Neilan Hits 'Bribes' To Electorate

DETROIT (AP) — President Edwin P. Neilan of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce charged today that the nation's integrity and the future of democratic government is threatened by what he called the marketing of votes through tax-paid federal subsidies.

"The political payoffs flowing out of Washington to cities, counties and states, to individuals and organized pressure blocks, have reached the proportions of a national scandal," he said.

Neilan made the remarks in a speech prepared for the Economics Club of Detroit. "Unless we force a halt to these dishonest practices," he said, "we may be just going through the motions of an election in November, 1964."

Neilan said the right to vote is the American's only weapon against tyranny—"and they are trading their birthright for a mess of subsidy."

"Corruption of Electorate" Neilan said that in the past two years more than 1,000 communities "have lined up for political bribes in the form of federal handouts for so-called area redevelopment assistance."

The net effect of these billions of subsidies, he added, "is the corruption of the electorate."

2 Armed Men Seize Son Of Frank Sinatra

STATELINE, Calif. (AP) — Frank Sinatra Jr., singing son of the famed crooner and film star, was abducted by two men at gunpoint Sunday night from his motel room just before he was to go on stage at a casino, sheriff's deputies reported.

Several hours later police radio broadcasts alerted all units to look for two men for questioning. They were identified as Joseph James Sorce, 23, and Thomas Patrick Keating, 21.

Officers available to newsmen gave no reason why the men were sought. Nor were they identified further.

In San Francisco, however, police said Keating and Sorce were wanted for a bank robbery in Long Beach and that they were escapees from a youth authority camp at Tracy, Calif.

FBI Called In Authorities said the FBI had been called in on the case.

Deputies immediately set up roadblocks on mountain roads in the Lake Tahoe area, already made difficult by three inches of snow.

Sheriff George Byers of Douglas County, Nev., said "we still think they are in the area," on the California-Nevada border. Sinatra is 19 years old.

Sinatra Sr. flew in his two-engine plane to the area early today from Palm Springs, Calif. Ironically, young Sinatra was touring with a band, led by Sam Donahue, billed as the Tommy Dorsey Band. Sinatra Sr. rose to fame with that group, and in his act the younger Sinatra sang

Johnson Studies Federal Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's attention was focused today on the forthcoming federal budget—including a proposal to curb spending by eliminating some defense installations.

Johnson scheduled a morning meeting with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to go over some aspects of the military budget.

Top Budget Bureau officials, including Director Kermit Gordon, were summoned to review spending plans for the Justice and State departments, the Veterans Administration and the Federal Aviation Agency.

Johnson told a news conference Saturday that he and McNamara were making a study of defense installations to determine if any could be eliminated.

Some of Johnson's Sunday actions included: An order that $234 million of GI insurance dividends be paid to 4.7 million policyholders next month to help buttress the economy. Normally, payments would have been strung out through the year. President Kennedy ordered similar speed-ups in 1962 and 1963.

Tight Security For LBJ

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the tightest security nets ever wrapped around a president greeted Lyndon B. Johnson Sunday in his first trip from Washington as chief executive.

About 5,000 policemen, detectives and Secret Service agents were deployed along the route that took Johnson from Idlewild Airport to the funeral of former New York Gov. Herbert H. Lehman and then to the Waldorf-Astoria Towers for a call on ex-President Herbert Hoover.

Up To You

Marrison, above, told supporters in New Orleans that his victory in the Jan. 11 second Democratic primary for Louisiana governor is "up to you." The former U. S. Ambassador to the OAS and ex-New Orleans mayor led nine candidates in the Democratic primary Saturday. (AP Wire-photo.)

Court Hears Redistricting Arguments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court hears three hours of arguments today on the question of whether both houses of Delaware's legislature must be reapportioned along population lines.

A group of county and state officials from Delaware appealed to the high tribunal to overturn a decision by a special three-judge federal court in Wilmington that a 1963 reapportionment plan was unconstitutional. The appeal said the decision represented a gross abuse of judicial power.

Delaware's House of Representatives, the special court ruled, must be selected strictly on a population basis with an aim of "one vote, one person."

It ruled the State Senate should be based substantially on population, but that other factors might be given some weight.

The special court rejected a contention that the Delaware Senate could follow the model of the U. S. Senate. It ruled that unlike the states, "there never was much and there is now no sovereignty in the counties of Delaware."

But the Delaware officials' appeal insisted the federal appeal applied because Delaware's three counties formed the state in the same manner that the states formed the United States.

Pending before the Supreme Court are requests that it hear arguments on an apportionment appeal from Michigan. Florida, Ohio, Oklahoma, Colorado, Illinois and Washington state. The court is expected to announce its disposition of these appeals after it decides the cases which it heard argued.

News In Brief

TOKYO (AP) — The lower house of the Japanese Parliament re-elected Liberal Democratic party leader Hayato Ikeda premier today as expected. Later he announced he had appointed his entire Cabinet. Ikeda received 280 votes in a roll call of the 467-member house. The vote was a formality since Ikeda's party had won 294 seats in the Nov. 21 elections, assuring him another four years in office.

Fourteen persons were killed in Michigan automobile traffic on the weekend. The victims included a baby and six persons in their teens or 20s.

NEW YORK (AP) — A White House physician was kept close to President Johnson during his visit to the city Sunday in what apparently is a new procedure adopted as a result of President Kennedy's assassination. When Kennedy was shot in Dallas Nov. 22, Dr. George Burkley, a Navy admiral, was four cars behind the presidential vehicle. Sunday, Burkley rode in a police car just in front of John's limousine.

81 Persons Killed In Airliner Crash

Tragedy May Be 1st Caused By Lightning

WASHINGTON (AP) — If lightning caused Maryland's airliner crash Sunday night, it would be a first in U. S. commercial aviation records. Witnesses said a bolt of lightning hit the Boeing 707 jet, Pan American World Airways Flight 214 bound from Puerto Rico to Philadelphia, and transformed it into a ball of fire that showered the area near Elkton with bits of burning wreckage. Eighty-one persons died.

None In 20 Years Civil Aeronautics Board hearings into a May 12, 1959, crash at Chase, Md. — just 35 miles southwest of Sunday night's disaster — brought out that in 20 years no airliner of metal construction had been known to have been destroyed or even seriously damaged by lightning.

Ten witnesses claimed they saw lightning in the Chase area at the time a Capital Air Lines turboprop flying from New York to Atlanta crashed in flames with 31 persons aboard. Two witnesses said they saw lightning strike the craft.

Extreme Turbulence But 12 others testified there was no lightning near the plane. The CAB concluded that the plane broke apart in extreme turbulence.

Lightning was reported to have been responsible for the June 26, 1959, crash of a Trans World Airlines Super-Constellation that killed 68 persons, including 40 Americans, near Milan, Italy.

Fearful Wait Has Sad End For Relatives

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — They waited, tight-lipped, their faces taut with grief and fear. They were relatives, friends, loved ones sitting quietly at International Airport waiting word on Pan American's Flight 214 from San Juan, P.R.

Rumors and reports continued to mount. All knew the plane was late, frightfully late. Still there was no official word from the airlines.

Gradually more newsmen arrived with later reports and they learned the worst — Flight 214 crashed near Elkton, Md., and all 81 aboard were killed.

Cling To Hope Some clung to hope that their loved ones missed the plane or made a last-minute change in plans.

"Their wedding presents are still at my apartment," said Mrs. Linda Kolman of Philadelphia. She was speaking of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Scolnick of Philadelphia, who had gone to Puerto Rico on their honeymoon a week ago. "We were supposed to pick them up and take them to their new apartment tonight," she said.

Daughter Due In Another honeymoon couple was Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lalli of Philadelphia. "Give me a minute, give me a minute," said L.F. Curtis of Havertown, Pa., as his voice caught with emotion. Then, regaining control he said his daughter Arlene was due on the plane that was down.

Asked about car-making activity, Guthrie said "we are continuing in the automobile business."

"At South Bend" he was asked. "I'm not going to get into all the details. Everything will be disclosed at the news conference," Guthrie replied.

Bolivian Miners Hold 21 Hostages, Including 4 Yanks

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Communist-led tin miners holding four Americans among 21 hostages today gave the government 24 hours to free two arrested Communists or "suffer the consequences."

The Federation of Mine Workers sent their word to the government by way of radio transmissions from their stronghold more than 150 miles south of this capital.

The miners, led by leftist Vice President Juan Lechin, defied a government troop buildup and an offer from President Johnson of full U. S. assistance to the government to win freedom for the hostages, held since Friday night.

Union Leaders The miners' broadcast said the union wanted the release of the two Communist union heads arrested by the government during the day Friday.

The leaders, Irineo Pimental and Federico Escobar, were arrested on a court order in connection with union agitation against a government crackdown on union power in the operation of the mines. Bolivia's main source of income.

The broadcast said the union was giving the government the ultimatum to resolve "the problem of the detained union leaders, and if it does not do so, it will have to suffer the consequences."

Not Spelled Out The broadcasts did not spell out what the consequences would be, but sources here said they could mean a threat to the safety of the hostages. The miners originally promised the hostages would not be harmed.

The government has said that under no circumstances would it set the two Communists free. President Victor Paz Estenssoro scheduled a Cabinet meeting, meanwhile, amid reports he will decree a state of siege.

One of the Americans, Thomas Martin, 21, of New York, a U. S. Information Service officer, contacted the U. S. Embassy.

Studebaker Ends U. S. Production

NEW YORK (AP) — Studebaker Corp. will quit auto production in the United States but continue to make cars in Canada. Dow Jones News Service said today in a copyrighted story.

Ending of operations at Studebaker's plant in South Bend, Ind., where the company has made cars for 50 years, will cut off employment for about 6,000 persons, including 5,000 hourly workers the story said.

The business news service said all auto production will be concentrated at Studebaker's Canadian car plant in Hamilton, Ont.

The announcement will be made at a news conference in New York Tuesday, it said.

