HARVEY DEWAR BUCK ADMITS
TAKING SOLD AT LATIMER
HOME NOVEMBER 19.

After working diligently on the case several weeks past, Chief of Police Louis Davidson finally dug up enough evidence against Harvey Dewar Buck and the father in Judge Hines's court at 6 o'clock Friday night confessed to having committed taking the $200 in gold at the John Latimer residence, November 19th. He also confessed several other crimes of a like nature and admitted a serious intention to effect. After hearing the evidence Judge Hines bound the young man to appear in court on the 26th day of December, 1919, which was furnished by the young man's father. The case will be heard in the January session of court unless it is possible to effect some settlement, but we are informed that this is impossible as the prosecuting attorney sees fit to discontinue the prosecution.

Miss M. J. Buck's Crime.
The reporter is indeed sorry to have to print this story because of the esteem in which the parents are held in the community, but as we are here to give the news without regard to our own feelings we cannot do otherwise than print the facts, which in this case are concerning a young man who has been in the hands of the law for some time. The girl in question is Miss M. J. Buck, who was in the hands of the law for some time. The girl in question is Miss M. J. Buck, who was in the hands of the law for some time.
