FOUR SMALL BOYS NEAR BEING DROWNED YESTERDAY

Were Fishing Off Tenth Street Dock When Log Gives Way and Precipitates Them Into Water—Saved by Fishermen.

Julius Van Mill, aged 11, Henry Van Mill, aged 10, sons of John Van Mill, Wisconsin avenue, Donald Swan, aged 19, son of John Swan, Wisconsin avenue, and Everett Murray, Michigan avenue, had a close call from death about 5:30 yesterday afternoon while fishing off the old Tenth street dock. After school the boys had gotten permission from their parents to go fishing and the boys in question went to the old Tenth street dock. The dock was literally swarmed with fish-er-men, both young and old, as the perch are biting fine just now. When the boys got there the dock, or what is left of it, was already occupied wherever there was room to sit and the boys ventured onto a timber over-lying the main pier. The weight of the boys or the roughness of the timber to give way and all four were thrown into the water. Henry Van Mill's boat was caught on a nail in the timber and he was dragged down with it. The water at that place is about 12 feet deep and the boys are at risk diving for the submerged boy.

The three others were assisted out of the icy water with fish poles, but Henry, being caught on the nail, stayed under water. A cry was sent up and just about that time some of the commercial fishermen came into harbor and when they heard the cries they rushed to the assistance of the boy. His was brought to the surface, but life seemed to be extinct. First aid was rendered and Dr. Kee was summoned. The boy was placed in the doctor's arms and taken to his home where after a half hour's work he came to. Henry Van Mill was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmons on Lake street and provided with dry clothing and then taken to his home. The Swan and Murray boys walked home unassisted, but shivering from their icy bath. Today the boys are up and around, none the worse for their early bay bath. Several years ago both Van Mill boys had a close call from death when they drank some poisoned milk, and this was their second close shave.

BASEBALL FANS HELD ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING HERE

MUCH INTEREST IS AROUSED. PLAN LEAGUE GAMES THIS SUMMER.

A housing baseball meeting was held at Wass hall Monday evening at which in the neighborhood of one hundred were present and much enthusiasm developed. It was the unanimous decision to put a strong team in the field this year, and with this aim in view a strong set of officers was elected to pilot the organization through the summer. Those chosen are: President—James T. Jones. Secretary—Claude E. Hawkins. Treasurer—Hutch B. Laine. Board of Directors—Otto Haberman, Glenn Jackson, Raymond Knipson, Eugene Dayton, Delbert Calder. Athletic Manager—Ray McGe. Field Manager—Donna LaFond. Gate Cashier—Arthur Norcross. It was agreed that work on the repairing of the grand stand and fence was to be commenced at once and this work was started yesterday. It will require about 10,000 feet of lumber to put the stand and fence in shape for the season. New suits and other baseball equipment will also be purchased and the team started off in winning style. At present there is talk of forming a six or eight team league from the following cities, Gladstone, Escanaba, Marquette, Neegaunee, Ishpeming, Munising, Iron Mountain, Manistique and Niagara, Wis., and should this materialize Gladstone will get in with both feet as league ball is always more interesting than games scheduled at random.

Frene, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gillis, Minnesota avenue, has been quite ill since Saturday. She is better today.

O. G. Champlin is in Escanaba this morning on business.

Gladstone's Population 4,953; An Increase of 17.64 Percent

Announcement of the 1920 census figures were received in Gladstone yesterday from the census bureau at Washington, D. C. The new census gives us a population of 4,953, or 47 per cent more than the 3,360 which it was hoped we would pass. As a result of the announcement Gladstone's population will officially stand below the 5,000 mark for the next few years. In 1910 this city had a population of 4,213. The last census gives an increase of 17.64 per cent. This is a very healthy growth and we believe we'll show up better than most of the cities of the state with the possible exception of Manistique. In a guessing contest conducted by Paul Hope during the past few months E. M. Johnson guessed the population would be 4,957. He was only 24 out of the way. Other close guesses were: Ruth Beneshok, 4,995; B. L. Hensahl, 4,997; H. W. Redinger and John W. Kowick, 5,009; P. R. Legg, 5,003; Miss Ethel Clark, 4,879; H. S. Downing, 4,874.

COSTS MORE TO GET BURIED NOW

CEMETERY BOARD BOOSTS PRICES OF LOTS AND DIGGING OF GRAVES.