Randolph H. Guthrie, Studebaker's board chairman, and a New York attorney, confirmed that Studebaker will have an announcement then on its future plans.

Asked about car-making activity, Guthrie said "we are continuing in the automobile business."

"At South Bend" he was asked. "I'm not going to get into all the details. Everything will be disclosed at the news conference," Guthrie replied.

Losing Heavily Studebaker's car business, once the sole reason for its existence but now accounting for about one-half sales volume, has been losing money heavily.

Experts Look For Cause Of Jet Disaster

ELKTON, Md. (AP) — Expert investigators looked for proof today that lightning caused the crash of a big Boeing 707 jet airliner in which 81 persons perished Sunday night.

The Pan American World Airways jet, en route from Puerto Rico to Philadelphia, fell in fiery fragments from 5,000 feet during a lightning storm.

Seventy-one persons had disembarked from the plane during a stop in Baltimore only 10 minutes earlier.

The proud airplane disintegrated in the air. Bits of wreckage fell over an area estimated by Sheriff Edgar Startt of Cecil County at four square miles. The crash occurred about 15 miles southwest of Wilmington, Del., near the Maryland-Delaware border and U. S. 40.

The plane was carrying 73 passengers and 8 crew members.

Lightning? The Federal Aviation Agency in Washington said the plane was on a holding pattern near the New Castle, Del., Airport at 8:58 p. m. (EST) awaiting clearance to approach Philadelphia International Airport.

Then, said Raymond Gregg of Elkton, "it was just like the sun was coming at me. It was so bright I couldn't look at it."

Another witness, Henry Lindell of Newark, Del., said it was apparent to him that lightning had blasted the plane from the air.

"There were two large arched streaks of lightning in the air," he said. "An instant afterward the sky was completely lit up by a bright orange. You could see the parts of the plane starting to fall then."

Early today, 11 Civil Aeronautics Board and 7 FAA officials arrived to start the investigation. The area was cordoned off and flares sent an eerie light over the torn, blasted and charred wreckage.

There were few large pieces of wreckage, although one big jet engine dug a hole 100 yards from the home of Gregg. Small bits of airplane parts fell on the farmhouse roof of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berry.

Edwin R. Tully, special agent in charge of the FBI office in Baltimore, said the flight recorder, which is designed to survive crashes and tell investigators about the minutes preceding the disaster, had not been found.

Last Message Tully confirmed that several witnesses had said lightning struck the plane.

Pan Am said Flight 214 departed San Juan at 4:10 p. m. and arrived in Baltimore at 7:35 p. m., where the 71 passengers got off. It left Baltimore at 8:25 p. m. and was expected in Philadelphia at 8:45 p. m., 15 minutes behind schedule.

The airline said the last known radio contact between the plane and ground was a terse, terrifying message: "Going down in flames at 0158 Zebra" (8:58 p. m. EST). The message reportedly was overheard by the ground control center in New Castle, Del., and at Dover, Del., Air Force base.

The wreckage was so disintegrated that no bodies were found immediately. A temporary morgue, set up in the basement of the National Guard Armory in Elkton, was empty.

Midwest Blizzard Tapers Off, Heads East; Five Persons Die

(By the Associated Press) The season's most severe snowstorm which swept across North Central areas, dumping up to nearly a foot of snow in some sections, tapered off today as it moved slowly eastward.

Blizzard conditions were reported Sunday in some parts of the storm belt, which covered broad areas in the Dakotas, Minnesota and parts of Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa and Nebraska.

Five Deaths At least five deaths were attributed to the storm.

Gusty winds swept the Prairies, causing much drifting of snow and creating hazardous driving conditions. Snow plows in some parts of the snow belt were unable to keep highways clear and maintenance crews halted work until the snow diminished.

Eight persons were injured near Little Falls, Minn., when a Greyhound bus carrying 21 passengers overturned after colliding with a car on a snowy highway.

Colder Weather Colder weather spread into the snow-covered region and temperatures were near zero in sections of North Dakota. Generally, readings were in the teens in most of the North Central region, with the 20s reported across most Northern sections.

In the East, rain fell from eastern Virginia northward through New York State and southern New England. In the West, rain splashed areas from central California northward, with rain and snow from the Pacific Northwest into the Northern Rockies. Heavy snow was indicated in parts of the Plateau region and the Rockies.

Temperatures were mostly moderate throughout the state today.

Seven Persons Hurt, Four Issued Tickets In Area Smashups

Seven persons were injured, four motorists were issued tickets and nine vehicles were damaged in seven area traffic mishaps investigated by state police during the weekend.

State police also probed three collisions elsewhere in the county, in which two persons were hurt and two motorists were given tickets (see story on Page 17). Reports on this area's mishaps follow:

1. At 3:10 yesterday morning a car being driven west on U. S. 41 by Raymond Anderson, 23, of 332 Blenheim Ave., Marquette, struck an automobile operated by Arthur LaForest, 54, of 321 Lincoln St., Negaunee, about 300 feet west of the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railroad Co. overpass, in Negaunee Township.

Anderson suffered abrasions on his forehead and knees and was taken in the Marquette city ambulance to St. Mary's Hospital here. A passenger in his car, Violet Mansker, 42, of 558 Elm St., Negaunee, suffered lacerations and was taken to Bell Memorial Hospital, Ishpeming. LaForest and his wife, Anne, also suffered injuries and were taken to Bell Memorial for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. LaForest were not admitted as patients. Anderson was scheduled to be released from the hospital today.

State police said a heavy fog prevailed at the time and LaForest slowed down, with his car being hit from behind by Anderson's vehicle.

Speed Law Violation
Extensive damage resulted to the front end of Anderson's car, a 1962 small, foreign model, which had to be towed from the scene by a wrecker. The rear end of LaForest's 1954 sedan was damaged and his car was driven from the scene under its own power.

Anderson was ticketed by state police for a speed law violation.

2. An automobile being driven south on County Road 533 by Samson J. Charley, 18, K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, went out of control and smashed up, 4 of a mile south of County Road NT, in Sands Township, at 5:30 yesterday afternoon.

State police said Charley's car went off the right side of the highway, struck a guard rail post, then crossed over to the left side, where it struck some more guard posts.

Charley and a passenger, Carrell Hines, 20, also of Sawyer, both were injured and sought their own treatment. Extent of their injuries was not learned.

Extensive damage resulted to the top and sides of Charley's 1959 convertible, which was towed from the scene by a wrecker.

Speed Law Violation
State police ticketed Charley for a speed law violation.

3. The other injury occurred in a wreck at 5 p.m., yesterday on M-35 in Delta County, north of Delta Road 529. State police said a car being driven south on M-35 by Michael W. Abels, 19, Sawyer Base, went off the right shoulder and rolled over.

Philip Powers, 20, also of Sawyer, suffered bruises and abrasions about his body and was taken to the base hospital by a passing motorist.

The top and sides of Abels' 1958 coach was damaged.

Ticketed For Speeding
State police ticketed Abels for violation of the basic speed law.

4. At 9:45 yesterday morning an automobile being driven west on County Road TH by Patricia A. Johnson, 29, Box 17, Skandia, went out of control and into a skid when she applied her brakes on a curve, .7 of a mile west of U. S. 41, in West Branch Township.

Her car slid around, going off the north side of the highway and striking a tree. Officers said it was raining and icy at the time.

The left front of the Johnson car, a 1960 sedan, was damaged. It was driven from the scene.

5. An automobile being driven west on U. S. 41 by Martin Penkivich, 30, Gaastra, struck a car operated by Glenn Morgan, 44, of 1736 Fitch Ave., Marquette, at 2:45 yesterday afternoon, about 100 feet west of the Marquette city limits, in Marquette Township.

City police said Morgan was in the left lane and had signaled for a left turn. Penkivich had come up from behind him and saw the turn signal too late. He attempted to pass him on the left when the mishap occurred.

6. At 1:15 this morning a car being driven east on U. S. 41 by Corlyn Nelson, 25, Fayetteville, N. C., went off the right side of the highway and smashed into seven guard rails.

State police said the wreck occurred 100 yards east of

Man Suffers Burns Here In Blaze

A Marquette man suffered burns when a backfire occurred in an oil furnace at a filling station here Saturday.

Firemen said Gary Dahlke, 26, Deertrack, suffered burns on the right side of his face when he opened the furnace, which had become overheated, and it backfired.

The mishap occurred at the Parkside Shell Service Station, at 700 W. Washington St., owned by the Dahlke Oil Co. and managed by Gary Dahlke. He sought his own treatment for the burns.

Firemen said the slight explosion and backfire resulted from too much oil getting into the furnace. There was no fire damage.

Three firemen responded to the call, which came at 12:37 p. m., in the No. 4 (750-gallon) pumper. They remained at the scene until 1:03 p. m., until the heater had cooled off. A service man was called to repair the furnace.

Chimney Blaze Occurs
Firemen also were called out at 5:58 Saturday afternoon, when a chimney blaze occurred at the home of Leonard Parker, 207 Hampton St.

Six firemen responded to this call in the service truck and No. 2 (1,000-gallon) pumper. They extinguished the blaze by use of the booster hose off the service truck.

There was no damage and firemen returned to the station at 6:18 p. m.

Chief Lists Yule Period Driving Tips

Christmas period driving suggestions were offered area motorists today by Chief of Police George G. Johnson.

Chief Johnson observed that city police, like others, regard the approach of Christmas with favor, since most of them are family men and are looking forward to it.

"But this is the time of the year we have to be a little more cautious for traffic than usual," he added.

Traffic problems occasioned by any holiday, and the Christmas holiday shopping period in particular, are never far from a good police officer's mind.

"Have Regard For Others"
"Of course we're very concerned about maintaining Marquette's safety record," Johnson said, "and we're well aware that this can be a critical period. Crowds of shoppers, in cars and on foot, create traffic problems which we all must meet with patience and intelligence."

