BIG STRIKE OF TIMBERWORKERS NOW IN EFFECT

Union Begins Walkout With Parade and Speeches and General Holiday is Observed Today.—Employers Form Union of Their Own.

Gladstone is the hub of Delta county today. The big Timberworkers' strike which started in this morning with a big parade, band music and speeches at the city park. As early as eight o'clock Delta avenue was lined up with workers, who not having anything to do came down town early and stood around in small groups, and discussed the strike.

This is perhaps the first in the history of Gladstone that a strike of such magnitude has been declared here and the sensation is novel, if not welcome. The parade formed at 9 o'clock and went down and then 10 o'clock 900 men, four abreast marched on some of the streets in the city. The parade was headed by the fire department. Next came the Manistique band, and this was followed by the mayor and speakers in an automobile, then follow the Timberworkers, a line of march three blocks in length. The Eagle's drum corps of Escanaba was also in evidence.

Following the parade which ended at the city park, Mayor Miller spoke a few words of welcome. Fully 2,000 people were gathered at the park to hear the speeches.

The Mayor's Welcome

In his address of welcome Mayor Miller said:

"I consider it a great honor and pleasure to have the opportunity of speaking before this audience this morning, and as we have with us a large number of visitors, I wish to extend to them in behalf of the people of our city a very hearty welcome. I am not prepared to give a long talk to you as we have with us several capable speakers. However, as mayor of the city, I am very much interested in the welfare of its people and I wish to say to every man affected by this strike in our city that he shall enjoy the same liberty and freedom of our city during the strike as he did prior to it. By that I mean that I have not engaged or appointed any special police or deputies to watch any of your movements at a time when you are all friends and good neighbors and above all 100 per cent Americans, and being such I do not hope for any disturbances of any kind during this disagreement. I do not I will not be disappointed in the confidence I have placed in you. I only hope and pray that the differences existing between the employers and employees will be settled satisfactorily to both parties at the earliest possible moment for the benefit of our community in general."

Introduces Mayor Doyle

Daniel Sullivan, as president of the local union of Timberworkers, next introduced Mayor Michael Doyle of Menominee, who gave a straightforward and forcible talk. Mayor Doyle has a pleasing personality and he kept his hearers interested throughout his address. Many times he had to stop to let the applause subside, and from the laborer's standpoint his address was probably the best heard in Gladstone since the men were organized. Mayor Doyle opened up his talk by saying that loyalty to the country was above else and that the workers should do nothing that would put them in an uncertain light with the sentiment of the public, for it was public sentiment that would decide this strike as much as any other factor that was brought to bear.

Mr. Doyle's address was straight from the shoulder. He congratulated the men of the city could not have picked a better man for the occasion. This afternoon there was another large crowd at the Opera House to hear Rev. Father Barth and Leo Krescki of Escanaba. Dr. Barth's topic was "The Relations of Labor and Capital."

About 3,000 Men Out

Conservative estimates place the number of strikers in Delta county at about 3,000, although some reports say there are as many as 5,000 men out. Four locals are organized in Delta county—in Gladstone, Wells, Escanaba, Rapid River and Nahma.

Employers Stand Pat

The employers have formed a "union" of their own and declare they will stick together to the bitter end.

They insist that the ten-hour day is just, but that the matter of wages will be adjusted where it is shown they are too low.

Nothing out of the ordinary has transpired today, and no demonstrations other than that of a peaceful nature have taken place. The men are good natured about the whole affair and it is hoped will remain so.

Five Mills Operating

The Reporter learned this noon that five mills in this vicinity are in operation today. Who has this information is authentic, we could not learn. The Wisconsin Lumber & Lumber Company at Hermansville, the Moran Lumber Company at Foster City, the American Lumber Company at Talbot, the Goodman, and the Bonz Mfg. Company at Massonville. The men at these places are reported to have gone back to their jobs at the former conditions. Other men in this vicinity are standing pat.

Loss Is Tremendous

The companies on account of the strike is enormous. Assuring there are 3,000 men out in Delta county, makes a daily wage of $4.00 of $12,000 or $360,000 a month. Besides this, the lumber companies are also heavy losers.

CITY CLERK TO DELIVER FORD-NEWBERRY ELECTION BALLOTS

Preparations are now being made by City Clerk, Arthur L. Williamson, to deliver all Ford-Newberry tally sheets and poll books used in the Ford-Newberry election to Escanaba on Wednesday, May 12th. Instructions were received last week from David S. Barry, Sergeant at Arms of the U. S. Senate as to the time of delivery, which will be between the hours of 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. When the boxes are transported to Escanaba they will be placed in the hands of deputies, who will be entire, responsible for them from that time forward.

TO ORGANIZE AUXILIARY TO AMERICAN LEGION SOON

Word was received here Saturday which seems to point to actual organization of an auxiliary to August Martson Post No. 717. Application was made for a charter some time ago, and the board received in to the effect that the charter has been approved by the local post and by the proper legion authorities. It is probable that the charter will reach here in a few days, and organization will be begun immediately.

