and real estate commissioner for the Soo Line Railroad Co., requested the city to vacate the alleys.

The Soo Line intends to lease parts of three lots including parts adjacent to the now vacated alleys, to an industry that plans to build on the site this year.

The commission ordered the two alleys vacated following a public hearing, during which no one spoke for or against the proposal.

Our New President

The Russian government newspaper Pravda (Truth) said of America's new President in the first reaction to the death of President Kennedy that the Vice President who succeeded him was an obscure politician. That's a rather wild untruth, even for the Russians.

Lyndon Baines Johnson, who became our 36th President with the assassination of John Fitzgerald Kennedy, is one of the most astute politicians in American life, a man whose place was firm in American political history if he had never held office higher than the U. S. Senate, because he was one of the most successful Senate majority leaders in history.

All American adults, surely, will recall the stirring days of the 1960 Democratic national convention when Mr. Johnson was a nominee for the presidency. He had more stature than John Kennedy on the basis of their political records, but Mr. Kennedy was the party choice. The next day Mr. Johnson was called by the nominee and asked to accept the nomination for Vice President, and he accepted.

It was a step-down for Mr. Johnson, a proud man who wielded great power as the majority leader of the Senate; much more power than he would as the Vice President and presiding officer of the Senate. The vice presidency is a way to political obscurity except in the case of the President's death.

Lyndon Johnson was the eighth Vice President to be elevated to the White House through the death of a chief executive.

The American people and the world are fortunate that so able a man takes up the reins of government leadership in the crisis created by the assassination of President Kennedy. President Johnson's genius is in organization of political action, and there is no greater theater for such talents than in the office in which he now finds himself.

His friend Sen. Russell (D-Georgia) has said that Mr. Johnson hasn't the best mind in the Senate and isn't its best orator or parliamentarian, but that he is the best combination of these qualities. He will have the full backing of the American people in office, and they will be mindful of his huge burden and thankful for his capacities.

As the horror of the assassination dims with time, the normal course of political action will be restored, and with it will come realization that looming over the White House today is a sky very much changed from that of President Kennedy's days. He was conceded re-election by most experienced politicians, as he had a huge popularity with the American people and was disliked only for the best reasons, like championing civil rights and aid to backward peoples.

President Johnson, at his very best, cannot be a John F. Kennedy, and even though he should prove an excellent President, he still is a different one and the break in the administration will cause a sea change in national politics in the new year, which brings the presidential campaign. Mr. Johnson is a Southern Democrat. That is a fact of enormous political significance. The uncertainties about American policy which swept the world with the death of President Kennedy will have their domestic echo in our regional power structure. The nation has not had a President from the South since 1865, when Andrew Johnson, a Republican, succeeded to the presidency upon the assassination of Abraham Lincoln.

Thanksgiving Day

Having proclaimed Thursday, Nov. 28, as a day of national Thanksgiving, President Kennedy issued this invitation to all Americans before his untimely death.

"On that day let us gather in sanctuaries dedicated to worship and in homes blessed by family affection to express our gratitude for the glorious gifts of God; and let us earnestly and humbly pray that He will continue to guide and sustain us in the great unfinished tasks of achieving peace, justice and understanding among all men and all nations and of ending misery and suffering wherever they exist."

In sanctuaries dedicated to worship and in homes blessed by family affection. Are not those the most glorious gifts of God? That he has given us sanctuaries to worship Him each according to his conscience and a nation where religious freedom is the first right guaranteed all citizens? And growing out of this great gift, homes blessed by family affection? The poorest among us has those glorious gifts of God, as does the wealthiest, each as abundantly as the other.

The official custom of giving thanks to God for our blessings began more than three and a half centuries ago, in Jamestown and Plymouth. After independence, President Washington called on the people to give thanks to God and to ask his pardon. In the midst of the civil war, President Lincoln asked the people to give thanks for the nation's singular deliverance and blessings.

Now after the wars of this century, President Kennedy reminded us "Our population, our plenty and our power have all grown apace. Today we are a nation of nearly 200 million souls stretching from coast to coast and on into the Pacific and north toward the Arctic, a nation enjoying the fruits of an ever-expanding agriculture and industry and achieving standards of living unknown in previous history. We give our thanks for this.

"Yet, as our power has grown, so has our peril. Today we give our thanks, most of all, for the ideals of honor and faith we inherit from our forefathers — for the decency of purpose, steadfastness of resolve and strength of will, for the courage and the humility, which they possessed and which we must seek every day to emulate. As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words but to live by them!"

The National Whirligig News Behind The News

By ANDREW TULLY

WASHINGTON — While Congress dragged its feet on the civil rights program, the Supreme Court apparently decided it must take over the show and decide whether a property owner has the right to call the cops to keep Negroes off his property.

The court has not thus interjected itself in so many words and, indeed, it might find an escape hatch by which it can avoid such a basic ruling. But it has ordered the Justice Department to give its opinion on the matter in cases involving sit-in convictions in three states, and the indication is that the court has concluded it must get to the heart of the matter.

Last spring, the court upset other sit-in convictions either because of the existence of segregation laws or because public policies encouraged and enforced de facto segregation. But now the NAACP has asked the court to rule that the 15th Amendment's provision prohibiting discrimination by states also means the states must enforce equal treatment of all.

In the pending cases, the Justice Department's brief reflected the administration's unwillingness to force a showdown now. It noted that it "seems unnecessary and undesirable at this time" to obtain a ruling on the conflict involved between personal and property rights. After several weeks of pondering the cases, the court by a 5-4 vote asked for Justice's views and gave the department 30 days to file an additional brief. The parties to the cases also will get another 30 days to respond.

It is the premise of the demonstrators that it becomes discrimination by a state when police are used to help a store owner bar Negroes from his property. The NAACP does not ask the court to bar discrimination by private citizens, but only to order the states to keep their hands off the situation. It claims that "equal protection under the law" requires the states to protect—or at least not interfere with—those who claim equality. It asks that the court prohibit the states from using their judicial machinery to convict demonstrators, thus giving "substantial support" to the custom of segregation.

As of now, the matter rests on a decision by the Supreme Court in 1883 which held that the 14th Amendment prohibits only discrimination by state action but no discrimination by private citizens. But the court has never ruled on whether a property owner has the right to call police to enforce his right to choose his customers on the basis of the color of their skin.

It is risky to try to predict how the court will act on any case, of course, and yet there may be a hint in the recent ruling of Delaware's State Supreme Court. Although that court upheld the right of a property owner to refuse to serve a Negro, it forbade the police of Delaware to enforce the exclusion of Negroes at the request of the private owner. Presumably, the court was saying that peaceful sit-ins were legal, while upholding the right of a property owner to obtain police help in excluding Negroes in cases of misconduct.

Won't End Problems This is pretty thin stuff, because if a property owner wants to bar Negroes from his premises he is going to be highly imaginative about conjuring up charges of misconduct. In any honest court, his case would take a rightful beating, but in the meantime he would have kept Negroes out of his store or restaurant. And, of course, no court can take a chance on refusing a property owner the protection of police in legitimate instances of violence or misconduct on the part of patrons.

However, the Supreme Court rules on these sit-in cases, it looks like sticky going ahead. In the end, both sides probably will have to be satisfied with the same kind of ruling handed down in the restricted covenant cases — in other words that segregation cannot be enforced in the courts. There are still plenty of residential areas where Negroes are excluded, and there will still be plenty of restaurants where Negroes will be told the management is fresh out of tables.

World's Toughest Job

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Some notes on "the world's toughest job" — the presidency of the United States:

Despite the awful pressures of the post, 27 of the 34 men who served as President before Lyndon B. Johnson lived to be over 80—and three are still alive.

Four Assassinated Of the eight who died in office, four were felled by assassins.

The most durable President to date was John Adams, variously known as "Atlas of Independence," "His Rotundity" and "Old Sink or Swim." He lived 90 years and 295 days and died on the same 4th of July as did Thomas Jefferson, who was 83.

The oldest President to die in office, William Henry Harrison, 68, "Old Tippecanoe," succumbed to pneumonia exactly a month after he took office on March 4, 1841. He caught cold after riding to the Capitol on a white horse in stormy weather and delivering the longest inaugural message on record—8,578 words.

His successor, John Tyler, who served out his term, lived to be 71. Tyler had two wives. He had 15 children, the largest number of any President. Seven of the children were born during the 16 years he survived after leaving the White House.