The board of cemetery trustees held a special meeting Tuesday evening at which Floyd Marble, the new member, took the place of J. A. Hestick. James D. McDonald was re-elected president for the ensuing year. Joe Polk was engaged as sexton at the cemetery for the coming year to take the place of Jos. Teaman, who resigned. His salary was fixed at $125 per month the year around. During the month of May, Mr. Teaman will stay on the job and instruct Mr. Polk in his new duties. A resolution was adopted which increases the price of lots at the cemetery. The $100 lots will hereafter sell for $125.50, and the $150 lots have been raised to $225.50, or an increase of 25% and 50% respectively. The rate of $2.50 per season for taking care of graves was unchanged. The price for digging graves was also increased. Children's graves will hereafter cost $5.00 instead of $3.00 to dig, and grown person's graves will cost $7.00 instead of $5.00. A charge of $1.00 extra is made where the new lowering device is wanted. Yes, it even costs more to get properly buried these days!

DELTA COUNTY DENTAL SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

In addition to electing officers for the coming year, members of the Delta County Dental Society, in session Thursday night at the office of Dr. R. E. Hodson at Escanaba, perfected preliminary plans for entertaining members of the Upper Peninsula Dental Society when they come to Escanaba for their annual convention on June 12 and 13. The officers of the Delta County Dental Society for the coming year elected Thursday night are: Dr. C. J. Corcoran, president; Dr. F. W. Steilwagen, Gladstone, vice president and treasurer.

Trout Creek Lumber Co. Mill Men Go Back

Trout Creek, May 11.—The Wileman Lumber Co. opened its mill here today on a 10-hour basis, with its old crew in place when the morning whistle blew. The strikers, members of the International Timberworkers' union, will receive $5 per day, which is an advance of $1 to $1.25 per day. The previous scale of pay in the mill was $3.75 to $4 per day. If you think the whole world is crooked it merely means that you are.

Traction Company Gets A New Interurban Car

The Escanaba Traction Company has received a new "pay as you enter" interurban car that will be placed on the Gross run within the next week. LIBRARY REPORT FOR APRIL

SLIGHT FALLING OFF IN ATTENDANCE—BUT NOT BELOW NORMAL.

Total attendance for April, 1,497. Average per day, 48.6. Total number of books loaned, 1530. Average per day, 49.4. Total number of periodicals loaned, 2025. Average per day, 67. The following are among recent additions to the library: "Boy Scouts to the Rescue" by Maj. Robert Martland; "Practical Bookkeeping" by C. W. Benton; "How to Speak in Public" by Henry Dickson; "Everyman's Library" by C. N. and A. M. Williamson; "The Hoosier Schoolmaster" by Edward Eggleston; "New Chronicles of Rebecca" by Kate Douglas Wiggin; "Satanstoe at Saratoga" by Marietta Holley; also "Webster's Modern School and Office Dictionary" and one copy each of the "New Testament" and the "Testament and Psalms."

As usual this time of the year, the coming of warmer days causes a falling off of the attendance, but it is not below the normal and the record averages well with previous years. The main result of the reduction will be a greater opportunity for the catalogues and care of the library, which work is considerably in arrears, but is making progress slow but steady. As has heretofore been mentioned, donations of books and magazines are always welcome, and will be gratefully received.

Benefit Moving Picture Show. All Sain's Guild will give a benefit moving picture show at the Gladstone Theatre Friday, May 14th. Adult's tickets, 20 cents; children's tickets, 10 cents, including tax.

Rapid River Couple to Take New Start

Edward and Josephine Berg are going to try it over again. Their first marriage wasn't a success. It resulted in a divorce granted the woman in circuit court some time ago. Tuesday they procured a marriage license at the court house and friends stated that they expected to be married by a justice of the peace here before returning to their home in Rapid River. Mr. Berg is a sailor.

DELTA COUNTY AGREES TO NEW JOINT HOSPITAL

DELEGATES FROM THIS COUNTY MEET MEMORIAL MEN AT POWERS THURSDAY.

Powers, Mich.—Through the efforts of the Powers-Spalding Commercial Club this community has landed the proposed joint county tuberculosis sanitarium. The two committees, recently appointed by the Delta and Mackinac County Boards of Supervisors, met at Hotel Fontana Thursday noon, and after dinner inspected the five sites on which the Commercial Club has secured options.