Missing Boy Found

Harry Smith, 15 year old son of Gust Smith of this city, was found Thursday by Chief of Police Danielson. The boy disappeared Monday and since that time his father had been very much concerned. Chief Danielson had been in search of the lad for a couple days and finally located him, "camping out" near Gladstone.

O. E. S. Installation

There will be installation of officers of the O. E. S. next Tuesday, May 4th. All members requested to be present at 8 sharp, so as to be through in time for the Charity Ball.

MRS. T. D. SPRINGER, W. M.

Takes Position At Bank

Alfred Anderson, who has held a position with the Gladstone Auto company for several months past, and who for a week or more was laid up by illness, on Friday accepted a position at the First National bank. President Lating has not been in the best of health of late and more help had to be taken in.

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB MEETS

Informal meeting held Friday night; propositions are discussed.

The Gladstone Business Men's club held an informal meeting at the offices of the Gladstone State Savings Bank Friday night, at which a good attendance was present. W. W. Gasser reported further developments in the two propositions on hand, namely two manufacturing plants which desire to locate here. It was agreed that W. L. Marboe go to Milwaukee in a few days and look into the merits of one of the concerns and if he makes a favorable report some assistance may be given this proposition.

The other proposition is the location here of a school supply concern, which will send a representative here to talk the matter over with the local association. A foundry is also in contemplation and this matter will also receive further consideration.

MACCABEES HELD CONVENTION HERE

Session lasts all day Thurs. Day; officers are elected.

What was perhaps one of the most enjoyable local meetings ever held in this city was the Delta County Convention of the Modern Maccabees which took place Thursday in this city. The convention was called for the special purpose of electing delegates to the biannual review which will be held at Lansing in June.

The session opened at 10 o'clock with a large number present from the Escanaba, Rapid River and Gladstone lodges. The following members were elected to attend the review at Lansing: Mrs. Geo. Pease, Gladstone; Mrs. Julia Viene, Rapid River; and Mrs. Mary Kahlo, of Escanaba.

A 12 o'clock meeting was closed, and lunch was served in the hall.

The afternoon session opened at 1:30 o'clock, at which a general business meeting was held and an election of Delta County Convention officers took place. They are as follows:

Commander, Catherine Watson, of this city; Past Commander, Mary Kahlo, Escanaba; Lieutenant Commander, Julia Viene, Rapid River; Chaplain, Isabella Tiltman, Gladstone; Recorder, Mary Pease, Gladstone; Sergeant, Della Bergman, Escanaba; Mistress of Arms, Mrs. Richer, Escanaba; Picket, Ella Vanderveghe, Gladstone.

Following the election of officers, Emma Fleury, Deputy Grand Commander of Haeuzy, addressed the body of Maccabees. After this speech the business part of the convention came to a close.

At six o'clock the ladies returned to the hall at a delightful banquet supper. About sixty-five were present at the banquet.

The convention was brought to close by attending the moving picture show in a body.

Members of the order were very much pleased with the enthusiastic spirit of the convention and it was pronounced a great success.

DELTA COUNTY GETS $3,970.27 OF AUTO TAX

County road funds in the upper peninsula were enriched by $2,198.88 for the three months ending March 31 as a result of automobile taxes paid to the state of Michigan.

Under the new law one-half of the amount of money collected by the state for automobile license and drivers' fees is returned to the county from which payments are made.

Wayne Gets $643,961.

Wayne county automobile owners and drivers paid $1,287,922.98, giving that county $643,961 to add to its road fund.

In the upper peninsula, the amounts received range from $58.87, which is Baraga county's share of the total, to $3,970.27, which is the amount Delta receives. Gogebic county holds second place in the list with Marquette a close third.

SAGITAW MATTER TO BE HEARD IN COURT ONCE MORE

H. R. Dotach, attorney for Adam Lahlert, administrator of the estate of John Sagitaw, who was killed in an automobile accident at a Soo Line crossing in Massonville township about three years ago, has commenced suit to collect $10,000 damages from the Gladstone Auto Sales Co. owners of the ill-fated machine in which Sagitaw was a passenger.

In circuit court recently, a jury gave the estate a verdict of $5,000 against the Soo Line. Judge Richard F. Finnigan later set the verdict aside. The supreme court sustained Judge Finnigan in the decision.

The action against the local concern is the latest step in a long chain of litigation.

Two men were killed in the accident. One case is still pending in circuit court. The other was tried twice, the first jury to hear it being unable to reach a verdict.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL IN LIBEL SUIT

Menominee attorney will ask court to grant new trial next term.

Attorney Michael J. Doyle of Menominee counsel for Edward Johnson in the recent $19,990 libel suit against F. L. Baldwin of the Escanaba Journal was in Escanaba Friday morning and completed work for filing a motion for a new trial, "in case for action," at the trial, the last term of Circuit Court.

Immediately after the verdict of the jury was returned, Mr. Doyle announced he would enter an appeal.