Of the three Presidents besides William Henry Harrison who died of natural causes while in office, only one, Warren G. Harding, 57, was under 60. Zachary Taylor was 65, Franklin D. Roosevelt, 63.

At 45, John F. Kennedy, the youngest man ever elected President, was also the youngest to die. He was the second Democrat to die in office, the first slain while in power.

Garfield Killed At 49 The second youngest President to die was James A. Garfield, killed by an assassin at the age of 49.

Sixteen past Presidents, including the three now living, survived to be 70 or over. Five made it to 80 or more, among them Herbert Hoover.

Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy died in coma within a short period after being shot by assassins.

Garfield lived for 80 days. President William McKinley lived for eight days after he was shot Sept. 6, 1901, at the Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo, N. Y.

Since 1958, by the act of Congress, all presidential widows receive pensions of $10,000 a year.

Kennedy Ineligible For Nobel Prize? OSLO, Norway (AP) — President John F. Kennedy probably cannot be awarded the Nobel Peace Prize posthumously because he was not nominated for it while he was alive, Director August Schou of the Norwegian Nobel Institute said today.

The Peruvian Chamber of Deputies proposed Kennedy for the prize.

Art Fortune Arrives In Tomato Disguise LONDON (AP) — A fortune in paintings arrived in London disguised as tomatoes.

Insurance men valued them at $10 million. Spanish galleries sent them for exhibit at the Royal Academy, beginning Dec. 7.

All the paintings are by Francisco Goya, one of whose portraits of the Duke of Wellington was stolen from Britain's National Gallery in 1961.

The 95 cases traveled from Spain in two railroad cars. From the outside they looked exactly like 37 others in the train, all loaded with tomatoes.

'Brigadoon' Review

Dear Sir: On behalf of the board of directors of the Marquette Community Theatre, Inc. I would like to express our appreciation in regard to the "Brigadoon" review published in The Mining Journal of Nov. 6, 1963. We feel that Dr. Rapport, a person well-qualified to criticize, gave us an honest and fair review and we are grateful that he made himself available for this purpose.

We would be pleased to have him review future productions.

Profile Of Kennedy

By JOSEPH ALSOP

WASHINGTON — Of all the men in public life in his time, John Fitzgerald Kennedy was the most ideally formed to lead the United States of America.

Such, at any rate, is this reporter's judgment, perhaps biased, but at any rate based on long experience and close observation, and no longer possible to suspect as self-serving. To be sure, judging Kennedy was never easy, for he was no common man, to be judged by common standards.

Pride in Past, Confidence in Future Courage, intelligence and practicality: a passion for excellence and a longing to excel; above all, a deep love of this country, a burning desire in its past and unremitting confidence in the American future — these were the qualities which acted, so to say, as the mainsprings of Kennedy the President.

Kennedy the man, Kennedy the private face, was half the enemy and half the reinforcement of Kennedy the President. He had an enviable grace of manner and person. He enjoyed pleasure. After Theodore Roosevelt, he was the first American President to care for learning for his own sake. After Abraham Lincoln, he was the first American President with a vein of personal humor — which is a very different thing from the capacity to make jokes.

This strange, dry, detached, self-mocking humor no doubt aided him to assess men and events; but in his public role, it was a handicap. Certainly it was not the same sort of handicap as Lincoln's humor, which actually prevented great numbers of otherwise intelligent persons from taking Lincoln seriously.

Shunned Public Exhibition Of Emotion Kennedy's humor instead inhibited him from showing the depth of his feelings. Any public exhibition of emotion gave him gooseflesh. So foolish people said he was a cold, unfeeling man, although few men in our time have had stronger feelings about those things that mattered to him.

After his country, what mattered most to him was to live intensely, with purpose and effect. He was in some sense the ultimate personification of the observation of Justice Holmes: "Man is born to act; to act is to affirm the worth of an end; and to affirm the worth of an end is to create an ideal."

The ideal that Kennedy affirmed in action was singularly simple: for no man was ever more contemptuous of the theological complexities of ideology. (It was hard to know, indeed, whether he held a more serene contempt for the doctrinaire mushiness of the extreme American left or for the doctrinaire hate-preachings of the extreme American right. He was slow to anger, but these made his gorge rise.)

A Summary Of His Ideal

His ideal could be completely summed up in only a score or so of words — a nation conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal; the proud stronghold of a new birth of freedom; and the standing promise to all men that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth. The noble, ancient phrases, the pieced-together tags from the finest of all American utterances, are as well-worn by now as antique coins, whose legend is illegible. But he could read the legend still. He still took this definition of our nation's purpose with perfect literalness, and this was the ideal that his actions sought to affirm.

Whereas Franklin Delano Roosevelt took office when the nation was clamoring for leadership and crying out to be shown a new course, John Fitzgerald Kennedy took office in a violent, yet hardly comprehensible, change. Too many, then as now, confronted the vast revolutionary processes of our time either with fatty complacency or with shrill, embittered indignation. His task was therefore a hard task, and he was untimely cut off before his task could be half done.

Yet if we look at our country and the world in which we live — if we honestly compare the prospects now opening before us with the prospects as they seemed when Kennedy's presidency began — we can see that there has been a new birth of hope.

Epitaph On Spartan Tomb It is perhaps pardonable, at this moment, to be personal. Speaking for myself, I have not dared to hope as I do now since those first months of the Korean War, when such overly high hopes were born from the strong sense that America was grandly accomplishing a high, historic service. That service had its heavy price. I still remember watching the Wolfhound Regiment through a long, hard fight and how the bodies of the fallen were carried in when the fight was won and how I suddenly could think only of Simonides' epitaph that was inscribed, for all to read, on the tomb of the dead Spartans at Thermopylae:

Go, stranger, and in Lacedaemon tell That here obedient to the laws we fell.

The President who is lost to us, like those men who were lost so many years ago, was no drilled, unthinking Spartan. He was the worthy citizen of a nation great and free — a nation, as he liked to think, that is great because it is free, and this was the thought that always inspired his too brief leadership of this republic.

A President's Courage

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy probably never meant to be his own prophet but he was when he explained eight years ago why he chose certain men in American history for his book, "Profiles in Courage."

His prophecy became his epitaph. "The courage of life," he said, long before he was considered for the presidency, "is often a less dramatic spectacle than the courage of a final moment; but it is no less a magnificent mixture of triumph and tragedy."

Basis Of Morality "A man does what he must — in spite of personal consequences, in spite of obstacles and dangers and pressures — and that is the basis of all human morality."

It took courage to push through crowds to shake hands or ride through a city with the top down. He knew the consequences might be assassination, and they were. But he felt what he did needed doing.

Youthful Sense Of Life The deeper courage of his life, as with others before him, was in seeking the presidency and then trying to make good at it, with all that implies in effort.

He gave the presidency a youthful sense of life unmatched since the bouncing days of Theodore Roosevelt, if only because all the others in between were older when they took office. Kennedy was only 43.

An Indefinable Thing President Johnson, 55, cannot be expected to spend himself as tirelessly, at least in a physical way, as Kennedy. His heart attack of 1955 makes it important not to get over-fatigued.

Kennedy brought more than courage and energy to the White House. Like Sir Winston Churchill, he had that indefinable thing called grace.

Always Had Grace Churchill always had style but he developed grace late in life. He showed it in his quiet humor, even at his own expense, and in his avoidance of political brawling.

At this moment, so close to his death and before the emotion over his assassination melts away, it is impossible to measure his place in history. Almost Elegantly He was President less than three years or only five months longer than Harding, who was a misfit no matter how he is looked at. Kennedy, on the contrary, fitted into the presidency almost elegantly.

Yet, his less than three years of service were hardly more than a beginning, a foundation for what lay ahead since he seemed very likely to win a second term.

Highly Popular, Respected In that time, abroad, he had become a highly popular and respected figure. He had established better relations with the Soviet Union than had existed. He won the confidence of most of Latin America.

His place in history may well depend upon the fact, if it proves to be a fact, that he broke the ice of the cold war. But it is too soon to do more than suggest that may be result of the work he did in his short time.

His domestic record is spotty. In his presidency the country became more prosperous and perhaps more self-confident, particularly when he assured it the United States was ahead of the Soviet Union in long-range missiles.

But he bogged down badly with Congress. All through 1963 Congress just drifted, frustrating completely his request for a new civil rights law and a tax cut. Maybe it would have done better next year.

Not In His Nature Maybe it would have done better this year if he had been harsher and tougher.

