PROMINENT LOCAL MAN ARRESTED BY FEDERAL OFFICERS SATURDAY

Many Other Delta County Men Caught in the Net

That Ed Dohman and Frank Meyers who were arrested Saturday morning by prohibition agents following the discovery and seizure of a still are generally "bad men" is the assertion of Leo J. Grove. The still was discovered "thirty miles from nowhere" the agents say. The men's shack was located in a pine clearing near Uno in Delta county. Provisions were found cached around it. Two miles from the shack on the bank of a stream which flows through an aspen swamp the still was located. It consisted of an ash boiler heater and a large condenser. Several half gallon cans of syrup and a quantity of corn meal were seized. The still was without shelter of any kind and was located only in a small clearing where the underbrush had been cut away, and approached by a nearly hidden path. The agents claim that this "plant" has been doing one of the largest businesses of any prohibitionists in the county.

But they say Messrs. Dohman and Meyers did not confine their illegal activities to moonshining. Several deer legs, over 100 fish, several hens, headlamps were also found in the neighborhood. The headlamp was seized and turned over the same wardens. Five other cases constituted the weekend-end job. J. E. Pilon at Duke's Sliding, seized the Oakland touring car of Oscar Morganheim, in which he found two bottles of moonshine and brought Morganheim, car, and moonshine to Marquette, where the alleged moonshiner is in jail. According to Morganheim, he was in a hall at Duke's Sliding, when he heard the engine of his car started. Rushing out, he asked Pilon what right he had to tamper with the car. "Is this your car," the agent asked Morganheim asserted affirmatively. "You're under arrest," was the answer.

Frank Marshall was arrested at Midway camp on the county road, Alger county, on a similar charge. Andrew Erickson, who operates a "soft" drink parlor at Rapid River, was arrested after a bottle partially filled with moonshine had been found under the counter in more than one part of the building. The guarded house at Escanaba, was also raided, and several practically empty bottles, still containing a little moonshine, were found.

Gladstone Man "Victims".

Soren Johnson, member of the county road commission and former supervisor of Delta county, was the other "victim." In his "soft drink" parlor in this city was found a choice assortment of alcoholic drinks ranging from moonshine to creme de menthe.

TWO WOMEN ARE ASSAULTED BY MEN

One of the most brutally and cowardly assaults ever committed in Escanaba took place close onto 3 o'clock Sunday morning at the Roberts house across from the Northwestern general offices, when two unidentified, young men attacked and beat Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Oscar Marsh, who live on the second floor of the Roberts building.

According to an account of the husband, as related by one of the women this morning, a rap was heard at the door of the Roberts part of the house just as they were believing the persons had the wrong place and were leaving.

The door was kicked in the women declared, and when she appeared in the front hall, it was attacked by one of the men whom it is now believed was in quest of a disorderly house, but was mistaken.

Mrs. Roberts screamed for assistance and Mrs. Marsh hearing her cries came from upstairs to learn of the trouble. When she arrived on the scene one of the men grabbed her and threw her to the floor.

By that time Mr. Marsh had started down the stairs and as he stepped into the room, the second man of the party struck him over the head with a stove poker, the blow sending him to the floor.

Believing they had committed an assault more serious and fearing of being worse than by, the two men made a hasty retreat and have not been seen since.

All three of the assault victims were badly bruised in the neck and suffered pains from their injuries. Nothing has been heard of the cowardly intruders since.

LOCAL YOUNG MAN TO MANAGE STORE PIONEER CITIZEN OF THIS CITY PASSES AWAY

Carl Jacobson of this city, who for some time has managed the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. at Ironwood, has now taken charge of the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. of this city. Mr. Anderson, who was former manager has also been transferred.

Mr. Jacobson while at Ironwood was a huge success, due to his own experience in that line of work, and it is sure will mean a boost to the store of this city.

NEARLY KILLED BY SMALL BOY

Dein Dabney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dabney 602 Yonkers ave. had a narrow escape from death Monday when a shot gun went off bearing a large hole in the side of the barn just six inches above his head.

Mr. Dabney had just entered the barn when there was a deafening report and a splintering of boards. Looking up he saw an eight inch hole which had been torn in the barn.

The boy, nine year old George Dabney, was standing behind the smoking gun in his hands, quite speechless with surprise when Mr. Dabney rushed out.

It seems that the Dabney boy some companions had gotten hold of a shot gun and had loaded it with some heavy buckshot. With the aid of another boy he managed to pull the trigger simply to hear the report not realizing the dangerous nature of the pastime. They pointed the gun toward the barn, but never got aware that anyone was in the inside.

Chief Danielson was called, and after disposing of the shot gun warned the boys' parents not to let them play with live arms.