Bonds for appearance of Mr. Johnson and execution of the new trial order were prepared and submitted Friday morning and the Menominee attorney has started preparation of the appeal for a new trial which will be argued before Judge Collinwood here in the near future.

It is not necessary, according to a lawyer to wait until the next term of circuit court.

Because of the case having been tried before Judge Collinwood, it is necessary that arguments be heard before him. A date will be set by the judge for arguments and both attorneys would make their appearance to try the case.

The case is one which has attracted county-wide attention. At the last trial, one of the hardest legal battles staged for many months took place when the reporter of the Escanaba Journal was upheld in his editorial pertaining to the conduct of business of Mr. Johnson.

The jury deliberated for over seven hours before bringing in a verdict.

LOCAL BOY GIVEN POOR DECISION BY REFEREE

About a score of Gladstone fight fans were at the Army in Escanaba Friday night to see the three boxing bouts in one of which Arthur Bellows of this city took part against Kid Roberts of Escanaba. Bellows was given a raw deal by the decision of the referee who would not let him carry on the bout after the sixth round. Local fight fans say the two boys were very evenly matched and they would liked to have seen the bout carried through the entire eight rounds. It is also stated that Roberts is not a clean hit artist and that he should have been disqualified several times during the contest.

FRANCE AND GERMANY TRADE AGREEMENT. Paris-Trade agreements or commercial treaties by which France and Germany may stabilize markets and cooperate in some branches of commerce are forecast in a report of the foreign trade bureau. Three industries, potash, iron, coke and textiles are taken up by the report which showed the economic dependence of the two countries upon each other. German plants are still better equipped to do this work than in France and in addition afford a good market for manufactured goods.

The KITCHEN CABINET. To be good is noble, but to teach others to be good is nobler-and less trouble-Charles F. Webb

SEASONABLE DISHES. Those who refuse the old-fashioned boiled dinner because of the odor in the house cook it very satisfactorily in the threeless cooker. If such dishes are cooked in an open kettle the odor will not be as strong or as lasting. An excellent preparation for such meals as liver, veal and other somewhat tasteless meats is to put them for two or three days in winter, one day in hot weather, into a strong pickle made with salt, vinegar and brown sugar, seasoned to taste, either with spices, pepper sauce, corned beef and potatoes. Such a meal should be taken only by people scarce enough to digest it.

Indian Pudding.-Scald one quart of milk and add three-fourths of a cupful of oatmeal mixed with a little cold milk, stir and cook for a few minutes, then pour into a large stone baking dish, add another quart of milk, one cupful of brown sugar, one cupful of suet, and one cupful of raisins and two well-beaten eggs. Put into slow oven and stir every half hour for the first half of the cooking, then dredge with flour and brown. Bake for five or six hours. The pudding is done when it is covered with a rich brown crust. This dish may be reheated any number of times. Serve with a hard sauce made by creaming butter and sugar, adding nutmeg for flavoring.

Buckwheat Cakes.-Take one yeast cake dissolved in half a cupful of water, add a pint of warm water, salt and buckwheat flour to make a thick mixture. Do this in the morning and be stand to rest until the next evening when it is ready to use. Take one cupful of the thick batter for the next day's cakes, add water and buckwheat flour to thicken and set away as before. The batter is left to ferment, salted, and a half cupful of milk, sour or sweet, added, then a little soda dissolved in hot water, which will thin the cakes to the right consistency. Bake in any of your soda and milk batter with that which is to be used the following day. This may be repeated as long as one likes cakes for the morning meal.

ESCANABA NEWS

SOLDIER WINS BY KNOCK-OUT IN THE FIFTH

Al Brown, Foot Brandy boxer, won from Jack Schenke, of Crystal Falls, in a knock-out in the fifth round of their scheduled bout held by the Delta Athletic club in the Armyory Friday night. Schenke was hopelessly outclassed. Brown showed superior cleverness, greater hitting power and better generalship from the first bell and completed his part of the evening's entertainment without being touched by the Iron County boy. In the fourth a smashing right to the chin sent Schenke down for the count of nine. He staggered to, his feet and the bell, coming shortly after, apparently saved him from further punishment. The minute's rest, however, merely delayed the final blow. After a few ordinary feints in the fifth, Brown sent another hard right to his opponent's jaw. That was all.

Brown made an excellent impression with the fans here, many of whom expressed a desire to see him matched in Escanaba against someone more nearly in class. In the certain future, 'Mud' Jergenson administered, such a drubbing to 'Young' Hyer that the latter quit in the second round.

Violin 177 Years Old. Hal Smith is in possession of a violin which possibly cannot be duplicated any place in this country. Mr. Smith says that while visiting in Iowa last summer he found the musical instrument. It was made in 1743 and is a genuine model. The instrument was made by Pacht Anno under direct supervision of one of the most noted violinists in the history of musical entertainment. It had remained in one family for a period of 179 years and for the past fifty years has not been put to practical use at all. The owner says it does not have the full richness of sound but maintains it to be far superior to the mass of violin today with the exception of a few made specially for artists. Experts claim it is highly valuable.