Johnson asked shoppers to cooperate by:

1. Taking advantage of off-rush hours whenever possible.
2. Completing their shopping before the last minute "crisis."
3. Showing consideration for others by driving with care.
4. Avoiding the temptation to double park, even for a moment.
5. Observing the directions of traffic officers.
6. Remembering that this favorite holiday is certainly no time to drive in any other manner than soberly and with "good will toward men."

Report Due Tonight On Site For City's New Electric Plant

City commissioners, at their regular commission meeting tonight, will hear a report from

ROY C. LEE JR.

J. B. Sims, Grand Haven, consulting engineer, on the selection of a site for the municipal steam electric generating plant. The meeting will begin at 7 p. m. in the commission chambers of the city hall.

Commissioners also will hear recommendations from City Manager Thomas Moore concerning bids opened for a three-quarter ton pickup truck and for a billing machine for the light and power department.

Seasonal Employees
The city manager also will present a resolution regarding a definite starting date for steady seasonal employees of the city.

Marquette Township Supervisor Alvin Weiland will present a communication concerning a six-month option to purchase city-owned property and permission to sink test wells.

The commission also will consider recommendations from the Marquette Planning Commission on requested rezoning of a parcel of land which lies south of the railroad right-of-way and south of Lake St. between U.S. Coast Guard property and the city pumping station and on requested rezoning of property in the St. Luke's Hospital area.

Liquor Request
Also on the agenda for tonight's meeting is consideration of a communication from the Michigan Liquor Control Commission concerning a previous request from a business at the corner of Lincoln and College Aves.

Several items which came before city officials today also are expected to be on the agenda at tonight's meeting.

State News Honor Goes To WDMJ

WDMJ, The Mining Journal radio station, has won the Michigan Associated Press broadcast member of the month award.

News director Eldon Wallace of WDMJ volunteered to act as a clearing house for Upper Peninsula news in an effort to spur membership news exchange in the region. The result was a marked improvement in the Upper Peninsula news report, the Detroit Bureau of the Associated Press stated.

In addition to acting as correspondent for the Associated Press, Wallace is a special correspondent for Voice of America broadcasts.

3 Vehicles Damaged In City Mishaps

Three vehicles were damaged and a motorist was ticketed, but no one was injured, in a pair of traffic mishaps reported today by city police.

At 7:50 this morning a milk tanker being driven north on U.S. 41 south, east of the Edgewater Motel, by Samuel L. Tauno, 45, Box 94, Marquette, began to slide and went out of control.

City police said the vehicle went off the right side of the highway and rolled over, about 30 feet from the highway.

Car Not Under Control
The right side of the tanker was damaged and two wreckers were required to tow the vehicle away.

City police ticketed Tauno for failing to have his car under control.

The other mishap took place at 9:45 Saturday morning on U.S. 41 south, near the state police post.

Extensive Damage Results
City police said Glen H. Shaw, 32, Route 1, Box 662-C, Marquette, was driving a wrecker north on U.S. 41, with the wrecker towing a car owned by Harvey Johnson, Lakewood. The rear end of the Johnson car was off the highway and the front end on the highway, and something went wrong with its steering gear, causing its front end to swerve to the centerline, with the vehicle striking an oncoming vehicle operated by Arnold P. Mulzer, 50, of 322 Rock St.

Extensive damage resulted to the right front fender and bumper of the Johnson car, a 1957 two-door sedan, and to the left rear fender of Mulzer's automobile, a 1960 four-door sedan.

17 Ocean Vessels Still In Seaway System

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP) — With winter fog setting in and ice forming in places, 17 ocean vessels still are in the St. Lawrence Seaway system, the seaway authority said.

Four of those, the authority said, are in the Great Lakes west of the Welland Canal. The matter of keeping the inland waterway open much longer "is becoming very critical," it said.

The term "equinox" comes from the Latin words for "equal night."

Roy Lee Jr. Named To County Clerk Post

Circuit Court Judge Bernard H. Davidson, Negaunee, today appointed Roy C. Lee Jr., 39, of 1515 Norway Ave., Marquette, to the post of county clerk.

Lee, who was sworn in by Judge Davidson this morning, succeeds Lloyd LeVasseur of Marquette, who died last Wednesday after having served as county clerk since Jan. 1, 1937.

Other Appointments
Miss Millie Johnson and Mrs. Olie Oberg, both of Marquette, were appointed deputies by Lee. They also served as deputies to Mr. LeVasseur.

Judge Davidson also appointed Miss Johnson librarian of the Marquette County Law Library, a post Mr. LeVasseur held in addition to his duties as county clerk.

Native Of Negaunee
Born in Negaunee in 1924, Lee graduated from the Negaunee High School in 1942. He attended the Michigan College of Mining and Technology in the fall of 1942 and entered active military service in March 1943. He attended two service schools, saw service in Okinawa and Japan and was discharged in March 1946.

Lee is a Democrat, as was Mr. LeVasseur.

Fraternal, Veterans Clubs
Lee is past commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3165 in Negaunee. He is a member of the Elks, Moose, American Legion and 40 at 8, Marquette County. He also is past president of the Negaunee Rod and Gun Club, a post he held during the period when its new clubhouse north of Negaunee was erected. He is a member of the executive board of St. Mark's Lutheran Church of Marquette.

Lee was in partnership with his father, Roy Lee Sr., in Negaunee for 10 years until the business was disposed of last Jan. 1. He has since been employed as an insurance salesman.

He and his wife, Lillian, have three children, Patricia, 12; Christine, 10, and David, 8, who attends the Sandy Knoll Orthopedic School for the Physically Handicapped.

Post Office Readies For Yuletide Rush; Extra Hours Listed

Marquette Post Office employees are getting set for the height of the Yuletide mailing rush.

December always is the "biggest" month of the year for postal employees, and the rush period extends from now through the Christmas holiday.

To meet the demand for the holiday mailing period, Postmaster John S. Courtney today announced special window service hours, which will take effect starting Wednesday.

Activity at the post office during the past week was increasing, but it is expected to be stepped up sharply this week, with lines forming at service windows during the latter part of the week.

'Mail Now'
Courtney noted that the additional window service which will be available starting this Wednesday is designed to assist patrons and he urges them to get their holiday mail out as soon as possible.

"This avoids the unnecessary delays and the inevitable long lines later in the month," he said. "Also, by mailing now postal patrons are assuring the delivery of their packages and other Christmas mail in time for the holiday."

Special Hours Listed

Sunday service, which up to 1959 had been offered on one or two weekends during the holiday season, has been discontinued and, following surveys of the situation, it was found out that the system worked out well, he stated.

Starting Wednesday, and continuing weekdays, through Friday, Dec. 20, the Marquette Post Office service windows will be open from 8:30 in the morning to 6 p. m. On Saturdays (the 14th and 21st) the post office service windows will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 5 in the afternoon.

Regular hours will be resumed by the post office on Monday, Dec. 23. The normal service window hours are 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m., weekdays, and Saturdays 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.

Christmas day service will be available starting this Wednesday is designed to assist patrons and he urges them to get their holiday mail out as soon as possible.

"Those who haven't yet mailed gift parcels should do so immediately, if they want to be sure the packages will be delivered by Christmas," he warned.

During the coming week, as business picks up, the post office will operate additional service windows. Two, three and even four additional windows will be opened as they are needed during the day, he said. Normally, only two or three service windows are open.

Mail Volume Up

Courtney said incoming mail volumes are expected to pick up sharply within the next few days and outgoing mail already is starting to mount.

Postage Rates Noted

Postage required for Christmas cards in unsealed envelopes is four cents. The rate for cards in sealed envelopes is four cents per ounce and these may include personal Christmas greetings or other written messages.

To insure prompt and correct delivery, addresses should be complete and legible, showing the postal zip code numbers.

Six New Members Of City Chamber Board Elected; Meeting Set Tomorrow

The regular staff of the post office will handle all the mail through the middle of the month, when some extra employees are expected to be hired and some of the regular employees will work additional periods.

The eight new directors, who will serve one more year, are:

Robert M. Ling, Volvorth Marquette Co., currently first vice president; Howard H. Larson, Peters and Larson, this year's second vice president; Leslie Dionne, Les' Standard Service, now treasurer; Jack Zeigler, U.P. Generating Co.; Robert B. Brebner, Cliffs Ridge, Inc.; Jack Tauch, Tauch's Greenhouses; Jack McCracken, Swanson Funeral Home, and Patrick L. Bennett, Northern Stationers, Inc.

The eight new directors will attend board of directors meetings this month to assure a smooth transition when they take office on the first of January, Larson said.

He was promoted to his present grade earlier this year.

Graduates from the U. S. Military Academy receive the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Sawyer Colonel Gets New Post

Lt. Col. John S. Bryant, director of administrative services of the 410th Bombardment Wing at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, since early 1960, has been reassigned.

Clifford Anderson, Guelff Printers Association; James Erspamer, Marquette Pharmacy; Charles Keough, Northland Appliance Co.; James H. Luke, The Mining Journal; Robert E. Moore, North Michigan Agency, and Larry W. Westphal, J. C. Penney Co.

They were elected on ballots received from 311 firms which are affiliated with the chamber. Their selection was announced by a board of judges, Robert J. Pearce of the Pearce Agency, assisted by Dick Ward, of Ward Beverage Co.

To Pick Two More

The six new members will meet with eight holdover directors to select two directors-

Winter Rips Back; Snow, Cold Ahead

Winter weather returned to the area today, after the weekend rain had washed away most of the snow which had accumulated last week.

Several inches of snow was on the ground this morning, bringing out plowing crews, and the bitter wind intensified the cold for pedestrians. Several more inches of new snow is expected by tomorrow.

Howard L. Coppens, public works superintendent, said city crews had most streets in good shape by this morning, but he added that their job would be complicated if a prediction of high-velocity winds materializes.

Roads were snow-covered and hazardous throughout most of the Upper Peninsula this morning.

Rain Turns To Snow
At the Marquette County Airport in Negaunee Township, where the ground cover did not melt over the weekend, snow depth this morning was over three inches.

It drizzled most of the day Saturday and yesterday. The rain changed to snow last night. Snowfall up to midnight amounted to two-tenths of an inch.