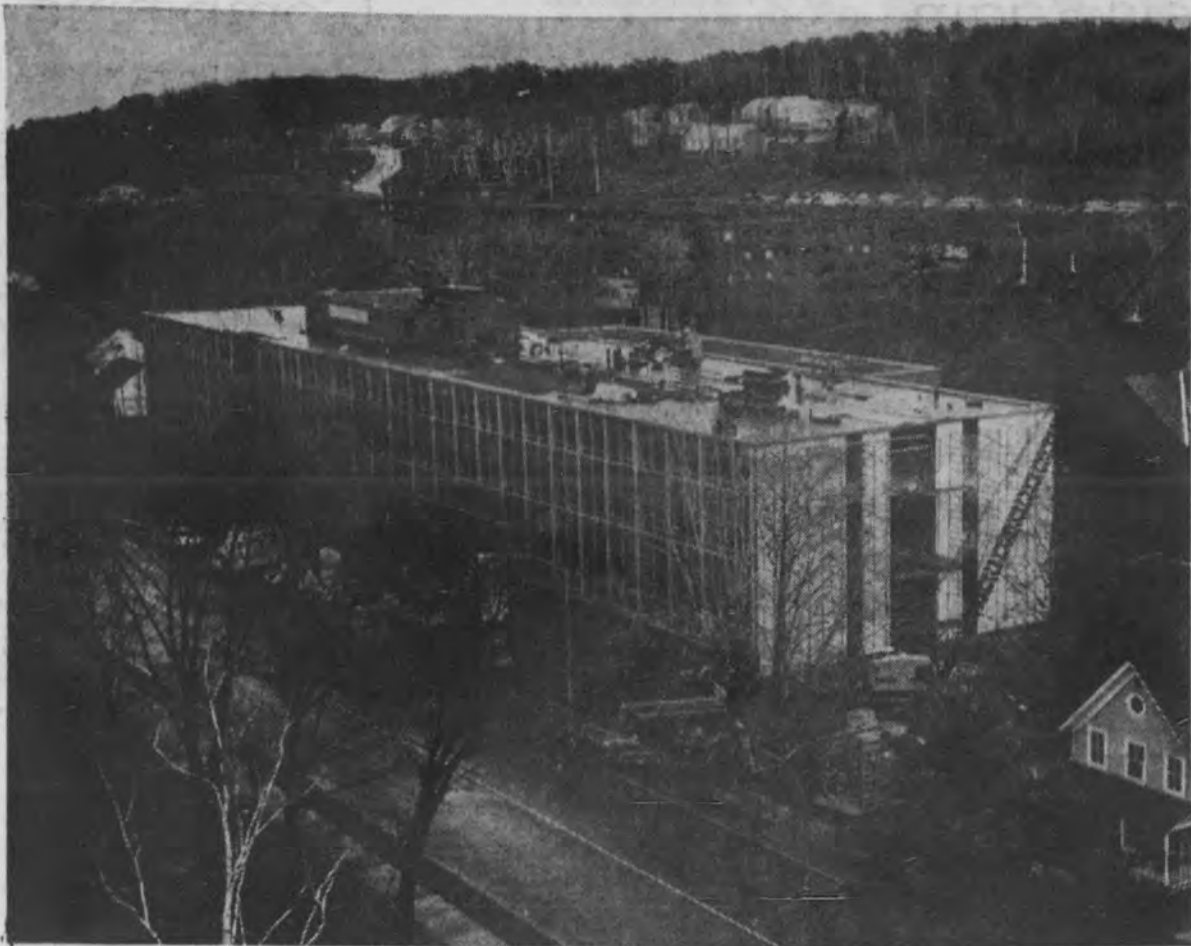

It didn't seem to be in his nature to be harsh and he appeared unwilling to be very tough except as a last resort, such as in making Premier Khrushchev take his missiles out of Cuba or using troops to stop Southern governors' defiance of federal court orders.

Grand Rapids Bugler Sounded Taps At Kennedy's Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Grand Rapids bugler, an Army veteran of 17 years, sounded taps at the funeral of President John F. Kennedy.

Sgt. Keith Clark also sounded taps two weeks ago when the assassinated President placed a wreath at the tomb of the unknown soldier, also at Arlington Cemetery.

Exterior Work On Tech Building Finished

It's been a close race with the weatherman, but exterior work on Michigan Tech's Fisher Hall is virtually completed. This will enable workmen to complete the interior during the winter months, regardless of how frightful the weather outside may be. The new $2,735,000 addition to Tech's Houghton campus is scheduled for completion next spring. It will house the departments of mathematics and physics and the engineering graphics division of the Department of Mechanical Engineering. Pictured behind Fisher Hall is Wadsworth Hall, one of the largest college residence halls in the nation with space for almost 1,000 students. Above Wadsworth is Daniell Heights, the housing area for Tech's married students.

Seven Pay Fines Here; Trial Set

One person was fined for a firearms violation and six motorists were ordered to pay a total of $55 in fines and costs by Judge Edward H. Dembowski in municipal court.

Harold P. Pigeon, 55, of 624 Division St., paid a fine of $50 and $5.10 costs for a firearms violation, shooting in the city limits. Alternative sentence was to spend 15 days in the county jail.

City police arrested Pigeon for shooting Sunday at his home.

Trial Dec. 5
A trial was scheduled Dec. 5 at 9 a. m. in municipal court for Morris R. Donnelly, 49, of 114 E. Ohio St., who entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of drunk driving. Donnelly was arrested by city police Saturday on E. Hewitt Ave. He posted bond, set at $100.

The following persons, ticketed by city police after accidents, were each ordered to pay a fine of $6.30 and $3.70 costs for failure to yield the right-of-way:

Wayne C. Bressette, W. Fair Ave., following an accident Nov. 17 at the corner of Northrop St. and College Ave.; Sally A. Ritterhoff, 345 West Hall, following an accident Nov. 18 on W. Washington St. and Florence W. Bennett, 215 N. Sixth St., following an accident Nov. 15 at the corner of N. Fourth and W. Magnetic Sts.

Speeding Count
Fines of $6.30 and $3.70 costs were paid by:

David L. Koski, 477 E. Arch St., ticketed Nov. 9 for speeding — driving 40 miles per hour in a 25-MPH zone, and Lawrence F. Mahan, 312 W. Crescent St., defective equipment.

A fine of $1.30 and $3.70 costs were paid by Gerald R. Jean, Bay City, for failure to secure a motor vehicle.

Average length of life in the U.S. has increased about 29 years since the middle of the 19th century.

ROGER JOHNSON

City Student Heads Event At University

Roger Johnson, 411 Spruce St., will preside as co-chairman of the city advertising committee of the 1963-64 tip-off weekend at Marquette University, Milwaukee, Dec. 6-7.

Tip-off weekend is the annual campus kick off for the opening of Marquette's basketball season.

Weekend activities will begin with a concert at the Milwaukee Civic Auditorium featuring singer, Tony Bennett, the Ralph Sharon Trio and coronation of the queen of the weekend festivities.

Junior In Engineering

A parade and pep rally is scheduled on Saturday afternoon preceding the 2:30 p. m. basketball game between the Marquette Warriors and Western Michigan Bronchos. Weekend highlights will conclude with a dance in the auditorium.

Johnson, a junior in engineering, is among 220 committee members planning and carrying out the weekend events. Johnson is a member of Triangle, national engineering fraternity, and the Inter-Fraternity Council.

Ruby May Go To Trial In 2 Weeks

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, who shot the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy as thousands watched on television, may go to trial on a murder charge within two weeks.

County grand jurors indicted Ruby Tuesday in the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. Ruby's trial is tentatively set for Dec. 9.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said he will ask the death penalty. Defense lawyer Tom Howard of Dallas said the highly emotional Ruby had settled down somewhat since the shooting in the City Hall basement as police started to move Oswald to the county jail.

'Much More Calm'

"He was much more calm than he was yesterday," Howard said. "He talked in more normal tones but he is still an excitable person when he talks normally."

The lawyer said Ruby mentioned seeing a picture of Mrs. Kennedy with blood on her dress.

"Tears came to his eyes," Howard said. "He showed tremendous concern for the Kennedys."

Ruby, 52, who owns a downtown strip tease establishment and a dance hall in Dallas, told Howard he stopped Sunday at the spot where Kennedy was shot two days earlier. This was shortly before Ruby went on to the city jail where Oswald was killed.

Probes

Ruby, known to many Dallas policemen, waited outside the jail with newsmen Sunday. As Oswald was being escorted to an armored car, Ruby lunged from the crowd and fired.

Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and a congressional committee have ordered probes of both the Kennedy and Oswald slayings.

Howard said he knew of no connection between Ruby and Oswald. He said that as his client told it, Ruby first saw Oswald Friday night. This was a few hours after the assassination when Oswald was charged with killing a police officer and taken before newsmen.

There has been some speculation that Oswald was killed to prevent him from talking more to police. He died without admitting either slaying.

Three large packages of evidence assembled in the Oswald case were turned over to the FBI Tuesday by Dallas police.

Sucre, Bolivia, is known as the "White City" because all its churches have white towers.

States Say Federal Probe Of Pollution Unnecessary

In the wake of a three-day conference on pollution in the Menominee and Brule Rivers, the Michigan and Wisconsin conferees have presented a statement denying the need for federal investigation of river conditions.

State conferees concluded that proof had not been established that pollution originating in one state was endangering the health and welfare of persons in the other.

Improvement Cited

The joint statement declared that both states have pollution control agencies that are cognizant of all sources of any consequences that exist along the Menominee River and its tributaries. It also pointed out that these agencies have effective control procedures and will continue to use these procedures to bring about improvement in stream conditions as necessary. The statement further emphasized that the programs of these agencies have already brought about improvement in pollution control measures on the part of municipalities and industries and that the continuing programs through outstanding orders or agreements will protect present and future uses of these surface waters.

"The conference brought to light no problems which had not been recognized or acted upon previously by the state," according to Loring F. Oeming, executive secretary of the Michigan Water Resources Commission. "It appears that the federal government is now satisfied to leave these problems in the hands of the state to solve under the programs and procedures they have been following."

Biologists To Meet

Paper mills operating in both states presented plans to the conferees for improving waste disposal. The companies had been preparing these plans for submission to the states prior to the calling of the conference by the federal government. Scott Paper Co.'s mill in Wisconsin is under order of that state to submit plans for controlling its waste discharge by 1964. In Michigan, the Scott mill already had been requested to reduce its solids losses to the Menominee River. The request by the Water Resources Commission was based on a survey conducted in July this year. The Marathon Division of American Can Co. also had been asked to evaluate its present facilities to determine either their adequacy or the need for improvement. Michigan agreed to submit a progress report on both companies to the conference chairman, Murray Stein of the U.S. Public Health Service, within six months.

In addition, the states and federal government were unable to agree on the significance to fish life of physical conditions in the Brule River. This disagreement was based on interpretation of the data collected and resulted in plans for a meeting of biologists; one from the Michigan Water Resources Commission, another from the Wisconsin Committee on Water Pollution and the third from the federal government. The biologists will meet in 1964 to reexamine the situation.

Resolutions Okayed For Assessments

Resolutions to levy additional charges against property owners for three special assessment projects were adopted by the city commission at its meeting this week.

The supplemental assessments reflect a difference between the estimated cost of the projects and the actual cost as compiled by the city engineer.

The deficiency assessments were figured in the same ratio as the original assessments. City Assessor John R. Meyers explained.

The three projects were Roll

339, paving on W. Fair Ave., from Northrop St. to N. Eighth St.; Roll 340, paving on Norway Ave., from W. College Ave. to Fair, and on W. Kaye Ave., from Norway west, and Roll, 342, paving on St. Luson Dr., off W. Nicolet Blvd., in Shiras Hills.

Levies Listed

Additional levies will be: Roll 339: Eugene Gjerstad, Rod Smith, Clyde Winberg, Carl Peto and Dale Lundeen, each $24.36; Thomas Moore, $49.50; Marquette Public Schools, $37.50; Northern Michigan University, $91.10; Samuel Sanderson, $53.09, and Hilpe Luupakka, $24.36.

Macomb Voters OK 1 Issue, Defeat 2

MOUNT CLEMENS — Macomb County voters turned out to defeat two local issues and approve a third.

At Mount Clemens, voters authorized a $4.2 million bond issue for an addition to Mount Clemens High School 1,495 to 625.

Clintondale School District voters turned down, 523 to 290, a $1.8 million bond issue to build a junior high school.

Armanda Area School District voters rejected a 3 mill increase in operating taxes, 242-197.

MORE KINDS OF CHEVROLETS THAN EVER BEFORE!

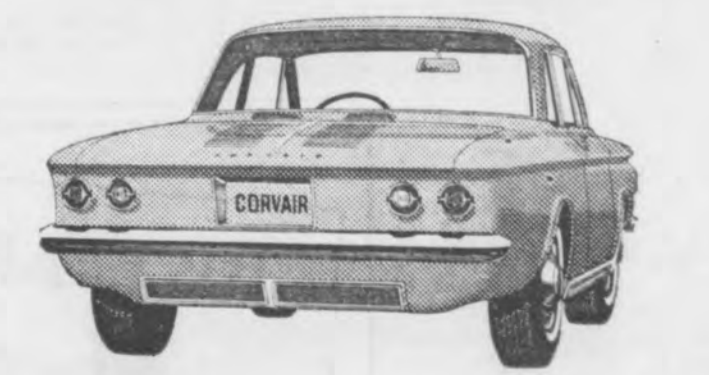

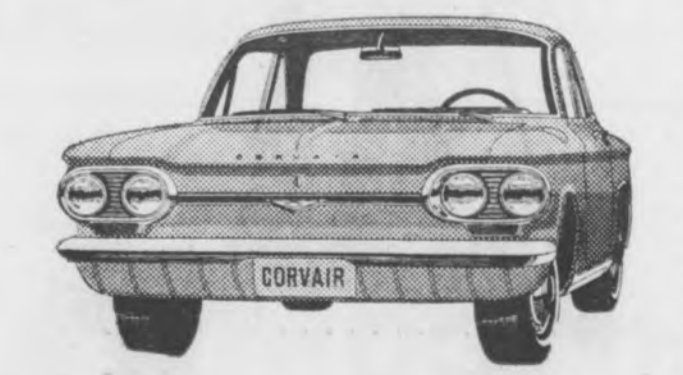

JET-SMOOTH LUXURY CHEVROLET
15 models. Four series. One brand-new series—the Impala Super Sports. More luxury, too. Even the Biscaynes are now fully carpeted. Plenty of power. Seven different engines' worth—140 hp to extra-cost 425 hp.
Model shown—Impala Sport Coupe

TOTALLY NEW CHEVELLE! 11
models in three series. An entirely new line of cars sized a foot shorter than most big cars, so you get the handling ease of most smaller cars. But don't sell it short! Most Chevelle models seat six people and tote all the luggage those six can carry. Engine choice: 120 hp to extra-cost 220 hp.
Model shown—Malibu Sport Coupe

NEW CHEVY II Six models. Two series—Nova and Chevy II 100. Both now offer an extra-cost 195-hp V8 or a 155-hp six, to give you more Chevy II power than ever before. Match this added power with Chevy II thrift, and you can see why Chevy II will be harder than ever to keep up with this year.
Model shown—Nova 2-Door Sedan

NEW CORVAIR Seven models in four series. Plus two Greenbriers. A new standard 95-hp engine (nearly 19% livelier). A 110-hp engine available at extra cost on all Corvairs and a 150-hp Turbo-charged engine under the deck lid of the Monza Spyder. Styling? Never been cleaner. Interior? Never been brighter. Fun to drive? Never been more so.
Model shown—Monza Club Coupe

NEW CORVETTE Two models—the Sport Coupe with a new one-piece rear window plus improved interior ventilation, and the dashing Sting Ray Convertible. Both boast smoother rides and improved sound insulation. Both go with your choice of four big V8's, including a new extra-cost 375-hp engine with Fuel Injection.
Model shown—Sport Coupe

NMU Theater To Offer 'St. Joan' Dec. 4-7

George Bernard Shaw's "St. Joan," one of the foremost plays of the 20th century, will be presented by Northern Michigan University Dec. 4 through 7. Each of the four performances will begin at 8:15 p.m.

The first theatrical production to be presented in Northern's new Little Theater, "St. Joan," which represents the struggle between the church and the feudal system, is a tragedy which deals with the short life of Jeanne d'Arc of France, who was burned for heresy, witchcraft and sorcery at the age of 29 in 1431 and who was canonized by the Vatican in 1920.

Shaw, an Irish dramatist and critic who received the Nobel prize in literature in 1925, says in his preface about the Maid of Orleans that "there are no villains in the piece. Crime, like disease, is not interesting: It is something to be done away with by general consent, and that is all about it. It is what men do at their best, with good intentions, and what normal men and women find that they must and will do in spite of their intentions, that really concerns us . . ."