EIGHT GRADERS IN COUNTY TAKE EXAMS

Eight grade examinations for all eighth grade students in the county will be held Thursday and Friday at the following places: Bark River, Maple Ridge, Escanaba, court house. The tests issued by the state will be written by eighth grade students and will entitle those who successfully pass them to free tuition to any high school in the state. The examinations at the court house will be in charge of the county school commissioner, C. U. Woolpert, and E. J. Wilman, superintendent of the Gladstone school system. At Bark River, the tests will be supervised by Examiners James A. Kenney of the Garden schools and P. R. Legg, superintendent of the Maple Ridge schools. The following are among recent additions to the library: "Boy Scouts to the Rescue" by Maj. Robert Martland; "Practical Bookkeeping" by C. W. Benton; "How to Speak in Public" by Henry Dickson; "Everyman's Library" by C. N. and A. M. Williamson; "The Hoosier Schoolmaster" by Edward Eggleston; "New Chronicles of Rebecca" by Kate Douglas Wiggin; "Satanstoe at Saratoga" by Marietta Holley; also "Webster's Modern School and Office Dictionary" and one copy each of the "New Testament" and the "Testament and Psalms."

PUPILS MEET AT MAPLE RIDGE, BARK RIVER AND ESCANABA LAST TWO DAYS.

It was finally decided to recommend both sites to the two county boards with the Logosue property as a first choice, and Mr. Schwelonenbach was instructed to prepare the necessary report and file that and the options with the two county boards. Every business man and property owner here is to be congratulated on the decision of this committee, as the building of sanitarium here means the expenditure of vast sums of money in labor and material. While the sanitarium is only a two county institution the state pays six thousand dollars annually towards the maintenance of it.

Annual Fair Test.

Mr. Wolpert announced yesterday that seventh grade pupils may write the tests in physiology and geography Friday morning if they desire to do so. Success in these subjects for seventh graders means that they will be exempted from these subjects next year. Friday will also bring the annual state fair contest, in which boys over sixteen years of age may compete for a free trip to the state fair with expenses paid. It is likely that a large number of boys will enter this examination, which is on farm topics.

ACTIVE WORK ON NEW DAM STARTS WITHIN WEEK

Camps for the men have been completed at the new dam site and work on the cofferdam has been started. A spur line to the dam site is being laid as rapidly as possible and just as soon as that is completed and some of the material can be delivered, all of the men that can possibly be used on the job will be put at work.

Auxiliary to American Legion Canvas for Members

The recently organized auxiliary to the local American Legion post will make a thorough canvass of the city and vicinity during the next two weeks for new members. It is confidently expected that the canvass will consist of forty or fifty eligible ladies here of men who served in the great war. The Woman's Civic League, which started the movement for an auxiliary to the Legion, will assist in the canvass and soon as the field is covered a meeting will be called and officers elected and the auxiliary will then be an independent body from the Civic League. Why run into trouble? Stop and it will run into you.

Escanaba Ex Soldier Saves Boy From Drowning

John Bemis, here of the world war, lived up to the reputation he made in France, Monday afternoon when he saved the boy at the Stephenson dock and saved a young Francis Beaudette from drowning.

The lad had been fishing from the dock in company with a number of other boys when he lost his balance and fell into the water, which is 25 feet in depth at that point. In falling he struck his head on a dock pile and was rendered unconscious.

Companions of the boy ran to the dock office, where Bemis was at work and told him of the accident. Running to the end of the dock, the first was pointed out to him where the boy had disappeared. Without removing any of his heavy slippers Bemis dove into the ice cold water of the bay and at the first dive brought the body to the surface. He swam with the boy to a point on the dock where he could climb up and carried the unconscious child to the dock office. A physician was hastily summoned and the boy was quickly revived and taken to his home.

Bemis was in the field artillery service during the war and served the greater part of his enlistment in France in the highly dangerous post of runner. Twice he was officially reported missing in action to relatives and friends here and after being presumed at dead, was finally located in a hospital where he was suffering from pneumonia.

Word Received of Death of Alexander LaBelle at Canada

W. C. LaBelle, 311 South 11th street received word Monday morning of the death of his brother Alexander at St. Albert, Canada. The deceased was fifty-two years of age and as near as can be learned death was sudden and unexpected.

All during his lifetime Mr. LaBelle was a large strong and sturdy man. He was well known in Escanaba when he lived at Ford River and nine years ago when he went to Canada where he has been employed in the railroad shops.

At the time of his death he held the power of the most mighty. He was considered one of the strongest and most athletic men in Delta county while here and one of the most rapid baseball fans. Although the power of speech and hearing was lost to him many years ago, he was well able to converse with others without great difficulty.