Overnight the low here was 28. Yesterday's average temperature was 37, or 11 degrees above normal, with extremes of 42 and 32. Saturday's average temperature of 35 was eight degrees above normal, with extremes of 41 and 29.

Strong Winds
For the month, the average temperature is about one degree below normal.

Northerly winds this morning averaged 25 miles per hour in downtown Marquette and about 30 along the lake.

An intense low pressure area moved south of Marquette last night. It moved across Lake Michigan last night and was centered in the northern portion of the lower peninsula.

Base Changes Made Ahead Of Schedule

Numerous support functions of the 410th Bombardment Wing and the 56th Fighter Wing at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base are being integrated in preparation for the change of command jurisdiction between the two units Jan. 1.

Strategic Air Command's 410th Bombardment Wing will assume the host position from the 56th Fighter Wing of the Air Defense Command Jan. 1.

The 62nd Fighter Interceptor Squadron, supplemented by several hundred maintenance personnel, will be the only ADC unit left on the base after the first of the year.

According to Lt. Col Stanley C. Pedersen, special assistant to the vice commander of the 410th Bombardment Wing and the man who has headed most of the relocation, planned moves are ahead of schedule.

He said most of the consolidation of support functions will be done in the next two weeks.

Ramputi Senior Commander
Pedersen is in charge of "Project Changeover." He is assisted by a group of higher-ranking non-commissioned officers and a team of airmen.

Col. Gene F. Oholendt, vice commander of the 410th Bomb Wing, will assume the position of base commander and commander of the 410th Combat Support Group the first of the year. Col. F. R. Ramputi, commander of the bomb wing, will be the senior commander on the base.

Here Tonight

Drew Pearson (above), widely syndicated newspaper columnist, radio and TV commentator, will be guest lecturer tonight at Northern Michigan University. The public is invited to attend the lecture to be held at 8:15 at Kaye auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

12 Fined $264 Total By Justice

Twelve persons were assessed a total of $264.20 in fines and costs when they appeared before Justice George J. Pezzy in Marquette Township Court. Arthur N. Moore, Route 2, Box 107, Marquette, was ordered to pay a $54.00 fine and serve two days in the Marquette County Jail for driving while his license was revoked or suspended. State police arrested him Nov. 29 on U.S. 41, in Marquette Township.

Reckless Driving Counts
On a charge of reckless driving, Tommie L. Mitchell, 24, of 225 W. Magnestic St., Marquette, paid a $44.30 fine. He was arrested by state police Nov. 24 on County Road 553, in Sands Township.

Kenneth W. Sult, 17, of 402 Fisher St., Marquette, was ordered to pay fines and costs totaling $50 in a charge of reckless driving. State police arrested him Nov. 14 on U.S. 41, in Marquette.

Littering Charge
For littering a highway, Daniel J. Kucik, Hamtramck, paid a $10 fine. He was ticketed by state police Nov. 10, in Negaunee Township.

Peter P. Castiglia, K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, was ordered to pay fines and costs totaling $5 for parking on the main traveled portion of a highway. State police ticketed him Nov. 25 on U.S. 41, in Skandia Township.

For failure to stop, leaving a private drive, Gary A. Frayer, Star Route 550, Marquette, paid a $10 fine. He was issued the summons by state police Nov. 2 on County Road 550, in Powell Township.

Ronald E. Heffner, Southfield, was ordered to pay fines and costs totaling $10 for parking on the main traveled portion of a highway. State police ticketed him Nov. 25 on U.S. 41, in Skandia Township.

Besides returning the highway commissioner's selection to an elective basis, the proposal would restore constitutional earmarking of highway funds, rather than leaving appropriation of such funds to the Legislature, Mackie said.

Mackie Eyes Conflict With Commission

DETROIT (AP)—State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie predicts a "major conflict" if new commissioners provided for by Michigan's new Constitution try to take control of the Highway Department before his term expires in 1965. Mackie meanwhile urged support of a proposal to amend the new Constitution to restore his office to elective status. The document, which takes effect Jan. 1, calls for a four-man board of commissioners appointed by the governor to run the Highway Department.

To Name Commission
Mackie, a Democrat, was elected for a term expiring June 30, 1965. The new Constitution provides that the present system will continue until then, but Republican Gov. George Romney is empowered to name the four commissioners any time after Jan. 1.

Speaking to the Engineering Society of Detroit Saturday, Mackie asked support of plans of the Michigan Good Roads Federation to circulate petitions to put a constitutional amendment proposal on the 1964 Michigan ballot.

Commissioner Mackie said he would support the proposal to amend the constitution to restore the Highway Department to an elective basis, rather than leaving appropriation of such funds to the Legislature, Mackie said.

and costs totaling $10 for disregarding a stop sign. State police ticketed him Nov. 11 at the junction of County Roads 510 and 502, in Negaunee Township.

Speeding Counts
The following persons, ticketed by state police, paid the amounts listed for speeding:

Ronald E. Peura, Box 170, Marquette, $25; Paul R. Kangas, Ironwood, $10; James F. Clark, Carmi, Ill.; bond of $20 forfeited for non appearance; Paul J. Carollo, Mt. Pleasant, $10; and Lawrence J. Sullivan, Box 76, Republic, $15.

Employees Dissatisfied With Proposal

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Free Press said Sunday its survey of American Motors Corp. workers indicated many are dissatisfied with the firm's "progress sharing" plan and would prefer cash wage increases.

Of 45 workers interviewed at AMC plants at Milwaukee and Kenosha, Wis., the Free Press said only five approved of the plan.

The workers objected to having their progress-sharing benefits tied up in company stock, the newspaper said.

Sino-Soviet Views Given By Lobanov

Dr. Andrei Lobanov, professor of history at Northern Michigan University and widely recognized authority on Russian and Far Eastern history, served as lecturer on Sino-Soviet relations at St. Olaf's College, Northfield, Minn., in the college's annual "Focus" program.

The program is a week-long event on one theme related to the contemporary world, during which the college invites a series of experts to explore the topic with students and faculty.

Dr. Lobanov, in his lectures, emphasized the definite split between China and Russia today and stated that the most important point to remember is that these two secretive countries have publicly declared to the world that they are having a quarrel. This, he said, is indicative of the magnitude of the split, but in what direction the split will move no one would dare to predict.

Lobanov warned that both countries are still communistic in their basic attitudes — the split is not over ideology but the implementation of that ideology. China, he pointed out, is in favor of violent application of Marxism, while Russia is in favor of co-existence or a revisionist attitude.

'Have' And 'Have Not'

He described Russia as a "have" country and China as a "have not", and this, he said, results in a basic difference in their policy toward each other.

Lobanov listed Siberia as one of the problems in future Russian-Chinese relations. China, he pointed out, has a huge expanding population and Siberia is still relatively open to expansion. China now is expanding into southeast Asia which is a natural area for her movements, but if there is an open conflict between Russia and China it will concern Siberia.

Russia's position in the future is unlikely to change, according to Lobanov. The problem, he thinks, is China's efforts to become a great power, to win over the undeveloped nations of Asia and Africa.

On Atomic Power

What will China do when she becomes an atomic power? Will Mao move aggressively, holding the threat of destruction against his enemies, or will he realize the importance of co-existence and join with Russia?

These are questions, the professor concluded, which nobody is able to answer.

Work Plan To Be Set By UPCAP

A work program for the new year will be outlined at a quarterly meeting of the Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Problems (UPCAP), Saturday, Dec. 14, at the chamber of commerce building in Escanaba.

Abram P. Snyder of Marquette is secretary of the UPCAP group.

Aarne Ervast, Laurium, chairman of the UPCAP technical committee and field agent for the Michigan Department of Economic Expansion, will discuss UPCAP's work program for the period from Jan. 1, 1964, to June 30, 1965.

Guide For Activity

The work program will be on the guide for UPCAP activity, including its technical assistance project; other specialized or contracted technical programs; agencies, institutions or firms in residence or operation in the region and the volunteer technical resources available.

Also on the agenda for the quarterly meeting will be a presentation from Edward Hollander, vice president of Robert R. Nathan Associates, Washington D. C., on "Economic goals for the Upper Peninsula."

U. P. Targets

Hollander will state what and why certain economic goals should become the targets of planning and development efforts in the U.P.

Each county delegate to UPCAP will present a report on the status of planning and development in his county.

Standing committee referrals, county referrals and a report from an Area Redevelopment Administration field agent also are on the agenda.

Control Of Co-Ops

The rural electric cooperatives — there are three in the Upper Peninsula — are intensely interested and somewhat apprehensive about a hearing set by the Federal Power Commission for tomorrow to determine whether it has limited control over three big electric co-ops.

The electric co-ops maintain that they're already regulated by the Rural Electrification Administration, which has financed them since Congress authorized the REA program in 1935 to electrify marginal rural areas. REA and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, of which REA is an agency, agree that the co-ops are properly regulated under REA without the FPC looking at their books.

But FPC argues that the electric co-ops, just like the private power companies operating in interstate commerce, should be under FPC's rate-making review if its supervision is going to be fair to all suppliers of electricity. The co-ops reply that such action would give the private utilities a foot in the door on their way to opposing REA loans from the government for new transmission and generation projects. FPC spokesmen say in rebuttal that they're not proposing that they pass on loans to co-ops by REA, but only that the co-ops' wholesale power rates be supervised.

Behind this power struggle is the new stature of the rural electric cooperatives. Starting small and modestly and doing a historic job of electrifying rural areas which the private utilities hadn't served, some of the co-ops have grown large and expansive. Some of them cross state lines with big transmission networks served by large generating capacity. One of the three big electric co-ops that FPC is inquiring about tomorrow is the Dairyland Power Co-operative of LaCrosse, Wis., which has assets of almost $80 million and customers in four states. Some of the co-ops have invested their surpluses in business enterprises.