Mrs. Augusta Hanson. Mrs. Augusta Hanson, 70 years of age, and wife of Anton Hanson, died Friday morning at the Hanson home, 1011 First avenue south, following a prolonged illness.

Mrs. Herman Froehlich. Mrs. Herman Froehlich, aged 26, daughter of Mrs. John Page of Ford River township died at St. Francis hospital at midnight Thursday, following a prolonged illness. For the past three years Mrs. Froehlich has been ailing and her condition of late was worse than at any time during her illness.

Injured in Fall Down Stairs. Mrs. Alec Smith received painful injuries when she tripped and fell headlong down a flight of stairs at her home, 218 1/2 10th street, striking and bruising her head, arm and leg.

THE STORY OF SMOCKS

The story of smocks is long already and it is to be continued. Their popularity grows and has not reached its peak; hence designers are giving a great deal of attention to varying and elaborating the graceful garment. Just now crepe de chine and crepe georgette are oftener employed for making the smock, either of them providing a suitable background for rich embroideries and beautiful stitchings done in silk or yarn or beads. Hand patting, outlined with silk floss, has made its appearance among the latest embellishments.

cutting her head. Medical aid was summoned by neighbors immediately and it was found that aside from pain of bruises, Mrs. Smith was not badly hurt. Her condition is reported to be somewhat improved.

And He Turned Down The Cigar

That almost forgotten 'lightest man in the world' had a sudden revival in Escanaba Friday when County Clerk, Albert J. Peppin volunteered the services of his Ford and himself assist a highly loaded traveling man make the afternoon train. The fellow had missed the car and halted Peppin. 'Take me to the depot quick,' he said, 'by shell fire or worse, if you want.' When the Northwestern depot was reached and the traveler's bags safely on the platform, he produced a cigar. 'No thanks, I don't smoke,' said the county clerk. 'You don't smoke,' beamed the dealer, 'but women's fancy wears. Well, by god, that's too bad. But you save a lot of money anyways. Here--' And his generous soul handed Mr. Peppin a nickel.

Paper Machine Parts Delivered At Plant

The engine for the Escanaba Paper company's second paper machine to be installed at the paper mill at Groos was delivered at the plant Tuesday. The machine, which was shipped from the factory in Pennsylvania, the paper company engaged a railroad man and sent him east to accompany the shipment to Groos. By routing the shipment through Canada, the cars containing the engine, were brought through in nine days. Parts for the second paper machine are now being loaded on cars in the east and the same railroad man is to return at once and accompany that shipment through to Groos.

Every effort is being exerted at the paper mill to get the new No. 2 machine in operation by June 1.

Fight Against City Juveniles. A war against juvenile delinquency was started by the Escanaba police department against youngsters who it is alleged have been breaking into the stores and taking articles of considerable value. 'The Tolan had two boys on the carpet' and put them through a stiff grueling as to their conduct in the city in the evenings. One boy, whose name was not given, had with him a gun and fired several shots within the city limits before the police officers again Saturday, and before the case was over it is to be expected that there will be a general clean-up of 'amateur bands' in parts of the city.

WEALTH OF ART IN VENICE RESTORED. Venice, April 8.—Now that the war is over and Venice has recovered from the nightmare of having her wealth of art treasures, she is being returned to her place. One of her most admired possessions, however, Titian's 'Assumption of the Virgin,' which is counted among the seven great masterpieces of the world, the pride of the Venetian Academy of Fine Art, has been returned not to the gallery, but to its original home in the choir of the beautiful gothic church of the Frai, for which it was painted by Titian in 1516. The magnificent frame of carved marble which was originally built round it now shows off the glorious picture to advantage and the Venetians are delighted that it should be restored to the position where its donors and the great genius who composed it intended it to remain.

FARM LABOR

Owing to his long labor saving machine the American farmer gets along with less farm help than any farmer in the world, but there must always be a point where labor saving machinery can no farther reduce the need of help.

Up to a certain point the movement of labor from the farm to the factories undoubtedly helped the farmer, the labor expended in making machinery for farm use produced more in farm products than it applied directly.

The completion of the city factory for farm labor was never so great and successful before as it is at present. The very things that have made living in the country more comfortable and pleasant than formerly are the property of the factory itself.

The young man in the country now has a chance to become acquainted with city conditions and city pleasures that he formerly had in a much more limited degree. Going to the city is no such an adventure as it once was.

If it were not for the fact that there are some persons who still prefer life in the country to that in the city the condition would be still worse than it is. The problem is one which does not seem possible a solution by legislation.

If the security of farm labor makes a man feel good about the pleasure and comfort of living in the city, why is it that he is not attracted to the city? It is because of his money to live on. He has little or none left to spend for the amusements during his stay in the city which will be less attractive if the balance is used up.

MICHIGAN'S DEVASTATED LAND

The extent of which Michigan has been improved by the destruction of her forests and the lack of any endeavor to utilize the land thus left bare is depicted in a startling manner by Professor Sauer, of the University of Michigan.