Considered the greatest playwright of the modern period, Shaw moved to London from Dublin at the age of 20. Here his career as a critic, Socialist pamphleteer and novelist lasted for 16 years, until his first play, "Widowers' Houses," was produced at the end of 1892.

Second To Shakespeare

Known for his deep humanitarian interest, Shaw, who in the English theater ranks second only to Shakespeare, went on to write an extraordinary number of successful plays, including "Caesar and Cleopatra," "Man and Superman," "Heartbreak House" and, finally, "St. Joan."

In "St. Joan," which has been revived at least seven times in London, Shaw followed the authentic court records of Jeanne d'Arc's trial with amazing accuracy. And it was in this play where he saw saints like Joan destroyed not by evil men, but by ordinary men of insufficient vision, devoted to the right but incapable of understanding a new or profound right.

The production staff includes Dr. James Rapport, dramatic director, and Paul Arnolds, technical director and scenic designer. They both are of the NMU Speech Department.

British Nurses' New Uniform

The snug fitting black tights for hospital nurses, modeled by June Pattison, are designed to be worn beneath the nurses' uniforms in place of stockings and panties as protection against drafty hospital corridors. The outfit was shown at an annual nursing exhibit that opened in London recently. Model June Eggleton offers a contrast as a trowning Florence Nightingale. (AP wirephoto.)

New 4-H Clubs Form; Winter Projects Begin

As the winter project time is now in progress for the coming 4-H Club year, there have been new clubs organized and a few "new" projects have come to light.

National Mine now has a 4-H club with Mrs. Ann Trudell and Mrs. Betty Juntilla as leaders. This club in addition to the normal cooking and clothing projects has five boys starting a taxidermy project.

There are several clubs being led by interested high school girls with Amy Letts being the newest 4-H club leader in this category.

Pete Zentl, a physical education instructor at Gwin High School, is going to lead a conservation project and include physical conditioning along with the study of conservation.

Creative Leadership

These are examples of creative leadership of 4-H club leaders and instances where high school students are serving youth by leading younger youth. This is how 4-H serves

Miss Hammersmith Will Attend Journalism Meet

Margaret Hammersmith, junior English teacher and editor of the Graveraet High School weekly newspaper, will attend the 1963 convention of the National Association of Journalism Directors.

The conference, expected to attract more than 1,500 delegates, will be held Nov. 28, 29 and 30 in the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago.

Miss Hammersmith will take part in a panel discussion which will be moderated by Mary Benedict of Indianapolis. Other members of the panel will include Stephen Carlson, Indianapolis, president of the National Association of Journalism Directors; Bruce Peasley, publications advisor, T. L. Handy High School, Bay City, and Harold Cantor, Minneapolis, executive secretary, NAJD.

2 Churches Combining For Service

To provide maximum opportunity for Thanksgiving worship, St. Michael's and Trinity Lutheran Churches of Marquette will share members and worship hours.

The Thanksgiving observance will offer an evening service tonight at 8:15 in the St. Michael's Lutheran Church, 227 Bluff St., and morning worship on Thanksgiving Day at 10 at Trinity Lutheran, 122 W. Ridge.

Choirs of both churches will present appropriate music at their respective churches. The Revs. J. W. Sippola and T. F. Flug, in issuing the joint announcement, stressed that the public is invited to attend.

St. Michael's Church also will conduct a Thanksgiving service in Finnish at 7 tonight.

Mrs. Redman, Al Wendt Tops In Bridge Play

In Ishpeming Duplicate Bridge Club play Monday night, Mrs. William Redman and Al Wendt scored 56 per cent to take first place.

In second and third places, respectively, were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schmetzler, 55 per cent, and Mrs. Earl Makela and Mrs. E. C. Robare, 52.

There will be no play next Monday night because of the individual club tournament Dec. 4.

Play at the tournament will be preceded by a 6:30 dinner in the Mather Inn.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Makela.

Town Talk By Tish

The toy department at The Northern Stationers, 112 South Front Street, has a wonderful array of toys for all children. Here are three foot tall stuffed animals with jeweled collars, a hair dryer set for a doll (it really works), all the teen-age dolls and their wardrobes — I saw Barbie and Ken in their plastic sports car dressed in sports clothes with their tennis rackets — and shelves piled high with fascinating games. Their book racks are filled with those deliciously spine chilling Carolyn Keen mysteries for girls, The Hardy Boy Series, educational books of others. You can find a gift for others. You can find a gift for every child on your Christmas list at The Northern Stationers. —Adv.

Special Service At St. Paul's

The annual Thanksgiving Day service at St. Paul's Episcopal Church will be at 9:30 a.m.

The musical portions of the service will be an adoption of Merbeck's Service of Holy Communion, by the parish choir. It will be sung by the boys' and girls' choirs of St. Paul's, under the direction of Gerald Pieti, organist, and William Saari, associate choir director.

The prelude to the service will be Beethoven's "Ode to Thanksgiving." The service proper will start with Henry Alford's great harvest hymn, "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come." Following the procession, the choir and congregation will sing "America."

There will be a recounting of the Great Commandments, together with special prayers of thanksgiving and Scripture reading set aside especially for a national day of Thanksgiving.

The offertory anthem, "We Gather Together To Ask the Lord's Blessing," was written by an unknown author in celebration of Dutch freedom from Spanish sovereignty at the end of the 16th century.

At the conclusion of the service, the rector and congregation will offer special prayers of thanksgiving.

The service will close with the singing of "Praise to God, Immortal, Praise." Pieti has selected as a postlude Thimian's "Now Thank We All Our God."

St. Mary's Group Plan Christmas Bazaar Dec. 6, 7

At a recent meeting of St. Mary's Hospital Auxiliary, plans were made for a Christmas bazaar to be held Friday and Saturday afternoon and evening, Dec. 6 and 7, in the lobby of St. Mary's Hospital.

Mrs. Charles Croisier and Mrs. John F. O'Neil are co-chairmen for the sale.

Miscellaneous gift items of Christmas candy and cookies will be available.

New cook books, compiled by all auxiliaries of the Upper Peninsula Council of the Michigan Association of Hospital Auxiliaries, also will be on sale.

Mrs. Samuel Chartier is the chairman of the cookbook sale. Plans were completed for the annual Christmas party for the hospital sisters and auxiliary members, to be held Dec. 17 in the hospital.

Sister M. Damian, the new superior sister at St. Mary's, was introduced to the group.

Messiah Special Service Set

Messiah Lutheran Church will hold its Thanksgiving Day service at 10 tomorrow morning.

Music will be by the junior and senior choirs of the church. The Rev. J. Otto Magnuson, pastor, will give the message. The public is invited.

All Occasion Boots Capture Fashion Scene

by HELEN HENNESSY

Women's Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA)—It isn't the storm boot that's stealing the season's thunder. Boots for every occasion, in everything from leather to lace, have strutted in and taken over the fall fashion scene.

There are study leather boots for country walks, butter-soft leather and suede for a day in town and boots of brocade and lace for evening wear.

High, Limb-Hugging

In keeping with the tailored daytime look, the new boot silhouette is high and limb-hugging. More faithful to the contours of the leg than the wider-cut boot seen last year, this pared-down shape gives the boot an "at home" look indoors as well as out.

How high the boot? It can be thigh-high, reminiscent of the fisherman's boot in dark smooth or grained leathers with back lacing. But most tall boots hit between mid-calf and knee.

There are above-ankle boots, dress-boot shoes, and for the gal who can't quite make up her mind to go all out for this new fashion there are buttoned spats to give a boot to her classic pumps whenever the spirit moves her.

Detailing Simple

Style detailing is simple. Fur cuffs, braided trim, angled top-lines and gores of contrasting color are most popular. Leather boots for teen-agers feature silver and gold buckles.

The color palette of fall boots is dazzling. There are deep country browns and greens, bright scarlet and blue and soft antelope, mustard and cranberry. Comforting thought: For any occasion, you can take the high road to fashion, well and pleasantly shod in boots.

Homemaking Tips

- A combination of lemon juice, rosemary and crushed garlic makes a good baste for roast lamb.
- Some cooks like to add a quarter teaspoon of cream of tartar to a pie meringue that calls for three egg whites and six tablespoons of sugar. The cream of tartar should be beaten with the egg whites before the sugar is completely dissolved.
- Want a savory gravy for that beef stew? Add a little catchup and Worcestershire sauce.
- Ever add grated carrot to potato salad? Looks pretty and tastes good.
- Brown a little minced onion in bacon fat and add to cooked snap beans for good flavor.
- Top pineapple rings with mounds of mashed sweet potatoes and broil or bake until hot. Serve with ham or pork.
- A three-hour stay in the refrigerator is plenty for a bottle of champagne.