M. J. GLEASON DIES IN DETROIT AFTER GRIEVING OVER DEATH OF DAUGHTER

Less than two weeks after his daughter Florence, Michael J. Gleason, and old resident of this city, passed away at his home in Detroit, according to telegrams received by friends yesterday.

Mr. Gleason's death was caused by the burdens of life alone.

His death has caused deep sorrow among his many friends here, and great is the sympathy for his wife and daughter Vivian who was left to bear the burdens of life alone.

From time on, although physically well, he lost his vitality until the end came. Physically he was unable to render any aid, and declared it a very strange case.

Mr. J. Gleason resided in this city about twenty-two years, conducting the Gladstone Steam Laundry. Last fall he and his family moved to Detroit, where he managed a branch of the Murray Motor Co. He was fifty-four years old.

Mr. Gleason was a member of the Knights of Columbus of Escanaba, the Catholic Order of Foresters, the Macabees, and the Brotherhood of railway trainmen of this city, having formerly been a railroad man.

The funeral will probably take place in Detroit, as relatives of the family reside there.

GLADSTONE WOMAN'S FATHER DIES SUNDAY

Word has been received by friends in this city of the death of Cornelius Lynch, Sunday at his home in Republic, Michigan. Mr. Lynch was the father of Mrs. Dan McCarthy, a former resident of this city now residing in Marquette. The deceased was 80 years of age and death was due to complications arising from influenza.

Mr. Lynch was well known in Gladstone and Escanaba. Funeral services were held in Republic yesterday morning.

12.75 RAILROAD FARE TO CHICAGO

After today it will cost people who want to travel to Chicago $12.75 instead of $6.83 according to Northwestern officials this morning in making announcements of the increased passenger rates which will go into effect on that day under order of the railway executives who were authorized to set such a matter by the interstate commerce commission.

The increase of $12 from Escanaba to Chicago is made on a basis of twenty per cent advancement to aid in meeting the back and advance pay for the millions of railroad men of the country.

Pullman cars, parlor cars and day coaches all have been increased. The shipping rates on milk and butter likewise have undergone an increase to meet the $50,000,000 increase granted by the Railway Board at its recent award made public a few weeks ago.

The complete fare increase and freight rate schedule will be made public by the companies within a few days it was stated.

Oh! Shucks! Can't They Let A Fellow Alone Any More

Something always taking the joy out of life for a boy who is not particular about his school.

This year has "something" in a new law that provides for vocational and general education for employed and other persons under eighteen years of age who have ceased to attend school.

The law requires that every school district containing fifty or more children subject to the provisions of the law shall, and any other school district, establish and maintain such vocational or general instruction.

Period of Study Specified.

The continuation of schools are to be in session at least as many weeks each year as common schools of the district in which they are located. The law requires that every minor of the district under eighteen years of age who has ceased to attend on all day school, and who has not completed a four-year school course or its equivalent, shall attend the vocational instruction unless exempt.

The act does not apply to employed children who have reached the age of sixteen years prior to September 1, this year. Required attendance in the new schools is at the rate of no less than eight hours per week and must be between the hours of 8 o'clock in the morning and 5:30 in the afternoon and one week day except that it may not be held on Saturday afternoon.

Counts On Working Hours.

The time spent in a part-time vocational or general instruction school by a minor shall be reckoned as part of the time or number of hours that the minor is permitted by law to work.

Minor students under seventeen years old leaving regular day schools to enter employment and employers of such minors, will be subjected to the same restrictions as to permit to work that are provided by law for children under sixteen years of age.

Minor students under seventeen years old leaving regular day schools to enter employment may order the employer to discontinue employing the boy or girl in question. Employers who fail to comply with such orders are liable to a fine.

BRAMPTON BABY PRINCIPAL IN NARROW ESCAPE

TWO YEAR OLD FALLS DOWN IN DEEP WELL AND ESCAPES IN JURY—HANGS TO LADDER

Falling into an open well 22 feet in depth and landing in six feet of water and escaping without drowning or even so much as a bruise was the experience of little two-year-old Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Larson of Brampton last Sunday.

Mr. Larson had been fixing the pump and had the cover of the well off. He left it in this condition for a matter of a few hours when a number of the children of the neighborhood were playing in the vicinity. In some manner unknown to the parents the little fellow fell into the opening. Ordinarily he would have drowned but it happened that when Mr. Larson was fixing the well he had laid a ladder to lower himself to the bottom and when he had finished the work it was too much of a task to remove the ladder unaided and he left it there until such time as he could secure the help of the neighbors, without coming in contact with the ladder nor casing of the well with sufficient force to injure himself, the lad sank and coming to the surface happened to grip one of the rungs of the ladder.

The cries attracted the attention of his mother who was entertaining company and following she ran to the well, went down the ladder and rescued her son.