"Very well, my dear, said Mr. Fox. But I do not want that young fellow spoiled. Why, yesterday, when he was out with me he actually tried to catch a chicken. He is a smart youngster. Takes after his pa, I think."

And so little Reddy Fox was sent to Miss Flopears' school to learn to be polite and not chase the animals. Miss Flopears' rabbit taught them how to behave at the table and she taught them how to approach a garden filled with nice green things and how to hide under a bed of cabbage.

home as well as they can be handled by the cold storage houses. It will pay to pick out a few of the best pairs for breeding and put them in separate pens with the best roosters and suit off the rest of the roosters and allow the rest of the hens to run with any rooster. The rooster is responsible for the bad eggs and should not be tolerated a day longer than is necessary.

Advice from poultrymen is to see that the eggs are perfectly fresh and clean. Don't put in a dirty egg and be sure to wash them before preserving. The action of water renders the egg more susceptible to early decomposition. Those that are soiled in the nest should be washed immediately in the house.

There are several methods of preserving eggs and perhaps the most popular is the water glass method. There is a tendency to wait until mid-summer or early fall before starting to put away eggs. This is a mistake. Grain produced every day keeps better than large quantities of grain. An other advantage in preserving eggs now is the price. By midsummer prices are likely to rise. It is better to start now. Now is the time. Don't procrastinate.

It is predicted that we are in for another slump in the price of flour and bread. Europeans especially are still paying $1.00 per pound for bacon and 75 cents for a three and one half pound loaf of bread. There is a general world shortage of wheat products and to make matters still more unpromising, the fall wheat in many of our states suffered seriously during the winter months and is very far from a normal crop.

The city work movement has drained many farms of the hired help and the wheat acreage has been reduced. It is to be hoped that the deficiency will be made up by an unusually large acreage of spring wheat. Delta county has a chance to raise good wheat and we take this opportunity to urge every one to include in their plans a few acres for the staff of life.

The money that gets away. Remember when you were getting $12 a week? Spent it all of course. Then you were raised to $15, spent that too, and perhaps didn't enjoy life anymore than when at $12 a week you bought the phonograph. $2 a week sure, because it had a good sound, because it had made life more pleasant, but have all the $12 a week you spent "without noticing it" been so wise an investment?

There is a common mystery that is in the Delta Evening Herald. It may pay you unexpected dividends. There is a common mystery that is not a mystery though it puzzles a good many of those who do not solve it. "You are earning fifteen dollars a week, are you living on it? You think so. If only I had fifty dollars a week, we could live better and have more fun."

Mr. Fox hid himself and Reddy Fox behind some bushes and waited for Madam Duck and her children to come along for their morning swim. "Now," said Mr. Fox, "here they come. Now let me see what you can do. Mr. Fox got back out of the way to let his son have a chance to do all the catching but what was his surprise when out from the bushes stepped little Reddy and very politely said: "Good morning, Madam Duck. I hope you have had a fine swim."

Every night he took Reddy Fox to the lake to hunt, and somehow Reddy did not think about being polite at all and before he could be met, so he calmly walked back and lay down beside his father in the bushes. "No son of mine shall ever go to Miss Flopears' school again," said Mr. Fox. "She may be able to teach those car-truck methods to the rabbit but she can't teach him to be polite and not chase the animals."

have something." Very well, some employer comes through and raises you to twenty-five. Presently you find that nothing is changed. You get fifteen and tired on that. What has become of the increase? That is the mystery. "It is the same as your earnings in a year. You have meant to raise. Looking ahead to each upward step you did not save. Nor was living made much easier, if any. Indeed, it may even have been made harder, for the capacity to absorb increased income grows more rapidly than the rate of increase in earnings. Hence this is not an uncommon phenomenon: people who live comfortably on one thousand a year but find themselves miserable on five thousand. "This is the mystery. But it is no mystery. Here is what does it: The insidious automatic expansion of desires to the new limit of income—and beyond."

BISHOP HARRIS SEES DISASTER FACING THE U. S. That throughout the world there is a spirit of selfishness undermining government church and social consciousness, is the opinion of the Right Rev. Robert L. Harris, Bishop of the Marquette diocese of the Episcopal church, expressed at a meeting of the Men's club of Ironwood.

In his address Bishop Harris declared that the spirit of self-sacrifice displayed by everyone during the duration of the war is fast becoming a spirit of selfishness. He predicted that the spirit of self-sacrifice displayed by everyone during the duration of the war is fast becoming a spirit of selfishness. He predicted that the spirit of self-sacrifice displayed by everyone during the duration of the war is fast becoming a spirit of selfishness.

There is a smile on the rural face as safe, and it is being hurried by the prevalent spirit of "I'll get mine while getting is good." This spirit of the people, the bishop showed, is seen on every hand. He declared that it is accepted from the capitalist proffered down to the very lowest wage earner. Everyone is after all he can get for himself giving little heed to the rest of humanity or the future, the speaker stated.