The Federal Power Commission's hearing appears a sensible first step in clearing up some uncertainties about the control of electric power. The big co-ops are acquiring public utility character, and REA controls appear fuzzy in situations where loan security isn't involved. If the co-ops are reluctant to open their books to the public it may be because public taxes are making possible the two per cent bargain interest rates at which the co-ops can borrow money from REA. If the co-ops don't need that aid because they're doing so well, it will be of concern to Congress, which has several bills in the hopper to raise this bargain interest rate on REA loans to the co-ops.

An airing of the situation should be healthful. The present setup, born of an effort to aid rural areas modernize, shouldn't be a tool to socialize the electric business by giving the wards of the REA financial advantages over the private utilities which must pay commercial rates for money and commercial taxes to support the government.

PRESS GROUP'S OBJECTIVES

Nowhere have the aims and ideals of hemispheric journalism been better stated than in the Inter American Press Association's list of objectives. Although these goals are well-known to IAPA's members, they cannot be repeated and re-emphasized too often for newspaper readers.

1. To guard freedom of the press.
2. To foster and protect the general and specific interests of the daily and periodical press of the Americas.
3. To promote and maintain the dignity, rights and responsibilities of journalism.
4. To encourage uniform standards of professional and business conduct.
5. To exchange ideas and information which contribute to the cultural, material and technical development of the press.
6. To foster a wider knowledge and greater exchange among the peoples of the Americas in support of the basic principles of a free society and individual liberty.—John S. Knight in an address before the IAPA.

NO BIRD-BAITER

A New Bern, N. C., federal judge has thrown out of his court a charge that Rep. Halleck, House Republican minority leader, scattered grain in a field to entice doves there to be shot. This undoubtedly will lead to a better working relationship between Republicans and the White House.

Rep. Halleck is now proved to be not the kind of man who would hurt a dove. However, we advise Democrats not to drop their guard while alighting on any open field to feast on handouts.—Detroit News.

Peninsula Perambulator

Escanaba police have questioned two juvenile boys in their investigation of a bomb threat hoax that closed the Escanaba High School for a full day. One of the boys was given a polygraph (lie detector) test at state police headquarters in Marquette, but results have not been announced. The bomb threat started with a telephone call at 7:56 a.m. Police, told that a bomb was set to go off in the high school at 1 p.m., advised school officials of the threat. Students were dismissed from classes and a thorough search was made of the building. There were two or three such "pranks" at Iron Mountain earlier this year.

It is announced that Mr. Lynn, mining and iron editor of this paper, will give a lecture at the Presbyterian Church soon for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society. The title of his discourse is "Our Responsibility," and in it he will try to show how people should live to be happy and how people are living without being happy. There will be a great deal of practical instruction which will please the mass of people. This is the first of a series of lectures which the Marquette Lecture Association proposes for the benefit of the poor of the city, the proceeds to be distributed by a Ladies' Aid Society, which consists of a committee representing all the churches.

The French Brothers had expected to open the skating rink before now, but there has not been enough continued hard weather to make ice. They will announce the opening in due form as soon as the condition of the ice will permit.

On Thursday the prisoners, Baudrie, Beale and Bird, who are in jail awaiting trial on the charge of robbing freight cars in this city, made an attempt to gain their liberty. They had worked their way on the stone wall with some tools until they had nearly dug up over where they were working served to protect them from discovery for awhile. When detected in the little game, but a small amount of work remained to be done to set them free.

We fail to find in the report of the supervising architect of the United States any recommendation for a new custom house and post office in Marquette. We fear our people have been remiss in their duty. Let the architect be invited here next season, dined and wined at the North Western, shown our advantages. Also, let him become "interested" in our mines, a few shares placed where they will do the most good. Thus we think he can be made to see our necessities.

It is the general talk that there is to be a grand race on the ice at Lake Angeline next Saturday afternoon, or the week following, depending on the condition of the surface and weather. A number of horses are to compete, and the "boys" anticipate lots of fun.

Rumor has it that work is to be resumed at the New Burt mine and some of the other openings after the first of the year. It is to be hoped that rumor tells the truth this time.

J. Ropes & Co. have laid in a large stock of holiday goods of all kinds and are prepared to furnish happiness for young and old for a small consideration.

Cap. E. Smith has built the Ely House at the Republic Mine and keeps it well. The hotel is excellently fitted up with good rooms, the table is good, and this is just what has been needed in this locality.

Jacob Houghton, Esq., superintendent of the Michigan Mine, goes to Detroit next week to remain through the winter. Mr. J. C. Fowle will act as assistant superintendent during Mr. Houghton's absence.

The porter of the Jackson House turned a corner the other day a little too quickly for his cutter, which upset, spilling its contents and breaking a shaft.

One That Wasn't On The Map

The National Whirligig News Behind The News

By ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON — Possibly it is beginning to dawn on American citizen's inalienable right to own a gun. This harks back to the pioneer days when a man needed a gun to protect himself from Indians. Gun nuts also are fond of citing the Second Amendment, which notes that "a well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

Here in America any lunatic, assassin, ex-convict or stubborn child can buy a gun over the counter or by mail, as Lee Oswald did. In most of the world's other civilized countries, no one may buy or possess a firearm without a police certificate, and these slips of paper are issued only to those judged to be rational and of good repute. Elsewhere, of course, as in the Iron Curtain countries, a citizen knows better than to be caught with a weapon he is not authorized to possess.

Indians Now Pacified
There has been a great deal of romantic nonsense uttered over the years about American citizen's inalienable right to own a gun. This harks back to the pioneer days when a man needed a gun to protect himself from Indians. Gun nuts also are fond of citing the Second Amendment, which notes that "a well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

But these are not pioneer days; indeed today it is the Indian who requires protection from the white man. And this new rule will not buy the premise that Lee Oswald or Jack Ruby or the average Chicago hoodlum qualify as members of a "well-regulated militia."

The rifle club boys can scream all they want, but basically a gun is a weapon constructed with the purpose of killing some living animal, man or beast. A man with a murderous grudge against one of his fellows does not go forth to settle the score with an armful of snowballs. Policemen carry pistols because they are the handiest weapons with which to kill or maim the armed criminal who may violently resist arrest.

The Bump-Off Score
Handy is the word. There were 7,261 murders reported by the FBI last year, and more than half of these were perpetrated with guns. Four presidents of the United States have been assassinated, all with guns. Yet the nation's timid and careless local and national governments have done virtually nothing to regulate the estimated 50 million persons in the United States who own guns.

Tales of wanton murder crowd the columns of newspapers, and every year thousands of Americans are killed or wounded by guns that were used carelessly or because somebody "didn't know it was loaded." Foreign guns, such as the weapon used in the Kennedy assassination, are duty-free and tax-free.

Sen. Dodd's bill actually is only a start in curbing the American public's long adventure with the means of self-destruction. It merely curbs the sale of mail-order guns and tightens an existing provision designed to prohibit interstate shipment of firearms to localities where they are not permitted and to minors and convicted felons. Purchasers would be required to submit affidavits to dealers and common carriers showing the purchaser's age, name, address, criminal record, if any, and whether he was complying with state gun laws.

Opposition Powerful
More important, however, the measure would require that the affidavit be authenticated "by the highest local law enforcement authority in his community." Under such a provision, Lee Oswald could have been prevented from ordering a rifle from a Chicago house under an assumed name.

When he introduced the bill last August, Dodd acknowledged it had weaknesses, but he explained there was "latent opposition" to the measure and he had tried to frame a bill that would have a chance of passage. Apparently, there are still people who believe that, as the Washington Post remarked, "guns are good for us."

Death From Afar

BY DON OAKLEY

Four United States presidents have been shot to death: Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley, and now Kennedy. There have been attempts against others that failed.

It is worth noting that in every case but the last the foul deeds were perpetrated at close range.

Long-Range Destruction
Though hand weapons capable of killing men at ranges up to hundreds of yards have existed since at least the days of the Kentucky long rifle, John Kennedy was the first President to be so assassinated—indeed, was probably the first outstanding leader in all history to be murdered at a distance.

It is ominously significant that it should occur at this time in history, when this nation—and all nations—are openly vulnerable to long-range destruction.

One Great Worry
U. E. Baughman, former head of the Secret Service, wrote in his memoirs that this men could provide sure protection for the presidents under their charge in almost all circumstances.

He had only one great worry during his years in the service, and that was precisely what befell President Kennedy: The unseen rifle, telescopically equipped, protruding from one of thousands of windows along a crowded city street.

No Sure Guarantee
Short of containing the President in a bulletproof cocoon, or employing hundreds of men to search and patrol every building along a given route, there was no way the Secret Service could guarantee the President's safety against a determined rifleman.

In the days before the atomic bomb and intercontinental missiles, the military chiefs of a nation could offer reasonable guar-

Reddick Quits Post As Health Director

BAY CITY (AP) — Dr. Charles E. Reddick, who will be 66 next March 10, has resigned as Bay County health director to avoid being forced into retirement. He took a similar post with Chippewa County at Sault Ste. Marie.

Dr. Reddick said he was quitting his $15,000-a-year post because of Bay County's recently-adopted retirement policy at age 65.

Change In U.S. Role

By WALTER LIPPMANN
In the preceding article I talked about some of the difficulties at home and abroad which complicate President Johnson's intention to continue the policies of President Kennedy. It is taking too simple a view of his problems to overlook the dead-lock and standstill which prevail at home and abroad.

Although President Kennedy might have waited until he had been re-elected, he could not have put off indefinitely a serious reappraisal of many of his foreign policies. The condition of affairs has changed tremendously since these policies were first conceived and formulated. They were addressed to the world of the late 1940s and the 1950s when there were two, and only two, great powers. Now, there are several, and the two big nuclear powers are finding that in the outer world their control is weakening and their influence diminishing.

It will be necessary to reappraise the policies which come down from the time when the non-Communist world, and particularly the European part of it, looked to Washington for leadership because it depended wholly upon the United States for its defense against communism and for its recovery from the war. This abnormal relationship had to come to an end. It was the avowed purpose of our postwar policies to bring it to an end. And though it is human to cling to a superior place, we must recognize that Europe has recovered and enjoys a freedom of action hitherto denied it. This is because the balance of power has been organized successfully to rule out great war.