Neighbors say, knowing the situation, that it is a little sort of miraculous that the boy was neither injured in the fall or drowned.

Many Candidates For Treasurer's Office

For county treasurer there are five candidates looking for the nomination on the republican ticket. Among others we notice the name of Oscar V. Linden, who a few years ago held the office of county clerk. As such he gained a large acquaintance and many friends, always attending to the office in a courteous and creditable manner. He elected County Treasurer if given a large acquaintance and many friends, always attending to the office in a courteous and creditable manner. "Spend and Be Spent"

(From a speech by Theodore Roosevelt in New York, March 30)

The leader for the time being, whoever he may be is an instrument, to be used until broken and then it is worth his salt he will care no more whether the victory was won. In the long fight, watchword for all of us is, spend and be spent, rather than any man fails or succeeds; but, fail, for it is the cause of mankind. We here our hands the hope of the world, the fate of the world, and we shall do as little if we merely set the greed of the arrogant, and thereby destroy the being of all of us.

TO THE ELECTORS OF DELTA COUNTY.

During the weeks which have elapsed since I announced my candidacy for the Republican nomination for the office of county treasurer I have personally solicited the votes of a large number of persons. However, it has been impossible for me to come into personal touch with everybody, and I am taking this way of making earnest solicitation for the support and vote of those whom I have not personally seen, and also to renew my solicitation to those whom I have seen.

It does not seem necessary to tell the people of Delta county anything about myself, but to those who have come into the county in more recent years I will say that I was born in the city of Escanaba. When I was six years of age moved to Bark River township, and I was reared on the farm and worked as a farmer until I was 23 years of age. The following twelve years I worked on the North western Railway and was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. After this I was engaged in the real estate business for several years, and then engaged in the farm implement business, which business I sold two years ago.

I was a member of the Board of Supervisors from the Sixth Ward of Escanaba for three years and resigned when I moved from that Ward. I am at present a member of the Escanaba Board of Education, and have been for the past four years.

It has always been my purpose to be on the square and to use others as I would have me use. I have tried to do my full duty as an American citizen and have given my full measure of support to public enterprise.

I am fully qualified to personally discharge the duties of county treasurer, and it is my nomination and election I pledge myself to be on the job and at the treasurer's office during office hours.

For the past 25 years I have been a taxpayer in Escanaba. It is with a feeling of pride and not egotism that I say that my record as a citizen and as a public officer is above reproach.

May I have your support and your vote?

Yours truly,

CHARLES A. GUNDESHON.

Seld-Lindsay.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Catherine Seld, of North Escanaba and Gordon Lindsay, which took place Friday morning at the Owen home, Newberry, where Mrs. Anton Seld, mother of the bride is a guest. Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served to relatives and close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay have left as a wedding trip to Grand Rapids, Chicago and other points after which they will return to make their home in Escanaba.

To emphasize the fact that whooping cough and measles are diseases which cause the death of their children in the registration area of the United States for 1917 are important. In this area it is that year there were 3,141 deaths from the much dreaded scarlet fever, 7,337 deaths from whooping cough and 10,745 deaths from measles.

Menominee—Tomorrow a fleet of approximately fifteen Menominee motor trucks will leave the factory here for Clintonville. With them will go the last of these trucks which have been built for over eight years in this city. What Menominee trucks are manufactured from now on will be turned out in a new plant at Clintonville. The work of moving out the local machinery and supplies from the local plant has been going on for some time, and today saw the last of it shipped by rail and the remainder loaded onto the trucks, which will make the trip under their own power.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WORKING AT HOME

Production of Sound American Citizenship the First Aim, Says Dr. Farrand.

On the badge of every member of the Junior Red Cross are the words "I Serve." That tells the story of the school children's branch of the American Red Cross and its efforts to bring happiness to children throughout the world.

Realizing that the time never was so propitious as right now for teaching the highest ideals of citizenship, the entire present program of the Junior Red Cross has been framed under the very exclusive phrase, "Training for Citizenship Through Service" for others. Since the Junior Red Cross is the agency through which the American Red Cross reaches the schoolboys and the schoolgirls, all its activities are designed to come within the regular school program, and without creating new courses or increasing the number of studies to lend its aid in vitalizing the work of the schools.

"The thing that is needed," says Dr. Livingston Farrand, Chairman of the American Red Cross Central Committee, "is not a reorganization of the Junior Red Cross, but the training and breeding of sound American citizenship inspired by the true, fundamental ideals of sound democracy. One of the great conceptions in making the Red Cross a contributor to better citizenship in our American democracy is the realization that after all the best hope of any nation is with the children of the country."