Mrs. Jens P. Jensen.
Mrs. Jens P. Jensen 50 years of age, and well known throughout the city, died at the family home, 402 S. 28th street, at 3:30 o'clock Monday morning following a brief illness.

Mrs. Jensen had been in poor health until Monday of last week when she contracted a cold. Pneumonia developed rapidly, resulting in her death this morning.

She was born in Denmark, May 24, 1871, and came to this country and settled at Monominee, Mich., when she was 18 years old. She married Peter Jensen, who died in 1915 and later was married to Jens P. Jensen at Powers. She was a member of the Eastern Star and Danish Sisterhood of Monominee for a number of years and was well known to a host of friends.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Jensen is survived by three sons, Arto, Axel and Albert Jensen of Milwaukee and one son, Clarence Jensen of this city, and one daughter, Mrs. Hilda Peterson. The body was shipped to Monominee for burial at Riverside cemetery.

Applicants for auto licenses may now forward their applications to the secretary of state at Lansing, following:

The Same In Crystal Falls
Crystal Falls residents speak out for the welfare of the public.
It is just the same in Crystal Falls as here in Gladstone; our friends there speak out in the same glad, earnest way as so many grateful Gladstonians and women have spoken in these columns for years past.

Alphonse Charbon, prop. blacksmith shop, River and Superior Sts., Crystal Falls, Mich., says "I was in bad shape with my back and kidneys. Every time I would try to bend over to shoe a horse sharp pains would catch me in my back and I could hardly straighten up. This city showing the amount of money in each fund on above date—on again. My kidneys were weak and the kidney secretions were highly colored. I was in bad shape when I began taking Don's Kidney Pills but they soon cured me of the trouble, bringing me up in good shape." Extradition Papers For Negro

Prosecutor T. E. Stron returned from Lansing where he conferred with state authorities with regard to getting extradition papers to bring Bob Evans, negro, back to Escanaba from St. Paul. Glee Club To Present Cantata

The boys' and girls' glee clubs at the high school will present a cantata, "The Building of the Ship," Friday evening, May 21, in the school auditorium. Rehearsals of the chorus, which is to be of about 80 voices, are being held daily under the direction of Miss Francine French, supervisor of music. Solists will be selected within a few days. The cantata is based on Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's poem of the same name. The music is by Henry Lohse.

Joseph Chausse

Joseph Chausse, 88 years old, an Escanaba resident for many years, died Sunday at the Delta county almshouse. He had been a resident of that institution for seven or eight years. Until his advanced age forced his retirement, he was employed as a street cleaner here. His last illness extended over a period of two or three years.

Barnes Leaves High School

C. S. Barnes, head of the printing department at the Escanaba high school, resigned his position Monday effective at once, and left for St. Paul. Mr. Barnes for some time has had an attractive offer pending from St. Paul and Monday it was necessary for him to give a definite answer to the proposition. Inability of the board of education to meet the terms resulted in the resignation.

Strike At The Tie Plant Is Settled Here

An agreement satisfactory to both the railroad company and the workers at the Chicago Northwestern Tie Co., was reached at a conference held Tuesday night between the road officials and a committee representing the men who have been on strike since April 3.

The contents of the negotiations were not stated although both sides expressed faith in the other and declared they were satisfied with the agreement which has been reached.

As a result of the settlement, seventy-five men started work Wednesday morning at the tie plant and within another day, the department will be running full time with all men back.

The men, all during the strike, were quiet and peaceful and only declared that they would stand out to what they believed to be right.

At the meeting Tuesday night both sides were equally represented and after short deliberations the conference "got down to brass tacks" and showed their negotiations in the most friendly manner.

The closing of the tie plant brought on a serious situation to both the road and the men. It is necessary, according to those closely connected with the work, to keep this part of the company in full operation at all times in view of the great demand which exists among the railroads at this time.

If you can't afford it, there should never be any argument about whether you should get it.

Honest Work at Honest Prices

These are two highly important points for a man to consider before having his car overhauled. The first point is to assure himself that the men who are going to work on his car are mechanics expert enough to locate and properly repair all the parts that need attention. The second point is to convince himself that he can trust the shop to give him an honest accounting of the amount of work that was actually done on the car. We gladly welcome an investigation on both of these points. We have the facilities, the workman and the business methods that will more than satisfy all who investigate.

HEADS CO. ASSN. LADY MACCABEES

MRS. CATHERINE WATSON OF THIS CITY HONORED AT ESCANABA MEETING.