By the end of the 1950s when the New Frontier was struggling to come into power, the abnormal preeminence of the United States had already begun to fade away. The phenomenon was then ascribed to the weakness of Eisenhower and not to the nature of things.

It was necessary at that time to prepare ourselves for giving up our former position of undisputed leadership. Insofar as our European policies have been working badly, it is not so much because Gen. de Gaulle is spoiling them but because events have overtaken them. Gen. de Gaulle has not brought about the decline of NATO and the American-led Atlantic partnership and the primacy of the United States in all the underdeveloped continents. Gen. de Gaulle is pointing out the decline of an American leadership which was temporarily necessary but inherently abnormal — abnormal in regard to the national spirit of the Europeans, abnormal also in regard to the historic traditions of the Americans.

Time To Wait For European Proposals
In my view, President Johnson will do well to begin with a confident acceptance of an accomplished and unavoidable fact — that our position in relation to Europe is no longer that of guardian and tutor. From abjuring the pretension to superiority in world leadership will come, one may hope, the end of that eager-beaverism which has interfered with our serious thinking and has done nothing but irritate and destroy confidence. We should accept the fact that since we are no longer needed or able to lead Europe, the time is over for hot-foot missions to Paris and London and Bonn and Rome to sell some one of our devices.

It is time to relax and wait considerably and receptively for proposals from Europe. It is most emphatically not the time for the new President to consider traveling abroad, for him to listen to the naive argument that, face to face with the European leaders and with sufficiently large crowds cheering him along, Europe will relax and enter into the dependent posture of the 1940s and the early 1950s.

The time before our elections is too short, the accumulated problems here at home are too many, to allow time or energy for the diversions and distractions of propaganda travels abroad. What cannot be done through diplomatic channels, or face to face in Washington, almost certainly cannot be done at all.

Paramount Themes Of The Decades
We are in the 1960s, and we must search our minds lest we accept unexamined the assumptions of the postwar years, lest we act on the reflexes which were conditioned in another age. The paramount theme of the 1940s was the necessity of American intervention to save European civilization from destruction. The paramount theme of the 1950s was to consolidate the Western world against the onset of revolutionary communism. The paramount theme of this decade as we know it thus far is that we are emerging from a two-power world and entering one where there are many powers.

It will be false to say that a recognition of the change in our relative position is a revival of isolationism. A reappraisal of our position involves no retreat from the task of maintaining the nuclear peace. It means no withdrawal and no desertion of our friends. But it does mean a change in our role in power politics, let us say from wooer to wooed, from buyer to seller, from seeker to sought.

Hail To The Chief

BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

One great and heartening fact to emerge afresh in the painful days since Nov. 22 is the marvelous character of the American presidency.

The men who occupy this exalted office may change. But the presidency goes on, unshattered by an assassin's bullet, unswayed by the slurs of its detractors, elevating its occupants to efforts neither they nor their appraisers imagined possible.

Oldest Of Its Kind
Perhaps not many of us realize it is the oldest office of its kind on earth, though we are still among the younger nations.

It has withstood civil war, two colossal world wars, wrenching panics and depressions, death by assassination and by illness. Nowhere else among the powerful countries of the globe does the Chief Executive of a free people stand out with such preeminence as does the American president.

Made Crucial Choice
Sidney Hyman, a historian who specializes in the presidency, notes in the New York Times magazine that the Founding Fathers made a crucial choice when they determined that the President should "stand on a plane of his own in full view of the nation." Hyman adds:

"It was meant that this one man, highly visible, with all eyes fixed on him, should himself view the nation as a great whole, and should seek to make his own impulses felt through its parts as a source of unity in diversity, of order in progress, of continuity in change."

Many Main Duties
The Constitution's framers made of this man ceremonial head of state, top officer of government, chief diplomat, commander-in-chief of the armed forces, principal legislator, to mention only his main duties.

Small wonder, then, that the U.S. presidency is looked upon with awe by those who hold it and by those both within and beyond the nation who grasp its authority and prestige.

Serious Misconceptions
Yet the very fact that the office rises so high above the plateau of ordinary power leads to serious misconception about it. The notion exists in some places that a president is all-powerful, that he can sweep away obstacles with the wave of a wand, that therefore there is no problem he cannot master.

This is the great reason the presidency—and the particular occupant at any time—serve inescapably as huge target for the disappointments, the frustrations, the anger that afflict any measurable portion of the American people in a given moment of history.

Great Bulwark
The truth, naturally, is that the presidency is peculiarly limited in its powers despite its unique independence of other branches of government.

Both Congress and the courts have countervailing power which must perform be respected. The realities of competing politics are a further curb, as is the general mood of the nation. Political myths and legends are often as hard for a president to shatter as is the law itself which binds him.

So, the very remarkable visibility of the American President makes him sometimes critically vulnerable. But the resilience and durability of the office somehow invest it with the substance it needs to withstand assault—and remain as a great bulwark for Americans and all free men.—(NEA)

"GREAT COMMONER"
The name "Great Commoner" was given not only to William Jennings Bryan, but to Thaddeus Stevens in the United States and to William Pitt and William Gladstone in England. Each earned the name through his championship of the rights of the common man.

Marquette Selected For 1964 Supervisors Meet; Eight Resolutions Adopted

Marquette was selected as the site for the 1964 summer conference of the Upper Peninsula Supervisors Association and Escanaba for the winter meeting.

Selection was made at the recent annual meeting held in Iron Mountain, and resolutions seeking to promote the economic development of the U.P. were adopted.

Specifically, the supervisors urged:

1. Passage of Senate Bill S-1166 authorizing the Bureau of Mines to enter into research contracts with colleges and universities.

2. Assessment of county-owned lands like state-owned lands to help overcome loss of revenue to townships.

3. An increase in state-owned land "tax" revenue from 15 cents per acre to 25 cents per acre, with the money being divided for school, township and county use.

On Matching Funds

4. An increase in state matching funds for regional tourist promotion from $30,000 to $50,000 annually.

5. Construction of a four-lane freeway by the federal government from Green Bay to the Keweenaw Peninsula.

6. Continuance of railroad car ferry service between Mackinaw City and St. Ignace, since its elimination will affect rail freight for industry and military installations.

Concerning Freeway

7. Tabling of an east-west freeway opposed by Mackinac County and; instead, more improvements of present highways.

8. Continuance of flights Nos. 394 and 395 by North Central Airlines, since they provide direct air service to Detroit and Lansing.

Corneliuson Elected

In other action, they re-elected Alex Goldade, Brimley, president; Carl W. Corneliuson, Ishpeming, chairman of the Marquette County Board, vice president, and Phil A. Miron, Escanaba, secretary-treasurer.

Dickinson County Prosecutor Francis Broillette, speaking at the association's dinner program, told members that "Our government is based on the law of God—be proud of being a politician because the people of your community have faith in you."

Conservation Men Speak

Three officials of the State Conservation Department's Upper Peninsula headquarters spoke at the conference—Parks and Recreational Supervisor Glenn Gregg discussing the rapid growth of state parks for campers and picnickers; Forestry Supervisor Donald Zettle explaining timber sales in state forests and the employment they provide; and Regional Chief Dorias J. Curry describing the continuous hazards of forest fires and the difficulty of law enforcement.

Ken Dorman, secretary-manager of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, headquartered in Marquette, stressed the "great need" for continued advertising of the Upper Peninsula since competition among states for the tourist dollar is growing.

Other speakers heard during the two-day session were Horace Hodge, president of the Michigan Association of Supervisors, who discussed local government, and two members of the Michigan auditor general's department, Robert Di Milio and Vern Gulich, who explained the filing of new forms for veterans' homestead exemptions.

Committees Listed

Committees set up during the meeting included:

Finance — Jane Dahlstrom, Dickinson County, chairman; Ray Tembreull, Baraga County, and Vern Smith, Chippewa County; resolutions—John Pentilla, Iron County, chairman; Albert Lindberg, Mackinac County, and Lindsley Frenette, Schoolcraft County; by-laws study—Phil A. Miron, Delta County, chairman; Ivar Anderson, Dickinson County; Harold Gustafson, Delta County; Francis Drake, Iron County, and ner, Illinois; Matthew Welch, Indiana; James Rhodes, Ohio; Nelson Rockefeller, New York, and William Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Purpose

He said the proclamation is designed to demonstrate Michigan's confidence and concern with the welfare of the industry and seeks the aid of housewives, restaurants and food editors in a campaign to restore public confidence.

Gov. Romney Bid To Help Fish Industry

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney has asked seven other Great Lakes states to join a campaign aimed at restoring public confidence in the area's commercial fishing industry.

Food poisoning from Type "E" Botulism has caused serious economic setbacks for the industry, particularly in Michigan.

Romney announced he will declare the week of Dec. 16-21 "Michigan Great Lakes Fish Week" and asked the governors of other states to issue similar proclamations.

'Joint Action'

"By our joint action," Romney told his fellow governors in a letter, "we can do much to restore the Great Lakes fishing industry to the condition of prosperity and confidence it deserves."