St. Michael's Group Hear New Pastor

St. Michael's Altar Society held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening in the multipurpose room of St. Michael's School.

The Very Rev. Msgr. Arnold L. Casanova, new pastor of St. Michael's, in his first meeting with the group, spoke of the goals the society should strive for, namely spirituality, personal sanctification, a spirit of working together for the church and what it stands for in the world.

He said the women should be proud of the name, Altar Society, since the altar is the heart and center of the parish. The activities of the Society, he stressed, should have as their motivation love of Christ on the altar in the sacrament of Divine Love.

Books Donation

Mrs. E. R. Huffman, a member of the library and literature committee, thanked Msgr. Casanova for his contribution of books to the parish library.

The annual Thanksgiving clothing drive was conducted, with Mrs. Lowell Dunleavy and Mrs. Bernard McAuliffe acting as chairmen. Thirty-three cartons were filled with 1,320 pounds of clothing.

Mrs. Roy S. Anderson, Mrs. Robert L. Biolo and Mrs. Gerald C. Payant are in charge of the Sisters' Thanksgiving food shower which also is held annually.

The society will assist in the Rev. Hammar Of Escanaba To Speak

ISHPEMING — Thanksgiving eve services will be held at the Wesley Methodist Church tonight at 7:30. The service will be the traditional service of thanksgiving for harvest, land and liberty.

The service will open with the singing of the thanksgiving hymn, "We Plow the Fields and Scatter," followed by the responsive call to worship led by the Rev. Cecil Lutey.

The anthem, "A Seasonal Thanksgiving," will be sung by the sanctuary and Wesley choirs under the direction of Robert Hampton and Arthur Hammar.

The sermon will be given by the Rev. Karl J. Hammar, former pastor of Central Methodist Church of Escanaba and now a retired member of the Detroit Methodist Conference. The public is invited.

Death Takes M. R. Cullen In His Home

ISHPEMING — Michael R. Cullen, 67, died in his home, 177 Excelsior St., yesterday morning.

Born July 26, 1896, in Ishpeming and a lifelong resident, Mr. Cullen was employed by the North Range Mining Co. for many years and more recently as a civic service inspector at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base. He was a veteran of World War I, serving on the U.S.S. DeCaleb. Mr. Cullen was a member of St. John's Church and the Holy Name Society.

Survivors include his wife, Rhoda; two sons, Major Patrick Cullen in West Germany and Roger Cullen of Kenosha, Wis.; three brothers, Peter of Detroit, Charles of Minneapolis, Minn., and Henry of Evanston, Ill.; two grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The body is in the Bjork & Zhulkie Funeral Home, where friends may call after 10 Friday morning.

Services will be conducted at 9 a.m. Saturday in St. John's Church. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. David Spelgatti will officiate and burial will take place in Ishpeming Cemetery.

Mrs. White Dies At 66 In Hospital

ISHPEMING — Mrs. Rellinda White, 66, died yesterday afternoon in Bell Memorial Hospital, where she had been a patient for eight weeks.

She was born May 1, 1896, in Ishpeming and has been a lifelong resident.

Mrs. White, who was the widow of George T. White, who died in 1947, was a member of the Bethany Church.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Florence Lind of Ishpeming and Mrs. Larue Brown of Huntington Park, Calif.; two brothers, Harvey Velin of Ishpeming and Elvin Velin of Negaunee, two nieces and one nephew.

The body is at the Bjork & Zhulkie Funeral Home, where friends may call after 4 p.m. tomorrow.

NEGAUNEE — A program relating to deanery work will be presented at each monthly meeting of the St. Paul's Altar Society, Mrs. Leo Filizetti informed members of the unit at their November meeting.

Mrs. Filizetti revealed that the program to acquaint members of individual church groups with objectives of the deanery program was made at a recent workshop she attended in Ishpeming sponsored by the Marquette Diocesan Council of Catholic Women.

Officers elected for the ensuing year, who will be installed at the January meeting, include Mrs. Filizetti, president; Mrs. Otto Korhonen, first vice president; Mrs. Jack Roberts, second vice president; Miss Francine Valenti, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Paquette, financial secretary, and Miss Florence Robare, recording secretary.

Mrs. Thomas Beard Jr., local council president of the MDCCW, announced that home discussion groups have resumed their meetings with the topic for November, "Remembering Our Dead."

The next regular meeting of the Altar Society will be held Wednesday night, Dec. 4, with the starting time advanced to 7:30 instead of the usual 8 and a 25-cent donation will be taken to finance the annual Christmas party given by the Rev. Charles Reinhart for children of the parish.

Hostesses for the event are Mrs. Gerald Stille, Mrs. John Flaherty, Mrs. Peter Luceri, Mrs. Russell McLeod, Mrs. Anthony Minelli, Mrs. Severino O'Berri, Mrs. Paul Zoppetti and Mrs. Rose Chaput.

p. m. because of the annual Christmas party which will follow the business session.

Mrs. Beard, general chairman for the party, will be assisted by Mrs. Dominic Chiri, Mrs. Leo Filizetti, Mrs. Leonard Crevette and Mrs. Henry Spelgatti. Mrs. Angelo Bessolo, Mrs. Alfred Clark and Mrs. Lawrence Bertocchi Jr. were appointed members of a committee to plan a program, and Mrs. Vito Bertucci was appointed refreshment committee chairman.

Accreditation Of Munising Hospital Follows 3-Year Preparation Of Standards

MUNISING — Munising Memorial Hospital has been accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, according to announcement made today by Charles Chevette, president of the board of trustees, and Dr. Walter Olson, president of the medical staff.

The accreditation is the result of an evaluation of the first survey of the hospital conducted on Oct. 16 of this year by Dr. Wendell T. Wright, field representative of the commission.

The member organizations of the commission are the American College of Physicians, the American College of Surgeons and the American Hospital Association. The commission surveys the hospital to determine if it meets standards which will insure that the hospital is providing safe and efficient care to the community.

Basic Principles

To gain accreditation, a hospital must first adhere to the following basic principles:

1. The governing body must assume the legal and moral responsibility for the hospital as an institution. It is responsible to the patient, the community and the sponsoring organization.
2. The buildings of the hospital must be constructed, arranged and maintained to insure safety of patients, and must provide facilities for diagnosis and treatment and for special hospital services appropriate to the needs of the community.
3. Dietary, medical records, pharmacy, clinical pathology and pathological anatomy, radiology, emergency care for mass casualties, and medical library facilities and services must be maintained.
4. There must be an organized medical staff which is responsible to patients and to the governing body of the hospital for the quality of all medical care provided patients in the hospital and for the ethical and professional practices of its members.
5. There must be a licensed, graduate, registered nurse on duty at all times and graduate nursing service must be available for all patients at all times.

Began Program In '60

According to Richard Wagner, hospital administrator, adoption of the basic principles and construction of the new hospital "was just the beginning in the preparation for this milestone in the history of the hospital."

Calvary Baptist Church To Hold Service Tonight

NEGAUNEE — The Calvary Baptist Church will observe a Thanksgiving eve service at 7:30 tonight. The program will include appropriate hymns, a time of sharing of blessings, special music and a message by the pastor. Fellowship and refreshments will follow in the lower auditorium. The public is invited.

Ex-Resident Of Baraga Dies At 78

BARAGA — Aron Jahfeton, 78, former resident of Baraga, died Tuesday morning in Houghton, where he had resided the last two years.

He was born in Helsinki, Finland, March 15, 1885, and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jahfeton. Except for the last two years, he had resided in Baraga Township since 1903, when he came to this country.

Mr. Jahfeton was a member of the Faith Lutheran Church, Pelkie. He was married to Hilma Keilta Oct. 1, 1921, in Calumet. She died Sept. 2, 1961.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Robert (Elma) Plough of Houghton; two sons, Wilhart Jahfeton and Ralph Kamarainen of Baraga; a sister, Mrs. Victor (Hilja) Suomi of Alton; two brothers, Victor Lappala of Detroit and John Lappala of Pelkie; 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services will be conducted at 1:30 Friday afternoon in the Faith Lutheran Church, Pelkie. The Rev. Lauri Pikkusaari will officiate and burial will take place in Pelkie Cemetery.