One of the most enjoyable meetings ever participated in by the Lady Maccabees of Delta county was that held in Escanaba Tuesday. Participated in by the members of the order of Gladstone, Rapid River and Escanaba, the meeting was opened with a social session at the Pythian hall Tuesday afternoon. At 8 o'clock an elaborate banquet was served and at eight o'clock at the Delta hall one of the most impressive fraternal initiations ever presented in Delta county was enacted. A dancing program extended until 1 o'clock completed the program of the day.

Guests of honor at the meeting were Mrs. Corrie Gilbert of Detroit, great chieftain auxiliary of the order and Mrs. Emma Fleury of Houston of Houston, district deputy.

Officers Selected. The officers of the county association elected at that meeting for the coming year are: Mrs. Catherine Watson, Gladstone, commander; Mrs. Mary Kahlow, Escanaba, lieutenant commander; Mrs. Edna Young, Rapid River, post commander; Mrs. Marie Gorman, Gladstone, record keeper; Mrs. Miller, Gladstone, treasurer; Mrs. Vennie, Rapid River, sergeant; Mrs. Sarah Richter, Escanaba, mistress at arms; Mrs. Peterson, Gladstone, scribe and Mrs. Della Bergman, Escanaba, sentinel.

Initiation to Public. At the public initiation at the Delta hall, staged promptly at 8 o'clock, a most impressive scene was presented. With 14 guards, eight attendants and little flower girls, each dressed in white and wearing red roses, the big class of candidates was presented and the complete public ritual was most excellently carried out. During the ceremony two solos were rendered by Miss Anna Mulvasey, with orchestra accompaniment. Baskets of flowers, tastily arranged about the hall and unique lighting effects, made the scene a very pretty one.

FLLOUR DOWN. Minneapolis-The first break in the flour market here since the latter part of February occurred today, when standard flour declined fifty cents a barrel to $11.75. Since February 21st, when flour sold for $13.25 a barrel in 98 lb. cotton sacks in carload lots, it has made steady increases of from twenty-five to fifty cents a barrel. A quiet flour market with weaker wheat prices is responsible for today's decreased prices.

This legislation has been urged by railroad managers, executives and members of the interstate commerce committee and Chairman Cummins, said that aid can be had by action of Congress by their amending the act and offering it as a "rider" to the sundry civil bill.

HOPELESS DISEASES CAN NOT BE CURED BY DOCTORS OR MEDICINE

There are some diseases which are absolutely hopeless and past cure by any physician or medicine, but they may be palliated and a medicine, if it does not help in one case, may help in another. To anyone suffering from a disease a recommendation is a degree of health and a medicine that relieves or palliates a disease is of great benefit. We can not guarantee to cure any disease with Number 49 For The Blood, but we quote a word for word what the ingredients in 49 are recommended for in the U. S. Dispensatory and New American Materia Medica: "In the treatment of blood troubles an acknowledged remedy among all schools of physicians, removes the cause of disease, stimulates the removal of waste, thus indirectly encouraging nutrition. Disorders of the nervous system demand this remedy, such as neuralgia, chronic rheumatism, zony conditions, auto-intoxication, constipation. Used with phenolphthalein in eczema and skin diseases, lumbago, glandular swellings, ulcerations of mucous membranes and in general disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and spleen." Prepared by J. C. Henderson, Escanaba, Mich. 40 years a druggist. W. S. King, 302 E. 4th St., Pueblo, Col., makes the following statement: "I suffered for a number of years with kidney trouble, sciatic rheumatism and constipation. Tried numerous remedies with little or no benefit. I was induced to try Number 49 For The Blood. I found it well benedicted from the start, and after taking six bottles received such wonderful and satisfactory results, I am proud to make this statement." Witness my signature, Edward King, druggist.

TURKISH TREATY IS MADE PUBLIC

LARGE AREAS ARE AWARDED TO GREECE FOR PRESENT WITH PLEBISCITE LATER

Washington, D. C.—Permanent occupation of Constantinople left under the sovereignty of the Sultan supported by a small force of allied troops, is provided in the treaty handed today to Turkish representatives at Paris. An official summary of the treaty was received in Washington. A similar international guard is provided for the strait as a guarantee of free passage through the Dardanelles and the Sea of Marmora to ships of all nations.

An international commission of control at Constantinople will supervise execution of the treaty and with the aid of international troops enforce the terms.