Anybody can tell you, you oughtn't to have done something that you now know you've done. "I did pull wool" he put anything in the long run unless you're a doctor. PASS RESOLUTIONS AT CONFERENCE

DELEGATES MEET TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS OF THE CHURCHES.

Rev. Herman Lind, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church returned last week from Monominee, where he attended the conference of the Superior district. Matters of vital importance to the churches were discussed, and the following resolutions adopted for the future welfare of religious organizations:

Whereas our government and civil authorities demand and have a right to expect the moral support and leadership in loyalty and good citizenship it resolved: That we rejoice exceedingly over the fact that our nation since Jan. 16, 1920, is by constitutional amendment a dry nation and that in this manner the formerly legalized stamp as a curse to human happiness and welfare.

That we fully realize the dangers visible in the general discontent, suffering and distress following in the wake of the war. That we urge the maintenance of free assembly and speech, freedom of the press and freedom as to the use of various languages in speech and press, as well as in the pulpit, and in promulgation of religious instruction.

That we emphasize the position always maintained by our church relative to complete separation of church and state, and hence demand that our members and all citizens be safeguarded, and that to this end all teachers in state, city and rural schools displaying or breathing an anti-religious or atheistic spirit be debarred from teaching in our schools.

That we regard the present propaganda within the state of Michigan, which proposes to close all parochial schools as an encroachment upon the religious liberty of citizens within said state and such cannot be supported by our church.

That we urge the reading of the Bible without comment in our schools; That the churches of the Superior conference and all districts be safeguarded, and that to this end all teachers in state, city and rural schools displaying or breathing an anti-religious or atheistic spirit be debarred from teaching in our schools.

That all gambling and dens and vicious places should be continually attacked and all possible endeavors for their closing up.

WILL WAGE BIG WAR AGAINST SOCIAL EVIL STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT PROPOSES TO ERECT STATE HOSPITAL IN U. P.

A strenuous campaign against the social evil and its resultant disorders will be waged in communities in the upper peninsula during the next few weeks by the state health department. W. H. Frazer, a member of the state department, was in Escanaba last week to begin a survey of the existing conditions in the most important cities in the Upper Peninsula. Arrangements are to be made for the hospitalization of all cases in the upper peninsula. One of four cities, Iron Mountain, Ishpeming, Escanaba, or Marquette, will be selected as a central point to which all female cases in the peninsula will be brought for treatment. At present there are four hospitals in Michigan where these outcasts are sent, but the expense of their transportation is so great that the health department is now decided on the establishment of a hospital in one of the upper peninsula cities named. Ultimate Aim. The ideal toward which the state department is working is a health center in every city where four clinics will be held under the supervision of the local health department. These four clinics would be child welfare, dental, tuberculosis and venereal. Already ten cities in the state have these clinics and they are proving of vital importance in improving the general health conditions in the cities in which they exist. An educational force is being sent by the state department to deliver illustrated lectures to awaken the public to the seriousness of the situation. These lectures are being given before students, industrial workers, women's and men's clubs, churches and other organizations. It is expected that a corps of these workers from the state department will be in the city shortly. Plea For Help. Although the work of the department of health in fighting the social evil was opposed in many sections of the state, the opposition is rapidly dying out and it is stated that within the last six months, calls have come to the department from localities contending there was no reason for the state to take cognizance of local conditions. Over 24,000 cases have been reported boundaries of Michigan and it is believed that there are thousands of additional cases that were never reported. More than 2,000 of these reported cases have been treated in hospitals day from a five weeks' visit at Milwaukee. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olive of Grosse Pointe Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford. John W. Bennett of Marquette visited at the home of his brother, Rev. O. J. Miss Ruth Pattison has accepted a position in Swab's plumbing shop to fill the vacancy made by Miss Evelyn Swanson.

Upon one end of the table at which the old man sat was a shaped circular affair of very dark wood, it resembled—unclear description of the object. The bottom of the cup were a tier of metallic compartments, and whole interior portion was revoltingly shiny at the turn of the old man's eyes.

He sat stopped and settled in one of his compartments, and the old man a goldpiece from one of the areas on the table, transferred a pile of gold from his right side to his left, and jotted down some figures upon his paper. He suddenly saw an old man that filled me. It seemed an absolute dream. I had seen so much for years. But I found myself transfixed in such things in the air. I stepped forward and swept entire heap of gold into the center of the table.

"Monsieur!" she gasped. "For the sake of—what I once thought you, I do not want you to be seen. You are in dreadful danger. Come back!"

"No, Monsieur," I answered, and she smiled again, as though I had struck her across the face. "What you ask," she panted, catching at my arm, and at that moment I heard a door slam underneath and heavy footsteps began slowly to ascend the stairs.