The plan of organization of the Junior Red Cross makes the school—public, parochial and private—the unit, not the individual pupils. Mutual service, helpful community work such as clean up campaigns, care of the sick, promotion of health regulations, participation in civic and patriotic movements—all these creative agencies designed to translate into life and action the regular school program are parts of the machinery which the Junior Red Cross places at the disposal of the school authorities.

Graded study courses giving practical methods of civic training, supplemented by pamphlets and helpful suggestions are supplied to the local schools by the Junior Red Cross. An elaborate plan for promoting an interchange of correspondence between children in our American democracy is being planned. Doing so it might prevent any embarrassing mistakes which may result. Names can also be left with John Olson of the State Savings Bank.

In promoting the general cause of child welfare, Red Cross courses in home hygiene and care of the sick, first aid, and dieting may be established in all Junior Red Cross Auxiliaries.

The ideals and the objective of the Junior Red Cross are embodied in the pledge of service which the girl takes when she signs the membership roll and pins on his coat the Junior's badge. The pledge which binds together service as citizenship reads:

"We will seek in all ways to live up to the ideals of the Junior Red Cross and devote ourselves to its service."
"We will strive never to bring discredit to this, our country, by any unworthy act."
"We will reverence and obey our country's laws and our best to inspire a like reverence and obedience in those about us."
"We will endeavor in all these ways, as good citizens to transmit America greater, better and more beautiful than she was transmitted to us."

At the foundation of this school program of the Junior Red Cross is a great love for America's children.

RED CROSS ACTIVE IN DISASTER RELIEF

When disaster hits a community—fire, flood, earthquake, explosion, bad wheat or tornado—the American Red Cross can be depended upon to follow right at its heels with help for the stricken people. Red Cross relief is almost immediately forthcoming—food, clothing, shelter and funds; doctors, nurses and special workers with long experience in handling similar trouble elsewhere.

During the last year, ending June 30, there was an average of four disasters a month in the United States. One hundred and fifty communities in twenty-seven states suffered. The largest and most destructive of these were the tidal wave at Corpus Christi, Texas, and tornadoes in Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

In these events of horror 850 persons were killed, 1,500 were injured, 18,000 were made homeless, about 30,000 families needed help, the property loss was nearly $100,000,000 and almost $1,000,000 in relief funds, not including emergency supplies was expended.

To the sufferers from all disasters during the year, the American Red Cross sent $120,000 worth of supplies, 110 Red Cross nurses and seven special relief trains. To meet the needs of the stricken, the organization set up ten relief stations, operated thirty food canteens and many emergency hospitals. One hundred and twenty-five Red Cross chapters gave disaster relief service.

If disaster ever strikes this town or county, the citizens can be absolutely sure the Red Cross will be right on hand to help them in every way.

PUBLISH BOOKS ON FAIR PRIZES FOR YEAR MEET

Booklets announcing the list of prizes and displays to be given away at the Northern State Fair which will be held in Escanaba September 21-24, were issued Monday having come from the printer late Saturday.

The book contains all the prizes which will be given away for livestock. The book also contains 100 pages, all bound and indexed, making it easy for the farmers to determine what will be held and in what order they will be listed.

From the book it is learned that there will be more and better displays this year than at any fair ever held in this part of the state.

Local dealers seeing the advantage in placing advertising matter in the booklet have filled a large portion of it with valuable reading matter pertaining to merchandise bought and sold in this city.

Other plans for the big fair are going forth in rapid succession and by the time the thousands of people who will come from other parts of the state are here Escanaba will be all dressed up and ready for the annual affair. Some of the best and most novel attractions of the season will be seen in stunts, horse racing and other attractions are booked for the gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brabson and daughter Helen returned to their home in Okobuck after the spending a week visiting with Mrs. Josephine Cole.

Apply For Victory Medal.

Commander E. C. Dayton of the August National Post of the American Legion, requests all the legion men to leave their names with Del Calder or John Olson of the State Savings Bank in order that all will receive their medals on armistice day as planned. Doing so it might prevent any embarrassing mistakes which may result. Names can also be left with John Olson of the State Savings Bank.

Injured at Delta Hotel.

William Hynes an employee of the Delta hotel was carefully injured Saturday evening when he was working at the hotel near the cigar case in the lobby.

According to the attending physician this morning Hynes fell into the glass case breaking the top and inflicting a six inch cut into his right knee. The physician was summoned at once while temporary dressing to stop the flow of blood was made. Mr. Hynes is not able to be about.

TO THE OFFICERS OF DELTA COUNTY

At the meeting of many friends I considered myself a candidate for the office of Treasurer on the Republican ticket. The Primary Election, August 27, is the time I filed my petition. I believe that there was no one else who had any chance of being elected. I am therefore, most earnestly solicited by the people of Delta county to elect me to the office of Treasurer. I promise that I will do my best to serve the people of this county. I am, Sir, very truly,