Although President Wilson suggested that part of northern Thrace be given to Bulgaria, Thrace in its entirety is supplied Greece. Smyrna and the Hinterland is given Greece under limited sovereignty. Greece must formulate with the league of nations plans for the control of the territory and after two years the population will decide by vote whether the arrangement shall be continued or whether the territory shall be annexed to Greece.

Both France and Italy relinquish claims to the mandatory powers over Cilicia and Albania, reserving only special economic privileges. The boundaries of Mesopotamia and Palestine, mandates over which are awarded to Great Britain and Syria, need similarity to France, are left to be determined by a special commission.

The Armenian settlement is left over for future negotiation and decision.

No mention of Russia in the summary set the precise status of the interallied commission of control in its relation to the league of nations is clearly defined.

A SQUARE DEAL IN POTATOES

In Pittsburg recently, as elsewhere, there was an acute shortage of potatoes. All the produce dealers but one immediately hoisted prices to the favorite points of "all the traffic will stand." The one acted in a directly opposite manner. He announced that he would sell the several carloads of spuds he had on hand direct to consumers at net cost to himself. He did, and the process opened the eyes of the customers as to the usual toll between production and retailer.

Now that Pittsburg dealer has the approbation of the public and of the press. He is as prominent in his own city as the president is in Washington. It is possible for him to sell everything he can buy and handle direct to the consumer at a small margin of profit but in great quantities, as to make much more money than he did before, and at the same time do his community a genuine service.

There is a little lesson for all of us who are in business. It is that the man who sells at a close margin as possible during scarcity or extreme high prices, who gives the public the benefit of favorable purchases of stock on hand is the man who establishes himself as the exponent of the square deal and will assuredly reap his reward in confidence and in increased volume of business as conditions swing back to normal.

The best way to discourage divorce would be to make it unabolishable.

Don't hear much about coming-out parties any more, probably because people are afraid to allow girls to come out any more than most of them already are.

In Tuesday's issue of the Escanaba Morning Press, the Gladstone strikers claim that Newberry, Mich., is closed down solid—all men out.

This is absolutely untrue. The Wm. Horner Flooring Company are running and have been running since the strike went in effect—a full crew on ten hours a day. Out of 125 men employed by this concern, only 15 struck and they were quickly replaced.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Hidden Chamber.

Simon turned just in time. The wheel went crashing to the floor and rebounded out of the room and along the little hall. Philippe jumped in terror from the place where he crouched—

And then the last strand broke and I was free to slip the cords from my limbs.

"You old fool!" screamed Leroux, catching Duchaine by the wrists. But Charles Duchaine possessed the strength of a man. He grasped Leroux round the waist and clung to him and would not be shaken off.

"Kill him!" he screamed. "He is a spy! He has come to betray me to the government!"

What followed was the work of a moment. I saw Jacqueline pull down both breadboards from the wall. She flung them down beside me just as I was staggering to my feet.

Leroux shook off the old man at last. He turned on me. I saw the sword shift and brought it down upon his skull.

Heaven knows I struck to kill; but my wrist was feeble from the ropes.

I struck to kill.

and the blade fell flat. It drew no blood, but Leroux dropped like a stricken man upon the floor.

"This way!" gasped the old man. He pulled at Jacqueline's arm, and half led and half dragged her through the open door behind his chair. I following. Leroux spring into the room, calling, but whether to us or to the other ruffians I did not know. Leroux sat up and looked about him, dazed and bewildered.

"Then I was in the little room with Jacqueline and Duchaine, and he ransacked and bolted the door behind us. The woman possessed of all the strength and decision of youth again. When I stood there before the room had been as dark as pitch, but now a flicker of light was at the far end of a voice cried:

"M'sieur! M'sieur! I have not forgotten!"

It was Pierre Caribou. I saw his figure silhouetted against the light of the fading candle which he held in his hand.

Duchaine had placed one arm about his daughter's waist and was urging her along. But she stopped and looked back to me. I saw she held one breadboard in her hand, as if she had held Louis d'Espérance.

And how could I deny this, when to so would be to bring to her mind the memory of her own dreadful guilt?

The hours were away, and we three lay there, two waiting and one dreaming of the old days of youth, no doubt, tried to light the candle to see the time, but my shaking hand sent it flying across the cave, and when I searched for my matches I found that the box was empty.

It seemed an eternity since we had come there. It is one thing to wait for dawn, and quite another thing to wait where dawn will never come.

I resolved to follow the exit for a little distance to see whether it led, and if I could discover the light of day.