Friends may begin calling at the Swanson Funeral Home, L'Anse, Thursday afternoon.

Chatham Lions Meet Tonight

CHATHAM — A semi-monthly meeting of the Chatham Lions Club will be held tonight in the Chatham Town Hall. Christmas gifts collected in the drive for Newberry State Hospital should be brought to the meeting.

Funeral Rites Slated For 13 Fire Victims

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — Funeral services were scheduled Tuesday at Rodef Sholem Cemetery in nearby Pleasantville for 13 unidentified victims of last week's Surfside Hotel fire.

State Traffic Toll Stands At 1,627

EAST LANSING (AP) — Traffic accidents have killed 1,627 persons in Michigan so far this year, provisional figures compiled by state police showed today. The highway death toll at this date last year was 1,445.

Services will be held at 10 Thursday morning in the Swanson Funeral Home, L'Anse, with the Rev. Bernardine Schlimgen officiating. Burial will take place in the Assinins Cemetery. Friends may begin calling at the funeral home this afternoon. The Rosary will be recited there at 8 tonight.

Baraga Supervisors Reject Change To Elective Method For Picking Highway Body

L'ANSE — A resolution of intent, proposing a change in the method of selecting members of the county road commission from appointive to elective means, was defeated by a single vote at a meeting of the Baraga County Board of Supervisors.

The resolution, drawn up by County Prosecutor F. Hubert Mather at the request of the board, stated in part "the board as a matter of record indicates its intention to change to the elective method in order to increase the voting influence of the people of Baraga County; and the board intends to work out the details of this change and to adopt a final resolution to that effect within the next six weeks."

The resolution was proposed by Baraga Township Supervisor Robert P. Brown and supported by Spurr Township Supervisor Richard Wedin. The other three members of the county board — Chairman Raymond J. Tembreull of L'Anse Township, George W. Falk of Arvon Township and Toivo Mackie of Covington Township — all voted against the resolution.

'Pretty Dangerous'—Falk

Falk said he had given the proposal considerable thought from the viewpoint of electing these commissioners on a county-wide basis, and repeated his previously voiced misgivings about the wisdom of making such a change.

"It appears to me to be pretty dangerous from many standpoints," he warned. "There is a very likely possibility that all three commissioners would be elected from the same township, leaving the other four townships without representation, which could result in a very troublesome situation."

43-Year-Old Woman Dies In Hospital

BARAGA — Mrs. Theresa Ann Loonsfoot, 43, died suddenly Monday evening in St. Mary's Hospital, Marquette. She had been living in Marquette the last five weeks.

She was born in L'Anse June 4, 1920, and was a lifelong resident of Baraga County. She was married to John Loonsfoot in 1937 in Baraga.

Surviving besides her husband are five daughters, Mrs. George (Dorothy) Nedreau of Baraga, Mrs. James (Margaret) Cox of Alton, Miss Virginia Loonsfoot and Mrs. Joseph (Rosemary) Loonsfoot of Chicago and Miss Christine Loonsfoot of Ishpeming; three sisters, Mrs. Rose Gauthier of Chicago, Mrs. Betty Galer of Madison Heights, Mich., and Mrs. Mary Mills of Newberry, and four grandchildren.

Services will be held at 10 Thursday morning in the Swanson Funeral Home, L'Anse, with the Rev. Bernardine Schlimgen officiating. Burial will take place in the Assinins Cemetery. Friends may begin calling at the funeral home this afternoon. The Rosary will be recited there at 8 tonight.

Plans For Construction

Tembreull briefed the board on a request from the county planning commission to furnish plans for any proposed construction of county buildings, which might be undertaken in the foreseeable future. He outlined a plan for construction of a new courthouse and jail, coupled with reclamation of three parcels of land, which would upgrade their value for either public or commercial use.

All five supervisors agreed that a new courthouse and jail will be needed within the next 10 years, and added that such new construction should certainly be done under one of the available federal assistance programs if possible. Tembreull pointed out that Baraga County is one of only two counties in the U. P. which qualifies as a distressed area and is eligible for 75 per cent federal grants on non-revenue producing public works projects which will provide substantial employment in the local area. No immediate action was taken on the matter, but it is expected that this will be one of the more important items on the agenda for next month's meeting.

Withhold Endorsement

The supervisors also tabled action on a resolution proposed by the Gogebic County Board of Supervisors, calling for increases in (1) assessment of all state-owned lands from 15 cents to 25 cents per acre; (2) assessment of any and all state lands within municipalities from $2 to $7 per acre, and (3) assessment at the rate of 10 cents per $100 of insured valuation on all state-owned buildings and their contents, with all the above-named revenues to revert to the local municipalities and counties affected. Members of the Baraga board, although conceding that the large proportionate share of tax exempt or state-owned lands contrib-

Applicants For Manager Post Sought

NEGAUNEE — Applications are being accepted by the City of Negaunee for the position of city manager, which becomes vacant here on Jan. 1, Mayor Earl Makela announced today.

The Negaunee vacancy is the result of the resignation of Leonard Harris to become manager of South Haven, a Lower Michigan community. Harris assumes his duties at South Haven with the start of the new year.

Advertisements have been placed in publications issued by the Michigan Municipal League and International Association of City Managers.

Harris informed the council early this month that he was resigning, but delayed leaving Negaunee until the end of the year, and the governing body hopes to have a new manager by that time in order that there will be no interruption in the continuity of the position.

utes to the financial hardship of many Upper Peninsula counties, were reluctant to endorse such a resolution without further study.

In answer to a protest filed by the board last month regarding the discontinuance of two North Central Airlines flights, Frank N. Buttomer, vice president, traffic and sales department of the airlines, explained in a letter that it would be impossible to reinstate the flights in question without discontinuing other flights, which would result in more serious inconvenience to Copper Country travelers.

Children Ride Sleds Into Streets; Parents Warned

NEGAUNEE — Following several reports of near-accidents and complaints from motorists, Police Chief Ralph Carlson today requested parents to warn their children of the dangers of sleigh riding on sidewalks and in alleys, where sleds proceed out into streets in the line of vehicle traffic.

"To eliminate the danger points where these incidents occurred, the public works department has sanded the inclines and intersections, but there may be other spots where accidents could occur.

"We are asking parents to warn the children, most of whom are at the fifth grade level or below, of the dangers

Carlson pointed out.

"We received several complaints from motorists, who reported they narrowly missed striking these children when they suddenly darted out in the street in front of them," he said.

that are involved, and request that they prohibit the youngsters from sleigh riding until there is sufficient snow to use hills designated for coasting purposes which lead onto streets that are blocked off to motor traffic."

Television Resumes Regular Programs

NEW YORK — Television's fine coverage of a national tragedy continued through the final chapter Monday bringing to mourning Americans an intimate picture of the funeral services for their dead leader.

Regular programming was resumed Tuesday morning but there will be a number of switches and postponements of scheduled shows in the next few days.

While news staffs of the three major networks worked around the clock on the Kennedy story, executives and staff members concerned with network entertainment programs were carefully inspecting scheduled programs for themes, plot lines or even casual references which, in the light of recent tragedy, would appear in poor taste.

Legislative Group Faces Hot Agenda

LANSING — A committee of lawmakers faced some of the hottest items of the coming special legislative session.

Creation of commissions for civil rights and highways, and the establishment of a governor's mansion, were among items on the agenda for the 1:30 p.m. meeting of the House-Senate Committee on Constitutional Implementation.

LAKE LINDEN—The Baraga Vikings took their third win running from the Lake Linden Whiz Kids here last night, dealing them a close 44-43 defeat in a race against the clock.

The Vikings led throughout the game, splitting the Whiz Kids in the first three quarters. As the fourth period opened, the Vikings were enjoying a 30-24 lead, but the Lake Linden quintet put on a 19-point rally that nearly upset the Vikings.

With six seconds showing on the clock, and the Whiz Kids still six points back, they dumped in a field goal and three free throws to nearly close the gap. The last free throw was made with but one second remaining to play, however, and the clock ran out with no time for a tying point.

Wildcats Open Season With 74-71 Victory Over Oshkosh Staters

OSHKOSH, Wis. — The Northern Michigan University Wildcats took their first win of the season in their opener last night, defeating Oshkosh State, 74-71 in a fiercely fought battle laden with overtones of past battles between the two schools.

Oshkosh, still smarting from the 93-64 beating they absorbed last year at the hands of the Wildcats, came into the game with firm resolve to amend the record with a win over Northern, and the gymnasium was packed to the last inch of space by fiercely partisan Oshkosh fans.