The letter went to Governors Karl Rolvaag, Minnesota; John Reynolds, Wisconsin; Otto Ker-

Car Purchase Planned By St. Luke's Alumnae

St. Luke's Alumnae are planning to purchase a car to transport students during their three years of training. Students are required as part of their curriculum to visit certain areas and departments in and out of Marquette. These trips include visits to local sanitation facilities, the water department, the courthouse, the Adult Mental Health Clinic at St. Mary's Hospital, the Orchard Rest Home, Morgan Heights, health departments in several Upper Peninsula cities, Bay Cliff Health Camp, the Veterans' Hospital in Iron Mountain and the children's unit at Newberry State Hospital, plus appearances on the March of Dimes Telethon. Hospital's Need These trips have been made in the past through the generosity of alumnae members and interested local citizens. The hospital also needs a vehicle to send their alumnae members recruiting throughout the U.P. In past years, the recruiter has had to furnish her own car. Correspondence began last spring to determine the feasibility of obtaining a station wagon under one of the stamp or coupon plans. Bids were sent out to several Marquette County dealers. A bid was accepted by the companies, and it was found that saving a certain type of coupons would be the most desirable plan for the alumnae. Need 567,000 Coupons The coupon distributor has indicated that it would be necessary to acquire 567,000 coupon values to be issued a check to purchase the vehicle in the accepted bid. The alumnae hope to be able to order the station wagon late this spring and take delivery by July 1, 1964. Friends of the alumnae and St. Luke's Hospital and interested persons may contribute coupons that they have by contacting any alumnae. St. Luke's Alumnae was formed about 1915 when St. Luke's Hospital moved from Ridge St. to its present location on Hebard Court. The alumnae have continued to function since that time and have aided and supported St. Luke's Hospital and the School of Nursing in many ways through the years. Contributed Funds They have contributed funds for the library and films, purchased a skeleton for the nursing arts department, purchased library furniture, silverware and dishes for the student's use in the nurse's home kitchen, assisted financially in sending members and students to state and national nursing conventions, established the Frank Stolpe Memorial Fund, from which nursery equipment was purchased for the pediatric floor and appliances for the student's use in the nurses home. They have contributed to the hospital building fund and supplied transportation for the students to and from required areas during their three years of training.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN DEAR ABBY: Well, my husband opened his big mouth again, and now half the neighborhood isn't speaking to us. The school is nine blocks from here. Our kids walk. A neighbor couldn't get her car started, so she ran over here all excited (my husband was eating his breakfast) and said if he didn't drive a carload of kids to school, they'd all be late. Then my husband gave her a lecture on "how it would do them all good to walk, and the school was only nine blocks away, and that she and the other mothers in our neighborhood were spoiling the kids rotten by chauffeuring them a distance that could be walked in 15 minutes, blah, blah, blah." Well, that's not what she came over for, so I told him to shut his mouth and I drove the kids to school in our pick-up truck. My husband said I should have taken his side. Who was wrong?

LIKES IT PEACEFUL DEAR LIKES: Your husband. Your neighbor didn't want advice, she wanted a ride for the kids. Although your husband's ideas were sound, he batted zero in diplomacy. DEAR ABBY: A friend of mine just moved into an old house. She and her husband remodeled it a little bit on the inside and now she is inviting all her friends to come to a "housewarming." I think she is wrong. Aren't "housewarming" parties only for people who move into NEW homes? PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: No. The house is "NEW" to her. DEAR ABBY: A woman I

Jews To Celebrate Festival Of Lights

Hannukah, the Jewish festival of lights, begins Tuesday at sundown. The holiday lasts for eight days and is celebrated in Jewish homes by the lighting of candles. One candle is kindled the first night and an additional candle each successive night for eight nights of the holiday. This holiday commemorates the victories of a courageous band of Jews over the cruel Syrian tyrant, Antiochus Epiphanes in 165 B.C.E. The Syrians had conquered Judah about three years earlier. They had desecrated the Temple in Jerusalem by setting up idols of the Greek god Zeus. The practice of Judaism was forbidden and many Jews were martyred in its behalf. The family of Mattathias, the priest, took charge of the situation, and led by Judah the Maccabee, one of the priest's sons, they rallied the Jews behind them. In a series of small successful raids they drove out the Syrians and rededicated the Temple.

Another Part To Story From the act of rededication we get the name of this holiday. Hannukah is a Hebrew word which means rededication. This holiday commemorates that victory and that ceremony. Temple Beth Shalom in Ishpeming observed the holiday with an adult service which was held at the temple last night. A children's service and program held in the Temple on Sunday morning, Dec. 15.

Jaycettes Plan Yule Party

A Christmas party will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Union National Bank Lounge by the Marquette Jaycettes.

Members will exchange gifts and are reminded to bring their canned food donations for the Christmas baskets for the needy. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Donald Tote, Mrs. Jack Nelson and Mrs. Ronald Plotka, hostesses for the evening.

On Dec. 16 there will be a Christmas party for the children of the Jaycettes starting at 3 p.m. in the Clifton Hotel. Children will be entertained by games and a visit from Santa Claus.

work with asked me to her club as a guest. A man I had never seen before was also somebody's guest at the club. He introduced himself to me and asked me my name. I told him. No one that I know had ever seen him before, and they didn't know anything about him. He asked if he could take me home. I refused. My friend said I was crazy. Was I?

DEAR WONDERING: No. If he's interested, he'll find you. And if he's worthwhile, he'll respect you for your caution and will gladly provide the character references you insist upon. What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. (McNaught Syndicate, Inc. 1963)

Lines from Lou's by... Maggie

Do you know that when this comes out there will be only 14 shopping days to Christmas. It's amazing how the time does fly by. But for you people who put that shopping off until the very last minute, this is just a reminder that the last minute is fast approaching. But you still have no worries when you shop at LOU'S. Our selection is huge and varied. Especially pretty in sportswear are the mix and match group from Koret in lilac, mint or white. You get the great Koret fit and styling in such luscious spring shades that you can wear right through to Easter. Some lucky gal will be proud and happy to receive a Koret set for Christmas.

We must continue to tell you about the holiday dresses we have at LOU'S. We can honestly boast that the selection we have this year is bigger and more stunning than ever before. Colors are flattering and the styles are so easy to wear. When you go out for dinner, or enjoy an informal visit with the neighbors, a dress from LOU'S will be the right thing to wear.

And NOW is a good time to remind you about other gift items such as lingerie, robes, slacks, sweaters, with matching skirts if you wish, scarfs, novelty stocking stuffers, a huge array of leather or cloth gloves, and so many more items than we can mention.

Santa Claus still has a bag full of goodies when you shop at LOU'S in the center of Marquette. — Adv.

Sally Pelkie Presents Yule Recital Sunday

There is another part to this story. When the Jews returned to Jerusalem to rededicate the Temple, they found only one cruze of oil which had not been defiled. This was enough oil for only the Eternal Light in the sanctuary burning for only one day. Miraculously, however, the oil lasted for eight days, until new oil could be prepared. This is the legend which explains the reason for the eight days of the holiday. The real significance of this holiday, according to the Jews, is that it commemorates the first important victory for religious freedom in the world. Observe Holidays The Syrians had attempted to outlaw the practice of Judaism, but the brave Maccabees chose to stand and fight rather than suffer religious persecution. With the help of God they were victorious in their struggle and they have been an example to men throughout the ages who have felt the inhumanity of religious oppression. This is the message which this holiday brings to us today. Temple Beth Shalom in Ishpeming observed the holiday with an adult service which was held at the temple last night. A children's service and program held in the Temple on Sunday morning, Dec. 15.

Kathy Marra of Negaunee, Sandra Kosey of Champion, Donna Kroon of National Mine, Judy and Sharon Hebert, Cindy Portale, Mary Beth Butcher, David and Judy Pelkie and Mrs. Martha Saari of Ishpeming. The program will consist of Christmas carols and music by various composers. Parents, friends and relatives are invited. Refreshments will be served.

1,500 Ride 'Santa Claus Express' From Ishpeming

ISHPEMING — The "Santa Claus Express" proved to be one of the most successful events ever promoted by the Retail Division of the Ishpeming Chamber of Commerce.

A ticket count showed 3,150 passengers, Wayne Hansen, general chairman, said. Another 1,200 persons were turned away.

Hansen said that the "amount of good will generated by this promotion was tremendous" and that many people from a wide area "made a special point of contacting members of the Retail Division to give their thanks for the event." Many children had their first opportunity for a train ride, in addition to the thrill of meeting Santa Claus on the modern double-decked railroad cars.

Four of the Chicago & North-Western Railroad cars left Ishpeming at four different times Saturday and each time they were filled to capacity with youngsters and adults.

The Retail Division said today that, because the "Santa Claus Express" was received with so much enthusiasm, it will make plans to have it here again next year, with another car added.

Each youngster aboard the train was given a bag of candy by Santa.

West Ishpeming School Operetta Thursday Night

ISHPEMING — Children of the West Ishpeming School will present an operetta entitled "When Christmas Comes" by Otis M. Carrington at 7 this Thursday night.

Soloists in the program include Julie Nelson, Kathy LaForest, Ida Lakanen, Steven Vickstrom, Dale Wentela, Vikki Marcotte, Laurie Nelson, Kathie Kipling, Kirk Locher, Martha Laksonen, Carol Korpi and Susan Oja.

Nearly 254 million passenger-car repair jobs are undertaken each year by the nation's automotive service garages.

Drop In Savings Stamp Sales In Schools Revealed

ISHPEMING — A savings stamp report issued by the Ishpeming public schools showed a decrease in sales for November compared with the same month last year.

The figure was $1,090 while last year it was $1,216.45.

Participating schools are the Birchview, Central, Cleveland, Grammar and Phelps.

sales were down for November, but the other three schools showed gains.

Parent-Teacher Meeting Tonight

MUNISING — The Lincoln School Parent-Teacher Club will hold a Christmas meeting at 7:30 tonight in the school gym. Mrs. George Goss and Mrs. William Douglass are in charge of the program. Lunch will be served after the meeting and a prize will be given.

Postmasters Offer Helpful Hints For Holiday Mailing

ISHPEMING-NEGAUNEE — Christmas cards sent by first class mail. Nothing but a signature is authorized on cards sent at the unsealed third class rate.

Patrons are warned against careless packing of Christmas gifts. Postal workers urge everyone to use strong cartons, heavy wrapping paper and sturdy cord when packing gifts for mailing and added that special care should be taken in packing breakable gifts.

Ishpeming and Negaunee postal workers are urging residents to give special attention to Christmas mailing now by being sure that mailing lists are up-to-date and that mailings are planned so that cards and packages are sent in groups, rather than all at one time.

Bergdahl and Mrs. Regan also ask the cooperation of all business firms in Ishpeming and Negaunee to delay mailing of circulars and catalogs until after Dec. 25, to keep the mails clear for the Christmas rush.