So I took my sword and sallied out through the passage in the cliff.

What followed was the work of a moment. I saw Jacqueline pull down both breadboards from the wall. She flung them down beside me just as I was staggering to my feet.

Leroux shook off the old man at last. He turned on me. I saw the sword shift and brought it down upon his skull. Heaven knows I struck to kill; but my wrist was feeble from the ropes.

I struck to kill. and the blade fell flat. It drew no blood, but Leroux dropped like a stricken man upon the floor. "This way!" gasped the old man. He pulled at Jacqueline's arm, and half led and half dragged her through the open door behind his chair. I following.

Leroux spring into the room, calling, but whether to us or to the other ruffians I did not know. Leroux sat up and looked about him, dazed and bewildered. "Then I was in the little room with Jacqueline and Duchaine, and he ransacked and bolted the door behind us. The woman possessed of all the strength and decision of youth again. When I stood there before the room had been as dark as pitch, but now a flicker of light was at the far end of a voice cried: "M'sieur! M'sieur! I have not forgotten!"

"Come soon. His diable tell me," answered Pierre Caribou. "I go now," he announced. "Tomorrow I come for you, take all through turned. You stay here till I come; all sleep till morning."

"I will go with you, Pierre," I said, still under my obsession. But he laid his heavy hand upon my arm and pushed me away. "You to kill Simon," he answered. "Why you no kill him again when you have sword? Only diable can kill him. When time come diable tell old Caribou. You sleep now. I go for take my woman and gal safe through tunnel of place I know. When my woman and gal safe I come back to m'sieur and m'm'selle."

I lay down. The silence was intolerable and I dozed, roused less by the occasional cries of the old man and the drip, drip of water. I could not get anything, and Jacqueline might have been a woman of stone, for she made not the least movement.

At last I spoke to her. "Jacqueline!" "I heard her start, and knew that she had raised her head and was looking after me. I crawled toward her, dragging my blanket after me. I felt in the darkness for the place where I knew her hand must be and took it in mine.

"Jacqueline!" I said again. "Ah, M. Hewlett!"—the wretchedness in her voice went to my heart—"it might have been so different—if—" "If what, Jacqueline?" "If there had not been the blood of a dead man between us," she moaned. "If you—had not—killed him!"

Her words were a revelation to me, for I learned that she had mercifully been spared the full remembrance of what had happened in the Tooth street apartment. She thought that it was I who had killed Louis d'Espérance.

And how could I deny this, when to so would be to bring to her mind the memory of her own dreadful guilt? The hours were away, and we three lay there, two waiting and one dreaming of the old days of youth, no doubt, tried to light the candle to see the time, but my shaking hand sent it flying across the cave, and when I searched for my matches I found that the box was empty.

It seemed an eternity since we had come there. It is one thing to wait for dawn, and quite another thing to wait where dawn will never come. I resolved to follow the exit for a little distance to see whether it led, and if I could discover the light of day.

So I took my sword and sallied out through the passage in the cliff. Continued Next Monday

MINIMUM WAGE FOR FAMILY OF FIVE

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES' REPRESENTATIVE SAYS $2,500 IS NEEDED A YEAR.

Washington, D. C.—A minimum of $2,500 a year is necessary for an American family of five, W. J. Louck, consulting economist for the railroad brotherhoods, asserts before the railroad labor board. Mr. Louck, who charged corporate profiteers with being chiefly responsible for living costs, presented today a demand on behalf of the 2,500,000 railroad employees for a minimum wage. He presented a compilation of budgets on the cost of living based on studies made under his supervision and by federal and state agents. His estimate of $2,500 a year for five, he said, was supported by government agencies and he quoted the estimate made by Prof. Royal S. Meeker, commissioner of labor statistics in August, 1924. The estimate then was $2,282. The estimate for May, 1926, he insisted should be $2,523. Mr. Louck declared that "the fundamental cause of all economic instability and industrial unrest, all interruptions in production and distribution, has been high prices and profiteering by organized capital and middlemen and retailers."

NEWS OF THE MOVIES

Viagraph's latest Larry Simon comedy officially proclaims a restaurant as the greatest fun factory in the world. The comedy is entitled "The Head Waiter." It is scheduled as the attraction to be seen at the Gladstone Theatre on Saturday and Sunday.

A fashionable restaurant, in which a gorgeous cabaret show is one of the attractions serves as the setting. Larry, who plays the role of a pommies in order who seeks to eat his fill and then sign a worthless check, and later takes the job of head waiter when the tray handlers go on strike, converts the place into a fun factory.