"What have you to gain by concealing the knowledge of your husband from me?" "Monsieur, why will you not believe that I remember nothing?" answered Jacqueline. "After my father had turned M. Louis d'Espernay out of his home, whether he had come to beg money to pay his gambling debts, you brought him back. You made my father take him back in. He wanted to marry me. But I refused, because I had no love for him, that you pointed I should marry him, because he had gained you the entrance to the seignory and helped you to acquire your power over my father."

upon his fears. You trained him of his last penny, and then offered him ten thousand dollars to give him with in Quebec, telling him of the delights of the city and promising him monthly allowance, the girl went on remorselessly. And for this he was to surrender his property to Louis, thinking, of course, that he could soon make his fortune at the mines. And Louis was to marry me and in turn sell me whatever he pleased. And so I married Louis under threat of death to my father.

"Oh, yes, monsieur, the plan was simple and well devised. And I knew nothing of it. But Louis d'Espernay hurried it all out to me upon our wedding night. I think the shame of knowing that I had been sold to him, and so I married Louis under threat of death to my father."

"And as for Louis d'Espernay, I show nothing of him—but I will die before he claims me as his wife!" And then I had the measure of Lerooux. He laughed and he beat down her scorn with scorn.

"You have underestimated your price, madame," he sneered. "Since you have learned so much I will tell you more. You have cost me twenty thousand dollars, and not ten, for besides the ten thousand gold to your father Louis sold ten thousand also, upon the signing of the marriage contract. So now that, and he is proud of having passed so high. And the seignory is already his, and I am waiting for him to return and sell me the ground rights for twenty-five thousand more. If I know Louis, he d'Espernay he will not wait very long to get his fingers round it."

"Listen to me, Simon Lerooux," said Jacqueline, standing up before him, as if she were a woman of spirit as he. "All your plots and schemes mean nothing to me. My only aim is to take my father d'Espernay, and let you struggle over your spoil. There are more than four-legged wolves, M. Lerooux, others, human ones, and you prey upon them food."

"I see his face turn white. He staggered back, and then, with a heavy fall, rushed at me, his heavy feet aloft. But he stopped short when he saw my automatic pistol pointing at his chest. And he saw in my face that I was ready to shoot to kill."

"You thief—you spy—you traitor—evil hound, I'll murder you!" he roared. "The demon, who had been looking at me, came forward."

"No, no, I won't leave him unharmed, Simon," he protested, laying a trembling hand on Lerooux's shoulder. "He has almost got a roulette system as I have."

SEEK DECISION ON DRY SEARCH LAWS

POWER OF FEDERAL PROHIBITION AGENTS IS STILL UNDECIDED.

Marquette.—It is still an open question whether opinions given in federal court last week by Judge Sessions relative to the powers of federal prohibition officials in the matter of search and seizure will be a handicap in the effective enforcement of the law.

Judge Sessions said in the fundamentals of constitutional law would not permit a federal prohibition agent to search a man's premises, in either business or private dwelling, without a search warrant unless the agent should have permission expressed or implied to make search. Seeking warrants under the prohibition law is a private dwelling would be impossible, according to the Judge's opinion, the agents say, unless they have evidence that liquor is being sold.

Seek Final Ruling.

Immediately after Judge Sessions gave out his opinion on search and seizure District Attorney Myron H. Walker and Lee J. Grove, group chief of prohibition agents in the upper peninsula, called a conference of all agents and the Judge's opinion was analyzed, discussed and compared with all statutes that have to do with liquor law enforcement. District Attorney Walker is still of the opinion that some of the revenue laws in force prior to the passage of the prohibition amendment are still applicable and that federal agents have the right to search in the matter of search and seizure under those statutes. Judge Sessions' opinion, however, as given in court in answer to Walker's arguments, was that the enforcement of prohibition only so far as they are consistent with conditions set up by the prohibition amendment itself.

District Attorney Walker, in his conference with federal agents, pointed to a federal statute which he believes

NEWS OF THE MOVIES

The two famous characters of "Tribby" and "Sveergal" have again come to life and this time on the screen. Two of the most famous stars of the stage and screen are seen in the stellar role of this drama which is to be shown at the Gladstone Theatre beginning Wednesday. Clara Kimball Young has the role of the model, and Wilton Lackaye, the original creator of the role of "Sveergal," again this part.

"Tribby" is one of the most famous novels ever written and it not only scored a success when written but was the sensation of the London stage, for many seasons. Thousands have read the story which was written by Geo. Du Maurier, and the screen version of the story they will see some of the best dramatic work of the year. Mr. Young has many screen triumphs to his credit, but in "Tribby" showcases the greatest success of her career.

Many scenes of the famous artist's quarters of Paris are artistically reproduced in the screen version of this exciting and supporting cast which includes such well-known players as Charles Barnet and Paul McAllister, do their best to make this screen drama one of the sensations of the year.