The postmasters reminded residents that personal messages can only be written on Pam Little (seated with book) will play the part of a little girl who imagines a Christmas story she read from the book when the McDonald Elementary School presents its operetta, "The Windows of Christmas," Tuesday evening. The "imaginary" characters with her are the mother, Pam Beightol (seated in chair) and the children (from left), Randy Roach, Marlou Campbell and Sheril Nedella.

McDonald Pupils To Offer Operetta Tuesday Night

GWINN — The Leo P. McDonald Elementary School will present "The Windows of Christmas," a two-act operetta, at 7:30 tomorrow night in the multi-purpose room of the school. All children in grades 1-3 will participate in the production, which is being directed by Mrs. Evelyn Lee. The pianist will be Mrs. Nancy Redpath.

Zip Code Use Pushed

MUNISING — The Post Office Department is arranging with Santa Claus to make sure that children who write the North Pole get an answer from the best-known citizen up there, Postmaster Edward S. Genry said today.

"Part of the post office efforts to encourage a wider use of Zip-coded addresses assures children that they will receive a message from Santa Claus if they write to him by Dec. 15 at North Pole 99701, and use their own Zip codes in their return addresses," Genry explained.

Santa's reply to the children's note, to be delivered free of any additional charge, will be a gaily decorated card with an appropriate reply to please the children, the postmaster pointed out. All that is required is the child's note to Santa with regular five cent, first class postage on the envelope.

Power Crews Prepare To Rebuild Line

NEGAUNEE — Preparations for rebuilding the distribution line east of Baldwin Ave. high-voltage activities in the Negaunee electric utility in November, according to the monthly department activities report submitted yesterday by Supt. William Kokko to Manager Leonard Harris.

Personnel installed five new poles in the Prince St. alley as the initial step in the program. A broken pole was replaced on Mill St. and another replaced in Patch Location.

An obsolete and hazardous transformer pole was replaced in the alley adjacent to N. Main St. and a new 25-KVA transformer was installed.

Crews also balanced the load on the No. 3 circuit, replaced a broken pole on County Road, and removed several poles from an area where ground was showing subsidence, salvaging the wire.

A 25-KVA transformer was installed in the alley east of Baldwin Ave. and a 50-KVA unit north of U.S. 41 to improve service in that area.

Six new three-wire services were installed and 30 defective street lights were replaced. Electrical work also was completed at the Youth Center.

Drivers Warned Of Law On Use Of Parking Lights

MUNISING — Sgt. Clarence Miller, commander of the Munising state police post, warned all motorists today that driving with parking lights during storms or any other time in Michigan is unlawful, under a law which went into effect Sept. 6, of this year.

The law states that, when lighted lamps and illuminated devices are required by law, no vehicle shall be operated upon any highway of the state with only the parking lights illuminated on the front of the vehicle.

Four-Inch Snowfall Sends Municipal Plows Into Action

ISHPEMING — Municipal snow-removal crews went into action early this morning after a four-inch snowfall.

On the heels of a weekend of rain, snow began to fall early last night and continued through this morning.

Snow-removal operations were functioning smoothly, although some vehicles were left parked on the streets. Eight car owners received tickets from Ishpeming police for failing to comply with the ordinance prohibiting parking on streets between 1 a.m. and 6 a.m.

The fluffy snowfall created a genuine Christmas atmosphere in the downtown shopping area. The snow supplemented decorations of evergreen roping and small evergreens on light standards.

Many persons were clearing their walks and sweeping off vehicles for another busy day, but youngsters were delighted with the arrival of snow.

Two Persons Injured, Two Given Tickets In Crashes

ISHPEMING — Two injuries resulted and two persons were given tickets in three traffic mishaps reported this morning by state police from the Marquette post.

At 7:15 Saturday night an automobile being driven west on U.S. 41 by Theodore Shepard, 21, Republic, went out of control on a left curve, traveling off the right side of the highway, crossing over to the left side and spinning around, going into a stone embankment backwards.

The wreck took place one-tenth of a mile east of County Road AF in Champion Township.

Two passengers in Shepard's car, Carol Skogman, 16, and Judy Nybeck, 17, both of Republic, were injured and sought their own treatment. Extent of their injuries was not learned.

Extensive damage resulted to the rear end of Shepard's 1955 sedan, which was hauled from the scene by a wrecker. State police issued Shepard a summons for reckless driving.

An automobile being driven west on M-35 by David Gerou Jr., 36, Gwinn, went out of control when he failed to negotiate a right curve, about three-tenths of a mile from County Road EZ in Forsyth Township at 1:10 yesterday morning.

State police said his car traveled 117 feet on the shoulder before striking a tree on the left side of the highway.

Issued Two Summons

The front end and undercarriage of his 1963 sedan were damaged and the car was towed from the scene. State police issued Gerou two summonses, one for reckless driving and the other for not having registration plates on his car.

At 5 yesterday morning a car being driven south on County Road 502 by James W. Rice, 42, of 639 Elliott St., Ishpeming, went off the left side of the roadway, onto an old highway, and struck a county road commission sign.

The mishap occurred in a heavy fog about 100 feet north of U.S. 41 in Negaunee Township.

The front bumper and grill of Rice's 1961 station wagon were damaged.

Mrs. Adams Of Republic Dies At 59

REPUBLIC — Mrs. Melba Adams, 59, died early yesterday morning in Bell Memorial Hospital, where she had been a patient for five days. She had been ill for a month.

She was born July 29, 1904, in Republic and graduated from Republic High School. Living in Republic most of her life, she was a member of the Methodist WSCS and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include her husband, Henry; two sons, Glenn and Lewis of Republic; a brother, Richard Nyman of Republic; a sister, Mrs. Oscar (Myrtle) Hoaglund of Republic, and two grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Republic Methodist Church with the Rev. William Verheist and Cecil Lutey officiating. Burial will be made in Republic Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Jackson Funeral Home tonight after 6. The body will be taken to the church tomorrow at 4 p. m.

Lady Elks' Yule Party Wednesday

NEGAUNEE — Officers recently elected to serve during the 1964 club year will be introduced at the Negaunee Lady Elks Christmas dinner scheduled for 6:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Elks clubrooms.

New officers include Mrs. Norman Jensen, president; Mrs. James Tusa, vice president; Mrs. Henry Heiskanen, secretary, and Mrs. Thomas Richards, treasurer.

Hostesses for the Christmas party include Mrs. James Fowler, Mrs. Sylvia Violetta, Mrs. Allie Perala, Mrs. Clifford Holman, Mrs. Marshall Phillips, Mrs. Louise Holman, Mrs. Albert Larson and Mrs. Howard Manning.

Each person attending is requested to bring an item of canned goods for Christmas baskets, which will be distributed by the organization to needy families in the Negaunee area. Members are reminded that 1963-64 dues will be payable at the meeting.

Boston Common, set aside in 1834 as public property, ranks as America's oldest public park. In 1830, the city fathers drove off the cows and planted trees and flowers.

GEORGE SHARKEY
GWINN — Services were held Thursday in the Cadieu Funeral Home, Menominee, for George Sharkey, a former Gwinn resident.

Mr. Sharkey, 68, died suddenly of a heart attack. A lifetime resident of the Upper Peninsula, he had retired and moved to Menominee from Gwinn three years ago.

Survivors are his wife, Agnes; three daughters, Mrs. Max Larsh of Clarkston, Mrs. Don Duke of Washington, D.C., and Mrs. Paul Schneider of Marquette; nine grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, five brothers and three sisters. Another daughter, Carol Furlong, died five years ago.

Interment was made in the Gardens of Rest, Escanaba.

81-Year-Old Retired CCI Worker Dies

ISHPEMING — John L. Lafreniere, 81, died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dewey C. Urquhart, 446 E. St., at 5:30 Sunday evening after a long illness.

He was born in Ishpeming Aug. 26, 1882, and was a lifelong resident. He was a retired employee of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. and a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's Church.

He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Leo (Doris) Racine and Mrs. Dewey (Luella) Urquhart of Ishpeming, Mrs. George (Lucille) McCormick of Negaunee and Mrs. Richard (Nerissa) Lawry of Iron River; a brother, Leon of Ishpeming; 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 9 a. m. in St. Joseph's Church with the Rev. Clement LePine officiating.

Friends may call at the Passender Funeral Home beginning at noon tomorrow.

Guild Sets Dinner For Wednesday

ISHPEMING — St. John's Guild will combine this week's regular meeting with a dinner to which husbands of members are invited. It will be held at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday in Kron-Dingfelder Hall.

Following a chicken dinner, the guild will conduct a short business meeting while the men have a social period.

A choral group will provide entertainment and those wishing to play cards following the entertainment are reminded to bring their own cards.

Reservations for the dinner must be made today by calling any of the following numbers: HU 6-9736, HU 6-9698, HU 6-6445 or HU 6-4632.

The dinner will be prepared and served by Mrs. Thomas Sharland, Mrs. Roland Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Gagliardi and Miss Catherine Tasson and members of their committee.

Ice Condition On Lakes Dangerous

ISHPEMING — Fishermen were warned today to stay off the ice on local lakes because of an extremely thin ice covering. Conservation officers, who have been checking conditions in the area, stated that the fall of snow may lead fishermen to believe that the ice is thick, but actually it is at the breaking point because of rainy weather during the week-end.

56-Year-Old Woman Dies In Munising

MUNISING — Mrs. Phoebe Watson, 56, Rosewood Park, Munising, died suddenly at 11 Sunday morning in Munising Memorial Hospital.

She was born Aug. 20, 1907, in Crocket, Ky., and had been a resident of Munising 14 years. She was a member of the Presbyterian Guild, the Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church and a Sunday School teacher in that church for two years.

Survivors include her husband, Ernest; a brother, Lee Skags of West Liberty, Ky., and many nieces and nephews.

The body was taken to the Bowerman-Hallifax Funeral Home, where friends may start calling at 7:30 tonight.