In the midst of glancing napery, glistening silverware, and wonderfully gowned women, rough-house as well as delicate comedy, are manufactured throughout 2,000 feet of film.

Viagraph's advance report on this picture declare that it has exhausted the comedy possibilities of a dining place, and has proved that spaghetti and girls are "props" for the finest stuff, and that a restaurant is the funniest setting in the world.

BASEBALL LEAGUE IN CLOVERLAND

REPRESENTATIVES OF SEVEN U. P. CITIES MET IN ESCANABA LAST NIGHT

Marquette, May 12—With the status of Negaunee and Munising, uncertain plans for an eight-team baseball league were made last night at a meeting of managers from Marquette, Escanaba, Ishpeming, Gladstone, Negaunee, Iron Mountain and Niagara.

It was decided in the event Negaunee and Munising do not come in, to make the league a six-team affair.

Munising was not represented at the meeting, while Negaunee has not yet formed a team. Baseball promoters of the mining city will meet Saturday night to decide what steps shall be taken while Munising will be formerly invited to enter.

The league will be amateur in every respect. It was agreed, with provisions made against the importation of high-salaried players, the lessons taught by the career of the Marquette Delta county, Michigan, baseball team.

Child Has Narrow Escape

Dora Hushon, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hushon of Kipling, narrowly escaped death yesterday morning when she fell out of an automobile at the corner of Ninth and Delta. The door of the car, in which the child was riding, was not tightly closed, and when the party made the turn, the little girl fell out on the road. Directly in back of them came L. J. Smith's auto. Mr. Smith saw what had happened, and in an instant turned the other way so that he did not touch the little child.

The child was taken immediately up to Dr. Mitchell's office, and it was found that she was only slightly bruised by the fall.

Many Men Leave City.
It is estimated that in the neighborhood of 200 men from Gladstone, Escanaba and Wells have left these places to seek employment elsewhere due to the timberworkers' strike, which shows no sign of terminating for the present at least. Most of the men are of course without families, but it is doubtful that once they secure employment into the aperture through which we had passed. In a minute the place was completely sealed, and we four stood and looked breathlessly at one another within what might have been a cenotaph.

The chamber seemed at one time to have been prepared for such a contingency as had occurred, for there were wool rugs on the stone floor, though they had rotted and partly disintegrated from the dampness. "M. Duchaine, be make this place in case government come take him," exclaimed Pierre as he placed the rug. "No can find, no can break down stone door. Other way Simon not know—only m'sieur and me. Old Carlson be come that way; he see you dead and know it time to come here. Soon time to kill Simon come as well." "When, in heaven's name, will it come?" I cried.

WATERWAY MEET BRINGS OUT VALUABLE INFORMATION FOR U. P. SHIPPERS.

Marquette, May 11.—That there is a pressing demand for a deep water route from the Great Lakes to the Atlantic because railroad transportation is far from being adequate to meet the demands of general commerce from the middle west to the coast, that a deep water channel to the sea would bring a tremendous industrial stimulation in the upper peninsula, was the substance of arguments presented yesterday to members of the international joint commission who held hearings in the city.

THE RIGHT ONCE WITH CEDAR SHINGLES
and your roofing troubles for good

all on the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway project.
Probably the most significant features of the hearings were the marked enthusiasm shown by the one hundred or more prominent men of Cleveland who came here to tell the commissioners why they want the lakes to ocean channel, and the clear-cut and impressive manner in which the arguments were laid before the gentlemen with whom will rest the responsibility of recommending what action should be taken by the United States and Canada on the project in question.
If the hearing did nothing else it convinced the commissioners that the people of the upper peninsula are keenly interested in the project and sincerely believe that it should be undertaken. It also convinced them by the manner in which the case was presented, that some serious work has been done in gathering facts and figures to prove general contentions brought forward as essential reasons why the project is needed.
Big Volume of Testimony.
Nearly forty men, representing every phase of industry in the peninsula, took part in the presentation of the arguments. E. A. MacDonnell, of this city, directed the program, calling upon men who gave information relative to the various industries and interests that would be affected by a St. Lawrence river canal.
The hearing was opened by chief remarks from Obidiah Gardner and the Hon. Henry Powell, members of the commission. They outlined the purpose of the hearing and cautioned their audience that they wanted only the presentation of facts having direct bearing upon the project, and that "oratorical fireworks" were not desired.