LARGE PURCHASE MADE OF TIMBER

DIAMOND MATCH COMPANY NOW OWNS 200,000,000 FEET IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

Spokane.—The recent purchase of 25 timber claims by the Diamond Match company in the state of Washington will give that company at least 200,000,000 feet of timber in the state, a large percentage of which is white pine. To mill this timber the company is preparing to build a seven foot band mill with a capacity of about 50,000 feet in eight hours. The mill is to be located at the edge of a timber belt which has just been purchased. To bring the timber to mill a flume 5 miles long is to be built. To get out the logs for the flume and the small mill is now being constructed. The company has also secured control of about 125,000,000 feet of timber in Kalspelt Basin in Washington. The timber being so largely white pine. It is now milled in the vicinity of the area and trucked to the railroad tank cars away.

The acquisition of so much white pine for matches is now surprising when the annual wood consumption for these little articles is considered. It is estimated that about $5 million board feet of lumber are used each major part of which is for matches of this amount. About 85 per cent is white pine and 7 per cent basswood of which the matches are made. Toothpicks are made almost exclusively of beech birch and maple.

This information was given on Tuesday by Alvan T. Roberts, who returned Saturday from Chicago where he conferred with architects and inspected preliminary sketches.

The site for the new hotel has been definitely decided upon and has been purchased, Mr. Roberts said Tuesday. It is on the east side of Front street, extending north from the Longway property and including fifteen feet of the Spear property next to the Baptist church. The building will have a frontage on Front street of sixty-five feet, and will have depth, east and west, of 120 feet. The rear of the building will also be sixty-five feet wide. There will be two 15-foot projections on the southern elevation, making the center of the building 60 feet wide.

One of the stores will be thirty feet wide and the other twenty-five feet. The main floor of the hotel, only, will extend back 120 feet from the sidewalk.

IRON LEGION POST HAS THE RIGHT IDEA

Ironwood Post No. 5, American Legion, has struck a vital chord—and the members are to be highly commended. A resolution passed recently calls for improvement of upper Michigan's undeveloped lands, to the end that eventually home-seeking service men may be granted sufficient concession to encourage them to take up farming and home-steading on the now idle areas. The resolution points out that more than 5,000,000 acres of upper Michigan's total of 10,689,000 are held by a few men, one man alone owning 14 per cent of the entire acreage. The resolution is a plea to the United States government to aid in the development work, as a solution to what has been, and still is, upper Michigan's greatest problem—the utilization of its idle acreage. Other posts of the Legion would do well to take up the fight.

CROSBY'S KIDS

AND IT WAS FATTY WHO SUGGESTED THE RIDE

WHY GASOLINE WILL REMAIN HIGH

Do not waste any time looking for lower gasoline—it is farther away than the rainbows end. Higher gas prices you may look for—and, if you have good chest expansion, you may hoist your breath till it comes. No oil expert cares to risk his reputation by predicting how much higher it is going but they are all agreed that it is going higher.

And that squarely in the face of the fact that a good deal more gasoline was produced in the United States last year than the year before and considerably less was exported. The production in 1928 was 10 per cent greater than the production in 1925. Stocks on hand increased during the year from 297,326,892 gallons to 448,792,420 gallons. Exports fell off about 130,000,000 gallons. That is, the things things stand at the beginning of this year. And young as the year is now, there have already been three jumps in the price of gasoline and others impending.

Demand Increases. Why? Prophets, politicians and producers will tell you a hundred reasons, all of them more or less plausible, but when you get squarely down to boot heels and hitahle, the soul of the situation is this: While the supply has increased considerably the demand has increased tremendously. The United States burned up 369,000,000 more gallons of gasoline in 1919 than it did in 1918—maybe more than that. Three hundred and nine million gallons was the actual increase in consumption but the indications are that there was a slight falling off in the use of gasoline as a solvent for cleaning clothes and dissolving oils and the like in laboratories and such places. Therefore the quantity of gasoline burned in automobile engines probably increased more than is shown by the actual increase in total consumption.

Automobile Cause. And right there after all—since there were at least 8,000,000 automobiles in the U.S. at the end of '28. As number had increased to more than 7,000,000. The increase during the year was equal to nearly one-fourth of all the automobiles in the United States at the beginning of the year. It is pretty hard to realize just how many automobiles that is. It is enough to back at a single head one-third of all the people in the United States in three loads. It is so many, the bureau of public road says, that if the machines were distributed at equal distances over all the improved roads in the United States the drivers could talk to one another by raising their hands a little. And by the end of 1929, if predictions hold good, they wouldn't even have to raise their voices. There will be over 8,000,000 cars and trucks tumbling in use in the United States by Christmas the specialists estimate.

The demand for gasoline, therefore, is certain to increase, and since the supply is not now and cannot be that true to made equal to the demand, the price is just as certain to increase.

15 WEST STATE PASTORS RAP WORLD MOVEMENT

Grand Rapids, Mich.—Charges that the liberty of the church and the conscience of the individual are threatened by the interchurch world movement are made in resolutions adopted by fifteen Grand Rapids and western Michigan pastors, who are in attendance at the international bible conference. "Though many pious men favor this movement," state the resolutions, "there are many unbelievers co-operating with it and the work of God say we shall not be unequally yoked with unbelievers."