With six seconds showing on the clock, and the Whiz Kids still six points back, they dumped in a field goal and three free throws to nearly close the gap.

to lose less obviously this time, the Oshkosh team suffered the hands of Bob Armstead, who led last year's defeat of the Titans.

Northern saw the lead go to Oshkosh more than once during the game, but the Wildcats kept their composure intact, shooting from out-of-bounds plays with calm decisiveness.

In the last period, five field goals on this play, the last one by Bob Pecotte, gave Northern the three-point bulge which lasted for the win.

Five Scouts Some idea of the attitude of Northern's hardwood opponents this year toward the Wildcat squad can be gained from the fact that scouts for no less than

AFL Game Slated Tomorrow After Weekend Delay

DENVER (AP) — With a long delay expected to help the home team, the Denver Broncos will meet the Oakland Raiders in a nationally televised (ABC) American Football League game here Thursday.

Kickoff will be at 11:30 a.m. EST.

No other AFL games are scheduled Thanksgiving Day. On Sunday, Kansas City will be at New York, Houston at San Diego and Buffalo at Boston.

Eagles Defeat Comets, 63-45

EBEN — The Eben Eagles trounced the Trenary Comets last night, 63-45, on the home court, fighting the fine rebounding efforts of the smaller Comets to preserve the winning margin throughout the game.

Eben pressed Trenary for most of the game, substituting freely as they have in the past. Sophomore Arnie Haavisto was the deciding factor for Eben; the 6-1 surfer dropped in 15 points to lead Eben scoring and sparked the victory effort.

The Eagles shot 33 per cent on field goals, connecting on 25 of 75 attempts, and built the score with the help of 13 successful free throws out of 23 tries for a 56 per cent average.

Andy Freberg played his usual good game, grabbing 17 rebounds, and Carlson equalled that number under the boards despite Trenary's efforts at that area.

five future opposing teams were Oshkosh State to watch the 'Cats in action.

Stan Albeck's men continued to demonstrate the high-volume shooting philosophy which last year led them to a 19-8 record, connecting on 19 of 46 field goal attempts in the first half for a 41.3 per cent average, and scoring on 15 of 36 tries in the second half for a 41.6 per cent average.

Oshkosh, meanwhile, shot a 37.1 per cent average in the first half on field goals, and a 41.1 per cent average in the last half of the game. Attempted field goals made a difference, as Northern tried 82 times, while the Titans attempted 76 shots from the field.

Dave Cade backed up Armstead with 16 points for the cause, followed by Wayne Lundy with 14 and Pecotte's 13 points.

SEC To Await Decisions In Bryant Suits

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Southeastern Conference officials have decided to withhold a report of their investigation pending the outcome of Alabama football Coach Paul Bryant's libel suit against the Saturday Evening Post.

The SEC executive committee at a Sunday session in Atlanta voted that "no final conclusions should be reached" until after Bryant's two libel suits are concluded.

Two For $10.5 Million Bryant is suing the Post, owned by Curtis Publishing Co., for $10.5 million in two cases. The first suit demands $500,000 for alleging that Bryant condoned brutality among his football players.

The other suit, for $10 million, was filed after the post charged that Bryant conspired with former University of Georgia athletic director Wallace Butts to fix the 1962 Georgia-Alabama game.

Charity Is Nasty Word To Leonard (By the Associated Press) Don't mention charity to Eob Leonard, coach of the National Basketball Association's Baltimore Bullets.

The Philadelphia 76ers all but handed Tuesday night's game to Baltimore with foul shots but Leonard's Bullets misfired from the free throw line and lost their ninth in the last 10 games.

Hal Greer's last second basket gave Philadelphia the victory, 115-113, after the Bullets kept the 76ers alive by blowing 15 of 36 free throw attempts. Greer's 12-footer was in the air as the final buzzer sounded and when it swished through Philadelphia had its fourth straight triumph and fifth in a row at home.

Nats Lose 75-71, To Champion

NATIONAL MINE — The Champion Indians scalped the National Mine Nats here yesterday evening, taking a close 75-71 victory in a see-saw game.

National Mine ran up a six-point lead in the first half, but fierce battling in the second resulted in the slight Champion bulge that made all the difference when the clock ran out.

The Nats are now 1-2 for the young season, while the win over Champion's record at 1-1.

Hawks Take 71-56 Loss

REPUBLIC — The Chassell roundball aces took a 71-56 win from Republic's Hawks here last night, taking advantage of a third-quarter Republic scoring slump to catch up to and pass, the Hawks.

Republic shot 17 of 35 for a 50 per cent field goal average in the first half, to take a 34-25 lead at the half. As their third period opened, however, the Hawks cooled off, while Chassell improved its shooting to better than 49 per cent in the second half.

Midway in the quarter, Chassell took the lead at 40-39 and kept it for the remainder of the game, despite strong efforts by the Hawks to regain the lead in the fourth period.

Matilla Surprises Matilla, high scorer for the Hawks, came in as a reserve to surprise the opposition with his hot shooting, dumping in 17 points in the losing cause. Chassell's Haapala, with 24 points, led his team to victory.

In the preliminary, Republic's B team took their second win, 43-34, over Chassell's jayvees to somewhat mitigate the varsity loss.

St. Paul Wins Again, 76-48

RAPID RIVER — Following a nip and tuck first period, St. Paul High School pulled away in the second and third quarters to defeat Rapid River by a score of 76-48 at the Rapid River High School gymnasium. It was the third consecutive win of the current basketball campaign for the defending Class D champs.

Hard Pressed Although the Saints never trailed, they were hard pressed by the Rockets during the opening period which ended with the parochials out in front 17-15. Doug Moss, who canned nine of ten field goal attempts, when Rapid River played here last spring at the end of the 1962-63 season, continued his outstanding performance against the parochials, and kept the Rockets in the game in the first quarter when he made five of the ten baskets he scored during the tilt.

However, the combination of a good defensive job on Moss by sophomore Pete Meli, during the remaining three quarters, plus a 38-12 scoring edge compiled by the Emeralds in the second and third periods removed all doubts regarding the final verdict.

Don Jacobetti, top scorer for the parochials for the season, was limited to 15 points, as he was in foul trouble early. Jacobetti sat out part of the second stanza and picked up his fifth foul with one minute elapsed in the fourth quarter.

Offsetting the absence of Jacobetti was a 27-point performance by Rod Guizzetti, second leading scorer for the Saints, plus a combination of 16 points by a pair of sophomores, Meli and George Torreano.

A major factor in the St. Paul win was a 58-28 edge on rebounds, and Guizzetti paced both clubs in this department, hauling down 23, 11 of which were on the offensive board.

Len St. Aubin, accounted for an additional nine, four of which were offensive rebounds.

Good Clip St. Paul continued to hit from the field at better than a 40 per cent clip, averaging 43 per cent on 31 buckets in 72 attempts. Rapid River posted a 32 per cent average, making 21 field goals in 66 tries.

The parochial "bees" dropped

Slipped After a great 1961 season, when he slugged 46 homers, drove in 141 runs and batted .302, Gentile has slipped to .251 and .248 the past two years. His home run output dropped to 33, and then 24.

The 29-year-old left-handed batter led the club in two unofficial departments — breaking his bat deliberately after striking out and failing to run out grounders and fly balls.

Siebert, 30, and also a left-handed batter, hit 16 homers and drove in 83 runs with a .272 average last season.

Card Named NFL Player Of The Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Y. A. Tittle took great pride in his record of only four interceptions in the first 10 games played by the New York Giants. Then Sunday he had two intercepted in the same ball game. Larry Wilson of St. Louis came up with both as the Cardinals upset the Giants 24-17.

As a result of Wilson's fine defensive play in the Cards' deep defense, he was named Player of the Week in the National Football League by The Associated Press.

Safety Specialty Wilson's specialty in four years as a safety man in the NFL has been his colorful blitz play from the safety spot. He is a rangy 6-foot, 190-pounder with good speed and quick hands. In his high school days at Rigby, Idaho, he was a full-back. At Utah he was a half-back. The interceptions were his third and fourth of the season.

Don Hultz, Minnesota's rookie from Southern Methodist, also was a candidate for top honors with his two recoveries of Detroit fumbles, tying the NFL record of eight for the season. Tommy Mason scored the clincher in the closing minutes of the Vikings 34-31 victory after Hultz recovered Dan Lewis' fumble. Paul Flately also had two great catches in the winning drive.
